WELCOME

We offer you a cordial welcome to Willamette University, to all that it has been and is and is to be.

Here are traditions, fascinating history, treasured opportunities; these are yours to be translated into personal power. There is vast fun in doing this if you go about it in the right way.

It is a truism that what one gets out of any enterprise is proportioned to what one puts into it. Nowhere is this more inexorable than in college; and it is a sobering thought that the student has but one chance. A freshman usually begins his college career with a world of good intentions; the danger is that he will lose his enthusiasm, strong purpose, open attitude and the like, becoming perfunctory and intellectually inert. May heaven keep you from going to seed, from being cynical and top-lofty; instead we invite you to adventure, eager interest, searchings and the wonder of discoveries.

Very cordially yours,

CARL G. DONEY.

GREETING!

It gives me pleasure as President of the Associated Student Body to welcome you to Willamette University and to the student body of which you will be members. This organization is the voice of the students expressing themselves in such a way as to promote the welfare of the University. It is your duty, your privilege, and your pleasure to take an active part in student affairs, motivated always by the highest ideals of college men and women.

Conditions are most optimum here for college experiences that will ultimately lead to a greater and richer life. The University for you is now like a flower in the bud. The resultant blossom depends upon your individual and collected efforts. Now is the time to make Willamette University as you will so desire it when you become Alumni.

In solving the problems that confront college students, remember that "Willamette hates a quitter."

WALTER E. ERICKSON,

President A. S. W. U.

WELCOME!

It is my pleasure and privilege, on behalf of Blue Key Fraternity, to extend a hearty welcome to you who are entering Willamette for the first time.

Blue Key is a National Service Fraternity having for its purpose to serve in all phases of Campus life. Especially is it our aim to establish a close understanding relationship between our faculty and our students. We are seeking to fulfill a need that will soon be yours. So as we welcome you, we also offer our aid and cooperation. Give us an opportunity to be of service to you when we can.

As you take this new step in the process of growing up, it is our desire that we be a factor in making your first year at Willamette a success, for we have found that in the establishment of successful character and study habits in the first year lies the key to success for the ensuing years of college work.

Cordially yours,

RALPH A. FOSTER,

President Blue Key.

GREETINGS '36

The Cubs extend a most hearty welcome to you of the class of '36. You are in new surroundings, are meeting new friends, and doing new things. You have chosen to undergo the difficulties and to enjoy the pleasures that college will bring to you. A correct start will do much toward helping you obtain a real worthwhile education.

The "Cubs" is an underclass social organization whose purpose is to serve Willamette University and its students. As "Cubs," we serve Willamette by upholding the traditions that have become a cherished part of the University. As Freshmen, it will be your duty and privilege to learn these traditions and to live up to them as true Willamette students. Strive to keep the school's name foremost in scholarship and athletics, then be proud of it.

Sincerely yours,

GARFIELD BARNETT,

President of the Cubs.

WELCOME

Freshmen Girls:

As members of the Y. W. C. A. we welcome you and invite you to join with us in carrying on a program of personal development and social service. We want you to help us create a feeling of friendship among the girls and a spirit of fellowship with God.

But we also want to help you in any way possible. Our Big Sisters are always willing to try to answer these perplexing questions that arise in any Freshman girl's mind, to make you feel at home, to show you the campus and the town, and make you love Willamette as we do. We want to become really acquainted with you, because there is much that one can gain from university life besides book knowledge, and friendship is a very important part of it. We invite you to work with us in fulfilling our purpose:

We unite in the desire to realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him.

DOROTHY ROSE,

President of the Y. W. C. A.

TRADITIONS

We are WILLAMETTE STUDENTS, first, last, and always!

A smile and "Hello" are expected from every student at all times and without exception.

Rise when "The Old Historic Temple" is sung.

Learn the yells and songs in this book.

Freshmen do not enter or leave chapel by the side doors.

Only Seniors use the Senior bench.

Only upperclassmen wear corduroys.

Freshmen do not wear high school pins, rings, or emblems.

Students do not smoke on the campus.

Street shoes are not worn on the gym floor.

Go to all Student Body and Class meetings.

Each student is a member of a Christian organization.

Student's mail addressed to Willamette University is placed in the alphabetical mail boxes on the first floor of Eaton Hall.

Attend all rallies and games.

Freshmen are required to do a certain amount of work on the campus and athletic field.

Willamette students are good sports in all inter-collegiate contests.

The library is a place for study.

No applause after "Farewell Willamette."

Uphold the Honor Code.

Every student a booster.

FRESHMEN REMEMBER

That Willamette has many traditions sacred to our University, and we are depending upon you to preserve and cherish these traditions.

That the University's courtesy at athletic contests is above reproach. Do your part to keep it so.

That it is a good principle to write to the folks at home at least once a week.

That the churches of Salem offer something that the University cannot give to your life.

That you are a Willamette man now. Be proud of it.

To tip your hat to Doctor Doney. He has done much for the University.

To keep your eye on your studies. They merit your consideration.

To get acquainted with your professors. They are a fine bunch of fellows.

To forget that you came from any particular high school and keep quiet about your prep school records.

A GOOD FRESHMAN WILL

Wear his cap with proper spirit.

Learn his school songs and yells and join in when he hears them.

Stand and remove his cap when the "Alma Mater" is being sung or played.

Follow the walks on the campus.

Say "hello."

Obeys the University traditions.

TIPS TO FRESHMEN

Your first year is one of preparation for the remaining three. Choose your course of study carefully and having chosen, work it hard. Do your work daily. It is easier to keep up than to catch up.

Do not be afraid to cultivate your instructor's acquaintance. The opportunity to know earnest students is one of their chief delights, and the advantage to you may be inestimable.

Do not let the turmoil of the first week disturb your equilibrium too violently. Take a reasonable share of social life. Play is an essential part of normal development.

VICTORY FOR W. U.

Vict'ry for W. U.
 The bell in the tower rings,
 The battle's done;
 The victory's won;
 Card'nal and Gold are flaming
 Proudly o'er us.
 Here's to the Bearcat team
 Who carried our colors through!
 Our song shall go
 Till the world will know
 There's a vict'ry for W. U.!

FIGHT, BEARCATS, FIGHT!

Fight, Bearcats, fight!
 A victory for W. U.,
 The Card'nal and Gold,
 Victorious of old,
 Shall give us a spirit ever new.
 Card'nal courage shows,
 And Gold is our faith so true.
 We shout our war cry now to you—
 Come on and fight, fight, fight,
 Fight, fight, fight!

OLD HISTORIC TEMPLE

There's an old Historic temple
Rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken-hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers.
Down the years its portals open,
Gathers wise ones to its fold;
Breathes the spirit of the Westland,
Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Spirit of the Golden Westland,
Breathing through our fathers' tears;
Tells the story of the Temple.
Bids us hope adown the years.
Sing, oh sing, of old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true;
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old school, our W. U.

FIGHT 'EM BEARCATS

Fight 'em, Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette through the years;
Fight with mighty strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.
Fight 'em Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold,
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted Gold.

FIGHT, SONS OF OLD WILLAMETTE

Fight, sons of Old Willamette,
Fight 'til the battle's done;
With a valor ever bold
For the Card'nal and the Gold
Fight 'til the vict'ry's won!
Many hearts are standing by you
With a spirit ever true;
Fight with courage never dying
Fight! Willamette U.

WILLAMETTE SPRING SONG

Oh, springtime at Willamette,
There's naught could sweeter be!
Like mists by sunlight melted,
The clouds of trouble flee,
And all of life seems gladness
At just a sparrow's trill,
Or glimpse of maple blossoms,
Our hearts with rapture thrill.

Oh, sweet is day's stern labor,
We conquer without fear;
And sweet the hours of evening
When college friends are near.
So gathered here at twilight
Amid the shadows long,
Soft notes of youth and springtime
Are mingled in our song.

CHALLENGE TO LOYALTY

There's a cardinal bar from a western sky,
And a golden beam from the sun,
The cardinal for the men of old
Whose valiant courage won,
To these memories we are loyal,
They were wrought with a purpose true,
On these we build our standards
And our faith in Willamette U!

There's a challenge flung from this western sky,
And this golden beam of light,
There's a flaming hope of victory
That will guide us ever right,
And from these colors blended,
The cardinal and golden hue,
We gain the strength of our loyalty,
And our love for Willamette U!

WILLAMETTE NIGHT SONG

Over the moon's bright circle
Clouds like a curtain creep
The night with sombre darkness
Covers the world asleep.
Then the moon by the clouds unveiled,
Casts of flood of silvered light
And my longing heart turns to singing
This fantasy of the night.

Chorus:

Dream on, Oh fairest one
Wrapt in gentle slumber
Sleep on, while yet the moon so softly beams;
Dream on in sweet repose
Lulled by songs of love
And may their spirit weave into your dreams
Sleep on while still the night
Robed in velvet splendor
Has charmed Willamette with its magic spell
My heart bids you sweet farewell
For the paling stars foretell
Night shall fade in morning light,
Fairest one, goodnight—goodnight.

The years shall pass by us swiftly
Dimming youth's brightest rays
But the mem'ries of life's gay springtime
Will lighten the darkest days;
The spell of our dear Willamette
Binds our hearts with a golden chain
And the song we sang together
Shall echo for us again.

QUEEN OF THE WEST

The East may love old Harvard,
 The North love old Cornell;
 But the school of fame, whose noble name,
 Forever shall excel
 Stands proudly in the Westland
 Where friends are staunch and true:
 We love our dear old college,
 So here's to W. U!

Chorus—

Willamette, to thee we will be true,
 Willamette, we'll ever fight for you,
 We pledge our loyalty.
 Our homage pay to thee,
 Pride of all the West, you are the best,
 Willamette, our hearts we pledge anew,
 Willamette, our fealty to you,
 Faithful we will be
 With staunch fidelity.
 Willamette, queen of all!

Fling high our glorious colors
 The Cardinal and the Gold,
 Exalt the dream which stands supreme
 Wrought by the men of old.
 With eager hearts and voices
 And veneration true:
 Sing forth our acclamations
 Bold sons of W. U.

ON WILLAMETTE

On Willamette, ever onward,
 To the highest goal in view,
 From the bell tower rings the story
 Of thy conquests, W. U.
 In our mighty Alma Mater
 Let our faith be ever bold,
 That victory may be the prize,
 Of the Cardinal and the Gold.

TRUE TO YOUR SPIRIT

True to your spirit!
On brave warroirs to the end
Fight till the foe shall fear us
Till the enemy's haughty head shall bend,
On for Willamette,
Fight the battle as of old,
Victory the prize shall be
Of the cardinal embossed with gold.

CANNIBAL KING

A cannibal king with a big nose ring
Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
And every night when the moon shown bright

Across the canal he'd wade
To hug and kiss this dusky miss
Out under the big bay tree,
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:

Oh, Jason Lee, socretty boo-ya
Oh, Poppa Waller, chenickety umba
Umba—Umba—Um—

WILLAMETTE

There's a school we call Willamette
That will ever prompt our praise,
For 'tis there we win our victories
And there our standards raise.
It's a school that makes true sportsmen
And will lasting service give
To those who dare to do their share
And fight that she might live.

Chorus—

Willamette, Willamette, we're with you to the end!
Willamette, Willamette, our voices gladly blend
To cheer you, revere you and your undaunted fame,
Oh, Willamette U,
We will see you through
And guard your glorious name!

DREAM ON

The stars are softly gleaming,
 In the shadows of the night.
 The moon like glowing silver
 Covers all with mellow light.
 The world is resting peaceful
 From the hurry of the day,
 So now beneath your window
 Do I sing to you and say—

Chorus—(Boys sing)

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
 Till the golden heart of you
 Thrills with night-time's beauty,
 And your fairest dream come true.

(Girls sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
 Till the youthful heart of you
 Thrills with life and love and glory,
 And your fairest dreams come true.

The mill stream ripples onward
 Through the mottled shade of trees,
 The moon is wafted gently
 By the golden evening breeze.
 And making light the shadows
 Dance the moonlight fairy beams
 And they mingle with our music
 And they harmonize your dreams.

WA HOO

Wa hoo wa hoo
 Rip zip ba zoo,
 I yell, I yell for W. U.
 Wa hoo wa hoo wa hoo
 Well! well, well,
 Well, well, well, well,
 Well, well, well, well,
 Wa hoo, etc.

BEND THE KNEE

Bend the knee, yes, bend the knee
To the Cardinal and the Gold;
Before the Bearcats' fighting power
Mars himself must even cower.
Rise, ye sons of Jason Lee,
We will win the victory.
So bend bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

Victory; yes, victory to the Cardinal and the Gold;
Then fearful foes will bite the dust,
For win we will, for win we must.
Onward, then to mastery,
This our conquering song shall be;
So bend bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

VICT'RY FOR W. U.
Vic'ry for W. U.

I LOVE WILLAMETTE U

I love Willamette U.
I love her campus too;
I love her Profs so good and true,
I love her spirit real true blue.
I love the old mill stream,
I love to sit and dream;
I see it all in shadows cool,
I love our dear old school.

SERENADE SONG

When all the campus is sleeping,
Bathed in a silv'ry glow,
Lulled to rest by the mill stream,
Murmuring soft and low,
Our voices will lift 'neath your window,
Soft as the palest moonlight
Not to disturb your fair slumbers;
But wish as we bid you good night.

Chorus—

While you are sleeping, sleeping,
Under the milky way,
Wrapt in the shadow of night-time.
Far from the cares of the day;
May you be dreaming, dreaming,
Dreams of a love ever true
Love that a lad of Willamette
Holds in his heart for you.

Hark! as the voices of nature
Break thru the quiet night,
The singing sigh of the tree tops
Whispering low and light,
The distant chirp of the cricket,
Night breezes age-old song
Oh, may you hear in your dreamland
The wish of this choral throng.

CHEER, WILLAMETTE, CHEER!

Stand! Willamette loyal,
Stand you true,
Defeat is not for you
Who see the battle through;
For our Willamette band,
Oh, triumph team;
You pass from hand to hand
The flaming battle brand,
And we shall shout the rousing chorus,
Cheer, Willamette, Cheer!

GO TO CHURCH

History records man as a being who worships. The desire to worship is universal. Among every people of whom we have record, signs of worship have been discovered. Let us develop and direct this instinct of worship.

Today, while attending college, most of us are away from home; yet the deep wish in the heart of every father and mother is that we remain true to the teachings of our youth. By home training and tradition we have some knowledge of the purposes and claims of religion. We believe that in the Bible man finds a standard whereby to guide his life. Religion in its broadest sense is life lived in all its relationships. Religion is the ballast which steadies man's life. Religion is friendship with God.

Willamette wishes to co-operate with the churches of Salem. We have included this church directory in the handbook with the special hope that the church going habit learned at home may not be lost at college.
