PROCESSIONAL

Once in Royal David's City

H. J. Gauntlett
Arr. David Willcocks

Ki Sun Ruiz, Conductor

Verse 1 - Thursday, Laura Hurley, soloist
- Friday, David Nelson, soloist

Verses 2-5 - Choirs

Verse 6 - Audience and Choirs

Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see him; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high;
When like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

Reader There's a voice in the wilderness crying, a call from the ways untrod:

Audience Prepare in the desert a highway, a highway for our God!

Women The valleys shall be exalted, the lofty hills brought low;

Men Make straight all the crooked places where the Lord our God may go!

Women Zion, give voice to good tidings, ascend to the heights and sing!

Men Proclaim to a desolate people the coming of their King.

Audience The works of pride all perish, like flowers they decay; the power and pomp of nations shall pass like a dream away.

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord seated on a throne, high and exalted, and the train of his robe filled the temple. Above him were seraphs, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. And they were calling to one another: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory." At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke. "Woe to me!" I cried. "I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the Lord Almighty." Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I. Send me!"

This is the month, and this the happy morn Wherein the Son of Heav'n's eternal
King, Of wedded Maid, and Virgin Mother born, Our great redemption from above did bring;
For so the holy sages once did sing, That he our deadly forfeit should release, And with his Father work us a perpetual peace.

The First Noel

Arr. David Willcocks

Verse 1:

The first Noel the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay, keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep:

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel!

Verse 2:

They looked up and saw a star,
Shining in the east, beyond them far;
And to the earth it gave great light,
And so it continued both day and night:

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel!

Verse 3:
(Men Only)

And by the light of that same star,
Three wise men came from country far;
To seek for a king was their intent,
And to follow the star wherever it went:

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel

Verse 4:
(Women Only)

This star drew nigh to the northwest;
O'er Bethlehem it took its rest,
And there it did both stop and stay
Right over the place where Jesus lay:

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel

Verse 5:

Then enter'd in those wise men three,
Full rev'rently upon their knee,
And offer'd there in his presence
Their gold and myrrh and frankincense

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel

Verse 6:

Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our heav'nly Lord,
That hath made heav'n and earth of naught,
And with his blood mankind hath bought

Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel,
Born is the King of Israel

Reader

And it came to pass in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered, and all went to be registered, everyone to his own city. Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be registered with Mary, his betrothed wife, who was with child. So it was, that while they were there, the days were completed for her to be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Now there were in the same country shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were greatly afraid. Then the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which will be to all people. For there is born to you this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be the sign to you: You will find a Babe wrapped in swaddling cloths, lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying: "Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace, goodwill toward men!"

Reader

So it was, when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us now go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us." And they came with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the Babe lying in a manger. Now when they had seen Him, they made widely known the saying which was told them concerning this Child. And all those who heard it marveled at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things and pondered them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told them.

O Little Town Of Bethlehem

Arr. Richard Marlow

Joie Gratton, Conductor

Verse 1:

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep
The silent stars go by.
Yet in thy dark streets shineth
The everlasting light;
The hopes and fears of all the years
Are met in thee tonight.

Verse 2: O morning stars, together
Proclaim the holy birth,
And praises sing to God the King,
And peace to men on earth;
For Christ is born of Mary;
And, gathered all above,
While mortals sleep, the angels keep
Their watch of wond'ring love.

Verse 3:
(Women Only) How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of his heaven.
No ear may hear his coming;
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive him, still
The dear Christ enters in.

Verse 4:
(Men Only) Where children pure and happy
Pray to the blessed Child,
Where misery cries out to thee,
Son of the mother mild;
Where charity stands watching
And faith holds wide the door,
The dark night wakes, the glory breaks,
And Christmas comes once more.

Verse 5: O Holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray;
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell:
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

Reader ALMIGHTY God, give us grace that we may cast away the works of darkness,

Audience And put upon us the armour of light, now in the time of this mortal life, in which thy Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility;

Men That in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge

Let us bless the Lord.

This boy who is coming, Eve, was promised to us. From the virgin's womb (Glory! Praises!) God the immortal was made man. Without the seed of a man, He was born of a virgin. Without needing a man, He was born of Mary. On this holiday which we have established, let us bless the Lord!

Reader

What sweeter music can we bring, than a carol, for to sing the birth of this our heavenly King? Awake the voice! Awake the string! Heart, ear, and eye, and everything. Awake! Dark and dull night, fly hence away, and give the honor to this day, that sees December turned to May. We see Him come, and know Him ours, who, with His sunshine, and His showers, turns all the patient ground to flowers. The darling of the world is come, and fit it is, we find a room to welcome Him. The nobler part of all the house here, is the heart.

Silent Night

Arr. Ralph Hunter

Verse 1 - Christopher Hanson, soloist (In Spanish)

Verse 2 - Choirs and Audience

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant so tender and mild,
sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.

Verse 3 - Choirs (In German)

Verse 4 - Choirs and Audience

Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake, at the sight glories stream from heaven a far,
Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia!
Christ the Savior is born, Christ the Savior is born!

Verse 5 - Choirs and Audience

Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love's pure light radiant beams from thy holy face,
with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at thy birth, Jesus, Lord at thy birth.

Thank you for sharing Christmas in Hudson Hall with us this evening. Our hope is that you have enjoyed the service as much as we have enjoyed serving you.

May you have a wonderful holiday season filled with meaning, depth and joy.
