

Leslie School Stage Set For Junior Play

"Mrs. Moonlight" to End
Week of Feverish
Activities

Broadway Success to Be Presented Saturday
Evening, 8:15

As an appropriate climax to the feverish activities of May week-end the Junior play, "Mrs. Moonlight," will be given in the recently-completed auditorium of the Leslie Junior High School. There will be extra city bus service just before the play from Commercial and State streets.

Mary Elizabeth Kells, remembered for her vivacious role in "Twelfth Night," is showing versatility in playing the gentle Mrs. Moonlight opposite the role of Mr. Moonlight, interpreted by Ed Minneman. Bob Nelson's Percy Middleton is a real stroke of casting, while Bill McAdam as Willy Raggs and Margaret Ayers' (Jane's) love scenes will move the coldest audience. Margaret Hauser, as the prim sister of Sarah Moonlight, provides the starchy atmosphere and seems to find delight in taking the wind out of people's sails.

Minnie, the Moonlight's maid, (Lorene Tomkins) plays the role of barbituric and sympathetic protector of her mistress, Sarah Moonlight. Peter whose talents are unfortunately limited to the last act, gives a splendid performance of the son who is home from Oxford on a visit.

New York Run
The play, directed by Mrs. Chester Oppen, is a story of the woman who remains perpetually young in appearance while her husband and daughter grow old and she grows old in spirit. It enjoyed a long run in New York in 1930 and gives promise of being a successful and entertaining college play.

The play was written by Benn. W. Levy, well-known author to London and New York audiences. It covers three periods in the story plot: 1881, 1898, and the present day, each portraying the fortunes and troubles of the Moonlight family.

Scenery Done
Scenery for the play is being made by the art department under the direction of Constance Fowler, who promises a set truly typical of the period.

Miss Lattimer of the Home Ec. department is in charge of costumes true to the setting. Salem townspeople have ransacked attics and donated from a rich store of old costumes to provide for the women the bustles of 1881 and the hour-glass figure of 1898.

Wayne Doughton is General Manager for the production; Nelson Longworth is Stage Manager; Francis Schmidt is property manager; and Ruth Bunzow is in charge of programs. Tickets are in charge of Melva Belle Savage. Reserved seat exchange will begin Thursday and continue till the end of the week. All seats are 35c and may be obtained from members of the Junior class or at Quisenberry's Pharmacy.

College Notices Cram Board Full

The school year 1937 sees one of the largest deluges of notices from colleges and universities posted on the Willamette university bulletin board.

Notices are from colleges from the four corners of the country: Harvard Business school, Boston, Mass.; Washington university, St. Louis, Mo.; Duke university, Durham, N. Carolina; St. Louis university, St. Louis, Mo.; University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.; Northwestern university, Evanston, Ill.; University of Iowa, Iowa City; Oregon State college, Corvallis, Oregon; Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y.; Bryn Mawr college, Bryn Mawr, Penn.; University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon; University of Oregon Medical School, Portland, Oregon.

A wide diversity of subjects and courses are offered by the schools and many offer scholarships and teaching fellowships.

A large number of past graduates of Willamette have been the recipients of scholarships and fellowships from these colleges.

Music Students Offer Programs

National Music Week to Be Observed By Phi
Delta Mu

In commemoration of National Music Week, May 2 to 8, Phi Delta Mu is presenting a program each afternoon in the studio on the second floor of Kimball Hall from 4:30 to 5:30.

Starting Sunday, the Twilight Music Hour's daily programs will be devoted to a different period in music from Bach to the ultra-modernist school of Debussy and DeFalla. Pupils of Professor Marshall, Miss Mary Schultz, Miss MacHirron, and Miss Eness will take part.

Sunday the program is given over to the Romantic composers. The Concertstuck for piano by Von Weber will be played with orchestral accompaniment. Other numbers include the violin concerto by Mendelssohn.

Monday Program
Monday's program is devoted to Bach and Handel. Preludes and Excerpts, Suites and Inventions will be presented. A Handel violin sonata and two soprano arias are additional features.

On Tuesday a Mozart program composed of three piano concertos and a violin sonata will be given. The Wednesday program is dedicated to Mrs. Walter Denton, Willamette graduate, beloved teacher and patroness of music who has become nationally known for her work with the rural school music festival in Oregon.

On Thursday, compositions of Chopin and Liszt will comprise the program.
Modern Compositions
Friday and Saturday programs are divided between the national modern and ultra modern compositions. On Friday's program a marimba solo brings in the recognized jazz element. On Saturday the program will be brought to a close by the presentation of the violin sonata of Melbaud of the famous French Six which will be

Linfield Students Visit Law School

Twenty-nine upper class Business Administration students from Linfield College accompanied by Professor Harold Elkington were visitors on the Willamette campus last Thursday morning. The group attended a trial practice court in the school court room during the morning period and at noon the Linfield visitors ate lunch at Lausanne Hall as guests of Dr. B. Baxter and Dean R. Lockenour.

In the afternoon, the guests were taken through the state library and the state supreme court library, and also they listened to a case in the supreme court. Finally, the Linfield group paid a short visit to the State hospital.

Songmen Receive Warm Welcome At Concert Appearances Along Route of Southern Oregon Tour

Who says a reputation doesn't pay?

In seven concerts staged thus far in the tour the Songmen have sung to over 2700 people. This figure does not include short appearances in high schools. It is an average of almost 400 people for each audience.

At Grants Pass the singers competed with three dances and two $5.00 bank nights—and still had almost a full house, with 300 people in attendance.

Most of the sponsors put on non-charge programs, taking up collections at a point halfway through the concert. So far the collection plate offerings have been very liberal.

At Medford tickets were sold previous to the concert. Medford's audience was probably the most appreciative and members of it heard the best singing produced by the club during the tour. Prof. Cameron Marshall reported.

Eugene, through the young people's Methodist Wesleyan club, offered one of the two biggest audiences of the tour. Over 500 people turned out to hear the songmen at a vespers hour concert at 5:15 in the evening.

The other large audience, and

Kester Gets Scholarship At Columbia

Tuition and Dormitory
Room Paid For By Scholarship

Kester Receives One Of
Largest Columbia
Funds Given

Randall Kester, graduating senior scholar in political science, will attend Columbia university next year on a $600 scholarship. It was announced early this week when Kester received notification that his petition had been accepted.

Complete tuition charges are covered by $400 of the amount allotted by the scholarship. The cost of a dormitory room will be paid by the other $200.

Scholarship Basis
Kester made application to a regional committee early this year for the scholarship. Headquarters for the committee is in Portland and it is led by Folger Johnson, a Columbia graduate and now a Portland architect. Selection for this scholarship is made on the basis of all-around college activity with particular emphasis placed upon scholastic achievement.

Usually the amount granted in Columbia scholarships is $400. Only 15 scholarships of $600 are available in the United States each year.

W. U. Grads Selected
Carl Marcy, Lowell Eddy, and David Moser are former Willamette graduates to be awarded Columbia scholarships. Rob Graham, former 440 yard dash star at Whitman, last year received one of the 15 $600 scholarships. Kester, besides his high scholastic record, is one of the most valuable forensic representatives Willamette has produced in recent years. The Kester-Morley debate tour through northern United States to the Atlantic seaboard marks the high point of his forensic career. The Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity elected him to the house presidency during his junior year.

Junior Violin Recital Presented Wednesday

The Willamette University School of Music presented Marian Chase in her Junior Violin recital in Waller Hall Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Chase is a pupil of Miss Mary Schultz, violin instructor. Following is the program which Miss Chase offered: Sonata in E Major—Handel—Auen Concerto in F Sharp Minor—Vieuxtemps

Allegro-Andante Rondo
Romanze—Wagner—Wilhelmj
Hora Staccato—Dinicu-Helfetz
Langhetto—Weber-Kreisler
Variations—Tartini-Kreisler

Speech Recorder To Arrive May 1

Word was received here this week from Professor Rahe of the speech department that a speech recorder for demonstration purposes is due to arrive at the university approximately May 1, having been shipped from the factory on April 14.

The recorder is supplied by the Fairchild Aerial Camera Corporation and is one of the newest types. It handles 8 to 16 inch records and plays a maximum of 19.7 minutes. It has the power to pick up speeches within 5 or 6 feet of the microphone.

If it is decided to buy the machine, Willamette will be one of the few colleges which have the advantages of such an instrument.

Suggestions Made
The Constitutional Revision Committee has received suggestions for several changes in the apportionment of student body funds.

As it stands now funds are divided upon the following basis: Intercollegiate athletics, 27%; Wallulah, 22%; Office fund, 9%; Collegian, 8 1/2%; General fund, 8%; Music, 5 1/2%; Forensic, 5 1/2%; Classes (5), 5%; Social 4%; Women's Athletics, 2 1/2%; Men's Intramural, 2%; Freshmen Glee, 1 1/2%; May Day, 1 1/2%.

Changes in any of these funds are made by constitutional amendment presented through the Constitutional Revision committee. Suggestions include additional support for the band, add dramatics, and clarify the qualification requirements of office seekers.

W.U. Band To Give Concert May 21st

Russell Beardsley and Harold Rowe Presented As Soloists

The Willamette university band under the direction of Ralph S. Nohlgren will present its 1937 spring concert in Waller hall on Friday evening, May 21 at 7:15 p. m.

Harold Rowe, sousaphone, and Russell Beardsley, marimba, will appear as soloists with the band. Rowe will offer as his solo the famed contest selection of Catozzi, "Beelzebub." Beardsley will play two popular selections, "Neapolitan Nights" and "Moonlight Madonna" with band accompaniment.

Feature Number
Arthur Ketelby's oriental fantasy, "In A Chinese Temple Garden" will be a feature number by the ensemble, the band to be aided in their presentation of this number by a men's double quartet chosen from the ranks of the University Songmen. It is a descriptive fantasy portraying Chinese life.

Karl King's "Fountain of Youth" overture and Carl Goldmark's "Sakuntala" overture are also included on the program as well as Sorrentino's concert march, "Willow Grove," and John Phillip Sousa's immortal "Stars and Stripes Forever."

As in their winter concert presented last December, the band will add variety and high comedy to their program by the inclusion of several novelty numbers.

Theta Alpha Phi Names Party Date

At a meeting Monday evening of Theta Alpha Phi, dramatic fraternity, plans were discussed for a garden party to be held at the home of Dr. Gatzke.

The date for this has been changed from May 25th to May 26th. A report was given by a committee appointed to choose a party for the occasion.

Plans were also discussed for the annual initiation at which four new members will be taken up. Initiation will be held on May 9th.

NOTICE
The constitutional revision committee announces an open meeting for tonight at 8:00 in the chapel. Representatives from campus organizations, or any other member of the student body, having suggestions as to proposed constitutional changes, are invited by Louis Herwehberger, committee head, to be on hand at that time.

Bennett Wins Victory By Large Vote

Casey Polls Only Victory
In Primary Election
Last Friday

Dingle, Oehler, Kenschner
and Nunnenkamp Win
Other Offices

Defeated candidates called upon to offer congratulations as the official count revealed the winners in the annual A.S.W.U. student-body election.

Only one office was filled at the primary election on Friday of last week, that of Editor of the Wallulah, to which Leroy Casey was elected.

Big Lead
Holding the greatest lead over his opponent was Talbot Bennett, victor in the race for President. Bennett polled 289 votes against Wm. McAdam's 197. Next in size of lead was Robert Kenschner who polled 275. His opponent, Wm. Clemes, polled 186. The count for office of First Vice-President gave Irma Oehler 268 votes to Margaret Hauser's 197.

The officers of Second Vice-President and Secretary were the most hotly contested. Lawrence Nunnenkamp edged a lead over John Kelley by 13 votes, and Dolly Dingle nosed out her opponent, Jean Hollingworth, by a margin of 13 votes.

Official counters report that as usual several ballots were not marked properly and therefore had to be discarded and that many were only marked for the office of President.

Two W. U. Students Hurt In Accident

Gwendolyn Hertzog, freshman from Buhl, Idaho, and Frank Tyler, junior from La Grande were severely injured late Tuesday evening when struck by an automobile driven by Albert Ped of route 7 at the Winter and Court street intersection. They were taken to the Salem General Hospital.

The couple was crossing Court street toward Wilson park when the accident occurred.

Miss Hertzog suffered a leg fracture and lacerations. Tyler has a possible concussion of the brain and a minor skull fracture. Ped, who was traveling west on Court street, gave aid to the pair until help came. Then he went to the police station to report the accident.

Floyd McCarroll, a passing motorist of 965 Shipping street, volunteered to take the injured to the hospital.

Co-op Discussion at Y. M. Brings Out Important Points of Movement As Related To New Campus House

In a discussion by Ted Ludden on the origin and the purpose of cooperatives, many important points concerning the nature of the national cooperative movement were brought out in a recent meeting of the Y. M. C. A. at Chresto cottage. The purpose of the discussion was to relate the original cooperative movement and its essential points to the plans for the Willamette men's co-op house sponsored by the Y. M. C. A.

"The cooperative movement had its origin among 28 weavers in a mill at Rochdale, England, who started out with a capital of only $140 in 1844," Ludden began. "It was one community with similar interests."

Ludden stated that a board of gratuitous directors and an advisory committee were elected and served without salary; however, the directors appointed a manager who was paid a salary.

Seven fundamental points were brought up by Ludden and each was discussed in relation to the Willamette co-op house. These points were: (1) open membership, (2) democratic control,

Songmen Appear Sunday Evening

Concert Repertoire Will Be Same As That Used
During Tour

Appearing in public concert for the first time since the spring tour, the Willamette Songmen, directed by Prof. Cameron Marshall, will sing at the First Methodist Church next Sunday night during the regular evening service hour.

Vocal selections presented by the singers during this concert will be numbers sung at various churches along the tour route. Strictly religious music will be mixed with music of a lighter vein.

Last Regular Concert
This appearance is the last one on the official spring concert schedule. Other concerts will probably be scheduled later in the spring. The major part of this year's schedule was taken up with the two weeks' tour of southern and central Oregon, during which the group sang before a total of approximately 5000 people.

There is a possibility of another radio broadcast over the Columbia network sometime before summer vacation, group leaders revealed. Final negotiations are not yet complete.

Sperry Winner Soon
Announcement of the winner of the Sperry Male Chorus radio contest, in which the Songmen took part late in February, is expected soon after the first of May. Radio critics, notable among them the cynical B. Mike, Oregonian radio columnist, place the Songmen high in this competition.

Lockenour Article In Law Yearbook

A chapter entitled "The Tort Liability of School District and School Personnel," written by Roy M. Lockenour, Dean of the Willamette Law School, appears in the 1937 edition of The Fifth Yearbook of School Law which is published by Purdue University. Also in the coming May issue of Educational Law and Administration another article written by Dr. Lockenour which deals with the laws passed during the recent 1937 session of the state legislature pertaining to education is to appear. Mr. Lockenour is one of the associated editors of the periodical which is published in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Law School Gets Books As Gift From Mrs. Kay

Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, wife of former state treasurer, recently presented seventy books to the Willamette Law School. During the year, the law library received books from Mrs. Geo. W. Counts, wife of Judge Counts of Pendleton, Ronald Jones, state representative, and from Perle Mark and Olive Mark Hansen, father and sister of Ray Mark, deceased Willamette law, 1915.

Co-op Discussion at Y. M. Brings Out Important Points of Movement As Related To New Campus House

(3) dividends on purchase, (4) limited interest on capital, (5) cash payment to society for goods, (6) political and religious neutrality, (7) promotion of education.

Willamette's co-op house is figuring expenses on much the same basis as that used at the University of Oregon in Eugene which has limited its figures as follows: $40 for a cook; $17 a month, cost of board and room for each student. At Oregon most of the men went in to the co-op house to save money, and it is expected to be likewise here.

Plans are now under way to form a Pacific coast cooperative league, and Willamette has signified an interest in becoming a member.

Mrs. Edna Ellis, Y. W. C. A. adviser, in commenting on the Willamette co-op house declared, "The co-op will meet a very real need at Willamette because at present the housing situation for men is very unsatisfactory, not so much from the point of view of expenses as from that of social isolation of many men on the campus."

Festival Day Stage Set As Friday Nears

All College Night Will Be Feature of First
Night's Program

Rest of Schedule Set By Tradition of Past
Week Ends

May week end, in its 1937 version, will be presented this week end under the direction of Art Lamka, committee head, who reports that plans for the annual affair are complete. Festivities are scheduled to begin Friday night.

Heading the list of events is the coronation, Saturday afternoon, of Queen Gwen I. The coronation and the usual ceremonies that go with the crowning will be the highlights of Saturday's program that begins with the Y.W.C.A. breakfast from 7 A. M. to 10 A. M. and concludes with the Junior class play "Mrs. Moonlight" at Leslie Junior High School in the evening.

Ball Game Saturday
Also scheduled for Saturday are a baseball game with Portland university, a women's tennis meet, the annual rook-soph tug-of-war across the mill race, a student luncheon at noon, and a Little Theater play.

Friday's program includes a baseball tilt between Willamette and Mt. Angel, an all-college program in the evening at Waller hall, and a party at the Fraternal Temple.

The all-college program will consist of feats of magic by John Linbeck, Russell Beardsley and his myrmbaphone, Jack Criswell and his accordion, the Alpha Psi Delta "hill billies," the Treble Clef club, reading by Marian Ayer, and motion pictures by Mr. Sparks.

Coronation Features
The usual ceremony of winding the Maypole will be one of the features of the coronation program. May-pole winders will be Ruth Bunzow, Mary Jeannette Sargent, Lunelle Chapin, Barbara Crookham, Dorothy Dingle, Frances Faber, Norma Fuller, Charlotte Litchfield, Irma Oehler, Betty Taylor, Ruth Vocum, Margaret DuRette. Holding the May-pole will be Lillian Hart and Melva Belle Savage.

Gwen Gallaher will be crowned by Miss Winifred Gardner, last year's queen. Attending Miss Gallaher will be George McLeod. Attending the Princesses, Miss Jane Fisher and Miss Lucille Brainard, will be Joe Harvey and John Kelly, respectively.

Party Friday
Highlight of Friday's program will be the party at the Fraternal Temple. Patrons and patronesses for the affair will be Mr. and Mrs. Leslie J. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene.

Deputations were sent out to high schools over the state to invite students for the May Week-end and a capacity number of high school students, alumni, and friends of Willamette are anticipated.

Committees Listed

QUIET PLEASE

Whether it is the spring weather or just forgetfulness upon the part of the students is not known, but at any rate, the library has become very noisy of late. The library rules committee has noticed the condition and asks that students use a little more discretion in their conduct while in the library for there are a few people who would still like to peruse their books a bit further.

Paging Plato

Political experts say that it looks like a new turn to Greek letter supremacy in the realm of campus politics. Jim Burdett was the last fraternity man to gain the student body presidency before George McLeod. In the interim Dick Lucke and Bronk Williams, independents, held the post.

But with the last two elections, last spring and this, the situation has taken a different turn. George McLeod came through backed by strong Alpha Psi political machine. Talbot Bennett, for the first time since the days of Charles Campbell, surprised everybody by carrying Sigma Tau colors to the fore.

It is our opinion that some other force besides mere "campus politics" is responsible for these changes back and forth. We believe that voting on this campus is, to a great extent, based upon the relative merits of the candidates. At least the basis is popular opinion with regard to merit.

If this is not true the student body has only itself to blame. On a campus as small as this a proper degree of voter interest would stop forever the cry of "campus politics." Unaffiliated student voters by the weight of sheer numbers, have the power to successfully oppose organized group will whenever they really wish to do so.

Another Spring

May Day memories. Someone should write a history of May week-end at Willamette. Suggested subject matter would not deal entirely with strictly formal activities. It should be a prying sort of history, listing some of the more personal things hundreds of students have to remember as the result of having spent four or five May first week ends on the campus.

Perhaps it would read something like this:

High School Senior . . .

"Spent May Week end on the campus of Willamette university during this, my senior, year in high school. The May day spirit certainly ran rampant. Everybody seemed to be remembering what happened last year, year before last, and the year before that.

"The queen and princesses looked striking even if their escorts appeared a bit uncomfortable in dark blue breasted and ice cream pants. The May pole dance surprised me. I guess some fellows might enter into the spirit of the occasion enough to do a 'drop the handkerchief' act of that variety—but I never would."

Freshman . . .

"My first May week end as a student. Don't remember the queen's name but she's a very good looking senior. I noticed her before. I was supposed to help set up bleachers but figured I'd donated enough labor to the institution this year and anyhow, it might rain.

Sophomore . . .

"Am now a veteran in May week end experience. Just went to my second one. Had a date with—Delta Phi, for the play. Hmmm! Also went to breakfast there Sunday. Had a close call but managed to avoid taking part in the pole wrap. Never thought I'd come THAT close.

"A junior. Seems as if I was too busy to really enjoy the May festival this year. Had to go over though as I had to dance around the May pole. Somebody has to do it don't they? And the pressure is terrific.

"Anyway, it's getting better all the time. This year the old queen began crowning the new one. Somebody swiped some fine pillars and things from the statehouse. With these set up and a few shrubs scattered around—presto—we had a Grecian Theater for this year's activities.

"Have switched my allegiance to the Beta Chi house and no longer have a pin. Lost it after the play and had to limit myself to a dedication at only one house during our serenade. Don't know whether I should have weakened or not but it is a fine spring.

Senior . . .

"Guess they're having May Week end again this year as usual. Haven't paid much attention what with my second oral coming up and my search for a job. Hope they get through that serenade outside pretty quick so I can go to bed and get some sleep. The students threw a dance Friday night."

On the Way Out?

Are serenades passing out of the picture as a form of campus entertainment?

We remember tails of wonder told by seniors of our freshman days. Stories of melody, harmony, and passionate devotion—told in song.

Perhaps our underclass viewpoint of that day was inclined to an over amount of glorification with regard to the deeds of our elders. The serenades of this year have been good. But they have lacked the meaning, the enthusiasm, and the inspired art of the serenades we used to hear about.

It is only logical that, with the coming of dancing to the campus, some existing form of social activity should give way. Perhaps that is the explanation.

ENGAGEMENTS

The betrothal of Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, '31, daughter of Attorney General and Mrs. Van Winkle, '98 and 01, to E. Roane Melton of Huston, Texas, son of Mrs. Bessie Bell Melton of Washington, D. C., was revealed at a desert bridge party for which Mrs. Dan Schreiber was hostess in her apartment at the Royal Court. The marriage will be an event of Saturday afternoon, June 12, at the Van Winkle home on North 17th St.

Miss VanWinkle is a member of Beta Chi sorority and Pi Gamma Mu, national social science honorary. Following completion of her master's degree at New York City, she taught in the La Grande high school, and is now on the faculty at Parrish Junior high school in Salem.

Mr. Melton is chief engineer and director of research for Seismic Explorations, Inc., one of the major geophysical concerns in the oil industry. He received his B. S. and M. E. degree from the University of Maryland.

Miss Florence DuRette, '36, has announced her engagement to Francis Saeftel. No date has been set for the wedding. Both Miss DuRette and her fiancé are graduates of Gervais schools and Mr. Saeftel attended the Sacred Heart academy.

Miss DuRette is now teaching in the Central Point high school. She is a member of Beta Chi sorority and Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary.

The engagement of Miss Wona Schildon of Portland to Wesley Roeder, '22, was revealed on Easter. The wedding will be an event of June 9 at the Rose City Presbyterian church in Portland. Miss Schildon, who is a graduate of Portland schools, is attending the University of Oregon Extension school and is connected with Mathis, Inc.

Mr. Roeder is a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity. He was on the varsity tennis team and served as band director. He has been on the Salem high school faculty since his graduation from Willamette.

MARRIAGES

Announcement has been made of the forthcoming marriage of Miss Dorothy Durkee, '36, of Battleground, Washington, and J. Wilbur Harris of Vancouver, Washington. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride-elect, Saturday evening, April 17. Miss Durkee has chosen her sister, Mrs. Leverett Richards (Virginia Durkee, '33), of Vancouver, for her matron of honor. Mr. Richards will act as best man. A reception will follow the service.

Miss Durkee, who is a Delta Phi member, was prominent in dramatics while on the campus. She was a member of Theta Alpha Phi and Little Theatre Guild.

Mr. Harris attended the University of Washington school of engineering and is now in business in Vancouver.

At an impressive service at St. Joseph's church, Miss Agnes R. Miller, daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Miller of Shelburne, became the bride of J. Ray Rhoten, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rhoten. Only members of the two families and intimate friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony. The couple left immediately for a wedding trip to California. Upon their return they will make their home in Salem, where Mr. Rhoten is associated with his brother, George in the practice of law.

Miss Bette Swift, ex-W.U., was married to Keith Campbell, of Portland, March 18.

Mrs. Campbell was a member of Beta Chi. She is a graduate of the Northfield Preparatory school in Northfield, Massachusetts, and attended Wellesley college. She is now attending Reed college in Portland. Mr. Campbell is also a student at Reed.

PERSONALS

Miss Margaret Nunn, ex-W.U., has gone to Marshfield to spend the next few months with her brother, Charles, '26, who is editor of the Daily News.

Miss Ellen J. Chamberlin, '35, and Mrs. G. W. Bell, who have been living in Portland for many years, have moved to Salem to make their home. At present they are visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. Edward Weller.

Miss Marie Ledbetter, '34, who teaches at Boardman, was an Easter holiday guest of Miss Lillian Scott, Leslie Junior high school teacher.

Karl Weisser, '35, Frank Childs, '34, and Robert Utter, '36, have returned to their studies at the University of Southern California after spending the spring vacation in Salem at their respective homes.

Gus Anderson, ex-'22, has been touring the West and spoke in Salem on the Spanish situation. Incidentally, he has been making contacts with people interested in joining his annual summer tour of European countries.

Leland T. Chapin, '25, was in Salem the past week attending the Pacific Coast Forensic meeting. He is secretary-treasurer of the association.

Mr. Chapin, who is assistant professor of speech and head debate coach at Stanford University, returned the first of the year from Edinburgh, Scotland, where he was taking work toward his doctor's degree. He was granted a leave of absence in May. He will be on sabbatical leave next year to complete his work at Edinburgh.

Ralph Barnes, '22, Berlin correspondent for the New York Herald-Tribune, will not enter Spain for the time being, although he had been told to prepare to enter the war zone to cover the insurgent army activities.

Mrs. Jan Brook (Ruth Heinicke, '24), recently of Holland, and her daughter are guests at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ruakin Blatchford of Salem. Mrs. Brook will leave soon to join her husband who will be guest professor during the spring term at University of Ohio.

Mrs. Horace J. Thomas (Gladys McIntyre) was hostess recently at an informal party honoring Mrs. Brook.

BIRTHS

A St. Patrick's Day baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Torgeson of Canby. Mrs. Torgeson was Olive Feathers of the class of '33.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartley (Mildred Grant), '27, and '26, are the parents of a son, David Henry, born April 13. The Hartleys have another son, Mr. Hartley is superintendent of schools at Bandon.

Ode To a Collar Button

V. R.
How we suffer from the formal, Where we must appear abnormal, Where if one would gain attention, He must wear a strange invention.

Streamlined like a sleek torpedo Is this dark and drab Tuxedo Borrowed from the Inquisition To maintain our new position.

But the harried student's dissent Might cause the following comment:

"Did Lincoln in his humble home Spend his time with brush and comb, Or take an hour to fuss and fret About the wounds from his Gillette?"

"Does the Bushman don his decollete— Shower and shine in thirty seconds?"

"Did Jason Lee in days of yore Grovel on the cabin floor, And mutter prayer so soft and low?"

The answer, gentlemen, is NO!!

Not until the days of science Did collar buttons' stern defiance Make the strongest men to weep, And leave their room-mates without sleep.

Men of all fraternities now kneel In strange devotion 'Neath table, bed, and dresser they pour out their emotion

In frenzied zeal to add their knowledge Men of every frat in college Guided only by a clink entertaining rushee guests besides taking them on what is usually a very chilly serenade.

Are searching for that missing link.

But serenading has become an institution on this campus. It fits in admirably with the spirit of glee and of the song fests old timers tell about. To abandon it would be to lose something as thoroughly steeped in Willamette lore as freshman glee itself.

Murmurs of the Old Millstream

It's beginning to look as if enrollment in law school will hereafter be a prerequisite for nomination to the student body presidency.

We better enjoy the Grecian theater this year because this May week end is liable to be its last. The odds are pretty good that, once taken down to make room for the new library, it won't get itself put up again.

Speaking of May week end and bets, it's rumored about that certain of the more sporting gentry on the campus have organized a pool. The odds are at present 2 to 1 for rain next Saturday.

We got a kick out of the way President McLeod, (D-Marion) upheld status quo against the socialistic coop speaker who was for cooperating with everybody from the statue of liberty to the newspapers.

Before we get off the subject, you should have heard our boy George at the Grant Hi Dad's program. Willamette was really the only university represented after he and "Prof" Marshall got through.

We're still "agin" the weather man. Besides showing an absolute lack of dependability he's finally succeeded in giving everyone colds.

For very obvious reasons we're just letting orals take care of themselves for this issue. We aren't saying a thing.—V. P.

COLLEGIATE QUOTES

By Gene Hill

Students at Oregon State did not join with other schools last week in a demonstration for peace. An explanation of their point of view is given in the following editorial from the Oregon State Barometer:

"It seems that peace strikes are quite the thing along with sit-down strikes and the like in eastern towns, but just because some schools take it up is no reason for O. S. C. falling in line. In fact, since the strikes only bring unfavorable publicity, it is best that the school keep out.

Students show by taking ROTC that they are opposed to war, but merely want to learn how to defend themselves in case the country is called into action. And in other ways the fellows show their hatred for warlike atmosphere, therefore, it isn't necessary to go to all the trouble of organizing a strike to demonstrate to the public not only their dislike for war but oftentimes their statement of refusal to enter war once it should come."

According to news from Corvallis there is a race on for new students for the September registration.

"4000 or bust," seems to be the goal of all the members of the associated students of Oregon State college. President Peavy at the last convocation told of the huge increase in enrollment that this institution has seen in the past few years. A new high for spring term and for the college as a whole also has been reached with a total of 3373 students recorded in the registrar's office."

This announcement which appeared in the Washington State Evergreen proves that students on that campus are very lucky—psychologically.

"A chance to take an intelligence test and to learn your I. Q. will be given in Room 106, Collee hall by the psychology department. There will also be an opportunity to test other abilities including judgment of distances, color blindness, and judging intelligence from photographs.

Last week when people from "Lil Abner's" country came out of the hills to visit at University of California they brought some interesting news from "Dogpatch."

Kentucky hill-billies are rapidly emerging from the ignorance and isolation which for 150 years has characterized them as the most backward people of the United States, according to Woodrow Wilson Allen, leader of the Canoe Creek Crusaders, who visited International House this week.

"Moonshining and feuds are both passing away with education," Allen said. "The only feud I know of is not likely to break out again soon, since most all of its participants are either dead or in the penitentiary."

Tea Honors Queen Gwen

Townpeople, faculty, friends, and fellow students Wednesday honored queen-elect Gwen and her court at a formal tea given by the members of Delta Phi sorority at the chapter house from 4 to 6 in the afternoon. It was the annual affair given for the court and always preceding the May Day festivities.

Miss Loye Bogardus received at the door, while Miss Lillian Hart introduced to the line consisting of Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, Mrs. F. A. Weil, Miss Gwen Gallagher, Mrs. E. Gallaher, Miss Jane Fisher, Mrs. A. Fisher, Miss Lucille Brainerd, and Dean Olive M. Dahl. Pouring for both hours were Mrs. E. M. Page and Mrs. W. T. Jenks. Members and pledges of the sorority assisted about the rooms.

Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of this week the sororities and fraternities will be hosts to a number of out-of-town guests for the May Week-End festivities. Alpha Phi Alpha will entertain with a large informal fireside supper Friday night. Beta Chi is inviting a number of guests to the annual Sunday morning breakfast, and Delta Phi will give a large formal banquet Saturday night at the Golden Pheasant honoring Queen Gwen Gallagher.

Miss Genevieve Steigerwald, of Portland was the guest of her cousin Miss Marian Steigerwald at Delta Phi for the week-end.

Alpha Psi's and Sigs Give Annual Informal

ALPHA Psi's and Sigma Tau's collaborated last Saturday night on an old time Bowery dance at Hazel Green that proved to be a memorable occasion. Guests arrived attired in a wide range of costumes from slick Bowery toughs to prim Carrie Nations. Notable among the costumes were those of Jane Fisher, Bill Miller, and Wanda Landon. Many wicked, intoxicating beverages were served over the bar by mustachioed tenders, Sherk, Wilson, Dunbar, and Crow. Decorations consisted of huge caricatures of famous people, while excitement was provided by an unhappy poker game under a green lampshade as the result of which Slicker Lavatta today lies buried. The dance programs carried an introduction by the sons of delirium tremens wherein they entered the rules for the party—they aren't for publication but they make good reading. The committee in charge of the affair consisted of Louis Hershberger, Herman Estes, Joe Harvey, and Bill Anton. Special guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Gathe, Prof. and Mrs. Jones, Prof. and Mrs. Rahe, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sturges, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Griswell. Music was provided by Herman Whaley's band from Portland.

Guests were the Misses Annette Jordan, Vivian Noth, Irma Calvert, Melba Ripelle, Alice Speck, Betty Savage, Ruth Arty, Aleue Fairclough, Charlotte LaDue, Jane Fisher, Marian Averill, Betty Lane, Elizabeth Sears, Jean Probert, Melva Belle Savage, Wanda Landon, Virginia Beaton, June Charboneau, Kay Ringe, Evelyn Sherk, Marguerite Clark, Elise Sharp, Loye Bogardus, Betty Zook, Mary Starbuck, Peggy Munger, Ina Bennett, Mona Starbuck, Elsie Lampi, Mary Jeannette Sargent, Connie Cartmill, Helen Purvine, Marjorie Thorne, Charlotte Kallander, Dorothy Wright, Irma Oehler, Caroline Hunt Marguerite Smith, Dorrine Wilson, Lucille Brainerd, Jean Bartlett, Mildred Muller, Peggy Peterson, Althea Stevens, Dolly Dingle, Barbara Hollingworth, Myrie Martin, Julia Philip, Margaret Allison, Barbara Chapler, Muriel Wassam, June

Mothers' Club Entertained

Mrs. Fred Anunson was hostess to the Alpha Phi Alpha mothers' club at her home on Leslie Street, Tuesday afternoon, April 20. Miss Ruth Anunson assisted her mother in serving.

Mrs. George Rossman reviewed the book "Rose Deeprose." Miss Maybelle Liburn accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Frank Liburn, sang several solos. Out-of-town mothers present were Mrs. M. E. Johnson and Mrs. Percy Engdahl of Great Falls, Montana.

Present were Mesdames Fred H. Thompson, T. C. Mason, John Foley, Fred Anunson, Ralph Kietzing, Edward Brown, George Pearce, Arthur Selander, A. A. Taylor, J. W. Hansell, O. W. Crane, George Vehr, Ray Yocom, Frank Crawford, Duane Gibson, Charles Galloway, J. C. Murray, J. McKenzie, David Wright, Luther Chapin, and Frank Neer.

The Beta Chi mothers' club met Tuesday, April 13, at the chapter house on State Street. Mrs. Arthur G. Upston was re-elected president; Mrs. S. B. Gillette was elected vice-president, and Mrs. Ernest Peterson was elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Frank Erickson presided at the tea table which was centered with a bowl of daffodils. Hostesses were Mrs. Clifton Ross, Mrs. F. C. DeLong, Mrs. Louis Ashlin, Mrs. Frank Erickson, and F. A. Elliott. Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter was a special guest.

Besides the hostesses there were present the Mesdames E. J. Ayers, S. H. Boardman, Robert Craig, U. S. Dotson, Roy Mills, Chas. Eyre, S. B. Gillette, Vandevor, D. A. Hodge, F. A. Legge, A. Oehler, E. W. Peterson, A. G. Upston, B. H. White, and O. W. Emmons.

Kappa's Hosts For Linn Party

Members of Kappa Gamma Rho entertained Saturday night with a line party to the Elsinore loges. Following the show they returned to the Kappa house to enjoy dancing, cards, and ping pong. Supper was served late in the evening.

The guests included the Misses Mildred Pederson, Marvline Thompson, Helen Rogers, Helen Woodfin, Lois Burton, Ruth Tscharner, Marian Steigerwald, Martha Roddy, Ruth Ramsden, Annabelle Cooter, Geneva Pond, Genevieve Steigerwald, Mildred Patterson, Billie Smith, Antoinette Irish, Dot Ellinger, Norma Leek, and Suzanne Curtis.

Houses Choose New Officers

Officers for the three sororities for the coming year have been announced. They will begin their term of office this week, with May Day festivities.

Alpha Phi Alpha officers include Miss Ruth Yocom, president; Miss Marjorie Jones, vice-president; Miss Lunelle Chapin, second vice-president; Miss Esther Vehr, secretary-treasurer; Miss Barbara Kurtz, sergeant-at-arms; and Miss Rose Ann Gibson, song leader.

Beta Chi's elected Miss Melva Belle Savage president; Miss Betty Dotson, vice-president; Miss Ruth Bunzow, corresponding secretary; Miss Helena Schneider, recording secretary; Miss Carol Smith, treasurer; and Miss Charlotte Litchfield, manager.

Delta Phi officers are Miss Mary Jeannette Sargent, president; Miss Lillian Hart, first vice-president; Miss June Johnson, second vice-president; Miss Marguerite Smith, secretary; Miss Elizabeth James, corresponding secretary; Miss Verna Vosper, telephone secretary; and Miss Martha Herman, manager.

D. T. G. Spring Formal Given

The Episcopal Parish hall was the scene of a lovely spring affair last Friday evening when the members of Delta Theta Gamma entertained with their spring formal from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. Miss Evelyn Welsh was general chairman of the dance, assisted by Ethel Dell Baxter, programs, and Jessica Kinsey, refreshments. The long room was decorated with spring flowers and branches and the lights were bright Japanese lanterns. The program also carried the lantern motif. Dance music was furnished by the Indian Chief orchestra of Chemawa, while punch was served during the evening. During the intermission, two of Miss Barbara Barnes' pupils entertained the girls and their guests. Little Miss Gloria Meyers performed a soft shot tap dance, while Don Lewis danced and sang. Miss Eness and Miss MacHirron were invited as special guests.

Henley's Are Guests Here

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter were hosts to Dr. and Mrs. W. Ballentine Henley of Los Angeles over the week-end of April 18th. Dr. Henley, who is acting dean of the school of government of the University of Southern California, was in Salem as guest-speaker at a special chapel on Monday morning, April 19.

Sunday night Dr. and Mrs. Baxter invited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene to an informal supper at their home honoring Dr. and Mrs. Henley.

After the chapel assembly on Monday, Mrs. Baxter invited a number of friends to a luncheon at her home honoring Mrs. Henley. Those present were Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. William Bussick, Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mrs. A. A. Schram, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. E. M. Page, Dr. Helen Pearce, and Miss Dorothy Pearce.

Last week-end Miss Ruth Bunzow was a guest of Miss Dorothy Ann Darling at the Gamma Phi Beta house in Corvallis, and Miss Phyllis Phythian was a guest of her sister, Marjorie, at the Alpha Chi Omega house in Corvallis.

The Freshman class gave a picnic dance Saturday afternoon and evening, April 17, at Hazel Green. The affair began about 4:30, with supper being followed by games and dancing. Miss Betty Howe was general chairman for the party. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Gale Boyer, Miss Bernice Orwig, Dr. Mary Erickson, Coach Roy S. Keene, and Forrest Mills.

Memories ... OF A SONGMAN

Off to an early start, the songmen left for Lebanon Sunday morning about 35 strong—or weak. The word went the rounds of various fraternities and boarding houses that the stage was leaving and that all who weren't aboard would be left. The result was a mad rush for seats—with uncombed heads and unshaven chins much in evidence.

After a concert and an exceptionally palatable dinner at Lebanon the stage left for Eugene. There a vespers concert was sponsored by the Wesleyans, a young people's Methodist organization who has as its advisor Hayes Beall, Willamette grad.

The stay in Eugene was climaxed by the winning of $4.50 on a ball board. A lucky tenor hit 50c but the machine refused to quit paying until after the nickels mounted to nine times the sum called for. All this despite the frantic efforts of the confectionary manager to stem the tide. This worthy advised young Mr. Songman to put back all but the 50c, a request which was refused.

"Prof" announced that all who came late for the start to Cottage Grove would have a chance to practice hitch-hiking. Everyone was on hand for a start at 2:00.

At Cottage Grove it rained and everybody's feet were wet before "homes" were found. The boys on the back row stole a march on "Prof" here. They rose en masse to a standing position on the seats of their chairs, as the club rose to present the second group of numbers. That would not be so unusual—but they faced the rear of the platform.

The next stop was Roseburg. Uneventful as this stop was it did result in a kidnapping—two Songmen stolen by a high school girl who really did run out of gas.

The only case of stage fright, so far reported came as a result of a Medford photographer loading his flash equipment with too much flash powder. Three Songmen and the church roof were found in the next block.

To add insult to injury, the stage driver was forced to a stop 8 or 9 miles out of Medford on the way to Ashland. A man jumped from the offending Chevrolet coupe and strode toward the stage. Someone of the group had stolen his sample case of toothbrushes he agitatedly contended. The embarrassing part of the situation was that his accusations were merited. Someone had mistaken sample cases for music satchels and run off with the salesman's entire supply.

Chapel Reveals Faults In Men's Calling Manners

Words of motherly advice long meditated upon by the women of the campus for the right set of male ears was aired to the Willamette men in a special men's chapel Monday.

A list of complaints filed with the dean of women by girls, mostly of Lausanne Hall, found its way into the hands of Dr. Schulze, dean of men.

The indictments of the charge were not made directly but in the form of a number of tips that sounded something like this:

Men should be smoothly shaven at all times; bodily cleanliness and cleanliness of clothes is all important. Honking an automobile horn in the rear of Lausanne Hall about bed time is hard, not only on the sleepers, but also on the car battery.

That little courtesy of opening the car door and the walking on the correct side of the walk is appreciated. When calling for a date at Lausanne Hall, the boy friend should restrict himself to the entrance, not the hall. Return dates are expected. And men should not deprive the young lady of the opportunity to write her own name when signing out.

Angels, Pilots Provide May Day Opposition for 9

Fred Galer's strong Mt. Angel nine and Portland university's Pilots will furnish the opposition for Willamette's baseball crew May week-end. Mt. Angel plays here this afternoon, Portland tomorrow at 4 p. m.

The Angels, who banded the Bearcats a surprising 6 to 1 defeat Tuesday afternoon, will be out to hang up their second win of the week over the Keenemen. Pinnett, who dropped a 4 to 1 decision to Portland U. last Sunday, will probably chuck for the Galerians, with Bud Moore, the ex-Tillamook high tosser, conquerer of the Salemites Tuesday, held in reserve.

The Bearcats, still very much in the race for the state diamond title, will be out to avenge what they consider a fluke defeat the Angels garnered earlier this week. The regular lineup of, Pierce, first; Sutton, second; Shinn, short; Orren, third; Aden, Ragsdale, and Hagedorn, outfielders; and Weisgerber or Beard, catcher, will probably start. Larry Nunnenkamp or Tom Hagar are possible mound choices, with Jack Criswell and Walt Weaver, both of whom worked against Albany, Wednesday, in reserve.

Jerry Gastineau, ace of the staff, thus far, is expected to hurl against the Pilots Saturday. Gastineau holds shut-out wins over both Oregon and O. S. C. this year.

Opposing Gastineau will be Jim Carlin, the Pilot ace, who also shut out the Webfeet and trounced Mt. Angel.

Pacific university, unbeaten in four starts, and Willamette U., winners of two contests, lead the western division of the Northwest Conference as the baseball clubs swing into their second week of play today.

Pacific, boasting four consecutive triumphs over Albany College, takes on Puget Sound, defending champions of the Conference, today and tomorrow, and winds up the league slate against Willamette next week.

The Bearcats and Loggers tangle May 14 and 15 in what will probably be the deciding tilts of the western division. The Puget Sounders aren't expected to quite measure up to last year's standard. They have been greatly weakened by the loss through graduation of Jess Brooks, the colored hurler, and the confinement to a sanitarium of Bill Pate, another star chucker.

Whitman and College of Idaho, sole contenders for the eastern title, begin their annual twelve game series today. Whitman, perennial champ in the end of the sloop, is the top-heavy favorite. The Missionaries have downed University of Idaho in seven straight tilts this year and beat Washington State four games to three.

INTRAMURAL SPORTS

By DAN MOSES

By defeating Kappa Gamma Rho, 8 to 2 last Tuesday, Alpha Psi Delta continued to hold their position as the only undefeated team in the softball league. Wayne Brainard, Alpha Psi third sacker, caught hold of one of Ralph Gustafson's pitches, knocking the ball into the mill stream for one of the longest home runs of the year. Quesseth and Moses garnered triples.

Behind the steady pitching of Bronk Williams, the Law School defeated Sigma Tau, 10 to 3, in Tuesday's other game. Nohlgren and Clark were the Law School hitting stars while Estes starred for the losers.

In the other game played last week Alpha Psi defeated the Independents, 11 to 2, Sigma Tau by the same score, and the P. E. staff, 10 to 1, behind the stellar pitching of Bob Keuscher. The Independents lost to the Kappas, 10 to 6, a close game to Sigma Tau, 11 to 10, to Alpha Psi, 11 to 2, and won a forfeit from the Law School.

The P. E. staff won from the Law School, 14 to 4, and lost to Alpha Psi, 10 to 1.

The Kappas and Sigma Tau have shown rapid improvement and promise to give the leading teams a run for their money in the closing weeks of the season with possibly one and maybe both of these teams winning their way into the playoff at the end of the season.

Today's games bring together the P. E. Staff and the Kappas, and the Law School and Alpha Psi.

With half of the season gone Alpha Psi Delta, the P. E. Staff, and the Law School appear to have the best chance to get into the playoffs, with Sigma Tau, Kappa Gamma Rho, and the Independents fighting it out for the other position.

Swimmers from an even dozen Northwest cities are scheduled to participate in the district Y. M. C. A. aquatic meet in the local pool Saturday, according to Marion "Gus" Moore, physical director of the Salem Y and director of the meet.

Preliminaries will be held Saturday afternoon and the finals Saturday evening.

Teams from Tacoma, Portland, Salem, Seattle, Spokane, Everett, Astoria, Olympia, Boise, Longview, Snoqualmie Falls, and New Westminster, B. C., are entered.

Tacoma is defending champion in both the junior and senior divisions and will send approximately 30 entrants to defend their laurels.

The Salem junior squad, coached by Earl Douglas, is rated very high in the present ratings.

GETTING PROMOTED

Drub Orangemen

Spec Keene's promising 1937 baseball machine opened its season impressively April 16 and 17 with a trio of wins over the Oregon State Beavers. The triumphs ran the Bearcats' victory string to 10 straight at the expense of the Orangemen over a four year period.

With Gastineau allowing but two hits, the locals had an easy time winning the initial contest 5-0. It was the lanky Missourian's second successive shut-out of the Staters.

The next day Willamette pounded out a 9-2 win—the first game of a double-header as Walt Weaver let the Corvallis nine down with four safeties. The Keenemen touched three opposing twirlers for 16 bingles.

The night-cap was a thriller, victory coming to the Cardinal and Gold tossers 5-4 only after a two-run ninth inning rally. Freshman Jack Criswell went the route for the Bearcats, allowing but four hits.

Summary:

	R.	H.	E.
Willamette	5	10	2
Oregon State	0	2	5

Gastineau and Weisgerber; Cramer, Houdek and Soller.

Willamette 9 16 1
Oregon State 2 4 4

Weaver, Nunnenkamp and Beard; Takami, Fenger, Houdek and Soller.

Willamette 5 8 1
Oregon State 4 4 2

Criswell and Weisgerber; Kallback and Ovell.

Split With Webfeet
Willamette's diamond squad travelled to Eugene April 19th and split a double-header with the powerful Webfeets, dropping the first tilt 1-0 and taking the second 4-0.

Bill Sayles, ace Duck hurler, had the locals eating out of his hand in the initial contest, setting them down with a single hit.

That a scratchy one! Oregon batters got to Weaver for seven safeties.

In the windup Gastineau gained his second straight shut-out of the season, giving up only four bingles while his mates were touching Hardy for six.

Summary:

	R.	H.	E.
Willamette	1	1	0
Oregon	3	7	1

Weaver and Weisgerber; Sayles and McLean.

Willamette 4 6 0
Oregon 0 4 0

Gastineau and Beard; Hardy and McLean.

Teachers Drop Slugfest
The powerful Bearcat baseballers ran rough-shod over an outclassed Oregon Normal outfit here on April the 22nd and when it was all over the locals were in front 19-5.

Spec Keene's hitters couldn't miss, pounding three Normal pitchers for 19 base knocks including four home runs. Tom Hagar, freshman hurler, though relieved by Nunnenkamp in the fourth, fained credit for the victory.

Summary:

	R.	H.	E.
Oregon Normal	5	10	5
Willamette	19	19	4

Miller, Kalk, Bonkowski and Lewis; Hagar, Nunnenkamp and Weisgerber, Beard.

Angels Score Victory
Mt. Angel's pine caught the Bearcats napping last Tuesday afternoon and won 6 to 1.

Jerry Gastineau lost his first game of the year, though he fanned 12 of the Angels. Bud Moore gave the Keenemen but five bingles.

Gastineau hit 3 for 3 for Willamette.

Summary:

	R.	H.	E.
Willamette	1	5	3
Mt. Angel	6	7	1

Gastineau and Beard; Moore and Pinnett.

Independent Men Choose Officials For Sports Club
The Independent men of Willamette, under the leadership of Gene Hibbard and Jim Pyke, have formed an organization to further independent men's intramural sports on the campus.

Nominations for the various offices of the new men's athletic council, which will govern the new group were made Tuesday afternoon, April 13, at Chresto cottage.

Those nominated included: Chairmen, Art Gallon and Dale Crabtree; councilmen, with three positions open, Jack Ferguson, Ralph Klien, Norris Joyce, Neil Shaffer. The three councilmen elected are to select two other men to round out the council.

Elections will be held May 4, with all interested independent men invited to cast their ballots.

Miss Helen La Follette of Portland, a former Willamette student and member of Beta Chi, has announced her marriage date of June 3, to Willard Morgan of Roseburg.

KOLUMN * KOMMENT

Willamette students and townspeople always get a kick out of a Bearcat athletic triumph over Oregon and Oregon State. This is in part local pride, in part because the public likes to see the underdog, if Willamette can still be called that, for the locals' victories have been coming very frequent in the last few years, win from a so-called "big team," and in part because of the following, which is taken from the Oregon State Barometer commenting on the Beaver-Bearcat tilt of April 16.

Pointing out that the Beavers got only three hits off Jerry Gastineau, Willamette pitcher, the Barometer says in part:

"From the scorebook it makes Gastineau seem a real wizard on the mound. But the truth is that he isn't such a wonder at all. His most effective pitch against Oregon State was his curve and that was slow enough for almost any schoolboy batter to knock out of the lot. This kind of pitching is good stuff once in a while, but to be able to get away with it for nine innings is little short of phenomenal."

What bothers this scribe is the fact that the Barometer takes a slap at Gastineau's hurling in the face of the fact that the lanky chucker has beaten the Staters twice in two years by shutouts and with only two days' rest handed Oregon a whitewashing April 19. We wonder if the writer realizes that the difference from batting out hits on a typewriter in the press box and batting out safe knocks up there at the plate is very great. A pitcher may have more on the ball than the spectator realizes.

Some of the other schools in the Northwest conference take some bad beatings from Willamette in football, basketball and baseball, but when they get a chance to even scores, my, how they lay it on. Take that C. P. S.—Bearcat track meet of last week. The Loggers simply smothered the locals, giving them only one first place—that by Justin Weakley, Coach Sparks' crack javelin tosser.

The Russ Perkins, who led the attack on the local cindermen, is the same Perkins who made the all-conference football team last fall. Norm Mayer, another grinder, won the shot-put. Bernie Remson, the colored boy, placed in the pole vault, high jump and shot. McFadden, another grinder, took part as did Otto Smith, the star Logger basketball player.

News from San Jose State college, one of Willamette's eleven grid opponents next fall, reveals the potentialities of the Spartan backfield candidates. Spirit, speed and stiff competition are listed as three factors that should produce a dynamic backfield for next fall's team. Eleven experienced backs return. Outstanding candidate out is Bull Lewis, two-year veteran colored fullback.

Three teams, Willamette, defending champ, Portland university, and U. of Oregon remain in the race for the state collegiate baseball championship. Portland and Willamette met here Saturday. Oregon is slated to come here for a doubleheader a little later in the season. Oregon and Portland have divided two games, tied one. Willamette and Oregon divided a pair of tilts last week. Willamette lost to Mt. Angel Wednesday, but can erase that by downing the Angels here Friday.

Pacific eliminated Albany from the state title chase. Portland drubbed Pacific. Oregon State eliminated Oregon Normal. Willamette trounced the Beavers. Oregon defeated Linfield, and Portland beat Mt. Angel. The Bearcat-Pilot mixes should be exceptionally good, while the Bearcat-Buck tilts are sure to be the best of the season.

Buccaneers Drop Doubleheader To Slugging Bearcats

In two lop-sided ball games yesterday afternoon on the local diamond, the Willamette baseball squad tacked up two more victories for the season as they romped over an outclassed Albany College nine by scores of 12-2 and 20-1. Flaws in the Pirate team rather than any phenomenal performance on the part of the Bearcats rolled up the huge scores, though Methodist hitters did connect for 24 safeties in the double bill.

Albany players were guilty of 17 errors, which resulted in a continual parade of Bearcat runners around the bags, turning both contests into farcical exhibitions.

Walt Weaver started on the mound for the locals in the initial fray but was relieved by Criswell in the third because of wildness. The freshman hurler went the route thereon to receive credit for his second win of the year. His mates began to pound the ball after the fifth inning, which, coupled with Pirate misplays, started piling up the scores. Albany batters were held to three hits by the combined offerings of Weaver and Criswell.

In the second tilt Willamette swatsmiths built up a 12-0 lead in the first two innings, and thereafter just had a lot of fun romping around the bases. Weaver, determined to get a victory, had Buccaneer batsmen practically helpless until he was relieved by Nunnenkamp in the late innings. The two twirlers combined to hold the invaders to two safe blows.

Dwight Aden smashed out five hits in six trips to the plate, including a triple, to lead hitters for the day. Shinn was close behind with two doubles and a pair of singles in six tries. Pierce belted the only homer of the afternoon, a long fly to left in the nightcap.

Summary:

	R.	H.	E.
Albany	2	3	7
Willamette	12	12	7

Prideaux and Decker; Weaver, Criswell and Weisgerber.

Albany 1 2 10
Willamette 20 12 2

Manning, Miller, Decker and Prideaux; Weaver, Nunnenkamp and Beard, Moe.

CO-ED CAGERS WIN
The Willamette and Pacific University girls' all-star basketball teams met at Forest Grove Thursday, April 8, where Willamette won the game with a score of 46 to 14. The lineup consisted of Francis Faber and Ruth Yocum as forwards, Anna Mae Unrath and Jean Annunen, centers, and Irma Oehler, and Anoka Coates, guards. Rachel Yocum and Barbara Kutz saw service as substitutes.

Track Team Goes To Forest Grove For Second Meet

Hoping for nothing better than an even break, Coach "Les" Sparks' trackmen journey to Forest Grove, Friday afternoon, for their second meet of the year.

Making the trip will be approximately the same team that lost to College of Puget Sound last week end. The squad includes: John Kelly, Dex Russell, and John Hauk, sprinters; Norm Hogenson, Wayne Brainard, Max Ross, Jim Johnson, 440; Francis Schmidt, Henry Frantz, 550; Bob Brown, Bob Keuscher, Arthur Frantz, Dan Moses, mile and two mile; Bob Jones, hurdles; Chet Varnes, Kelly, Cal Ritchie, and Bill McAdam, shot and discus; Justin Weakley, javelin; Schmidt, high jump; Kelly, broad jump; Weakley, pole vault; Hogenson, Johnson, Ross, Schmidt, relay.

The Badgers will take on their first opponents in Willamette and will present mostly an untried team. Leading Coach Folgate's squad will be Captain Ben McCue, letterman vaulter. Other outstanding men will be Tommy Fishburn, sprinter, Myrl Barkhurst, 440, Morris Schmidt, 880, Don Lucas, high and broad jump, and GH Haller, mile and two mile. The Badgers downed Willamette 74 to 56 last year.
