LAWYERS' FATE YET UNSETTLED

Report of Committee of Trustees Held up; Will be Heard this Spring

CHAIRS HONOR FOUR MEN

Enlarged Student Body Keeps Deficit from Door; Lausanne Rent Raised

"To be or not to be" is still the question facing the law school of Willamette. Reports of a committee dealing with the feasibility of maintaining what has proved to be an expensive portion of the university were held over from the meeting of the executive meeting of the board of trustees in Portland Tuesday and will be considered later in the spring.

Members of the committee are Judge Charles H. Carey, Judge J. L. Rand, E. R. MacBaughton, A. R. Watzek, Roy Shields, Judge O. P. Coshov and Walter H. Keyes. Honoring benefactors of the university, four chairs were established by the executive committee Tuesday. The first, under the Booth foundation, is the presidency of the university. A chair in Bible and religion will bear the name of E. S. Collins, while a chair in English literature will honor B. E. Carrier. A chair in physics was established on the P. W. Severson foundation.

Upon the recommendation of President Carl G. Doney, the committee voted to offer no summer school here this year.

An enlarged enrollment has made possible the operation of the university without a deficit. Room rent in Lausanne has been raised from $2 to $10 a semester while board has been cut to $90.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT TO GIVE RECITALS

Frances Virginia Melton, head of the piano department of Willamette School of Music, announces that the spring piano recitals will begin March 14, with a general recital. Following spring vacation there will be several more of the series including joint recitals by the sophomores, and individual ones by the juniors and seniors in piano. The season will conclude with a post graduate concert by Helene Price. These recitals will be on Monday evenings usually, and from 8 to 9, beginning and ending promptly. They are considered among the most cultural institutions of the school.

Even during this year of depression the piano department has held its own. No students have dropped from the list; instead Miss Melton has added several new pupils, although her time was already full. There is a great deal of talent in the school and the recitals will be of interest.

True Confessions Behind

Blisters and Backaches
*****
Open House at Lausanne

Mingled odors of Dutch Cleanser and O'cedar floor polish floated through the windows and out into the hall which was artistically cluttered with rugs and furniture; it was Open House Day at Lausanne Hall!

Never before had one seen such industry or such spectacular things, as girls fighting over brooms or dust mops. If there was not room in the hallway to put the furniture, it was hung nonchalantly from the windows!

Like newly weds, roommates battled as to whether or not the dresser was to set in this corner or that; but at last everything was in order and the hallway looked sadly deserted except for whirling pools of dust which had not yet settled.

Out from these clean, neat rooms came dirty, untidy, girls, tired yet happy that the job was finished. Everyone went to everyone else's room because each was afraid she'd disorder her

Registrar Notes Cut in Size of W. U. Student Body

Only 24 Lost Compared With 30 Last Year; 585 Are Registered

With the numbers standing at 301 men and 284 women, the enrollment at Willamette for the spring semester now aggregates 585 students. The first term closed with 609 on the books and during registration week 604 cards were drawn but some of these were not returned. Registrar Tennant states registration is now practically complete.

The freshman class suffered the greatest decrease, losing during the fall semester and at its close about 25 members, almost all men. The sophomores lost about 20, but the juniors gained a little. The senior class remained the same.

The graduating class totals 86, of which 30 are men and 56 are women. The juniors have 110, including 50 men and 60 women. The sophomores number 70 men and 64 women for a total of 134. However, in spite of its losses the freshmen still lead with 111 men and 90 women, totaling 201.

Others enrolled are post graduates, 8; special, 6; law, 31; and music, 9.

Mr. Tennant reports that there is always a loss between semesters but in spite of the depression and widespread financial reverses the decrease is not as drastic as the preceding year. At that time 30 students dropped out with 498 registering. This year shows only 24 dropping and 585 returning.

SIXTY-EIGHT LOSE SEMESTER HOURS

Absences Pile up But Are Proportionately Smaller Than Previously

Again the absences take their toll of credits. Registrar H. M. Tennant reports that 63 students reached or passed the total of five absences, causing a deduction of 131 semester hours.

This loss of hours take into account 65 unexcused absences, but does not include the ones of student who kept below the five limit. As there were about 865 absences marked up by the first week of January, the complete list numbers more than 1000.

But even this is an improvement over last year when in the second semester, 150 hours were lost, and taking into consideration the increased registration this year, the fact is considered even more encouraging.

BETTY MOFFATT LEADS Y. W. MEETING TODAY

Betty Moffatt, freshman from Sitapur, India, will discuss life in India at the Y. W. C. A. meeting this Thursday at 4:15 p. m. in the Y. W. room of Eaton Hall. There will be special Indian music, a vocal solo by Miss Doris Clarke. All women are cordially invited.

Miss Clarke announces that Miss Marcela Seeber, National Student Secretary, will be on the campus to lead the Y. W. meeting next week.

SENIORS FACE ORAL ORDEAL

Natural Science Section is Only One to Complete Schedule to Date

ORALS LAST TWO HOURS

Approximately 90 Seniors Will be Quizzed Before Graduation

Senior Orals are once more impending and they will actually begin immediately after the spring vacation on Monday, March 28.

The official records are not yet complete but approximately 90 seniors are ready to meet the ordeal that will mean either the fulfillment or defeat of graduation hopes. All the seniors but one on probation are doing perfectly satisfactory work. Registrar Tennant shows in his grade reports, so the class will undoubtedly triumph in the test.

There will be three divisions taking the examination, the Natural Science, Letters and Social Science groups.

To date only the schedule of the Natural Science section has been compiled. There are 20 students each being individually interrogated by three or more instructors.

On March 28, Dorothy Eastridge will be questioned by Lattimer, Clark and Curry, and Faye Henderson by Peck, Monk and Johnson; March 30, Lucile Millhollin by Lattimer, Johnson and Dahl; March 31, Richard Sherwin by Peck, Monk and Johnson; April 1, Gertrude Oehler by Lattimer, Brown and Mrs. Monk; April 4, Ellen Jean Moody by Peck, Monk, Lattimer and Erickson, and Lila Cation by Johnson, Clark, Matthews, Brown and DeNise.

April 6, Alfred French by Peck, Monk and Johnson; April 7, Emma Sawyer by Lattimer, Clark and Erickson; April 8, Bernice Orwig by Peck, Monk and Johnson, and Benetta Edwards by Lattimer, Clark and Curry; April 11, French Hageman, by Clark, Johnson, Matthews, and Dahl; April 13, Bertha Babcock by Lattimer, Matthews and Mrs. Monk.

April 14, Marjorie Moser by Matthews, Clark, Vazakas and Mrs. Monk; April 15, Esther Girrod by Matthews, Brown, Mrs. Monk, and Curry; April 18, Chas. Campbell by Peck, Monk and Brown; April 20, Margerie Hanna by Matthews, Brown and Mrs. Monk; April 21, Clarence Poor by Peck, Monk, Dahl, and Sherman; May 2, Carl Cording by Brown, Matthews, and Monk; May 9, Perry Spellbrink by Brown, Johnson and Clark.

The orals will be at least two hours in length. The candidates for graduation will be questioned first by their major professor, and then proceed to the other instructors for further questioning. The quizzing of all groups will continue indefinitely until all seniors have completed it, which may carry it up to the time of the final examinations in June.

Professor Johnson states that the orals will be as difficult as ever or so spring vacation will probably be a period of frenzied preparation by the class of '32.

Y. W. NOMINATION PETITIONS DUE

Elections for major Y. W. C. A. officers will be held Tuesday, February 23.

Miss Doris Clarke, Y. W. president, urges the girls interested to make nominations. Nominations are made by petitions, circulated by any member of the association, and signed by fifteen Y. W. members. Requirements for candidates are: president, Junior rank and one year's experience on the cabinet; vice-president, sophomore or Junior, preferably the former; secretary and treasurer from Freshman rank.

All petitions must be handed in to the secretary, Ruth Schreiber, by 8 p. m., Friday, February 19.

Only girls who have signed Y. W. pledge cards will be allowed to vote.

DR. DONEY SPEAKS

Prof. Doney went to Tillamook Monday, February 15, to speak at a meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association there. The meeting was in honor of George Washington, and Dr. Doney's talk was related to that topic.

Geo. Washington Oratory Contest Held In Salem

Preliminaries Slated for Waller Hall; Finals in State House

To celebrate the Washington bicentennial representatives of eleven colleges and universities in Oregon will meet in an oratorical contest in Salem February 22. Hal Bolinger will represent Willamette university.

A preliminary contest will be held in Waller Hall in the afternoon and all contestants will be permitted to enter competition.

The five contestants who are judged as being best will then enter the final contest which will be held in the state hall of representatives in the evening.

The speeches will not exceed twelve minutes in length and must be on prescribed phases of the general subject of Washington, as "The Courageous," "The Man of Vision," "His Military Ability," "The Nation Builder," and others.

LOAN FUNDS AID MORE THAN SIXTY

Greater Number than Ever Before Ask Financial Assistance

Student loan funds are providing valuable aid for students whose financial condition would necessitate their leaving school this semester. Dean Erickson states that nearly 60 have made application for help and have received amounts varying from $25 to $250. There are several sources from which this money may be drawn. The Booth Fund, the Methodist Fund, and the Masonic Fund are the largest. The Association of University Women has provided help for several. Dr. Charles Duncan, field representative for the university, has secured a number of individual loans amounting to $500.

The loans are considered a purely business transaction and are made only to students who have a genuine need for assistance.

The money is payable immediately following the close of the school year, and no interest is charged until that time. According to Dean Erickson many more have asked for financial aid this year than in any years previous, but owing to the interest shown by outsiders, the financial plan is proving most successful.

SPARKS CHECKS ON STUDENT INTEREST

The new student activity books adopted this year to replace student body tickets provide an excellent means of determining the amount of student interest in school activities. As each coupon used for an athletic event admission or for a copy of the Collegian must be signed and detached a complete record of student interest may be ascertained.

Lois Sparks, graduate manager, says that Willamette students are more individually than group-minded. This fact is proved by the student body coupons as the highest number turned in at a single football game was 24 per cent. The highest number taken in at a basketball game so far is 173. Out of a total of over 600 registered students this attendance shows little interest in such activities, he believes.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT RECEIVES FOSSILS

Several specimens of fossils, mostly fan shells, taken from the material excavated for a culvert near Roseburg, Oregon, have been given to Prof. Herman Clark by William Currah, 35. The fossils are different sizes and forms of fan shells, snails, periwinkles and other low forms of animal-life. Prof. Clark says that the animals lived at a time when the Roseburg country was near the beach, probably making this judgment from the fact that the fossils are imbedded in sandstone. These rocks will be for general use in the science department and others may be secured later for the university museum.

INTERNATIONAL BANQUET MAR. 2

COMMITTEES APPOINTED

Dr. Doney Will act as Toastmaster; Places Will Be Set for 250

An International banquet will be sponsored by the International club on Wednesday evening of March 2. This affair will be held at the First Methodist church and a general international atmosphere. All International club members will be in their native costumes to receive the guests and to entertain them during the dinner. Dr. Carl G. Doney will act as the Toastmaster for the evening. Places for 250 guests will be set at the colorful tables.

Decorations: Betty Moffatt, Augustine Balmoja, Mariano Rodriguez, Wallace Turner.

Costume: Susan Hall, Frances Maeda, Seiko Watanabe.

Serving: Chairman, Esther Girrod and helpers to be appointed.

Menu: Chairman, Ruth Warner.

Advertising: Wesley Warren, Walter Warner.

Ticket: William Hall, Walter Warner.

Program: Chairman, George Cannady.

A unique and very colorful program is being planned for the entertainment of the guests by the club members. The program will consist of six different features all presented in costume.

The Filipino feature will include a native "La Jota" dance and a Spanish Serenade scene carried out in the true Spanish style with the appropriate music, background and lighting effects.

The Chinese and the Japanese members will endeavor to bring to the guests a breath of the mysterious and colorful Orient with their contributions which will include native music and a special Japanese wedding ceremony performed in the true primitive Shinto fashion.

The Russian boys in Cossack suits will contribute a Russian feature of special music and dances of their native people.

Plaintive Indian music and the gaily colored costumes of the performers will add to the interest of this unique program.

Negro music and poetry will also be included in the evening's entertainment.

Since the program is to be presented by the International club members in their native costumes, this affair promises to be highly entertaining and unique in both color and presentation.

Tickets for the banquet will be $1.25 and will be on sale within a few days.

BULLETIN BOARD PUT IN ORDER

Definite action was taken toward correcting the disorderliness of the bulletin board in Eaton hall at the regular meeting of Blue Key held Tuesday noon, Feb. 9.

To facilitate the reading of the notices of the bulletin board, it was suggested that notices be placed under their proper headings on cards of uniform 3 by 5 inch size. Marion Moore and Hayes Beall were instructed to see Dean Erickson concerning these suggestions and to make arrangements to carry them out. It was voted that a committee be appointed to cooperate with the management of the state tournament. Blue Key men will be helpful in furthering the interests of Willamette by entertaining visiting teams.

Y'S SPONSOR VESPERS TONIGHT IN KIMBALL

Vespers, sponsored by the Willamette Y. W. Y. M. C. A., will be held this Thursday evening in Miss Melton's studio at the usual hour, 8-9 p. m. Those who have already attended are enthusiastic over this inspirational half-hour, led by Miss Margaret Stevenson in a candle-light worship service. Every student is cordially invited.

Low Scholarship Drives Ten Out Into Cold World

Sixty-One Are on Probation With Grade Average Lower than "C"

Ten Willamette university students have been dropped from school this semester and 51 more were placed on strict probation because of low scholarship, according to Registrar Tennant.

Of those with failing work only two were women, both freshmen. There were three freshmen men, four sophomores, and one junior. No senior was forced to leave.

The total, 71, including both the students dropped and on probation, is made up largely of men. They far outnumber the women, being 58 in number, 82 per cent of the group, as compared with 13 for the women. The freshmen have 40 on the list; sophomores, 24; juniors, 6; and seniors, 1.

In contrast, the second semester of last year found 18 students dropped and only 21 placed on probation. At the present time less are receiving the extreme measure but there is a 190 per cent increase in those put on probation. However, there must be a noticeable improvement among the probationers this semester or they in turn will be requested not to return.

LIGHT OPERA PRAISED OUTSTANDING EVENT

Professor Marshall Bears Financial Loss of Undertaking

Outstanding among the accomplishments of student groups this year was the production of Charles Wakefield Cadman's light opera, "The Golden Trail," by students of the school of music under the direction of Professor Cameron Marshall with Mr. Cadman himself in the role of guest conductor.

More than 200 persons were turned away from the theatre the night of the opera because every seat was taken. An unusually sympathetic and enthusiastic audience received the production, while excellence of dramatic portrayal as well as musical presentation was noted on the part of the characters.

Also worthwhile, especially to music lovers, was the recital of Cadman's music given by him in Waller chapel the Saturday night after the opera. He was assisted by the MacDowell club chorus and by Bernice Hickman, junior soprano soloist.

Mr. Cadman was brought to Salem not by the combined glee club as many students have supposed, but by Professor Cameron Marshall, who underwrote the entire proceeding, and upon whom the loss of approximately $100 will fall.

PEP STAFF PERFORMS SOCIAL SERVICE WORK

Continuing their social service, which was started before the Christmas holidays, the committee of the PEP Staff under the direction of Helen Boardman has collected from university women several dresses and other discarded articles of wearing apparel.

These things are to be given to Dean Robertson at the high school who will see to the distribution among those who are in need of more clothing.

JAPANESE LEAGUE CLOSES PEACE SERIES

Last Sunday evening the Japanese Young People's League brought to a close the series of discussions on "The World Peace Problem."

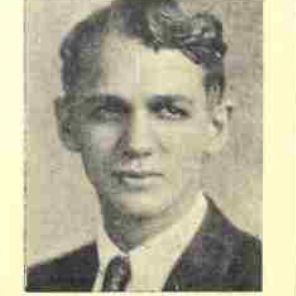

Frances Maeda and Tommy Ogura who were in direct charge of the last three Sunday evening meetings devoted to "The World Peace" unit conducted the discussions in such a way as to help the young people realize the vital importance of this great problem to the Christians of the world.

In summarizing the material covered during the three weeks, and as a fitting conclusion to this unit, the Reverend Kiyoshi Nomi appealed to the young men and women to be steadfast and true to Christ's ideal of world peace.

LAST TUITION PAYMENTS ARE DUE MARCH FIFTH

A complete record of university finances is not obtainable at this time as complete payment of tuition is not due until March 5. Students are slow in getting their activity books. So far only $282 have been given out.

SPEAKER

RAY LAFKY

FORENSIC HONORS ACHIEVED BY W. U.

McCullough and Lafky High Point Men in Final Contests

Forensic achievements have marked the two weeks just passed. More intercollegiate victories have been chalked up by debaters than have been usual within an entire season at Willamette.

Willamette men walked off with honors in the debate section of the forensic meet held at Linfield February 5 and 6. Ralph McCullough and Ray Lafky took the finals, defeating Pacific university.

Ray Lafky, speaking on a subject concerning political parties in the United States, won the state extemporaneous speaking contest held at Oregon State College in Corvallis Friday night. University of Oregon, Oregon State College, Pacific university, Linfield, and Willamette were represented there.

Willamette men defeated Pacific university in a dual debate Monday, February 8. Ralph McCullough and Ray Lafky debated the affirmative of the question, "Resolved; that Congress should enact legislation providing for government control of industry."

In Forest Grove, Willamette was represented by John Rudin and Ross Knott, who upheld successfully the negative of the same argument.

That same night Willamette women were defeated by Pacific university women, debating the question, "Resolved; that Nevada's divorce laws should be condemned."

STRING QUARTET PLANS RECITAL ON FEB. 28

The Willamette University String Quartet which performed very creditably at the opera, continued a list of engagements by appearing before the Salem Women's club on Thursday, January 28, and before the District Epworth League Convention on Sunday, February 14. The repertoire of the quartet has been considerably broadened by the recent purchase of several new numbers. Their next appearance will be in a recital at the home of T. S. Roberts on the 28th of February.

FRENCH CLUB MEETS

Members of French club enjoyed a pleasant evening Thursday, February 11, at their regular meeting held in Willamette lodge under the direction of Mrs. A. Vazakas. The usual French conversation was carried on for several hours.

American Dollars Make Interesting Travel Told

Visitors Welcome in Russia

With an eye for the American dollar, the Russian government is making it much easier to get into Russia now than at any time during the past few years according to Harry W. Laidler, executive secretary of the League for Industrial Democracy, who spoke in chapel Wednesday, February 10. Laidler has recently returned from a visit to Europe where he has observed a general trend toward social democracy in many countries besides Russia.

CLASSES READY FOR PRACTICES

Glee Songs Are Chosen and Committees at Work; Judges Announced

INTEREST MOUNTS HIGH

Songs Must be in by February 23; Traditional Betting in Order

Class interest and rivalry in the annual Freshman Glee, to take place on Saturday, March 5, at the Willamette gym, is running exceptionally high this year, due to the pronounced and determined enthusiasm being shown by the freshman class who are striving hard to defeat the other classes in the race for the pennant. Only three weeks remain to decide which class shall humbly descend into mill stream, which, according to alumni, who have shared a like fate in past years, is none too warm at this particular season.

Actual song and formation practice by the different classes will start next week. The seniors and sophomores have already selected their songs and the juniors and freshman will hold special meetings the end of this week to decide on their songs. The words and music to the senior song were written by Margaret Warnke. The seniors have also elected Helen Kutch as their song leader. The sophomores base their hopes of winning the pennant on a peppy song written by Midge Hewitt, who has also been appointed song leader. Eugene Smith, last semester sophomore president, is chairman of the formation committee and is assisted by Ruth Gillette and Arthur Erickson. Ruth Schreiber is chairman of the sophomore song committee.

Doris Clarke, glee song chairman, has announced the glee judges as follows: Music—Miss Dorothy Pearce, Professor T. S. Roberts, Ruth Bedford; Words—Miss Carol Dibble, Miss Ada Ross, Rev. H. B. Fouke; Adaptability—Miss Lella Johnson, Mr. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. Otto Paulus; Presentation—Mr. J. C. Nelson, Mr. R. Barton, Miss Lena Bell Tartar.

Three copies of music and words of each class glee song must be handed in to Doris Clarke by Tuesday, February 23, at 6 p. m.

As the date for the traditional glee event draws nearer, class presidents will probably call a number of special meetings in order to secure a closer cooperation between the committees and class members.

As Willamette is the only school that sponsors a Freshman Glee, this traditional event has grown to become one of the most important events on the university calendar because it is an occasion when alumni, parents and friends get a glimpse of campus activities and school spirit at its best. This event is always exciting and interesting and brings many enthusiastic song visitors to the city.

Members of French club enjoyed a pleasant evening Thursday, February 11, at their regular meeting held in Willamette lodge under the direction of Mrs. A. Vazakas. The usual French conversation was carried on for several hours.

EUGENIA SAVAGE WRITES FROM CHINA

Eugenia Savage, Willamette, '28, daughter of N. S. Savage, business secretary, writes a most interesting letter from Hwa Nan Girls' College at Foochow, China, where, on December 10, she began the task of introducing a full course of music into that institution, after obtaining graduate work in music at the University of Southern California. She is at present spending four hours daily studying the Chinese language.

At the hall where Miss Savage lives the faculty members may have either the native Chinese foods or "Foreign" dishes. Most members there, and she among them, prefer the Chinese foods. What is more she actually eats with chopsticks, although she admits an extra spoon is kept handy for use in case she gets too far behind. Each one at the table has an extra pair of chopsticks and an extra service spoon to use for servings from the large "family" dish in the center.

Typical Chinese hospitality is hinted at when Miss Savage mentions having been served a ten course dinner one noon at a Chinese home, and at night of the same day another ten course meal by a second Chinese friend.

Foochow, Miss Savage says is a city of extremes and of opposing contrasts. On the one hand is the fragrance and beauty of magnificent gardens and tangerine groves now in full fruit. In sharp contrast is the poverty, children in rags, squalor, and the narrow, poorly lighted streets of the city.

Miss Savage also calls attention to the impressive stability of things in China. A few days after landing at Foochow she was entertained at a gorgeous and immense Chinese home where room after room had been added during the seven generations the home had been occupied by one family. One bridge near the city has recently been rebuilt on the same rock foundation placed there thousands of years ago, while a nearby gate is one of the original gateways of the ancient great wall.

GLEE TRIP PLANS STILL INDEFINITE

Plans are being made for the spring tour of the Philharmonic Choir, composed of both Glee clubs.

The tour will be made about the time of spring vacation. The schedule is not complete but it will not be for very extended time due to the general depression. It has been found hard to get engagements which will warrant making the trip, due to its heavy expenses.

The choir started its weekly rehearsals last Monday evening, February 15 and is taking up the study of Creation and Oratorio by Haydn. They expect to give this Oratorio the last of May or first part of June.

FACULTY GROUP READS JR. PLAY

According to tradition the junior class presents a play each year as one of the events of May week-end. This year's play committee, consisting of Lulu Allen, Ralph McCullough, and Lois Wilkes, chairman, has chosen a play which is now in the hands of the faculty committee.

Professor Matthews, chairman of the faculty committee, has approved the play, as has Professor Rahe. Professor Zillman also affirmed his choice, while Dr. Pearce has not yet had an opportunity to read the copy.

It is expected that the play will be chosen and ordered before the end of the week. Donald Clark has been elected manager, and will begin work at once upon organizing his staff.

HELEN KUTCH ELECTED BEETHOVEN PRESIDENT

Helen Kutch was elected President of the Beethovens when they met at the Delta Phi house Friday, and is to serve during this semester with Frances Laws, vice president; Miriam Armitage, secretary; and Gus Klempel, treasurer.

Presentation of some outside artists is to be one of the coming programs to be presented in chapel by the group. This artist who hasn't been selected yet, probably will be invited to give his program some time in April. The annual Beethoven banquet is to be given in April.

NEW W. U. HISTORY WILL BE WRITTEN

History Major will Compile Book from Original Sources

Stories of student life and of the administration of former years at Willamette university are wanted by the score. The occasion is a writing of the history of the oldest institution from the immigration of Jason Lee and his friends until the present time. One of the class of '32, a history major, is doing the piece.

Former students and instructors, alumni, former officials and friends of the institution are asked to help. It makes no difference if what one has he thinks is a trivial matter—sometimes those little things throw new light on to the history of a thing as old and as historic and as interesting as Willamette university.

Letters, written today and in the past, pamphlets, booklets, diary notations, magazine and newspaper articles are all desirable. They should be mailed to Professor George H. Alden, History department, Willamette University, Salem, Oregon.

The content of the communications should include accounts of student life, fraternity and sorority life, class-room incidents, student movements, administrative actions, ceremonies, holidays, the various departments and related schools (medical, law, teachers' school, the Academy, grammar school, Oregon Institute, and so on), funny incidents, funny mistakes by students and teachers, and any other things that can be recalled.

When it is completed this work will be put into printed form for those interested to read. It is hoped that the book will be the most complete account of Willamette university in print.

WRITER'S CLUB PRESENTS PROGRAM

Coffee House, campus writers' organization, held its second chapel program of the school year. Mrs. Nellie Ackerman, president, presided. A group of members read pieces of their own work.

"The Night Mail," was given by Virginia Kaiser, and was especially impressive. Nellie Perrine read "Oriental Dreams." "Church Suppers," a clever prose selection, was read by Darlowe Johnson.

Cecile Adams gave two poems, "Waiting" and the "Yaller Mustang." Nellie Ackerman read "A Bird Flew Into the Moon." "Mist Flowers," "Smoke Fountains," and "Fog Scarfs"—three short poems, were read by Ruth Warner. Lois Wilkes read "Little Boy Wind." "Bars" was given by Deena Hart. "The Calendar Hunters," one of her south Commercial street sketches, read by Isabel Childs, concluded the program.

MRS. DONEY ILL WITH FLU
Mrs. Carl G. Doney has been confined to her home since Sunday with an attack of influenza.

Also on Saturday morning Reverend W. S. Gleiser spoke concerning "Echoes of Impressions of the Chicago Convention."

In the afternoon the guests made a tour of the city. They divided up in groups and visited the many places of interest that Salem can boast about.

In the evening Lausanne open house attracted many of the visitors besides the Willamette-College of Puget Sound game.

Students of the speech department presented a play, "Terrible Meek" which was also interesting that evening. Members of the cast were Lawrence Brown, Dorothy Dalk and Ralph Foster. Miss Sevilla Phelps was the director.

MRS. CHIN GIVES CHINESE VERSION

Speaker Declares Japan to be Brutal Aggressors in Present Conflict

Japan is doomed from the beginning if China is forced to a general tightening of its economic boycott, since China is Japan's best customer, declared Mrs. Lillian Chin, of the Portland Chinese Patriotic society. In her speech in chapel Monday she presented her nation's side of the Sino-Japanese conflict now raging. Mrs. Chin asserted that the boycott was legal, as it was the only means of defense of the Chinese against Japanese encroachments, as well as being recognized by international law.

Speaking on the attack upon Shanghai, Mrs. Chin declared that Japan struck the populous section of Chapel in the night, after the major had acceded to the demands of the Japanese admiral. With 97 per cent of its people Chinese, Mrs. Chin declared that Manchuria was an integral part of China. By treaties, Japan had recognized the territorial integrity of China with special reference to Manchuria as part of China.

Mrs. Chin further charged, in her speech against the brutality and aggression of Japan, that the Chinese had not torn up a section of the South Manchurian railway and that such an act would have been impossible as the leased railroad zone was at that time being policed by a Japanese regiment; furthermore, it has been established that the telephone and telegraph wires along the right-of-way had been buried beneath the ground in preparation.

The only hope for China, in the opinion of Mrs. Chin, lies with the League of Nations. Another world war can be avoided if this body can bring about a settlement between the two Oriental countries.

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

BEHIND THE BEARCAT

Frank Haley

A few fellows have been heard to say that they were glad spring football didn't start this week. Do you think they could be thinking of the frozen layer awdust that would come up and smack them on the face??

And came a post card from Howard Maple who left Saturday morning the 11, for the Washington Senators training camp. He writes:

Dear Spec: We made Red Huff today, and took it easy. (It was a picture post card of Jupiter Lake, Calif., and showed an angler fishing on the lake; he continues: No, not me on the rock fishing. Be in Los Angeles tomorrow, Sunday.

"I just dare you," say a group of Willamette's big scrappy men. "Dare what?" is asked. "To sit any place but in the Willamette rooting section and yell."

A word to the wise is sufficient. Let's have a "go gettin'" group of student fans in the stands to help take Pacific. What say?

Did anyone notice that Albany took College of Puget Sound down another ring Monday at Albany? Looks as though wins over the Loggers are no criterion on which to base our championship hopes.

The average fan does not see all and understand all. This is not taking any credit from our Galloping Perc Carpenter, but rather is it another score for Spec Keene. Spec knew that Coach Sandberg of C.P.S. put his weakest man of Carpenter and planned his offense accordingly. The responsibility was well placed for Perc sure came through.

Klostra went up against three Pacific hoopers who played with him in high school. The scoring column certainly looked as though he tried to show them up.

HALEY NEW SPORTS EDITOR Following the resignation of Donnell Sanders, Isabel Childs, editor of the Collegian, has announced the appointment of Frank Haley as sports editor. The appointment is temporary, in the nature of a trial. Haley has selected as his assistant, Forrest Mills.

Y. M. C. A. LAUNCHES SEABECK CAMPAIGN

Conference to Consider Religious as Well as Campus and Current Problems

The Y. M. C. A. is now launching a drive to send about nine men or more to Seabeck from June 11-18. Other Y. M. C. A. organizations of other northwest colleges are laying plans to enlist like delegations. The dates are better for Willamette men as the conference opens the day after exams end.

The Conference is to be based upon the expressed interests and desires of last year's delegates. They will consider not only current problems but also campus problems as well; however, the conference will primarily consider religion itself and what it is when it is truly a part of a man's life.

The delegates from Willamette last year, all of whom speak very highly of the conference were: Wesley Warren, Phil Armstrong, Ralph Foster, Melvin Zahry, Glen Huston, Tom Hall, Carl Cording, Harry Stone and Hayes Beall. Hayes Beall is local chairman for Seabeck this year. For the next two months a personal campaign will be carried on.

DR. REED MAKES CHAPEL SPEECH

Dr. Dorothy Reed, an associate secretary of the executive staff of the National Council for the Prevention of War speak during chapel exercises Tuesday in the interests of the organization which she represents.

Dr. Reed's address was the third of a series. The other two were given by the Japanese consul in Portland and by a Chinese, outlining the pro and con arguments in regard to the Manchurian question.

The only way to prevent war, Dr. Reed said, is to take the profit out of it and for the people to let their statesmen know that peace is wanted.

DR. SHULZE SPEAKS Dr. Shulze spoke at Jason Lee Epworth League last Sunday night, February 14, on the subject of different religions and their founders. The group plans to devote several subsequent meetings to discussion and comparison of these religions.

Bearcats Await Pacific, Whitman

HEAVY PRACTICES ORDER OF WEEK

Bearcats Preparing for On-Slaught on Pacific and Whitman

With the all-important series against Whitman slated for next week-end at Walls Walls, Coach Spec Keene is working the Bearcats overtime this week in an effort to iron out the weak spots which showed up in the series with College of Puget Sound. Improvement, these still seems to be a weakness in the defense against blocking and a good deal of shifting around is being done in practice in an effort to remedy it. The smoothest combination seems to be the same one which started against C.P.S., composed of Allen and Carpenter, guards; Klostra, center, and Benjamin and Faber, forwards. Reike and Kaiser also looked good against the Loggers and will undoubtedly see lots of service during the next week.

Besides the Whitman games the Bearcats are scheduled to play Pacific here next Wednesday. A game scheduled for Friday with Linfield has been called off at Linfield's request. But that Pacific game, it will be no slouch contest.

In the previous tangle the Congregationalists were far off form and lost two good men early in the game. The two squads performed in a style very exciting for the fans. So here's for a good contest, and as Coach Keene puts it, "Pacific will be might hard to take into camp."

VAZAKAS SPEAKS ON MEXICAN VISIT

A visitor in Mexico is confronted with a feeling that something is about to happen, said Dr. Vazakas in chapel Tuesday morning, February 9, when he told of the many paradoxes which he observed among the people during his visit in Mexico last summer. He said that although the majority of the people lived in small huts made of railroad ties, Mexico also boasted many beautiful palaces and temples.

Dr. Vazakas noted that the main of the average Mexican was sober. The crowd in Mexico City, according to the speaker, is cosmopolitan and reminds one of Paris. A distinction was made between the homogeneous union of peoples of a like race in our country and the heterogeneous union of peoples of different races in Mexico. Dr. Vazakas stated that the Mexican union of peoples could be termed as cultural rather than biological.

EDUCATION COST AT W. U. IS LOW

A standard southern college, in size and in nature and scope of work, closely resembling Willamette, published a list of expenses in which is itemed tuition costing $400; board and room in dormitories, $470; student body fee, $30; contingent deposit, $25; health fee, $5; and application fee, $10. The total is $940.

A similar list of expenditures at Willamette reads, tuition, $130; board and room, $250; and student body fee, $20. This total is $400. Willamette has reduced tuition dormitory costs, and student body fee as much as possible and has left out entirely other incidental fees, and thus presents the same program for almost half the expense.

DEAN ERICKSON TO SPEAK AT Y. M. C. A.

Dean Frank M. Erickson is to tell some of his impressions of Willamette men when he speaks at the Y. M. C. A. meeting next Thursday afternoon at 4:00. His speech is following the one by Dean of Women, Olive M. Dahl, who spoke to the men at the last meeting on what the co-eds think of the Willamette men.

Charles Giannoli, who has had charge of these meetings, didn't register this semester but his successor may not be appointed until Y. M. C. A. elections are held after spring vacation.

One Victory Won Toward Badger Pelt

Willamette university defeated Pacific university, 45 to 21 in their first clash of the present season at Forest Grove Saturday, February 6.

It was a real game. In the third canto the Congregationalists were held to four points; then Keene sent in a string of reserves, all of whom played splendidly, and held the losers on even terms, and held the losers on even terms.

After the first few minutes of play the Bearcats lost the lead, but before long they climbed up on top and from then on steadily added to their score.

This was one game in which the Bearcats did very little fouling; not a single Willamette man was forced from the fray, while Pacific lost three via the four personal foul route.

Percy Carpenter did not accompany the team as he was sick in bed with the flu. This situation, however, did not in the least handicap the boys as Weenie Kaiser broke into the scoring column as runner-up for high point. "Algonon" Klostra was the lad who showed up in that game; he potted the hoop for 17 counters.

Lineup and summary: Willamette Benjamin 11, F. 8 Mason Faber 4, F. 8 Douglas Klostra 17, C. 1 Corrigan Allen 3, G. 7 Killits Kaiser 12, G. 6 McKeel Substitutes for Willamette: Hartley, Moore, Griffith 1, Burdette and Reike. For Pacific: Conner 4, Parberry 2. Referee: Piluso.

DELTA THETA PHI BANQUET GIVEN

Roy Shields, graduate of Willamette, spoke at a banquet given by Delta Theta Phi, national legal fraternity, at the Gray Belle last Wednesday night, Feb. 10. Mr. Shields' topic was "Some Things Not Found in Law Books." A few remarks were also made by Earl Knott, also a Willamette alumnus.

Short talks were made by Roy Harland about the life of Abraham Lincoln, and by Howard Berman about the late Chief Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes. Miss Edith Findley favored the audience with a number of marimba solos.

Eugene Ferguson acted as toastmaster at the meeting at which between 35 and 40 members of the fraternity were present.

JOHNSON TALKS ABOUT EDUCATION

Education without religion is not true education according to Bishop Johnson of the Methodist Episcopal church who has been stationed at Capetown, South Africa, for a number of years and who addressed Willamette students in chapel Monday, February 8.

Bishop Johnson told students about the educative work being done by the Methodist church among the natives of Africa. He said that the governments were all following the example of the church schools in their methods of native education.

Bishop Johnson is spending the winter in Salem with his son, Rev. S. Darlow Johnson, pastor of the Leslie Methodist church.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE APPOINTS F. HALEY

Frank Haley, sophomore major in physical education, was elected spring sports manager at a meeting of the executive committee last Thursday. In this position he will manage baseball, track, and tennis.

Haley, who was an assistant on the track staff last season, is also crown prince (assistant yell leader) and sports editor of The Collegian.

Introducing Percy Carpenter, Bearcat Extraordinary

Three Sports Letterman Remembers Best Football Victory Over Whitman and Plans to Teach History; Is Good Student, Married Man

Editor's Note: These small sports biographies of four year lettermen will be a regular feature of The Collegian in the future. This column is conducted by Joe Blanchard.

Percy Carpenter, three sport letterman at Willamette, has led a very busy life in the line of athletics since first starting to high school at Mill Plain, Washington. While in high school "Clap" was a member of the football, basketball, baseball and track teams, and in all of these sports he was an outstanding performer.

Carpenter is 22 years old, 6 feet 1 1/2 inches tall, and weighs 180 pounds. A married man, and expects to be a history teacher in some high school next year. In football Carpenter has played tackle and guard for four years, and has gained All-Conference honors several years.

In basketball he has made his letter three times, having played on the Rook squad in 1928. Carpenter plays guard, but can jump center. As for track Percy is an all-around man, taking a part in most any event, winning three letters. When asked what victory he remembered best, Carpenter responded quickly: "When we beat

BEARCATS TROUNCE FIERY WILDCATS

Willamette's 47 to 29 victory over the fiery Linfield team Wednesday night leaves Willamette and Whitman again tied for first place in the Conference standing as they are the only remaining undefeated teams left in the race.

Up to the end of the first quarter both teams remained even, but in the second period things started to fly and the locals added 22 points to the total before the Wildcats again sunk a basket. The score at half time was 26 to 12.

The Linfield fellows hated to go down this year, for their best team of years was represented. Twice the visitors found a spark of life and sunk a few, but the failure to get possession of the ball on the tip off quieted any serious threat.

Very seldom was it that any of the Wildcats took the ball off of our back board as Allen and Kaiser were in their getting them on every shot. Faber looked his best so far and tied with Benjamin for high point honors.

Lineup and summary: Willamette (47) (29) Linfield Faber 11, F. 3 Hollinghead Benjamin 2, F. 7 Cook Klostra 2, C. 8 Darby Allen 9, G. 8 Eckman Kaiser 4, G. 8 Stewart Reike 6, S. 4 Hipple Gibson 4, S. 3 Gardiner Griffith 1, S. Burdette 1, S. Referee: Strittmater.

MANY MEN'S DEBATES SCHEDULED THIS MONTH A dual debate is to take place between the Willamette varsity men's team and Oregon State college men Friday, February 19, while another is to be held between Willamette men and a men's team from Washington State, February 25. The wage cutting question will be used.

Both freshmen and varsity men debaters will hold dual debates with teams from the University of Oregon, February 26 on the question hinging around the enactment by congress of legislation providing for centralized control of industry.

W. U. PROFS. POSTPONE UTAH EXCAVATION TRIP A preliminary trip to Utah by Prof. Clark and Prof. Monk for the purpose of looking over the field of excavation of the dwelling of the ancient pignias has been postponed from spring vacation to a later date.

Reports of snow and bad weather conditions in the canyon have forced the postponement of the first trip. The matter of excavation has been brought before the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, but the board has not given its report.

TOPIC IS ACTIVITIES Continuing a series of pre-Easter meetings on the subject, "Christ and the Campus," at the University League of First M. E. Church, Eric Carlin will lead a discussion, Sunday at 6:30 on the topic "Christ and Our Group Activities." Last week Carl Mercy was the leader.

Bearkittens Come Back; Take Colts

Coach Sparks' freshmen hoopers staged a come-back over the week-end by defeating the Sellwood Colts Friday evening and the Linfield frosh Saturday evening on the home floor. The Sellwood Colts were taken by the close score of 16 to 17; the Linfield frosh were beaten by the score of 21 to 29.

The game with the Colts was very close and gave fans one of the best thrillers of the frosh season. The Linfield game was a different story, the entire second string being sent in during the last quarter.

In the two games Jack Connors, our "Hey Hey Boy," who replaced Edwards at center, showed up fairly well. Erickson and Franze at forwards and Woodworth and Lemon at guards, completed the line-up.

Friday a return game has been scheduled with the Linfield frosh, and Saturday the Bearkittens will journey to Astoria for a tangle.

DO-NUT LEAGUES STILL COMPETING

The second round of the basketball Do-nut League, supervised by Bob Houck, is now under way with every aggregation battling for the league championship.

The series, so far, has been in a muddle with many postponements and forfeits by the quintets and as a result the Linfield School cagers are leading the field with three victories and no defeats.

W. Club, Freshman, Kappa, Alpha Psi and Sigma Tau hoopers are tied for second place.

DRAMATIC CLASS GIVES SHORT PLAY

In cooperation with the First Methodist church members of the play production class sponsored and directed a one act play for the Epworth League convention. The one act play was highly dramatic employing striking lighting effects. Savilla Phelps, remembered from "Children of the Moon" in which she had the feminine lead, directed the production.

The play was so favorably received that Miss Margaret Stevenson of the First Methodist church plans to present it again soon. Members of the cast include: Dorothy Dalk, Savilla Phelps, Ralph Foster and Laurence Brown.

STUDENT CABLES GENEVA NEWS

By JAMES F. GREEN Yale, '32, representing National Student Federation Geneva, Switzerland—I had an opportunity this morning (February 7th) to address Disarmament conference on behalf of the American college student through the Intercollegiate Disarmament Council and the Student Christian Movement.

It was a unique meeting. The reception of petitions was held owing to the initiative of Arthur Henderson and the support of Miss Woolley. It is the first time in history that students have had a chance to address a League meeting. The meeting began with the procession of two hundred and fifty women representing all nations carrying petitions with eight million signatures. The speakers included representatives of Christian Movements, Trade Unions, Second International, and Lord Cecil for the Federation of League of Nations Associations. He made strong proposals for abolition of all armaments for aggressive purposes, including tanks, big guns, big cruisers and submarines.

I made a two thousand word statement explaining the strong desire for drastic disarmament of the American students as expressed through the poll and delegation to Hoover. I was also authorized to present results of British students' petition. Please continue campaign. Our disarmament work is merely begun.

MULTNOMAH CLUB TAKES BEARCATS

The Willamette Bearcats were nosed out by the Multnomah club of Portland last night 49-38 in a ragged game that held little excitement until the fourth quarter, when the Bearcats rallied and gave the Winged M its only score of the game.

Spec Keene's starting lineup was mostly made of reserves, who allowed the club to take a large lead. At the end of the first quarter a new team was inserted in the lineup, but was still unable to stop the attack. Score at half time was 25-11 for Multnomah.

In the third period the Bearcats began to click. Passing and shooting were much improved over the first half, and Willamette pulled the score up to 28-22. The fourth quarter provided some thrills for the onlookers as both teams scored freely. The Bearcats tried desperately in the last few minutes to cut down Multnomah's lead, but were still one basket behind when the gun sounded. Willamette made 16 points and Multnomah club 11 points in the final period.

Substitutions were made freely throughout the game, some players re-appearing in the lineup several times. Multnomah club completely outplayed the Bearcats in the first half, as Willamette men seemed slow and unable to get started. Although Willamette rallied well in the final periods, the club team was never headed.
