New Dean of Students Named; Smith Appoints Elmer Rieck

Now SMU Dean of Men

Long speculation and rumor have been ended today with the announcement by President Smith of the replacement for Mark Hatfield, dean of students. Appointed to the position of dean of students was Elmer Rieck, 44, who presently holds the position of dean of men at Southern Methodist University. He will also serve as associate professor of education and psychology.

Rieck, presently a candidate for the doctor of philosophy degree at the University of Wisconsin where he is in residence, received his BA degree from the State Teachers' College in River Falls, Wisconsin, in 1934. In 1942 he won his MA from the University of Wisconsin.

The new dean, who will assume his duties in the fall, was a teacher, principal and coach until 1943 in Wisconsin schools. After this date he entered the navy as an officer on campuses with the V-12 program. In this capacity he came into contact with two Methodist campuses, Drew University where he was an officer at Brothers College from August 1943 to July 1944, and Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

He was released from naval service in 1946 and became director of curriculum in public schools in DeKalb, Ill. He was made assistant dean of men at Southern Methodist, and in 1952 was named dean of men. He has served at that post since, being on a two year leave of absence while working on his doctorate at the University of Wisconsin.

High praise of Rieck comes from the President of Southern Methodist University and from former navy superiors. Rieck is listed in Who's Who in Education.

Don Peterson, Neil Causbie File Petitions

Two junior men, Don Peterson and Neil Causbie, have filed petitions for the office of ASB president. These two with nine other students who have filed for other student body posts will be elected early in May.

Nominees for the position of first vice-president are Wayne Carr, Steve Nason, and Mac Baker, all sophomores. Doug Houser and Jack Jones will contend for second vice-president while Flossy Hodge and Gayle York will vie for the office of secretary. The race for treasurer will be between Bud Mull and Ed Boothby.

Campaigning starts Monday with speeches by the candidates and their managers slated for Tuesday convocation. Candidates will make their customary dinner-time visits to the living organizations, but this year, according to present second vice-president Dale Greenlee, they must arrange time for their talks in advance and must come at only that hour. Greenlee announced in last Tuesday's convocation that this rule would be enforced.

Seniors Pick 11 Candidates

Eleven senior women were nominated for May Queen by the senior class last Monday. They are Margaret Huson, Judy Benson, Jo Ann Benard, Lorraine Landrud, Margie Knochenhauer, Pat Beckwith, Gay Kent, Jeanne Holmes, June Harms, Jo Terhark, and Charlene Miner.

Three finalists will be selected in the Student Body primaries on April 26 and 27, and the queen will be chosen from them in the runoffs April 30 and May 1.

The queen will be announced May 4 in the afternoon at the May Weekend coronation. Contrary to previous years, her identity will be kept a secret until that time.

WU Takes Lead In OFCL Rebirth

A motion that Willamette take the lead in reorganizing the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders was unanimously accepted by Student Council Wednesday. Representatives of living units reported that most of their organizations had responded favorably to a request that delegates be housed on campus.

In answer to a request for clarification of the purpose of OFCL, ASB president Dave Finlay explained that leaders from all Oregon colleges and universities meet for a "relaxed but intensive" analysis of student government problems. Neil Causbie was named temporary chairman of the Willamette reorganization group.

Pianist's Concert in Fine Arts To Conclude 1956-57 Series

By ANN CALLINAN
Collegian Reporter

Artur Rubinstein, whose performance here in October, 1950, was responsible for the inauguration of the Distinguished Artists Series, will make a return appearance in the Fine Arts Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. Monday.

Rubinstein was brought to Salem in 1950 by Harley Hoppe in order

"to stimulate interest in future concerts sponsored by the associated students and to prove that we, as students, could successfully promote world famous artists in Salem." The concert was a tremendous success and a financial coupe for the associated students.

Last February, Mr. Rubinstein tackled an extraordinary series of five sold-out concerto concerts in Carnegie Hall, embracing seventeen major works for piano and orchestra in the space of thirteen days. His present tour marks the fiftieth anniversary of his first appearance in the U. S.

Born in Lodz, Poland, son of a handloom manufacturer, Rubinstein first displayed signs of musical talent at the age of three. At six he had already performed at a charity concert in Warsaw. At eleven young Artur made his formal debut in Berlin under the baton of the venerable Joachim, who had assumed responsibility for Artur's musical future.

By the time Rubinstein was fifteen, his reputation had spread throughout Europe and he had earned the praise of Saint-Saens, Paderewski, and Max Bruch. Two years later, in 1906, he paid his first visit to America where he gave seventy-five concerts in three months.

Rubinstein returned to Europe to begin his global travels, which have since covered more than two million miles and have taken him to every country in the world except Tibet. In 1946, the most international of all artists, Rubinstein became a U. S. citizen.

Said Howard Taubman in the New York Times last February, "Artur Rubinstein belongs to the grand line of pianists. In an era of violence and neuroticism, he is a shining example of the civilized universal man. Although he is a naturalized American, he is a citizen of the world. His passport is not only music but also his wide culture, his relish for humanity, his capacity for understanding and laughter."

Bennett Quits For NCC Job

The resignation of Dr. Thomas R. Bennett, professor of philosophy and head of the philosophy department, will become effective June 1, he announced to The Collegian.

He leaves Willamette after four years on the faculty for a post with the Department of Church and Economic Life of the National Council of Churches in New York City. He will assume the job of Director of Educational Progress of the department, with the duties of "implementing a more vital Christian understanding of economic issues."

He received his BA degree from West Virginia University, his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago, and completed additional studies at the Royal Institute of International Affairs in London.

Northwest Political Scientists Invade Campus for Conclave

Willamette will host students from colleges and universities in Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon at the ninth annual meeting of the Pacific Northwest Political Science Association this weekend.

Bright, Baker Attend Meet

Lewis Bright, sophomore from Medford, and Mac Baker, sophomore from Salem, are in Missoula, Montana, this week representing the University in the annual Tau Kappa Alpha Forensic Tournament. The meet began yesterday and will conclude tomorrow.

Bright and Baker comprise the only debate team in the local squad that was able to make the trip during this season of senior comps and orals. In addition to debate, Bright will enter the extemporaneous speaking event and Baker will participate in the oral interpretation.

A total of 200 students from colleges and universities in seven states are taking part in the tournament.

Religious Club Seeks Charter

A new organization, called Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, has presented its constitution and petition for charter to Activities Board. This group functioned several years ago and is being revived. Their purpose as stated in the constitution is to "provide fellowship for Christian students."

Tom Carr is the president of this newly re-organized group.

author and international lecturer who is professor of political science at Nagpur University and past president of the Indian Political Science Association, is scheduled to address those attending tomorrow evening's banquet at the Marion Hotel.

The public is invited to attend panel discussions tomorrow at 9:30 and 2:30 in the Fine Arts Auditorium. "International Relations in the Northwest" and "Civil Liberties, Academic Freedom, and the New Conservatism," will be presented at the morning session, while "Academic Imperialism?—Abroad!" and "The Report of the Commission on Intergovernmental Affairs" will be discussed in the afternoon.

A banquet and executive committee meeting will be held this evening, with a luncheon and social hour to follow tomorrow.

Executive officers for the association are Dr. Linden Mander, University of Washington, president, and Professor A. Freeman Holmer of the Willamette political science department, vice-president.

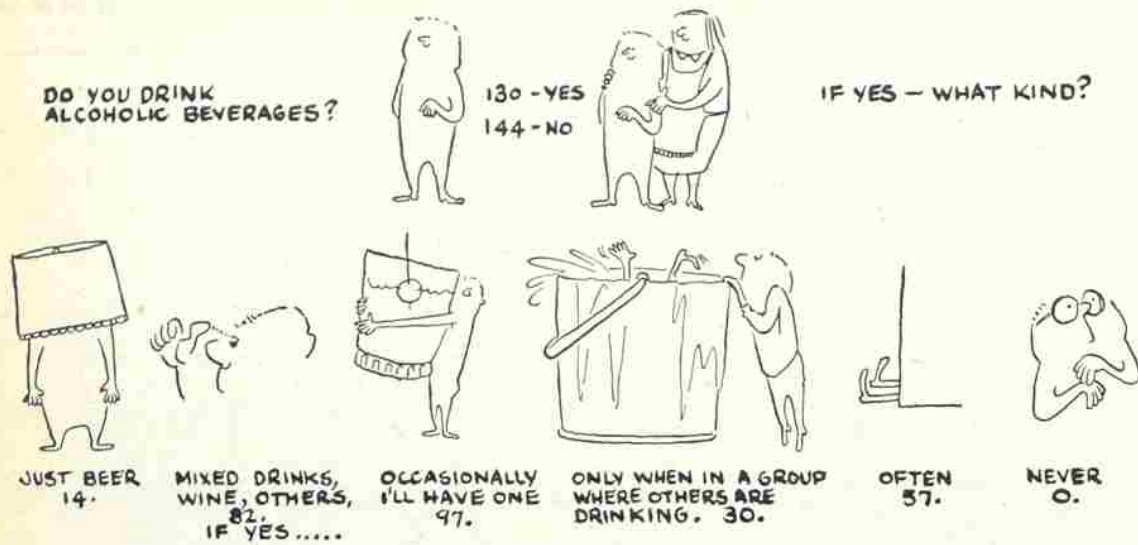

Student Council Action Names Orientation, Varieties Heads

Managers for next year's Orientation Week and Varsity Varieties were selected in this week's lengthy Student Council meeting.

Gordon McPherson was elected Orientation Week manager by the Council on the basis of a program which he promised would place more stress on the value of forming good study habits and give the new students an over-all picture of what is expected of them and what they can expect from the University. He stated that it would also be his aim to take some of the emphasis off rushing and provide more activities for those not going through rush.

Elected as co-directors of Varsity Varieties were Penny Lillies and Ted Primrose. Miss Lillies was assistant director last year and Primrose has had a part in the variety show since his freshman year.

A light-hearted, gay show is their aim with a much greater emphasis on lighting than has been used in the past. They pointed out that besides adding dramatic effect, the use of lighting would cut down on Varieties costs by reducing the amount of scenery needed. It is the hope of the directors that parts of the show will be able to travel to schools in the vicinity.

Now It Comes Out... Yes, We Dissipate

In a campus survey taken last semester by Paul Geisel, Nancy Peet, and Charlotte Stark, an effort was made to determine whether actual student conduct was in accord with University policy on the habits of smoking and drinking.

VARIOUS categories were ar-

Bird in Bush Out of Hand

While most sane, comfortable individuals were sleeping snug in their beds, Prof. Donald Breakey's zoology classes went on early morning bird-watching trips to Bush's Pasture recently.

WITH BINOCULARS in one hand and a notebook in the other, the nature-lovers made their journey from the campus to the pasture.

Many interesting things were observed on these trips. One girl observed a large bird flying overhead, but upon close scrutiny it was discovered to be an airplane. On one trip a hummingbird apparently resented the intrusion into his privacy and took out his resentment against humans in general and zoologists on field trips in particular by diving madly into the midst of the group.

IN ADDITION to planes and huffy hummingbirds the classes were able to see ring-necked pheasants, rock pigeons, rufous hummingbirds, red-shafted hummingbirds, violet green swallows, red breasted robins. A special attraction was the close observation of several red and white cars driven by members of General Motors Cavalcade of Progress.

ranged under each of the six questions: 1. Do you smoke? 2. Do you drink alcoholic beverages? 3. Should smoking be allowed on the Willamette campus other than just within the living organizations? 4. Should smoking be allowed on the Christian college campus? 5. Do you believe that people who drink while going to school should be expelled? 6. Do you believe in gambling for money?

Out of a total of 274 students polled (140 men, and 134 women) nearly one-half smoked (137 who did opposed to 139). A slight majority of 144 did not drink over the 130 who do. Married students polled numbered only 24, while 238 were single. Veterans also numbered 24. Greek affiliation nearly balanced, with 136 affiliated, and 134 independent. Religious membership trailed slightly with 131 belonging, and 143 outside the fold.

AMONG THE 137 smokers, there were no chain smokers, 61 who smoked often, 16 who smoked only in a group of smokers and 60 were occasional smokers. A sizeable majority of women polled did not smoke, while the balance was reversed with men (female: 57 yes, 75 no; male: 78 yes, 65 no). Class-wise, freshmen non-smokers lead slightly 57 to 47; also sophomores smoke less with a 34-27 majority; juniors reverse the score with 38 smoking and 25 abstaining; seniors do the same with a 22-17 lead of smokers.

Drinkers trailer the poll by a margin of 14, and women had only one-half as many drinkers as non-drinkers, while the men drinkers led with an 84-59 lead. Of the 84 men, 15 drank only beer. Here is a comparison between male and female drinkers by class:

	fr.	so.	jr.	sr.
Occasionally	5	8	17	24
Drinking in group	3	4	6	3
Often	1	2	0	4
	fr.	so.	jr.	sr.
Occasionally	10	9	7	5
Drinking in group	5	3	4	1
Often	0	8	0	0

As a group there were 97 who drank occasionally, 37 only in a group, 57 who drank often. 82 students drank mixed drinks.

Next week there will be presented the information on the relation between drinking, smoking and religious and Greek membership, as revealed by this poll.

SB Roundtable

The Responsibility of Every Student...

With the declarations and announcements last Wednesday in Student Council, the Student Body must now take note of the candidates, their views, and abilities. The quality of these people who are running is indeed a credit to the entire school.

Quite seriously though, I think that it is the responsibility of every student to be well-informed concerning each position and the respective candidates. Put these candidates on the spot with specific questions. They can take cross examination and will be glad to answer. If they couldn't, they would not be running for the office.

We have problems facing the campus that will continue for some time - and they are without a set answer. Of course, there are also the perennial problems: find out what the candidates think about them. Better than that, give them your opinion for they must reflect the entire student body when correlating a problem and a solution.

Consequently the question of who can do the job best is paramount for consideration. It is not one of the Greeks vs Greeks, Independents vs. Greeks or any other combination in a contest. If we all make up our minds to go to the polls and vote plus giving the new officers our support, it will make their job much easier.

As you have noticed in The Collegian, and heard in announcements, the petitions are due for numerous managerships. These are positions that require no previous experience other than a sincere interest in doing the job. Everyone is eligible. A managership can be a rich and rewarding experience. If you are interested, don't hesitate to apply. Dale Greenlee and Doug Houser have written an excellent summary of each position that is available to students... come in and read them.

At times many of our activities are looked upon as a lot of work. However, if we go into May Weekend and Mock Convention with the attitude of having a lot of fun while still learning, we all will enjoy them more. Perhaps an analogy can be derived from the faculty's presentation in convocation Tuesday. As a professional act, the critic probably would not give them a terrific rating, but the way they let their hair down and had a good time is significant. Perhaps we do need to let our hair down a little more and gain the effects of a spirited activity. If our activities are to continue, we should get away from this work attitude and derive from their real purpose, that of enjoyment and pleasure plus social education, on an all-campus scale.

See you at the polls!

Lecture Poll Brings Ideas

Dr. Humphrey Lee's recent lectures brought a favorable response from the campus, a Collegian poll on this first in the series of lectures indicated.

MOST STUDENTS felt the series (brought to the University through the George Atkinson Foundation) was definitely worth-while and hoped "to see as good a speaker again next year." One senior woman suggested that new outlooks would be gained by each lecture series. "New ideas are what we, as students, need," she emphasized.

SUGGESTIONS for a future series, however, were numerous: When asked if the topic for next year should be the philosophy of religion, most students commented that it would be good to have a different subject each year. A freshman woman suggested that four topics be chosen and rotated such as is the theme for Freshman Glee.

A student committee to work directly with Pres. Smith in choosing the speaker and more extensive campus publicity were among other ideas. Students also voiced a desire for coordination between the lecture week and academic assignments, so that evening lectures could be more enjoyed.

a most valuable asset

Whoever it was that first said "the best things in life are free" certainly had as much wisdom as poetry in that thought. This was strikingly demonstrated to Willamette students recently by the first of the annual Willamette University Lecture Series.

Dr. Humphrey Lee is one of the most noted men of letters in the country and is much sought after as a speaker. He is a recognized religious authority, educator, and author of a number of books. To have this outstanding man on our campus did not cost us one thin dime. His presence here was a gift from the Atkinson family through a grant from the Atkinson Fund.

Dr. Lee's addresses were well received both at the evening programs and at the morning convocations. His delivery was sparkling, humorous, informative, and highly entertaining. It was certainly a rare privilege to have a man of this calibre speak on our campus—for "free."

While these lectures were "free" to us, we must remember that they were financially made available through a grant from the Atkinson Fund. This fund was established by the George Atkinson family, a family that has long been associated with this University by a long list of benevolent actions. This Lecture Series, we believe, is a great addition to the academic atmosphere of our school and is certainly worthy of bearing the name of the Atkinson family.

The Collegian feels assured that the Atkinson's gift will prove to be one of the most valuable assets the University has. And we also believe that it will receive increased support and enthusiasm from the student body as the value of this "gift" becomes recognized.

Varied Courses Offered With Well-Filled Summer Schedule

Plans for this year's well-filled summer session call for a full slate of education courses for students on campus and for teachers desiring to work for state certificates. Courses will be offered in biology, chemistry, economics, English, history, political science, sociology, speech and drama, music and education.

Private lessons will be available on the organ, piano, violin, and wood wind instruments, in addition to regular courses in the College of Music. These courses are for graduate credit toward master of music education degrees.

Three workshop programs for credit are to be offered in public school activities, in speech, and in drama, in cooperation with the Pentacle Theater.

A non-credit workshop in voice will be sponsored by the National Organization of Teachers of Singing from July 30 to August 3, in which outstanding leaders from various parts of the country will take part.

Two foreign trips are being offered this summer, one of them to France under the direction of Dr. Marion Morange, for credit only. The other is a political science and law tour to various European capitals under the direction of Dr. Reginald Parker, for credit or non-credit. Information can be obtained from these faculty members.

Degree Petitions Due

The Registrar's office this week issued an urgent request to graduating seniors who have not yet turned in their degree petitions to do so immediately because some length of time is required for their processing.

Johnson Receives Cadet Recognition

Craig Johnson, freshman from Hillsboro, was selected as Basic Cadet of the Month by a committee from the ROTC department, which sponsors the contest.

Johnson was chosen from the eight candidates from each flight in the Willamette wing. Other candidates were Lon Tetrick, Bob Cotner, Bob Griffin, John Corson, Pete Leveton, John Kelly, and Terry Lesh.

Johnson, an active student in cadet affairs, is a member of the Silver Wings drill team.

Besides receiving a letter of commendation from Lieutenant Colonel Norman Todd, professor of air science, Johnson will be given an hour of free instruction aboard a Cessna 120 at McNary Field. All winners will also be given this opportunity for flying lessons, compliments of George Krietzberg of Krietzberg Aviation, who gives lessons to anyone else for $10 per hour including plane rentals.

Sheila Laue to Head Theater

Two Willamette students were elected to head the Pentacle Theater, local community drama group, during its 1956 summer season. Sheila Laue, a member of the junior class, was acclaimed president by a unanimous vote. Bill Smith, senior, was chosen vice-president.

WU Delegates Get 140 Votes

One hundred forty votes in the Mock Democratic Convention to be held here May 11-12 will go to Willamette's delegation of 27 which will represent Washington, Oregon, California, and the U. S. territories.

Heading the Oregon delegation for Willamette will be Paul Aldinger; Dave Finlay will be chairman of the California delegation and Kay Ruberg will take charge of the Washington delegation.

The Puerto Rican, Alaskan, Hawaiian, Canal Zone, Washington, D. C., and Virgin Island delegations will be headed by Delpha Short, John Rehffuss, Roger Hewitt, Fran Batchelder, Bob Batchelder and Millie Tower, respectively.

Plans are taking shape for general conduct of the convention to which University of Oregon and Oregon State will each send 32 delegates; Portland State and Willamette, each 27; Lewis and Clark, 20; Portland University, 19; Linfield, 18; Pacific, Oregon College of Education and Reed, each 17; Southern Oregon College of Education and Marylhurst, each 16.

Bullard to Head New Song Fest

Bill Bullard has been named chairman of a committee to coordinate and organize an all campus Song Fest.

Bullard brought up the suggestion in Activities Board where it was referred to the living organizations for opinions. A majority of the living organizations were in favor of the all-campus sing and said they would cooperate.

Dr. Paul Trueblood has consented to lead the Song Fest. A date will be set by Bullard and his committee for the near future, according to Neil Causbie, first vice president of the Student Body.

Parker to Attend Law Conference

Prof. Reginald Parker of the College of Law left Thursday for a two day conference today and tomorrow of Western law schools. Conference host is Hastings College of Law, a part of the University of California. San Francisco is the site of the conference.

Dr. Parker has been asked to be moderator of a panel discussion on "Teaching Jurisprudence in Western Law Schools." Jurisprudence, Professor Parker explained, is legal philosophy and it was his opinion that it was much neglected by many law schools, especially small ones.

Other members selected for the Pentacle executive committee were Al Laue, treasurer; Norma Petersen, secretary; Sue Juba, historian; Fran Fountain and Jim Jaqua, members at large. Laue and Mrs. Juba are Willamette alumni.

Three of the Willamette faculty were appointed to direct the five plays of the summer season. Robert Putnam and Mrs. Murco Ringnald will each direct two plays during the summer. Carl Ritchie will direct the musical comedy as the final production of the season.

This year the Pentacle Theater

Orlebeck, Schaad Receive Stipends

Seniors Ron Orlebeck and Lewis Schaad learned recently that they have received scholarships for graduate study.

Lewis Schaad, senior scholar in chemistry, has been awarded a $1,400 graduate assistantship to the Oregon State College chemistry department. He plans to accept the scholarship and perhaps enter the teaching field.

While at Willamette Schaad has been active in Phi Eta Sigma, Alpha Phi Omega, band, and his living organization, Baxter Hall.

Ron Orlebeck is receiving a graduate assistantship to American University in Washington, D. C., for the field of history.

He will be doing special work there on his grant of approximately $60 a month, plus tuition and books. It is renewable at the discretion of the University. Orlebeck is senior scholar in history.

will once again take part in the Willamette Summer School according to president Laue. "The Pentacle Theater is glad to cooperate with the University in offering a multiplicity of dramatic experience and theater operation for the summer students," she stated.

Vice President Smith, in charge of membership, stated the Theatre is looking for new members. "We are going to need actors, costume makers, painters, hostesses and all sorts of helpers during the season. If there is anyone interested in theater there is a great need for their participation in the group. Membership for individuals is two dollars a year or for the family three dollars per year. We certainly hope to have many Willamette students as members this year."

Big Sisters Needed

Big sisters are still needed to assist the YWCA Big-Little Sister Commission in its program for the orientation of incoming freshmen women, according to co-chairmen June Lytle and Shirley McCauley.

Sign-up lists are posted in the women's living organizations, and town students may contact either Miss Lytle or Miss McCauley.

Memberships are still available. Carole Warren, membership chairman, pointed out. Cost of membership in the Campus Y has been set at 50 cents.

Jason Nine to Meet Cats

Lewis Men to Play 3 Games

Coach John Lewis and the Willamette baseball team will play their fourth, fifth and sixth conference games of the season when they take on the Linfield Wildcats.

The Bearcats will meet the Wildcats in a double header tomorrow afternoon at McMinnville and play the third game of the series on the 23rd of April.

COACH ROY HELSER and his Wildcat crew dropped a 9-6 decision to Oregon College of Education early last week. Earlier in the year the Wildcats dropped the Oregon State Beavers 5-4 and then the Beavers barely eked out a 3-2 decision over them several days ago.

HELSEY WILL be counting on a strong pitching staff to get him and his squad through the Willamette game. Senior Bob Diller and Dick Duerr are a couple of boys with nifty curve balls to throw at the Jasons. Another ace pitcher Helser may call on is Carl Meeusen who handcuffed OSC in Linfield's first meeting with them. Marv Scherp is also another chucker who has been sparkling for the Wildcats in relief roles.

To supply the offensive power Linfield will have the big bats of Byron Phillips, a nifty ball player from Portland, and Jerry Beier, a veteran.

LEWIS WILL start either Gino Pieretti or ace right hander Brad Lucas. He may also call on the services of veterans Benny Holt and Dan Feller along with big Pete Reed.

In the slugging department Willamette will have Jerry McCallister and Ed Lipscomb. Another boy with a big bat is Frank Caruso.

Bearcats Open Track Season, Meet Linfield, Portland State

Willamette university's track squad travels to McMinnville this afternoon to meet the Linfield Wildcats in the first conference track meet of the season.

On the 24th of April the Bearcats host the Vikings from Portland State College in a dual meet. These two meets mark the third and fourth of the season for the Cats.

Willamette should be the favorite in the conference opener over the Wildcats, who dropped a close decision to Pacific several days ago.

Coach Hal Smith will be counting heavily on the talents of Luther Strong and Dick Miller to lead his Linfield crew. Strong runs the 100, 220, and is on the mile relay team. Miller is a miler and an 880 man.

Linfield's mile relay squad ran the distance in the Pacific meet in the fast time of 3:35. Strong runs the 220 around 23 flat and Miller gets down around 2:05 in the 880.

Coach Ted Ogdahl will have his victory hopes pinned mainly on the talents of Dean Benson in both the high and low hurdles, Dale Hartman in the 880 and mile and Larry Thompson, the do-everything man, in the field events.

Looking good in practice and in recent track meets have been big Dale Greenlee, the record holder in the discus and Jim Anderson, freshman, in the sprints. Dick Hazlett has also been looking good in the javelin and he and Thompson should be one, two in that event.

Tennis Squad To Meet UO, Lose To OSC

Willamette's tennis squad will meet the University of Oregon in a match at Eugene this afternoon.

Bearcat net men close a busy week of tennis today. Tuesday of this week the racketters met Pacific and then hosted Lewis and Clark on Thursday. The Collegian did not receive the results of the two matches by press time.

Willamette tennis hopes were dampened somewhat by the injury of top-seeded veteran Bud Mull in an auto accident near Klamath Falls. Mull played in last week's match against Oregon State and the two matches this week should be in good shape when the Cats meet Oregon this afternoon.

Other members of the Conference champion team are Ron Butler, Ian MacIver, and Norm Cocking. The doubles team is composed of Butler and Mull along with Myers and MacIver.

Coach Les Sparks is also very pleased with his crop of freshmen tennis players. Members of the freshman squad include Royal Keith and Clyde MacIver of Yakima; Andy Kuehn, San Carlos; Ted Neff, Mt. Vernon, Wash.; Stan Culy, Medford; Gerald Minifie, Salem, and Del Cummings, Los Altos, Calif.

Meyers Places Win for Cats

Coach Les Sparks' Willamette tennis team opened their 1956 season with a 5-1 loss to the powerful Oregon State College Beavers. The match took place this past weekend.

Ray Meyers was the only winner for the Jasons as he whipped OSC's Pete Overton 6-4, 3-6, 6-3. Meyers also doubled up with Ian MacIver in the doubles.

OTHER RESULTS in the match found Norm Merrill downing injured Bud Mull 0-6, 6-3, 6-3. Bob Jensen of Oregon State had a hard time beating Ron Butler 6-4, 4-6, 9-7. MacIver was edged by Dick Jacobsen 9-7 in the first set and then Jacobsen came back to take the second set 6-3. Norm Cocking went down to defeat before OSC's Larry Newman 6-3, 6-3, 6-1.

IN THE DOUBLES Merrill and Overton defeated MacIver and Meyers 5-7, 6-4, 6-3.

Bearcats Split Double Header; Thinclads Whip Portland U

Willamette opened its 1956 baseball season by splitting a twin bill with the Pacific Badgers. The Bearcats topped Pacific 7-4 in the first game and then the Badgers bounced back to take the nightcap 9-3.

The games, played last Saturday afternoon at McCulloch stadium, found the Cats taking the lead in early stages of both games.

In the first game Willamette hopped on Badger choppers for three runs in the first frame and four in the third. Pacific's big inning came in the eighth when Dick Thorne smashed a three run homer.

Gino Pieretti went the full distance on the mound for the Bearcats. Pieretti gave up only six hits along with the three runs the Badgers scored.

The Bearcat runs in the first inning came when Terry Ziegelman, Ed Lipscomb and Dale Patton all singled. Jerry McCallister followed with a smashing double that scored all three runners.

In the big fourth frame Gene Nelson led off with a walk and Lipscomb also drew a pass when he was hit with a pitched ball. McCallister came up again and duplicated his double of the first inning, this time scoring only two runs. Vic Backlund, Willamette first sacker, scored McCallister with a single and Ziegelman scored Backlund with another singleton accounting for Willamette's four runs.

Dan Feller took the mound for the Cats in the nightcap and gave up five runs in five innings. Benny Holt took over for Feller and was quickly touched for four runs when Gary Gehrts poled out a four run homer. Pete Reed finished up the last inning and a third for the Jasons and blanked the Badgers.

Pacific's first run came in the first inning, but their big innings were the fifth and sixth when they scored four runs in each of these frames.

Willamette held the lead in the second inning when Frank Caruso, freshman third sacker, drove out a triple, scoring teammate Backlund. Caruso scored when Wes Malcolm sacrificed him home.

The Bearcats final run of the game came in the fifth on a walk. It was the third run of the day for Terry Ziegelman, and was made on a long fly ball by Gary Burd.

Greenlee Sets New Record

ONE TEAM won, one team lost, one team didn't show up and one record was broken in last Saturday's Portland University-Willamette track meet.

The Bearcats came out on top of the meet with 84 points and the Portland Pilots were on the bottom of the pile with 48 points.

REED COLLEGE was the team that did not appear at the meet in what was originally scheduled as a three-way affair.

The record that was broken was in the discus and the man who broke it was Dale Greenlee. Greenlee set a new school record when he heaved the platter 137' 7" to break the old record set by Leighton Gilson in 1953.

ALL IN ALL, Willamette took nine firsts and completely dominated in three events. Three Bearcats each placed first in two events. They were Dean Benson, Dale Hartman, and Larry Thompson.

The Pilots only double winner was Wendel Walsley who chalked up a :22.8 in the 220.

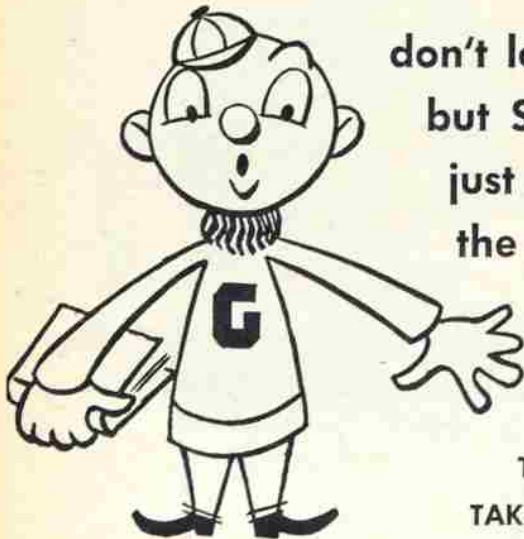

BENSON RAN a :14.5 in the high hurdles and turned in a :24.2 in the lows. Hartman, who won in both the mile and half mile, stopped the watch with a 2:07 in the 880. Besides winning the high jump and pole vault, versatile Larry Thompson grabbed a second in the javelin and a third in the broad jump.

Varsity Queen to Be Named At Formal Dance Tomorrow

Nancy Wyly, Polley Dougherty, Gail Beyer, Sandi Harris, and Martha Eagleson have been named members of the 1956 Varsity Ball court. The queen will be announced and crowned at the formal dance, held tomorrow evening from 9 to 12 in the gymnasium.

Blond and blue-eyed Gail Beyer calls Hong Kong, China, home. This 5 foot 4½ inch miss is a pre-nursing major and her interests include archery, skiing, and dancing. Gail's escort is Del Cummings.

Gracious Nancy Wyly, formerly from Portland, now calls Lake Grove home... where she can take advantage of living on Lake Oswego and swim and water ski. Nancy loves tennis too. She is a political science major and will be escorted by Vernon Ryles from the U of O.

Sandi Harris radiates when she tells of her hobbies of golf, sewing, and painting. She hails from Redwood City, Calif., and has lived in Canada and L.A. for one year and Nevada for four years. Gary Schmalke will escort Sandi.

Polley Dougherty loves all music—"everything except hillbilly." Southern California-situated Cobina is her home and the attractive music major enjoys dancing. Polley's escort is Bob Withers.

Sparkling Martha Eagleson from Tigard, Oregon, has lived in Portland for twelve years and in Texas for four years. Skiing and sewing are her favorite pastimes and she is majoring in education. Martha will be escorted by David Peterson.

Vern Coates, general chairman for the dance, announced that tickets, costing $1.50 per couple, are on sale in the men's living organizations and in the Student Body office. Bill DeSousa's band has been selected to provide the music for the evening.

Committee chairmen include Paul Edwards, decorations; Dick Artz, pictures; Bud Mull, gifts; and Tom Loree and Dan Feller, publicity. The freshmen members have been unanimously selected to provide the clean-up committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Lestle J. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ogdahl, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Long have been selected as chaperones for the evening. Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean Mark Hatfield, Dean Regina Ewalt, and Dean and Mrs. Robert Gregg have been invited as honored guests.

The Social Scoop

By FLOSSY HODGE

Beldon Owens, president of the Law School student body, reports that the first Wife's Day was an event of last Tuesday, April 17. Twenty-five wives and one wife-to-be attended classes with their husbands.

Alex Byler, vice president and social chairman, welcomed the women, who were later served coffee and doughnuts in the schools basement. The wives of members of all three classes observed senior trial practice and the special day was concluded by Dean Seward P. Reese's pertinent address on available positions in the field of law.

By general consent, Wife's Day will be an annual social and educational occasion at the Law School.

Duane Hines has been elected president of the Beta Theta Pi pledge class and Farrell Hyde will assist him as vice president. Robert Taylor will serve as secretary-treasurer and Bob Griffen as sergeant-at-arms.

Recently appointed officers of the Beta Theta Pi active chapter include Jim Person, historian; Jim Cain, rush chairman; Bob Campbell, assistant treasurer; Bill Weaver, public relations; Doug Houser, political coordinator; Dave Barrows, parliamentarian; Ron Kingsley, song leader; Dave Landis, assistant song leader; Jim Sitzman, chaplain; Dick Chanda, scholarship chairman, and Tom Gail, intra-mural manager.

Alpha Lambda Delta, scholastic honorary for freshmen women, announced the election of Joan Sherrill as president for the coming year. Barbara Clark, vice president; Anna Rees, secretary; Sandy Wagner, treasurer; and Rosemary Gilbert, historian, are the other new officers.

Startling passers-by is the sign gracing one of Willamette's men's dormitories.

Harry James Moore, Esquire, has been named president of the Sigma Chi pledge class and Bill Joseph has been chosen vice president. Other officers include Jim Mason, secretary; and Dave Gaskins, sergeant-at-arms.

Choir Members Return Home

Members of the Willamette capella choir who returned Monday evening at 11 o'clock from their second concert tour of the year will probably remember the trip for a long time. The group, accompanied by their director, Don Gleckler and his family, presented concerts in Vancouver, Seattle, Tacoma, Kelso, and Portland, and were well-received by audiences everywhere they went.

The sunny skies of Washington smiled down on the group throughout a majority of the time. After they sang their first concerts in Vancouver Friday, the choir left early Saturday morning for Seattle. They arrived in Seattle around noon and the afternoon was given to them to spend as they pleased. Most of the group went sightseeing. The choir was made aware of the nearness of McChord Field to Seattle during their Sunday morning concert when several jets roared over the church, nearly drowning out the choir and soloists.

Monday afternoon's concert turned out to be somewhat of a surprise for the director, Don Gleckler. This was the choir's last school concert and they were determined to make it an unusual one. Before the choir presented Page Bailey's original number, "Prayer and Alleluia," Mr. Gleckler explained that it was written by a young man in the choir who voiced an interest in writing such a number for the tour last year while a junior in the school of music.

He then introduced Page, who usually directs the number, only to see his ten-year-old daughter Susan, wearing a long black conductor's jacket and glasses, walk to the podium and direct the choir in Gail Kubik's light arrangement of "Oh Dear, What Can the Matter Be."

The choir's merriment was not to end with this incident, however. During the final concert at Rose City Park Methodist Church, several members of the choir were surprised, by a weak riser that finally collapsed after the sixth or seventh coed had walked tremblingly over it.

Faculty Attends Law School Personnel Meet Praised By American Bar

Several Willamette faculty members participated in the seventh annual Institute of the International Association of Personnel Employment Security at the state capitol recently. Dr. Robert Gatke, professor of political science, gave the invocation and Dean Robert Gregg welcomed the 125 delegates.

Dr. John Rademaker, professor of sociology, spoke to the group about the "Social Significance of Unemployment Insurance," and Dr. George Martin, professor of education, Dr. Charles Derthick and Noel Kaestner, professors of psychology, took part in a panel discussion concerning "Trends in Testing and Counseling."

"Willamette University is doing a distinctive job, as a church related school offering legal education within the framework of Christian ethics, which state and private schools lack." So stated Dr. John B. Hervey of the American Bar Association in the capacity of inspecting the nation's law schools.

Harvey told Willamette law dean Seward Reese that he would report to the Council of Legal Education that Willamette is entitled to full support of the Methodist church and the whole law profession.

YWCA-YMCA Schedule Meeting

A joint meeting of the campus YWCA and YMCA is scheduled for Tuesday noon in the Y-Teen room of the YWCA. Feature of the meeting will be a film on the leadership training session to be held at Seabeck near Everett, Washington.

Foreign students from all over the world attend this conference as well as representatives from colleges of the Northwest.

The meeting is open to all students, according to Jerry Brackins, publicity chairman.

Glee Records on Sale

Glee records will go on sale in the Student Body office next week. Students who have ordered their records may pick up their records on payment of fifty cents. There will be a few extra records for students who were unable to order records during the campus sales.

Prof. Lottick To Head East

Dr. Kenneth Lottick, associate professor of education and coordinator of audio-visual aids at Willamette University, will leave for Chicago today to serve as an accredited juror and panel member at the Golden Reel Film Festival of the American Film Assembly meeting April 23 to 27 at the Morrison Hotel.

The Golden Reel Film Festival is the national showcase for the best of the year's 16 millimeter films. Selected films compete for the Golden Reel Award which is comparable to the Oscar in 35mm films. The final judging at the American Film Assembly is done by qualified jurors who consider each film's accomplishment of its stated purpose in terms of its intended audience, giving consideration to the technical side of the production.

The American Film Assembly has proved itself, in the two short years of its history, to be the 16mm event of the year. The 1955 event was held at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, and assembled several thousand persons.

Following attendance at the Film Festival, Dr. Lottick will serve as an observer at the State Department of Education's evaluation of the University of Oregon program in Secondary Education in Eugene.

Morse to Appear

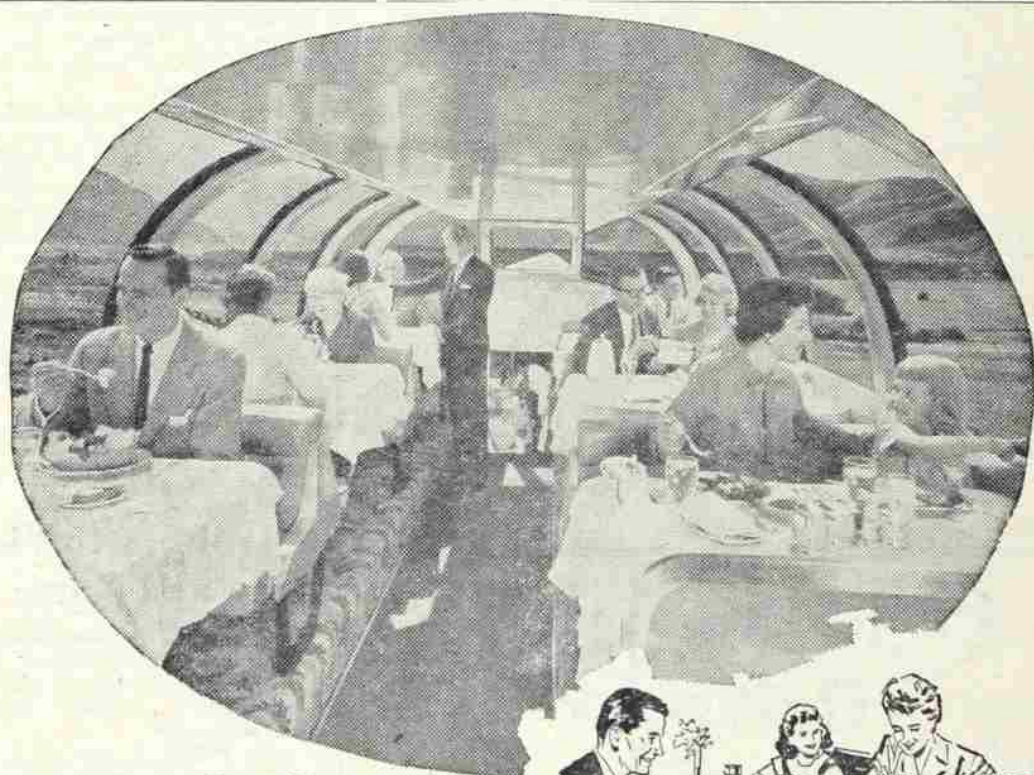

Senator Wayne Morse will speak at an informal coffee hour next Wednesday from 10 to 11 a. m. in Baxter Hall, according to Paul Edwards, president of the Young Democrats who are sponsoring the event. No arrangements have been made as yet for class conflicts.
