MINISTER THINKS WIFES LOVE LOST

CANDIDA TO BE PRODUCED

Drama to be Put on in Oregon Theatre Under Auspices of Salem Women

AN ENGLISH clergyman socialistic in tendencies was aroused by jealousy of his wife whom he thought was in love with a younger man to such an extent that he realized his true status in life. Such in brief is the plot of the play "Candida" to be put on by the Theta Alpha Phi dramatic fraternity under the auspices of the local chapter of American University women at the Oregon Theatre, January 18, 1929.

Is Three Act Comedy

"Candida" is a three act comedy by Bernard Shaw set in England dealing with the unfolding of the life of the Reverend Mr. James Morell, an English socialistic clergyman who has been dominated by the influence of his wife Candida, in the home and shielded by her in his outside relationships. He is aroused by jealousy over a supposed rivalry existing between himself and a young man, Marchbanks, to such an extent that he becomes aware of the dominating influence which his wife has had over his affairs and activities.

A continuous vein of humor is Garnet Furnishes Humor furnished by the stenographer, Miss Garnet, and the father-in-law, Burgess, who is an ignorant self-opinionated capitalist. Lexie Mull is the assistant clergyman to Morell.

The part of Candida is taken by Helen Stiles, and that of her husband by Frank Alfred. The young man, Marchbanks, is portrayed by Eric Anderson while the choice of the actors for the part of the stenographer lies between Miss Pugh and Miss Riddell. Charles Kaufman plays the part of the father-in-law, while the assistant clergyman is played by Michael Fitzpatrick.

The play is being produced under the combined coaching of Miss Marjorie Walker and Dr. R. M. Gatke. Reeve Betts is handling the managing end of the production being assisted by Paul Chalmers who will handle the stage.

WILLAMETTE GRAD SERIOUSLY INJURED

Beach Patton, '28, was not expected to live according to last word received as result of injuries received when an automobile driven by a drunken man traveling at a high rate of speed struck him at Fifth and Glessan streets in Portland last Friday.

The "spirited" party picked him up, drove to the east side, and dumped him down beside a service station, proceeding on his way. Patton was later found by the owner of the filling station and was rushed to the hospital in an unconscious state. Patton is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Patton of Dundee, Oregon.

KAUFMAN CONDUCTS KAPERS AND SHOW

Style Show is Noted Success with Models Showing Season's Fashions

Aided by the introductory remarks of Charles Kaufman master of ceremonies the Kollegiate Kapers and Style show progressed to a successful end Monday night. Previous to the modeling of the latest styles by university students W. U. talent conducted several vaudeville acts.

Opening the program with an orchestra number by the "Vagabonds" attired in red sweaters and crusher felts the audience beheld a magician in the personage of Clarke Wood. Following Mr. Wood's disappearance the Kampus Kut-ups took the stage.

JUNIORS DISCUSS NEW STUDENT AMENDMENTS

At a class meeting Wednesday noon the Juniors discussed the proposed amendments to the A. S. B. constitution. A general agreement was reached by those present that it would be better to transfer 8% of the class funds to the athletic department rather than only 5% from the classes and 3% from the Wallulah.

CHARITY DONATION MADE BY INDEPENDENT WOMEN

The Women's Independent Association held a meeting after Chapel last Thursday to discuss more fully their Christmas plans. On account of the "flu" epidemic, they found it necessary to call off the Christmas party they had planned for the poor children, which was to be given Tuesday, December 18, at Lausanne hall.

KITS ARE NOT DOOMED IN ORGANIZATION YET

Faculty Lays Matter on Table for Future Reference, School Out Friday Noon

The faculty in their regular weekly meeting Tuesday deferred action on the proposed woman's pep organization "Kits" until a future meeting. This does not mean that the matter of the order is dropped but that further time must be given for consideration.

Dr. Kohler presented a report on the Book List which was received by the members of the group without any definite move being made upon the report. The List contained a number of books collectively general in their scope which will be submitted to the students for their future reference and reading in an informal manner.

The time of dismissal of school was left as has been previously stated to be on Friday noon.

MEN'S HOUSES OPEN SORORITIES CLOSED

Fraternity houses on the campus will be open for the students staying over the Christmas vacation but sororities and Lausanne Hall will be closed. The Alpha Phi Alpha house will be rented to town people.

There are no women staying from Beta Phi and only one from Beta Chi. Lausanne Hall will probably be closed because there are only two women staying.

Sigma Tau will house probably ten men but no meals will be served. There will be only one man at Kappa Gamma Rho so there will be no meals served. There will be no meals served at Alpha Psi Delta because of the small number staying.

STUDENTS INVITED TO ALUMNI DINNER

December 27 is Date Set for Gathering, Blue Key Handles Attendance

All Willamette students who can be in Portland at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, December 27, are invited to attend the Alumni dinner to be given at that time at Henry Thiele's restaurant.

These alumni gatherings are held regularly every month in Portland, but a special program is being arranged for this meeting. Elsie Gilbert Jackson, '22, secretary of the Younger Portland Group, has written to especially urge that all students living in the city be present.

The Blue Key fraternity is again taking charge of the handling of attendance at the meeting, and those planning on attending should get in touch with Ivan White, president, or William Smullin, vice-president. An attempt will be made to furnish cars for those wishing to attend from Salem, with a small provision being made for actual expenses.

TYPEWRITER STOLEN FROM COLLEGIAN

A brand new L. C. Smith typewriter disappeared from the Collegian office Tuesday. Combined efforts of the staff failed to locate the machine or any clue as to its whereabouts. The typewriter was the latest model put out by the Smith company. Its loss marks the addition of another item to the recent list of thieveries on the campus.

IRISH APPLY FOR N. W. ADMITTANCE

ERICKSON AND KEENE GO

Willamette Gets Tennis Meet; Whitman Track, Albany Petition Refused

The application of Columbia university of Portland was accepted by the representatives of the Northwest conference in their annual session at Portland last Friday, but admission to the conference was postponed until further action could be taken next year. This latter provision was made by the delegates on account of the fact that Columbia has only been a credit giving institution for one year.

Further consideration of the problem of expansion was given to Albany college whose application had been in the hands of the representatives for the past two years, but which was formally disallowed at the meeting in Portland.

The petition of the Portland university was presented by Father Kelley, president. The Irish have had athletic relations with several of the colleges now in the conference, and during the coming basketball season will in all probability be seen on the local floor.

During the course of the parley the time and place of the spring meets were determined. The tennis matches will be held here on May 24th and 25th; the track meet at Whitman on May 30; the baseball championship meet on May 23rd, and 24th at either Whitman college or the College of Idaho, depending on which teams are eligible for the fray.

HALF OF STUDENTS RESIDE IN MARION

Ten States and Four Counties Represented in Willamette Campus Enrollment

Ten states and four foreign countries are represented by the students on the Willamette campus, according to tabulations made in the registrar's office. Of the total enrollment of 531 people 436 give Oregon as their home address. All the counties in the state, except eight of the most south-eastern, and 77 different towns are represented. Marion county of course sends the most, with a total of 256, and Multnomah is next with 64.

Washington students number 63 from 42 towns. Other states and their totals are: Idaho, 12; California, 4; Montana, 3; North Dakota, 2; South Dakota, 1; Wisconsin, 2; Kansas, 1; Illinois, 1.

The point farthest away which sends a representative is Sweden. The other three foreign nations are China, 3; Korea, 1, and Japan, 1.

Collegian Makes Error

The Collegian wishes to make a correction in the statement about the accident between the cars of Dr. Franklin and Mr. Kaufman. Mr. Franklin was proceeding South instead of West as stated, and having come to a full stop at a point of thirty feet from place where he was hit, could not have gained a great speed.

Dead as a Door-Nail

"Marley was dead, to begin with . . . as dead as a door-nail. Mind! I don't mean to say that I know, of my own knowledge, what there is particularly dead about a door nail. I might have been inclined, myself to regard a coffin nail as the deadiest piece of ironmongery in the trade. But the wisdom of our ancestors is in the simile; and my unhallowed hands shall not disturb it, or the country's done for. You will therefore permit me to repeat, emphatically, that Marley was as dead as a door-nail."

The foregoing is not my paragraph. It was written by a chap of whom you've probably heard, named Dickens. It is the beginning of a Christmas story, as this is the beginning of a Christmas editorial.

Now Marley's name is seldom mentioned in connection with the Christmas time—Scrooge would in all probability carry a much stronger connotation. But if you will remember "Scrooge never painted Old Marley's name out." It stood for years afterward, there above the warehouse door. So, if you will, Marley was in that firm, and Marley will be in this editorial.

Suppose that Marley were to wander back this Christmas eve; Marley who was big hearted and smiling, the partner of tight-fisted Scrooge. We do not have the picture of a hard hearted buzzard thawing out, but one of amiable personality capable of absorbing and radiating the Yuletide spirit.

Marley would have a cheery "Merry Christmas" for all with whom he had occasion to come in contact. It is the spirit of the greeting given by him which permeates the atmosphere of the holiday season, and is that social influence which one carries around with himself for a brief period of the year.

It is the spirit which Christ meant for us to have the whole year long.

That Sixteen Inch Boiler

"At one time there was a steamboat plying the Mississippi river which had a sixteen inch boiler and a twenty inch whistle. Every time that its whistle blew it backed up." There are many individuals who are so intent upon blowing their twenty inch whistle that they fail to realize that they are backing up as a result of the strain upon their sixteen inch boiler.

Doves of The Press

Fourteen British journalists who spent two months touring the United States under the auspices of the Carnegie endowment for international peace have been welcomed back to their native London. Lord Riddell, vice chairman of the Newspaper Proprietors' association, said it was of primary importance that Great Britain and America should understand each other, as an understanding of customs and ideals does not now exist. Ralph D. Blumenfeld, one of the tourists, replied that the delegation of British editors had returned home as pro-American as they were pro-British and that the mission should work great good for both countries.

It is not a bad idea to work for international peace through the world's leading journalists. Everyone is somewhat like Will Rogers in molding their opinions almost entirely by what they read in the daily papers. But, on the other hand, before the editors can undertake seriously the accomplishment of such lofty aims as world peace, they will have to overcome a tendency to arouse the fighting blood in human hearts by the free use of misspelled names, twisted initials, and the other things that take all the pleasure out of seeing one's name in print.

Twelve Years Ago

The first Friday after the holidays will mark the opening of the local basketball season the W. U. Bearecks clashing with the fast California quintet. Last year the varsity held them down to 35 to 20 score.

The Beethoven club composed of the younger violin and piano pupils of Miss Joy Turner, held a profitable meeting Saturday afternoon in Miss Turner's studio. After an interesting program the remainder of the afternoon was spent in musical study.

Many and varied were the experiences which Dr. George H. Alden, dean of the College of Liberal Arts underwent when he was in Mexico in the spring of 1911, just previous to the great revolution. These experiences were the setting of a splendid address, "What I Saw in Mexico," which Dr. Alden delivered in Waller Hall on Monday evening.

DRINKING FOUNTAIN IS INSTALLED IN KIMBALL

A drinking fountain has just been installed in the library of the Kimball School of Theology by the members of the Senior class as their gift to the institution upon graduation.

The fountain was fitted into place last week-end. The members of the Senior class are: George Gordon, Harry Crouse, Robert McIlvenas and F. H. Allen.

CHURCH ORGANIZED AT VALSETZ BY McCORMICK

Dr. J. D. McCormick of Kimball has just completed the organization of the Valsetz Community church at Valsetz, Oregon. The church at present has forty members with no stress being laid upon denomination. Valsetz itself is a mill town, and the logging company has been assisting the organization of the church. Dr. McCormick will continue to fill the pulpit in the newly organized church.

GRAD APPOINTED TO BE DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Oliver C. Crowther of Fosell, was today appointed by Governor Patterson as District Attorney for Wheeler county. He succeeds E. R. Woods, who moved from the district. Crowther is District Attorney-elect for the term beginning in January.

Crowther was graduated from the Willamette law school in the spring of 1926, and was admitted to the bar in the summer of the same year. For several months he had a law office in Salem, E. R. Woods, whom he succeeds as district attorney, is also a Willamette graduate.

LOCALS

Miss Elizabeth Kelly spent the week-end at her home in Portland.

Stanley Satchwell, member of the Sophomore class, is carrying his arm in a splint. One of the bones about two inches above the wrist was broken during football, but it was thought to be only a severe sprain until an X-ray was taken last Friday.

Leland Chapin spoke at Kimball chapel Tuesday morning.

Kenneth McCormick has written articles for the last three Sunday Statesman.

Fritz DeHarrport, Ray Miller, Red Cushing, Shrimp Henry, Stan Satchwell and O. Bowe, motored to Portland Sunday afternoon, to get a few properties for the style show. A short stop was made in Oregon City, where the party took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Cushing.

Fred Rogers, ex-'23, was a dinner guest of Sigma Tau, Monday noon. Mr. Rogers has just completed a course in one of the aviation schools of Portland.

Melvin Thurston of O. S. C., was an over-night guest at Sigma Tau Tuesday.

to present an original act. With Chuck James on the piano and Ralph Schomp, chin on the floor, this act moved to a conclusion to be followed by the appearance of Collas Marsters who sang "King for a Day".

Quartette Sings
The varsity quartette made up the next number following which the orchestra registered a composition with Arnold Taylor singing "Chiquita." As a concluding number of the Kapers Miss Josephine Albert sang "My Alice Blue Gown".

And then the style show began with "Van" Bateson modeling a lounging robe in a nice little domestic picture of "Do hurry, dear, we are late already," with Mary Clamfield in an exquisite shaded chiffon. After that they followed in quick succession: Marabel Quinn and Bob Risley, also in formal wear; two blond collegiates in informal wear, Evelyn High and Floyd Albin, followed by Mildred Pugh in afternoon dress; Camilla Gates and Jack Majowski in clever tennis togs appealed to the audience.

Many Student Models
"Teddy" Power and Don Saunders in College Humor Collegiate wear received no mean hand, either; Josephine Conn, the "Greta Garbo girl," in a lovely gown came in on the arm of handsome Ralph Purvine, who was modeling from Cooley's; Lillian Scott and Willis Hathaway contrasted nicely in collegiate afternoon wear; Katherine Elgin and "Pat" Emmons arrived in golf wear; Buena Brown and Howard Kurtz, the latter voted one of the best looking men on the campus, were dressed in formal afternoon wear; like a breath of frosty air, then came Norabel Pratt and Ray Miller just from St. Moritz; then more collegiates, Florian Hrubetz and Collas Marsters; Edith Morange in afternoon wear.

Many Collegiate Outfits
Grace Henderson and William Smullin were very professional looking professionals in top coats that were top coats; Mildred Pugh and Harold Thomlinson were the not too informal evening wear; Jean White and Ralph Schamp wore collegiate afternoon wear to no mean advantage; Jean Middle-

COLUMBIA APPLIES FOR CONFERENCE ENTRANCE

Hayward of Pacific, was appointed to consider a revision of amateur rules inasmuch as considerable difficulty has resulted from their interpretation.

It was decided that girls participating in tennis will have to abide by the same eligibility requirements to which the men are subjected.

Further, the representatives reduced the fees of the officials for football $10 per game making them $25 for referee, $15 for the umpire and $5 for the head linesman.

A final action taken by the delegates was to provide for two meetings of the representatives of the conference instead of one, and the placing of the spring conflag at Walla Walla when the track meet is held.

Friday evening the representatives were guests of the Official association at the Multnomah club. Those in attendance at the conference were Dean F. M. Erickson, and Coach R. S. Keene, Willamette; Professor W. R. Davis, Whitman; Charles A. Robbins, College of Puget Sound; Paul Murphy, College of Idaho; W. R. Fredricks, Linfield and Harold Hayward, Pacific.

Coming Events
Friday, Dec. 21 to Monday, Jan. 17—Christmas Vacation.
Friday, Jan. 11—Kappa Gamma Rho Party.

Christmas Parties Held At Houses

Among the most interesting events of the holiday season each year are the Christmas parties held at the fraternity and sorority houses.

The Beta Chi party will be held this evening. After the special Christmas dinner, at which all members and pledges will be present, the Christmas gift to the house will be presented. As a conclusion, songs will be sung around the tree decorated for the occasion.

The Delta Phi girls will also hold their party this evening. The house will be decorated in Christmas fashion, and gifts will be presented to the house by the girls. There will be a program of songs, and Mrs. John Reed, house mother will bring the party to a close by telling a Christmas story.

This evening the Kappa Gamma Rho members and pledges will enjoy a Christmas dinner together, after which Christmas songs will be sung. Santa Claus himself will distribute presents. The house will be decorated by a large Christmas tree and light refreshments will be served at the close of the evening's entertainment.

Alpha Phi Alpha sorority entertained at a Christmas dinner on Tuesday evening. Special guests were Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Mrs. Gorge H. Alden, Mrs. Robert M. Galke and Mrs. Alice H. Fisher. All members and pledges were present. After dinner gifts were distributed from a big Christmas tree in the living room.

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends is the announcement of the engagement of Doris Phenecle and Eugene Silke, both of Salem. The betrothal was made known on Friday evening at the Delta Phi Sorority, of which Miss Phenecle is a member. Both of the young people are members of the Senior class. Miss Phenecle has taken an active part in Freshman Glee activities, and Mr. Silke has been prominent in inter-class athletics.

The engagement was also made known on Friday evening at a banquet held in the Green room of the Spa. Following the banquet the party adjourned to the Capitol Theatre for the remainder of the evening. Friends of Mr. Silke present were the Messrs. Louis Oberson, Merrill Lavender, Harvey Roser, Cyril Botts, H. Balden Swift, Harry Stone, Kenneth Mosher, Frank Mason, Jr., Frank Grover, Russell Hills, and Arthur Hollenberg.

No date for the wedding has been announced.

Alpha Psi Delta Holds Stag Mix

The Alpha Psi Delta Fraternity forgot formality and indulged in a regular "Stag-Mix" at the Salem Y. M. C. A. last Saturday night. Everyone enjoyed the entire evening, including a few who were reprimanded in a rather "damp" fashion because they retired before the fun was all over.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatke were dinner guests of Professor and Mrs. C. M. Keefe, of Kimball College of Theology, on Monday evening, December 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Receiving Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curtis (Ruby Peterson) are the parents of a girl, born on Monday afternoon. The baby has been named Phyllis Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis are graduates of Willamette with the class of '28. Mrs. Curtis is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority, and of the Adelante society. Mr. Curtis is a member of the editorial staff of the New Statesman.

Surprise Party Given For Samuel Bowe

On last Friday evening a group of Willamette students honored Samuel Bowe with a clever birthday surprise party at his home on Leslie avenue. Games were played during the evening, and refreshments of elder and doughnuts were served.

Those present included the Misses Norabel Pratt, Marian Bretz, Lillian Scott, Mary Kafoury, Irma Green, Bertha Babcock, and Grace Henderson, and the Messrs. Raymond Miller, William Mumford, Bruce Spaulding, Olyen Bowe, Francis DeHarrport, Paul Ackerman, and the guest of honor, Samuel Bowe.

Delta Theta Phi Formally Initiates

On Wednesday evening, December the 19th, the Wolvorton Senate of Delta Theta Phi, national legal fraternity, held formal initiation in the American Legion Hall. Those initiated were John Ebinger, William Linfoot, Ward Davis, Bernard Newbp, Frank Van Dyke and Warren McMinnimee.

Following the initiation services, a banquet and social hour were held. Alumni and honorary members from all over the state were present, including prominent attorneys and judges of the profession.

It is planned in the near future to have members of Williams Senate from Northwestern College of Law in Portland present for a meeting for the exchange of legal ideas as concerns the student, together with a social gathering.

Carl Vroeland of Portland was a week-end guest of Howard Miller at Alpha Psi Delta.

Dinner guests at Alpha Psi Delta last Sunday included the Misses Jean White, Elma White, Katherine Everett, Harriette Hageman, Mary Jo Wagner, Margaret Wieneke, Margaret Wood, Evelyn High, Dorothy Young,

PLANS ABANDONED FOR STUDENT BODY PARTY

Plans for a party to be given in the gymnasium previous to the vacation period were definitely abandoned by the committee in charge, Miss J. White, and Mr. C. Kaufman, Wednesday. Faculty action on the matter was not taken. According to Miss White "there is too much sickness on the campus to warrant a get-together of this nature."

MANY TURNED AWAY AT CHURCH DOORS

First Methodist Church Choir Presents Fine Christmas Program Sunday

The First Methodist church choir has earned a fine reputation among the citizens of Salem. At the annual Christmas concert Sunday evening, the house was crowded at seven-fifteen. Many had to be turned away at the door. The membership of the choir includes twenty-two sopranos, sixteen altos, eight tenors and eleven basses.

Professor E. W. Hobson directed the chorus and Prof. T. S. Roberts assisted at the organ. Special artists on the program were: Gladys McIntyre, soprano; Everett Craven, baritone; Iva Claire Love, violinist; Doris Ross, pianist; Miss Ruth Bedford and Mrs. Kenneth Rich, accompanists.

On Friday, December 14, the Varsity quartette gave the first concert of the season at the Alsea high school, about twenty-two miles from Corvallis. The concert was successful in every way. There was a large audience, and the program was greatly appreciated.

In the afternoon the quartette sang before the Corvallis high school.

The program given at Alsea included the following numbers:
"Jolly Students".....Mendenhall
"My Love Is Like a Red, Red Rose".....Protheroe
Quartette
"Morning".....Speaks

CHANGE SUGGESTED FOR CONSTITUTION

Student Body Meeting Held Today Instead of Tuesday As Prior Statement

Due to a misunderstanding the student body meeting which was slated for Tuesday did not occur, but will be held on Thursday. The following is a list of the proposed amendments to the constitution published in accordance with the rules for amendments:

Article VI, Executive Committee

Section 3, Duties

Clause 7. Athletic fund. The executive committee shall hold through the student body treasurer a permanent athletic fund to be composed of twenty-five per cent of the annual student body funds as provided in Article VII of this Constitution, and all monies accruing from athletic center source.

Proposed to amend by inserting the word, thirty, in place of the word, twenty-five.

Article VII, Dues

Section 1. A. S. W. U. Dues

Clause 4. Expenditure of funds, Division 2. Twenty-five per cent of the annual A. S. W. U. dues shall go to the support of athletics.

Proposed to amend by inserting the word, thirty, in place of the word, twenty-five.

Division 4. Twenty per cent of the annual student body dues shall go to the four class treasurers of the Liberal Arts school and the three class treasurers of the Law School, through the A. S. W. U. treasurer, in proportion to the number in each class paying student body dues, which shall be determined by the A. S. W. U. treasurer, save and except that any member of any class of the Law School shall reserve the right to have his class dues paid to the corresponding class of Liberal Arts upon his designation. The collection and disbursement of this portion of the A. S. W. U. dues shall not abridge the right of any class to levy additional taxes.

Proposed to amend by insertion of the word, fifteen, in place of the word, twenty.

W. U. LAW SCHOOL WINS RECOGNITION

Nearly two columns of space are devoted to the Willamette University College of Law in the November edition of "The Law Student," a national magazine for lawyers and students.

The article is accompanied by a picture of Waller Hall and a portion of the campus. It contains some of the history of the institution, a list of the faculty, entrance requirements, and some pertinent facts as to the situation of the plant.

A statement as to the quality of the school is here quoted from the content: "Numbered amongst the school's graduates are many who have attained recognition in the legal profession, in banking institutions, in industry, and in public service. Its high standing is evidenced by a letter written from the Supreme Court of Oregon to the President of the University, which reads in part, '... we have always found the graduates of the Willamette Law School as fully and well prepared as the graduates from any of the law schools, including the leading colleges of the United States; and the graduates of Willamette Law School have repeatedly taken first honors in examinations.'"

The faculty constantly emphasizes that Oregon does not need more lawyers so badly as it needs better ones—better morally and intel-

Sportorials

The game with the Oregon Mohawks Tuesday, brought out the fact that Ed Cardinal was up to his usual tricks in pushing the ball through the opponent's basket. The big Willamette center displayed his ability by leading the team in scoring against the Mohawks, and looks headed for a most successful season.

The Willamette basketball hopes suffered a severe setback, when Gurnee Flesher, stellar guard on the Bearcat quiet, broke a bone in his ankle and will of necessity be out of the game for several weeks. There is some consolation in the excellent showing that Seales has been making in Flesher's position and he will do a lot to make up the loss.

It seems from recent statistics, that the art of place kicking and drop kicking for extra points after touchdown is something of a lost art, especially so at Willamette. Of the five conference games played, only one try for point was made, and that against the College of Puget Sound. Of the entire season but three try for points were made, the other two being scored against Albany College. Another significant fact was that not a single field goal was registered in the entire conference, the scores being made on straight football or passes. These statistics would seem to indicate that moving the goal post ten yards from the goal line, will eventually do away with the art of drop kicking and place kicking as a means of scoring.

But one man in the Northwest conference received mention on an all coast team selection. The Spokesman Review gave Holmgren, the star from Whitman, a position on their third all-coast team. It is the opinion of many followers of the younger conference, that it will not be long until players in this conference will be recognized by the larger coaches and will be seriously considered in all-coast teams. Nelson of Whitman and Baldrige and Gilliam of College of Idaho are other outstanding men who might have gone a long ways in the larger conferences.

It appears that each year, Willamette is taking on harder and harder football schedules. Next year the Bearcats will tangle with the University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon Agricultural College, all members of the Coast conference. Of the three Oregon is rated by far the hardest.

GIRL WON HER BET; ALMOST LOST LIFE

OBERLIN, Ohio—(IP)—There are a number of forms of betting, but none any more spectacular than that engaged in by Lillian Ramsey, Oberlin college freshman and William Robinson, Oberlin college sophomore.

The co-ed won the bet, but nearly lost her life to boot.

Lillian and William were on their way to the women's dormitory after a dance, and stopped at a railroad crossing here to wait for an approaching train. One of the two conceived the idea of seeing who could sit on the tracks the longest.

Lillian won, and after the engine hit her she was taken to Allen Memorial hospital with a broken collar bone, three fractured ribs, scalp wounds, and bruises all over her.

She recovered from the effects of the injuries.

Actually, on completion of the three-year course the degree of LL.B. is conferred.

LIBRARY EXHIBITS MANY AUTOGRAPHS

Collection Gathered by Mrs. Franklin Includes Noted Author's Letters

An interesting and valuable display of autographs of well-known men and women of letters is on display in a case standing against the east wall of the university library.

The exhibit, which is a portion of a much larger collection belonging to Viola Price Franklin, includes letters from James Matthew Barrie, Thomas A. Edison, Woodrow Wilson, William Dean Howells, Richard Harding Davis, Edwin Markham, Gertrude Atherton, Zane Grey, Zona Gale, John Kendrick Bangs, and other noted authors.

Many of the letters were written to Mrs. Franklin's brother, Charles W. Price, editor of a New York newspaper and secretary of the Lotus club. As secretary of this club he issues the invitations for the famous Lotus club dinners in honor of great men.

Answers to these invitations often display the temperament or characteristic of the writer. For instance, the signature of Thomas Edison is in very clear uniform writing and the wording of his letter is simple and to the point. On the other hand, Gertrude Atherton evidently pays little heed to the marginal stops on her typewriter, crosses out whole phrases, and has a dashing signature which sprawls completely across the page. In accepting an invitation to a banquet, she lets it be understood that she will not speak—"not a word."

Although the penmanship of William Winter, perfect and fine as script, is difficult to read, Mrs. Franklin says it cannot be compared with Joaquin Miller's handwriting—but then 'tis said that most great men's signatures are illegible.

For a number of years, the collection of autographs, especially those of literary folk, has been a hobby with Mrs. Franklin. Once, when preparing a speech to be given before a club gathering, she wrote to many women authors for information. The types of the numerous answers received (Ella Wheeler Wilcox wrote ten pages) so interested her that she began collecting others. Her collection now amounts to something over 300 letters.

Among these the most prized by Mrs. Franklin is a letter from Henry Irving congratulating her upon the thoroughness of her study of Arthurian paintings. Another highly valued letter was written by Mrs. Warren G. Harding during her husband's last illness.

The collection also contains one of Dante Gabriel Rossetti's letters and one written by his sister, Christine Rossetti. These were sent with about a dozen others by William Rossetti, brother of these talented people, at a Dante Gabriel Rossetti club in Kansas with which Mrs. Franklin was working at the time.

Mrs. Franklin has a special collection of the autographs of all great Oregon writers, and she advises students who may be interested in such collections to visit the Poets' corner at J. K. Gill's in Portland. Here are autographed copies of books by these authors, pictures of them, and comfortable chairs for those interested in browsing around among the books.

Flesher will have to keep the injured member in a cast for at least three weeks, and it is doubtful whether or not he will be able to again be in suit within the next month or so. It is hoped that he will be able to be back in the lineup when the seasonal conference games are started.

HOOP AND PIGSKIN SCHEDULES GIVEN

Willamette Meets Stronger Teams Coming Seasons No Game with C. P. S.

"The basketball schedule is entirely satisfactory," said "Spec" Keone when interviewed upon the result of the Portland conference. The fact that Whitman, the Bearcats' chief rival in basketball, play both games in the local gymnasium is considered especially fortunate. In addition all four of the opening conference games are at home. This together with the strong practice schedule that promises to give "Spec's" men the very necessary conditioning, make the outlook very promising.

In the makeup of the football schedule Willamette was not so fortunate. Because no date agreeable to both teams could be arranged the annual battle with C. P. S. may be dropped. Several other games are only tentative. However, if plans upon which "Spec" is now working materialize, he promises that Willamette will have the strongest schedule in several years.

IDAHO NOT TO PLAY CONFERENCE BALL

In reviewing the prospects and leading candidates in the Northwest College conference this season, we find that Whitman, last year's winner, has nearly an entire team composed of all-stars. At center, they have big Holmgren, who is not only one of the most aggressive men in the conference guard and if he at all lives sistically on offense. Last year Holmgren was named as all conference guard and if he at all lives up to his past form, he is sure of the position again this year. Croxdale, another Whitman player, is a forward of ability who rated a place on last year's all-star team and is the man around whom Coach Borieske is planning to build his offense. One of the younger players on the squad is Wood, a man who can play either guard or forward with equal skill, and who was one of the players on the Whitman team who has had experience in the Chicago national tournament. These three men, with a host of promising subs, give Whitman a most bright outlook.

C. P. S. also has a bright basketball outlook. In Crow and Gilman they have two veteran players who bid well to become stars of the first magnitude. Crow, last year, was one of the Loggers' leading scorers and should be a bigger success this year. In addition to these two men, Puget Sound has also a most talented squad of new men, and Coach Hubbard is depending a lot upon these men to bolster his team.

Miller and Pollock of Pacific are other men who have shown a lot of real basketball skill and they will no doubt make strong bids for all conference honors.

HOOP PROSPECTS FOR WILDCATS ARE DULL

LINFIELD COLLEGE, McMinnville, Ore., Dec. 4.—(N.I.P.)—With the more or less disastrous 1928 football season at a close, Wildcat athletes are directing their attentions to basketball. The chances for a fast basketball squad seem at this stage of the season, very poor, for but two regulars from last year's squad are in suit. Captain-elect "Pill" Warren, forward; and Bob Hostetler, guard, which means that Coach "Heinie" Sielk must campaign for new material.

However, at present three from the freshman squad are gunning for the vacant positions on the quintet and seem apt to place. "Rus" Hollinshead of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, named an all-state forward and a member of a state champion quintet that traveled to Chicago last season will probably see service this year, as will Bob Druse, Yakima, Wash., high school player, an all-state second from that state, who is after the pivot position. Virgil Kingsley of Eugene, Ore., is another rook who is fast coming to the fore.

To date but one game has been scheduled and that with the Medford Mohawks for Dec. 19. Sielk plans to have at least two more games before the Christmas holidays.

Coach Frank will not have an experienced team this year but he will have a quintet with lots of fight and determination, which may upset the dope bucket in more than one instance.

FRESHMEN DEFEAT DALLAS 20 TO 16

The Freshman basketball team defeated the Dallas high school 20 to 16 in a preliminary game played Tuesday night. The visitors displayed a scrappy aggregation and played together well in spite of the fact that it was their first game of the season. Dallas made most of its points from long shots.

Faber was the most consistent scorer for the rooks.

UNITED STATES FIGHTS WORLD IN COMING WAR

U. C. L. A., Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 17.—(PIP)—"The next war will be the United States against the world," in the opinion of James F. Archibald, famous war correspondent and adventurer, who spoke before an assembly of R. O. T. C. cadets.

Stressing the fact that gold was the prime object of every war in the past, and inasmuch as the United States contains the majority of the world's gold, he feels that America will face all other nations in the next war.

This Changing World

To-day, you can see big buildings erected noiselessly—by electric welding.

The structural steel worker is dropping his clattering hammer for the electric arc. Silently, swiftly, rigidly, economically, buildings are being fabricated by electric welding, which knits steel with joints as strong as the metal itself.

Building silently! Nothing seems impossible in this electrical age.

Not only in building construction, but in every human activity, we instinctively turn to electricity to add to the comforts of life and to eliminate the wastes of production—another evidence that the electrical industry is maintaining its leadership in this changing world.

Not only industrial equipment, but electric refrigerators, MAZDA lamps, and little motors that add to the comforts of home, are manufactured by the General Electric Company. All are identified by the G-E monogram—a symbol of service.

BEARCATS DEFEAT MOHAWKS 35 TO 25

Lewis Does Not Play. Varsity Shows Need of More Defense. Entire Squad In

Showing possibilities that promise a successful year the Bearcats opened the local basketball season by defeating the strong Mohawk quintet 35-25 on the local floor. Only their inability to sink cripples in the second half kept the score from running higher.

Nevertheless the showing made by the Bearcats was not as cheering as it might have been in view of the Northwest conference games which are to come this year. The Willamette men lacked precision in their attacks. For the first eight minutes of play the Mohawks held the Varsity even, and were ahead twice.

Weak on Defense
The anticipated weakness proved to be the principal weakness on defense. This is due to the fact that Coach Keene has changed from the territorial defense to a man to man type, and the men have not yet become familiar with the new mode.

The Mohawks showed a strong experienced five but lacked the speed of the local quintet. The visitors were weakened by the absence of Lewis, all-state center last year. Ed Cardinal, the big Bearcat center lead the scoring with 13 points.

Litchfield and Adams gave promise of working well together at forward while Hank "played ball" as usual. Until Flesher and Ahby are ready to play an interesting contest is in sight for the other guard position between Ledbetter and Scales. Scales showed flashes of speed which if continued may give him the edge. Of the new men on the squad Waddell and Gibson showed up the best considering the fact that both were self conscious in the matter of shooting baskets.

McCartney and Hodges were the most consistent players for the

DOUGHNUT LEAGUE STARTS JANUARY 7

Six Teams Entered in Series. Collegian Presents Season's Only New Entry

Coach Leslie Sparks announced today that the first game in the 1929 doughnut league series will be played the first Monday after the holidays, January 7, 1929. Games will be played every week at noon for eight weeks, the league formally disbanding on the first of March. The schedule has not yet been arranged for the managers of the teams entering the series will draw up a schedule in a meeting at 12:45 today noon. If any other organizations wish to enter, they must file their entrance notifications with Leslie Sparks before Friday.

At the present time, six teams have been entered. The three fraternities, Sigma Tau, Kappa Gamma Rho and Alpha Psi are entering strong teams. The faculty and law school will present very strong lineups, but little is known of the newest entrant, the Collegian. No team won the championship last year, because Law School, the faculty and the Alpha Psi Delta played to a three-cornered tie.

Both the faculty and the Law school, with last year's team practically intact, appear to be the strongest at the present time.
