Consecrate the Place and Day

Lloyd Pfautsch

In Remembrance

Jeffrey L. Ames

Translation:

Light eternal shine on them, Lord.

J'entends le moulin

arr. Donald Patriquin

Translation:

I hear the millwheel tique tique taque.

My father is having a house built.

It's being built with three gables.

There are three carpenters building it.

The youngest is my darling.

What do you have in your apron?

It's a pie made of three pigeons.

Let's sit down and eat it.

While sitting down they all lept up,
Causing the sea and the fish to tremble,
and the stones on the bottom of the sea.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Several contributing factors have made Willamette an ideal place to grow as a teacher and musician for the past 25 years. Special thanks inevitably mean that someone will be left out but it is necessary to pause and reflect on the people who have made my life here so fulfilling.

Administrators: Thank you to Presidents Jerry Hudson, Bryan Johnston, and Lee Pelton and to Deans Jerry Berberet, Julie Carson, Larry Cress and Carol Long.

Faculty: Special thanks to wonderful Willamette faculty colleagues both inside and outside of the Music Department.

Admissions Office: Thanks to Teresa Hudkins and Sue Rauch, who with our amazing admissions staff have gone above and beyond to bring talented music students to our program.

Administrative and Secretarial Assistants: Thanks for always picking up the slack Barbara Donough, Linda Unrein, Susie Thompson-Drain and Diane Trevett.

Students: Thanks to nearly 850 choir students who have given their time, talents, passion and dedication to create our "Tradition of Excellence." Also, a special thanks to all those students who stepped up to be officers, section leaders, council members, student conductors and office staff. You have made this program possible.

Parents: Thanks to the hundreds of parents who have supported their children and the choral program. Thanks for your financial support, home stays on tour, meals, and attendance at concerts.

Donors: Thanks to so many who have stepped up in significant financial ways when the need was greatest: Special thanks to: John and June Rogers, Mary Beth Collins, Betty Anderson, Gary Nopp, Wes Robinson, Don Morrison, Jerry Hudson, Donal Welch, Dean Olsen and John and Jane Baker.

Stage Manager and Staff: Thanks to Mike Bergh and the scores of students who have worked on the stage to support our concerts.

Audiences: Thanks to thousands of audience members who have supported our performances with your kind presence and generous applause.

Family: Finally to my family Garnet, Harris, Barrett, Ross and Richard who have given up so very much to support my work at Willamette.

In Memoriam: This opportunity cannot pass without remembering two beautiful students with whom I had the privilege to work and who have departed this life much too soon: Jed Thomas and Jennifer Hedgecock you will be missed by all whom you touched with your talents and your joy.

I hope you all enjoy the concert this afternoon, the first of the next twenty five years.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SUPPORT THE WILLAMETTE MUSIC PROGRAM

The Willamette University Development Office is pleased to hear from individuals who might be interested in supporting the music program in the following ways:

- Scholarships: The Department is working to develop more scholarship support for our music students. Wes Robinson, a special friend to the program has established a scholarship fund in honor of Wallace Long. The fund is now open and donations are encouraged.
- Touring Fund: Touring with Department music ensembles has become increasingly expensive. Willamette is interested in establishing a touring endowment and solicits your donations.
- Dedicated Gifts: Donations may always be given with specific guidelines. For example the Willamette Singers and Voce Femminile, our women's choral ensemble, have both been selected to perform at the American Choral Directors Association Northwest Convention in Vancouver, BC in February of 2008. Funding is needed to support this special performance opportunity.
