

ALUMNI STARS DEFEATED BY SCORE OF 9 TO 0

SEASON'S FIRST GAME SHOWS VARSITY TO HAVE A GOOD TEAM

Graduate Men Succumb to Prowess of Varsity Eleven.

TEAM WORK TRIUMPHS OVER INDIVIDUAL PLAY

Eleven Promises to Develop Into Strong, Fast Aggregation—New Men Showing up Well—Manager Pleased.

The superiority of team work and hard practice over undrilled weight and skill, gave the varsity gridiron men the opening contest with the alumni last evening by a score of 9 to 0.

While neither team can be lauded for any especially brilliant playing, yet both worked hard every minute of the time and each put up a hard fight for every inch. The consistent training of the varsity men gave them the advantage although their playing was not so superior as the score would indicate.

The first three points were made in the second quarter when "Curly" Rowland made a fair catch on the twenty-eight yard line and Homan successfully negotiated with the cross bars for a place kick.

The final six points were made in the last of the first quarter when the miniature stature of Brazier Small bumped into "Prunty" Francis just as he received a punt, and caused the pigskin to roll back of the goal line where it was pinned to the terra firma by the massive frame of "Jim" McClelland. Homan's kick went wild and the score stood 9 to 0 with half a minute to play, and the varsity had won the game.

The center of the field was the scene of most of the game, the second quarter being the only time previous to the play on which the only touchdown was made in the last quarter, that the territory near the goals was visited by the pigskin.

The varsity's line did good work against their heavier opponents and although there is much work to be done before they reach the perfect stage, yet they show promise of building up a good string of line, and the fear that the line would be our weakest place has been done away with.

McClelland at guard was in every play, and both Neustal and Bolt at tackle had their opponents bested throughout the contest.

The backfield all did good work and the line smashing of Homan and Doane, and the work of Homan at defensive end were features of the game. The lineup:

STUDENT VOLUNTEER BAND SOME ACTIVE

Varsity Students Supporting Korean Teacher—Members Are Very Enthusiastic.

In the first meetings of the Student Volunteer Band, the prospects for this year have been very bright. The "Volunteers" have again agreed to support a native preacher in Korea, thus stimulating a deeper interest on the part of the members of the band and university in the activities abroad.

A plan has been discussed by which the volunteer bands of the northwest might be formed into a union.

The chair appointed a committee to attend to the deputation work in Salem and surrounding towns. It is the purpose of the band this year to get its members into more active service.

Mrs. Harrison, the secretary of the Children's Foreign Missionary work, gave a very interesting talk to the band last Monday evening. She tried to impress upon the members the importance of work among the children.

The band starts the year with twenty members, almost all of last year's membership having returned.

Miss Hallie Samson was in Portland during the week end.

On last Tuesday the executive committee selected Paul Todd to act as Yell Leader this year, and "Fog Horn Mac" to be his assistant. DR. TODD PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND

Recognized by Washingtonians as Man of Rare Ability.

VICE-PRESIDENT HERE FOR THREE YEARS

Has Assisted in the Gigantic Task of Completing Willamette's Great Endowment—Was a Friend of Both Students and Faculty.

In the month of June, Dr. E. Todd was made vice-president of Willamette university. His greatest work here has been in connection with the raising of the $500,000 endowment and on the eve of the completion of his portion of the work he is leaving for a larger field to begin anew.

In the Christian Advocate for October appeared an article which gave, concisely, the sterling qualities of our Ex-Vice-President. "When the Puget Sound conference took the magnificent advance step for the university at Olympia last week, the cry went up, 'Now where is our leader who will direct us and conserve the energy and enthusiasm?' President Zeller had resigned. Here was a university encumbered with debt. Students in larger numbers than ever were standing at the doors for admittance. Who was to undertake this tremendous task? The new leader should be a young man. He, in order to do quickly the things immediately required, should be familiar with the west and acquainted with the field, absorbed with the importance of Christian education, a platform expert, one who wins confidence readily, a capturer of young people, and an indomitable worker, filled with the spirit of the Maker.

There loomed upon the horizon only one man with all these qualifications. His name is familiar to

UNDERCLASSMEN ARE STRICTLY FORBIDDEN

One of the New Benches Is For Seniors Only—Not for Folks with Cold Feet.

The class of 1913 left to its Alma Mater, as was announced in their will, two fine concrete benches, encircling two of the large maples near Waller Hall. They are an excellent start in the way of providing resting places about the campus, as well as being an ornament to the grounds.

In their last will and testament the outgoing class stated that the bench nearest Eaton Hall was to be for the use of the Seniors only, the other to be used by the Juniors and the Underclassmen. Each Junior class is to be entrusted with the duty of executing the wishes of the class of '13.

In commenting on the new benches, a bright Underclassman was heard to suggest to a number of the ex-Senior class, that they should have extended the front of the seat down to the ground to prevent the chilly winds from circulating therein. He was told that the seats were not for the use of people afflicted with cold feet. Will someone kindly explain the joke?

WIND-JAMMERS AND DRUM-BEATERS MEET

Band Cannot Toot Unless It's Given Some Financial Assistance.

The initial meeting of the University Band occurred last Monday noon, several of the old members and 12 new men being present. Plans for the winter's work were under discussion and officers were chosen.

Lloyd Schliser will direct the wind jammers this year, while Harry Irvine will hold the pocket book. Irvine is chairman of a committee that is facing the big question of ways and means.

The band is one of the most important school activities and the students find themselves in dire distress at different times during the year if a band is not forthcoming.

At the opening of each term for several years past the band has organized and the Collegian has printed long editorials telling of its important connection with the work of the institution and how it deserved the undivided support of the students, yet, by the time the holiday season has passed, it becomes a difficult task to secure the band. This is due to the lack of financial support.

The band decided that it must have solid financial support if it is to exist. It is entirely too much to expect that the members of the organization shall furnish their own instruments, buy their own music and provide their own uniforms. The student body should provide, as

FAIR CO-EDS HOLD PHYSICAL CULTURE EXERCISES IN GYM

Work Is In Charge of Miss Ida B. Davis this Year.

SWEDISH GYMNASTICS FEATURE OF COURSE

Object of Work Is Correcting of Defects in Physic—Excellent Results Expected—Classes Are Extremely Large.

The growth and progress of Willamette university is shown this year by the introducing of the department of Physical Education for women. The university has for some time felt the need of this department and now that the necessary arrangements have been made, physical education has been listed as a required subject.

The director, Miss Ida B. Davis, has been delayed in meeting her classes, owing to the late registration and the slow progress of the work at the gymnasium which is being refitted to meet the needs of the young women. Besides the setting of a new furnace, dressing rooms, shower baths and lockers are being installed. Also, a piano has been purchased which will add much to the interest of the work.

The work of the department will include lectures on hygiene and a systematic training in gymnastics. Careful attention will be given to proper breathing and poise. The latter is not only essential to health but success in life depends to a great extent upon the bearing and personal appearance. The use of aesthetic drills and folk games afford relaxation and give grace, while games are introduced for pure recreation.

The Swedish system of gymnastics will be used rather extensively, as this system requires scarcely any apparatus and it is practicable for a woman in home life. Years ago the gymnasium work did not prove to be practical to a woman after her college days were over, especially where a great deal of apparatus was used, as she did not have her home fitted up for such exercises.

The chief aim of the physical training this year will be primarily for health, and the exercises chosen are for physiological effects rather than for mere muscular development. In short the aim is to make the physical life normal in its activities and to overcome defects and abnormal tendencies.

Ivan Bellinger, a member of the class of '13, has been chosen to occupy the position of "house doctor" at the Salem hospital. His many friends at the Varsity are glad to see "Doc" in Salem again.

Miss Gladys Luthy, ex '16, and one of the most popular girls of the class, was a campus visitor Friday. She is a senior at the Monmouth Normal.

CONGRATULATIONS

It is with regret that the Collegian announces the resignation of one of Willamette's most loyal supporters, Vice-president Todd. He has ever been a friend of the students, joining with them in their pleasures and cheering them when discouraged. We wish him the greatest success in his new field, knowing that he will win the admiration of the students of Washington as he has done here. We congratulate both the University of Puget Sound upon its being able to secure such a man as Mr. Todd to act as its president, and Mr. Todd upon his ability to act in that capacity.

LET US HAVE ONE.

The great northwest presents unlimited chances for scientific research work. There are many students in Willamette who are interested in the various sciences but are not able to go ahead with the work for several reasons. What Willamette might have is a good, soundly organized, enthusiastic Science Club. The organization could have its regular meetings at which current topics on botany, physics and chemistry could be discussed, and if possible, an influential scientist secured to address the club. The worth of these clubs has been demonstrated in many American institutions. The science professors are heartily in favor of such a club. Why not have one here?

WE WANT WORK!

Beginning with this issue the Collegian will start an experiment. A column will be devoted to the advertising of those desiring work and those wishing to employ help. The Y. M. C. A. has in the past maintained an employment bureau, but the lack of means for advertising has somewhat hampered their efforts.

Many Willamette students depend upon odd jobs to earn their way through school. It is for these students especially that the new column is being introduced. Any student desiring work can insert his "work wanted" ad in this column free of charge. Any merchant or student employer can do likewise by notifying the Collegian of their desire.

By bringing these requests before the students and other subscribers the Collegian believes that positions should be obtained with greater facility and thus benefit both employer and employee.

If this column is successful it will be continued indefinitely, but if it does not appear to fulfill its mission it will be discontinued at once. We depend upon you to make this a sure proposition. Tell us if you want a job—tell us if you have one you want to get rid of.

PROHI LEAGUERS ELECT

Gleiser Will Succeed Miss Luce as Vice-President

A meeting of the Prohi League was called on last Friday to elect a vice-president. Mr. Gleiser was elected. The other officers now are: Jacob Stocker, Pres.; Corpe, Sec'y and Miss Lella Lent, treasurer.

The Prohi League wishes especially to call attention to the public speaking contests extending through four steps: local, state, interstate and national. Honors and cash prizes are awarded for winners at each successive step. The length of the orations is 1500 words. The above mentioned officers will be glad to give detailed information as to contests.

The league cordially invites as many students as possible to join. They desire the support and co-operation of the student body as a whole, in one of the worthiest, practical endeavors in "Willamette," to help to make this a better town, a better state, and a better country.

By the way, what better advertisement could there have been for old W. U. than the winning, by Harry McCain, of the state contest, the interstate contest and by taking second place in the national contest? Our oratorical outlook this year is better than ever and prospective orators should begin with their orations at once. In order to be successful, the league ought to get at least forty members. Help to make the W. U. Prohi League a bigger factor in this year's college life than ever.

—Jacob Stocker.

Miss Ruth Young Leads.

The lack of eyes to see is no reflection upon the beauty of the desert flower. So the fact that the state fair kept a great many girls away from the Y. M. C. A. meeting last Thursday afternoon does not argue that those present did not have an exceedingly helpful and refreshing hour. The topic of the meeting was "College Idols," which Miss Young presented in her usual clear and pleasing manner. Even a girl's studies, Miss Young showed, might become an idol while the worship of popularity, with its sisters, dress and office, is an insidious form of idolatry. The Y. W. C. A. meeting this week will be a very important one, and the girls are urged to come and learn some of the plans for the winter.

About the Phils.

With the Philodorian reporter attending the University of Oregon this year and not familiar with the press time of the Collegian, the writeup from that society failed to reach the office of the editor and therefore was not in the paper last week. The reporter pro tem opens with this news so that some misinformed persons who have complained because no writeup appeared in the paper will understand.

The Phils opened their literary programs two weeks ago Wednesday with a number of live selections. Among them was a vocal solo by Miss Ava McMahon, president of the Philodorian society.

The meeting this evening will be a joint affair of the Philodorians and Philodorians and a joint program will be given. The new men who have not yet visited the Phils are invited to attend this meeting and meet, not only the men who they will associate with if they cast their lot with the Phils, but also the members of the sister society.

Word has just been received that Miss Leona McQueen, '16, will spend the winter traveling. This is a great disappointment to her friends, who have been expecting her return.

"Fair week" has come and gone and with it many guests. Among the out-of-town people who paid calls at "Old Lausanne" were Mrs. James D. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ruby and Master Curtis Ruby, Mrs. George Lewis and Miss Edith Lewis, all of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Demming, St. Helens; Mrs. Ralph Ohling, Albany; Mr. R. R. H. Garrison, Oregon City; Mr. Clayton Waldron and Miss Arline Waldron, Amity.

The many friends of Miss Mable Goyne, ex '16, were pleased with a call on Friday last. Miss Goyne is studying domestic science and music at Monmouth this year.

Miss Case, assistant librarian at the Carnegie library, took dinner with Miss Davis Wednesday. Miss Case was formerly a classmate of Miss Davis at Illinois State university.

Last Saturday, Addie Tobie and Areta Jones hid themselves to the country to ride in a real buggy and breathe pure air.

Friday evening the Misses Wastell and McMahon entertained at dinner for Miss Mark, '13. The table was attractive with a centerpiece of pink carnations and favors to match. Covers were laid for the Misses McMahon, Wastell, Boyer, Harding, Holt, Young, Bartholomew, Avison, Poisal, Ruby, Kuntz, Mark and Master Curtis Ruby and Mrs. A. C. Ruby.

Remnants of former Glee club songs heralded a tempting spread in the Ogden-Samson domicile Friday evening. Those who chattered and ate were Elmo Ohling, Pauline Pennebaker, Anna Ryan, Evadne Harrison, Marie Snead Corrine Lachmund, Floria Lachmund, Lella Lent, Ione Lewis, Clara Perkins, Lulu Weseman, Edith Lornsten and Avis Ogden. The hour was most joyfully spent.

PHILODOSIAN GLEANINGS

On September 26., the new co-eds were invited to meet with the Philodossians, when a most enjoyable afternoon was spent. After a short and pleasing program light refreshments were served.

Last Friday's program was as follows:

Vocal solo, Ermine Harding; review, "The Servant in the House," Lucile Kuntz; resume of the Mexican Situation, Beryl Holt; piano solo, Ava McMahon. The following program will be given next Friday:

Synopsis of Our Next Wallulah: Frontpiece, Elwina Schramm, Keith Van Winkle; Willamette History, Edith Sherwood; Freshman Glee, Frosh Song, Soph Song; fiction, Margaret Poisal, Lola B. Cook Bellinger; editorials, Mary Pigler, Ruth Tasker; At the Sign of the Lemon Tree, Helen Wastell.

The Philodossian is the oldest Willamette society, and is composed of the "brightest and best" young women in college. Quality rather than quantity is the aim in electing members. Fortunate indeed is the college Miss whose lines fall amid Philodossian surroundings.

All "new girls" are most cordially invited to attend our next meeting, to be held in Philodossian Halls October tenth.

Freshmen Elect.

After several struggles with usual rules of parliamentary disorder and with the assistance of Eric P. Bolt, the freshmen have at last succeeded in electing officers for the ensuing year. Heavy balloting resulted in the election of Earl Flegel, president; Miss Junia Todd, vice-president; and Alfreda Larsen, secretary. No treasurer was elected.

ADELANTES HOLD FAIR

A very reasonable and enjoyable feature of last week's festivities was the Adelante fair. The superior character of this program was equalled only by our own state fair. Perhaps the most unique and progressive part was the eugenics contest for which specimens were chosen from the youthful Adelantes, while the most filling entries were made by Misses Young and Lent. After giving an excellent talk on the "Ideals of a Plain Country Woman," Miss Young served luscious fruit from her booth. The Adelantes and their Freshmen guests partook of it to the sweet strains of Miss Boyer's music. Miss Lent, assisted by Misses Eakin and Wiseman, gave a "Mid-night scene at Lausanne," in which chafing dishes were much in evidence. The results of this revel were eaten with the true relish of "stolen fruits."

every Methodist and thousands of others in Washington. His twenty-seven years in the ministry, nearly fifteen of which were given in the state of Washington, and his experience in the educational field demonstrated that Rev. Dr. Edward Todd was the logical man for the position. His election means the salvation of "our university."

Dr. Todd is the product of a Methodist parsonage and a native of Iowa. His father was a member of the Des Moines conference for twenty-two years and died when Edward was sixteen years of age. The mother, with the assistance of the children, put all six children through Simpson college. Dr. Todd taking the degree of B. S., M. S. and D. D. from that school. He also has the S. T. B. degree from Boston University School of Theology. He entered Simpson at the age of fifteen and has ever since been more or less connected with college life. Since coming west this educational enthusiast has been founding schools, on boards of trustees, corresponding secretary, or vice-president of some institution. For seven years he has been in active relation with one of our universities.

"Dr. Todd was loaned to the Oregon conference and Willamette university to assist in a gigantic task. It has been accomplished. Now he returns home and it will mean the firm establishment of the University of Puget Sound."

VARSITY YELL KING

have charge of all the routing and marching alone.

The position of leader is no soft snap, for it is necessary that the individual acting in that capacity be not only a good mixer, but also of a creative turn of mind. To get before a crowd of enthusiastic college men and perform the antics of a love sick giraffe takes ingenuity, and it appears as though it is necessary to stimulate the fellows to action.

No man can be a successful Yell King unless the fellows are behind him and willing to take some of the work on themselves and get it done.

The directors are not supposed to make all the noise. It is up to you to keep things going when the leader puts you next. Keep your eyes and ears open for orders and when they come execute them like you meant it.

A "Rally Manager" will be selected in the near future and will have charge of the one rally for which he is appointed. This manager shall have the power to plan all events for the evening and will direct the doings on the night of the event, in co-operation with the Yell Leader and his assistant. By having a new man for each rally it is thought that more competition will be aroused, and better results obtained.

As soon as the event has passed, the manager is automatically ousted from his position and the committee then casts about for another applicant to manage the next student celebration.

We want to have some "rip roaring" celebrations this year, but don't expect the woodpiles to come crawling over the Varsity field fences and arrange themselves in graceful heaps, and then ignite themselves. It takes work, and lots of it, to make a real rally.

The Frosh should have a pile of burnable stuff as high as Washington's monument, or higher. We want a real blaze—one that can be seen clear up to Eolia. This is to be a record year.

WIND-JAMMERS

it does in any other instance where an activity is for the support and betterment of the school, at least partial equipment.

The band should have uniforms, not broadcloth with gold buttons, but something college like and distinctive. They should be supplied with music and, if necessary, with some of the more expensive instruments that are needed in a band, and which no student could afford personally—such as a bass drum with the Willamette insignia on the head.

A band properly equipped and trained would be one of the greatest advertisements Willamette could support.
