WILLAMETTE SHOWS CONFERENCE CLASS

Sun Shows Brightly for the First Time in Several Days—Large Crowd Attends.

Last Friday afternoon on the Willamette field, fighting every minute of the game, Whitworth's gridiron warriors met overwhelming defeat at the hands of Willamette's heavier and better organized squad, the contest leaving the Northwestern non-conference championship snugly tucked away upon the trophy shelves of the cardinal and gold victors. The game, secured through the loyalty of the W. U. students and the Salem public to Dr. Sweetland's champions, had been looked forward to with much anticipation; and the results of 67 to 0 only confirmed the general belief that the varsity team is fully of conference caliber.

For the first time in several weeks, "Old Sol" kindly condescended to expel his warming rays upon the Willamette field and when the starting whistle was blown the field was covered by a dry layer of fully an eighth of an inch, which, like the dry rags of saturated sponge, was soon worked into the aquatic elements below the surface, and as the game proceeded old Mother Earth perspired so freely that before long the soaked appearance of the combatants and the slippery condition of the spheroid threatened to change the game into a water polo contest.

First Score in Second Quarter.

For the full length of the first quarter the lighter Washingtonians prevented the Willamette representatives from scoring, although Coach Guorenley's recruits were placed on the defensive from the very first. Preceded by several good gains by each member of Willamette's backfield in the closing minutes of the first quarter, the second period was opened with the ball on the eighty-yard line, Erskine advanced the ball two yards, and then Francis started the scoring by easily plowing through the remaining six yards.

Homan received the kickoff and ran 15 yards to Whitworth's 40-yard line. After good gains by Erskine and Stearns, Willamette fumbled, giving the ball to the visitors, who failed to pull off a cleverly planned forward pass right over the center of the scrimmage. Erskine tore off 15 yards on a delayed double pass, followed by gains credited to Rowland, Stearns, Homan and Watson. The Tacomans then received the ball on Willamette's failure at a forward pass, and immediately attempted to show how the stunt should be pulled off, when Erskine happened around where the ball was flying "unguarded" and spoiled their demonstration by galloping away for a touchdown. Francis kicked goal.

Homan again received the initial boot and escorted the prolate pill 20 yards from Willamette's 18-yard line. Next Francis rent the air with a waddy just as he was given the ball, and the terrified opponents were so horror-stricken they failed to remember they were playing football, so that "Pruney" had free sailing to the enemies 40-yard line. At this point in the game "Hippo" Watson amused the grandstand by executing a very

EUGENE PASTOR ADDRESSES KIMBALL COLLEGE STUDENTS

Dr. Wilkinson, pastor of the M. E. Church at Eugene, is delivering a series of lectures at Kimball College. Yesterday afternoon he spoke on "General Booth's Contribution to Modern Christianity" and in the evening on "Man and Religion." This afternoon at 3 o'clock the final lecture will be delivered on "Essentials."

O. A. C. and U. of O. to Meet.

At a conference between the U. of O. and O. A. C. athletic managers at Albany Monday, the question of a football game between the two schools was settled. A compromise was effected by agreeing upon Albany as the place of meeting. The game will be played next Saturday.

ORATORICAL ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL ELECTION

Laura Heist, president; Errol Gilkey, State Committeeman—Plans Made for Local Contest.

The first meeting of the Oratorical Association, comprising all college students, was held last Thursday, and the following officers were elected: President—Miss Laura Heist. Vice-president—Paul Irvine. Secretary—Bruce McDaniel. Treasurer—Alfred Hanke. Errol Gilkey will represent Willamette on the executive committee of the Oregon Intercollegiate Oratorical Association.

The Association desires to call the attention of all those who contemplate participating in the tryout to the fact that the subjects must be handed to the faculty committee before Dec. 10, and that the orations themselves must be in before the Christmas vacation. The tryout will take place the third week in January.

Willamette should have a strong representation in the coming intercollegiate contest, and such a thing is possible if all who have ability in this line will take an active part. A number have already announced their intention of entering the local contest and it seems probable that the rivalry for the honor of representing Willamette in the state contest will be keen.

PHILOSOPHANS AND PHILODORIAN CELEBRATE

Last Friday evening the two societies met for the first joint social event of the year. It was an occasion which will be long remembered by the participants.

Pennants and football posters adorned the walls, the chandeliers were tastily decorated with ivy and numerous cozy corners added much to the appearance of the rooms.

The evening was one continued round of football. The crowd was divided into four divisions, each representing the following: Washington, Whitworth, Vancouver Barracks and Willamette. Stunts and yells were given by each team and also a football game was played that displayed an unusual amount of enthusiasm. Other interesting games were played, and finally tiny paper footballs were passed around, by which partners were found for refreshments. Imprinted in the brick ice cream was the Philodorian emblem and with the cream was served wafers and mints.

After this the crowd gathered about the piano to sing and to give vent to the enthusiasm stored within them.

With "Good-Night, Ladies," the crowd dispersed.

LADIES GLEE CLUB ORGANIZES FOR WORK

VARSITY MUSIC CRITICS PREDICT SUCCESSFUL YEAR—THIRTY VOICES IN CHORUS.

CLUB APPEARS MIDDLE OF DECEMBER

Two Cantatas Besides Regular Program Will be Included in this Year's Repertoire.

The Ladies Glee Club has been materially strengthened by new material this year. While last year's club was well received and did commendable work, prospects for this year read those conversant with music circles of the school to predict a very successful year.

Active practice did not begin until a few days ago, when the new members first received their appointment as members of the club by Dean Mendenhall. A large number of young ladies tried out for the club but the complement was well filled before the expectant ranks were thinned.

The beginning of active work began with the election of officers and the initiation of the new members into the mystic order of the G. G. C., by a good rehearsal of old music.

Dean Mendenhall expects to have a program this year of much more artistic music than ever before. Besides the regular concert numbers, he is beginning practice upon two cantatas. The Club will make their first appearance near the middle of December, when the College of Music gives its first concert.

The officers elected this year are: president, Ava McMahon; secretary, Daisy Mulkey; treasurer, Laura Heist.

The present membership is composed of: Sopranos—Frances Dimick, Lois Asbury, Clara Scanasse, Electa Chapman, Lenora Mallett, Ermone Harward, Nettie Snyder, Leila MacCaddam, Carrie Cooksey, Ruth Winters; Mezzo-Sopranos—Pearl Bradley, Laura Wilson, Dorothy Scanasse, Ava McMahon, Laura Heist, Esther Emmel, Hazel Smith, Ethel Williams, Edna Estes, Mabel Goyne; Altos—Emma Loughridge, Stella Graham, Ruth Young, Daisy Mulkey, Lucile Kuntz, Anna Ryan, Esther Plumer, Ruth Boyer, Valeda Hoxie, Flora Cone.

Criterion Society.

The regular weekly meeting of the Criterion literary society last Wednesday evening gave an unusually interesting and instructive program on the general subject of "Industries."

An animated parliamentary practice, led by Rollin Armstrong, was followed by a business meeting.

Many members were conspicuous by their absence, and not much was accomplished. Moral—Be out tonight.

Axley Passes Rhodes Examinations.

The many university friends of Seth Axley will be glad to learn that he has passed the Rhodes scholarship examinations in California. Axley was one of four to qualify and should stand a good chance in the final selection. Seth is a Salem boy and is attending the University of California.

In the pushball contest held recently at Washington University between the Sophs and the Freshies, Gardner Car, Freshman, was seriously hurt. During the contest, Car lost his footing and was carried under the crowd. When picked up it was found that his neck was badly wrenched.

PUGET SOUND STALLS ON WILLAMETTE GAME

At this late date, it is still uncertain whether the Willamette team will journey to Tacoma Saturday to meet the University of Puget Sound. The northern coach is trying to take advantage of a loophole in the two-year contract to get out of playing the game. A clause in the contract gives U. P. S. the choice of any November date except Thanksgiving. They are now attempting to place the date on Nov. 27, the day before Thanksgiving. The varsity would, of course, be unable to play on that day, but it is barely possible that, if no other arrangements can be made, the second team may be sent against Puget Sound. If they are, they will run the Sounders a good race.

VARSITY "SCRUBS" VICTORS IN HARD GAMES

Thursday, Albany High at the "Hub City"; Saturday, Woodburn Athletic Club at Woodburn.

Playing in a young lake, the second team defeated Albany High School at Albany Thursday, by a score of 6-0.

The game was closely contested from start to finish, and consisted principally of old style football. Only twice during the game was Willamette's goal in danger. In the first quarter Albany, after receiving the kick-off, by fierce line plunging carried the ball within fifteen yards of the goal, where the Willamette boys were able to brace up and kick out of danger. Then in the last quarter, with two minutes left to play, Albany by a series of forward passes again placed the ball on the fifteen-yard line, but was unable to go further. With these two exceptions, the game was Willamette's.

The "scrubs" touchdown came in the second quarter after Dutro had carried the ball to the 20-yard line by a long open field run. From there, the ball was bucked over, Doane making the touchdown.

For Albany, Abraham was the star of the game. The Albany ends also played exceptionally well. Reynolds and Doane of Willamette deserve special mention for their consistent line plunging, while Dutro showed up well in the open field.

Second Victory Over Woodburn.

Saturday afternoon the second team of the varsity again proved itself victor, defeating the Woodburn Athletic Club for the second time, at Woodburn, by the decisive score of 24-0.

The game was a poor exhibition of football and was characterized by useless delays. Both team relied almost entirely upon straight football. Woodburn's biggest gains were made by end runs, while Willamette's entire backfield made long gains through Woodburn's line. The offensive work of Doane, Reynolds and Howard was good; Randall, at end, did some clever tackling, while Pfaff at center and Neustel at tackle did the best work on the line.

Booster Meeting Friday.

A live rally boosting the Whitworth game was held Friday morning at the close of chapel service. Chas. McKnight, '11, who has been visiting at the University the past few days, was present and was called on, responding with a short talk on Willamette's past achievements and the possibilities that were ahead of us. Mr. Williams, captain of the Whitworth team, was present also, and made a short speech on the coming game, promising a clean contest. The meeting closed with MacCaddam's locomotive yell.

G. S. A. PLANS THANKS-GIVING FEAST AT HALL

FIRST MEETING OF YEAR—HOME-SICK FROSH TO BE LOOKED AFTER ON TURKEY DAY.

GIRLS' WILLAMETTE CLUB ORGANIZES

This Organization is to Raise the Standard of Ideals in the Student Body.

The first Girls' Student Association meeting of the year was called Monday morning after chapel, when plans were made for a party, to be given Thanksgiving night at Lausanne Hall to the students who are not fortunate enough to eat turkey and cranberry sauce at home that day. The resident students will have the privilege of preparing for this and anything that they may do to make a long day shorter, will surely be a pleasant duty.

At this meeting, an invitation was extended to all of the new girls to become members of the Girls' Willamette Club. This organization is entirely separate from the G. S. A. Its membership includes those girls who are willing to uphold the highest ideals among both the men and the women of the school, whether it be in the classroom, on the athletic field or in their relations to their fellow-students. While this may be a high aim, still it is nothing more than every girl in Willamette should be willing to pledge herself to do. It is hoped that the new girls, without exception, will ally themselves with this concrete expression of Willamette spirit.

EUGENE TAKES SALEM HIGH INTO CAMP, 13-0

Doped to win about 30 to 0, the Eugene High School football team, accompanied by some 200 rooters, arrived in this city last Saturday for the annual game with Salem High. However, the Eugene boys found a little surprise awaiting them, for the Salem boys, instead of yielding before their onslaught, proceeded to march right through their line and time and again during the game did Eugene find herself backed up almost to her goal line, but by desperate fighting prevented Salem from scoring. Eugene made two spectacular rallies during the game. Each started with an end run for some 20 yards and continued by end runs and forward passes until they had put the ball over the line for two touchdowns. With the exception of these two rallies, honors were about even, the Eugene men having a slight edge over the Salem boys as regards weight and experience.

Big demonstrations occurred between halves and after the game, each school having a band and doing the serpentine march.

This is the first time that Eugene has ever beaten Salem on the local field.

Date of Lyceum Number Changed.

Announcement has been made that the date of the Bergen-Marx Trio concert on the Star Lyceum course has been changed from Tuesday, Nov. 26, to Wednesday, Nov. 27. All numbers on the course are at the Christian Church.

Walter Camp has an excellent article in the current "Outing" on "Making a Football Team," dealing especially with the work of the coach.

OUT OF THE COLLEGE'S POWER.

In his remarkable speech at the 65th anniversary of Willamette University in September, 1909, Hon. E. B. Piper, '86, uttered the following paragraph. It so concisely and forcefully presents a thought which we had intended to treat in this column, that we quote it as a better expression than we could hope to make.

"What can any college or university do without a loyal, earnest student body? No institution, no course of instruction, no method of training, no equipment, not all the books and not all the teachers anywhere, can put intellect into the vacant mind, or energy into the lazy body. The college furnishes the opportunity, the student must do the rest."

No amplification of ours could make the idea any clearer or stronger. It will bear your thought. The application lies with each individual.

DON'T FORGET THE FIXIN'S.

All's peaceful till the Thanksgiving game. The team will do its part, but let's don't forget the trimmings. A well-decorated grandstand, souvenir programs, solid support, live music—these and many other of the side-issues will add wonderfully to the day. This is where the team and the students can work together.

Sunrise Prayer Meeting.

The First Baptist Church started a precedent in this city three years ago of a sunrise prayer meeting on Thanksgiving morning. For the last two years the Baptist young people's society has given these meetings but this year it is to be held in the First Presbyterian church under the direction of the young people of that church. The meeting will begin at 6:30 on Thanksgiving morning. The program will consist of special music, addresses by good live speakers, and an open meeting for all the different societies. A cordial invitation is extended to all the students.

AT LAUSANNE

(With apologies to Longfellow.)
The shades of night are falling fast,
As he is seen to hurry past;
The janitor, with axe in hand,
He murmurs, and they understand:
"Excelsior!"

He goes out in the rain to work.
(The girls see that he doesn't shirk)
And sheltering between the drops,
He tells the rain which never stops:
"Excelsior!"

That heavy wood in rain-soaked sack
He plans on getting to his back;
And as he pauses, wearily,
He mutters sad and drearily:
"Excelsior!"

That load of wood goes to the top—
He reaches there and needs must stop;
But now, he can no longer say,
As he's been thinking all the day:
"Excelsior!"

With road as muddy as a farm,
A kindling box clasped in each arm,
He walks the straight and narrow
way,
And, as he slips, we hear him say:
"Excelsior!"

He hears his comrade in distress
Bewail the cold with bitterness,
And wonder if 'twill mean his death;
The answer comes with smoking
breath:
"Excelsior!"

The good cooks say, "You work too much."

WASHINGTON CHAMPIONS

O. A. C. Puts Whitman Out of Race—
W. S. C. Cancels Game With University of Montana.

Football dope was again upset when O. A. C. defeated Whitman 20 to 3 and Oregon scored 14 to Washington's 30 in the contests occurring last Saturday. This gives Washington the championship of the Northwest and advances O. A. C. to second place. From previous results, Whitman and Washington had been figured as about on a par, while O. A. C., in spite of a defeat by W. S. C., had been conceded third place.

Washington State College was to have played Montana Saturday, but the game was cancelled on Friday. This game was expected to furnish some dope for the Montana-Willamette game, and its cancellation leaves the comparative strength of the mountaineers with Northwest teams as much in the dark as ever.

PHILODORIANS VOTE TO CON-VENE MOCK LEGISLATURE

Last Wednesday evening the Philodorians met at 7:30 and enjoyed a real treat in the form of a literary program.

Following the program was a business session. Among other things of importance in the business session was the hearing of the report from the committee on drawing up permanent ritualistic initiation ceremonies. Another matter of note was the motion put and carried that the society resolve itself into a mock Senate and that the secretary be instructed to notify the Websterian society of this fact and to ask them to co-operate as a mock House of Representatives in carrying on a mock legislature during the regular biennial session of the Legislature in January.

HAWLEY-GREMMELS NUPTIALS.

Last Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 757 Center street, occurred the marriage of Vivian Gremmels, ex-'14, to F. Douglas Hawley, a former student, now of Portland.

Both the young people are well-known among the old students, who join in wishing them many years of happy married life. Mr. Hawley, commonly known as "Vice-President" Hawley, is at present assistant sales-manager with the Jacobs-Stein Realty company.

Chas. B. Harrison, '12, now of Portland, was best man.

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

Co-ed Remonstrates.

To the Editor:

It appears that at present a word about co-ed participation in student activities would not be untimely. Are you aware that there is now at Willamette University no opportunity for a girl to win an official "W" except in the state oratorical contest. Not one girl in fifty has special ability along this line, and the instances when a Willamette girl has entered such a contest are so rare as to be quite striking. Thus 134 out of the 135 girls at Willamette are actually prohibited from representing their school in any active way. There seems to be an established principle that no girl shall enter the forensic contest, although the constitution of the Student Body expressly states that "ALL members of the Willamette Student Body shall be eligible to compete in intercollegiate debate, unless provided for by contract with other colleges." What really valid reason is there against girls' debate that is not equally applicable to boys? If a girl can win her place on the team why can she not represent the school as well as one of the opposite sex?

Tennis, the only form of athletics open to girls, is not under Student Body management; we have no such thing as girls' basketball, no gym work, and a girl speaking in Student Body meeting causes a nine-days' wonder on the campus. Apparently we are here merely to furnish an artistic background for the men of the institution and to clap in a ladylike manner when they have done anything worthy of merit. Why need this condition exist? We have SOME of the spirit of Old Willamette and would like to have a chance to display it in a real worth-while way. And we feel that in the end we would be no less ladies nor would Willamette be eternally disgraced.

A CO-ED.

A Good Suggestion.

To the Editor:

It is not all to build, but when once built the institution must be protected. If this were not the case, all our energies could be expended in building up, in creating, and none given in the protection of what has already been created. A condition like this would indeed be desirable. It would be fine if the farmer could raise watermelons and never have any stolen, or a better illustration is, if the Turks could build an empire without the invasion of a foreign element. But actual experiences of everyday life demonstrate to us that such a state of affairs does not exist. There are always those who seem to delight, or at least do not hesitate, to tear down, regardless of the efforts put forth to build up. Now, my application of all this circumlocution is this: our tennis courts. These courts, which were crowned and levelled and rolled with such painstaking care last fall, are considered by the passerby to be little more than a pile of stones. In fact, these courts, which were at one time fit for a marble yard, retain marks in profusion showing that they have not only been converted into a way for pedestrians, but also a boulevard for automobiles and even into a highway for drayage wagons. Would it not be a good thing to protect these courts in some way, rather than to have them destroyed completely and have all that work to do over again next spring?

STUDENTS, WINDOW DECORATORS

Have you seen the window and interior decorations of the Capital Drug Store, on the corner of High and State streets? If you haven't, in passing take a look and remember that the work was done by two of Willamette's students—Messrs. Little and Russell, of Spokane, who are old hands at work of this kind, having done more or less it for the last seven years.

Mrs. McCulley spent a few days last week visiting her daughter, Lucile.

VARSITY TEARS HOLES IN THE VISITORS' LINE

difficult slide upon his nose for a distance of 20 yards (along the ground), giving the appearance of a motor-boat at full speed cutting the surf. Homan then resorted to straight football for a while and discovered the remarkable speed and sure tackling ability of his opponents. Rowland punted and Whitworth exhibited the famous line shift formation, but Watson blocked an attempted punt, Day recovering the ball on the 30-yard line. Francis broke out on another of his rampages and placed the ball on the two-yard line, from where Erskine bucked it over. Francis kicked goal, making the score 20-0.

Day received the kickoff in the center of the field. Dr. Sweetland's machine, now fully oiled up and ready for business, demonstrated a little real football. Hepp netted five yards on an end run, Erskine made five more, Hepp again gained, Homan ran around end for fifteen more, Stearns tore off three yards, Rowland bucked through for a gain of two, all ending in a climax of Homan tossing a long and risky pass directly over Whitworth's secondary defence into the arms of Francis who continued the journey to the goal and afterwards came back and booted the ball over the posts for an additional point. This ended the scoring in the first half, the results being Willamette, 27; Whitworth, 0.

Rooting Snappy.

Although a one-sided contest cannot instill the enthusiasm into the rooters that a real contest could, and although a one-sided rooting exhibition is not as intense as when two well-organized vocal armies vie for honors, still the Willamette supporters, under the leadership of "Big Mac" with the Vulcanized Grumble, and the aid of the W. U. band, especially the drums, greatly aided the fleeting of the usually tiresome period of fifteen minutes intermission. McCaddam is a good leader and he has injected some reat "nip" into the yelling.

The Third Quarter.

The scoring was started in the second half when, after several small gains by Willamette players, Francis received the ball from Hepp on a double pass that was almost fumbled and ran 10 yards for a touchdown. Francis kicked goal. Again Whitworth kicked off and again Willamette traversed the length of the field, Francis making the last twenty yards on an end run, most of his opponents hanging on to him at one time or other.

Booth was then substituted for Homan, and after a few uneventful plays in which the ball changed sides several times, the quarter ended by several long runs for which Booth, Stearns and Erskine were responsible, and a forward pass cleanly executed by Rowland and Hepp. The quarter ended 40-0.

27 Points in Last Quarter.

In the last stage of play, the visitors, though still game and fighting hard and cleanly, began to show the effects of the previous 45 minutes' drubbing. Touchdowns, each preceded by long runs, were credited to Stearns, Erskine, Francis and Homan. Francis kicked three goals. The game ended 67 to 0.

In the last quarter Dr. Sweetland sent in Small and Young, both of whom showed up well; Homan also went back in at quarter. All of the linemen, especially Blackwell and Bolt, were strong on the defensive, and Day, Watson, and Drake, having no trouble in handling their men, were in frequent evidence as they interpreted Whitworth's tactics and mused up their plans.

Francis and Hepp on the ends were impenetrable on defense, while Francis, running from the end position, was the particular star on the offense. Erskine, Rowland and Stearns were consistent ground-gainers throughout the contest, doing especially good work in handling the muddy ball on double passes. Homan was strictly on the job as field general, besides doing some good open field running.

The whole Willamette team played gilt-edge and exhibited plenty of speed connected with a unity of action that was sure of results.

The visitors played a clean, snappy game, and were stiff fighters, but were completely outclassed. They had very little opportunity to display their offensive game, and were never dangerous.

Officials—Referee, Bishop; umpire, Smith; Head linesman, MacRae. Time of quarters, 15 minutes.

OLD ROOTERS ENCOURAGE MAC

Flegel and Brick Harrison Enthusiastic Over Early Showing of Football Squad.

Yell-leader McCaddam is in receipt of letters from "Brick" Harrison and "Stooge" Flegel, both former holders of Mac's position, in which they assure him of their interest in his work and their loyalty to the old varsity. Both are enthusiastic over the showing of the football team and are planning to see the Thanksgiving contest with Montana. The letters were read in chapel at a "pep" meeting before the Vancouver game and were given a big round of applause by those who knew how much these two men have done toward creating the booster spirit at Willamette.

Mr. West of Seattle, former Willamette student and father of Miss Mildred West, was a guest for dinner Saturday.

"Brick" Harrison, '12, was in the city over the week-end. "Brick" is in the Portland office of the H. S. Gille Wholesale Grocery Company.

VARSITY FOOTBALL HERO WILL TAKE FATAL PLUNGE

"Billy" Booth to be Married to Jean Sampson, Wednesday, November 27 at Portland.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Wilford Booth and Miss Jean Sampson, to take place Wednesday, Nov. 27, in Portland. Miss Sampson is a Willamette student of several years back, but through numerous visits is still well-known to many of the present student generation.

"Billy" Booth, who is only one year out of Willamette, was probably as popular a man as ever inhabited the University campus. As a member of the baseball and track teams, as an active Y. M. C. A. worker, as for four years one of the best quarter-backs in the Northwest, and as an all-round jolly good-fellow, he made a name for himself at Willamette which will not soon be forgotten.

"Billy" is now in the office of the John Deere Co., in Portland. The best wishes of scores of friends go with him and his bride as they forego single blessedness for married

TOOTERS ORGANIZED TO TOOT

Officers and Constitution Help to United the Band—Helps Rallies.

We now have a regularly organized band in Willamette. Although the band has been existent for some time, and, in its infancy, has made regular appearances at rallies and games, it has been a rather loose organization.

A constitution was drawn up at the Tuesday evening meeting and the following officers were elected: director, Harry Irvine; president-manager, Paul Anderson; secretary-treasurer, Mr. Schistler; librarian, Clarence Van Slyke.

This will put the business and membership of the band upon a substantial basis. Membership pins and honors are to be provided, which will prove some recompense to members.

The band is doing fine. The students are beginning to realize what a power it is toward good enthusiasm at rally and game and jolly-up. The student body can no longer get along without a good, rousing band to add harmony and enthusiasm to all activities.

The band is ready and willing to furnish music—real harmony—at all occasions, and in return asks the hearty support of every loyal student.

Y. M. C. A. CONDUCTS BIBLE CLASSES AT INDIAN SCHOOL

The extension work which the University Y. M. C. A. is carrying on at Chemawa got well under way last Tuesday night, when a number of the fellows went out to the school and assisted in planning the work for the coming year. The prospects for the year are very bright, and with the increased interest among the boys and the addition of a number of promising new men this year, greatly increased efficiency and more extensive work are expected. This is a great work, and of all the work that a college man can take up outside his regular student duties, probably the most gratifying.

William Schreiber and Read Bain are to lead the Bible classes, and more men will probably be added to this list of leaders. The general plan of work will be much like that followed last year, but other work is to be added.

The co-operation of Supt. Wordsworth is adding strength to the plans. Among the new branches of work that will broaden the influence of their Y. M. C. A. will be Sunday afternoon meetings, when professional men and pastors from the city, and professors and students from Willamette will lead.

MAGRAE RETURNS TO TEAM

Presence of Veteran End in Line-up
Raises Willamette Football Stock
Above Par.

The appearance of MacRae in football togs Monday afternoon was the signal for general rejoicing among supporters of the Willamette team and gave a decided impetus to its chances against the University of Montana on Thanksgiving Day. MacRae received a bad beating up in the Oregon game over a month ago and has not been out since, but was prevailed upon to get out and help the team in the big game. Mac will probably be used on left end instead of at full-back, where he started the season. In Francis, 185 pounds, and MacRae, 175 pounds, Willamette will have a pair of ends whom no other team in the Northwest can begin to equal. Both are fast, adept at handling forward passes, strong on running with the ball, and demons on defence.

The presence of MacRae will bring the average weight of the line up to about 177 or 178 pounds, an amount of beef which should be able to make a good account of itself against the rush line of Montana. The backfield, which will no doubt remain intact, is woefully light, averaging under 152 pounds. The backs, however, are fast and clever runners and have made a good account of themselves in the previous games. They should do the same against Montana.

Interest in the Thanksgiving game is high among students and Salem-ites. The recent showing of the varsity has begotten a confidence that, when it is matched with a team of its own caliber, it will not be found wanting. Montana is reported as having a strong aggregation, among the players being two backfield stars formerly of Purdue and Denver. Meanwhile, Coach Sweetland is not idle, and the Willamette team is making hay.

DEBATE TURNOUT LARGE

Twenty-five Respond to Call of Manager Todd—Strong Teams to go Against Idaho, April 4.

The first call for the debate try-out was made last Monday morning at chapel. Twenty-five mental huskies appeared at the meeting to discuss the plans for this year. The teams will be selected from the outcome of some good try-outs, as several of those who are in the field for debate honors have seen active service. The time for the try-out and the questions to be used will not be announced until the latter part of the week.

The debate announcement brought out representatives from all college classes. The other colleges of the University will be heard from some time this week and there may be several added to the already large list of aspirants for the official "W."

The Idaho contract calls for a debate to be held upon April 4. Each school will be represented by two teams. One will travel and the other will defend the question at home.

The debate council has had several meetings since the first of the year and will have more definite announcements to make in a few days. They have things well under way for a successful year in the forensic field.

The members of the Board of Directors, assisted by their wives, will constitute the reception committee. Light refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to the Willamette students.

"VICE-PRESIDENT" GETS SIZZLING SEND-OFF

Old-fashioned "Shiveree" given Willamette Newly-Weds.

Cloudburst!! Yep! Torrents and cloudburst co-mingled and inter-tangled sounds, musical and otherwise! That's what burst upon the brightly-illuminated, gorgeously-decorated, happy-thronged Gremmel's home last Saturday evening. Yes, the secret had got out. "Vice-president" Hawley was to be married. And seventy-five students hastened to pay their respects to their old friends, the happy couple. It must be admitted that it was rather a barbarous and barbarian method of expressing their exuberant spirits and heart-felt interest in the occasion and its principals. But what were they to do to express their hilarity but by incoherent cheers and unearthly yells, accompanied by the blare of horns and the harmony and chromatic runs of the drums.

However, the students were cordially welcomed by the bride and groom, and participated in the reception and congratulations and incidentally in the refreshments of ice cream and cake. Then soothing and gladsome strains were produced by the W. U. band.

Leading the way down town, the band played before the Spa, and then furnished several selections, including college songs, while ices and drinks were served and the crowd, lured from the street, crowded all the remaining tables.

At the station the band came into collision with the parade and band of the "Moose," but even though outnumbered they held their place and sent the bridal party away to the strains of "Good-night, Hawley, we're going to leave you now."

Dr. Avison Speaks at Y. M. C. A.

Dr. Avison, pastor of the First M. E. Church, addressed the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon on the topic, "The Modern Trend of the Religions of the World." He took up the presence of an idea of God among all peoples and showed the trend toward a final unity of all religion, in which Christianity will be predominant, not, perhaps, in its present form, but tempered by Oriental contributions.

SCRUBS ARE ALL THE CANDY AT ALBANY APPLE SHOW

Vice-President Todd Parades Young
Hopefuls Before Admiring Audience.

Did ever a Willamette team get such a reception as did the second section of our football heroes when they visited Albany last Thursday? Vice-president E. H. Todd, with a large brass band, met the huskies of the gridiron at the depot, paraded with them to the hotel where they changed from the conventional garb of the street to that of the field, and were led to the armory where the large Salem delegation was holding forth. It was Salem Day at the Apple Show. A thrilling oration was being delivered when the lusty strains of a band broke in at the door, the crowd around the door parted, and Dr. Todd with his young giants, headed by the band, entered the assembly and marched around the room. The auditorium was swept by rounds of applause. Several Salem-ites took Dr. Todd from the procession before it had gone a great way and hustled him off to the platform to sing the praises of Old Willamette.

The remainder of the reception is left to another section of the paper.

Dr. Todd soon left the platform to take his place at the head of the procession and led the young warriors to the field which had the appearance of a miniature lake at one end, and in which there was regulation prohibiting fishing.

Willamette Profs Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Biddle, assisted by Prof. R. B. Walsh, gave an entertainment of readings and music on Monday, Nov. 11, during the Marion County Teachers' Institute. This entertainment took place in the High School auditorium and is reported by all who attended as being of exceedingly high class.

Prof. Biddle was formerly connected with Willamette University, and his readings have always been highly appreciated by Willamette students.
