GREETINGS.

To all the students of the University, new and old, we extend sincere and cordial greetings. We are glad that you are with us and we welcome you to the historic halls of Willamette University. We hope that we may be mutually helpful.

The first year at the University is doubly important. It may influence not only the character of your university career, but it may determine and foreshadow your course through life. It is very essential then that your associations and your friendships be formed with great discretion.

The Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association do not exist for themselves but for the larger social and spiritual life of the University.

Your presence with us is a testimony to the fact that you crave opportunities for a greater development of heart and mind and an adequate preparation for the responsibilities of life. We earnestly hope that you will ally yourselves with the Christian work of the University and by your loyal cooperation bring to yourselves and to others rich experiences in Christian fellowship that you will cherish through years to come.

To New Students.

The New student is always welcome at Willamette. This mother of Oregon's schools has helped hundreds of young men and women to approach their higher ideals, and it will help you if you get in line. Take a year or two, if necessary, but learn as soon as possible what you would like to become, then set about resolutely to reach that end. Though it be distant, if the end be worth death or victory, go after it with energy and never get badly discouraged.

The School endeavors to the utmost of its ability to guide the student toward his goal, to assist him when the work is difficult, and to instruct him daily in the deeper principles and problems of life. So get in line, find out what benefit you wish to derive from the school, get to work, mind your own business, make the place better by example, and be loyal to the institution. And in the future you will possess a liberal education, deep enough to sympathize with the most lowly of humanity, and high enough to know and reverence God.

Meetings.

The devotional meetings are held each Wednesday at 7:00 p m. in the Philodorian Hall, on the third floor. A series of five-minute prayer meetings is conducted daily at 11:45 in one of the regular session rooms. These meetings are led by the various members of the Association and prove a great inspiration to all who attend.

Bible Study.

Systematic Bible study is carried on under the leadership of able leaders. Classes will be offered in Sharman's "Life of Christ, "Bosworth's "Acts and Epistles," and White's "Old Testament" During the past year a very interesting class has been held by Mrs. Cornelius.

Mission Study,

During the past year Dr. Washburn, one of the professors in the college of Theology, conducted a joint class of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. in mission study. A similar class will be conducted this year in which the students may learn the problems and achievements of the modern missionary enterprise.

The colleges of the Pacific Coast have placed a secretary for the Y. W. C. A. in Tokio, Japan, towards whose support our department pays $15 annually.

Employment Bureau.

The fall campaign committee will have charge of a list of places for the employment of girls during the winter. Any girl desiring to work for her board or wishing employment during the holidays, should not hesitate to consult the chairman of the committee in room 11

Social.

Among the first and most interesting and social affairs of the college year are those provided for by the Christian Associations. On Saturday afternoon of the first week the Y. W. C. A. entertain, informally, the new girls, and later during the winter various social functions are presented, some jointly with the young men, and others for the girls.

We invite, most cordially, all girls to be present at the opening receptions, as social intercourse makes up so much of college enjoyment that we are anxious to do our part in making your acquaintance and assisting you to begin your college course among pleasant friends.

Seaside.

The Seaside conference is the Northwest conference of the Associations of the various colleges of Washington, Oregon and Idaho. The privileges and delights of Seaside can only be told by a former delegate. Willamette was represented by twelve girls this year, this being the largest delegation of any of the associations represented.

The young women meet annually for the purpose of gaining strength in their own Christian life and efficiency in serving others; but especially in working for the increased usefulness of the Association.

A Dean of Women has been appointed who will be a helpful friend and confidential advisor of the young women of the University. She desires to become personally acquainted with them and to render such assistance as she can. The City Young Men's Christian Association has a well equipped building on the corner of Commercial and Chemeketa streets. They extend cordial welcome to all students. Members of the College Association upon presenting their membership card will receive due recognition and will have the use of the members' parlor, game room and reading room.

Extract from the Constitution. Article II.—Object.

The object of this Association shall be to promote growth in Grace and Christian fellowship among its members, and aggressive Christian work, especially by and for students, to train them to devote their lives to Jesus Christ, not only in distinctively religious callings, but also in secular pursuits.

Article III. - Membership.

Sec. 1.-The active membership of the Association shall consist of men, either students or members of the faculty, of this institution, who are members in good standing of some evangelical church, and have been elected by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting. Only active members shall vote and hold office.

Sec. 2.—Any man of good moral character, either student or member of the faculty of this institution, may become an associate member by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any meeting.

The membership fee shall be $1.00 per year, payable at the opening of the college year.

Sec. 4.—It shall be the duty of each member to co-operate heartily in carrying out the objects of the Association in Article II., according to the policy determined by the Association or Executive Committee.

Statement.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Willamette University stands for the best there is in college life. It is the strongest organization in college, including among its members the strongest men both in athletics and scholarship. A cordial invitation is extended to every man in the University to ally himself with the Association either as an active or associate member.

Bible Study.

The Systematic study of the Bible is being recognized more and more as a necessary part in a well-rounded education. This need is met by the Association Bible Study Classes. The importance of the Morning Watch is also emphasized by this department. The following courses will be offered, with strong men as leaders:

Studies in the Life of Christ (Shar-man.)

Studies in the Acts and Epistles (Bosworth.)

Studies in Old Testament Characters

(White.)

Studies in the Teachings of Jesus and His Apostles (Bosworth.)

Missions.

The Association endeavors to stimulate an intelligent interest in the Missionary movement by means of its Mission Study Classes. One or more courses will be offered this year.

Meetings.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock is held the regular Association meeting. This meeting is given up chiefly to talks and addresses on topics of concern to thoughtful college men. A weekly prayer meeting is held every Wednesday noon, 11:55 to 12:10. Every noon a few men gather for a few minutes in the Noon-day Prayer Circle. You are cordially invited to each of these meetings.

Conventions.

The Oregon-Idaho State Convention is held each year at one of the City Association or College towns, and is a source of inspiration and help to all who can attend. The greatest event, however, in a Y. M. C. A. man's life, is the Gearhart Conference, lasting ten days, held at Gearhart Park, Oregon. We want ten men to go next Spring. Be one.

Room.

Room 11 at the head of the stairs on the second floor is known as the Association Room. Here you will find the Employment and Information Bureau with lists of rooms, boarding places, and places to work. Make this room your headquarters for the first few days. Don't hesitate to ask questions.

Social.

Every man, especially if he is new, is urged to be present at the "Stag Social" Saturday night, Sept. 28, in the Gym. The Joint Reception, the second week, given by the two Associations, is the big event of the opening weeks. Don't miss it.

College Organizations.

The Student Body

is the organizaton of the students of all departments of the University, having for its object the controlling of the student enterprises. A fee of $3, payable with the tuition, is charged each student for defraying the expenses of the Student body.

Girls Student Association.

The Girls of the University are organized into the Girls' Student Association. To them falls the task of arranging the social functions of the Student Body.

The Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations

are organizations for promoting the religious welfare of the students and aiming at the development of noble Christian character.

The Philodorian Society

is the oldest literary society in the University, having for its object the promotion of oratory, debate and general literary work. Their sister society,

The Philodosian Society,

serves the same purpose among the girls.

The Websterian Society

is a new and strong society with the same object, while especially emphasizing debates.

The Adelante Society is a society for girls. It was organized during the past year, and by its good work has already won a place among the other literary societies.

The Oratorical Association

is an organization of all college students, aiming at the development of oratory in the University. The local association sends a representative, chosen in a local contest, to the annual state contest.

The Annual Inter-Literary Society Contest is held at the end of each college year, at which time representatives from each society compete for the Silver Cup.

Debates.

Debating at Willamette is under the supervision of a Debate Council, which arranges for the Intercollegiate Debates.

The Campus Tennis Club,

a body of students interested in tennis, keeps in order two courts on the campus for local games and arranges Intercollegiate tournaments.

PUBLICATIONS.

The Willamette Collegian,

the college paper is published weekly by a staff elected by the Student Body. This is a newsy and interesting paper; every student should subscribe.

The New Willamette.

Last spring a very neat souvenir book was published by two students. The book contains fine cuts and attractive reading matter pertaining to Willamette life. Copies of the "New Willamette" can be obtained at the Varsity Book Store.

Students' Handbook

published annually by the Christian Associations.

ATHLETICS.

Athletics at Willamette have a bright outlook for the future. The Gymnasium and classes are to be under the supervision of a competent physical director. Intercollegiate games will be played in football, basket ball, base ball, tennis, and on the track. Some excellent records were made in the sports last year and the prospects for the coming year are very bright.

Hail Willamette My Willamette.

Tune-Tramp, Tramp.

Hail Willamette, first and best Day Spring of the golden West! Sound her praises, youths and maidens in her song;

Tell her glorious works afar,
Tell how great her triumphs are,
Tell the world that all our hearts to her belong.

CHORUS.

Hail Willamette, my Willamette! Alma Mater, audi me,

Oh, I sing thy praise today With true heart and true for aye Eversinging, dear Willamette, hail to thee.

Happy students are we here,
Bound in ties of friendship dear,
And we owe our hopes of high attainment all

To the blessings we enjoy, Sheltered from the world away In the pleasant shades of old Willamette halls.

Hail Willamette, hail to thee! Sing we still thy jubilee; and when other fifty years away have rolled,

Would we might again unite
In a chorus of delight,
Singing with our children then thine age of gold.
