WILLAMETTE COLLEGIAN, APRIL 4, 1929

PRICE FIVE CENTS

MAY QUEEN TO BE ELECTED APRIL 6

PROMINENT WOMEN VIE

Georgia Fairbanks, Jean White, and Beatrice Lockhart Will Rule Festival

The student body election of May queen will take place Friday, April 5, at which time each student will vote for one of the three candidates. As a result of the nominations last week Georgia Fairbanks, Jean White, and Beatrice Lockhart were nominated. The candidate who receives the largest number of votes will be May queen and the other two will be her attendants.

Miss Fairbanks, who is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority, came to Willamette from Jacksonville, Florida. She was vice-president of her class during the second semester of her Freshman year, and is a member of Beta Chi Alpha, Pi Gamma Mu, and also of Theta Alpha Phi. For three years she worked on the "Collegian" staff, as a reporter and as news editor. She has worked on the Wallajah staff, as well, and is Senior scholar in history. She was vice president of her sorority.

Miss Lockhart, whose sorority is Beta Chi, graduated from Jefferson High School in Portland, though her home is now at Millsboro. She was active in Freshman debate and was an officer in her class. She has been on the Y. W. cabinet for two years and worked on the Wallajah publication last year. She served on the Collegian staff in both the editorial and advertising divisions. She is president of her sorority.

Miss White, who is also a Beta Chi, graduated from Washington High School in Portland. She took part in Freshman debate, and was on the Y. W. cabinet this year. She has been on a number of campus committees, and worked in the advertising division of the Collegian staff. She is a member of the Salem Drama League and has been prominent in women's athletics, both in her class and her sorority. She is president of the Women's Athletic Association.

SENIORS ELECTED TO PI GAMMA MU

Selection Made by Faculty Committee—Student Must Have 85% Average

Eight members of the senior class have been elected to the Pi Gamma Mu fraternity. Those elected were: Georgia Fairbanks, Elsie Tucker, Esther Lisle, Mary Clamfield, Alice Lane, Ivan White, Kenneth Litchfield, and Meredith Groves.

Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary society devoted to the encouragement of undergraduate study of social science. Faculty members, alumni, and seniors who have had twenty semester hours in the social science field with an average of 85% in these subjects are eligible.

The board which elects the members is composed of Dr. Laughlin, Dean Erickson, Dr. Gatke, and Dr. Alden.

Miss Frances Virginia Melton was unable to meet her classes last week because of a severe cold.

Marsters Accepts Sport Managership

The executive committee announces the appointment of Collas Marster, sophomore, as Spring Sports manager. He will have charge of the managing side of the track, tennis and baseball.

YOUNG PEOPLE MEET ON CAPITOL STEPS

Sunrise services to which everyone was invited were held by the Epworth Leagues of the Jason Lee and the First Methodist churches on Easter morning. The First Methodist League gathered at 6:30 on the east steps of the Capitol building and held a devotional service led by Leslie Manker. Katherine Everett sang a special number.

The Jason Lee services were held in the church at 6:00 o'clock. Devotions were led by Mrs. Forkner and a violin solo was played by Mildred Wilkens accompanied by Marian Morange. After the services the group adjourned to the church basement where breakfast was served.

COLLEGIAN EDITOR ILL WILL RETURN MONDAY

The Collegian editor, Bill Smulin, has been very ill for the past two weeks, suffering from an abscess in his ear. He has been improving rapidly the last few days but will not be able to attend classes and to resume his editorial duties before Monday.

Consequently the staff has been somewhat handicapped in getting this week's issue. The associate editor wishes to thank the members of the staff and the reporters for their fine cooperation.

WOMEN WELL RECEIVED TOUR IS SUCCESSFUL

Josephine Alberts Joins Club at Seattle—Much Credit Due Marjory Miller

The Women's Glee Club returned Wednesday, March 27, from a very successful tour in Washington.

The women were well received in every town, and many letters of appreciation have been sent to the club since their return. Included in the entertainment which was given them a trip through the Navy Yards at Bremerton and aboard the battleship Mississippi. At Port Orchard they enjoyed a motor boat ride on the Sound. The Brown and Halsey Candy Company of Tacoma treated them very generously.

Miss Josephine Albert, who was unable to start with the club, joined them in Bremerton. Miss Katherine Everett was soloist in place of Miss Frances McGilvra, who has been unable to sing for the past few weeks because of laryngitis.

Miss Marjory Miller deserves much credit for her assistant directing, and Miss Grace Henderson, who was also a soloist, proved herself a very able accompanist.

MEN SING AT HALSEY

The Willamette Men's Glee Club is singing Friday evening at Halsey, Oregon. The entire concert will be presented. This appearance is due to a request sent them. Many of their concerts are presented by request.

FORENSIC PLANS TO BE EXTENSIVE

LEAGUE MEETS AT U OF I

Numerous Debates Scheduled With Large Universities Chapin Attends Meet

Tentative debates with numerous large colleges and universities were scheduled for next year's debate squad at Willamette at the sixth annual conference of the Pacific Coast Forensic League, which was held in Moscow, Idaho. Willamette was represented at this meet by Harold Tomlinson, extemporaneous speaker, and Leland Chapin, debate coach and faculty representative.

Jack Routh and Charles Campbell, varsity debaters, also attended the conference and hoped to meet some teams from other universities represented there but their challenge was unaccepted since other squads had previously made plans.

Among the debates scheduled for next year are those with the University of Wyoming, UCLA, University of Southern California, University of Wyoming, and Stanford.

It is believed that by placing forensic contests on much the same basis as athletic competition and scheduling them some months ahead more interest than is customary will be taken in debates both by debaters and entire student body. Coach Chapin feels confident that under this new plan with the material now at hand squad can be developed next year.

It is his desire that with debates scheduled with some of the finest debaters on the coast forensics may become accepted at Willamette not only as a major activity at Willamette but also as a "major sport".

At the present time Willamette is the only denominational college in Oregon holding membership in the Pacific Coast Forensic League, the other members from this state being the University of Oregon and Oregon State College.

WOMEN'S CONCERT TO BE NEXT WEEK

Date Set For April 11 at Waller Hall—Endeavor to Bring Town to Campus

The home concert of the Willamette University Women's Glee Club will be given Thursday, April 11, at 8:00 p. m. It is to be presented in the University Chapel this year in order to bring Salem to Willamette instead of taking Willamette to the town.

The Chapel will be artistically decorated with flowers, under the direction of Miss Nell Brunseau, and the footlights are to be fixed for use.

Miss Helen Pemberton is in charge of the tickets, which may be obtained from any member of the club. They will be sold in the main hall of Eaton next Wednesday and Thursday. Admission is 50c for adults and 25c for high school students.

Prof. E. W. Hobson will direct the chorus in this concert, which is the first one to be given in the Chapel for many years. The school authorities are very much in favor of this return, and the hearty co-operation of every student is desired and expected.

Manager For May Day Is Appointed

Ed Wells was chosen May Day manager at a meeting of the executive committee Tuesday, April 2. He has already assumed his duties and is busy making committee appointments who will have charge of the various activities for Junior week-end.

CHOIR GIVES LAST CONCERT MARCH 31

The Easter concert that was given last Sunday evening at First M. E. Church makes the ninth Easter concert Professor Hobson has directed in this city. It was the last sacred program to be given this year. The following numbers were offered:

- ..... Handel
- Choir

JAPANESE BOOKS COME TO THE W. U. LIBRARY

Paris Publishers Send Two Volumes; Editions Elaborate in Makeup and Printing

Two new books have been received in the university library dealing with the literature of France. The two volumes compiled by Joseph Bedier and Paul Hazard are very inclusive and are beautifully illustrated throughout. The French language is used entirely in the works which make them inaccessible to many readers. The two volumes were received directly from the publishers in Paris.

Beautifully illustrated enthronement editions of two Japanese newspapers have been received in the library. The enthronement edition of the Japan advertiser was sent by the Japanese consul in Portland and the enthronement number of the Japan Times was received from the publisher in Tokio. Both of the editions are elaborate and rich in their makeup. Exceptionally fine paper is used and the print follows an ornate plan.

The Kimball Volley Ball team journeyed to Willamina last Wednesday evening to play in a tournament with teams from Willamina and from McMinnville. The Kimball were the winners.

JUNIOR CLASS TO GIVE MILNE PLAY

MRS. PRESCOTT IS COACH

Cast Has Little Experience Final Selections Made Practice Begins

The Junior play, "Romantic Age" by A. A. Milne will be presented Friday night of Junior week-end, May 3. It is one of the best of the recent plays—first produced by London in 1926. The cast is as follows:

- Henry Knowle.....William Mumford
- Mary Knowle.....Camilla Gates
- Mellsande.....Florence Power
- Jane.....Dorothy Taylor
- Bobby.....Hugh Currin
- Gervase Mallory.....Frank Lombard
- Ern.....Earl Henry
- Gentleman Susan.....Joe Silver
- Alice.....Marjorie Miller

The play is well balanced and

FRANK LOMBARD Who is cast in leading male role of Junior Play.

gives opportunity for all of the players to display their abilities. It is a clever three act comedy written in a way that pleases college audiences.

The coach is Mrs. Gerald Prescott, who has been long recognized as one with considerable dramatic and coaching ability. She has had much experience in coaching high school plays. While she was teaching in The Dalles she coached plays put on by the Business and Professional Women's Club there. She is a pupil of Professor Reddie at the University of Oregon.

With the exception of one, Frank Lombard, none of the players have taken part before in University plays. Miss Power has had experience in De Molay plays however, and the rest of the players participated in high school plays. Their appearances in the campus production will be watched with much interest.

The committees and managers that will help put the play over have not been definitely decided as yet nor has the place where the play will be presented been decided upon, according to Manager Paul Geddes.

$300 GIVEN TOWARD TENNIS COURT FUND

Shortly before spring vacation, members of the Philodorian literary society voted to appropriate their funds for the completion of the Willamette tennis courts. The Philodorians, who disbanded in the fall, sold their properties to the university. The money received was given over by the university administration to further work upon the courts. The funds amount to over $300.

Work upon the courts was begun by the Adolante Society, and continued by appropriations from the four classes. The work is now progressing rapidly, so that the courts may be finished in time for the Conference tournament.

Femininity a Myth

Modern males are more tolerant of inherited feminine traits than were the Greeks of ancient times. During the early days of Olympic contests, ladies were not only barred from competition, but they were not even admitted as spectators, and guards were stationed to warn any ladies who happened near that they were feminine and because of this handicap they should keep away while the men proved their superiority to their own satisfaction.

Today our athletes perform before grandstands filled with ladies. They even admit that the games would lose much of their lure if the women were excluded. Women even take part in many of the events.

Not only in athletics are the men becoming tolerant of the feminine traits; we have rumors, of course without definite proof, that some of our college men are taking bride's cooking and are enrolled in folk dancing classes.

Hats off to the men who at last recognize femininity as something besides a necessary evil!—The Evergreen.

Who Will Be King?

Now that the three young ladies who are to reign during the Willamette May festivities have been chosen, speculation will run rife among the fraternities as to what men will be the choice of the fair maidens for escorts.

Custom on the whole decrees that such choice should be limited to the male members of their own class although personal desire has often outweighed such precedent. Much time and effort has often been expended by past senior men to gain the desired position. Attention has been lavished upon a member of the trio with the hope that he would not be found wanting. But history reveals that the women have exercised the prerogative of their own will, many times to the blasting of fondly laid masculine hopes.

Meanwhile who will escort the queen and her attendants will continue to be a topic of conversation, and much comment among the male members of the campus, until such selection is made known.

When you are trying to make up your mind whether to let Bobbie keep the stray cat he found.

Along the Way

(By The Wayfarers)

A Willamette alumnus who was once an amnesia victim recently told us, "No memory in me lived; but that I one time touched the chapel doors each day I knew."

The powers which cause us to touch these same doors each day may be able to make us come to chapel and sleep for half an hour; but they can't keep their sermons from going in one ear and out the other.

Initiates, "There's a divinity that shapes our ends, rough-hew them how we will."

Among recent social events of interest was the Kappa initiation banquet, which was changed to a "stag swaray (solree)" soon after the Beta Chis announced their exclusive birthday party.

Cough, cough, cough, the boys are playing—in chapel—even after spring vacation. They have had time for their coughed-out vocal cords to recuperate. Now they can entertain themselves when they feel too polite to study. Cough on, McRook.

A co-ed concocted this scorcher during vacation:

One Joe: "Why is Salem HI not like my watch?"
2nd Joe: "No sabo, shoot."
O. J.: "Because my watch is a good loser."

Gabby has discovered the answers and sufficient proof for two momentous questions. First, does a porcupine shoot its quills? Second, do porcupine quills "stay put"? The answer is the same for both: "Sure." The proof is likewise similar: "Look at Glen Leadbetter's upper lip."

If you want some blarney thrown at you, just start stirring up trouble by breaking the anti-shuffle rules. As long as you don't get too violent, they will flatter you to your heart's content in order to quiet you.

The suggestion has been made that a prize be offered for finding a corner of the library which is not filled with a mass of dusty cobwebs.

Buck Winslow thinks that a prize should be offered, also, for the row in Principles of Ed. class that has perfect attendance.

From all we hear and see, anyone would be perfectly safe in offering either of these prizes.

Red Hot Confessions

Dean Erickson once liked to play caveman with the dining-room table and a blanket. No connotations.

It is estimated that four out of every five excuses are lost after you hand them in. And it is certain that only ninety-nine and forty-four hundredths of one per cent do you any good.

PHI BETA KAPPA WILL BE INSTALLED AT WSC

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, April 4.—Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic fraternity, will install a chapter at the State College on Saturday, April 6. It was announced today by Dr. A. A. Cleveland, dean of the school of education who is in charge of local arrangements.

Installation ceremonies will be directed by Dr. Oscar M. Voorhees, New York City, grand national secretary of the fraternity. Members of the State College faculty who are members of Phi Beta Kappa will assist in the installation. President Norman F. Coleman of Reed College, Portland, Ore., will deliver the Phi Beta Kappa address. Dr. Coleman has spoken at the State College on several previous occasions.

The State College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa will be the third installed in western universities and colleges this year. Chapters were recently installed at the University of Southern California and Mills college, both California institutions.

Twelve Years Ago

Although married, there are thirteen of these students who elect to continue their education at Willamette. According to statistics recently compiled in the university office, the registration shows eleven married men enrolled, and two married women.

Dr. Carl G. Doney, president of Willamette has been giving valuable assistance in the campaign of endowment of Gooding College. It is indeed gratifying to see the fine spirit of fraternity that exists between Willamette, Puget Sound, and Gooding.

Although small donations from alumnae have been received the proceeds from the sale of sandwiches each Thursday morning are largely responsible for the chairs which the Y. W. C. A. rest room committee has purchased for use in devotional meetings.

Spring vacation by no means proved a time for idling to the W. U. quartette, who in spite of the weather, appeared at Harrisburg, Junction City, Lebanon, and McMinnville.

"Cotangent, cosecant, cosine
All the co's that can be said
Are not to be compared with thee
Thou best of co's co-ed."

Under the management of Lloyd Haight of the variety "Y" plans for the monster stag mix on April 22 are rapidly assuming a definite form. As the annual election will occur early in April the new officers of the association will preside over the board.

Chapel hour services were dispensed with yesterday morning that Mr. De Mutt might take a picture of the entire student body with his circuit camera. As weather conditions were unusually favorable, the resulting pictures will undoubtedly be clear and representative of the student body's best humor.

A program bursting with Western interest stirred up the Philodorian last Wednesday evening. These snappy meetings more than justify the organization.

NEW STUDY SYSTEM TO BE ADOPTED BY C. P. S.

COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND, April 3.—A new system of study, based upon a system now in use at Swarthmore College, Pennsylvania, is to be used at the College of Puget Sound beginning next year. According to the outline given out, the plan calls for a series of independent study courses. Seniors who have made a certain grade average will be allowed to take 16 hours of independent study a semester. They will not be compelled to attend any classes, and may follow any course they desire. At the end of the semester they will be tested upon their major department knowledge.

Mary Findley is To Take Up New Position Shortly

Miss Mary E. Findley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley of Salem, and a graduate of Willamette university, has accepted a position as executive secretary to J. J. Handsaker, northwest secretary of the council for the prevention of war, according to word received here from Eugene, where Miss Findley for two and a half

LOCALS

Miss Frances Lemery '28, who is now working at the University of Washington for her master's degree was the week-end guest of Elsie Tucker.

Elsie Tucker was subjected to a major nasal operation during spring vacation but has been able to return to school.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sparks spent the week of spring vacation at Myrtle Point where they were the guests of Mr. Sparks' brother.

Miss Doratha Peters has accepted a teaching position in her home town of Manson, Wash. She will teach Domestic Science and direct the Glee Clubs.

Wilma Spence who completed her work in the English Department last semester has secured a position in the Lebanon High school for the coming year.

Professor Hertzog spoke Friday night and Dr. McCormick Sunday morning in the Methodist church at Harrisburg, Ore. The Rev. Mr. Mitzner is pastor of the church.

About fifty were present at the monthly student body dinner of Kimball school, March 15. After dinner the students played a volleyball game. Guests of the students included Mrs. E. C. Schiewe, Mrs. Harry Crouse, Mrs. George Gordon, Mrs. Henry Ernst and daughter of Scholls, and Mrs. Ed. Ward Withnell.

Louise Huls and Elsie Tucker were dinner guests of Ruth Margaret Hall last Thursday evening.

Mrs. John Reed visited with her daughter, Elolse, in Corvallis during spring vacation.

Mildred Mills, class of '28, was a week-end visitor at Delta Phi. Miss Mills is affiliated with the Marshfield high school and remained to visit a few days in Salem while she was enroute to the home of her parents in Forest Grove to spend spring vacation.

Miss Margaret Klein spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McCormick of Salem.

During the spring vacation Miss Lois Latimer and Miss Alida Gale Currey motored to Crescent City, California.

Leta Hale is confined in the Lausanne Hall infirmary with mumps.

Helen Cochran, Betty Ogden, Gloria Grafton, Margaret Eddy, and Ruth Bauer were among those from Lausanne Hall who went home for the week-end.

Word has been received that Wilma Ausman will not be able to return to school this year because of the illness of her mother.

STANFORD CLUB GIVES IBSEN'S RECENT PLAY

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., April 4.—(PIP)—Henrik Ibsen's "The Wild Duck" was presented on Friday evening, March 1, under the auspices of the English club before a large audience of Stanford students and Palo Alto residents. This was only the second performance of this drama on the coast. The sets, the acting, and the directing were all considered among the best of the year.

Over Half of Women in College Are Partially Self-Supporting

Working (and not working) Father, either) appears to be the universal outside activity of Willamette co-eds. A recent survey indicates that approximately 68 per cent of the young women enrolled in the school of liberal arts are at least partially self-supporting.

Twenty-four women are attending school with no outside financial assistance save for loans from various boards, agencies, or individuals. Sixty-one earn half of their living and college expenses, while 87 are to some extent independent, earning less than half of the amount they spend.

Altogether 172 Willamette women out of an enrollment of 270 work at some sort of lucrative employment at some season of the year. Statistics from institutions throughout the country show that this is a comparatively large percentage of self-help students although the percentage in all colleges and universities is growing each year.

What do they do? Oh, numerous things: one preaches, one cuts hair, some hold positions as nurses during the summer, while many do clerical work. The most popular task is waiting tables; between 20 and 30 are thus employed. Probably the fact that the pay is fair and that the hours are those in least demand for school activities have much to do with this choice of occupation.

Housework is also quite a general choice with clerical and general office work a close third. Library work, teaching and tutoring, dressmaking, caring for children, newspaper work of one sort or another, seasonal employment in canneries, fruit picking and positions in stores and bakeries are not to be forgotten, for they attract large numbers.

Conservative estimates place $500 as the minimum cost of one year in college covering tuition, books, clothing and living expenses for the economical girl.

Thus, more than $36,000 annually is earned and spent by Willamette co-eds.

POLICE FIND WHY HOMES DESERTED

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 3.—(AP)—So much has been said about why people leave home that the police decided to find out for themselves. Reporting on the subject today police said they had discovered the reasons to be as follows:

Men leave home to forget family troubles or to dodge domestic responsibilities. They often go to, with or from a woman.

Women leave home when they find a new love.

Boys leave to seek adventure and romance.

Girls leave to escape routine or discipline.

Police records, on which the deductions are based, disclosed that 239 men, women and children who left San Francisco in 1928 are still missing. Altogether 1177 persons disappeared here.

Many of those who disappeared left notes saying they were going to commit suicide. Most of them didn't.

STUDENTS TO PRESENT GARAGE PROBLEM SOON

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., April 4.—(PIP)—Following the publication of the results of an inquiry into the car situation on the campus, Comptroller Almon Roth has announced that the garage problem will be presented to the Board of Trustees in the immediate future. The investigation showed that out of the 2110 students living on the campus, 654 have automobiles of some description, and of these, 364 want garages at the rate of $5 per month.

KITE-FLYING POPULAR DIVERSITY AMONG MEN

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., April 4.—(PIP)—Stanford males, especially juniors, appear to be getting flighty, judging from the number of kites which may be seen flying over the great open spaces in front of some of the dormitories. Red, white, and blue flashes of color may be seen sporting in the skies, anchored to horseshoe-pitching stakes with bearded upperclassmen dashing around like kids just out of school.

CORVALLIS, Ore., April 3.—(AP)—Henry Harris of Stanford and Grant McMillan of Oregon State college, arguing the negative in a split team extemporaneous debate today was given an audience decision over Robert Hume, Stanford, George Knutson, Oregon State. The question was: "Resolved that the United States should cancel France's pre-Armistice Debt."

Girls Get Room For Meetings

For the first time, Salem Girl Reserves have a club room all their own. The old dining room at the Y. W. C. A. has been renovated and is being fitted up for a room to be used by all the Girl Reserve groups of the city. The floor has been painted, walls and ceiling kalsomined, woodwork repaired and new curtains hung.

While the girls are bringing table covers, pictures and other items to make the room comfortable and cheery, similar things which anyone may care to donate will be appreciated. Girls' books, especially would be gladly received, as it is the intention to fill several small shelves with appropriate titles.

Miss Elizabeth Baker is advisor to the Girl Reserve clubs.

68TH WILLAMETTE CATALOG PUBLISHED

The Willamette university catalog for the 86th year was issued this week. Very few changes have been made in courses or requirements. Some subjects heretofore classified as vocational subjects in high school are recognized as academic subjects and may be presented as such for entrance to the university. Recognition of high school credits on the basis of major and minor subjects; instead of on the basis of 15 credits divided into academic and vocational subjects is anticipated by university officials.

Miss Helen Pearce, who has been on leave of absence for several years while doing graduate study, will be a member of the regular teaching staff next year, according to the bulletins.

Conquering the Cascades

SNOW falls every month in the year where the Great Northern crosses the Cascades. Steep, tortuous grades increase the difficulty of the railroading problem. Nature has stubbornly resisted man's effort to conquer the range.

In January, 1929, the new Cascade tunnel was opened. Man, with electricity as an ally, had conquered the Cascades.

The eight-mile bore was driven in three years—a record impossible without electric power. And electrification has been extended to the entire 75-mile route through the mountains.

The conquests of electricity on the land and on the sea, in the air, and underground, are making practicable the impossibilities of yesterday. As our vision encompasses wider horizons, electricity appears as a vital contribution to future industrial progress and human welfare.

Of Beta Chi Banquet

On Saturday evening the active members and pledges of Beta Chi entertained the alumni and former members of the organization with a formal banquet at the Marion Hotel. The event commemorated the tenth anniversary of the founding of Beta Chi. This sorority is the oldest on the Willamette campus, and was founded on the 29th of March, 1919.

The banquet room was lighted by yellow tapers and lamps. Lovely baskets of daffodils, yellow carnations, and sweet peas decorated the large U-shaped table. Cover were laid for seventy.

Mrs. Velma Baker, the first president of Beta Chi, acted a toastmistress, and those responding to toasts included Mrs. E. C. Richards, the first house mother of the sorority; Ruth Hewitt, Margaret Arnold, and Beatrice Lockhart. During the evening Josephine Albert sang a group of solos.

At the close of the evening clever theatre programs were distributed to the guests. These programs made known the betrothal of Gaynelle Beckett and Frank Alfred.

Special guests for the evening included Mrs. Alice H. Dodd house mother, Mrs. E. C. Richards, honorary member, Mrs. F. A. Legge, former house mother and Mrs. W. Conell Dyer, patroness.

Alumnae and former members present included Miss Frances Hodge, Mrs. Margaret Wible Walker, Mrs. Mildred Grant, Mrs. Phyllis Palmer Patton, Mrs. Odell Savage Ohling, Mrs. Winifred St. Clair Rogers, Mrs. Velma Baker Legge, Mrs. Dorothy Palmer Thomas, Miss Lella Johnson, Miss Wilma Spence, Miss Ruth Hewitt, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Lola Millard, Miss Clara Jasper, Miss Margaret Arnold, Mrs. Carolyn Lambirth Simpson, Miss June Gaines, and Miss Vivian Hauge.

Kappa Gamma Rho Hosts At Easter Breakfast

The members of Kappa Gamma Rho were hosts on Sunday at a delightful Easter Morning breakfast.

Guests of the fraternity included the Misses Bonnie Weinhelmer, Mary Louise Aiken, Katherine Everett, Margaret Morehouse, Margaret Pro, Florence Power, Beatrice Lockhart, and Estel Chaney.

Engagement Made Known At Lausanne Hall

Miss Marjorie Nelson entertained at a formal dinner party Monday March 25 in honor of Miss Leah McGaughey. During dinner the engagement of Miss McGaughey to Clarence K. Rand of Roseburg, Oregon was made known to the guests. The table was dimly decorated in yellow and white. Small cards concealed in miniature cedar chests told of the engagement. The other guests were: Misses Lucille Milhollin, Augusta Jockel, Frederica Brown, Theresa Nannoy, Bernice Jackson, and Dorothy Peters.

Mrs. Ruth L. Reed of Portland was a dinner guest at Beta Chi last Friday.

class activities. Mr. Alfred is a member of the Senior class and of the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity. He has taken a prominent part in dramatic activities on the campus. The date for the wedding has not been set.

Dean Robertson Speaks
At Town and Gown Meeting

The Town and Gown Club met at Lausanne Hall on last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. F. G. Franklin and Mrs. C. F. Cross were the hostesses and the president, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, presided. The rooms were attractively decorated with yellow daffodils and forsythia. Dean Mable Robertson of Salem High School spoke on The Aims and Objectives of High School Deanship and the Sophomore quartette of Salem High sang two selections: "Water Lilies" and "Wake Up Ma Honnies".

Betrothal Made Known At Beta Chi Banquet

At the conclusion of the Beta Chi banquet held at the Marion Hotel last Saturday evening, announcement was made of the engagement of Gaynelle Beckett and Frank Alfred. Clever theatre programs were distributed, which revealed the secret.

Miss Beckett is a member of the Junior class and of the Beta Chi sorority. She has been active in

Delta Phi Entertains At Breakfast Sunday

On last Sunday morning the members of Delta Phi entertained with a three course Easter Breakfast at their house on Court street. Covers were laid for fifty-three. Lighter tapers, pale green and yellow, and baskets of daffodils, spiraea and pussywillows were arranged on the tables. There was a vocal solo by Marjory Miller and soft music played during the breakfast.

MARSHALL FERDINAND FOCH

By Edna Garfield

Historic Genius! Super-strategist!
Ten million soldiers proud he was their head!
Savior of civilization! Marshalist!
Great war-time chief of Allied armies dead!

Gigantic juggernaut of infamy
He vowed to rout from out its hellish zones;
He blazed the trail to world democracy;
A score of kings he hurled from off their thrones.

Crowned with immortal glory, yet withal
Modest as unsophisticated child;
Conquered, but not subdued, he met Death's call.
The nations mourn—reluctant reconciled!
—Albany Democrat-Herald.

A LEAF

I am just a yellow leaf
With worn edges.
I rustle with the wind
Among the hedges.
I know the cooling touches
Of the rain,
That takes away all bitterness
And pain.
I have listened to the birds
Sing through the hours;
Have spent my fleeting moments
With the flowers.
I am just a yellow leaf
With edges sore,
And as the winds sigh requiems
Of the passing year,
I flutter softly to the cool brown earth.
*—A member of the class of '29

A DREAM FUGUE

A thousand learned professors sit around me menacingly. They shoot at me glinting, cutting questions; sinuous, subtle questions; treacherous two-edged questions that torture my sweating brain like a million steel swords but draw little blood.
At my agonized writhing, my alternate melting and freezing, my quaking and shaking of limb, at my totally wretched condition, the professorial heads begin to nod and smile, a smile that before my blurred vision widens and grows and envelopes me like a horrible Chesire grin, that blots out all else from my sight and remains suspended in space as if to torment and distress my already exhausted mind.

They are gone. Alone I sit, staring with eyes unbelieving at an incomprehensible document which reads, "Passed!—Senior Oral!"

BASEBALL OUTLOOK LOOMS UNCERTAIN

Much to Depend on Pitchers Ledbetter and Vannice Lettermen, Turn Out

Old man sun seems to have been surreptitiously disinterred and again we have baseball weather. For over a week this year, practices were confined to the gym with only throwing practice and loosening up their arms.

As yet this year's baseball squad is more or less of a question mark. Too much depends upon the pitching squad for anyone to feel at all secure. Jack Majovsky and Kimiki are the new men to strengthen the team. Ledbetter and Vannice, lettermen, remain from last year. On these men depends largely whether Willamette has a mediocre or a championship team.

In the other positions there is plenty of competition and plenty of good men. Many of the veterans are facing prospects of sitting on the bench unless they can show considerable more form than they have in previous years.

At the keystone sack there are four men fighting for the first call. They are: Steelhammer, Scales, Welsh, and Troxel. Steelhammer and Scales have the advantage at the present time, but a man is picked for team play and team spirit as well as for his individual ability.

At second, Adams seems to be holding down his old position. At short Gibson has the edge over Girod, but nothing is certain as yet. At third Braley and Hawk are the contenders. Hawk has been unable to attend practice as yet on account of working, but last year he was the Bambino of the Willamette squad, having at least four home runs to his credit and a season batting average of .500 per cent.

In the outfield there is about three or four men trying out for each position. Roundtree seems to be the class of the gardens, but has not been out for the last few nights as his finger was torn open when hit by a baseball. Dietz and McGinn are the other two leading players with a good many others giving him a close run.

Most of the schedule is yet tentative, but eight games have been definitely arranged. Finances will determine the extent of the Willamette schedule. Games are being arranged with C. P. S., Multnomah, Columbia, and Ashland Normal school. As yet no definite date has been set upon for any of these games.

The schedule so far as it is definite is as follows:

- O. S. C. at Corvallis April 12 and 13.
- Oregon at Eugene April 19 and 20.
- Linfield at Salem April 27.
- Pacific at Salem May 4.
- Pacific at Forest Grove May 10.
- Linfield at McMinnville May 18.

FIRE-FIGHTING GHEGA MEN PROVEN VALIANTS

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, April 4.—Fire-fighting has entered the list of "white-collared" jobs on the state college campus. Theta Chi, men's social group, has set the precedent.

Clad in formal dress, members of the group were just ready to leave in a body for a local hotel recently to attend a formal dinner dance when a fire broke out in their home. Immaculate togs were forgotten for the moment while the men rushed here and there, splashing water on burning wood and cutting through partitions.

The blaze was soon quelled and the men went to their formal, somewhat ruffled, but otherwise none the worse for their fire-fighting experience in "soup and fish."

FAIRBANKS AND WOOD TO PLAY FOR SENIORS

Tennis tryouts for the Interclass tournament are being held this week. Each class holds preliminary tryouts, the winner and runner-up being entered in the contest.

The junior and senior tryouts are completed and the sophomore and freshman will probably be finished by Friday. Georgia Fairbanks will play for the seniors in the singles and in the doubles with Margaret Wood.

For the juniors Emily Brown will play in the singles and with Margaret Bolt in the doubles.

TENTH TOURNAMENT WAS BIG SUCCESS

The tenth annual State High School basketball tournament was a big success, according to Lestle Sparks financial manager of the tournament. The gross receipts were only fifty dollars short of last year. The expenses were slightly heavier however.

The board of control is very much pleased with the support given the tournament by the people of Salem and by the students of Willamette University. The board of control meets in December to decide where the tournament will be held next year. Willamette will probably get it again due to the satisfactory handling of it this year.

Roy Cannon, secretary of the State High School board, is reported to have told the sports editor that there is no reason why we should take the tournament away from Salem. "The tournament might make more money at other places, but Willamette founded it and has made it what it is."

Next year probably the home team or Salem will be allowed to play whether they win the district title or not under a proposed plan which is to be submitted to the board in December.

SEASON AGAIN OPENED FOR GREEN HEADPIECE

COLLEGE OF IDAHO—Green caps came out again this week to bloom on the heads of the freshman on the C. of I. campus. These frosh, who since the last football game of the fall, have taken on the appearance of college men, will again be returned to their mediocrity. "I" club rules say the first year men must wear their green headpieces from St. Patrick's day until Founders' day, the first week in May.

SALLY'S SALLIES

Isn't it strange how a man will chase a girl until she catches him.

PLANS FOR SPRING PRACTICE GIVEN UP

Spec Koene has abandoned his plans of having Spring football practice this year due to the apparent lack of interest in school and also because of his limited time as he has to coach baseball.

Originally Spring football was to be held the week previous to the tournament but due to the district tournament this plan had to be abandoned.

It was then planned to have spring practice after spring vacation, but most of the men either were out for baseball or had other things to take up the time. As interest lagged practice was called off entirely.

At present those men who desire to go out can and Spec will give them as much individual attention as possible. It is this time of the year that a team is drilled in fundamentals. The shortness of time before the first game necessitates that most of the time in the fall be spent in practicing plays and a very meager amount of time can be spent on fundamentals. The mastery of fundamentals by eleven men on the field can make a mediocre team a championship team.

MEN ARE VICTORIOUS IN IMPORTANT DEBATE

Campbell and Routh Meet Team From Southern California At Dallas High

The men's debate squad has just completed a very successful season, winning decisions over University of Southern California, Wyoming, and Arkansas.

On March 20, Charles Campbell and Jack Routh were victorious over Gregson Bautzer and Milton Dickens of Southern California, who were making a tour through California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Utah. They met their first defeat at the hands of our team before the students of Dallas High School. These men were very experienced debaters, while this was the first intercollegiate decision debate for Mr. Campbell and Mr. Routh.

The next day Warren McMinnimee and Charles Campbell met the University of Arizona's team at Chemawa. On account of a slip in the arrangements, both teams were prepared to take the negative side, but Willamette shifted to the affirmative. Mr. McMinnimee had to throw away his prepared speech and extemporize. It was decided previous to the debate that Willamette would be granted no consideration on account of having to speak extemporaneously.

The debate with the University of Wyoming was won by Mr. Campbell and Mr. Routh on March 26. Professor Barryman of Oregon Normal School was judge.

ALUMNI AND STUDENTS GATHER AT PORTLAND

Smullin is Toastmaster—Erickson and Hewitt Give Talks on Campus Affairs

About seventy students, alumnae, and prospective students were present at the "Carry the Campus to the Adumnes" banquet sponsored by the Blue Key organization, at Henry Thiele's restaurant in Portland, Thursday evening, March 28.

William Smullin acted as toastmaster and a number of students and faculty spoke. Dean Hewitt spoke on present conditions on the campus from the faculty's point of view and Dean Erickson on whether conditions have changed. Paul Geddes gave a brief resume of the work and trip of the Glee club.

Ivan White spoke of service organizations on the campus and Jean White on Christian work.

Special musical numbers were given by Willis Hathaway.

  - Doratha Peters ..... Aunt Emily
  - Ruth Bauer ..... Maid
  - Esther Lisle ..... Cook
- The play was coached by Dr. Robert M. Gatke.

KIMBALL FACULTY ARE RE-ELECTED MARCH 13

All the professors of Kimball were re-elected at the trustees' meeting in Portland, March 13. The faculty for next year will be composed of Dean J. D. McCormich, Dr. E. S. Hammond, and Professors Hertzog, Andrews and Keefer.

At the same time the seniors, Harry Crouse, Robert McIlvina, George Gordon, Henry Allen, were passed on. Considerable routine work of the school was also discussed.

Miss Buneva Culbertson is substituting in the English department of the Silverton high school this week.

NEW TRACK NEEDED FEW MEN TURN OUT

"Two things are needed before Willamette can have a successful track team," said Coach Lestle Sparks, in reviewing the track situation. "One is a track, the other a team."

The coach believes that the necessary material with which to build a team is in school, but to date it has failed to make an appearance. "Laziness," he tersely labels the condition. Only fifteen men are at present reporting, and unless this number can be greatly increased, the outlook is very gloomy.

The matter of improving the track must wait until the spring budget is more thoroughly settled. This will probably be arranged within the next few weeks, and track supporters are hoping that funds will be found with which to do some very necessary work on the clay surface.

Four lettermen are turning out, Captain Hathaway in the two mile, Van Dyke and Tweedle, middle distance men, and French, who has given most of his attention to spring football. Gurnee Flesher, another letterman, is still suffering from injuries sustained in basketball, and his appearance in a track suit is not expected.

New men showing form in the preliminary work include: Faber, sprints and hurdles; Schiffman, pole vault; and Lloyd in the broad jump. The weight events are Willamette's most outstanding weakness at present.

With the inter-class meet slated for the latter part of April, and outside competition tentatively lined up for May 4, the coach must hurry his men through the preliminary work. For this reason it is very important that track aspirants, not already turning out, report at once.

BOBBED HAIR IS TABOO FOR OPERA "IOLANTHE"

COLLEGE OF IDAHO—(NIP).—It's long hair for the woman at the College of Idaho. It isn't Dame Fashion that so decrees, but the greater authority, Prof. F. F. Beale, director of the annual opera. The opera, "Iolanthe," has a fairly chorus, and, according to Prof. Beale, bobbed hair is not permissible in fairy land, so to get the right effect, he says no more haircuts until April 26, when the opera will be all over. It may be hard on the barbers.

CLASSIFIED CLUB GIVE CHAPEL SERVICE SOON

Plans for a picnic, a party, and a Chapel program were discussed at a regular meeting of the Classical Club following their luncheon in Room 33 of Eaton Hall last Thursday. The meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Marjorie Nelson.

A short program, consisting of a talk on Roman Children by Miss Leta Hale and one on Education in Rome by Miss Rosetta Smith, was presented after the business had been taken care of.

SOPHOMORE WOMEN WIN ANNUAL GIOCOSSO SHOW

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, April 4.—(PIP)—Sophomore class women earned athletic right of superiority over the other three classes in the annual stunt show of the women's physical education department, "Giocoso". Giocoso, one of several athletic shows put on by women in physical education department during the year, features tumbling, clogging, class stunt skits, natural dancing, relays, hockey, volleyball, soccer, basketball, tennis and baseball, jousting, and several other events.

COEDS PREFER SPORTS TO DANCES AND SHOWS

COLLEGE OF PUGET SOUND, Tacoma, April 4.—(NIP)—Women of the College of Puget Sound are banning dances, theaters, and various other forms of amusement which call for late hours, in their desire to excel in athletics. Every day some hundred or more fair co-eds are to be found at the gym, on the athletic field or the track, busy "getting in shape" for the various sports on the calendar.

Archery occupies a large part of the feminine attention at present. Tennis has been very popular, but inclement weather has made play impossible, except upon the indoor court in the gymnasium. Track has received an added impetus with the setting of the date for the inter-class cinder meet, which will come in April.

WILLAMETTE STUDENTS TAKE PART IN COMEDY

Jason Lee Epworth League is presenting a college comedy "At the End of the Rainbow" by Lindsey Barbee, at Jason Lee auditorium, Saturday evening, April 6, at 8 o'clock. The profits from the play will be used to defray expenses of the coming Epworth League convention.

The cast is largely made up of Willamette students and is being coached by Miss Marcia Fuestman.

Intermission features will be presented by William Tweedy, Mrs. Sheldon Sackett, Earl Henry, and Catherine Parker.

Admission will be 35 cents.

REGISTRAR ANNOUNCES HIGH GRADE AVERAGE

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, April 4.—(PIP)—Four State College students, three women and one man, made 16 or more hours of straight "A" grades during the semester just past, it has been announced by Frank T. Barnard, registrar.

Betty Bement, Spokane, freshman in foreign languages, led the quartet and the entire 3000 enrollment with 17 1/2 hours of "A" grades. Close behind her were Barbara Hofmeister, Bossburg, senior in English, and Ruth Buchanan, Pullman, junior in education, with 17 hours of "A" apiece. Fred Kramlick, Colfax, senior in education, made the best grades of any man on the campus and was the fourth of the quartet with 16 hours of "A".

An "A" grade is equivalent to 97 per cent and is the highest mark possible for a State College student to attain.

STANFORD FACES AUTO SITUATION ON CAMPUS

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 4.—(PIP)—A survey of the automobile situation on the Stanford campus has established the fact that virtually one student in every three living on the campus has an automobile. The survey was conducted by means of a questionnaire. The fraternity group of men averaged one car to every two men. The men's dormitory group is next with one car to four men. The women show a lower average in comparison to the men. The sorority group has one car to three women and the women's dormitory one car to every ten women.

MINTO ISSUES CALL FOR TRYOUT MONDAY

John Minto, captain of the varsity tennis team is asking all those interested in trying out for tennis to sign up at the Y for the Salem Spring City championship, which is to be played at the Association courts at the asylum this Friday and Saturday. All names must be in at the Y by tonight before 7:30 at which time the drawings will be held.

These matches will not influence the picking of the team but Minto believes that it will give all the participants experience and at the same time will give him an idea of the relative abilities of the men.

Varsity tryouts will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. At this time the men will play for places on the team for the first match which will probably be held a week from this Saturday or the 13th of April. Other men will be given a chance to get on the squad however if they improve during the season and are able to defeat those who are on the squad.

The tennis courts will probably be finished this week end as every thing is done at the present time but the putting of wire on the south fence and the putting up of the posts that hold up the net.

20 MISSIONARIES GET ASW FOOTBALL AWARDS

WHITMAN COLLEGE, Walla Walla, April 4.—(PIP)—Twenty men were presented with football awards at a meeting of the student body last week. One was awarded his fourth year letter, three their third letter, four the second year emblem and twelve their first awards.

WHITMAN SOPHS HOLD ANNUAL DINNER DANCE

WHITMAN COLLEGE, Walla Walla Wash., April 4.—(PIP)—Friday evening, March 1, the Sophomore class held its annual dinner dance at the Grand Hotel. Many novel and new stunts were received with great applause. The dinner was to get the members of the class to know one another.

FROSH REVEAL WISDOM ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, April 4.—(PIP)—A Zulu has either two, four, or no legs! The Civil war began anywhere between 1812 and 1888!

Just how uninformed freshman students can be was disclosed by the "freshies" themselves in a general information test conducted in English classes here recently. While some of the first-year students displayed a good understanding of the "Book of Knowledge," a great many turned in wild and humorous guesses to the thirty-odd questions asked on the test.

"Open Sesame" came from "Poe." "The writing on the wall," and several other sources, the uninformed wrote. "Who is William von Hoogstraten?" was another query. "A German general, and "A Hungarian count who married an American heiress," were two of the replies. A. D. means ante dominum, after dark and ad domingo, according to some freshmen. Harry Emerson Fosdick was called an English novelist, an American essayist and a psychologist. One student went so far as to call a vivisectionist "That there guy in California."

GERMANY PRODUCES WOMEN EDUCATORS

Parents Strive to Understand Young People—Educational System Re-organized

"The World War wrought many changes in Germany, particularly among the women," said Louise Huls, who entered the University of Oregon last fall from Berlin University where she received her Ph. D., in addressing the Thursday afternoon meeting of the campus Y. W. C. A.

"The war led to a more democratic feeling among the German people; they now feel that they belong to one state. The educational reforms which have taken place there and the new position of the German woman has had a great deal to do with the development of the new Germany—a Germany in which education is for the masses and there are opportunities for women outside of household drudgery."

The private school in Germany has disappeared; in its place is the new public elementary school in almost every community. All children attend the elementary school, which offers eight years of studies very similar to those in the American school.

However, the student of the secondary school is chosen, not because of any class distinction, but by means of an examination in which a certain standard must be reached. Secondary schools in Germany are very numerous and offer courses which may be compared to those offered in high schools and junior colleges in this country and which are presented usually by the lecture method.

During the war it was necessary for much of the work to be done by women. They proved their ingenuity and especially did German women display proficiency in the field of politics. Approximately ten per cent of the German women have been engaged in politics since 1919. Women have made their influence felt by the institution of many social and industrial reforms.

"But most noticeable of all," said Miss Huls, "is the change which has been made in the German family life. It is true that parents all over the world are less strict with their children than they used to be but this leniency means something definite to us. It means that parents are seeking to understand their children as children have never been understood before; comradeship has been established between children and parent and between husband and wife. The new woman has been raised in the estimation of man and this has done much to promote democracy."

GOOD COLLEGE IS CONTEST SUBJECT

The "Alumnus" magazine, published by Willamette university is sponsoring an essay contest on the subject, "What Constitutes a Good College?" Circulars of information regarding the contest were mailed this week to high schools in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. Four cash prizes have been offered to winners in the essay contest. The first prize is $50, and the others are $25, $15 and $10. The essays are not to exceed 1500 words length and are to be in the hands of judges at the university by May 10. Professor James T. Matthews is directing the contest.

EUGENE, Ore., April 3.—(AP)—The University of Oregon affirmative debating team defeated the University of Montana negative debaters 3 to 0 here tonight. The question proposed the abolishment of the jury system.

Musical Coeds Like Castle Rock Falling Buildings and Ossifers Lend Spice and Variety to Trip

Cherrio, cherrio, the multitudes assembled! We loaded into our bus with golashes, potato chips, suit cases, oranges, and cards. Our poor bus driver rode his bus with a harrowed expression on his marble (I mean noble) dome. His thoughts were something like this—censored by the faculty. And not wonder! Everytime he said a word, only twenty-two of us answered!

Portland was dead compared to Castle Rock. Why the minute we hit town one of our famous preacher's daughters rang the church bell and the fire department was summoned! The only sad thing about this part of the trip was the odd sensations caused and experienced when the bus swung around the curves. Now will you ask why I looked queer when the girl next to me asked, "Has the moon come up yet?" Imagine my embarrassment!

Well, special deliveries and air mails kept coming thick and fast. The "mothers" were certainly devoted to their "daughters."

On the ferry over to Bremerton from Tacoma our vamp and a few willing helpers vamped the captain and were shown the skipper's cabin. Bremerton was not so hot! Only one sailor in the whole audience and he was suspected of being a Salvation Army officer! But we were shown through the boats and even offered a part of the anchor chain for a souvenir. But alack! They did not see Cousin Charles!

At Port Orchard the applause (not apple sauce) was so hearty the building fell six inches. The piling gave way. So we knew McGill wasn't a Scotchman after all!

At Seattle we all had our ups and downs. But the minister's daughter had to behave, and the minister gave us a very warm welcome, especially in his evening sermon.

At Mossy Rock the wayward bus driver was dragged to concert and forced to stand on the "Old Historic Temple." No kidding, he was a food sport. The only trouble was that when the announcement was made that "this means the bus driver should stand" all the drivers of the high school buses also arose. Willamette must have been honored indeed!

Washougal seemed to have the bad effect on us. Every available sign in town not locked or clinched disappeared with the bus that night.

And then the serenades! Every house seemed to think it their duty to send chaperones—especially the "frats!"

That's not all that happened either. But time and space are gone and so will close with the famous question and answer.

"How many bad eggs for breakfast?"

Echo answers, "Ossifer!" Ask any Glee Club girl!

WILLIAM HAINES IS STAR IN NEW FILM

William Haines' latest picture, "Alias Jimmy Valentine," made with talking sequences, will open a two-day engagement at the Elsinore starting Saturday.

The picture is of interest because it gives the star his first real chance at a straight dramatic role. Hitherto, his name has been associated with roles of the smart-aleck type, and the comedy angle has predominated.

In "Alias Jimmy Valentine," while there are a number of funny moments, the dramatic interest has been emphasized first of all.

Noted players in the supporting cast include Lella Hyams, Karl Dane, Lionel Barrymore and Tully Marshall.

Haines plays a young safe cracker who outwits the police at every turn. Then he meets a girl, determines to go straight and is tracked by his old enemy, Detective Doyle, in a succession of scenes full of excitement and surprise.

Singing, talking and novelty acts and the Pathe sound news will complete the screen entertainment, while on the stage the Marchon and Marco Opportunity Contest will hold forth. Many contestants will appear at the evening performance endeavoring to land a Marco contract.

Eastern Oregon Normal School Plans Opening

LA GRANDE, Ore., Apr. 3.—Eastern Oregon Normal school will open here on June 17. H. E. Inlow, president of the institution, made the announcement today. The session will consist of a full quarter instead of six weeks, and will be divided into two sections. The school buildings will be completed by the opening date, Mr. Inlow said.

Cameron Back Soon—Barney Cameron, student body president at the senior high school, will be back to school next Monday, he informed Principal J. C. Nelson in a telephone conversation Wednesday. Cameron recently underwent an operation for appendicitis and just returned to his home Tuesday.

Chemical Society Meet on Campus Here Saturday

The Oregon section of the American Chemical society will meet at the science building on the Willamette campus Saturday. J. J. Gilbrath of Salem will speak on "Technical Problems of the Flax Industry," and Dr. Deming of Corvallis on "Chemical Equilibria." The meeting is open to all interested.

SUPPORT ASKED FOR MUSICAL CONCERTS

Support for the concert which the Salem Boys' Chorus and the Salem high school band will present at the Grand theatre next Tuesday and Thursday night, April 9 and 11, was urged upon members of the Rotary club at its Wednesday noon luncheon by Dr. H. C. Epley, director of the chorus.

The concert is for the benefit of the Salvation Army and also to assist the high school band in paying for its instruments. Dr. Epley explained. The chorus will not profit financially. The Calvary Baptist church has donated the use of the theatre, which it has under lease.

Uniform System Of Finances to Be Worked Out

Establishment of a uniform system of accounting in all schools of the state to conform with that adopted recently by the National Education association, has been undertaken by the state board of education. C. L. Huffaker of the university of Oregon is in charge of the work.

Adoption of the uniform accounting system in the Oregon schools was made mandatory under a law enacted at the recent legislative session.

To Attend Meet—The Rev. Fred C. Taylor, A. A. Schramm and the Rev. Harry E. Gardner will attend the convocation at the University of Oregon to hear Bishop Titus Lowe talk. The Salermites will also attend a business meeting of the Wesley Foundation of the Oregon conference.

MINISTERS RECEIVE NEW APPOINTMENTS

A number of changes in the appointment of ministers in the Northwest will take place April 1. The Rev. M. A. Marcy, pastor at Forest Grove will take over the superintendency of the Southern District of the Oregon Conference and the Rev. J. R. Jeffries of Seaside will take his place at Forest Grove. Mr. Marcy is a graduate of both Willamette and Kimball.

The Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop, pastor of Clinton Kelly M. E. church, Portland, was appointed to fill a vacancy at Bend, Oregon due to the resignation of Ira K. Aldrich. Harry Crouse of Bennett Chapel, Portland will be in charge of Clinton Kelly.

The Rev. Blenkinsop is a Willamette and Kimball graduate. While Mr. Crouse was a member of the class of '28 of W. U., he will receive his B. D. at Kimball this year.

The Kimball graduates are receiving increasing recognition in the northwest. With such men holding important pastorates of the district a greater amount of help is expected for the upkeep of the school.

BROOKS GIRLS COME TO CAMP FIRE MEET

BROOKS, Apr. 3.—(Special)—Brooks Camp Fire girls who attended the Council Fire camp at the Salem high school were Miss Doris Wood, leader of the Brooks girls, Miss Erna Mae Sturgis, Miss Lena Riggi, Miss Emmaline Sears, Miss Bessie Aspinwall, Miss Gladys Otto and Miss Hattie Ramp.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Griffith of Portland were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffin-daffer. From here they went to Klamath Falls.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cris Otto were Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred LaFountain and son Wilfred Jr., of North Howell, and Mrs. William Schaffer, and Mrs. A. E. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curry and children, Miss Mildred Curry, Frances Curry, Myrtle Curry and Merle Curry of North Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Gay of Vancouver, Wash., were recent guests of Mr. Gay's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp and family.

Young Orators To File Names By This Friday

Friday, April 5, is the last day on which names of aspirants for the county grade and high school declamation and oratorical contests to be held at the Eugene Field auditorium in Silverton, April 22, will be received. William W. Fox, rural school supervisor warned Wednesday. Copies of the orations should be sent direct to Mr. Fox. The contests were originally scheduled for Friday, April 19, but have been postponed to the following Monday. They will be held in the evening.

Mrs. Gowdy Visitor—Miss Eva Roberts had as her guest Tuesday night Mrs. Elmer Gowdy of Palo Alto, Calif. The two young ladies were classmates in Willamette university. Mrs. Gowdy's husband is a senior at Stanford university in the law department and will return to Portland in June to start a practice there. Mrs. Gowdy was Grace Collins before her marriage.

Student Players Appeal—The Theta Alpha Phi players of Willamette university presented A. A. Milne's one-act play, "The Boy Comes Home," at the university chapel hour Wednesday. Students participating were John Minto, Ruth Bauer, Charles Kaufman, Dortha Peters and Esther Lisle. All the students, excepting Miss Bauer, are seniors. The production was directed by Dr. R. M. Galke.
