FOOT BALL.

Good Material, Plenty of Enthusiasm---Kinney E. Miller '04 Chosen Captain.

The football spirit is in the atmosphere and the University is thoroughly permeated by it.

Wednesday last the practice began in earnest with 25 men on the field and a jolly spray of rooters on the bleachers to cheer the men as they chased the pig-skin to the fro. Thursday evening the squad met and unanimously chose Kinney E. Miller '04 as captain. Kinney has played half back on the varsity for the past two years and his word has at all times been characterized by its consistency and snap.

This unanimous selection for the captaincy prognosticates an harmonious relation between the captain and the squad. Coach Moser, also, is pleased with the result of the election. Everything points towards a fine football season.

The manner in which some of the men are developing is almost phenomenal.

It appears now that the race for each place on the Varsity will be keenly contested for. But few of last year's men have returned and those who are here feel puzzled as to their ability to making the first team. No one however, should lose heart; the best man will be chosen for each position. No favoritism will be shown and past work will only count as it is effective, consistent and up to the mark.

At quarter the Riddell brothers have shown up exceptionally well but the same snap and steadiness can also be found in the work of Swafford and Gran-nis. Two husky lads are out for the fullback position and each one is qualified for it. They are Marquam and Pollard. For ends there are also many candidates, some of whom will make gritty players. Winslow, Poor-man, Lewis, Grannis, White-man, Matthews, Bean, German, Wilkins, and others have the right stuff in them, if they only allow the coach to bring it out. In Gale, Parsons, Camp, Love, Shelton, Rickle, Haley and Wolf are found the requisite for strong guards while McClelland, Whiteman, Knotts, Averill, Camp, Bean, Stowell and Fisher make up a promising lot for tackles. For halves the competition will be especially fierce for Matthews, Miller, Young, Camp, German and Winslow are all good players.

No attempt is made here, to pick either a first or second team. We have simply given our opinion and those of competent judges as to the possible material from which the personnel of both teams will invariably be selected. No man has a cinch, (to use a slang phrase) on any place on the team.

The practice this week, has consisted mostly of signal practice followed by a line up of two provisional teams in which players interchange positions from one squad to another in order that the coach may obtain an accurate estimate on individual work. Coach Moser is pleased with the spirit of the men and the progress they have made. Manager Glover will soon announce a complete schedule of games several of which will be played on the home field.

Columbia University begins its 140th academic year with over 5,000 students and nearly 500 teachers.

ROOTING AND CHEERING.

Now that the football season has come, it is necessary that the team be backed by a strong band of rooters—men who love their Alma Mater and who are willing to sing and yell for her and those who are fighting her battles on the gridiron.

The co-eds are to be congratulated for the spirited singing and excellent cheering which they indulge in every evening during the hours of practice. That spirit of loyalty, that feeling of pride is typical of the Willamette girl and the University admires that noble characteristic.

Now men, its up to you! You can not be out done. You shall not let every man who possesses strong lungs and a vibrating throat join the rooting club. Good effective, systematic rooting has not only given an irresistible dash to team work but has also strengthened many a team in the hour of defeat and moment of discouragement.

Success remember, does not depend on the coach or on the team no, not entirely but in the loyal, devoted undivided support of every student in the institution.

Members of the alumni, old students, new students, and all others interested in the prosperity and success of the paper and "Id Willamette" are invited to contribute. Address all communications to the Editor in-Chief.

Entered at the postoffice at Salem as second class matter.

"And University interests were also given a kindly and enthusiastic hearing. Old Willamette is to live and flourish, a fountain of beneficent influence sending its streams of blessing to every part of our state. The presence and leadership of Dr. Coleman is an inspiration, and already his movements have the swing of victory."—Pacific Advocate.

It is certainly very condescending in our dear Doctor, the Editor, to give our little school and the common place events effecting it at the recent Conference so much notice in his exceedingly valuable paper. His friends have grave fears that he can not survive the attack of enlargement of the heart indicated by this symptom. Perhaps, though, it was not the Doctor's fault. He may have been forced into it. It is really too bad that an editor can not manage his paper as suits him, leaving out such very ordinary and unimportant items. True enough the last page of the paper is given entirely to the University, but it is paid for, and a man may do many things for money. Perhaps the editor has felt bound to give his valuable space to things more interesting to him and his subscribers. We find an item, twice as long, concerning the heaps of watermelons eaten by the members of the conference, of which our beloved Doctor is one; as half page is given over to a photograph of a melon field supposedly one of the sources of supply; and last and not least, an item mentioning a sign seen by the worthy editor, reading: "Five hundred chickens wanted." Very interesting and instructive—as to the sort of man managing the Advocate.

We are indeed surprised that a paper edited by a man so alive to the interests of his church, especially its Educational work as the Doctor has shown himself to be in the last few years, should find it necessary to make special effort to secure a living circulation. The students in Methodist educational institutions, who have received so much help and encouragement at the hands of this editor are heart and soul in the work of securing new subscribers for the paper. We expect to hear soon of a circulation of—well, is 500,000 too small?

ANOTHER IMPROVEMENT.

Library Opened at all Hours.

Beginning with Friday of last week the Library is to be opened during the entire school day from 9 till 4. Miss Harriet Warfield, sister of Prof. Warfield has been elected Director of the Library and will take charge during school hours. This arrangement gives the students a better place to study and a better opportunity to use the books and magazines of the Library. It is an arrangement that should have been made years ago. When we have our new books we will be nicely supplied with Library facilities.

Y. W. C. A.

The invitation we extend to the girls to be present and take part in our meetings, is not for one Sunday only, but for each Sunday in the school year. If you couldn't come last Sunday, don't fail to be present at the next meeting.

The attendance at the weekly devotional meetings has been excellent this year, ranging from forty-five to fifty-five and we are sure it will run higher yet—as soon as the girls all realize how helpful the meetings are. Have you attended any of the meetings yet? They are for you. If you have made up your mind to join the Young Women's Christian Association, hand your name to one of the Association girls, and thus assist in the work of the Membership Committee. We want every girl in school to be a member of our Association.

Any one who desires one of the "1905 Prayer-Calendars, prepared by the American Committee of the Y. W. C. A.—should hand their name, and the price (15c), to Lila Stafford, before Nov. 1st.

The State Convention of the Y. W. C. A., is this year to be held at "Willamette." We are indeed glad for this opportunity to have the associations of our sister colleges, meet here with us, and it shall be our endeavor to do every thing in our power to assist in making this the best Y. W. C. A. Convention yet held in Oregon. To be this, it must be very helpful indeed—and we must have the co-operation of all our students. There will be work for every one to do. And above all we must remember that our work will be but in vain if we attempt the work in our own strength; we must ever keep in mind the motto of our Association. "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

Have you seen the last "Evangelist?" It is the "Conference Number"—and is very interesting. A copy will be found in the Association Room.

Y. M. C. A.

"The Test of Discipleship" was the subject of one of the best devotional meetings we have had this year. After a short service of song and prayer Prof. Matthews spoke upon the above mentioned topic with much fervor and earnestness. The attendance was large, packing the Association room, and the presence of the Spirit was especially manifest.

By the time this reaches its readers the Bible Study books will have been ordered, and immediately upon this arrival the classes will be organized.

And still new men continue to enter the Y. M. C. A. It is now by far the largest organization of young men in the University.

We can show the other Colleges of the state that Willamette is coming to the front by sending a large delegation to Newberg in December. Let's work for that Convention.

A WORTHY EFFORT.

A Benefit to Be Given for the Library.

The students will be pleased to learn that a movement is on foot to further improve the Library. We have long felt the need of new and up-to-date books and a more liberal supply of magazines. We are at least to realize our hopes for such an improvement.

A benefit is to be given in the near future, probably under the auspices of the College of Oratory, in which some of the best talent of Portland and Salem will take part. It will be necessary for the students to push the matter and to spread the news among the people of Salem. If the students will take hold of this matter and properly carry it through there is no reason that we cannot have several hundred dollars for the Library. More definite announcement will be made as soon as the arrangements are completed.

GLEE CLUB CHOSEN.

The Contest for Places Has Been Decided.

Saturday afternoon, as announced Prof. Seley decided the contest for places on the Glee Club for this year. A large number of men had applied and the contest was sharp and close in most parts. Prof. Seley has taken considerable pains to select the best for each part. There is no reason why we should not have an excellent club this year. Those chosen are as follows:

1st Tenor.—R. A. Schramm, J. O. Van Winkle E. K. Miller, O. K. Wolff
2nd Tenor.—W. L. Zimmerman, J. G. Martin, W. D. Moyer, Archie Camp.
1st Bass.—N. D. Moser, F. L. Grannis.
Eugene Whipple, W. C. Winslow.

2nd Bass.—H. W. Swafford, W. C. Heise, W. C. Judd L. H. Whiteman.
The first quartet of the Glee Club will be composed of R. A. Schramm, W. L. Zimmerman, N. D. Moser, and H. W. Swafford. We are expecting some fine music from this Club. It is with interest that their first appearance is awaited.

The new song books made their first appearance Tuesday, and now every one may sing.

Across the Campus.

Miss Gertude Fawk registered Monday.

Miss Nellie Swafford, of Oregon City registered Monday, for the first time as a student of Willamette.

Mrs. Mary Strong Kinney of Astoria, was a chapel visitor Monday, having come up with her son, who has entered the University.

Rev. Gordon, who is pastor of Leslie church was a chapel visitor Monday and we understand will soon be with us as a student.

We are glad to report that R. C. Blackwell will be with us in a few days. Mr. Blackwell will take part in the debates this year.

Wm. Best returned Monday, having spent the summer, logging on the lower Columbia. He will certainly have plenty of muscle to play foot-ball.

Among the old students who registered Monday was Miss Bernice Sears and Mr. Glen Unruh. Glen is as small as ever, and is already talking base-ball for next season.

Representative elect J. N. Williamson, who was the first person to contribute to the Admiral Clark Memorial Fund, is a former student of Willamette, and was only prevented from being an alumnus, by a serious illness six months before his graduation.

A change has been made in the Chapel Rhetoricals, which seems,—to the students at least—to be for the better. Heretofore every one from third years to Seniors were required to appear on Chapel, but owing to the increased numbers in those classes, the faculty deemed it advisable to make a change and hereafter only Juniors and Seniors, will be required to prepare and deliver Chapel Rhetoricals.

The Freshmen and Sophmores will have their composition work in class, and their work in public will be the rendering of a program consisting, this year, of scenes from macbeth. The third years will have all their work in class. This plan will certainly raise the standard of our Chapel work.

Miss Laura Thomas who graduated from the College of Oratory in 1901, was graduated from Columbia school of Oratory in one year having received full credit for all the work done here. Her friends will all be pleased to know that she was chosen from her class to fill an important position, for the commencement work last year and was requested to stay the coming year. She decided however to return to Chicago and take post graduate work, which she is now doing and receiving great encouragement from her teachers.

PHILOSOPHIAN.

The meeting of the Philodorian Society on Oct. 10th, was called to order by Pres. Mabel Robertson. Miss Lucy Morcomb and Miss Mabel Glover were taken in as members of the Society. The following program was rendered.

Music . . . . . Blanche Lewis.
Reading . . . . . Althea Lee.
Essay . . . . . Clara Holmstrom.
Music . . . . . Gretta Stowell.
Reading . . . . . Nellie Durfee.

Considerable interest is being taken in the society work. The attendance has been good and the members have been active in the literary work. The girls are doing better in general in their society work this year than the boys. That looks bad, boys, you'll have to hurry.

Yes, sir.

I repeat it sir, you will succeed. You're here, Prep. not as some may advise you, to play foot-ball, baseball, tennis; to make the track team; to sing on the Glee Club, to join the mandolin Club; to mix-up in politics, to join the Philodorian; to waste your time at class banquets, Sunday calls, "girling." ## TOPOGRAPHIC SURVEY OF STATE OF OREGON.

The topographic survey of the State of Oregon, which was commenced several years ago, is being continued this season by the topographic branch of the United States Geological Survey under the general direction of Mr. Richard U. Goode, geographer. Work is in progress in two localities, one in the eastern portion of the State, in the vicinity of Baker City, and the other west of the Cascades, in the vicinity of Riddles.

The party operating in Eastern Oregon is in charge of Mr. C. F. Urquhart, his principal assistant being Mr. R. B. Robertson. The work is an extension of the existing triangulation eastward and northward into Union and Wallowa counties, the object being to provide starting points for future topographic work, which will extend through the forested areas and mining districts. The party commenced work about July 1, and will remain in the field as long as the weather conditions are such that the work can be prosecuted in the mountains.

In western Oregon a party is under the charge of Mr. A. B. Searle, and has commenced operations in the vicinity of Glendale. The work is the continuation of that commenced during the last field season, and will result in the completion of the Riddles quadrangle, comprising an area of about 900 square miles. This region is noted for its various mineral deposits, the examination and study of which by Mr. J. S. Diller, geologist, will follow the completion of the topographic map.

Another party under Mr. C. H. Semper, will be engaged in carrying a line of primary levels from tidal connection at Benicia, Cal., along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad as far north toward Portland as available funds will permit. Iron benchmark posts, on which will be stamped the elevation above sea level to the nearest foot, will be established at all prominent points and at intervals not exceeding 3 miles.

These levels will furnish a main trunk line from which other lines of levels will ultimately branch into the territory east and west of the State line, thus furnishing vertical control for future topographic work.
