WILLAMETTE  UNIVERSITY

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY
Chamber Choir and
Willamette Singers

Directed by Wallace Long

Willamette Chamber Choir Program

Alleluia Hans Leo Hassler, Arr. Robert S. Hines

Translation

Alleluia,

Praise and call unto the Lord, our God.

Let all people serve Him in little and great things.

Know ye that the Lord, our God, omnipotent

Reigns over all the heav'ns.

Praise and honor, be glad and joyful,

And lastly come and glorify always.

Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen Johannes Brahms

From: "A German Requiem"

Piano: Western-Li Summerton

Translation

How lovely is Thy dwelling place,

O Lord of Hosts!

For my soul, it longeth, yet fainteth for the courts of the Lord;

my soul and body crieth out,

yea, for the living God.

O blest are they that dwell within Thy house;

they praise Thy name evermore!

Peace I Leave With You Edwin M. Willmington

Gloria John Leavitt

Piano: Western-Li Summerton

Translation

Glory to God in the highest,

and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise You, we bless You,

We adore You, we glorify You,

We give You thanks for Your great glory,

O Magnum Mysterium..... Kevin A. Memley

Translation

O great mystery

And wondrous sacrament,

That animals should see the newborn Lord

Lying in their manger.

Blessed is the Virgin whose womb was worthy

To bear the Lord Jesus Christ. Alleluia.

DR. WALLACE H. LONG JR.

Wallace Long has been director of choral activities at Willamette University in Salem, Oregon since 1983. He received his Master of Music degree and Doctorate in Choral Conducting from the University of Arizona at Tucson. Long founded the Willamette Master Chorus in 1985 and was its director for the first 15 years of its existence.

Long sings professionally with Male Ensemble Northwest. In 1993 he became a member of the Festival Singers of the Robert Shaw Choral Institute, performing at Carnegie Hall in January 1994. That summer, he traveled to Souillac, France, to record two compact discs of contemporary choral literature for Shaw. In 1996, he joined Shaw's Festival Singers for performances of the Verdi Requiem in Carnegie, and the Rachmaninoff Vespers in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City. In summer 2003, he became a member of the Oregon Bach Festival professional chorus.

Groups under his direction have performed for state conferences of the Oregon Music Educators Association, Northwestern Regional Conventions for the American Choral Directors Association, national conventions of the International Association of Jazz Educators in New Orleans and Boston, and the National Convention of the Music Educators national conference in Indianapolis, Ind. Willamette Singers, his vocal jazz group, has performed at the national convention of the American Choral Directors Association in New York, Chicago, and Dallas and has taken two performance tours to Japan. In the summer of 2003, his Willamette University Chamber Choir participated in a performance tour of South Africa at the request of Archbishop Desmond Tutu.

A frequent choral/vocal adjudicator, clinician and guest conductor, he is an active supporter of public school music in the Northwest. In May 2006 he conducted a 250-voice choir and professional orchestra in a performance of Haydn's "Mass in the Time of War" in Carnegie Hall.

Willamette Chamber Choir

The Willamette Chamber Choir is a 46-voice ensemble open by audition to all Willamette University students. A wide variety of literature selected from the Renaissance through the contemporary period is studied and performed each year. The group tours annually throughout the Northwest and is frequently invited to perform at music conventions and workshops held by the American Choral Directors Association, Music Educators National Conference and Oregon Music Educators Association. In the fall of 2005, the Chamber Choir had the honor of singing at a reception for Gen. Colin Powell. In March 2006, the Chamber Choir performed at the American Choral Directors Association Northwest Regional Convention in Portland, Oregon, and in May 2006, the Willamette University Chamber Choir traveled to New York City to perform with Long in Carnegie Hall. The Chamber Choir's most recent CD, The New Moon, was released in 2010. In March of 2012, the Chamber Choir performed at the American Choral Directors Association Northwest Convention in Seattle.

Willamette Singers

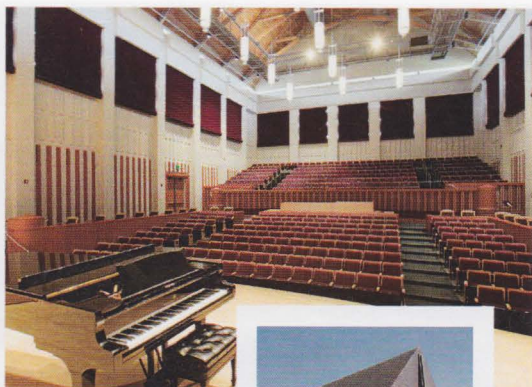

The Willamette Singers is a 17-member ensemble that explores music particularly suitable to small groups of highly skilled and flexible vocalists. Willamette University is one of the few four-year universities in Oregon that offer experience in vocal jazz. The Willamette Singers participate in a yearly tour and have been invited to perform for many regional, national and international conventions of the American Choral Directors Association, the Oregon Music Educators Association, the Music Educators National conference and the International Association of Jazz Educators. In spring of 2013, the Willamette Singers performed at the American Choral Directors Association National Convention in Dallas, Texas. In 2014, they performed at the ACDA Northwest Regional Convention in Seattle. The Singers' 17th CD, Love, My Old Friend, was released in the fall of 2014. The CD was recorded in the famous Studio X in Seattle.

Other Vocal Ensembles

Male Ensemble Willamette is an all-male performance group that sings a full spectrum of vocal music from classical to doo-wop and barbershop.

Voce Femminile is a choral organization that explores and performs works written for treble voices from all historical periods and styles. In February of 2008, Voce performed at the American Choral Directors Association Northwest Regional Convention in Vancouver, British Columbia.

Willamette Master Chorus is a 70-voice group whose membership is drawn from the Salem community. This organization has grown to be an exceptional performing ensemble, offering large scale choral/orchestral masterworks.

Music At Willamette

The Willamette University Department of Music offers intensive professional training in a liberal arts setting. Music-making is at the heart of the department's work. Majors and non-majors alike can choose from a wide range of performance opportunities including choral, orchestral, wind and jazz ensembles and small groups of all types. Willamette students have access to expert private voice and instrumental instruction with professional performing artists. Music courses from advanced music theory to conducting and from jazz history to studio recording are offered. Summer grants and study opportunities give the ambitious student an opportunity to extend their work.

The music department annually serves 300-400 students. Willamette offers the Bachelor of Music (BM) degree in performance, contemporary improvisation, composition and music education, as well as offering the Bachelor of Arts (BA) in music degree.

The Mary Stuart Rogers Music Center houses the 450 seat Jerry E. Hudson Concert Hall, the James W. Rogers Rehearsal Room, the Roger W. Rogers Art Gallery, as well as faculty offices and practice rooms. This beautiful building is a symbol of Willamette's commitment to the future of the arts, and to its students. The commitment was renewed with the opening of Ford Hall in 2009, a LEED Gold certified building designed to support arts technology. Ford provides music students access to a multi-track recording studio suite, a production studio and a 15-workstation electronic music lab.

About Willamette University

Annual production of Christmas in Hudson

Founded in 1842, Willamette was the first university established in the western United States. Oregon's capital city is home to Willamette University's 2,700 students and 300 faculty members across its undergraduate college and graduate schools of law and management.

Willamette University's faculty is known nationally for excellence in teaching and scholarship. The Oregon Professor of the Year honor has been earned by Willamette faculty members 11 times during the award's 25-year history. With an undergraduate student-faculty ratio of 11:1, students engage directly with these inspiring educators and mentors.

"Not unto ourselves alone are we born," is Willamette's motto and guiding principle, fostering a culture of collaboration and a shared sense of responsibility.

More than 100 student-led organizations enrich campus life. Tokyo International University of America, which is co-located at Willamette, integrates undergraduate faculty and students into the university community to live and learn side-by-side with Willamette students.

The Oregon State Capitol offers unparalleled access to law and policy in virtually every field, and Willamette's longstanding partnerships provide opportunities for collaborative research, internships and externships.

After graduating, Willamette students go on to impressive careers and lives of achievement and meaning. Among the university's 25,000 alumni are a Nobel Prize-winning economist, two secretaries of state, U.S. senators, members of Congress, 15 Oregon Supreme Court justices and nearly 300 Peace Corps volunteers.
