PRICE FIVE CENTS

7,000 EXAM. BOOKS BEAR HONOR CODE

BLUE KEY STARTS MOVE

Formal Pledge Service Fraternity to be Feature of Chapel Service

The Honor Code will be printed on 7,000 exam books as the result of action taken by the Blue Key fraternity today in its cooperation with the administration. The fraternity has taken this method for making the code respected. The faculty is not satisfied with the present working of the code, but it hopes that this plan will bring the code in closer contact with the student.

Plans were also made for a formal pledge service to be held in chapel when the order initiates next spring. The service will be observed for the purpose of honorary recognition.

The faculty has been dissatisfied with the working of the Honor Code system this year, and the new plan is designed to impress upon the students the conditions under which they are to conduct their examinations. This plan is now being used by several other colleges according to President of the Blue Key, Ivan White. The increased cost of the books will be borne by the bookstore and the price will remain the same as before.

Plans were also made at the meeting for the pledge service. Inasmuch as the organization exists—as a campus service organization—the initiatory service will take place as a feature of the chapel program in the Spring. The service, itself, will be an honorary recognition of the new members.

A committee is now taking steps to promote the construction of the backstops on the new tennis courts. These backstops will have to be in position before the Conference tournament which will be played here in May. Further time in the meeting was given over to the discussion of the lack of social activities on the campus.

STUDENTS DISCUSS RACIAL PROBLEMS

Through the efforts of the World Fellowship Committee, a group of students met in Christo Cottage Wednesday evening to discuss the furthering of the friendship between the foreign students and the other students of Willamette. Ruth Margaret Hall was in charge of the meeting, and Mrs. Viola Price Franklin, and Leland Chaplin were guests.

An informal discussion of the ways in which the students from the United States can come into closer contact with those from foreign countries, and can learn more of international relationships, was the principal work of the evening.

DRAMATIC SOCIETY TO PRESENT ONE-ACT PLAY

"Thank You Doctor," a one-act play by Gilbert Emery, will be given on January 25, by the Snik-poh Dramatic Society of Salem High school. This play, the third of a series of six one-act plays to be given during the assembly period, will be directed by Miss Beatrice Olin.

EAGLE WINGS SUBJECT OF LAST Y. W. MEETING

"Eagle Wings" was the theme developed in the weekly Y. W. C. A. meeting Thursday, January 10, in Lausanne Hall. The meeting was very informal, the girls being seated before the open fire on Sudan rugs. The theme was worked out with a piano solo played by Edith Findley, prayer poems read by Rae Windust, and Marie Messersmith, a talk by the leader, Margaret Schreiber, group singing, and discussion.

GRADUATING CLASS LOSES OVER HALF

38% Original Number Ready For Graduation. Many
Out. Others Change

The Senior class which will graduate next June represents only thirty-eight per cent of its Freshman enrollment according to statistics prepared by R. A. McCully, registrar. There was a decrease of thirty per cent at the close of the Freshman year. The greatest loss occurred at the end of the Sophomore year when approximately thirty-five per cent of the enrollment dropped out, while sixteen per cent were lost between the Junior and Senior years.

A comparison of these figures with those compiled by the registrars of colleges and universities throughout the country show that the graduating class ranks among the average.

Of the sixty members of the Senior class thirty-five are women and thirty-three are men. This ratio has been very close during the four years. The freshman class was composed of ninety-three men and eighty-seven women; the Sophomore class of sixty-eight women, and fifty-seven men, while men, and women tied with forty-one each in the Junior year.

TWENTY-FIVE HAVE COLLEGIAN AWARD

An old English gold "C" in a form of a pin is awarded each year to those members of the Collegian staff who deserve special recognition for excellent work, and for faithful, punctual service. Last year sixteen gold "C's" were presented for work on the editorial or managerial staff.

On the campus at present there are about twenty-five men, and women who are possessors of "C's." These include, beside the editor, and manager of the Collegian, Alice Lane, Mary Clansfield, Sarah Poor, Beatrice Lockhart, Jean White, Georgia Fairbanks, Meredith Woodworth, Margaret Pro, Katherine Everett, Beatrice Hartung, George Poor, Steve Margler, Emily Brown, Everett Gardner, Gaynelle Beckett, Van Bateson, Paul Ackerman, Helen Curry, Bob McGilvra, Ray Miller, and Louise Brown.

PRESIDENT DONEY NOW SCHOLARSHIP ADVISER

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney has been requested to become a member of the National Advisory Committee for the Lincoln Scholarship Fund. This fund is an endowment and its purpose is to help needy students with money in the form of a loan.

CANDIDA NEARING PRODUCTION DATE

HELEN STILES HAS LEAD

Cast is Composed of Six Members, Two of Which Belong to Theta Alpha Phi

By Gladys Miller

Under the auspices of the American University Women, Bernard Shaw's Candida will be presented by Theta Alpha Phi Friday night, January 25, at the Oregon theatre.

The play opens with the setting as a delightful October morning. Morell, rector, and Miss Prossy, his secretary, are expecting the return of Mrs. Morell, Candida, from the country. A conversation takes place between Burgess, Candida's father, and Morell, who are not on friendly terms. Burgess is the character through which Shaw depicts the humor of the play. Candida brings back with her Eugene Marchbanks, a youthful poet, and nobleman. Eugene falls in love with Candida. He declares his love to Morell. Morell laughs at him, but later his attitude changes as the affair grows serious. Morell becomes angry with young Marchbanks, and they come to near blows. DEATH TAKES OLD COLLEGE FRIENDS

J. W. Day, Trustee and Others
Intimately Connected With University Die

Several loyal friends of Willamette have passed away recently, and will be missed by the University.

Mr. J. W. Day was for many years a trustee of Willamette University, and a frequent visitor to the campus. He was a prominent Methodist layman of Portland, and was officially connected with many philanthropic causes. His son, Warren Day, is a graduate of '26.

Dr. James Lisle had been connected with Willamette and Kimball School of Theology since 1909. During the last few years of his life he devoted himself to the University museum, and was curator at the time of his death. His library of 3500 volumes, and many specimens of historical, and scientific interest were given to the school. His granddaughter, Esther, is now a senior at Willamette.

Another friend of the University was lost when Mr. E. J. Swafford passed away. Although he had no official connection with the school, he was interested in it and its work. His son is an alumnus, and is now secretary of the Alumni Loyalty Fund. A grandson, Wilburn, and a granddaughter, Marjorie Moser, are attending school at the present time.

Dr. Paul E. Edwards died in Portland recently after a long illness. He was a prominent minister of the Oregon conference, and a friend to the University. His daughter, Virginia, was until recently, a student on the campus.

Paul H. Buckley, '26, was lost at sea when the ship, David C. Reed, sailing from South Africa to Philadelphia, sank. Mr. Buckley came to Willamette from Calcutta, India.

YOUNG MEN APPOINTED SECRETARIES TO Y.M.

Dwight Adams and Ivan White have been appointed as secretaries of the Y. M. C. A., at the resignation of the former secretary, Mr. Wian Wolfe. Both young men have had experience in working with boys, and are interested in such work.

LETTERS SENT TO ALL HIGH SCHOOLS

Collegian to Run Scores of Prep Basketball Games
Until Tournament

In anticipation of the state inter-class high school basketball tournament to be held in the Willamette gymnasium from March 20 to 23, the Collegian is soon to run an entirely new feature. It is the plan to print a weekly column publishing the individual scores of every high school basketball team in the state, listing the scores according to state association districts.

Since a copy of the Collegian is to be sent to every high school contributing to the column, a double purpose will be served. Each school will be kept in touch with the standing of rival schools, and thus interest will be stimulated all over the state for the basketball tournament which has been held at Willamette since its inauguration.

AGE OF CHAUCER TO BE WALLULAH THEME

The contract for the covers for the "1929 Wallula" has been given again this year to Weber-McCrea Company of Los Angeles.

The theme of the annual will be that of the Age of Chaucer; and the cover design, bearing a knight and shield upon which appears the Tower of London, will be in keeping with this theme. The color combination has not been decided upon as yet.

All proofs for pictures to appear in this year's annual must be returned to the studio by this Saturday, January 19, 1929, or the editor will be forced to make a selection.

NUMERALS AWARDED BY DIGNIFIED UPPERCLASS

In the regular Senior class meeting last Wednesday awards of the class numeral were given to those members of the class who had participated in inter-class basketball for the first time.

Girls receiving numerals were: Elsie Tucker, Nell Brunson, Helen Hisey, and Florence Volstorff. The men receiving awards were: Frank Girod, Willis Hathaway, Kenneth Vannice, and Lawrence Winslow.

Miss Virginia Edwards, whose father died recently, left with her mother for New Albany, Indiana, on January 4. They intend to reside with the parents of Mrs. Edwards in that city. Miss Edwards will not complete her work at Willamette, planning instead to enter nurse's training in the fall.

FRATS APPEAL TO UNIVERSITY HEADS

RIGHT OF EXAMS REFUSED

Action Called Forth As Result
Of Members Being $4000
In Arrears in Bills

All fraternity men who owe money to their Houses, and do not make arrangements for the payment of the bill before the end of the semester will be unable to take their final examinations as result of action taken by the administration in response to an appeal from the various fraternities.

The petition to the faculty eliminates a series of considerations by the Inter-fraternity Council to devise ways and means whereby the financial condition of the Houses may be better, and was made only after other means of collection had been tried. The fraternities have been unable to meet their obligations due to the fact that the members of the orders fail to pay their room and board bills. An aggregate amount totaling approximately $4000 is being carried on the books by the Houses or their members.

The credit rating of these organizations with the business men of Salem has been decreasing, and with the failure of the Epsilon Delta Mu house this last summer matters were brought somewhat to a climax.

Fraternities were first established on the campus to meet the housing problem of the men, and as such agencies have continued to exist gradually strengthening their hold and broadening their influence. It is with the realization that the Houses are needed, and that unless something is done to reestablish their credit a new problem will be facing them that the university administration is taking this action.

BLIND HEAR CONCERT OF MEN GLEESTERS

The Men's Glee Club has given a number of concerts in and near Salem during the last two weeks in preparation for the regular tour.

The first concert of the season was held at the State School for the Blind, January ninth. On January the sixteenth the club sang at Chemawa. The last pre-season concert will be given tonight at Jefferson, Oregon, under the auspices of the First Methodist church. Edward Terry, a former Willamette student, is pastor at the church.

The club will leave on January the twenty-fifth for its two week tour in Southern Oregon.

WRENNS KEEP BUSY AT STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Word has been received that Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn (Kathleen Larrant) acted as soloist at the Christmas concert in the Stanford Memorial Chapel this last year.

Along with this comes the information that Mr. Wrenn has had a number of articles published in the National Journal of Education and Psychology. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wrenn are graduates of Willamette and are attending Stanford university at present where he is working for his Masters degree.

Who Has An Idea?

At the recent meeting of the Blue Key fraternity it was mentioned that there was a decided lack of social functions on the campus this year. Fraternity and sorority parties form the only convivial gatherings among the students. Aside from these, which are few one coming each semester for the group, there are no social meetings to which the men and women may go, and they are thus thrown entirely upon their own individual resources.

A glance at the society column of this paper will convince all of those who are doubtful. The greatest contribution which has been made to this division has been that given over to announcements of engagements, marriages, and births. The section takes on the appearance of being merely a tabulating sheet for a recording bureau of a county clerk's office.

Conditions have reached a stage whereat the man or woman who does not go "steady" is looked upon by the rest of the group as an object of speculation with the general attitude in mind of "What is wrong with him?"

The problem itself and its solution necessarily belongs to the student body and the campus as a whole. For that reason the Collegian is asking that students send in definite ideas on the subject, such to remain unsigned by the author, and to be placed in a sealed envelope in the Collegian mail box in the University secretary's office. These plans will be published in the coming issue.

A single man who has health and brains and cannot make a livelihood in the world does not deserve to stay there.

Morell however fully believes that his wife loves Eugene.

Second Scene Reveals Love

As the story progresses in the second scene Miss Prossy reveals her love for Morell. She talks with Morell of Candida and Eugene. Morell is to give an address and everyone goes, leaving Eugene, and Candida alone.

The final act opens with Eugene reading poetry to Candida. Morell returns, and interrupts him. Candida defends Eugene in the argument which ensues. Morell declares that Candida must choose between them. Candida feels as if she is to be auctioned, as it were, and requests that they place their bids.

Morell offers his honesty, position, character, and strength. Eugene offers his weakness, desolation, and heart's need. She accepts the weaker. Morell—as she believes.

Eugene realizes the mistake he has made. Candida sends him away, showing him the impossibility of his thoughts concerning her by asking him to think of these lines every time he thinks of her: "When I am thirty she will be forty-five. When I am sixty she will be seventy-five."

Candida and Morell are again united on a basis of common understanding.

Helen Stiles is taking the lead as Candida. Miss Stiles played major parts in "Come Out of the Kitchen," and "All of a Sudden

Salem Is Achieving

Salem is achieving, but the achievement is not worthy of the people located here. It is achieving in the gaining of the name of the "city of poor water." Foul tasting stuff. Brown in color, and with a nauseating odor. We are told that it is the result of algae. We have heard of this plant life. Have studied forms of it under the microscope. But even if we had not studied them the meaning of the name and of its existence has been made perfectly clear to us by local editorial writers. Further information is brought to us to the effect that algae is perfectly harmless in its results for which we may be devoutly thankful. Were it not so we "long since would be dead, and lost a while."

Yet these statements do not alter the taste. Nothing is so great an advertisement for a city as an abundant supply of good water. How many of us would settle in Salem planning on drinking its water for the years to come?

The Portland delegation to the legislature will have another reason to annex the ?

The legislature now has a concrete means whereby it can cut down the expenses of the state. Transport the State Capitol to Portland and thus do away with the cost of expressing Bull Run water to the legislators.

"Vegetable matter in the water." Next step in the procedure will be for someone to publish a "Salem Water Cookbook." It might start something like this: "Add a little vinegar, salt and pepper, and sweeten to taste."

With thousands of gallons of aqua pura flowing in the hills east of the city we do not like Salem's latest achievement.

Are You A Boloneist?

Do you know a Boloneist? When you talk to your fellow students, to your instructors, or otherwise express your thoughts how much of what you say do you really believe and mean?

There seems to be a trend in every form of society today to put into words ideas which the speakers do not and cannot stand behind. What is the cause of this trend toward vocal and written insincerity?

Certainly it is true that a large number of these Boloneists do not intend to mislead others, but are simply endeavoring to keep up their "end". Perhaps it is also a distorted idea of preserving what the Chinese know as "face."

Regardless of the cause or alibi the Boloneist should exert every effort to overcome the habit. He is doing more harm to himself than to anyone else. When he has practiced his art on others, and has become proficient in its use, he turns it on himself and tries to make himself harbor ideas that he can not honestly believe.

"Boloney slinging" is a habit which can easily be checked in its first growth. The antidote is simple and accessible to all. Let the Boloneist remember that if he has nothing to say, to keep it to himself and to have something to say only when he is fully behind it.

Peggy," two productions which were presented during her senior year in high school.

Frank Alfred is Leading Man

Frank Alfred as Morell, Candida's husband, and a prosperous rector, has had the lead in the Junior play, "Tarkington's Intimate Stranger," Ibsen's "Master Builder," and in "The Importance of Being Earnest."

Charles Kaufman as Burgess, Candida's father, has had extensive experience along dramatic lines. He will be best remembered for his interpretation of his part in Bernard Shaw's "You Never Can Tell."

Mary Riddell as Miss Prossy, Eric Anderson as Eugene Marchbanks, and Michael Fitzpatrick as Lexy Mill, a young understudy of the rector, have all had previous experience in dramatics in high school.

All of the cast are guest players of Theta Alpha Phi, excepting Mr. Alfred and Mr. Kaufman. With the exception of these two men all of the cast are freshmen.

The coaching staff consists of Mrs. Marjorie Walker and Dr. R. Gatke. This is the fifth production that Mrs. Walker, and Dr. Watke have worked in conjunction on the campus.

Along the Way

(By The Wayfarers)

We're sorry we can't repeat some snappy puns we heard, recently, concerning the rashness of a certain individual. Our advisor says it wouldn't be in keeping with our motto, "Slander Not."

Home ties bind, if you can wear them. That leaves out Xmas ties.

HAVE A CAMEL teach you how to drink enough water to last a week. Then, you can stroll out to Eola every Saturday and lay in a supply sufficient to last you till the next trip. WARNING! Don't all do it at once. It would break up the water company's soup-vending business. We bet the delicatessens wish that would happen.

"He had his hands around her throat, not his arms around her neck." Yes, it's only a few steps from love to hate.

This is how bright Isaac Newton could be; he instructed his servant to cut two holes in his barn door—a small one for his little cat, and a large one for his big cat.

Have you heard the one about the Scotchman?

Yes?

Alright, then, we won't tell it.

"The matrimonial problem is a vital one at Willamette," the Wayfarers find. They have estimated that, from the twosy look of the campus, only two out of every five survive trite Cupid's darts—and spring is yet to come!

Let this be our 13th Commandment: Thou shalt not shush in Chapel—the speaker may think you are impolitely referring to him.

Powers that Be, Get Hot!

Or, at least, keep us warm, whether you offer us any culture, or not. Why do you let this venerable old institution degenerate into being an advertisement for "Ranny's Red-hot-flannel Mustn't Mention 'ums."

Several Blue Key men saw stars at the luncheon, Tuesday.

Ray Yarnes and Frank Lombard were Alpha Chi visitors over the weekend.

Being forced to give up fussing, our Hugh has taken up newspaper work.

"If you are going to turn out to be one of those women who try to reform everybody and everything, I am through going with you." Such was a part of a phone conversation overheard in the Collegian office.

Midge Miller has resolved not to contribute any more to the library endowment fund.

Our Collegian manager is getting quite brilliant. The other day in International Relations class he announced that a skull three-quarters of an inch thick had been found in Wisconsin, and that it had been sent straight back to Washington, D. C.

As a result of a Christmas gift which the House received from one of its Scotch members, the manager of Kappa Gamma Rho fraternity will not have to subscribe to the paper with the largest circulation.

Lisle, women's wardrobe manager; and Hugh Currin, men's wardrobe manager, completes the managerial force to date.

According to Dr. Gatke the play is progressing rapidly. The main parts have been learned and the details are now being rounded out.

Betrothal Made Known At Beta Chi Wednesday

Of great interest on the campus is the announcement, made known at the Beta Chi house on Wednesday evening, of the betrothal of Helen McPherson, and Paul Pemberton, both of Portland.

The announcement was unusually clever. A telegram was received, telling of the arrival of a new piece of furniture for the house. The girls then hurried to the dining room, where a miniature buffet in the house colors was revealed. Cards announcing the betrothal were on the top of the buffet, and the drawers were filled with candy.

Miss McPherson, '30, is a member of Beta Chi. She is well-known in musical circles on the campus. Mr. Pemberton graduated from Willamette with the class of '25. He is at present a Senior in the University of Oregon Medical school in Portland.

MIDDLETON-ELLIS

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the announcement made known on Christmas Day of the marriage of Dorothy Ellis and Donald Middleton. The wedding took place in June, and had been kept secret since that time.

Mrs. Middleton was a member of the class of '28, and took a prominent part in the activities of the Coffee House while on the campus. She was a member of the Adelante Society. Mr. Middleton, ex '31, was a member of the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity, and was also an active member of the Coffee House.

The young couple are at home in San Diego, California, where Mr. Middleton is studying aeronautics.

PHILLIPS-TOMLINSON

On December 31st, at a quiet wedding in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tomlinson, of Salem, Miss Mildred Tomlinson became the bride of Clarence D. Phillips, of Portland. Mr. Harold Tomlinson, uncle of the bride, acted as best man, while Florence Young was the bridesmaid. Miss Louise Findley played the wedding march, and Rev. C. C. Poling officiated.

Mrs. Phillips was a member of the class of '27, of the Delta Phi sorority, and the Philodorian Literary Society. She was prominent in musical circles on the campus, and was affiliated with the Beethoven Society. She was selected May Queen in 1927.

Mr. Phillips is a member of the Sigma Tau fraternity. For the past few years he has been practicing law in Portland, where the young couple will make their home.

BONNEY-CHURCH

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Church, on North Winter street, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Christmas day, when their daughter, Marjorie Church, became the bride of Merle Bonney, of Monmouth.

Mrs. Bonney graduated with the class of '26 at Salem high school. Mr. Bonney attended Willamette University, and was a member of the Sigma Tau fraternity. He took an active part in debate. Of interest on the campus is the marriage of Miss Frances Mapes of Salem, and Mr. Harvey Brock, also of Salem. The wedding was an event of the holiday season.

Mr. Brock attended Willamette for a year, and was a member of Alpha Psi Delta, and of the class of '29. He is now employed at the Salem Y. M. C. A., where he is director of boys' work.

Word has been received here of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Arpke (Remole Tryor) on Christmas Day. The baby was named Diana. Mr. Arpke, '26, is affiliated with Sigma Tau, and Mrs. Arpke, ex-'27, is a member of Beta Chi.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Corner (Laura Pemberton), are the parents of a girl, born on December 26th. The baby has been named Julia Senora. Mrs. Corner, '26, is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha.

The Portland Mothers' Club of Alpha Phi Alpha met at the home of Mrs. Eva Gordon during the holidays. Plans for the spring were discussed. Refreshments were served by Miss Dorothy Gor-

Dr. J. M. Cause delivered his lantern slide lecture on the Oregon Trail at Independence last Sunday evening. Everett Gardner assisted him in operating the stereopticon lantern.

Rev. Edwin Rounds, Willamette Fresh, became pastor at Garden Home January first. Mrs. Rounds was ministering to Oak Grove Chapel before that time.

The student pastors at Kimball have asked and obtained the use of the chapel period each Thursday when each student will take his turn preaching to his fellow students, and the faculty. In this way they hope to improve their ministry by getting expert criticism on their work.

Francis DeHarport and Ray Miller spent the weekend at Newport.

LITCHFIELD STARS IN LINFIELD GAME

Varsity Wins First Conference Tilt 31 to 30. Ledbetter Decides Game

Opening the 1929 conference season with Linfield Tuesday night, the Willamette Bearcats barely nosed out the hard playing Wildcoats 31 to 30. In perhaps the most exciting, and hard fought game of the year, W. U. was only able to win by one point; that being made by Ledbetter after the final whistle had the left score at 30 to 30. This foul shot enabled Willamette to sneak off with the first conference victory.

The Linfield team seemed to be playing the best game of their lives, and at no time were they more than two or three points behind the victors. The lanky Wildcat center was a big factor in his team's showing, and was largely responsible for effectively checking Cardinal, the Willamette pivot.

Litchfield made several hard baskets, and was the deciding factor which gave his team victory. Ledbetter also played a good game, and scored the final margin of victory.

It has been rumored that several of the Bearcat players had severe colds and this may have accounted for the fact of the rather poor showing against a weaker team; however with the return to condition, and addition of some of the ineligible men it is again hoped that the team will hit its stride.

STUDENT BODY MEETING WILL BE HELD FRIDAY

At the Student Body meeting to be held during the Chapel hour Friday, a previously discussed amendment to the constitution will be given a final reading for the approval of the students. This amendment proposes that a change be made in the apportionment of Student Body dues, so that where heretofore 20% has gone to the different classes, and 25% to athletics, by the terms of the amendment 15% will be allowed the classes, while the Athletic Association will receive an increase of 5%, giving it a total of 30%.

LOCALS

Miss Virginia Mason, of Jefferson, who graduated from Willamette with the class of '22, has been selected to fill the vacancy in the Woodburn high school left by Mrs. Clarence Phillips (Mildred Tomlinson).

Helen Hoover, '23, was a visitor on the campus last Friday, in connection with the endowment fund campaign.

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney has given lectures recently at Dallas, Eugene, and Medford, in the interest of the final clean-up of the endowment fund.

Miss Bessie Weaver, '31, played from station K. I. Q. during Christmas vacation. Her programs consisted of piano request numbers.

Miss Betty Stimpson spent the weekend at her home in Portland.

ALPHA PSI'S LEAD IN DONUT LEAGUE

The end of the first week of play in the do-nut league finds the Alpha Psi and Upper Class teams in the lead with one win and no loss. The Alpha Psi have probably the fastest-breaking team in the league, they work the ball under the basket by a rapid succession of short passes, while the Upper classmen excel in shooting baskets from long range. The faculty lost their first game but have since showed a complete reversal of form, and seem to be hitting their stride of last year. Both the lower classmen and the Sigma Taus have inexperienced teams, but they may develop into dangerous contenders. The law school has not had an opportunity to prove their mettle as yet, but it is reported that they have a powerful, experienced team. The Kappa Gamma Rho showed plenty of scrap and experience, but they could not score consistently.

FANS SEE OREGON DEFEAT W. U. 34 30

Although the Bearcats dropped all three of the games in their series with the University of Oregon, they demonstrated that with a little more training they will take second to no one.

In the second game the Willamette quintet took the lead in the first half when Seales started hitting the hoop and connected with three baskets in a row. Hank had previously led the Willamette scoring, and had held Ridings scoreless.

After the second half started Seales again located the basket for four points. The Willamette men increased their lead to eleven points, and then Oregon slowly began to overcome their staggering disadvantage.

Milligan who had done most of the scoring for the Eugene team now began to worry the Bearcats even more with his one handed side shots, and Eberhart who replaced Edwards at center helped with three points, and started taking the tipoff from Cardinal.

Ridings tied the score at 28 all, and the Bearcats who had been fumbling the ball, and making bad passes as though stagestruck now made a last effort to save the game. Gibson went in for Ledbetter, and secured a neat basket from the side of the court. Then just before the final gun with the score tied at 30 all Milligan dropped in a basket, and followed it with two fouls to make the score 34 to 30.

Lights
that Fill the Skies with Commerce

THE air map of America is now in the making—on the ground.

Ten years ago, there were 218 miles of air mail routes with two station stops; to-day, a network of sky roads bridges the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Can you imagine this growth without electricity—without illuminated airports—without trunk lines studded with electric beacons?

Men of vision are building for increasing traffic of the air. Soon, the skies will be filled with commerce.

Just as electricity is helping to conquer the air, the land, and the sea to-day, so to-morrow it will lead to greater accomplishments in aviation and in every human activity.

A majority of the beacon lights used in airport and airway illumination have been designed and manufactured by the General Electric Company, whose specialists have the benefit of a generation's experience in the solution of lighting problems.

Bearcats Vanquish Oregon State in Close Battle at Corvallis During Vacation

Quint Loses Remaining Three Tilts Which are Played Away From Home, Two Going to Oregon and One to OSC. Other Margins Large

For the first time in six years a W. U. team overcame an outfit from O. A. C., when the final whistle in the Bearcat-Beaver contest, played at Corvallis, found the score 24-21 in favor of the local team.

A more accurate passing, combined with the ability to take the ball off the backboard, brought victory to the Bearcats. Adams and Houck together accounted for 15 of the local's points. Perhaps never has a Willamette team looked better during the early season than did the Bearcats that evening.

Summary:
 Willamette O. S. C.
 Adams (7).....G.....(3) Ballard
 Gibson (2).....G.....(5) Callahan
 Cardinal (2).....C.....(4) Patterson
 Houck (8).....F.....(2) Torson
 Scales (5).....F.....(2) Aase

The final game of the Bearcat-Beaver series found the Staters flashing their best form of the year to down a weakened W. U. team 46-22. With several men suffering from colds the Bearcats were far below form, and offered little opposition to the Beaver outfit.

Scales saved W. U. from complete rout by finding the basket for 13 points. Wascher lead the home team with six field goals.

Oregon Wins

The first game with the Lemon-yellow basketball was a poorly played affair with the Willamette team just doing a little worse than their opponents. Oregon ran up a 16 point lead before the Bearcats located the hoop. Sixteen minutes after the game started Willamette scored its first basket. The second half was not quite so lopsided but the final score 39 to 19 did not give the Salem fans much encouragement.

The final game found the Eugene five playing a much better brand of ball than in the first two games, Adams' not playing accounted for some of Willamette's weakness but there was not the same fire and fight present as there was in the second game. Scales accounted for most of the Bearcats 13 points while Milligan and Ridings secured a good share of the Oregon 43.

LINFIELD DEDICATES NEW MELROSE HALL

A large administration building, called Melrose hall, has just been completed on the campus of Linfield College at McMinnville. This new building is the finest addition to what Linfield people hope to make a larger and better campus. The architectural firm which designed the new hall has drawn up a proposed layout for buildings and improvements to be made sometime in the future when the endowment fund has been increased.

The proposed arrangement includes eight or nine buildings, a chapel, a boat house, and a lake made from the present Cozins
