

A CHRISTMAS SERVICE
OF LESSONS & CAROLS

Willamette University
Christmas, 1995

"Lessons and Carols" is not old, as English traditions go. It was first instituted in the new West Country diocese of Truro in 1883, and soon spread to other cathedrals and finally, in 1918, to its most famous home, Cambridge University. There, in King's College Chapel, it remains a nearly essential part of the English celebration of Christmas. The BBC has carried the service on its world service for many years, and recently American Public Broadcasting stations have made it available on TV and FM radio in the U.S.

"Lessons and Carols" came to Willamette in 1985 and was held in the old Waller Auditorium with a volunteer choir. The service was held in the Cat Cavern for several years, until returning to Cone Chapel in Waller Hall in its present form in 1989. Now, in a kind of Willamette Christmas Eve, before exams and vacation separate us, we have the opportunity of hearing the story of redemption read by representative members of the Salem and campus communities and of hearing and singing the popular carols of Christmas.

Collection plates are on the altar for your offering, which will be donated to the Marion Polk Food Share.

Translations:

“Cantate!”

In sweet rejoicing
Now sing and be joyful.
Rejoice greatly to God our helper,
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.
Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord all the earth.
In sweet rejoicing
now sing and be joyful.
Our heart's delight
lies in the manger,
and shines like the sun
in his mother's lap.
Tou art Alpha and Omega,
the beginning and the end.

“There is No Rose”
