

CAP AND GOWN CHAPTER HERE

Officially Installed Tuesday
Morning; Five Seniors
Are Honored

At a beautifully impressive service in the chapel Tuesday morning the Willamette chapter of Cap and Gown was installed with Dean Kate W. Jamison of Corvallis presiding. Five girls chosen by the faculty under the direction of Dean Dahl from the senior class, were made charter members of the organization. The girls so honored are: Harriet Adams, Elizabeth Bishop, Mildred Miller, Brenda Savage and Louisa Sidwell.

Dean Dahl opened the ceremony with a discussion of the principles of the new organization and the basis upon which members are elected. Dean Dahl explained that the founding of Cap and Gown now on Willamette campus will lead in five years' time to the enauration here of "Mortar Board" the well known national honor fraternity. Doctor Doney invested each of the young women with the cap and

CLASS TO GRADUATE OUT-OF-DOORS THIS YEAR

Commencement exercises will be held out-of-doors this year in order to provide accommodations for the many relatives and townspeople who have been unable to attend in previous years due to the limited seating capacity of the First Methodist church. In case of inclement weather, provisions will be made to transfer to the Willamette gymnasium.

Many colleges are adopting the plan of out-door commencement exercises, and the 1933 Seniors of Willamette feel that the beauties of the campus will add much to the impressiveness and solemnity of the occasion.

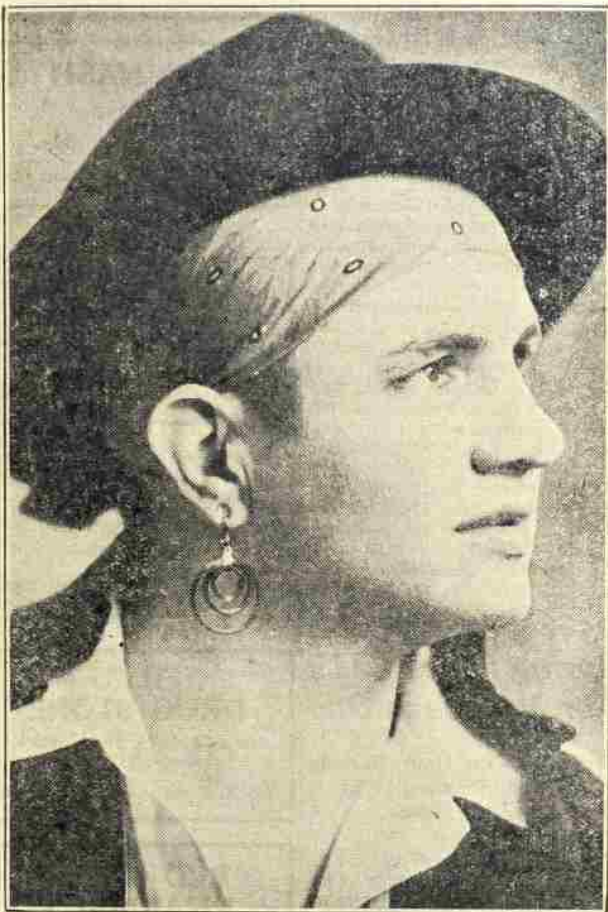

The program for commencement week-end has not been completed, but present plans include the usual business meeting of the alumni on Saturday morning (June 17), and the Senior banquet that evening. The academic procession and the baccalaureate service are scheduled for Sunday morning. Sunday afternoon will be devoted to a religious meeting particularly for the alumni and seniors, and the farewell service will be held at the First Methodist church in the evening. Professor Matthews will be the speaker at the commencement exercises to be held Monday at 10 a. m.

METRO CONTRACTS BOHEMES; BORI, PONS FEAR FOR JOBS

With the presentation April 10 and 11 of that great old star dramatic opera, "The Bohemian Girl," vulgarly known as the Bohemian Girl, under the direction of Prof. Homer O. Marshall, the head cheese of the music dept. (music dept. third aisle on your right, madame) Willamette will lose some of its hotly tosy hotcha girls and boys who are always the life of the party and always sitting down to the piano while everyone laughs until they start to sing (when they do sing everyone has convulsions). It is practically assured that they will be able to get long term contracts with the Metropolitan after the opera. (Metropolitan Chain Stores, Inc. Nothing over ten cents).

The entire altogether ensemble, including chorus girls, boys, gilt edged white horses, lions, tigers, and trained seals have been practising steadily all during spring vacation as well as having rehearsals. It is also rumored that several singers have been imported from Europe in refrigerated cars equipped with cold

"Thaddeus", sung by Bob Mayne.

BASSES AND ALTOS WILL WARBLE APRIL 10 AND 11

Willamette's first opera, "Bohemian Girl," is to be presented at the Capitol Theatre on April 10 and 11, under the direction of Prof. Cameron Marshall, the head of the music department. Professor Marshall has staged and produced in former years many similar productions, but this opera is far more difficult than any of the others.

The entire cast and chorus of more than 60 voices has been working faithfully every day in preparation for it, and during spring vacation the rehearsals were held twice a day.

"Bohemian Girl" is an opera which has been revised to fit the general American audience. It is more like an operetta. In it are

H. Childs Given Honor

Miss Helen Childs received a signal honor when she was elected national president of Delta Theta Gamma Monday night at a meeting of the local chapter.

President Childs' first duties will be to preside during a part of the national D. T. G. convention which will be on the Willamette campus April 7 and 8.

and hot water for the occasion.

Prof. H. E. (Hood) Rahn has taken complete charge of the drama which crops out here and there and has successfully resisted all attempts at elimination.

Here's the dope on the story: Our Lean (Lizzy Inclement) off-spring of Count Up-to-ten (Mavrusa Deane) is captured by pirates in the disguise of secret police for the Fiji Islanders. The leader of this band is Devilshoof (the heel) (Oh yes, Dick Smart), but the main guy on the main stem of the Spanish Main is Theodore (dad) Thaddeus, played by Bob Mayne, of the Water Maynes. It is this fine fellow which spoils the plot and escorts the heroine back to the home of her paternal old man and was she mad, for after all that king of the gypsies was a real man and handsome as all get out. So when Teddy grabs her by the arm and says "Ay tank Ay go home now" she gets hot under the collar and if the fellow who wrote the book hadn't neglected to write a sequel their might have been interesting developments.

Queen Bernice To Rule May 5-6

Miss Bernice Rickman Successful Aspirant to Crown for May Day

Results of the traditional balloting for May Queen, held this year on April 17, are evidence that once again Willamette prefers blondes—for the tall, golden-haired Bernice Rickman of Salem, Oregon, was chosen to reign as queen over the festivities of May Week End for 1933.

Miss Rickman, a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority, is prominent in class affairs and is well known in Salem musical circles. She will play the second lead in the opera "The Bohemian Girl."

Close contestants for the crown were the two other nominees, Caroyl Braden and Louisa Sidwell, both of Beta Chi. Miss Braden, who graduated from Salem High, has taken an active part in class affairs and in Philharmonic choir. Louisa Sidwell, of Portland, Oregon, has been a prominent figure in class and student body affairs, and has been a leader in Y work here on the campus. She was one of the five girls chosen for the initial members of Cap and Gown, a women's scholastic honorary society being brought to the Willamette campus this year.

New Talent Found For Junior Play

Eleven Juniors, Six Others Selected to Become "Shakespeareans"

The attempt of a Shakespearean production for the first time on Willamette's campus is meeting with great enthusiasm. The interest already aroused is so great that the juniors expect the May week-end presentation of "As You Like It" to rank as one of the most successful plays ever presented here. An advertising campaign both intensive and extensive will inform students and townspeople of the event, and there is no doubt in the minds of those behind the scenes but that the news will be received with great anticipation and pleasure.

The cast has been selected after final tryouts as follows: Orlando,

"Arlene", sung by Elizabeth Clement.

ARLENE KIDNAPPED WHEN LITTLE, NOW SAFELY HOME

The list of principals selected for "The Bohemian Girl" to be presented by the Light Opera club at the Capitol theatre, Monday and Tuesday nights is like reading a musical "Who's Who" on the Willamette campus. Foremost is Elizabeth Clement in the role of Arlene, the Bohemian girl, who made such an instantaneous hit as Barbarita in "The Golden Trail" last season. Among the other principals are found Robert Mayne, Maurice Dean, Bernice Rickman, Richard Smart, Ralph Barber and many others.

From the Queen of May on the Willamette campus, Bernice Rickman is also Queen in "The Bohemian Girl," but this time as Queen of the Gypsies. Her work in this production as the haughty and jealous Queen of the tribe promises to be a show-stopper. Maurice Dean, who proved such a sensation in "The Golden Trail" of last year and in various events this year, has undertaken one of the most difficult parts in grand opera as the Governor of Presburg, Count Arnheim. As the count, Mr. Dean will sing that most familiar of tunes "The Heart Bow'd Down By Weight of Woe."

W. U. Senior To Jefferson

Arthur Fisher, of the Willamette pre-medics department, has been admitted to Jefferson Medical School at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Willamette will be represented by two graduates at Jefferson next fall. Mr. Ralph Purvine, '31, son of Dr. Mary E. Purvine and Mr. Ellis Purvine, has attended the college for two years.

Hauser Says Playwrights Are Wrong, Foey on Dramatic, Grammatic Unity

THE ACTRESS
By Paul Hauser

Timidly she enters the great man's sanctum sanctorum. He sits at his marble desk and stares into space. She breaks the silence.

Her: A penny for your thoughts.

Him: I was thinking about the Junior Play.

Her: Oh, a Junior Play. How nice!

Him: Well, we Juniors like it.

Her: I suppose you'll be working very hard on it.

Him: Oh, indeed.

Her: Why do they call it the Junior's Play?

Him: Well, they do you know.

Her: Oh yes, but what's it for?

Him: Oh, for May Week End.

Her: Do you mean it May End Week?

Him: I should say not.

Her: What's it called?

Him: As You Like It.

Her: Oh, come, I'm not good at names and I'm not sure I do like it.

Him: Surely you know Shakespeare.

Her: Is he a little short fellow with a Chrysler? I may have met him. I've had some of the funniest looking dates on this campus. Is he in the cast?

Him: No, but you'll soon be in one, a nice white one.

Her: Oh, divine! I'd love to act. I recited Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight before the Woman's club at home.

Him: We could use some more actors. Let's see, what's your name, height, age, weight, and all that?

Her: Oh, do you think I'd really have a chance? I'm so thrilled. I'm nineteen, and I weigh 125, and I'm a Junior, of course, and my name's...

Him: I'm sorry. I'm afraid we can't use you.

Her: What! Is there anything wrong? Did my voice crack? Do I weigh too much?

Him: Well, no. Nothing like that. But we cannot use you.

Her: What is it then? Is it something my best friend neglected? Should I change bath soaps?

Him: Why, no, of course not.

Her: Then why can't I be in the play?

Him: Well...

Her: Come, speak up.

Him: Well, you see... Well, the fact is you're a Junior.

"NOW SHOWING, FOR TWO NIGHTS"

"Nope, it'll never work," opined one of our optimistic friends. "Never does when you put a thing on two nights." Thus runs the general attitude of Willamette student body concerning the coming opera which is to be given two nights.

Without asking Dr. Sherman, we feel safe in saying that such psychology is all wrong. Other colleges successfully present campus productions to packed houses for two performances, and, with a just amount of student attendance, the Capitol theater should be packed next Monday and Tuesday nights.

"Prof" Marshall has been a giver of gifts as far as this campus is concerned. In the three years he has been at Willamette, "Prof" has proven himself a leader as well as a kind and good friend. A certain group of boys and girls remember a wonderful trip which he made possible, and a more wonderful summer which is ahead. In every way, "Prof" has endeared himself to the students with whom he has had contacts.

This two night production is another of his ideas, and it is up to the school which he has helped so much to in turn help him. As someone put it, "Well, anything Prof. Marshall starts he'll finish." Are we helping him?

Approximately 250 girls are now trudging more or less gaily to the campus, each belonging to a clique or one of several groups, all of which are engaged in busily trying to slit the others' throats. The half of chapel west of the center aisle is not organized, however loosely, into any one group. Neither do the men have a group which includes them all.

As concerns Willamette feminine members, a large organization including every girl in college could well be made a practical and valuable working organization.

There are a great many things which such a group, organized, might be able to accomplish that, unorganized, cannot be brought about. Concerted group endeavor, for instance, might be able to transform the fairly clean but bare and "dinky" cloakroom in Eaton Hall into a rest room of which any college could not be ashamed. A year or so ago Blue Key undertook a similar movement to clean up the men's cloak room.

Another idea which has been proved of value could be worked out by a group along this line—one organization sponsored a series of lectures on dress, make-up, conduct, etiquette, and kindred subjects. A system of anonymous notes was started through which each girl was soon informed in a kindly give-and-take manner of her poor habits and practices and also of her improvements and likeable traits.

Willamette women could profit by an all-women's organization. Could we not start one? Cap and Gown—here is a job for you already!

VITAL STATISTICS

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fasnacht (Marie Rostein), '26 and ex-W.U., are the parents of a daughter, Marie Catherine, born March 10. They also have a son who is a few years older. Mr. Fasnacht is superintendent of the Bandon public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Notson (Adelia White), '24 and '25, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Jane Carolyn, March 25. Mr. Notson is a member of the Oregonian staff in Portland. He is also president of the Willamette Younger Alumni in Portland.

On March 21 Miss Mary Ellen Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Watson of Portland, became the bride of Dr. Laban A. Steeves, '17, son of Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves of Salem. The wedding was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock in the home of the bride-elect with Rev. Fred C. Taylor reading the service before a large assemblage of friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Steeves boarded the S. S. Peoples which sailed for the south that evening. They planned to spend two weeks in California after which they will be at home in Salem where Dr. Steeves will continue his extensive practice of medicine and surgery.

Miss Ruth Wechter, '26, left Salem March 22 bound for Los Angeles on the first lap of a journey which will take her to Lima, Peru. In Los Angeles she visited with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hilt, former residents of Salem. From there Miss Wechter planned to sail on the S. S. Santa Lucia, one of the newest of the large vessels of the Pacific, which is making its maiden voyage, east bound with this trip.

It is reported that Miss Wechter, upon her arrival in Peru, will become the bride of Walter Hilt, '27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hilt. Mr. Hilt has been South American representative for the National Paper and Type company for the past four years, with headquarters at Lima. Previously he was with this company in New York City.

Miss Wechter, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wechter of Salem, taught at Raymond, Wn., following her graduation from Willamette. From there she went to Portland, Maine, where she taught French for two years. For the past two years Miss Wechter has been employed as nurse in the office of Dr. Burton Myers of Salem.

RHOTEN MAKES MAY COMMITTEE CHOICES

Committee heads have been chosen for May week-end activities under the direction of Ray Rhoten, manager. This year's event comes on May 5 and 6, with the queen's coronation in the gymnasium or the field as the weather permits.

The chairman of the various committees are as follows: Frank Hiley, hospitality; Lowell Eddy, Queen's court; Mildred Miller, dances; Jack Simpson, campus; Frances Stewart, lunch; Katherine Horton, program and invitation; Edith Sidwell, breakfast; Fred Harris, junior play; James Burdette, decorations; David Moser, Willamette night.

Manager Rhoten announces that he will try to place all those who would like to help, and he will consider suggestions from those interested.

Mildred Miller and Miss Currie are now working on the May day motif.

CHAPEL PROGRAM SERIES CONTINUE

The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. are sponsoring a series of chapel programs in which talent, local and abroad, is featured.

On March 10, a worship service was presented with Wanda Landon and Veva Garrett reading inspirational selections and Delbert Jepson and Maurice Dean rendering musical numbers.

Dr. Daniel Hill, pastor of the African Methodist church, Portland, was guest speaker March 16, and spoke of the "new negro." He emphasized the fact that mutual and cultural equality is increasing between the black and white races in America. In the afternoon Dr. Hill led an informal discussion at the Alpha Phi Alpha House. He told facts of the South relating to negroes and their problems, which he has studied extensively. It is the desire of the Christian associations to sponsor numerous such discussions in the future.

Schedule Complete For Music Orals

Comprehensives Already Taken; Oral Committees Have Four Members

Seniors majoring in the music department took their comprehensive written examination Saturday, April 1.

The schedule of senior orals for these students is listed below. The committees are composed of the three members of the faculty of the school of music and one member of the liberal arts faculty in accord with the custom which requires that these committees be so selected.

April 7: Frances Laws, *Committee: Miss Melton, Professor Richards, Professor Marshall, Miss MacHirron.
 April 17: Elizabeth Clement, Committee: Professor Marshall, Miss Latimer, Miss Melton, Miss MacHirron.
 April 14: Edwyna Broadbent, Committee: Professor Marshall, Miss Melton, Mrs. Ellis, Miss MacHirron.

April 26: Margery O'Dell, Committee: Miss Melton, Professor Marshall, Miss MacHirron, Prof. Mathews.

Chapel Programs Now Posted Daily

Campus Y Groups Provide New Convenience; Student Body Trips Also Planned

A new convenience for the daily crowd of "bulletin board gazers" is being supplied by the campus Y. M. and Y. W., who are daily posting notices of each chapel program. A printed card with the name of the speaker or sponsor of the program is posted each day at the bottom of the Y. M. and Y. W. bulletin board, and from time to time during the semester clever pictures and posters will appear to add to its attractiveness.

The Social Service group of the Y. W. is planning a series of field trips to the various state institutions for the entire student body. The weekend of March 24 a conference was held at Cold Springs Camp, near Salem, for presidents and cabinet members of Y. W. C. A.'s of Oregon colleges and universities. Many new ideas and plans were gained by the Willamette delegates. Last weekend many students had the opportunity of hearing Dr. Welman, professor of religion at the University of Chicago.

THE WHISPERING CAMPAIGN

This week's fable: The seniors are having a delightful time what with orals and writings.

Vital statistics:

Tom Goyno is slowly convalescing from the shock he received when paying off a glee bet. He had to spend the night on the porch of Lausanne and, just as he was blissfully visualizing a repetition of the handout of edible delicacies which he received last year under the same circumstances, a window opened and a fair (but Tom swears otherwise) maid looked down on the anticipating Tom. He closed his eyes in contemplation of the feed, but—cruel world!—a dash of icy water greeted him instead. Tommy feels that all this fuss about Mooney is much ado about nothing—he believes that he has more of a case.

Incidentally, Mr. Goyno did not tell us whether he intends to repeat the wager next year.

(We might add that Tom reminded us after the last edition that he omitted his woes. Some people will do anything for publicity! Anyway, we've done our bit to make the campus Goynconscious.)

Woman Starts Strange Suit, according to a headline.

And we bet that's the very one we say paraded about the streets as a "chic creation."

We heard Jerry Sherman begging for a date to a card party. Hub, we'd take him to a discard party. — (Unpaid Adv.)

Ralph McCullough Speaks, says the Statesman.

Some people have a queer idea of news!

We thought that hard times were here, but the worst is yet to come. Lull's Secondary Ed. text narrates: "The consumer's role consists in eating and drinking and wearing the aforesaid clothes."

Talk about chewing the rag!

We saw "Dean" Clark cast himself down on the steps of Waller, and heave an immense sigh of relief after performing much strenuous manual labor.

APRIL FOOL!

We're doing much quoting, but here's a bit not to be overlooked: (From the last Collegian): "As the seniors were seated, they shed the entwining caps and gowns, and revealed young men resplendent in white carnations."

You'll all agree the seniors have set a high mark for emulation.

"My senior oral's coming up." A frightened student said, "And every time I think of it I wish that I were dead!" "And what day is your oral?" We asked, "And where and how?" "Oh, I am just a freshman; 'Twill be three years from now."

Which reminds us that this is the beginning of the end for —THE MUDSLINGERS.

Songs and Jokes Big Chapel Event

Craven and Blenkinsop Well Liked by W. U. Audience Last Friday

The most enthusiastically received chapel of the year was that presented on Friday of last week by Everett Craven, '22 and Percival Blenkinsop, '19. After Doctor Doney's corial introduction Messrs. Craven and Blenkinsop at once endeared themselves to the W. U. audience by not making a speech. Mr. Blenkinsop assumed the role of master of ceremonies and presented Mr. Craven in a group of Negro spirituals. Percival Blenkinsop delighted the students both with his ability to sing a good song and to tell a good joke. By popular request of the faculty they sang the famous Gendarmes duet "We'll Run Them In." They interpreted this number with action that brought a gale of laughter from the audience.

Both Mr. Craven and Mr. Blenkinsop are Willamette alumni and were at the time of their attendance here, a part of the famous quartet which toured the country and bought the velvet drapes in the chapel with the profits accrued from this trip.

COFFEE HOUSE PLANS NEW CHAPEL PROGRAM

Plans are again being made for a Coffee House chapel program to be given within the month. A definite date will be made for it at the next meeting, April 12. At this time also, orders will be taken for the new pin, the drawing of which were presented at the last meeting.

OREGON'S COLLEGE CONFERENCE MEETS

On March 25 Albany college was hostess to the twenty-seventh Conference of the Independent Colleges of Oregon. A new plan was tried with considerable success this year. The faculty members and college presidents divided up into four groups including social science, natural science, and administration. President Doney was chairman of the administration group, and Dr. Laughlin was chairman of the social science group, which was permanently organized and will meet some time this month here at Willamette.

Having recently returned from China President Anderson of Linfield gave an interesting talk on the subject, Molding Student Attitude in International Problems. There was also an excellent discussion on the improvement of college instruction.

This organization, formerly a meeting of college presidents, was started by Willamette in 1908. It lasted for two days then but has since been shortened to Saturday. The members, all colleges and universities in the state not supported by taxation, are Albany College, Eugene Bible University, Linfield College, Oregon Institute of Technology, Pacific College, Pacific University, Reed College, and Willamette University.

The officers elected for next year are: president, President Andrews of Linfield; vice president, Dr. Bibb of Albany; and secretary-treasurer, Dr. Franklin, who held this office for 21 years.

Spring Recitals For Musicians Due

Series of One Hour Periods of Music Planned; Will Start Soon

The recital series of the School of Music always causes a good deal of comment and interest in town as well as in the university. For the benefit of the students who would like to make use of the opportunity to hear good music, and at the same time to hear the result of their friends and classmates work, these recitals are arranged to last for one hour only, in order not to break into study hours. The regular spring season of piano recitals begins on April 18 with a general recital wherein almost all of the students of the piano will be presented. Miss Clara Wright will be featured on this program, playing two groups.

On May 1 Lois Burton and Robert Reed, who are at present in Salem high school, although prospective Willamette students, will give a joint recital.

In honor of Music Week it has been a custom of the piano department to present an Ensemble program, including concertos and two-piano numbers. Some ensemble group of the voice department will assist.

May 15 is the date for the recital of Miss Elizabeth Boylan. Her work is well-known in Salem, and on the campus.

Miss Ruth Schreiber will give her Junior piano recital on May 24th. Maurice Dean, baritone, will assist.

Miss Frances Laws, who has been Senior Scholar in piano this year, will give an interesting recital on May 29th.

The last recital of the season, as far as is known now, will be given by Miss Marjory O'Dell.

The students are learning some very interesting music, ranging from the classics, to some of the cleverest modern numbers, and the programs promise to be very entertaining.

At present, the dates have not been set for voice recitals, due to the intensive work which the pupils have been doing on the opera, but the recital of Miss Elizabeth Clement, who is taking the title role in "The Bohemian Girl" will be a much anticipated musical event. Instead of giving a separate recital Maurice Dean will assist at the piano recital of Ruth Schreiber.

CO-ED CARNIVAL BIG SUCCESS; NO FOOLING

Although the co-ed Carnival, given Saturday evening, April 1, in the gym was an April-Fool's Day affair, nobody seemed to have been fooled as far as fun was concerned. Quite hilarious games were played during the evening and refreshments—well you know, refreshments are always fun.

"Midge" Hewitt, chairman of the social committee of the Y. W. C. A. was in charge of the carnival. Edith Sidwell took charge of the serving and Mary White and Isabel Morehouse had planned the entertainment.

Betrothal of Miss Atkinson Announced

Miss Elizabeth Atkinson, popular alumnae of the Delta Phi sorority, announced her betrothal to Mr. Paul W. Whitsett Jr., of Los Angeles.

The announcement was made in Portland at a lovely tea and also at the Delta Phi sorority house on Saturday evening at dinner.

The wedding will take place at her father's home in Hillsborough, California on June 22. Several charming parties are being arranged for Miss Atkinson by her sorority sisters.

Beta Chi Tea Informal Affair

Beta Chi members who were in Salem during spring vacation were hostesses at a pretty informal tea honoring a group of their Salem friends.

A yellow color scheme was effectively carried out with the use of many daffodils throughout the large living room of the chapter house. Beta Chi girls who were hostesses for the affair were Miss Esther Gifford, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Carolyn Braden, Miss Ruth Fick, Miss Barbara Elliott, Miss Lola Miller, Miss Betty Hawkins, Miss Mary Hazard, Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Eloise White, Miss Margaret Purvine, and Miss Florence Marshall.

Miss Bernice Rickman and Miss Lulu Allen were both hostesses to an informal party in honor of the cast of the opera "Bohemian Girl" at the Alpha Phi Alpha house during the spring vacation. The guest list included: Misses Ruth Schreiber, Elizabeth Clement, Edwyna Broadbent, Martha O'Dell, Edythe Glaisyer, and the Misses Bob Mayne, Maurice Dean, Richard Smart, Joe Felton, Lawrence Yarnes, and the hostesses.

Beta Chi Mothers To Give Tea Saturday

The Beta Chi Mothers' club will entertain with a beautifully appointed tea Saturday afternoon honoring Beta Chi members, alumnae and friends. The tea will be given at the home of Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer between the hours of three and five.

Guests at the Beta Chi house for tea last Sunday afternoon included Miss Betty Maffett, Miss Margaret Stevenson, Miss Frances Maeda, Mr. Melvin Crow, Mr. Phil Huth, Mr. Ralph Barber, Mr. Ben Briggs, Mr. Kenneth Peterson, Mr. Jim Allison, and Mr. Herbert Hardy.

Miss Lucille Summerlin was a guest at the Alpha Phi Alpha house several days this week, while visiting her friends, Miss Carolyn Schneider.

Miss Roberta Mills was a house guest at the Price home in Portland during vacation.

The members of Alpha Psi Delta entertained a group of Lausanne Hall girls at dinner Tuesday, April 4. The Easter motif was carried out in the decorative scheme. Guests for the occasion were Miss Margaret Stevenson, Miss Florence Zwifel, Miss Margaret Markham, Miss Agnes Corbell, Miss Agnes Gordon, Miss Frances Maeda, Miss Hannah Hazelton, and Miss Roberta Smith.

Miss Dorothy Alexander spent a portion of the vacation holidays visiting friends in Hillsboro and Portland.

Miss Katherine Horton was the guest of Miss Margaret Haight of Wentechee, Washington over spring vacation.

Complimenting Professor Cameron Marshall and his three "boys," Mrs. Rose J. Wilkes was hostess at an informal dinner at her home Saturday evening. Covers were placed for Professor Marshall, Maurice Dean, Gus Klempel, Bob Mayne, Arthur Fisher, Lois Wilkes, and the hostess, Mrs. Wilkes.

The girls at Lausanne Hall exchanged dinner dates with the Alpha Psi Delta, the Sigma Tau and the Kappa Gamma Rho on Tuesday evening, April 4.

Miss Jeryme Upston Hostess At Gay Affair

Large bowls of daffodils and lavender stalk flanked with orchid, green, and yellow tapers, made an effective setting for the attractive party at which Miss Jeryme Upston was hostess last Saturday. After an afternoon of informal entertainment the hostess served a dainty luncheon assisted by Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Esther Gifford and Miss Florence Marshall. Miss Dorothy Dalk received the guests at the door.

Those co-eds present at the party were Miss Carolyn Braden, Miss Louise Sidwell, Miss Edith Sidwell, Miss Clara Wright, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Esther Gifford, Miss Margaret Savage, Miss Margaret Purvine, Miss Dorothy Dalk, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Dorothy Ghormley, Miss Dorothy Alexander, Miss Roberta Mills, Miss Alice Speck, Miss Ruth Fick, Miss Anna-Jo Fleming, Miss Isabel Morehouse, Miss Florence Marshall, Mrs. Ethel Schrieber, and the hostess, Miss Jeryme Upston.

Informal Party Fetes Miss Savage

An informal party held at the home of Miss Margaret Savage was one of the most delightful of those given during spring vacation. The group of friends who gathered at the home of Miss Savage last Saturday enjoyed an evening of clever informal entertainment. At a late hour a pretty luncheon was served. Those present were Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Esther Gifford, Miss Dorothy Alexander, Miss Alice Speck, Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Pat Gallagher, Miss Margaret Savage, and Mr. Arthur Smith, Mr. Fred Paul, Mr. Wayne Doughton, Mr. Norman Speck, Mr. Ralph Stearns, Mr. Marvin Crawford, Mr. Stearns Eason, and Mr. Roy Lafky.

Miss Virginia Sprague was the guest of Miss Olive Jones of Bremerton, Washington over the holidays.

Alpha Psi Delta announces the pledging of Forrest Robinson of Portland, Oregon.

Miss Dorothy Dalk was a visitor in Portland during the vacation holidays.

Miss Marjorie Moser of Tenino, Washington and Miss Elizabeth Atkinson of Portland, were guests at the Delta Phi sorority house last week-end.

Miss Edythe Glaisyer was hostess at a luncheon Friday of Spring Vacation. Guests at the Glaisyer home were Roberta Varley, Dorothe Shepherd, a student of O. S. C., Bernice Rickman, Marjha O'Dell and Marjorie O'Dell. An informal afternoon followed.

Cap and Gown

(Continued from page 1) gown symbol of the organization. Miss Virginia Durkee presented a Tallman rose, the emblem of the society, to each of the initiates. Kate W. Jamieson, dean of Women at Oregon State college, gave the address. She commended the girls highly for their outstanding qualities of character, personality, and scholarship. Dean Jamieson also urged the necessity of high ideals in life and the choice of the "better things" in art, music and literature.

Each of the five girls chosen, is the senior scholar in her major field. Miss Adams in Economics, Miss Bishop in Chemistry, Miss Miller in Physical Education, Miss Savage in Biology, and Miss Sidwell in Mathematics.

Bearcats May Sing

Carkin Home Scene of Party

Mr. Earl Carkin was host at a smart informal party at his home on South Winter street last Thursday evening. The guests were entertained by various informal games, and at a late hour a delicious supper was served. Those present were Miss Lois Wilkes, Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Gwen Hunt, Miss Esther Gifford, Miss Beulah Craemer, Miss Florence Marshall and Mr. Arthur Fisher, Mr. Arthur Smith, Mr. Fred Paul, Mr. John MacCleanen, Mr. John Ross, and the host, Mr. Earl Carkin.

Arlene Kidnapped

(Continued from page 1) is Robert Mayne in the role of Thaddeus, a young Polish exile who has joined the gypsy tribe. Although a newcomer to the university, Mr. Mayne will be remembered as the lead in the production "El Bandido," two seasons ago. A soft drawl betrays the fact that he comes from Texas, where he has had the leads in several productions at Southern Methodist university.

Richard Smart as Devilshoof, genial yet villainous leader of the gypsies, proves to be one of the show's most lovable rogues. A deep bass voice with grand opera style probably will prove to be one of the most liked parts in the opera. Although a freshman in the university, Mr. Smart treads the boards with the assurance of a veteran.

In contrast with the likable un-couthness of Devilshoof, the role of Count Florestin, fastidious nephew of Count Arnheim, is played by Ralph Barber. He has proven himself a past master in art of dramatics and now undertakes to add fresh laurels by singing one of the trickiest roles in any opera.

Although seen but a short time, Dolores Clement, age four years, in the role of Arline during the first act, has captured the hearts of all who have attended rehearsals. During her bit of acting with a grace that many co-eds wish they possessed, she is certain to win the audience on the two nights of opera. As her nurse, Ruth Schreiber contributes one of the neatest dramatic acting performances on the stage. Melvin Crow, in the part of the brusque Captain of the Guard, who orders his army about in no uncertain tones, completes the list of principals.

Basses and Altos

A splendid orchestra is being organized to help the piano accompaniment. They will start practicing with the singers this week. Several of the original choir members are playing in the orchestra. The accompanists are Miss Barbara Barham and Miss Clara Wright.

The prices are very reasonable. The main floor seats are 50c and 40c. The balcony seats are 40c and 25c, and the loges both upstairs and on the main floor are 60c. Tickets may be bought from any member of the group, and reservations can be made, from today on, at the Opera House Pharmacy.

The opera is being sponsored as a benefit. All proceeds are to be put in a common fund which will help in sending Willamette's Philharmonic Choir to Chicago's World Fair this summer. Because it is a benefit the group decided not to make special student rates for this production.

Stanford Defeated

(Continued from page 1) in the forensic department won three firsts in state contests, including: Virginia Durkee, placing first in the Extemporaneous speaking contest for women; Ralph McCullough, placing first in the Extemporaneous content for men; and John Rudin taking first place in the state After-dinner speaking contest. Mr. Rudin also placed second in the after-dinner speaking at the Pacific Forensic League tournament. Ralph McCullough and Ray Lafky won fourth place in another contest.

FACULTY PROGRAMS FINISHED BY SIXTH

The sixth and last faculty lecture and musical program was presented Tuesday evening in Weller Hall.

The musical program began at 7:15 and consisted of organ numbers by Prof. Roberts and Miss Carolyn Parker. Prof. Marshall sang.

The lecture program began at 8:15. Dr. Vazakas, who has spent much of his life in European countries, was the speaker. He chose as his subject, "Will Europe's pot boil over?"

This series of programs, given for the purpose of sharing with the townspeople advantages enjoyed by Willamette students, has been well attended.

W. U. STUDENT TO BE FAMOUS AUCTIONEER

Ray Lafky is developing an admirable technique in speed reading which, if kept up, will place him in the championship class. At the last student body meeting he made a record of 14 constitutional amendments in 30 seconds flat. Lafky is training now in hopes of breaking this record at the next S. B. meeting when he will again read the amendments in an effort to get them voted upon.

As a reader, Lafky is the best bargainer this institution has as yet produced. His technique has also been described as somehow reminiscent of riveting machines. In fact, he is succeeding so well in his Rapid-Fire-Perussion method, that the reading of the constitutional amendments proved to be an oral "jig-saw puzzle" treat—quite a popular entertainment in this enlightened age! Don't miss the repetition of this treat at the next S. B. meeting, third Friday in April.

"As You Like It" is one of the most popular of Shakespeare's comedies. The scene of the play is in the Forest of Arden and it depicts the quaint pastoral life of the time. The play will be presented in full costume with appropriate scenery so that the audience will be able to feel fully the spirit of the play and of the age in which the action takes place.

SPARKS VISITS W. U. DURING SHORT REST

Professor and Mrs. L. J. Sparks and daughter Marion have returned to Palo Alto after spending a few days of spring vacation in Salem at the home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Sparks.

Professor Sparks, who is on leave of absence from Willamette university, is taking advanced work in physical education at Stanford. He is also director of athletics and physical education in the high school department of Menlo School, a private school for boys, and teaches hygiene in the junior college division of the same school.

Menlo has had an unusually successful year in athletics. Prof. Sparks has just completed his basketball season with a championship team, which won every conference game played—a total of eight games. The conference includes private schools of northern California, some of which are Talmadale, San Rafael Military Academy, Damon, Bates and Montezuma. His football team also won the conference championship with every game a victory.

It is expected that Professor Sparks and his family will return to Salem in September.

Interclass Meet Opens Track Season Tomorrow

First Meet Here April 7;
Coach Gilmore Predicts
Successful Season

Track will make its debut tomorrow on Sweetland Field when the representatives of the four classes meet in contest for the R. S. Keene trophy. This meet, which is an annual affair, promises to be the most interesting one ever to take place on the historic university field.

The senior class as the hosts are putting a strong team on the field and are planning to take the award. The juniors will probably have the smallest group to compete, but what this class lacks in quantity is assuredly present in quality. The pre-meet favorites are the second year men, who with numerous stars are confident of victory. The Freshmen are the "dark horses" of the meet and will be a cause of much worry to the other three classes.

This is the first time for several years that the meet is open to all students. Heretofore the lettermen have been barred from competition. By request of Coach Gilmore the meet has been planned so as to include these men. To make the meet more interesting there will be awarded five places in each event.

Under the rays of a warm sun the track team has been rounding into condition and has reached the stage at which intensive work on form and coordination will be stressed so that the team will be in readiness for the first meets.

The 1933 schedule has been only tentatively arranged, according to Coach Keene, it is possible that there may be some slight changes. As it now reads:

April 7—All school meet.
April 21—O. N. S., Salem Y., and W. U. at Salem.
April 28—Albany at Salem.
May 6—Pacific U. at Forest Grove.
May 12—Invitational meet (nite) at Salem.
May 19—Linfield at McMinnville.
May 27—Northwest Conference Meet at Forest Grove.

Coach Vernon Gilmore is very optimistic over the prospects for the season. Both he and Coach Keene are planning in building up the team strength so that a creditable showing will be made in the conference meet. Last year's team failed to take a first place in this meet. While Willamette has been concentrating on the other major sports, the other schools in the conference have been passing her by as far as track is concerned. At the present time not one Willamette man holds a conference record. This year W. U. should reach the top and should be able to boast of a well rounded athletic supremacy.

The team this year will be well rounded with the exception of one or two events. It is hoped that the All-school meet will uncover a great deal of material to help to fill up the few gaping holes. The dashes will be ably taken care of by James, Canady, and Lloyd, all returning lettermen. Among the old and new men who are expected to push the veterans to the limit are John Hawk, a Freshman from Wasco; Dick Lucke, a transfer from Pacific College, and Hamilton, a reserve with three years' experience. James, the midget hurdler, is the only letterman in this department. Rieke, the long-legged basketball star, is working out on the "tall sticks" and is pleasing Coach Gilmore with his prospects. Carpenter who gained some experience last year is the only other man working out in this department. This is one of the weakest spots on the whole team.

The middle distances will be well taken care of by McCullough and Armstrong, both lettermen, while Barnett and Nye, who are experienced reserves from last year's squad, and Waltz, Eason and Jones, all new men, will be working hard to displace them.

Willamette in the past has always been strong in the distances. This year will be no exception to this rule. With Lang, Dumas and Cook, all two year lettermen, this department will muster the greatest amount of experience on the squad. There are very few men working out for these events so it will be up to the old men to carry on.

Mearley and Adlard, who were new men with the squad last year, are expected to show great strength after their year of seasoning. Mearley, who ran the mile last year, is changing to the two mile, while Captain Dumas will replace him in the mile. The new men are Brown and Felker, who are showing up very well and are displaying a wealth of promise and spirit.

The weights will be handled very ably by Connors, Frantz, Olson, Smith and McKerron. Connors is the only letterman of the group but all of the others show experience and promise enough to assure them of success in the season's competition.

There are no javelin men from last year's squad in school so that the new men will have to carry the brunt of the responsibility. Welch and Wright are both showing some promise though both lack experience.

While the team is strong in most every department there is an apparent lack of jumpers. George Lloyd, one of the best men to ever wear a Willamette track suit, and Walt Erickson, should be able to take care of the broad jump. In the high jump the responsibility rests on Reike and Kloostra, who have both competed for Willamette, and McDonald, a Freshman who is also working on the pole vault and hurdles. Dean and Frantz from last year's squad will endeavor to hold up the standard for Willamette in the pole vault. Hunt Clark who transferred from U. of O. is an experienced man, but as yet has failed to report for practice.

There are several men working out who have had no experience. It is from these and from the talent uncovered in the interclass meet that the team must draw its reserve strength. These men are Dustin, Scott, Turner, Weid, and Anderson.

This will be the year that decides the fate of track at Willamette. Lack of interest and support have been the main factors in the downfall and it is only through a rejuvenation of the interest that it can regain its rightful position. With the pre-season indications of a strong squad, it remains up to the student body to decide the fate.

TENNIS PROSPECTS FAIRLY PROMISING

With three lettermen from last year's net team showing intentions of turning out again this year, outlooks for a successful tennis season are fairly promising.

Wee Roeder, star number one man of last year's squad, and Don Sanders, another letterman, are the two men who will be missed when candidates begin warming up in the next few weeks. Mel Good still has two years of competition but has decided not to play this year.

The three men who are returning this year are Fred Hageman, Tom Goyno, and Cece Harmon. Harmon and Goyno are both two year lettermen and have had considerable experience in varsity tennis competition. Fred Hageman, a regular as a freshman last year, has earned a permanent place on the team through his brilliant play last season.

As it is a custom to have a five man team, it will be necessary to find two new players to fill in the vacant places. Promising material in the freshman class are Talbot Bennett, former Milwaukee high school net star; Parker Gies, who gained experience on the Salem high school tennis squad, and Gordon Maurice of North Bend.

Bearcat Tails

by
PARKER GIES

With the appearance of spring we find the Bearcat track candidates working out daily on Sweetland field. More interest is being shown in this sport this spring than ever before. The Willamette cinder path is seeing plenty of usage as the Salem high track squad is also practicing on the field, lacking a suitable one of their own.

Vernon Gilmore, Salem high's likeable track coach, in addition to coaching the high school team is going to give part of his time to the Bearcat runners. The track squads of the two schools under Gilmore's supervision are out to make the students and the people of Salem track-minded this year or die in the attempt. And there is no good reason why they can't.

There is nothing more interesting to watch than a good track meet and in most parts of the county the meets draw large crowds. However, track has never flourished in Salem. The biggest reason for the lack of interest in this sport is that Salem has never had a good track. But this year the track on Sweetland field has been smoothed off and partly covered with cinders so that there will be at least a fairly decent place for holding the meets.

Something new in Salem is going to be tried out this year in the form of a night track meet under the arc lights of the Willamette field. It will be held May 12 and will be in invitational meet for the surrounding schools.

One reason why track has never been very popular in Salem is the manner in which the meets have been run off. A good track meet loses all its appeal and will become actually tiresome to the spectators when it is run off with long delays between the events. At the larger schools the meets are carried on in snappy fashion with some event going on at all times. With a more adequate field and the use of a public system for the announcing of the results of the events, there will be a number of interesting meets in Salem this year.

The other northwest conference schools go in for track in a big way and up to this year have almost always defeated the Bearcat track teams. However, Gilmore promises that this year Willamette will have a squad which will furnish plenty of competition for the other schools in the conference.

We read in the Whitman Pioneer lately that the Missionaries are already planning to run away with the Northwest tennis tournament which will be held on the Willamette courts in the latter part of May. They have five lettermen returning from last year's net squad and are confident that they can defeat anything which the other conference schools may produce. Undoubtedly the Willamette net men will have something to say about this. There are three Bearcat lettermen who are going to turn out for the team again this year and a number of promising players in the freshman class.

Evidently the competition will be pretty stiff in the northwest conference tennis play. Reports from Pacific university show that the Badgers have three lettermen returning and a number of new men who are showing up well. Albany college also reports better prospects for a winning tennis team than have in evidence in past years.

DEAN CLEANS HOUSE WHILE STUDENTS LOAF

During the spring vacation Dean Clark and his corps of workers held a general spring house cleaning of both the grounds and the building. The grounds were improved by raking and clearing and by the addition of crop fertilizer. The rose bushes were trimmed and the parking were cleared. Few shrubs were added to the plot of ground on the east of Eaton hall, improving greatly the muddy and unsightly spot.

The buildings were cleaned generally throughout.

D. T. G. CONFERENCE STARTS HERE APR. 7

Willamette's Daleth Teth Gimel plan to have a conference here April 7th and 8th for delegates from the colleges at Pullman, Washington, and Moscow, Idaho. Conferences are held each year, and it is the local D. T. G.'s turn to hold it this year. The visiting girls will be lodged at Lausanne Hall, Alpha Phi Alpha, and Beta Chi.

The program for the week-end is as follows: Friday afternoon, business meeting, at which one of the visiting presidents will take charge; Friday evening, formal dinner at the Masonic Temple; Saturday morning, a sight-seeing tour of the valley; also another business meeting, at which the other president will take charge; Saturday afternoon, formal tea at Bishops, from three to five; Saturday evening, buffet supper at the Presbyterian church.

The purpose of the conference is to discuss this year's policies, exchange ideas, and plan programs for enlargement.

LAUGHLIN IS HEAD OF NEW S. S. GROUP

At the twenty-fifth annual conference of the Independent Colleges of Oregon held last Saturday on the campus at Albany College Dr. Soeva Bright Laughlin of the faculty of Willamette university was elected chairman of the group of instructors in social science who attended the meeting. This group then formed a permanent organization with Prof. W. J. Jerome of Linfield college as secretary.

The next meeting of the members will be held on the Willamette campus on April 19, at which time the program committee appointed by Dr. Laughlin will present material of interest to the group for discussion. Social science instructors from Albany college, Linfield, Oregon Institute of Technology, Pacific university, Reed, Pacific college, and Willamette will attend this conference.

Midsummer's Night Dream was read at the Shakespeare club meeting Wednesday, April 5, at Willamette Lodge. Kenneth Oliver was in charge of the meeting.

MILLER TEAM WINS CO-ED VOLLEY BALL

The girls' volleyball tournament which was concluded last week proved to be perhaps the most exciting that has ever been held at Willamette and was thoroughly enjoyed by the girls. The championship team was captained by Mildred Miller and included Wanda Landon, Ada Thompson, Anoka Coates, Mary White, Pauline Pratt, Dorothy Durkee, and Winifred Gardner.

The personnel of the other three teams was as follows: Team 1, Frances Stewart, captain, Esther Gibbard, Frances Jackson, Alene Bickford, La Forest MacDonald, and Isabel Morehouse.

Team 2, Sydney Hannaford, captain, Agnes Corthell, Josephine Anderson, Esther Arnold, Betty Badley, Mildred Drager, Selko Watanabe, and Margaret Lange.

Team 3, Marie Fair, captain, Olga Janek, Vina Smith, Dorothy McDonald, and Betty Moffatt.

The all-star team which was chosen by popular vote of the girls who participated in the tournament is as follows:

Mildred Miller, Isabel Morehouse, Sydney Hannaford, Dorothy McDonald, Mary White, Olga Janek, Frances Stewart, and Esther Arnold.

Sharps and Flats

Mr. Gershkovich are arranging the program. The choir will sing two groups: the one with orchestral accompaniment will include "Hallelujah Chorus" from the "Mount of Olives," by Beethoven, and "Celestial Concerts" by Haydn; the other group will be sung by the choir alone, and consists of modern and beautiful arrangements of two negro spirituals, "Father Abraham" and "Plantation."

This concert will be particularly interesting to W. U. students and promises to be an outstanding music event.

$8000 KEEPS MANY STUDENTS IN SCHOOL

Approximately $8000 have been made available through contributions from various funds to enable more than 120 students to continue their schoolwork this semester. This means that the funds of the Methodist Board of Education, the Faculty Loan Fund and contributions by private parties have been used to aid twice as many students as have been helped last year. Dean Erickson states that due to these facilities fewer students have discontinued schoolwork than in previous years.

Jenne came to Pacific three years ago from Washington high school in Portland where his teams had enviable records in football, basketball, and track. During his stay at Pacific he has coached winning teams in the four major sports. Pacific football teams have beaten Willamette twice in this period but have failed to take a victory in basketball.

Jenne's resignation came as a surprise to the university. He stated that he was resigning because of illness in the family. However, he consented to remain until the end of the term and coach the Badger track and baseball teams.

It is rumored that he will try to get back his old post at Washington high school. Ray Wolf, the present mentor at Washington may trade places with Jenne as he has sent in his application for the Forest Grove coaching position.
