SOPHS TAKE PLUNGE FROSH TRIUMPHANT

Freshman brawn and muscle triumphed over the class of '31 in the annual pulling contest on the banks of the mill stream last Tuesday. Before the four minutes allotted for the tug-of-war were up, Marsters, front man of the sophomore pullers was struggling in the drink, and after the gun ended the contest the other nine men took the plunge. The sophomore alibi is that the south bank of the stream turned out to be nothing but slippery grass and gravel when they tried to dig in, but it is questionable whether these conditions justified Satchwell, anchor man of the '31 defense, in planting himself so firmly behind a convenient tree that it took Betts and two other upper-class

TWENTY-FIVE WOMEN INITIATED INTO W.A.A.

Requirements for Membership are More Rigid; Miss Curry Receives Invitation

Twenty-five new members were recently initiated into the Women's Athletic Association. The membership requirements have been made more rigid this year. Only those women who have earned a numeral in interclass basketball or baseball, or who have participated in varsity tennis are eligible for membership. In other years one was able to become a member after having filled certain hiking requirements.

Students who were elected into membership were: Muriel White, Mildred Pugh, Barbara Moberg, Buena Brown, Marjory Mosher, Evelyn Hartung, Loretta Fisher, Alvina Breithaupt, Esther Girod, Ruth Waterman, Dorothy Hutchinson, Mayre Fletcher, Frances McGilvra, Leah McCaughey, Elizabeth Wechter, Donna Hildeheim, Mildred Cook, Dorothy Eastridge, Lillian Scott, Margaret Warnke, Lydia Childs, and Alvina Huesman, Margaret Morehouse, and Pauline Findley.

Miss Alida Gale Curry, director of Physical Education for Women, has accepted an invitation to honorary membership in W. A. A.

85 ENJOYED FIELD TRIP TO NEWPORT

Time Spent in Investigation and Study of Vegetation and Plant Life

Newport and vicinity was the scene of an interesting field trip for about eighty-five members of the Biology, Morphology, and Zoology classes last week-end. The group left Thursday afternoon, making the Abbey Hotel their headquarters, and returning Saturday.

Work began at 7:00 Friday morning with a trip to the marine gardens near Agate Beach. The students were grouped in two divisions with Dr. Prescott and Prof. Monk as leaders. After about three hours had been spent studying the plant and animal life on the rocks and in the tide pools, "school" was dismissed for a short time and several of the students went up into the lighthouse. Then Prof. Monk gave a short lecture on the specimens he had collected.

Right after lunch the class drove to DePoe Bay, about fifteen miles north of Newport on the Roosevelt highway. On the way they stopped to examine the fossil bed on the beach at Troutdale. The group was divided as in the morning, and under the leadership of Professors Prescott and Monk they took a long hike through the woods in order to study the plant life a short distance back from the coast. A number of the students hiked on to the Underground Lake near DePoe Bay.

A bonfire and marshmallow roast on the beach was the attraction Friday night. The next morning was spent at the Devil's Punch Bowl. Miss Clita Walden, a U. of O. graduate and teacher of Biology in the Newport High school, assisted in the study which was conducted here.

Another interesting feature of the trip was the hike to the sand dunes Saturday afternoon to study the effect of the sea on the vegetation.

Both Dr. Prescott and Prof. Monk feel that the trip was highly successful and that the stu-

LINFIELD BLANKED IN TENNIS, TRACK

MEN, WOMEN WIN TILTS

Willamette Tracksters Pile Up Big Score in Tuesday Meet; Team Shows Balance

Willamette blanked Linfield in two sports in as many days those sports being men's and women's tennis and track. The men defeated the Linfield racketeers here 3 to 0 with White and Minto playing and the women took the ladies at McMinnville 4 to 0.

White after defeating his man on the local courts in two sets then drove to McMinnville where he took the Baptists' number one man for two more.

In the women's encounter Miss Doris Steele playing as number two in the absence of Miss Pauline Findley made her letter by winning her match. All of the women on the Willamette squad have now earned their sweaters.

The Willamette tracksters performed up to all expectations Tuesday afternoon, by piling up a 164-27 point win against Linfield college. Linfield took only two first places, in the shot put and the 120 yard high hurdles, but tied for first place in the high jump. After Faber put Willamette in the lead in the first event, the pole vault, by tying with Druze, of Linfield, the issue was never in doubt, but simply remained a question of total number of points the Bears would roll up. The Willamette men made clean sweeps of the 440 and 880 yard dashes, and the Javelin, and placed in every event.

Donald Faber, who took two firsts and two thirds places, won high point honors of the day with a total of twelve points, while Pierson, who took first place in the shot put and second in the discus, for a total of 8 points, was high man for Linfield. Faber.

NEW CUB OFFICERS TO ASSUME DUTIES

Cubs will hold installation services today for their new officers, after which they will assume their duties at once.

At a luncheon meeting at the White House Thursday noon, May 9, Charles Campbell was elected as president to lead the organization through the year. Floyd Albin was selected as vice-president; Michael Fitzpatrick, secretary; and Clarence Poor, treasurer.

Next year is being anticipated as an unusually successful one. The newly elected personnel are all prominent members of the Freshman class.

Examinations Begin June 5, End June 11

Final examinations will begin on Wednesday, June 5, and will end on Tuesday, June 11, according to Registrar McCully. There will be no examinations on Monday the 10th, since it is Commencement Day. Practically the same plan of schedule will be used as that of the first semester examinations. No special dates will be arranged for the seventh period classes, but the instructors will make their own schedule.

SEMINAR CLASSES TO BE HELD THIS SUMMER

Only Junior and Senior Men are Eligible; Three Hours College Credit Given

An Industrial Research Seminar which is conducted by the Northwest Council and sponsored by the Y. M. C. A., will be held in connection with C. P. S. at Tacoma this year, from June 17, to August 12.

The requirements for attendance are, that the person shall be either a junior or a senior in college, shall have had some work in Economics and Sociology, and must attend Seabeck this year. The group is limited to twenty-five. Those registering, enroll for regular summer school work and receive three hours college credit in social science. Professor C. W. Topping and his staff of assistants conduct two evening forum classes a week and different phases of industrial life are discussed.

Those attending the Seminar are urged to obtain work in Tacoma and live under the same conditions as those with whom they work. The entire idea of this Seminar is to give students an insight into industrial life.

The registration fee, which is $5.00 is payable not later than May 25. An additional tuition fee of $7.00 must be paid to obtain college credit.

RESEARCH REVEALS INTERESTING DATA

Salem Has 34 Dentists; 135 Divorces Recorded in Marion County Last Year

Dr. Laughlin's classes in Sociology have, during the present semester, been compiling a great deal of interesting data about Salem and Marion county, on subjects varying from grocery stores and gasoline filling stations to the divorces granted during 1928 in Marion county.

Two embryo sociologists have discovered that there are ninety-two grocery stores in Salem, of which ten are operated by chain store organizations and thirty-two belong to buying organizations. Fifty-eight of these ninety-two are clerked by the owners or have only one assistant. Only three have a staff of more than ten. It is interesting to know that the average length of time in business is three years and eleven months.

Gas Stations Plentiful

As to gas stations, there are 164 pumps in Salem and vicinity, selling an estimated total of 12,035 gallons of gasoline per day. Twenty-nine of these stations are privately owned, while twenty are unleased. Pumps are operated by quite a variety of businesses, including grocery stores, confectionery stores, canneries, and gravel vendors, in addition to the conventional garage or service station.

Concern for the dental welfare of Salemites, apparently, inspired an investigation of the number of dentists in the city, and some pertinent facts about them were discovered. It was found that there are thirty-four full time dentists, working in twenty-seven different offices. One of these is so fortunate as to be able to spend an average of only two and a half hours per day at his chair. Eleven spend an average of four hours, and two put in seven and eight hour days. The average for the thirty-four is 4.69 hours. One dentist has practiced here for forty-two years, while two have been here only one year. Five make some effort to

POOR IS PRESIDENT

Ten New Members Are Initiated; Dean Erickson Chosen Honorary Member

Officers for the coming year were elected and new members were chosen at a meeting of the Blue Key fraternity held last Monday. George Poor is the new president of this honorary service organization. The other officers will be: Paul Geddes, vice president; Frank VanDyke, secretary; Harold Shellhart, treasurer; and William Mumford, sergeant at arms.

New members were selected from among the sophomore and junior men who have been active in campus service. Those initiated this year are: Paul Ackerman, Dwight Adams, Francis DeHarport, Roy Harland, Wenell Keek, Leslie Manker, Robert McGilvra, Warren McMinnimee, Stephen Mergler, and Edward Wells. Dean F. M. Erickson was chosen honorary member. With the addition of these men, the membership for next year totals 21, four less than the limited number. Other men however, may be elected next fall.

Another item of business transacted at the meeting Monday was the appointment of a committee to endeavor to have Award Day changed to, possibly, the Wednesday before Memorial day.

A committee was also appointed to look up types of cardinal and gold caps and to advise the bookstore concerning the kind to purchase for the incoming freshmen. This same committee has been requested to interview the cubs and ask them to again take over the work of enforcing the freshman cap tradition. This action was taken because the Blue Key believes that otherwise the work of the sophomore vigilance committee would be duplicated.

GATKE'S GARDEN TO BE SCENE OF PLAY

The play "Figure Heads" by Louise Saunders will be given at the Theta Alpha Phi Garden Party to be held one week from Thursday at the home of Dr. Gatke. The play will be directed by Georgia Fairbanks under the supervision of Dr. Gatke. Dortha Peters will be in charge of the costumes.

The cast is as follows:
The Princess — Ruth Bauer
The Prince — Reeve Belts
Gertrude — Esther Lido
One of the Guards —

Raymond Derrick
Court Musicians (not yet selected)
There will be invited guests and tea will be served.

GEOLOGY CLASS SPEND FRIDAY IN MOUNTAINS

About twenty members of Professor Clark's Geology class spent a very profitable and enjoyable time on their trip to Detroit on the north Santiam river last Friday. The group started at 6:00 a. m. taking five cars and returned in the evening. They stopped frequently along the way to make examinations, taking pictures of rock formation and studying their relation to the surrounding country. During their hike in the afternoon on the mountain they saw some very fine scenery and enjoyed themselves very much in spite of the fact that the

The 1929 Wallulah

Two weeks have passed since the distribution of the Wallulah during which time most of the students have viewed the results of the work of its editor and manager. The book itself is well edited with few oversights being made. And it is here that the beauty of the book lies. No criticism except of a complimentary nature could be made of the cover. The actions photos of the sports are the best that have been published for several years, while the arrangement of the book shows result of much effort.

The editor apparently saw fit to leave out the picture of the executive committee which has in years past been connected with that of the Student Body president. The executive committee because of the force which it exerts in campus affairs should be included in every issue. There is no more important student political body existent here than this group.

The mechanical work of the Wallulah is below the standard set by former years. The cuts do not stand out. Due to the fact that these were not toned up the pictures are dull. Some of the pages are smudged, and many of the books are poorly bound. It is regrettable that the mechanical work of the book could not have bolstered up that of the editorial, thus making it one of the best Wallulahs ever published.

The Best Fraternity

The Dean of Men and ten students were initiated into the Blue Key national honorary fraternity yesterday. These men together with those now in the order will carry on the work next year.

The organization has had a rapid growth, and its presidency now rivals in influence those offices of student body president, and Collegian editor. This has largely been brought about as result of this year's regime which has raised the fraternity to status of the most active, and powerful as well as the best honorary on the campus.

The claims of the newly elected president were not those of the braggart. They are well founded, and constitute only a part of what might have been said. A glance back into the files of the Collegian for the year will show that many of the activities of the fraternity were not mentioned.

Doesn't It Beat the Dutch

Doesn't it "beat the Dutch" what students will do. Back in Des Moines, Iowa the students of the university there staged a riot. Now a riot launched by ordinary students is not hard to feature, but one sponsored by such collegians as those of Des Moines university— It is beyond us.

The university is the sanctuary of those who cannot face the new conceptions of God and the universe made necessary by science. It is under the control of the Baptist Bible union, a fundamental organization. Everything is done to guard against the taint of modernism. The faculty are required each year to resubscribe to the creed of the Bible, after having previously been subjected to an examination on their beliefs, and the students are selected from the most orthodox homes.

For several days the routine order of the students, study, prayer, and hymn singing has been suspended. A riot has been staged by them. The battle exists between the faculty and students arrayed on the one side against the trustees in their support of the president, Dr. Shields and his secretary, on the other. One trustee who is reported to have objected to the singing of patriotic songs by the students stating that he would force the singing of the Old Hundred is arrayed with the latter.

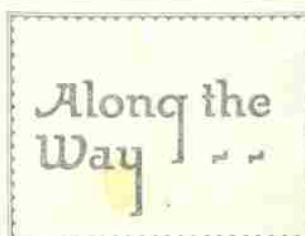

The students have been lectured for too much loafing about the campus, ball playing, gossiping, laughing, and general conduct unseemly to those who "must walk humbly with our Lord." We imagine that the pot has about boiled itself out and that things will again settle down to the humdrum with commencement being carried off in the usual manner on the little Des Moines university campus.

But what we cannot figure out or comprehend is "that the students staged a riot."

The seniors in contemplating the starting of a trust fund as a senior gift for the eventual purchase of a motion picture machine failed to stipulate who from the faculty would serve on the board of censors for the type of film to be shown and whether or not they would endorse those productions starring Clara Bow.

Have the sophomores taken the mill-stream as result of Monday noon? If so we have not heard of it. Perhaps they think that three baths in two years (Freshman Glee, and tug-of-war twice) is too much.

We wonder what the women will wear under their caps and gowns if the weather is hot Friday?

(By The Wayfarers)

Flowers aren't the only things which grow in the spring. Just look at the length of the registrar's honor roll which came out the day before yesterday.

Skip, swish, flunk. 'Tis the sound of many canoe paddles.

The plumber who fixed our fountain surely has discovered a remedy for that old algae taste—only ten daubs too many of white lead, applied on the wrong side of the pipe, and, behold, no microscopic plants to give you that brown and green taste.

But, perhaps, he has only robbed Peter to pay Paul, for the paint tastes worse than the original stuff. With the paint furnished in the water, however, the women won't have to pull out their compacts after every drink.

There's some good in everything.

Neighbors of the Kappas, no doubt, wish that the men would paint all their ears green so that that front lawn wouldn't look so cluttered up.

Better yet, sell them to the junk-man.

The slick look of the Sigs' lawn makes us think they must be quite immune to spring fever.

And we noticed an Alpha Psi pounding nails in the front steps of his house. They don't only play, as it were, while the sun shines.

he isn't bashful. A clever snappy girl ought to be able to rate easily. But she must be tactful, for he is not dumb. A blond football man is still seeking. He seems bashful, but is very-very interesting. He holds a gavel now, and is immediately interested if you talk "Collegian". A blonde Swede slightly interested in law students could be obtained if desired. A close follower of the Greater Werch, although there is not much, is worth trying for. The hunters are already on his track. Just wait till he tells you when and what to yell next year. There comes to mind a wandering surveyor who is free but oh so willing. Not a bit difficult—just let him do all the talking.

The freshmen were not considered. They have three years to work in.

Useful Guide Suggested to All Co-eds; Three Senior Men Left Who Are Decidedly Not Engaged

"I am a firm believer in programs," says Dr. Doney. "Decide on your object, plan your campaign, and carry it out. There is no good reason at all you will not succeed."

By these words, and his little illustration of a successful effort, Dr. Doney really suggested this useful guide to all enterprising co-eds. Select your object and get busy. Leap year waxed and waned, but— "Anyway, we can do it!"

Out of the twenty-six prominent men in the senior class there are about three that are still "heart whole and fancy free" (as far as collegiate information goes).

The first senior is tall, dark, and handsome. He plays basketball pell-mell. He may be difficult to land, as he is already beset with hunters. Rain this May-Day cramped his style a little, but he is well enough known already without being heralded.

One of the Bills still knows freedom. Being another of these "brainy" beings he easily sees through subterfuge. Difficult to catch—worth getting. Get busy—he has a den of his own on the campus and affects a new type of head band.

The last of the lot—a lark track hero. His mother being Scotch, decided in his youth it would be cheaper in the long run to buy him a violin than to keep having his hair cut. He's not entirely fancy free, but honest effort always wins.

Five of the twenty-seven leading Juniors are waiting the results of the article.

The best things come in small bundles. A little Sig who sits by empty seats at theaters and draws to amuse himself has not recognized his soul mate yet.

A popular Kappa seems minus a side-kick—at least while on the campus. He is dramatic. He longs to ride on the children's ferris wheel at carnivals. He is literary, and oh, that smile!

A chubby piano player comes next. "Eyes of blue—pretty curls; He's petted and spoiled by all of the girls." He likes to talk—that helps.

A co-partner of the small junior mentioned first would like a little publicity. He's a track man—fairly eats up distance. A co-ed who is willing to try to out-distance him is needed. Even a Worm turns.

The last available junior has had a few nibbles but no real bites as yet. He knows his law. He seems promising for he has kept W. U. going for six years or more. He sings and loves to serenade. Name furnished on request.

The sophomores show a better percentage. Space does not permit consideration of all separately. One is famous for his basketball and baseball—on both first teams. He doesn't step much but

Well Known Alumnus Married in East

An announcement of interest to Willamette students and alumni is that of the marriage of Richard Briggs and Lilly Elaine Vagtborg. The wedding took place in Chicago on the thirteenth of last September.

Mr. Briggs was graduated in law with the class of '24. He was president of Alpha Psi Delta at one time and he was prominent in campus dramatics and a member of Theta Alpha Phi. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs will make their home in Chicago where Mr. Briggs is in the real estate business.

Mother's Day Recognized By Local Sororities

Mother's Day was recognized by two of the local sororities in an appropriate manner this year.

The Beta Chis sent lovely corsages to members of the Salem Beta Chi Mothers Club.

The Delta Phis recently gave a tea in honor of their mothers, at the sorority house on Court street. The rooms were attractively decorated with spring flowers in shades of gold and rose. Gold tapers were used on the tea table. During the first hour Mrs. Charles Sherman and Miss Frances Virginia Melton presided at the urns, and during the second hour, Miss Dorothy Ferrier and Miss Buneva Culbertson.

A program of music was given by the Misses Mary Allen, Marjory Miller, and Iva Claire Love. About twenty guests called during the afternoon.

Sigma Tau Honors Mothers at Dinner

On Sunday the Sigma Tau fraternity entertained with a lovely dinner in honor of Mother's Day.

Guests included the Mesdames J. C. DeHarport, D. J. Bows, G. S. McFee, W. P. Miller, W. E. Waddell, S. Cushing, E. E. Bergman, Alice H. Dodd, J. M. Campbell, H. R. Satchwell, R. G. Balderee, F. J. Grover, P. N. Chalmers.

Wedding Date Told At Lovely Party

On Friday evening Mrs. John W. Orr entertained with a lovely party in honor of her daughter, Charlotte, whose marriage to D. Gordon Simpson, of Albany, will take place on June 16th.

During the evening games were played, after which delightful refreshments were served. Each guest received a dainty corsage, which concealed a tiny paper telling of the approaching wedding.

Miss Orr, ex '29, is a member of the Beta Chi sorority. Mr. Simpson attended Albany College, and is a member of the Kappa Kappa Phi fraternity.

Willamette students who were present included the Misses Dorothy Brant, Elma White, Jean White, Mary Louise Aiken, Beatrice Lockhart, and Grace White.

BADGERS DEFEATED ON HOME DIAMOND

The big bats of the Bearcat band were too much for Pacific, and the Badgers were beaten 11 to 10 in their own back yard. The hair-breadth victory gave Willamette a strangle hold on championship honors in the Western Division of the N. W. Conference.

A deluge of hits, walks, and errors in the first and second innings gave Willamette a nine run lead from which the Badgers never recovered. Norton, the Badger twirler, was very wild, and when, occasionally, his slants came within reach, Bearcat batsmen slammed them at will. Dressen, successor to Norton, was very effective, and held the Bearcats runless during his sojourn on the mound. He further added to the Badger joy by driving out a terrific home-run into deep center.

Faced with a nine run deficit the Badgers began manfully to peck away at the Willamette lead and only the surprisingly effective relief pitching of Laurence Gibson prevented them from reaching their objective.

Ledbetter, still suffering from a sore arm, started but was hit freely. McMullen his successor was little better. It remained for Gibson to halt the Badger rallies and bring victory to Willamette.

Houck, Dietz, and Gibson, led the Bearcat batting attack.

The box-score follows:

specialize in some branch of dental surgery; eighteen have their own X-ray or in cooperation with other dentists; and nineteen have one or more assistants. We are also told that, if the 26,000 people in Salem were dental patrons, these thirty-four dentists would be able to spend only a little more than an hour per year on each.

A total of 135 divorcees were granted in Marion county in 1928, according to a study, made by two students, of the county records. Of these, eighty-eight, or about two-thirds gave as the chief complaint "cruel and inhuman treatment". One divorce was granted on the grounds of insanity. Twenty-five wives were granted divorcees on grounds of desertion, while sixteen husbands, as plaintiffs, obtained divorce on this complaint. Of these 135 couples divorced, eighty-one were without minor children. One couple had five and six had four. A total of one hundred minor children were affected, the average age being nine years. Only six husbands, as plaintiffs, were given custody of the children, while thirty-three wives, as plaintiffs were awarded the children. One of the most interesting phases of the divorce situation is the length of time which the divorcees had been married. Of the 135 divorced, over one-third had been married for three years or less.

The Sociology classes are now working on a project concerning families who have moved to Salem in order that their children might attend Willamette University, which Dr. Laughlin says promises some very interesting facts, and which will be completed in the near future.

DECISIVE GAME TO BE PLAYED TODAY

Team to Meet CPS Nine; Victory Will Bring Undisputed Honors to Willamette

Although already technically champions of the Western Division of N. W. Conference, the Bearcats are eagerly awaiting the opportunity of proving their right to the position by a convincing victory over C. P. S. this afternoon.

By the terms of a conference agreement a team must play two games with each member of its division in order to be in the conference running. Since the entire C. P. S. schedule consists of only two games they cannot be considered in the conference race. The Bearcats have beaten Pacific twice, and Linfield, once a victim of the Bearcats, has lost a game to Pacific, leaving Willamette apparently in possession of division honors.

Spec Keene, however, having already witnessed once this year, how easily conference agreements are broken, is preparing to show C. P. S. his strongest lineup in an attempt to bring undisputed division honors to Willamette. The coach announces that in the case of a convincing Logger victory Willamette may waive her technical claim and allow C. P. S. to face Whitman.

If the Bearcats triumph this afternoon, the Walla Walla series for conference honors will take place the first of next week.

The Missionaries are one of the strongest collegiate outfits on the coast and will be heavy favorites to wallop the Bearcats. Borleske has a seasoned outfit including four first-class pitchers and a murderous attack.

Willamette fans hope that Ledbetter's arm will respond to treatment and that one of Spec's other young hopefuls will begin to display the talent which several of them undeniably possess.

OREGON STATE WINS 4 MATCHES TUESDAY

Willamette five man tennis team came within an ace of defeating the Oregon State net team Tuesday on the Willamette courts when they copped three of the seven matches played.

White evened his score with the Oregon State first man when he won the first and third sets 6-3, 6-2. Grafton steadied in the second set and evened the match but White ran out the deciding set in fast shape. Minto appeared to be going good when he won the first set 6-3; but his lanky opponent played a steady game and took the next two 7-5, 6-4.

Hageman dropped his match to Sjoblom in straight sets 6-2, 6-3. Litchfield likewise lost his match to Loomis in two sets 6-3, 6-2. Roeder showed up well against James when he took his match in three sets 5-7, 10-8, 6-1. It was a long hard match and Roeder showed his excellent condition when he ran out the last set 6-1.

Willamette's first doubles team fell before the racquets of their Corvallis opponents in two sets 6-3, 6-4.

Hageman and Haworth won Willamette's third match when they took Loomis and Sjoblom for a cleaning in three sets. The Bears dropped the first set 3-6, but took the next two 6-4, 6-3.

Linfield Blanked

who has shown steady improvement with competition, turned in one of the prettiest performances of the day when he came from behind to win the low hurdles in 28 seconds flat. The most exciting race of the day, which brought the spectators to their feet, and left them breathless, came when Curtis French nosed out Sanders of Linfield by the scant margin of the thickness of the jersey which he wore; since the Linfield wore none!

One of the most encouraging aspects of the meet was the fact that the team showed a good balance; no man literally "took" the meet, but rather the entire team came through with points. This was demonstrated when four men: Lloyd, Tweedie, French, and Faber won two first places, while three others: Carpenter, Winslow, and Hathaway won a first place, and at least one more second place.

The events were as follows:
100 yd. dash. Lloyd, W. U., first; Sanders, Linfield, second; Faber, W. U., third. Time, 10.2.
220 yd. dash. C. French, W. U., first; Sanders, Linfield, second.

ond; Faber, W. U., third. Time, 25.3.

440 yd. dash. French, W. U., first; Wells, W. U., second; Schomp, W. U., third. Time, 55 seconds flat.

880 yd. Tweedie, W. U., first; Winslow, W. U., second; Wells, W. U., third. Time, 2 min. 10 sec.

Mile. Winslow, W. U., first; Hathaway, W. U., second; Gribble, Linfield, third. Time, 4 min. 55 sec.

Two-mile run. Hathaway, W. U., first; Gribble, Linfield, second; Lavender, W. U., third. Time, 10 min. 50 sec.

120 yd. high hurdles. Lantz, Linfield, first; Druse, Linfield, second; Schomp, W. U., third. Time, 17.4.

120 yd. low hurdles. Faber, W. U., first; Haworth, W. U., second; Druse, Linfield, third. Time, 28 flat.

Pole vault. Faber, W. U., first; Hathaway and Schiffman, W. U., tied with Druse, Linfield, for second and third. 19 feet 6 inches.

High jump. Carpenter and Schiffman, W. U., tied with Druse, Linfield, for first place. 5 ft. 6 in.

Broad jump. Lloyd, W. U., first; Schiffman, W. U., second; Sanders, Linfield, third. 21 ft. 10 in.

Shot Put. Pierson, Linfield, first; Carpenter, W. U., second; French, W. U., third. 35 ft. 1 1/2 in.

FIVE MEN ENTITLED TO WEAR OFFICIAL W

In the Dual Track meet held on Sweetland Field against Linfield Tuesday afternoon five men won the right to be recommended by Coach Leslie Sparks to wear the official "W."

Those men who scored enough points are Lloyd, Faber, Wells, Schiffman, and Carpenter. Faber was the high point man among those with a first in the pole vault and low hurdles, and a third in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Lloyd made first in the 100 yard dash and first in the broad jump with a remarkable jump of nearly 22 feet. Wells got second in the 440 yard dash and third in the 880 and with two points, which is given each member of a winning relay team, making the necessary six points for recommendation. Schiffman tied for second in the pole vault, tied for first in the jump, took second in the broad jump, and was a member of the winning relay team. Carpenter took second in the shot, first in the discus and tied for first in the high jump.

These men are not entitled to wear official "W" sweaters until they have been awarded official "W" certificates and the "W" club is considering taking drastic action upon those who are not discreet enough to wait until they are entitled to wear a "W" sweater.

JOINT MEETING HELD

A joint meeting of the YM and YW cabinets was held last Tuesday evening in Christo Cottage, during which plans for next summer and fall were discussed. The two cabinets are considering a change in the method of welcoming Freshmen to the university during Freshman Week.

SKILL IS DISPLAYED BY W U WRESTLERS

Salem wrestling skill was seen in action in one of the fastest and most exciting A. A. U. wrestling cards ever held in this city. The wrestling card was held at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Tuesday night under their auspices.

Ted Lang, hard-hitting Willamette fullback, wrestled Carl Gallaher, a former Willamette student, in the heavy-weight division but due to being thrown to the floor and knocked unconscious, he returned to the mat in a dazed condition after ten minutes intermission in which his followers attempted to revive him. After he came back he was unable to gain his strength and lost the match.

Dale Wadill, Willamette senior won the light-heavyweight championship from Carl Gallaher. Dale was not in trim but his powerful arms and his aggressiveness gained him a decision in the nine minute period.

Lee Tate, another Willamette student won the middle weight championship of the city in a fall in 5 minutes and 55 seconds after having taken two preliminary matches by decisions.

Frank Lockhart, W. U. rook won his preliminary match, but partly perhaps due to his wrenched back which he obtained in training a week ago he lost in the semi finals by a decision.

Bobbie McGilvra, Willamette sophomore, showed considerable fight and scrap when he won his way to the finals and then received a severe cut over the eye which bled profusely throughout the bout. The loss of blood seemed to have weakened him and after a hard scrap Roy Mink of Salem High pinned him to the blood-stained canvas.
