

Freshman Glee 1962

FIGHT!

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS sings "Bearcat Victory" in the formation of a score board to earn first honors.

Pre Glee

March 6, 1962, saw the annual Freshman Glee Challenge and kicked off the most spirited tradition on the Willamette campus. After spending a night in exile, Freshman Class President, Ken Anderson issued the challenge in a patriotic nightshirt. The seniors stole the junior's parody, and their cut-ups were great in an off colored way. Then came the week of no studies, while classes practiced diligently for their formations and songs. The long awaited climax, Glee Night, arrived all too soon with the presentation of each original Fight song and drill. For the winning class, there was the exuberant joy at the possession of the coveted Glee Banner, while the losers waded the old mill stream.

Each "masterpiece" was presented Glee Night amid cheers, hopes, and plans of victory. The tired feet stepped high and the well practiced voices sang harmoniously to make the fifty-fourth Glee a complete success.

Cleopatra meets Chubby Checker.

Time out to wind the clock.

Ah-sooo!

"The longest journey begins with but a single step."

Frosh Class Prexy arrives in style.

Did they spell your name right?

Glee Night

Enter the juniors.

Smile . . . 2-3-4.

On what foundation was this dream based?

In step.

"It's what's up front that counts."

Ken Anderson delivers welcoming address.

THE SENIOR CLASS ignites their "Spark of Victory" in their burning log formation to place second.

THE JUNIOR CLASS comes in third with a scoreboard clock and sings their "Shout the Victory".

THE FRESHMAN CLASS sings "Let's Win for Wil-lamette U." and forms a victory trophy to send them swimming.

Whoops, wrong card.

The taste of victory.

Desperate seniors threaten judges.

Gleeful sophs.

"... to the victor belong the spoils ..."

Post Glee

Spring is coming.

They all participated . . .

Math Anal. next.

Don't knock it if you haven't tried it.

Betty Coed, a la Blue Monday.

Post Glee

Swish, Swish.

Blue Monday Twist.

No, Dave, on the inside.

Freshman Glee or bust.

How high's the water, mama?

"The quality of mercy . . ."
