WILLAMETTE 47 MT. ANGEL 0

The Catholic Boys Are Out Played

"Subs" Have a Chance to Distinguish Themselves and Made Good

With Rader, McMechan and McRae out of the game, and playing subs in the backfield and line, the Willamette university football team met and defeated the team from Mt. Angel by a score of 47 to 0. The score really does not tell the strength of the Mt. Angel team, which, though outweighed considerably, fought every foot of ground and never gave up the scrap though being irresistibly pushed back down after down. It certainly must be said that the "Angels" were plucky, played a clean game and were good losers.

Curtis Coleman, coach of the visiting team and an old Willamette star, stated that his team met defeat because they were far outclassed and outweighed, and that his team, because of only fifteen men in the squad, was not enabled to profit by scrimmage practice on the home field. Besides he had several new men in the game who had never played before.

It was a very one-sided game, the visitors putting the ball in motion at the kickoff and then seldom getting possession of it again. It was a slow game. The ball would be kicked off to Willamette; Booth, Roland or Cummings would receive it and run it back from twenty to thirty yards before being downed; then by end runs and plunges through center the ball would be advanced irresistibly down the field. When the ball would be fifteen or twenty yards from the Angel goal and a touchdown certain, the official would call a foul on Willamette and penalize the team fifteen yards. In spite of these handicaps the varsity made the forty-seven points. The team was robbed of about three touchdowns, which, by yardage lawfully made, were earned. It was Willamette's duty to run up as large a score as possible but were prevented. Several times the varsity was penalized for holdings which were stretched almost to the breaking point. Another time, when Booth got away for a long run which would have been a touchdown, and ran close to the line, he was stopped because the official said he had gone out of bounds, when in fact, he did not. However Willamette is not kicking, but the foregoing were so plainly evident they stood out significantly.

What the score would have been had Rader, McMechan and McRae been in the game would be hard to tell. As it was it gave the subs a chance to do something and gain some football experience. The varsity made several pretty forward passes, which netted from twenty to thirty yards and which were worked successfully until in the latter part of the game the Angels got onto it and blocked one or two. But the most of the plays were straight football, few tricks being used. The backs were sent around ends for ten to fifteen yards gain, while five yards through the line was so frequent it got to be monotonous. Very little punting was done.

Several brilliant runs for touchdowns were made. The first score was made by Westley after about six minutes of play; Westley was sent over again for a touchdown; then McKnight went over the line. Gibson, full-back, caught a forward pass and ran sixty yards for a touchdown. Score at close of first half was 24 to 0.

After a few minutes of play McKnight was sent over the line and in a short time duplicated the stunt. Booth tried one place kick but the ball went wide. Paul Homan broke away and ran fifty yards for a touchdown. McKnight scored again, ending the scoring for the game. Booth kicked every goal but one, making the score 47 to 0.

The substitutes showed up well, Roland and Gibson playing a stellar game. Though rather light for the backfield, they made good in gaining yardage and plunging the line, Gibson going through for five yards, and over with ease. Roland was especially good in runs around left end, making ten and fifteen yards, and sometimes twenty. Several times he almost got away and had he kept closer to his interference he probably would have carried the ball over the line. Knutson and Day at right guard were in the game all the time and did excellent work. Booth did some of the prettiest dodging seen on the field for some time, worming his way for fifteen and twenty yards through the thick of the Angels (and was in glory).

The line-up of the teams follows:

Our meeting last Sunday was both interesting and instructive. Superintendent Ackerman has been associated with this school as an onlooker for twelve years and has left many good, helpful thoughts with us. He stated that when you are late to an appointment you are stealing another person's time and that, sometime when you are late you may find that opportunity has become tired of waiting and gone on. Roosevelt was a leader in Honesty and now it is unpopular to be dishonest. Honesty should ever be our policy, in our classroom, in our business, and in our games.

SOPHOMORES ARE ENTERTAINED

Weird Event Takes Place at Lausanne Hall

Duly Observed There With Appropriate Rites.

The Freshmen had evidently been communicating with the spirits which formerly were wont to bother the people in that other Salem in New England, and some spooky, ghastly, sights resulted. Not only did all the broomsticks seem to move from their customary corners in the afternoon, but sounds of knocking and stamping were heard, for which there was no accounting. Even these things did not appear sufficient for the evil one. Therefore, the passengers were disturbed by awful things. At different intervals the wind seemed to sigh ooooo-oo-ooooo-who-a-who, and then nature would groan in sympathy. The electric lights went out, and lurid torches flaming from the eyes of some yellow-headed creatures took their places. The Sophomores verily believed their deathknell had been tolled when they heard a series of metallic clangs from below, but rising to the emergency, as all Sophomores do, they sallied forth to their supposed funeral. Wonder of wonders and marvel of marvels! When they were apparently barred from going further, a certain door swung open on its hinges, and the wise found themselves gathering together for a sumptuous feast in enraptured silence. Their countenances fairly beamed forth the thoughts which they speedily expressed in work. Oh! the glory of it! Pumpkin pies, nuts, fruit, candles, marshmallows, cider, and more candles, all were spread out before them in profusion. It was an array which challenged the hearts of the assembled Hall forces most powerfully. It was not until everything had been vanquished that the Sophomores adjourned to another field of action in the Assembly Hall.

Here they did not assume control of affairs. Curtains moved aside and revealed some things never to be forgotten. There was Lord Ullin's daughter with her lover in a small boat (tub) crossing a swollen stream. The perils of the fording, the father standing on the shore with outstretched arms and pleading for their return—all served to arouse tearful sympathy on the part of the spectators. Then a number of wax figures were presented to view, a lovely bride with a pink rosebud grasped in her pale, lifeless hand. Teddy Roosevelt murmuring "Delighted" with marked emphasis and closed teeth, the babes in the woods and the robin which covered them with leaves, Bluebeard's wives hanging head-downward by their hair, and a headless scene. Hereupon, a breaking-forth of the pent-up emotions of the Sophomores in a series of yells dispersed the witches and sent the girls to their rooms. Is it surprising, in view of these facts, that Lausanne inmates slept on kitchen aprons and dreamed of the future?

Executive Committee Elected.

At a business meeting of the student body last week the fall election was completed. Prof. Patterson was elected member of the debate council from the faculty. The committeemen elected to serve on the executive committee with the officers of the student body were as follows: George Wilson, J. B. C. Oakes, Paul Homan, C. B. Harrison and Clyde Wamscoat.

An appeal is being made to England for funds to endow Hong Kong University, China. The aim is to incorporate the existing institutions there, especially the college of medicine, which has been running for twenty years. The university is located on English soil, the instruction will be in English, but it is primarily for Chinese students.

SECOND TEAM MEETS DEFEAT

Went Up Against Strong Squad at Albany.

The second varsity football team was defeated in their first game last Saturday by score of 8 to 0. Manager Flegil and Coach McIntyre took their football aspirants on an outing with a journey to Albany. Naturally, being away from home the second team was defeated, but a defeat is no disgrace after a hard battle. Albany has a very strong high school and as they have a commercial course not all the students are under the age of required school attendance. The Albany high school team is made up of heavy weights, and this accounts for the score being in their favor. They were outclassed with plays and passes by the second squad, but their strong point was in long end runs.

Our second team needs experience and is doing a great work for the moulding of new material for the coming years.

Football Game on Election Day Assured.

It is certain that Willamette Students will have an opportunity to witness another big football game on the local field next Tuesday afternoon. Manager Bellinger is in communication with several teams of the Northwest, among them University of Oregon, University of Washington, and the Soldiers' Team from Vancouver Barracks, Washington.

At the time of going to press, it could not be definitely ascertained just which of these teams the Varsity eleven will meet, but the management has assured a game which will be equal to the one with O. A. C. This will in all probability be the last big game before the local team plays Pacific University on Thanksgiving.

FRESHMEN HOLD FIRST PARTY

Unmolested by Their Friends The Enemy

The Absence of Lights Does Not Detract From the Fun of the Evening.

'Tis said the annual event of the first Freshman class party took place recently. 'Tis even rumored that the members spent a very joyful evening, not without some excitement, and adventure. "He who runs may read" below and judge for himself:

'14.

'Twas barely five days till
The Calends of November
form;
The night was dark and still,
Like pensive calm before a storm.

All day, in muffled tones,
Great plans and num'rous
weighty schemes
In school-rooms and in homes
Were labored o'er as scholars'

* themes.
While earth the bright day
weans,
The Freshman Class begins
to sense
The call to other scenes,
And flees to Heist's gay residence.

When lo! the storm that burst
Was naught but mirth and gleeful bliss;
And previous parties durst
Not venture to compare with this.

The scene was gay and bright.
Bright? Yes until some childish Prep,
With curls and top-piece light,
Severed the wires, which tick-
led Hepp,

And all the fearful lads—
'Twas nothing to propose while dark;
With lunch and other fads
We left by twos and fours
Without disturbance by Soph-
'mores.

PHILODOSIAN SOCIETY.

A regular meeting of the Philodorian was held last Friday at 3 p. m. The principal event of the day was the initiation of some new members into the society. We congratulate ourselves upon receiving girls of unusual talent along the lines in which our society work is based.

A short program was rendered and made doubly interesting by speeches from several members of our brother society. Our prospects for the ensuing year are extremely bright and we expect to keep up the high standards of our society as never before.

Barometer Puncts.

Well, we got Willamette's scalp. It was hard work, but we appreciate it all the more. They say Keck's punting saved us from a drubbing Saturday, the 22d.

There are 140 freshmen in the Salem High School this semester.

EDITORIAL.

"Don't knuckle under."

When you believe a thing is right, stay by it. Don't knuckle under.

When you are convinced that you are in the wrong, right yourself. Don't knuckle under.

It is only a man with no mind to speak of that never changes his mind, when he is convinced.

"Knuckling under is a state of mind and will in which a man temporarily abdicates the throne of his personality in favor of another. The man who does it belongs not to himself; the other man is his boss."—The Intercollegian.

You believe you ought to pay your student body fee. Do it. Don't knuckle under.

"The man who has the study habit and the health habit and the work habit has the key to the situation."

Take away the principle for which our life stands and there is nothing worth living for left. Don't weaken your principles by knuckling under to those of some one else.

"By all means let us cultivate an open mind; but not one so perforated with loop holes that much that should remain out drifts in and much that should be rigidly retained drops out."—Joseph Jastraw.

Willamette University is the only institution of higher education in the state situated in a "wet" town. Every qualified voter among the students should remember this next Tuesday. "Don't knuckle under."

Whatever may be their opinion on the subject of woman suffrage in general, when a campaign like the present one is on all enthusiastic women can't help wishing for the ballot "just this once."

OSWALD WEST—MAN OF THE HOUR, AND WHY?

Than Oswald West, no man ever offered for his governorship was more fit. He came from the lower levels. His early life was a struggle with poverty. He knows all about "the huts where poor men lie and the chores that poor men do."

He was a butcher's boy when other boys were at play. He was a banker's messenger when other lads were at school. He fought against adversity at the age when the average child is at his pastimes.

Wherever fate placed him, West the boy or West the man made good. From butcher's boy he went to school, and from school he became bank messenger. From messenger he rose swiftly from one position of trust to another. This life is survival of the fit, and he was fit.

It is a splendid record. West's is a career, private and public, that is a guaranty. It is a life-work about which there is no doubt, and of the meaning of which no man raises question.

The former butcher's boy has been named for governor. It is a beautiful incident in that it reveals how in American citizenship the highest office is open alike to the low or high. It is a magnificent country that makes public preferment not a question of rank, but of manhood, purpose and genius. It is a transcendent testimonial to our American life, to raise such men to high position.

"THE QUARTER TREES."

At the "Quarter Tree" meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held Tuesday afternoon only about half of those who had signed up were present or sent reports, but about twelve dollars were realized. The remainder of those who entered the contest have been written to or notified and no doubt will be heard from soon, and more money will be forth coming.

Some of the stories of the planting and growing of the quarters were very amusing and instructive. The sale of buns and doughnuts brought in some of the money. Three of the girls canvassed for Larkin Products and will present a premium, in the form of a fine library table, to the rest room.

Two other girls presented a fine rocker as the fruit of their quarter tree.

All money turned in will be expended in furniture of some sort, for the rest room. Watch for improvements in the room.

Lausanne Hall, Oct. 31.—It is certainly strange how some things find their way into a girl's heart, but it is stranger how little yellow cards covered with pumpkin heads and cats and bewitching hieroglyphics get into a girl's room. Notwithstanding, such a thing happened last week at the Hall.

These missives from wizardom read as follows when they were finally deciphered:

On the night when witches fly,
Bats go strolling, owls cry,
Glance fearfully upon the moon
And glide into the dining-room
At six o'clock,
O weird! wierd! !

ADELANTE SOCIETY.

Last Friday afternoon the Adelante Literary Society held their regular meeting. A large number of girls were present and an enjoyable program rendered.

The roll call was responded to by quotations from Benj. Franklin.

The second chapter of an Original story entitled "The Romance of a Willamette", was read by Miss Alma Haskin. The first chapter, by Miss Jessie Young, was read at a former meeting. The story is certainly splendid and all the Adelantes are wondering, "What will happen next?"

After a short parliamentary drill, Alta Altman, Kathryn Vandevort, Ethel May, Genevieve Avison, Sadie Boughey, Aetna Emmel and Vivian Gremmels, were initiated.

The Adelantes have many new members this year and with the increased numbers and the interest shown, the coming year promises to be the best in the history of the society.

GOES TO THE LEGISLATURE.

Former Law Student Receives Recognition.

The many friends of Mr. James Jeffries, a former well known Willamette student, will be pleased to hear of the recognition he has received in his home county. He recently received the nomination on the republican ticket to the state legislature of Montana. Mr. Jeffries was a graduate of the Willamette College of law in the class of '09. He was a member of the Varsity football team in '07 and '09. Jeff. was a man who always made good and we have no doubt but that he will continue to do so in whatever position he may be placed. The Collegian wishes him success on Nov. 8th.

The following is a clipping from a Montana paper:

An Unsolicited Tribute.
"Office of the Dist. Attorney, 3d Judicial Dist, Oregon.
"Salem, Ore., Oct 10, '10.
"The Evening Leader, Great Falls, Montana.

"To the Editor: A recent issue of your paper came into my possession containing a notice that Mr. James Jeffries had received the nomination on the republican ticket for representative to the state legislature. Mr. Jeffries, two years ago, graduated with high honors from the Willamette College of Law located in this city, and later passed the examination prescribed by the Oregon supreme court. For two years I was in a position to observe the character and purpose of Mr. Jeffries, and I am pleased at this time to state that he is in every department of life a sterling fellow. He obtained his education in law by means of hard work in school and out, and passed an examination more creditably than many whose environments were more agreeable. I know he possesses qualifications which fit him for the political position he seeks, and I am strongly convinced that the people of your district would do an act of political wisdom in choosing him as their representative.

"I write this letter unsolicited for the reason that I believe it courageous to say a good word for a deservng young man.
"Very truly yours,
"C. L. McNARY,
"Dean Willamette Col. of Law."

Academy Girls in Charge.

The meeting Sunday afternoon was in the hands of the Academy girls and was very ably led by Aetna Emmel. The topic, "Thoughts, the Test of Character", was discussed in its various phases by the academy girls, after which Theo. Bennett and Alma Haskin told how they first judged new girls. One of the classifications made was (1) The "I don't care" girl, (2) The self-satisfied girl, anxious to make an impression wherever she is, (3) The good all-round girl whom every one likes.

Miss Reynold's words on the responsibility of our thoughts were much appreciated.

The way in which the new girls are taking hold of the work is very encouraging to all old association members. The prospects look bright, indeed.

The presence of a couple of love sick freshmen at a football game lends about as much enthusiasm to the occasion as the announcement at a class hour that the ice cream has been swiped.—Simpsonian.

"Mr. Hawley as a member of Congress has undoubtedly made good. No member from this district has done so well. Though comparatively a young man in legislative experience, he has been advanced on committees, which is an evidence of capacity and usefulness among his fellow members. He has secured over a million and a half of dollars for his district in legitimate ways and for useful purposes. He has also been useful in securing aid to the veterans, the Siletz settlers, and has devoted much time to the affairs of the House and been a conscientious, painstaking representative. We think it would be very unwise to defeat him no matter by whom he was nominated. If the so-called Republicans do not stand for him they are false to their own interests as citizens, to say nothing of party." Drain Non-pariel.

Willamette students take particular pride in the success and achievements of Mr. Hawley, for he is an alumnus of the old "U", and was for a number of years President of the institution. PHILODORIAN SOCIETY.

Musical Numbers a Special Feature.

At the weekly meeting of the Philodorian Society on last Thursday evening, a very excellent program was rendered, mainly by the new members of the society.

Each number showed thorough preparation on the part of the participant, and with all the program was one of the most interesting of the year. Among the especially pleasing features were the musical numbers.

These consisted of an instrumental duet, and in response to an encore, a vocal duet, by Miss Bradley and Edgington; also a vocal solo by Mr. DeLong and an instrumental solo by Mr. Blanchard. The society has some excellent musicians among its members this year, and this part of the program is being well taken care of. A new feature was added to the program at this meeting, in the nature of a lecture by one of the members of the faculty. This was delivered by Professor Kirk and was so well received, that it is hoped this feature of the program may be continued throughout the year.

The meeting was well attended, over thirty members and visitors being present. The numbers on the program rendered, were as follows:

Vocal Solo Mr. DeLong
Composition Mr. Newton
Music Misses Bradley and Edgington.

Lecture Prof. Kirk
Instrum't'l Solo... Mr. Blanchard
Ten minutes parliamentary Debate—Resolved that the employers liability act as proposed by the State Federation of Labor, should be adopted by the people of the State of Oregon.

The affirmative was upheld by Mr. Dye and Mr. Hopkins, the negative by Mr. Kelly and Mr. Wells.

The regular weekly meeting will not be held this evening as usual, but a joint meeting will be held with the Philodorsians on Friday evening.
