WELCOME

Edmund Burke, speaking of "the unbought graces of life," mentions many things for which we do not, and can not, pay the least.

Of all "the unbought graces," the American college has been the most deliberately created and confidently maintained. It is seen to be extraordinarily valuable to the student and to society because a college enables a student to experience much in a short time, which is the secret of an educated life.

Willamette University, therefore, invites you to experience the best that the race has achieved in intellect and spirit. You will largely choose your experiences and you will determine whether or not they become a true part of yourself. The faculty will help to the utmost, but three-fourths of the responsibility will still be yours. As older students, we joyously welcome you to these rich adventures while we shall constantly ask the privilege of being your friends and guides.

Cordially yours,

CARL G. DONEY.

WELCOME!

It gives me pleasure as President of the Associated Students of Willamette University to welcome you incoming students to our University and its student organization. No organization of students will so closely affect your college life as the Associated Student Body. The organization has for its purpose the furtherance of student expression along all lines. Let Willamette traditions guide you in this expression, but let your fundamental precepts be those of moderation and good sense, and let your driving force be the desire to promote the welfare of the University.

This student body has no use for shirkers, cheaters, or fools; it provides the means for expression in all lines to intelligent and industrious students, and it offers a modicum of honor to the successful.

Let your minds be aroused by your student contacts as well as your scholastic contacts. Observe your surroundings and your fellow students, become a positive force, a person with a purpose: "To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield."

You have responsibilities and duties as a student of this University. Assume your responsibilities and perform your duties seriously and intelligently.

CHARLES S. CAMPBELL
President A. S. W. U.

GREETINGS

Blue Key National Service fraternity extends a most hearty welcome to you who are entering Willamette for the first time.

Blue Key is an upperclassmen's organization which has as its motto and purpose "service." So not only do we welcome you, but also we offer you our aid and help at all times. We want you to feel free to ask a Blue Key man for help when in doubt about any unfamiliar school activity.

In this new sphere of your life activity, we want you to secure for yourself that full measure of success to which you are entitled. This will be made possible through your entering whole heartedly into the spirit of the school life.

DWIGHT ADAMS,
President of Blue Key

HELLO, ROOKS!

The Cubs welcome you to our campus, and while the reception may seem warm, we assure you that it is in a friendly spirit.

You were Seniors, now you are Freshmen. Start your college life right and four years from now you will cherish your memories of Willamette. The Cubs try to be of service to Willamette and her students, and we wish to be helpful to you as you face the new experiences of college.

It is the honor and duty of the Cubs to uphold the traditions of our school. It is our wish that you know and love these symbols as we do. We will help you in your start toward a higher education and new friendships. Let's pull together for Willamette.

CARL MARCY,
President of the Cubs.

WELCOME

Dear Freshman Girls:

We welcome you in the spirit of friendship! College days should be the happiest days of your life and the friends you make here will be a great factor in the pleasant memories which you will have of Willamette. The Big Sisters are anxious and willing to assist you in adjusting yourselves to your new surroundings. Call upon them frequently.

The Y. W. C. A. offers an opportunity for girls to be mutually helpful in seeking a full and creative college life. We ask you to join us in this world-wide movement of college women who are seeking to live in accordance with the principles and ideals of Jesus Christ.

Sincerely,

DORIS CLARKE,

Y. W. C. A. President.

STUDENT PURPOSE

We unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

We determine to make this life possible for all people.

In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him.

GREETINGS

As you enter Willamette University as members of the class of 1935, you are feeling a new and enriching experience—the experience of college life with its many opportunities for self expression, for whole-hearted service, and for the cultivation of new and lasting friendships.

The University Young Men's Christian Association welcomes you to the undertaking of new tasks, and to the sharing of new joys. The "Y" endeavors to be of service in aiding students to make wholesome and satisfying adjustments in the various phases of campus relationships, and strives to interpret Jesus' way of living so that religion, rather than being one aspect of life, shall be a vital force permeating and regulating all of life.

We invite you to cooperate with us in working out a program which will be of value not only to yourself but also to others.

Sincerely,

WESLEY WARREN,

President of the Y.M.C.A.

Students taking Physical Education for credit must pass the Physical Ability Tests before they are permitted to substitute an intramural activity for the regular class work.

OLD HISTORIC TEMPLE

There's an old Historic temple
Rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken-hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers.
Down the years its portals open,
Gathers wise ones to its fold;
Breathes the spirit of the Westland.
Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Spirit of the Golden Westland.
Breathing through our fathers' tears;
Tells the story of the Temple.
Bids us hope adown the years.
Sing, oh sing, of old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true;
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old school, our W. U.

LET'S GO WILLAMETTE

Let's go! Willamette U.
 Onward to win the score
 Show our spirit true
 Fighting for evermore
 And may the victory bell
 Our praises tell
 And ring them out tonight
 Rah for the fame of Willamette's name
 Show 'em the Bearcat Fight.

QUEEN OF THE WEST

The East may love old Harvard,
 The North love old Cornell;
 But the school of fame, whose noble name,
 Forever shall excel
 Stands proudly in the Westland
 Where friends are staunch and true;
 We love our dear old college,
 So here's to W. U!

Chorus—

Willamette, to thee we will be true,
 Willamette, we'll ever fight for you,
 We pledge our loyalty.
 Our homage pay to thee,
 Pride of all the West, you are the best,
 Willamette, our hearts we pledge anew,
 Willamette, our fealty to you,
 Faithful we will be
 With staunch fidelity,
 Willamette, queen of all!

Fling high our glorious colors
 The Cardinal and the Gold,
 Exalt the dream which stands supreme
 Wrought by the men of old.
 With eager hearts and voices
 And veneration true;
 Sing forth our acclamations
 Bold sons of W. U.

ON WILLAMETTE

On Willamette. ever onward,
To the highest goal in view,
From the bell tower rings the story
Of thy conquests, W. U.
In our mighty Alma Mater
Let our faith be ever bold,
That victory may be the prize,
Of the Cardinal and the Gold.

MAGIC SPIRIT

Then we'll strive, we'll stand, we'll stay by old Willamette
With her legends and traditions old and true
Something seems to draw us onward ever
to the victor's goal;

'Tis the magic of thy spirit, W. U.

FIGHT 'EM BEARCATS

Fight 'em, Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette through the years;
Fight with mighty strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.
Fight 'em Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold,
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted Gold.

FIGHT, SONS OF OLD WILLAMETTE

Fight, sons of Old Willamette,
Fight 'til the battle's done;
With a valor ever bold
For the Card'nal and the Gold
Fight 'til the vict'ry's won!
Many hearts are standing by you
With a spirit ever true;
Fight with courage never dying
Fight! Willamette U.

TRUE TO YOUR SPIRIT

True to your spirit!
 On brave warroirs to the end
 Fight till the foe shall fear us
 Till the enemy's haughty head shall bend,
 On for Willamette,
 Fight the battle as of old,
 Victory the prize shall be
 Of the cardinal embossed with gold.

CANNIBAL KING

A cannibal king with a big nose ring
 Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
 And every night when the moon shown bright
 Across the canal he'd wade
 To hug and kiss this dusky miss
 Out under the big bay tree,
 And when they met they sang a duet
 That sounded like this to me:
     Oh, Jason Lee, socretty boo-ya
     Oh, Poppa Waller, chenickety umba
     Umba—Umba—Um—

BEND THE KNEE

Bend the knee, yes, bend the knee
 To the Cardinal and the Gold;
 Before the Bearcats' fighting power
 Mars himself must even cower.
 Rise, ye sons of Jason Lee,
 We will win the victory.
 So bend bend the knee to Willamette
     Varsity.

Victory; yes, victory to the Cardinal and the Gold;
 Then fearful foes will bite the dust,
 For win we will, for win we must.
 Onward, then to mastery,
 This our conquering song shall be;
 So bend bend the knee to Willamette
     Varsity.

VICT'RY FOR W. U.
 Vic'ry for W. U.

OUR PLEDGE

Oh, Willamette fairest name,
School we love forever more,
We shall strive to keep thy fame,
Though we win or lose the score.
Singing ever through the fight,
"I love Willamette U,"
Aiming, striving with our might.
T'ward a worthy purpose true.

Chorus—

Oh dear Willamette U.,
The school we love so well,
We pledge our love to you
And e'er your praises tell.
Oh may we always be
Most worthy sons of thine,
We pledge our loyalty
Willamette, school of mine.

College friends will go their way
And our world will hurry on
Our strife lost but a day
And our cause be lost or won
But through all our lives we'll sing
"I love Willamette U."
And to the end we'll bring
Our trust kept faithful true.

I LOVE WILLAMETTE U

I love Willamette U.
I love her campus too;
I love her Profs so good and true,
I love her spirit real true blue.
I love the old mill stream,
I love to sit and dream;
I see it all in shadows cool.
I love our dear old school.

DREAM ON

The stars are softly gleaming,
 In the shadows of the night,
 The moon like glowing silver
 Covers all with mellow light.
 The world is resting peaceful
 From the hurry of the day,
 So now beneath your window
 Do I sing to you and say—

Chorus—(Boys sing)

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
 Till the golden heart of you
 Thrills with night-time's beauty,
 And your fairest dream come true.

(Girls sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
 Till the youthful heart of you
 Thrills with life and love and glory,
 And your fairest dreams come true.

The mill stream ripples onward
 Through the mottled shade of trees,
 The moon is wafted gently
 By the golden evening breeze.
 And making light the shadows
 Dance the moonlight fairy beams
 And they mingle with our music
 And they harmonize your dreams.

WA HOO

Wa hoo wa hoo
 Rip zip ba zoo,
 I yell, I yell for W. U.
 Wa hoo wa hoo wa hoo
 Well! well, well,
 Well, well, well, well,
 Well, well, well, well,
 Wa hoo, etc.

SERENADE SONG

When all the campus is sleeping,
Bathed in a silv'ry glow,
Lulled to rest by the mill stream,
Murmuring soft and low,
Our voices will lift 'neath your window,
Soft as the palest moonlight
Not to disturb your fair slumbers;
But wish as we bid you good night.

Chorus—

While you are sleeping, sleeping,
Under the milky way,
Wrapt in the shadow of night-time.
Far from the cares of the day;
May you be dreaming, dreaming,
Dreams of a love ever true
Love that a lad of Willamette
Holds in his heart for you.

Hark! as the voices of nature
Break thru the quiet night,
The singing sigh of the tree tops
Whispering low and light,
The distant chirp of the cricket,
Night breezes age-old song
Oh, may you hear in your dreamland
The wish of this choral throng.

GO, WILLAMETTE

Fight the fight that knows no fear.
Oh, Willamette, heart of cheer.
Then we'll shout the name we love,
To the bending skies above.
Go Willamette, go Willamette, go W. U.
Go win the victory
Show them all both great and small,
What Willamette fight can do.

WILLAMETTE SPRING SONG

Oh, springtime at Willamette,
There's naught could sweeter be!
Like mists by sunlight melted,
The clouds of trouble flee.
And all of life seems gladness
At just a sparrow's trill,
Or glimpse of maple blossoms,
Our hearts with rapture thrill.

Oh, sweet is day's stern labor,
We conquer without fear;
And sweet the hours of evening
When college friends are near.
So gathered here at twilight
Amid the shadows long,
Soft notes of youth and springtime
Are mingled in our song.

CHALLENGE TO LOYALTY

There's a cardinal bar from a western sky,
And a golden beam from the sun,
The cardinal for the men of old
Whose valiant courage won,
To these memories we are loyal,
They were wrought with a purpose true,
On these we build our standards
And our faith in Willamette U!

There's a challenge flung from this western sky,
And this golden beam of light,
There's a flaming hope of victory
That will guide us ever right,
And from these colors blended,
The cardinal and golden hue,
We gain the strength of our loyalty,
And our love for Willamette U!

---

WILLAMETTE NIGHT SONG

Over the moon's bright circle
Clouds like a curtain creep
The night with sombre darkness
Covers the world asleep.
Then the moon by the clouds unveiled,
Casts of flood of silvered light
And my longing heart turns to singing
This fantasy of the night.

Chorus:

Dream on, Oh fairest one
Wrapt in gentle slumber
Sleep on, while yet the moon so softly beams;
Dream on in sweet repose
Lulled by songs of love
And may their spirit weave into your dreams
Sleep on while still the night
Robed in velvet splendor
Has charmed Willamette with its magic spell
My heart bids you sweet farewell
For the paling stars foretell
Night shall fade in morning light.
Fairest one, goodnight—goodnight.

The years shall pass by us swiftly
Dimming youth's brightest rays
But the mem'ries of life's gay springtime
Will lighten the darkest days;
The spell of our dear Willamette
Binds our hearts with a golden chain
And the song we sang together
Shall echo for us again.

GO TO CHURCH

History records man as a being who worships. The desire to worship is universal. Among every people of whom we have record, signs of worship have been discovered. Let us develop and direct this instinct of worship.

Today, while attending college, most of us are away from home; yet the deep wish in the heart of every father and mother is that we remain true to the teachings of our youth. By home training and tradition we have some knowledge of the purposes and claims of religion. We believe that in the Bible man finds a standard whereby to guide his life. Religion in its broadest sense is life lived in all its relationships. Religion is the ballast which steadies man's life. Religion is friendship with God.

Willamette wishes to co-operate with the churches of Salem. We have included this church directory in the handbook with the special hope that the church going habit learned at home may not be lost at college.
