WILLAMETTE COLLEGIAN

VOLUME XXVIII. No. 16 — WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY, SALEM, OREGON, FEBRUARY 7, 1917 — PRICE—FIVE CENTS.

POPULAR PIECES WILL APPEAR IN LADIES CONCERT

Genuine Treat in Store for Salem Music Lovers Feb. 13 at Gala Concert

ALBANY INVITES CLUB

Cantata "The Death of Joan of Arc" to Be Featured—Wagner's "Whirl and Twirl" Is Beautiful Song—"The Moths" to Be Given.

A genuine treat is in store for Willamette folk, Tuesday night, February 13, when the Ladies' Glee Club will give their big concert in Waller Hall chapel. The work done at rehearsals of late has been excellent in every way and the entertainment promises to be extremely successful.

The fame of this musical organization has spread to such an extent that they have been asked to repeat the concert schedule February 13 in Albany. The date for the Albany concert will probably be Friday, February 16. It is to be given under the auspices of the First Methodist church of that city. Expenses are guaranteed.

While the quality of the work done is probably the most attractive feature of the program the numbers which the club presents are in themselves popular and appealing.

"Whirl and Twirl," from Wagner's "Flying Dutchman" is one of the most beautiful of spinning songs. The sound of the loom is skillfully reproduced and the theme is skillfully handled. Reflecting the spirit and rhythm of spring, "Welcome, Pretty Primrose" by Pinsute is a delightfully dainty and refreshing number. Another selection which is especially attractive in the four part arrangement is the berues "Sing, Smile and Sleep" by Counod.

"The Moths" by Palicot is difficult to render on account of the fine shading of tone which represents the humming flight of the moth. The ever popular "Barcarolle" or Love Tales of Hoffman by Offenbach is well worked out and it, together with Nevin's lullabye, "Mighty Lak a Rose," promises to be among the best liked numbers.

The cantata, "The Death of Joan of Arc" by Henri Bernberg is unusually beautiful in its chorus work as well as the parts taken by the soloists. The violin and organ obligato add to the perfect rendition of this number.

The personnel of the Ladies Glee Club is as follows: First soprano, Carrie Cooksey, Lola Cooley, Lela McCaddam, Marguerite Wible, Alberta Golden, Ruth Spoor, Grace Sherwood; second soprano, Lucile McCully, Esther Cox, Ruth Winters, Glenna Teeters, Violet Maclean, Aileen Dunbar; first alto, Velma Baker, Caroline Sterling, Maude Maclean, Ventia McKinney; second alto, Pauline Liska, Marie Dunnett, Freda Campbell, Ruth Hodge; accompanist, Hazel Hockensmith; director, Dr. Chace.

WEBS ELECT OFFICERS

King to Occupy President's Chair for Third Quarter.

With the closing of the first semester of school, Websterianism has added another glorious chapter to its famous history. At the last meeting new officers were elected for the third quarter. The new semester is to start off in a whirl of "pep" with Sam R. King located in the official chair. Adolph Spiess, as vice-president, promises some snappy programs, while Errol Proctor and Earl Cotton will play the roles of recording and corresponding secretaries, respectively. Harold Eakin is to act as treasurer and Chapler has been delegated the task of critic. Max Ball had thrust upon him the stupendous responsibility of sergeant-at-arms, this task he will perform by absent treatment.

Foster Priddy was the main attraction on the last program. His subject was "Recent Medical Researches," in which some up to date results were revealed.

The semester just past has been a joyful as well as beneficial one for the Webs. The attendance has been good and the social functions supreme.

You cannot afford to miss the Ladies' Glee concert Tuesday night.

AWARD DAY IS FEB. 22

Athletic and Forensic Warriors to Be Honored.

With the date for the annual Award Day definitely settled for February 22, the "W" club desires to make the event an arousing affair. Groves Gates, general supervisor of the plans, has written to several prominent alumni who have figured in similar events of previous years, among them "Brick" Harrison and Emery Doane, both "W" men and ex student presidents.

Certain disadvantages go with the date selected since it comes on Thursday, but it was impossible to find a week-end that was free. Both the athletic and forencis men will be honored at this time.

CHAPEL CONDUCT TO BE REMEDIED

President Doney in Favor of Student Government for Chapel Decorum

Prof. Hall Opens Student Discussion —Committee Appointed to Formulate Remedies.

With a feeling of surprised interest the students heard and took advantage of President Doney's suggestion that they discuss and take action upon the matter of correct chapel behavior. This subject was introduced at the last chapel service of the semester by Dr. Doney who, after touching briefly upon the difficulty turned the matter over to the student body with President Flegel in the chair.

Perhaps no subject is more widely discussed in university circles than compulsory chapel attendance. But to many students the spirit of unrest manifested during chapel services is a serious disturbance detracting as it does from the solemnity of the devotional service and interfering often with the speeches given from the platform.

In accordance with President Doney's suggestion Dr. Hall opened the discussion. The present indecorum he attributed in part to the frigid temperature of the chapel and the social intercourse. After analyzing carefully the chapel services at Willamette which he compared favorably with those of other institutions he closed by announcing that Dr. Doney had granted the student body the power of self-government in this matter if it so desired.

Feeling that the students were not prepared for definite action, Mr. Cotton moved that a committee be appointed to examine the matter and report or make recommendations to the student body. The debate on this question was spirited and lengthy, some contending that any action should be taken by the faculty and not by the students. Miss Garrison read resolutions drawn up and adopted by the three women's literary societies expressing their determination to better existing conditions and to cultivate an attitude of reverence during the chapel service.

When the vote was called, Mr. Cotton's motion was passed and the chair appointed on the committee, Mr. Gralapp, chairman; Miss Violet Maclean, Miss Lola Cooley, Mr. Cotton and Mr. Attebery.

No further action being deemed advisable until the report of this committee, adjournment followed.

Smith Bros. May Hang Out Shingle at Condon, Oregon

Paul Smith, A. B., LL. B., 1916, left two weeks ago for Condon, Or., where he and his brother, Ray, contemplate opening a branch law office. No definite steps will be taken until Paul Smith has made a thorough study of conditions there and ascertain whether or not the venture would likely be profitable. Smith Bros.' local office is situated in the Bank of Commerce building.

ADA ROSS TO TEACH AT AMITY.

Miss Ada Ross, '16, who taught in the Lexington high school the first semester resigned her position to accept employment in the Amity high school. Miss Laura Ross, '16, has been with the Amity school since the first of the year.

E. Kinney Miller, graduate of liberal arts in 1905, is the Y. M. C. A. secretary at Tucson, Arizona. He is the leader there in the training of fearless manly men.

DUAL DEBATE IS NEXT SATURDAY

Conley and Randall Go to Forest Grove; Spiess and Paulus Debate Here

Negative Team Visits—Judges Not Chosen Yet—20 Minutes Given Each Man—Chapel to Be Used.

Another opportunity for a contest with Pacific University offers itself to Willamette on Saturday evening, February 10, in the form of a debate.

At that time the teams of the two institutions will clash both in Salem and Forest Grove. Remembering Pacific's double defeat of last year, every Willamette student will be deeply interested in this coming event.

The subject to be debated is, "Resolved, that a literacy test equally restrictive to House Bill 6060 is the best method of regulating European immigration. This is of special interest at the present time because the national House and Senate passed the bill over the president's veto.

The affirmative team which will meet the P. U. negative team in the chapel in Waller Hall at 8 o'clock next Saturday evening is composed of Adolph Spiess and Otto K. Paulus; Willamette's negative, Bryan Conley and Charles Randall go to Pacific.

The debaters are allowed 20 minutes each for their speeches, the negative team five minutes for rebuttal and for the affirmative's rebuttal, 10 minutes.

The men have all had considerable experience in high school debating while Spiess was a member of the team which "pulverized Pacific" last year. Each one is working hard for a complete victory.

Officials for the debate have not as yet been selected. Manager Gralapp went to Portland last week to select judges from a list submitted by the Pacific manager, but was unable to secure their services for the evening. In all probability judges will be drawn from the legislature.

$33,000 IS GIFT TO WILLAMETTE

Willamette as Residuary Legatee Is Remembered by Late Dr. A. E. Eaton

His Estate Valued at $200,000—Half Is Willed to the Widow, Mrs. Eaton—No Strings to Gift.

Upon reading of the will of Dr. A. E. Eaton and the appraisement of his estate it has been announced that Willamette will receive approximately $33,000 as the residuary legatee of the estate.

Dr. Eaton's property, real and personal, amounted to about $200,000 of which the widow, Mrs. Mary Eaton, receives half. Various bequests to relatives and friends are made in the will and the remainder of the estate when these have been paid is given to Willamette. This gift is made with no reservations or directions as to the way in which it shall be used.

Hearts loyal to Willamette will again feel gratitude to the generous old man who has done so much for the university.

WEIST TO PRACTICE LAW

Law College Student Begins Legal Profesttion.

Mr. William Weist, who was admitted to the bar upon the completion of his junior year in the law school last spring, has taken up the practice of law in the office of Grant Corby, a well-known local attorney. Mr. Weist is also attending the senior classes this year in order to get a degree from the law school. For several years he acted as private secretary to Chief Justice Moore, and believes this experience will prove valuable to his practice.

Platform Class to Give Program in March.

The Platform class of the Oratory Department is preparing to give a recital soon. Mrs. Senn says it will be a most interesting progarm. This recital will probably be held in Waller Hall sometime in March.

DEAN ALDEN VISITS MONMOUTH

Speaks Before Student Body at the Chapel Hour.

Dean George H. Alden visited Monmouth last Friday spending the whole day at the Normal school. In the morning he spoke at the chapel exercise for about half an hour to the assembled student body of 400 women and 40 men. He was entertained for dinner by President Ackerman and the rest of the time he was most royally welcomed into the realm of feminity at the girls' dormitory. Paul Brown, one of last year's crack athletes, was discovered by Dean Alden enthraled as one of the 40 young men.

BALL CONCLUDES COLLEGE CAREER

Ex-Editor of the Willamette Collegian Is Only Mid-Year Graduate

College Career of Four and a Half Years Is Unique — Was Newspaper Worker—Majored English.

With the reputation of being one of the live wires of the institution, Maxwell E. Ball was the sole graduate at "Old Willamette," the close of the first semester. No baccalaureate sermon was preached, or commencement exercises were held in honor of the occasion; he will receive his "Sheepskin" in absentia.

Thus culminates four and a half years of college life, the like of which few students can approach. Mr. Ball entered Willamette with the class of 1916, but last spring lacked four credits of the graduation requirement. This was due to his work as editor-in-chief of the Collegian last year, the duties of which he devoted the greater part of his time. In this task too much praise cannot be accorded him as his editorial ability made it possible to double the size of the publication. This was done without the aid of a trained staff. During the semester just closed his help both in work and suggestions were invaluable to the present editor. In his reportiorial work on the Capital Journal and the Portland dailies, life at Willamette was heralded to Oregon citizens. He is not only a newspaper enthusiast, but results have proven him capable of handling trying situations. In writing his grammatical accuracy and choice of words make his productions entertaining and helpful.

MAXWELL E. BALL
Who Was Graduated at the Close of First Semester.

As a member of the Websterian society he was a positive factor in the organization, in appreciation of which he was honored with the presidency as well as a majority of the minor offices. During his term as vice-president some of the best programs were arranged. As a practical joker both faculty and students bowed to his ingenuity.

In class spirit he was never at a loss to show his loyalty, although his 125 pounds was never in the annual frosh-soph football game, he was always on deck at any other fracas.

Mr. Ball majored in the department of English Literature, in which he was equalled by few students. At present he is at his home, 353 East Seventh street, Portland.

Faculty to Entertain Students.

There will be a Faculty Reception to the students, February 17. Every student is expected to be present—or if necessary send a written excuse.

RAYMOND ROBINS HERE IN MARCH

Will Give Series of Special Lectures to Varsity Men; Under Y. M. Auspices

Was Chairman of Progressive National Committee, and Candidate for U. S. Senator in 1914.

At a special meeting of the university men, prior to examination week, it was decided to accept Raymond Robins' proposition to give a series of lectures here, March 12, 13, and 14. There will be no social events during his stay that the student body may hear his lectures. He comes under the auspices of the varsity Y. M. C. A.

Raymond Robbins is a businessman, financier, political leader, and college lecturer of exceptional note. Most of his work among the colleges has been confined to the East; this being his first western tour for college work only. In public life Mr. Robins' fame has spread as chairman of the Progressive national convention of 1912. He was also chairman of the state central committee of the Progressive party in Illinois in 1913 and was a candidate, with the Progressive party, for United States senator in 1914. He was superintendent of the Chicago municipal lodging house from 1902 to 1905 and conducted a world tour of The Men and Religion Forward movement campaign in 1913. During the fall campaign he was a member of the famous Hughes' special.

Willamette is the smallest institution that will be benefitted by his services. During the chapel hour he will lecture to the whole student body while the evening addresses will be to men only. Men not connected with the university will be welcomed at the evening meetings.

The women of the university truly appreciate the beautiful plant that Miss Tobie gave to the rest room. It adds a note of cheer and "hominess" to the Y. W. room.

DR. DONEY GIVES S. H. S. ADDRESS

Local High School Graduates 27 at Close of Semester Exercises Held Friday

Necessity of Work, President Doney's Theme—Miss Genevieve Yannke Receives Staatsverein Medal.

Salem high school's mid-year graduating class had their final exercises Friday evening, February second. The high school auditorium was packed to the doors and many people were turned away.

President Carl Gregg Doney gave the address, his subject being "The Making of the Man." The necessity for work was the keynote of his remarks. "Be big enough to say 'I am a toiler,' for the sake of your fellow men and your God. Work is the secret of well being, it is the cause of civilization. Young people to experience the best things of life, to be content, and strong, must work. We are given brains to work them. All men worship. It is not an easy thing to worship righteously. When a man really prays he binds himself to the infinite."

Rev. G. F. Holt gave the invocation and Rev. H. N. Aldrich the benediction. Principal J. C. Nelson made the class presentation and A. A. Lee presented the diplomas.

Under the direction of Minnetta Magers several musical numbers were given by the high school chorus. William Harris and Archie Smith sang solos. Miss Ruth Bedford was at the piano and Miss Lillian Stege accompanied one of the chorus numbers with a violin obligato.

This was the largest mid-year class the high school has had. It is composed of twenty-two girls and five boys. The medal from the Oregon German Staatsverein was awarded to Miss Genevieve Yannke. Miss Metta Walker will enter Willamette University as a sub-freshman this semester.

Lewis A. Kent, M. D., '80, is at 146 E. 17th, Portland.

How about taking in the Glee Club concert Tuesday?

PROF. HALL AIDS SOLONS

Helps to Draw Up Joint Resolution Number Two.

Besides the delivery of a short address before the State Federation of Labor, at their annual convention here week ago last, and work with various committees, Prof. John O. Hall has also spent much time on joint resolution No. 2. This provides for a constitutional amendment by which the state would be enabled to secure employment on farm colonies to those who are involuntarily unemployed.

Dr. Hall is not only a student of this question from the American standpoint, but is thoroughly acquainted with the different systems in vogue in Europe.

FRESHMAN GLEE CHALLENGE READ

Annual Event to be Staged in April; Freshman Committees Appointed

Glee Club Tour and State Oratorical Contest Interfere With Date Provided Last Year.

With all the enthusiasm characteristic of the class of 1920, the frosh have organized their work on the annual Freshman Glee.

The challenge to the other classes was read in the student body meeting Friday, January 26, and was met with aplause by the student body.

Ed Rauch, the manager of the Glee, has appointed his committees and has many original plans under way for working out something altogether new in the way of special features.

Because of the oratorical contest and Glee Club trip, the day for the Glee was postponed until the first open date after the Men's Glee Club tour. This will put the Glee contest about the middle of April. This is unfortunate on account of the preparation for the May Festival which will be in progress at that time, but it was the only possible plan, as the latest date which could be secured before the trip would be in three weeks.

The Glee will be held in the armory this year as both the chapel and the First Methodist church have proved inadequate to accommodate crowds which are attracted by this affair.

Committees are being chosen by the chairmen of various departments of work which have been appointed as follows: Ed Rauch, chairman; Victor Taylor, finance; Velma Baker, pennant; Fabian Rosche, decoration; Ethel McGilchrist, words and music for freshman song; Odell Savage, program; Paul Doney, judges. There will also be an interclass committee composed of one member from each class to finally choose the judges.

The extension of time for preparation insures better results, and this year's Glee will, no doubt, be the greatest in the history of Willamette.

HEAR JUDGE G. D. ALDEN

Will Give Lecture "Powder and the Match" Tomorrow.

Judge George D. Alden will give his new lecture, "Powder and the Match" at the armory tomorrow night. This is the third number on the season's Lyceum course.

Those who heard Judge Alden last year claim that his was the best attraction offered during the season. In view of developments in the world crisis since then, he pomises to bring something bigger and better than ever.

ANTHOLOGY IS PLANNED

Stratford Company of Boston to Publish Best College Verse.

The Stratford company of Boston, Mass., is preparing for publication an anthology of the best poetry written by American students during the present academic year (1916-17). This anthology, which will be uniform with their production for 1915-16, will have an introduction by William Braithwaite, poetry editor of the Boston Transcript. All students of poetical talents who wish to submit poems for possible inclusion in this work are requested to send their manuscripts to Henry T. Schnittkind, Ph. D. of the editorial department of the Stratford company, publishers, Boston, Mass., not later than May 15.

35 CONCERTS SCHEDULED FOR GLEE CLUB TRIP

Varsity Warblers to Invade Eastern Oregon, Washington, and Idaho

TOUR TO TAKE SIX WEEKS

Substantial Contracts Signed—Private Car to Be Used—Mrs. E. C. Richards to Act As Official Chaperon—Start March 5.

With the idea of making the most extensive Glee Club trip, of any university a brilliant success, the varsity warblers will start about the 5th of March for a 2000 mile tour of Eastern Oregon and Washington, and Idaho.

Upon the return of Manager Laban Steeves, from a four weeks' advance trip, he reports that 35 steel-ribbed contracts, supported by substancial guarantees, have been signed for as many concerts. In nearly all cases the club will appear under the auspices of the local high schools or commercial clubs. As outlined the tour will consume a period of six weeks, starting a week before the spring vacation and culminating about April 16. At a recent faculty meeting official permission was given the men to consume this period, provided that certain scholastic standards be maintained.

The management has arranged for a special car, in which the group will live while en route. Chef, porter, and conductor will be furnished with the car, and some real "Road Show" experiences are expected. This mode of travel was also an attractive feature to those with whom the manager signed contracts, as it forms a distinct advertising feature.

Miss Hockensmith Is Accompanist.

Mrs. E. C. Richards, wife of the secretary of education, will accompany the club as official chaperon. Miss Hazel Hockensmith, accompanist, and Mrs. Laban Steeves are also booked for the trip. Dr. Chace, the director, will be with the club only the first part of the tour, as his duties at the College of Music make it impossible for him to be absent for so long a time.

Assistant Managers Appointed.

To make sure that nothing will go amiss, Steeves has appointed three assistant managers. James Ewing will see that the special car is bedecked with cardinal and gold. Gus Anderson will have charge of a host of Willamette pennants, pillow tops, blankets, sweaters, etc., with which he will properly garb the stage before each appearance. Alpheus Gillette has the fatherly position of arranging for the regular meals.

Dates for Concerts Determined.

The order of the various concerts and dates the club will appear at the various places in March are: Madras 5th; Redmond, 6th; Prineville, 7th; Bend, 8th; Wasco, 9th; Moro, 10th and Sunday; Grass Valley, 12th; Condon, 13th; Heppner, 14th; Lexington, 15th; Ione, 16th; Umatilla, 17th; Spokane, Sunday and 19th; Echo, 20th; Pendleton, 21st; Wallowa, 22nd; Enterprise, 23rd; Joseph, 24th and Sunday; Elgin, 26th; Imbler, 27th; LaGrande, 28th; Cove, 29th; Union, 30th; North Powder, 31st, Sunday will be spent with Gene W. Hall. In April the dates are: Haines, 2nd; Baker, 3rd; Weiser, 4th; Payette, 5th; Ontario, 6th; Caldwell, 7th and Sunday; Nampa, 9th; Boise, 10th; Emmett, 11th; Fruitland, 12th; The Dalles, 13th; Hood River, 14th.

The personnel of the club is: First tenor, Marsters, Anderson, Steeves, Ewing; second tenor, Emmel, Coates, Booth, Gillette; baritone, Smith, P. Anderson, Chapler, Jackson; bass, Douglas, Cotton, Bowers, and Waltz.

PROF. HALL TO LECTURE

"Remedies Against Poverty" to Be Discussed Monday.

In spite of the fact that Prof. John O. Hall is in constant demand to explain various sociological problems before state legislative committees, he will find time next Monday evening to deliver his lecture, "Remedies Against Poverty." This will be the fourth number on the faculty lecture course.

In this lecture Dr. Hall will embody many results obtained by recent study and research work.

Willamette Collegian

(Founded 1889)

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY OF WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.

Entered at the Postoffice at Salem, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second class matter.

By mail, one year $1.25
Single copy ..... .05

The Willamette Collegian is forwarded to all subscribers until an explicit order is received for its discontinuance, and until all arrearages are paid according to law. Subscribers are requested to inform the business manager of any change of address. Acceptance of the paper from the postman carries liability for subscription after date on label.

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY

Advertising Rates on Application.

OFFICE PHONE 88

SAM E. KING ..... Editor-in-Chief
Phone 88 or 1081-J
Associate Editor ..... Ruth Spoor
City Editor ..... Maxwell Ball
Society ..... Carrie Cookey
Law School ..... Dan Hill
Exchanges ..... Blanche Baker

Reporters.

Irma Botsford — Adolph Spiess
Anna Elder — Errol Proctor
Esther Emmel — Roswell Waltz
Mary Eyre — Kenneth Legg
Fern Wells — Beatrice Walton
Paul Doney — Francyl Howard

EARL B. COTTON ..... Business Manager
Phone 88, or 1518 R
Assistant Adv. Mgr. ..Merrill D. Obling
Circulation.
Post Chapel Distributor .....
..... Raymond Attebery
Law Department, ... Charles Randall
Subscriptions ..... Harry Crisp
Mailing Department ..... Waldo Marsters
Millard Doughton

REMEMBER DEBATE.

With the formal opening of the debate season next Saturday every student should be present at the contest with Pacific to give the cardinal and gold defenders their hard earned support. Likewise as many as possible should give the negative team a rousing cheer as it leaves for Forest Grove, Saturday morning.

The four men who will represent Willamette on this occasion have been working hard day in and day out for many weeks, and will certainly put up a hard fight, win or lose. In athletic contests the coach and team demand and usually receive the hearty co-operation of the student body. They claim that an enthusiastic, loyal group of rooters helps them in the game. The same is true of the debate warriors. It is but natural that a speaker will be able to make a better showing if he is certain that his fellows are with him; if he feels that the student body for which he is debating are his staunch supporters. Thus every student, Saturday night, has a responsibility to be present at the contest in the chapel. No one has a right to be proud of a victory or to criticise a loss if he is absent.

It is not too late to enter the new journalism course, even if you have already completed your registration. Here are some of the advantages that a knowledge of journalism may give: To appreciate the newspaper from its own viewpoint; it increases your store of general knowledge; it helps the person with ideas to express them in a potent manner; if your talents are along publicity work it may help you to find your place; then if you intend to be a high school teacher you may be called upon to help with student publications.

There are other reasons for the study more powerful than the ones mentioned but too numerous to designate.

Don't forget the Ladies' Glee Club concert in the chapel next Tuesday evening. Favor your acquaintances by informing them of the high class entertainment available. Help advertise the best in Willamette.

Have you attended any of the legislative sessions? If so, have you derived any new ideas or do you stroll from one hall to the other just to kill time?

Say, classes one and all, how about your Freshman Glee song. We don't want a song that is a winner for one night, but for all time. It's time to get down to business.

"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." Although you may not be on the charity list, Dr. Hall's lecture Monday night will be worth your time.

Hurrah! Exams are over once more. Yes, and many a student has said he will keep his daily work up to standard. He can, but will he?

COLLEGE AND RELIGION.

We wonder if many persons don't exaggerate the seriousness of the religious doubts which are said to rise in the mind of the college man or woman?

Truly there is plausibility in the argument that the spirit of inquiry and of demanding proofs, which pervades the university classroom, tends to produce such doubts. But, plausible though this may be, it is a fact that this spirit of doubt and unbelief exists?

In three and one-half years in college we have never heard any one openly declare that he had lost the essentials of the religious faith in which he had been trained.

It is true, no doubt, that religious views may be shaken slightly and for a brief time by the influence of college. But a readjustment is sure to come. The student is sure to see that the apparent contradictions which have disturbed him are capable of explantion.

Religious views are likely to be modified by the college atmosphere. But the change, in nine of 10 cases, will be a process of broadening rather than of destruction.

College, one can say after study of the situation, strengthens religious faith in more cases than it weakens it. This does not need theoretical explanation; the actual proof is at hand in the many men and women whose religion, dormant during their younger days, becomes a living, active reality under the college influence.

The college man or woman's religion is one in which the spirit of service is added to that of faith. It is not passive; it is a religion which DOES as well as IS.

Although one's religious viewpoint is likely to shift with introduction into college, the normal person will not lose his grasp upon the fundamentals.—Ohio State Lantern.

JUST A FABLE.

Once upon a time there was a boy. He was a college boy, which is enough to describe almost any boy. He was just simply immersed to his ears in his college work which included keeping in good with Mary Jane and determining the percentage of Turkish tobacco in any cigarette. Mary Jane was a foxy Jane and the boy smoked keen cigarettes, and he was known as a connoisseur among his inner circle of friends.

Consequently this boy did not have an overabundance of time to waste on his studies. He was studying to be a pianist. Whenever he enrolled he took whatever music was required for graduation, but he fought shy of such common subjects as history, philosophy, the languages, psychology, science, and others for which he had to study with the common herd in the library. He was a seeker after snaps, as the college parlance had it.

And what was more, he found them. At the end of the fourth year he sat on a platform with a lot of other seniors and the prexy handed him 19 cents worth of parchment bearing the customary "Know Ye All by These Presents" and signed in various unreadable scripts that our hero knew were the names of the 42-centimeter guns who had planned the curriculum so that he could get a degree.

He took his education and had it framed and mother put it in the parlor over the whatnot that supported the family album, the only place worthy of such a document. And then came the rub.

He went out into the cold world and began a campaign for three squares a day. He offered his services to two or three lyceum bureaus and as many chautauquas, but they couldn't see it his way after the initial trial. Finally he obtained a job in a movie emporium and the ten per that the manager handed him on Saturday nights was surely welcome.

But the day came when even the movie emporium tired of his services, and the manager granted him a six months vacation twice each year. The manager then hired a boob who could play "Hearts and Flowers" when the villian was cursing the heroine and "Over the Waves" for a boating scene on the Nile, for our hero had never been able to distinguish any difference in the brand of music he played.

He had learned to pick the snaps in college, and it was easier to play what he wanted than to suit the music to the picture. So our hero went to work. He gets $9 now on Saturday night. During the week he paints fences and barns.

And he never saw the connection between a well grounded education and a successful musical career.

Moral—Don't think you are slipping something over on your almo mater when you pick all the snaps in the catalog. Such courses were put in for just such boobs as you.—Kansan.

(A lonesome father writes his daughter in Willamette.)

HOW WE MISS YOU.

O, I miss you, how I miss you,
Since the day you said goodbye,
With your hands "chuck full" of baggage,
And that twinkle in your eye!

For Helen's got too busy
To sit upon my lap,
And mother's most too heavy
For a peaked little chap.

And another fellow's lonesome;
He has given me the hunch
That he's missed the cake and cocoa
At the 11:30 lunch.

So we miss you more than ever
At the quiet evening's close,
For your spunky little sister
Has to entertain your beaux.

Yes we miss you, how we miss you,
Since you went to Old Lausanne—
Left your daddy's big umbrella
For a better lookin' man.

And the butter man is lonesome
For the patronage gone by,
And they miss you, how they miss you—
The peanuts and the pie!

—W. S. G.

"The Most Beautiful Book Ever Written" was authored by Doremus A. Hayes, D. D., professor of New Testament Interpretation at Garret Biblical Institute.

A controversy which threatened to end in a sectional feud between the Washington State College and the University of Washington has been settled agreeably. A bill defining the relations of both institutions was passed by the Washington state legislature.

Ward's Drug Store.

COACHING TAUGHT AT IDAHO.

Coaches Edmundson and Bleamaster of Idaho are offering four courses in the teaching of athletics. The courses offered are planned to give a good working idea of all the various athletics and thus prepare to do efficient teaching in high schools.

Columbia's Faculty Petitions Wilson.

More than 400 of the Columbia University faculty addressed an appeal to President Wilson on behalf of the Belgians deported by the German government. The appeal calls upon Mr. Wilson in the name of humanity to demand that the Germans stop their deportation of Belgian men and women. The signers pledge to the president their support in whatever action he may seem necessary to have the demands complied with. However, in the light of the present crisis their petition will be of little avail.

As a group of freshmen were busily engaged in writing their required 5000-word Bible theme, the question was askey by "Frosty" to "Vic": Was it Moses that fed 5000 people on five loaves and five fishes?

Ward's Drug Store.

A backwoodsman who had been elected to the legislature went to the city postoffice to get some stamps.

"What denomination?" inquired the clerk.

"Methodist," said the member, modestly.

If you had seen but one day of war, you would pray God you might never see another.—Duke of Wellington.

AN ANSWER TO A VERDANT FROSH LETTER.

Yappstown, Or., Feb. 6, 1917.

Dear Son: Your petition of supplication came into port yesterday.

So you are financially humiliated again? How many times have I to tell you that I haven't all the money in the world? What do you suppose John D. is paying all those doctors with that he has around him, who are trying to make him over so that he will be able to eat corn-beef and cabbage instead of pre-digested atmosphere? And what do you suppose Carnegie is constructing all those literary feed-barns with, where the older women sojourn to peruse through the books in the different stalls in order to find out the color of Shakespeare's complexion and eyes, and where the younger ones, more commonly known in simple conversational lore as "chickens," go to gorge their romantic appetites on such literary breakfast foods as "The Indifference of Vacuum Cleaner Sue," and incidentally to keep a date with her Romeo, who dares not approach the parental domicile in quest of his chicka-biddy lest he be initiated into the Ancient and Royal Order of the Boot, where an irritant father is the master of initiation ceremonies? So you see, my boy, it is impossible for your Dad to horde all the root of evil. These rich men must have some, otherwise they would be able to slip by St. Peter without being threaded through the eye of a needle, thereby having the laugh on the poor man both in this world and the next, leaving nothing for the common herd to look forward to.

So you think that the girls at Willamette are different from the girls here at home, and you would like for me to meet some of them? Now, my son, while you are in college I will provide the necessities, but I do think that you should dispense with luxuries. Of course I am aware that sometimes a fellow will meet a second Annie Laurie who has eyes like two phoney diamonds purchased at the 5 and 10 cent store, and a voice which resembles the gentle zephyrs as they steal through a field of alfalfa hay. In almost every instance he will fall for "those endearing charms" to the extent that he can appreciate how a young French soldier feels when he is sent home from Verdun front on a furlough to die. But don't worry, my boy, you will recover the same as you did when you had the measles, mumps, or any of those childish diseases.

You will find enclosed a postal money order for $25. If you spend this within the next month you need not send out an S. O. S. for your Dad will not be any ways close in your latitude or longitude, so therefore will not be able to come to your aid.

Follow your father's advice that your days may be long in college.

Your devoted father,
—A Wise Bird.

ALUMNI NOTES

Any alumni receiving the Collegian are hereby cordially requested to forward alumni notes concerning themselves and any fellow alumni who have not as yet been represented.

Graduates of the medical department received many honors at the recent meeting of the Polk-Yamhill-Marion Medical Society held at the State Hospital in Salem. Dr. Robert Lee Wood '07, of Amity, becomes first vice-president; J. R. Pemberton '10, of Salem, third vice-president; Prince Byrd '11, secretary. Dr. John C. Evans '06 is retiring president of the association. Dr. R. E. Steiner '98 was one of the principal speakers of the meeting.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner of the class of 1898 is superintendent of the Oregon State Hospital. Five hundred and eighty-nine patients have been completely or partially cured in the last two years. Expenses have been reduced so that it was possible to turn back into the state treasury a large part of the appropriation.

W. E. H. Boyd, M. D., '81, is at 589 Williams Ave., Portland.

Mrs. A. L. Ford Warren, M. D., '77, conducts an office in the Morgan Bldg., Portland.

Dr. A. W. Botkin, '90, lives at 74 E. 62nd street, Portland, Or.

Leon G. Holland, M. D., '04, is resident at 171 King strtet, Portland.

Mrs. Mary Robinson Gilkey, now at Dayton, Or., is a graduate of Willamette in the class of 1866.

Dr. S. C. Stone, 255 High street, Salem, is a member of the class of 1875.

603 E. Ankeny, Portland, is the home of Dr. T. C. Humphrey, '86.

L. Victoria Hampton, of the medical class of 1889, may be found at 475 W. Park, Portland.

L. R. M. Pierce, 1911, LL. B., spent last summer on the Mexican border but has returned to Salem and re-opened his mercantile rooms in the Hubbard building where he engages in the suit order business. While in Willamette, Mr. Pierce was general athletic manager.

The sympathy of former students goes to Mrs. Clyde Nelson, '09, of Las Angeles, Cal., and to W. C. Winslow, '08, of Salem, and to their brothers at the recent death of their father, Mr. P. R. Winslow.

A. Ray Baker, 1912 LL. B., is employed by the Hammond Lumber Co. as superintendent of logging operations at Rainier, Or.

J. A. Benjamin, LL. B., 1912, is at present assistant attorney general under Geo. M. Brown, with offices in the Supreme Court building at Salem.

Merton R. DeLong, 1912, LL. B. is with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company at Portland. He resides at 431 E. 43rd St.

Curtis Holcomb, M. D., '87, is at home at 129½ Russell, Portland, Or.

Augustus A. Bonney, Bachelor of Science in '71, has removed to Tygh Valley, Or.

Dr. G. J. Sweetland, M. A., '12, formerly athletic director at Willamette, has removed to Constantine, Mich.

Leland R. Sackett, B. A., '15, has changed his residence in Portland and is now at 577 Ladd Ave.

Curtis Holcomb, M. D., '87, is at

PROFESSIONAL CARDS

Office Phone 440 — Res. Phone 398
Dr. R. T. McIntire
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON
212-214 Masonic Temple

Phone 606 — Suite 413-1
Salem Bank of Commerce Bldg.
Dr. F. L. Utter
DENTIST
Special Attention to Oral Hygiene and Diseases of the Gums.
Salem, - - - - - Oregon

B. L. Steeves, M. D. — M. C. Findley, M. D.
Drs. Steeves & Findley
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT
Glasses Fitted and Furnished
Rooms 207-211, Salem Bank of Commerce Bldg.
Salem, Oregon

Office Phone 87 — Res. Phone 828R
Dr. O. L. Scott, D. C.
CHIROPRACTIC SPINOLOGIST
Palmer School Graduate 1911
Rooms 406-7-8 U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg.
Salem, - - - - - Oregon

City Cleaning Works
Phone 703 :: 1261 State Street, near 12th

LUMBER, MILL WORK and HARDWOODS
WE HAVE BOTH
Mill Wood and Dry Wood
Spaulding Logging Co.
Front and Ferry St. — Phone 1830

Students and Visitors Willamette University are cordially invited to visit Oregon's Finest Grocery Store. :: :: :: :: ::
Roth Grocery Co.
134 N. Liberty St. — Phone 1885

Remembrances of you . . Photos
Tom Cronise 193 North Com'l St.
Free Tickets to Oregon with $1 Purchases

Reduce the high cost of living

by having your work done by the Electric Process—clothes last 100 to 300 per cent longer. Let us prove it. See four shirts at Joe Haines' Store which have been laundered 120 times and are hardly distinguishable from new.

The Salem Steam Laundry
136 So. Liberty St
Oldest. Largest. Best. Phone 25.

PATTON BROS.
SALEM'S BEST BOOK STORE

A.C.Nelson, A.B.Nelson, E.S.Patton
Repair Work Promptly Attended to
NELSON BROS. & PATTON
PLUMBING
Tinning and Warm Air Furnaces
Phone 1906 — 355 Chemeketa St.

Fresh Peanuts and Popcorn, Soft Drnks of all kinds, Candies, Fruits, etc., can be had at the little Confectionery opposite Court House.
L. N. CHILDS, Prop.,
538 State Street, Salem, Oregon

Students of Willamette University have banked with LADD & BUSH
FOR FORTY YEARS

STEUSLOFF BROS.
INCORPORATED
Wholesale and Retail
Butchers and Packers
ALL KINDS FRESH AND CURED MEATS
Sausages of all kinds a Specialty. Complete Modern Cold Storage System.
N. W. Co. Court and Liberty

EVERYTHING IN HARDWARE
Ray. L. Farmer Hardware Co.
Corner Court and Commercial Sts.
Phone 191

THE PRICE SHOE COMPANY
Leaders in Fine
FOOTWEAR
326 State St., next to Ladd & Bush

VICK BROTHERS
Salem's leading dealers in automobiles and auto supplies.
260 North Hight St., Salem, Oregon

Willard F. Proctor
CORD WOOD SPECIALIST
Yard corner Trade and Liberty, Phone 1322-J

B E L L E ' S
HOT CHOCOLATES WILL SATISFY THAT WINTER THIRST.
THE DIFFERENT KIND!
B E L L E ' S

Blossom Time in the Golden State

A friend just back from Southern California says: "The weather was fine, in fact too warm for heavy clothes. Many were bathing at the beaches. Oranges were ripe in the valleys, while the mountains nearby were covered with snow."

With warm sunny weather it will not be long before the blossoms on the trees will be everywhere announcing that spring time is here.

Take a vacation trip now where life is different; where climate surroundings and amusements are out of the ordinary. Spend a different February.

THREE TRAINS DAILY
Scenic Shasta Route
will take you there in comfort.
Ask the agent.
John M. Scott, General Passenger Agent, Portland
Southern Pacific Lines

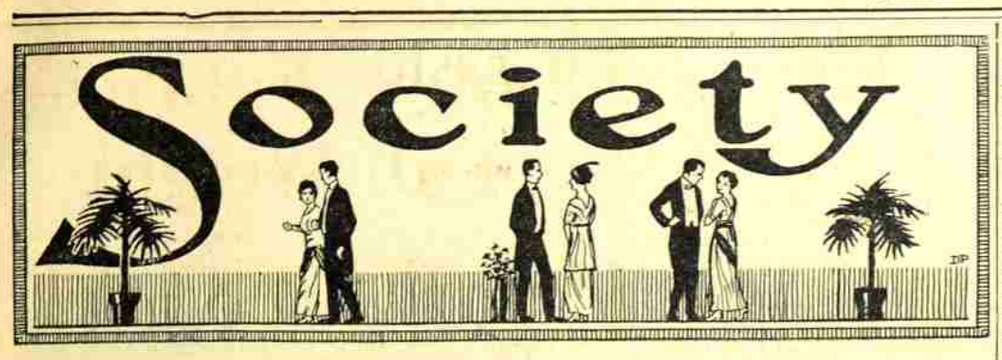
Simplicity and Perfection
in Typography produce Efficient Printing
Statesman Pub. Co.
Job Department
Phone 583

Hotel Bligh Barber Shop
I. G. HALL, Proprietor

CLASSIFIED ADS

Rate—One cent a word per issue.

Bakeries—
Salem Bakery, Phone 2486, Chemeketa and Twelfth.
Banks—
Salem Bank of Commerce, Liberty and State Streets.
Bicycles—
Morse & Ramsden, 221 S. High St., Phone 1687.
Dairies—
Clover Leaf Dairy, near steel bridge, Phone 1437.
Dentists—
Burton & Darby, U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg., Phone 322.
Fields & Smith, U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg., Phone 53.
Dictionaries—
Webster's newest International, also a 1906 edition for $3.00 Phone Mr. Eaton at 1806-R.
Druggists—
Brewer Drug Co., 405 Court St., Phone 184.
Ward's Drug Store.
Flouring Mills—
Cherry City Flour Mill, 565 Trade, Phone 2331.
Caiptal Flouring Mills, 612 Trade St., Phone 318.
Fruit—
Drager Fruit Co., 540 State St., Phone 56.
Furnaces—
Anderson Furnace Co., Phone 886, Oak and 17th.
Groceries—
A. Daue & Sons, 1003 S. Commercial, Phone 925.
Economy Grocery, 2290 State St., Phone 670.
Englewood Grocery, 1495 Market St., Phone 280.
C. M. Epley, 1800 E. State St., Phone 93.
Hotels—
Branch Hotel, Schreiber Bldg., Phone 963.
Capital Hotel, Murphy Bldg., Phone 630.
Jewelers and Opticians—
Gardner & Keene.
Always in the lead.
Always low in price.
Loans and Insurance—
R. P. Boise, 180 N. Com'l St., Phone 219.
Millinery—
Gibson Millinery Store, 377 Court St., Phone 2212.
Physicians and Surgeons—
Dr. Mott, Bush-Breyman Building. Office phone 383, residence 696.
Dr. Alice Bancroft, Breyman Bldg., Phone 328.
Dr. H. J. Clements, Bank of Commerce Bldg., Phone 691.
Plumbers—
Theo. M. Barr, 164 So. Commercial. Phone 192.
Porter, J. W.—
Wall paper and paint store. Pictures and picture framing. Artists supplies. 455 Court St., Phone 485.
Real Estate—
Croisan Realty, Masonic Bldg., Phone 843.
Real Estate and Insurance—
Derby & Roberts, U. S. Nat'l Bank Bldg., Phone 385.
Rugs—
Capital Soap & Angora Rug Co., 1230 Ferry St., Phone 683.
Taxis—
Salem Taxicab Co., Office Bligh Hotel, Phone 700.
Transfers—
Capital City Transfer Co., 161 S. Com'l, Phone 933.
Webster's New International—
Address Mr. S. W. Eaton, Salem, Or., or call at 195 S. Cottage St.
Wood, Cord Wood—
Willard F. Proctor, Phone 1332-J, Yard corner Trade and Liberty.



By Carrie Cooksey

With the trials and hardships of exam week past everyone is now in the mood to have a good time, and take in every social event, concert, movie, etc., that comes along. So in the end the seemingly hard worked and abused student is rewarded with many evenings of fun, and the pangs of those dreadful exams are banished for ever.

Events of special interest within the next week are as follows: Lecture by Judge Alden, on February 8th in the armory; presentation of Verdi's opera "Ernani" by Prof. Frank Churchill, February 9th in the public library auditorium; lecture by Dr. J. O. Hall, February 12th in the university chapel; concert by the Ladies' Glee Club February 13th in the university chapel.

* *

The seventeeners have always been extremely fond of "eats" and plenty of them. This characteristic can be traced from their verdant freshman days through the several stages of development, and it is still quite prominent even in their now stayed and dignified position. This fact was made quite evident Friday, January 27, at the senior dinner which took place in the Kloshe Klub dining room promptly at 12:30. The tables were prettily decorated with art baskets and trailing vines. The places were marked by hand made placecards bearing a minute picture of the individual member.

The guests of honor at the affair were Coach and Mrs. R. L. Mathews. Miss Irma Botsford, chairman of the social committee, is to be given the credit for the success of the senior dinner.

Menu.

Meat in the Loaf.
Potatoes a la Cream Pickles.
Macaroni au gratu.
Bread. Butter.
Jelly.
Salad a la Mayonnaise.
Fruit Jello.
Cake. Coffee.
Salted Nuts.

* *

In an endeavor to have every member in the right attitude for examinations Adelantes and Websterians held a formal party in their halls Saturday evening, January 27. The society rooms had taken on the appearance of early spring with the artistic arrangement of baskets filled with pussy willows. The formal party of the evening opened with a program which was as follows:

Selections, Willamette Quartet, Messrs. Booth, Anderson, Bowers, and Chapler.

Readings, Miss Eva Grant.

Selections, Mixed Quartet, Misses Cunningham, E. Emmel, Messrs. Gillette, Chapler.

Sketch, Miss Ruth Spoor, Messrs. Ed Bolt and Tinkham Gilbert.

At the conclusion of the program progressive "Rook" and Virginia Reel were played until a rather late hour when delicious ices were served with Miss Blanche Baker in charge. Credit for the success of the affair is due the Misses Esther Taylor, Fern Wells, Charlotte Tebben, Messrs. Errol Proctor, Harold Eakin, and Harry Bowers.

* *

Believing that a great deal of mutual benefit might be derived from a joint session, as well as a pleasant evening, the two Phil societies met in their halls Wednesday, January 24. As everyone was in a jovial frame of mind, business was promptly dispensed with, and the program presented.

Mr. Jackson, representing the boy's society, rendered a pleasing baritone solo. Miss Walton followed with the monologue, "Before the Tea," which she gave in a very realistic manner. Miss Levy came with her violin and she did not disappoint her audience in the ure of it. Miss Olive Rosche acted as accompanist. The girl's society then put on a sketch entitled 'Songs and Pictures," in which living pictures were presented, illustrative of popular airs which were sung in the meantime behind the curtain. This was followed by high-class vaudeville from the Philodorian troupe of entertainers, in which Tobie, Gralapp, and Ohling starred. A company of Phil "soldier boys" then gave a surprising demonstration of military tactics, Rexford's drums furnished the martial music needed to set off properly the khaki uniforms. This number was much enjoyed, and nothing was damaged but a chandelier globe, which forgot to make allowance for Merrill Ohling's height and adeptness in managing fire arms. Mr. Rexford closed the program with an excellent baritone solo.

Mrs. "Coach" Mathews acted as chaperon in which role she is one of the most popular faculty ladies. Both societies enjoyed the occasion, and plan to have many more in the future.

* *

An afternoon with the "bells" was enjoyed by the Philodosians Friday, January 26. Miss Ruth Winters and Miss Glenna Teeters opened the program with a vocal duet, "Beautiful Bells." An interesting paper entitled "Bells of History and Romance" was given by Miss Ruth Samson. Miss Fannie McKennon then read Poe's familiar poem, "The Bells," and Miss Helen Goltra gave an unusually interesting synopsis and cutting of the German drama, "The Sunken Bell."

The last number was perhaps the most unique and original. It was entitled "Philodosian Belles" and consisted of musical character sketches composed and played by Miss Esther Cox. Four of her society sisters she portrayed in her dexterous control of sharps and flats, trills and runs—the Misses Fannie McKennon, Litha Packenham, Irma Botsford, and Fabian Rosche.

The program, from the standpoint

MISS ESTHER COX
Quartet Accompanist.

of unity of theme and preparation, was excellent and much commendation is due Miss Packenham who was responsible for the idea.

* *

Meeting in their halls on Friday afternoon, January 19th, the Adelantes were delighted with the very pleasing numbers making up the program. The Misses Mildred Wiggins and Gertrude Cunningham opened the program with a piano duet. The Adelante "Ginger Can" composed by the Misses Rosamond Gilbert and Lola Cooley, and read by the latter, was the source of much merriment. A pretty vocal solo was given by Miss Ruth Spoor. Mrs. Florence Page Steeves, in her solo dance, added an artistic finish to the program. A social hour followed at which time the outgoing officers served refreshments.

Later a business meeting was held when the officers for the second semester were installed.

* *

The local I. P. A. reception to new members was held Friday evening, January 26, at the home of Misses Fern and Faye Wells at Salem Heights. This social event marked a fitting close for the campaign week which resulted in a membership of 29 for the W. U. League. The evening was very pleasantly spent with games and music, and a short business meeting was held to discuss plans for the association. Those enjoying the affair were: Dr. and Mrs. Hall, Misses Mary Notson, Gladys Crozier, Mabel Boughey, Gladys Carson, Rita Hobbs, Pearl Crowder, Fern Wells, Faye Wells, and Messrs. Bernard Morse, Will Sherwood, Lee Notson, Earl Cotton, Leigh Douglass, Robert Maulden, and Waldo Pierson.

* *

The young women of Lausanne hall were delightfully entertained on Saturday afternoon, January 27th, by Mrs. R. L. Mathews and Mrs. J. O. Hall at the home of the latter on North High street. The hours which were spent in sewing and conversation, were brought to a close with the serving of a pretty buffet luncheon by the hostesses.

The invited guests were: Miss Junia Todd, Mrs. Minerva Todd, the Misses Ruth Winters, Marguerite Wible, Margaret Mallory, Edith Stovel, Fannie McKennon, Marian Barnes, Veda Brown, Lucile McCulley, Allene Dunbar, Esther Cox, Margaret Fuller, Helen Rose, Gertrude Dillard, Myrtle Smith, Clara Perkins, Glenna Teeters, Ethel Hansen, Edith Bird, Nellie Beaver, Helen Lawson, and Edna Billings.

* *

Mrs. Gustav Ebsen gave the musical history class a most instructive and interesting talk last week. The subject was "The Opera, its beginning, its development and the development of the modern German opera under Wagner's influence." The talk was illustrated by some fine records sung by the world's greatest artists of scenes from the Ring of Wagner and from the Troubadour of Verdi. The class appreciated Mrs. Ebsen's talk and playing of the records very much and gave her a rising vote of thanks. Mrs. Frank Frickey sang during the class hour, "My Heart At Thy Dear Voice," from Saint-Saens, Sampson and Delilah.

* *

The post-exam jubilee is an event of the past for this year. A survival of the fittest gathered together Friday evening in the society halls, and held a regular "high jinks" until a rather late hour. All thought of the recent exams was dispelled after everyone had participated in a good old-fashioned game of Virginia Reel or Tucker.

During the evening the following program was given:

Piano Solo, Beatrice Newport.
Vocal Solo, Evelyn Reigelman, piano accompaniment by Beth Briggs, violin accompaniment by Mary Findley.
Cartoons, Dean Pollock.
Cornet Solo, Edwin Paine.
Piano Solo, Ethel Forbes.

Refreshments consisting of coffee and rolls were served by the committee in charge.

* *

On Sunday afternoon Miss Ethel Forbes delighted another Salem audience with the third in her series of organ recitals. Assisting Miss Forbes was Miss Lela Belle McCaddam as a vocal soloist.

The program was as follows:

Commemoration March ..... Clark
Romance in D Flat ..... Lemare
Andantino ..... Guilmant
Exhaltation ..... Beach
Miss Lela Belle McCaddam.
Lamentation ..... Guilmant
Peer Gynt Suite ..... Grieg-Lemare
(a) Morning.
(b) Ase's Death.
(c) Anitra's Dance.
Pilgrim's Chorus ..... Wagner
One Sweetly Solemn Thought ..Boex
Miss Lela Belle McCaddam.
Loccata in G ..... Dubois

* *

A number of college young people enjoyed a pleasant social evening at the Wells' home on South Commercial street last Friday night. Progressive Rook was the feature of interest for the evening. Light refreshments were served by Miss Fern Wells and Miss Faye Wells. Those present were Misses Lola Cooley, Florence Miller, Clara Miller, Gladys Carson and Mary Notson and Messrs. Waldo Pierson, Roswell Waltz, Oliver Matthews, Leigh Douglas and Lee Notson.

* *

The sanitation class had a most unique examination. It came in the form of a banquet which was held at Prof. Von Eschen's home, Friday evening.

The menu was as follows:

Clam Soup.
Roast Beef and Gravy.
Mashed Potatoes. Baked Corn.
Green Beans.
Pineapple Whip. Cake.
Coffee.

Prof. Von Eschen was toastmaster, Miss Esther Emmel responded to the toast, "The Old Hen's Convention on Home Decoration," Mr. Gralapp to "First Aid to the Love Sick," Miss Fowle to "Applied Sanitation," and Mr. Ball to "Sanitation from the Standpoint of Journalism." Prof. Von Eschen closed the banquet by a prophesy on the future of the class.

Those present were the Misses Gilbert, Fowle, Wells, Stewart, Winters, McKennon, Carson, and Emmel. Mr. and Mrs. Steeves, Prof. Von Eschen and the Messrs. Ball, Gralapp, Elton, and Ellis Von Eschen.

The credit of the splendid sanitary banquet is due to the Misses Carson, Gilbert, and McKennon.

* *

Miss Helen Goltra and parents left Monday for California where she will spend a month or more in San Diego.

* *

As a welcome relaxation after the strenuous exam week, Helen Rose and Rose Martin were hostesses at a spread Saturday night in their rooms at the Hall, having as their guest a gay crowd of Lausanne girls. The company assembled in the wierd candle light, and partook of cheese dreams and other delectable eats, amid much hilarity. The guests were the Misses Gertrude Dillard, Evelyn Gordon, Margaret Fuller, Glenna Teeters, Ethlyn Hauson, Nellie Beaver, Marian Barnes, Ethel Stovel, Ethel Fogg, Ruth Lawson, and Myrtle Smith.

* *

Miss Esther Taylor entertained in honor of Miss Ruth Wedge of Boston, when she asked a group of friends to a dainty lunch at the Spa, following the basketball game Wednesday. Those who made up the party were Miss Wedge, Miss Rosamond Gilbert, Miss Gertrude Cunningham and Miss Ruth Spoor.

* *

Feminine excitement and curiosity were stimulated to the highest state Thursday evening, at Lausanne. For, lo, by an ever-watchful, inate faculty someone discovered an ominous sparkle emanating from the left hand of a charming freshman. The girl coyly withheld denial and the news traveled swiftly. When the "setting" was admired the fair one said, "But you should see the man." Questions, exclamations of delight—and, occasionally of envy—were heard all evening. But even freshmen have to balance their accounts at the close of the day. The heroine of the evening began by revealing a rather disappointing secret to the other girls, and ended, by entering in her little cash book:

"Jewelry at Woolworth's..10 cents"

* *

Miss Hazel Hockensmith spent the week-end at her home in Albany.

* *

Miss Margaret Mallory was the week-end guest of her brother-in-law at Junction City.

* *

Miss Bernice Knuths, of the Owyhee Club spent the week-end at her home in Brownsville.

* *

Mrs. Geo. Alden entertained a group of the women members and wives of the faculty of Willamette university at her home on North Liberty street, Wednesday afternoon, January 24. At this time the announcement was made of the coming marriage of Mrs. Mae Harris to Mr. David James of Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Harris is Mrs. Doney's sister, and having spent last summer in this city, she is remembered by many Salem friends. The afternoon was spent in making a little love token for Mrs. Harris. Mrs. Alden was assisted during the afternoon by Miss Junia Todd and Mrs. Wm. Kirk. The invited guests were: Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Mrs. Wm. Kirk, Mrs. J. T. Mathews, Mrs. J. O. Hall, Mrs. R. L. Mathews, Mrs. E. A. Hancock, Mrs. Helen Miller Senn, Mrs. F. W. Chace, Miss Junia Todd, Mrs. G. Ebsen, Mrs. R .E. Stauffer, Mrs. M. E. Peck, Miss Joy Turner, and Mrs. E. C. Richards.

* *

Miss Vesta Mulligan spent the week-end with friends in Sheridan.

* *

Tuesday evening the girls of Lausanne hall were the dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney at their home on State street. A four-course buffet dinner was served and it proved most delicious in every detail. Later in the evening games and charades were played. Every person reluctantly left the scene of the pleasant affair, each declaring Dr. and Mrs. Doney royal host and hostess.

* *

Miss Briggs, from Boise, Idaho, who enters Willamette as a freshman this semester, is staying at Lausanne hall.

* *

Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Chace were dinner guests at Lausanne hall Sunday. The after-dinner hours were spent with music and conversation. At this time Dr. Chace presented the Hall with a beautiful bound volume of music. This contains a collection of instrumental and vocal music and will be greatly appreciated by the members of Lausanne hall.

* *

Mrs. Geo. Alden and Mrs. Wm. Kirk will give a Kensington tea at the home of the latter Thursday afternoon. This is for the benefit of the Scholarship Loan Fund.

* *

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Alden asked as their dinner guests for Tuesday evening, Attorney and Mrs. Senn of Portland and Coach and Mrs. R. L. Mathews.

* *

Miss Ruth Perringer was a luncheon guest at the Owyhee Club Sunday evening.

* *

OUR LINEs show a large variety of all prevailing shades and colors. Spring woolens and style plates are ready for your inspection. Tailor and distributor of quality woolens. D. H. Mosher, 474 Court street.

Program for Day of Prayer.

Thursday, February 8, is the Day of Prayer for colleges. Classes will be held only until 10 o'clock. Dr. W. W. Youngson, superintendent of the Portland district will give an address in chapel. Immediately after chapel the respective classes will hold prayer meetings. At 3:30 Miss Gertrude Eakin will lead the Young Women's Christian Association.

Mosher is the Classy College Tailor. He makes college clothes for college men and women, at 474 Court street. Mosher made my clothes.

MISS TODD TO HAVE OFFICE.

Dean of Women to Have Room in Eaton Hall.

Miss Todd, the dean of women, now has an office on the second floor of Eaton Hall. Miss Todd will be in her office the hour after chapel for conferences with the young women of the university.

This room promises to be the most popular one on the campus for the women are always glad of the opportunity to consult Miss Todd.

Ward's Drug Store.

Jeffrey At Sheldon, Illinois.

W. R. Jeffrey, manager of the Collegian last year, is at Sheldon, Ill., with his parents. Shortly after his removal to Bend he was forced to go to Chicago, as sickness caused the loss of his hearing.

Don't miss the concert Friday.

Ward's Drug Store.

Go to
Barnes' Cash Store
For the best in—
MEN'S HATS
MEN'S SHOES
MEN'S CLOTHING
MEN'S FURNISHINGS
PAY CASH AND RECEIVE MORE for YOUR DOLLARS

COLLEGE friends and your friends can buy anything you can give them—except your PHOTOGRAPH. :: :: ::
Earl LeRoy Jenks 418 Hubbard Bldg Phone :: :: 2383

W. G. Smith & Co.
ENGRAVERS OF
COMMENCEMENT
WEDDING
AND VISITING CARDS
Morgan Building, Portland

The University of Chicago
HOME STUDY
in addition to resident work, offers also instruction by correspondence.
For detailed information address
24th Year U. of C. (Div. H.) Chicago, Ill.

The
Royal Cafeteria
The PLACE for GOOD EATS
460 State St., Salem

Advance Spring Styles
In House Dresses that you will like. Good quality and extra well made.
Special Prices Now:
One-piece dress 98c
Two-piece breakfast set, special ..... $1.25 to $2.00
KAFOURY BROS.
416 STATE STREET SALEM, OREGON

Hartman Bros. Co.
Quality Jewelers and Silversmiths
Special attention to Watch and Jewelry Repairing. A complete line of Conklin's Celebrated Self-Filling Fountain Pens
QUALITY : SERVICE : PRICE
Successors to Barr's Jewelry Store
Cor. State and Liberty Sts.
SALEM, OREGON

Today or Tomorrow?
That is the question we submit to you.
You need that NEW SUIT
And You Need it NOW
WHY WAIT?
At present you can buy at the old low price, and it is a matter of days or perhaps a week when you will need that suit; then why not buy now, before prices are advanced?
OVERCOATS
We bespeak the same logic for the OVERCOAT. You might just as well get the full year out of it whether you buy today or a week later.
COMPLETE LINES
Come in and inspect our lines of Overcoats, Suits, Mackinaws and
FURNISHINGS
Then inspect all other lines within your territory and buy where you buy best. We are confident we can compete with the world.
AGENTS FOR BIG 3 OVERALLS
BUY NOW AT BRICK BROS.
The House That Guarantees Every Purchase

SALEM'S ROYAL BAKERY
FRESH BAKERY GOODS. ¶ WE AIM TO PLEASE OUR CUSTOMERS
Phone 378 240 S. Commercial

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY
FOUNDED FEBRUARY 1, 1842.
A Christian institution of higher learning. Located at the Capital of the State of Oregon. A beautiful campus opposite the Capitol building. Buildings and equipment attractive and adequate. Faculty of highest character, preparation and teaching ability. Student body clean, able and wholesome. Scholarship high and accredited everywhere. Very inexpensive. Rich in tradition and in a large and honored alumni. Students wishing work in the College of Liberal Arts, in Law, in Theology, in Music, or in Fine Art are highly advantaged at Willamette. Closest investigation is invited. Bulletins on request.
PRESIDENT CARL G. DONEY, SALEM, OREGON

U. G. SHIPLEY COMPANY
OUTFITTERS TO
WOMEN MISSES and CHILDREN
WHERE SHOPPING IS A PLEASURE
LIBERTY STREET—BETWEEN STATE and COURT STREETS

H. D. MITCHELL
Students' Barber, 1266 State St.

The Spa
Delicious hot chocolate and other hot drinks.
Light lunches and confectionery.
382 State Street

EXTRA PANTS FREE
with each three-piece suit sold during a limited time. Don't miss this chance. Remember no extra charge.
Scotch Woolen Mills

Ask for
T. S. Townsend Creamery Co.
White Clover Brand of Butter
The BEST on the Market
137 So. Commercial Street

LEE CANFIELD
BARBER SHOP
Basement of Hubbard Building, Corner State and High
Baths in Connection Salem Ore.

The Model Shaving Parlors
EARNEST ANDERSON, Prop.

BATHS and SHINES
112 N. Commercial St.

Do Business by Mail
It's profitable, with accurate lists of prospects. Our catalogue contains vital information on Mail Advertising. Also prices and quantity on 6,000 national mailing lists, 99% guaranteed. Such as:
War Material Mfrs. Wealthy Men
Cheese Box Mfrs. Axle Grease Mfrs.
Shoe Retailers Auto Owners
Contractors Tin Can Mfrs.
Druggists Farmers, Etc.
Write for this valuable reference book; also prices and samples of facsimile letters.
Have us write or revise your Sales Letters.
Ross-Gould, 1501 Olive St.
Ross-Gould Mailing Lists St. Louis

JURORS FAIL TO DECIDE LAND CASE

FACTS AND EVIDENCE SO COMPLEX NO DECISION IS POSSIBLE; CHARITABLE SWINDLER IS ARRAIGNED

Six jurors, pledged to try the issue according to the facts and evidence adduced at the trial, found the facts and evidence so complex that no decision was reached in the moot court Monday night. Mr. Homesteader, plaintiff, sued Mr. Newcomer for the recovery of 10 acres of land. Lamport and Small appeared for the plaintiff; while Fred Bynon and Hayden expounded the defendant's side of the controversy.

The plaintiff's allegations asserted that he and his wife took up a homestead of 620 acres bordering on Mudd lake, in 1859. Several years later the state of Oregon acquired title to the entire lake under the U. S. Government Swamp Act. The state conveyed the entire lake to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, and the railroad company sold the land to Mr. Newcomer, the defendant.

The defendant said that he widened the outlet from the lake and drained the land preparatory to farming same. He produced a warrantee deed from the S. P. company, and a copy of the government survey. Both of these records correspond in every detail to the land he claimed to own.

The plaintiff testified that the lake was drained by natural causes, and not by the industry of the defendant. He further alleged that the state of Oregon could not transfer a good title to the lake bottom, because, under the law, adjoining owners are always entitled to the ownership of the land to the center of the lake. There being 20 acres drained by the recession of the lake, the plaintiff contended that 10 rightfully belonged to him, and the other 10 to the defendant; but that the defendant had fenced the entire tract and that the plaintiff, with the aid of a shot gun had repeated failed to force the adverse holder to abandon the 10 acres claimed by the plaintiff.

The judge instructed the jury that the plaintiff would not be entitled to a verdict unless he had proved the lake to be navigable. The plaintiff did not introduce any evidence on this point, so the jury failed to agree.

Preliminary to the main even of the evening, Baron Waldorf was arraigned before the court on a criminal charge. The indictment charged the Baron of representing himself to be an agent of the Red Cross society with authority to collect money for the Belgian relief fund. After collecting the money the Baron would invariably realize that the gratification of his own wants were far more pressing to him than those of the far away, war stricken, hungry Belgians.

When asked to plead guilty or not guilty to the charge of obtaining money under false presenses, the baron asked the court to extend the time in which he might enter his plea one day. This request was granted. The trial will probably take place next Monday night.

M. A. A. C. DEFEAT W. U.

First Foreign Game Results in 22 to 7 Defeat.

In the return game with Multnomah played at Portland, January 27, the varsity was defeated 22 to 7.

This was the first foreign game the team played this season. Although it took them some time to get used to the floor, they put up a good game. However, the line of Mutlnomah stars was too much for them.

The line-up:

Multnomah.		Willamette.
Dewey (14)	F	(1) Teall
Clerin (2)	F	(4) Esteb
Edwards	C	(2) Jackson
Mix (2)	C
Tooney (4)	G	Flegel
Tuning	G	Nichols

Ward's Drug Store.

HAIGHT MAKES GOOD

Work At Pennsylvania University Is Among Best.

Reports from Pennsylvania University show that the West can make good in the East. Lloyd Haight, a member of last year's freshman class who is enrolled in the department of dentistry, received a rare compliment. The head of the laboratory work told him he did the best work of any freshman who had come under his supervision.

Have you bought that ticket for Tuesday night?

WASHINGTON GAME NEXT

Victors Over Oregon, But Loses to W. S. C.—to Play Varsity.

What is predicted to be a close game will be staged in the gym tonight between the University of Washington and varsity quintets.

This conclusion is based on comparative scores. In four games between W. S. C. and Washington the average score is about 34 to 22. W. S. C. beat Willamette 35 to 18.

Davidson, who is both Coach and captain of the Washingtonians, made a total of 46 points in the two games with Oregon.

Ladies' Glee Club appears February 13.

STORIES FOR SPECTATOR

Cash Prizes Offered for Best Student Production.

A Portland weekly journal in celebration of its tenth birthday has offered a list of prizes for literary work that will undoubtedly be of interest to Oregon's aspiring young authors. For the best original story, not to exceed 3000 words, written by a student in a university or college in Oregon, they offer a first prize of $30; for the next best, $15; third, $7.50. For the best original story, not to exceed 3000 words, written by a pupil in a public or private school of Oregon, $20; second, $10; third, $5. For the best poem, written by a stdent in university, college, or school, $10; second, $5. For the best pen and ink or crayon sketch, produced by a student, $10; second, $5. The contributions, which must be received at the office of the Spectator on or before February 24, will be considered by competent judges. Stories and poems must be written on one side only of the paper. It is not necessary that they be typewritten.

PRESIDENT TO BE ELECTED.

Trustees to Choose New Head at the Regular Meeting, Feb. 13.

At the regular mid-year session of the board of trustees to be held in Portland, February 13, a president will be elected to succeed the late T. S. McDaniel.

Other business that will occupy the attention of the board will be the consideration of honorary degrees and hearing of President Doney's report.

Ward's Drug Store.

W. S. C. DEFEATS VARSITY TEAM

State Champions of Washington Down Local Quintet by Ratio of 35 to 18

Bohler and Moss Star for Visitors—Flegel and Esteb High Point Men for Willamette.

Superior brawn and teamwork on the part of the Washington State College quintet resulted in a Bearcat defeat on the local floor last Wednesday. The score was 35 to 18.

The game started with rush, and for a few minutes neither team was able to score, the ball was quickly worked up and down the floor, but close guarding prevented any good shots. The first point made was a free throw by Captain Bohler. After several reckless tries at the ring from close range by the visitors, Bohler annexed a field score. This was quickly followed by a successful close shot by Esteb. For another two or three minutes Willamette took the offensive but lost it without an addition of points. During the remainder of the first half W. S. C. managed to find the basket from any position on the floor while the varsity annexed but two more points, due to a long side shot by Flegel. The score at the close of this period was 13 to 4.

In the second canto both teams found the hoop oftener, but the lead gained in the first half, the lucky long short of Bohler and Moss and perfect guarding proved too much for the cardinal and gold defenders. In spite of the fact that luck seemed to be against them the Bearcats led the game the last four or five minutes, and clearly outplayed their opponents. Flegel's three ringers from difficult positions was the feature of this period. W. S. C. annexed 22 and Willamette 14 points in the second half, making the final scort of 35 to 18.

The score looks somewhat one-sided but if anyone has an idea that the game was tame let him glance at the line-up and then if he be still skeptical, let him question any spectator and he will learn that the contest in question was as commendable exhibit of basketball played on the home floor in many a day. Few fouls were called on either side but there was all the red-blooded action that the most critical could ask for. W. S. C. surely knew that there had been a basketball game somewhere that afternoon and they appeared somewhat tickled when the last whistle blew.

Particular stars among the Bearcats are hard to pick. All the men put in all they had. Flegel and Nichols might be called the "class" of the team but the work of Jackson and Tobie wasn't any more than a thin shade behind them. Like the deceased cowboy, "they seen their duty and they done it noble." The real surprise of the contest was Tobie. When he trotted out with the boys for the preliminary warm-up, everyone was wondering where Brooks was, but in the game, all such wonder ceased for Friend Tobie was on hand like a sore thumb and brought the crowd to its feet several times.

The line-up:

W. S. C.		W. U.
Price (6)	F	(8) Flegel, Capt.
Moss (10)	F	(8) Esteb
Bohler, Capt. (11)	C	(2) Jackson
Copeland (6)	G	Tobie
Sorenson (2)	G	Nichols

Free throws: Bohler, 3 out of 5; Esteb, 2 out of 4. Referee, Gingrich, Salem Y. M. C. A.

Ward's Drug Store.

CREDITS FOR METHODS FIXED.

After This Year They Will Count in Department Given.

After this year credits gained in the various Methods' classes will count in the department under which the course is given. But for seniors this year the credits may count in the Department of Education.

This has been the source of much confusion from year to year, but in the last faculty meeting it was settled once and for all.

M'MILLIN COACHES DRUGGISTS

Embryo Pharmacists to Take State Examinations.

Fred McMillin, premier chemist, custodian of the chemical labratories, and assistant to Prof. Von Eschen, has been singled out by four young men of Salem as the one man best fitted to coach them in preparation for the state examination in pharmacy, that will be held the later part of April. This selection comes as a result of Mr. McMillin's knowledge of chemistry which is well recognized among his friends.

Ward's Drug Store.

LOBBYIST VISITS CAMPUS

"Bone Dry" Reporter From Oklahoma Amuses Frosh.

It was Wednesday of examination week. Dean Clark was coming from the registrar's office into the hall. Three underclassmen were standing near the bulletin board. A whiskered gentleman entered the front door and approached the dean.

"What is this Will-am-ette Industry as they call it out there?" asked the unshaven one as he pointed toward the pillars in front of Eaton Hall.

The dean collected his wits after a pause and with an effort to conceal his smile explained: "This is Willamette University. They keep 'em busy, too."

"What do they do here?" inquired the stranger.

"This is a school, a college."

"Oh—is it before the high school?"

By this time Clark's smile was so broad that he felt disposed to attend to other matters.

The stranger stared about him in wide eyed and amazed curiosity while occasionally jotting down very brief notes in a soiled note book.

Having satisfied himself so far as sight was concerned he resumed his inquiry. He turned to the trio of underclassmen who were about to "bust," and by inquiring learned that they "could learn to be lawyers, preachers and teachers here."

He then quickly wrote a short memorandum after which he asked, "How on earth do they git the money to keep this up?"

Upon receiving the desired information, he incidentally made it known that he was "a reporter from his part of the country" and that it would be well to make note of all this dope. Furthermore he voluntarily told the twittering rooks that he missed the steamboat by about five minutes this morning and that he would have to wait until tomorrow to go to Portland; that he was from Washington and that he used to live in Oklahoma; that he was going to take a swing around by Olympia; that he was here lobbying for the passage of the "Bone Dry" bill; that he had been a bone dry man ever since he was a boy; that he had never used the weed; that Oklahoma has a strict cigarette law; that there are more crooks in Oklahoma than any other state, and that he would have to be going back to the senate "now" to see how the "Bone Dry" bill was getting along.

—A. Verdant Frosh.

VAN WINKLE HEADS THEOLOGES

Kimball College Student Body Elected for Second Semester.

Kimball College of Theology student body met recently and elected officers. With such a fine set of men to lead them Kimball should make an impression on the campus this semester. The officers are: J. S. Van Winkle, president; Thomas Acheson, vice-president; J. D. Woodfin, secretary; J. W. Miller, sergeant-at-arms; R. M. Gatke, reporter.

One-Third K. U. Men Earn Expenses.

Last year, according to the report of the Y. M. C. A. bureau of employment, 600 of the 1800 men in the University of Kansas earned all or a portion of their way. "No longer is it impossible to attend college, and the number of students attending the university who are forced to make all or part of their expenses is steadily increasing. Records show, too, that they average the highest grades."

Football Nets California Students $2,100.00

The 1916 football season at the University of California closed with a margin of profit of $2100. The department of football brought in $36,400 and used $34,300. In relation to the corresponding figures of 1915 the football receipts of the season just closed are greater by nearly $2500, while the expenses are $10,000 in excess of the previous year. The increase in expenditures is accounted for in the enlargement of the playing schedule, the maintenance of the training table, the purchase of equipment and the increase in the coaching payroll.

TO SAY LESS AND TALK MORE.

A petition is being circulated at the University of Washington to force instructors to say less and talk more in all lecture courses and to prohibit all instructors from giving examinations while the price of loose leaf notebook paper and bluebooks is on its present altitude flight.

Kansas University's Book Exchange.

The busiest place on the University of Kansas campus is said to be the co-operative student book exchange. The exchange was started so that the students could get better prices on their books at the beginning of the new semester. A commission of 10 per cent is charged for the selling. The managers estimate that they will sell more than $1000 worth of boooks before the exchange closes.

Ward's Drug Store.

Montana Aggies Win.

The Montana State University basketball team was defeated by the Montana State College in the first game of the state championship series by 30 to 5, in a contest staged at Missola, Saturday night.

Fancy Fabrics--
Fall Weight

¶ Overcoats are now being offered at greatly reduced prices. It will be to your advantage to to buy now. We use this forceful method of closing out all Fall and Winter Coats, thereby enabling us to show entirely new lines next season.

SALEM WOOLEN MILLS STORE

SPALDING'S Athletic Sweaters, made for Athletes will not stretch out of shape.
Let us show you
Hauser Bros. :: 372 :: State Street

GARRETT
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY CAMPUS
¶ OFFERS THE EXCEPTIONAL ADVANTAGE OF A FOUR QUARTER YEAR TO COLLEGE MEN PREPARING FOR RELIGIOUS LEADERSHIP IN THE LIFE OF TODAY.
¶ OPPORTUNITIES FOR SELF HELP.
¶ BULLETIN OF COURSES ON APPLICATION.
CHARLES M. STUART, PRESIDENT
250 MEMORIAL HALL - EVANSTON, ILLINOIS

WANTED
U. S. Congressmen, Statesmen, Lawyers, Politicians, Governors, Legislators, High School Teachers, College Professors and Presidents, Ministers, Musicians, Artists and Scientists, Philosophers, Orators, Literary Critics, Authors and Poets, Missionaries, Editors and Social Workers : : : : :
If your ambition is in any of these lines
WILLAMETTE
IS THE PLACE FOR YOU
¶ WRITE FOR INFORMATION

KEITH'S KONQUEROR SHOES
WEAR BETTER
A. J. PARIS SHOE SHOP
379 State St.

See Me for Classy
Furnishings
Joe Haines
305 State Street

Who Believes in Salem?
¶ Marion County Does!
So Does Polk County!
LET'S GET TOGETHER!