Campus 'Blood Day' Nov. 20

Willamette's 1956 Blood Drive officially begins this coming Tuesday, Gary Larson, chairman, announces. The drive, Larson said, will continue until Tuesday, November 20 when one pint of blood will be taken from each donor by the Red Cross team in the gym between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

During the drive a representative in each living organization will contact each person individually. Town students will be contacted by a telephone crew.

"I personally encourage every student over 18 years of age and faculty members, too, to take part in this worthwhile American Red Cross Blood Program," Larson added. "By signing a pledge card which will be made available to each donor, designating the time he prefers to donate the blood."

Larson also announced that this year the Blood Drive committee intends to set up a "walking donor system" at Willamette. A "walking donor," said Larson, is a person who has volunteered to give blood in emergency cases when local hospitals do not have immediate access to the blood they need.

There would be a representative in each living organization who would have the names and blood types of members taking part in the walking donor program. The Red Cross would directly contact these representatives when blood was needed. Such cases would not arise very often, Larson continued, but "when they need it, they need it badly."

Persons who have questions about any phase of the program, Larson concluded, are urged to ask the following committee members:

Poll Shows GOP Ahead

Republicans carried off most of the honors in the political poll conducted by the Collegian recently. President Eisenhower proved to be an overwhelming favorite with Willamette students, accumulating a 4 to 1 margin over Adlai Stevenson. Ike received 234 votes while Adlai polled only 61.

Even Eisenhower could not rival former dean Mark Hatfield in popularity however as he rolled to a 12 to 1 majority over his Democratic rival for Secretary of State, Monroe Sweetland. Hatfield's total vote of 272 was the largest single amount received by any candidate, while Sweetland received 23 votes.

A fairly small spread of 27 votes separated Douglas McKay and Senator Wayne Morse in their race for the U. S. Senate seat occupied by Morse. McKay's vote totaled 161 and Morse's was 134. In most cases students seemed to vote a straight party ticket, but ranks were broken when a substantial minority crossed party lines to vote for Eisenhower and Morse.

The governorship campaign, somewhat obscured by the more vigorous McKay-Morse battle, was nearly as one sided as the presidential race with incumbent Elmo Smith capturing 225 votes compared to his Democratic opponent, Robert Holmes' 70, for a four to one ratio.

The only Democrat to lead in the race was Attorney General Robert Thornton as he received 222 votes for the post which he now holds and his Republican opponent Carl H. Francis won 73. The state treasurer, Sig Unander won 159 votes for re-election and Wiley Smith, his Democratic rival totaled 60.

Alums Returning to Campus Find Packed Schedule Ahead

By DOROTHY MANKER
Collegian Reporter

"Welcome Alums!" to the 1956 Willamette Homecoming. Student activities started out bright and early this morning with the frosh leaf rake at 5 a.m. when all lowly freshmen stooped to their lowly tasks under the supervision of those people called sophomores. Food for their minds (and bodies) was served in the Lausanne cafeteria at 6:45.

But this was only one duty traditionally given to the freshmen. They have spent a weary week building and guarding the bonfire from those destructive sophomores. This meant a 24-hour watch with even the women called into duty to feed their brave men.

These are only a few of the Homecoming activities that will culminate in the Homecoming dance tomorrow night from 9 to 12. "Memories" is the theme for this semi-formal, no-corsage affair with the music of Bill de Souza. Reigning over all will be the Homecoming Hostess, Jeannine Graber.

Tonight's activities will begin at the Alpha Chi Omega house with a parade, equipped with enthusiastic freshmen, the Rally Squad, and a pep band. It will wind to the campus, pick up the football team, and arrive in full force at Pringle Park for the bonfire. "Let's have everyone out there and just loaded with spirit!" urges Skip Alexander, yell king.

Special feature of the evening will be the jazz concert by Monte Ballou and his Castle Jazz Band in the Fine Arts auditorium at 8:15. Admission will be by showing the Homecoming buttons which are on sale for 60 cents in all living organizations. Tickets will be on sale at the door for those without buttons.

The winner of the "Ugly Man" contest will be presented with a trophy at the dance by Beta Alpha Gamma, sponsors of the contest. Dave Barrows was nominated, by Delta Gamma, Frank Caruso by Pi Beta Phi, Tom Johns by Lausanne, Bob Joseph by Alpha Chi Omega, Skeet Shepherd by Chi Omega, and Dr. Paul Trueblood by Doney.

The "ugliest" man will be the one accumulating the greatest amount of money in the jars placed in Collins and Eaton Halls and the living organization.

Judging will begin today on the signs, constructed by each living organization, which portray the slogan "Bearcats Pound Puget Sound". Winners of the men's mechanical three-dimensional, and of the women's two-dimensional, non-mechanical sign contests will also be announced at the dance.

Will the Bearcats actually pound Puget Sound? This question will be answered at the Homecoming football game tomorrow at 2 p.m. in McCulloch Stadium when Willamette University plays the College of Puget Sound. Half-time may also answer the question as to the whereabouts of the Senior Bench.

Traditional and of vital importance to all freshmen is the greased pole contest following the game. If the frosh can overcome their foes, the sophomores, and climb to the top of the pole, they can bare their heads and throw the hated rook lids to the winds.

Donna Leonard, president of Theta Alpha Phi, announced the following chairmanships: scene building, Wayne Harris; properties, Lois Wickersham; costumes, Donna Leonard; make-up, the make-up class with Beth Guilbert as chairman; lighting, Ken Renshaw; publicity, Bob Braddy and George Nelson; scene painting, Bob Braddy.

Committee members are properties, Sue Tangfeldt and Sylvia Quiring; costumes, Marilyn Morton, Jo Heald, and Carrie Saito; and lighting, David McCready, Steve Hone, Cathy Lund, Diane Griffith, and Robin Moseley.

Working on scene building are Don Coe, Steve Hone, Bill Randall, Kay Ferris, Audrey Horton, Joan Thronson, and Pat Edwards. Painting the scenery will be Sherry Rutledge, Gordon Jones, Ernestine Aschenbrenner, Frances Swanson, Claraine Ackerman, Peggy Tunnell, Mary Turner, and Peggy Buckley.

Tickets may be picked up at the box office at the auditorium from 1 to 5 p.m. all next week upon presentation of a student body card. Tickets may also be purchased at Stevens and Sons for $1.

CR Week Petitions Due

Petitions for Christian Resource Week chairman are due in Dr. Norman Huffman's office Friday, November 9. The selection for the post will be made by the Religious Life Council November 12.

All candidates should be able to lead planning meetings of the C-R Week committee and be aware of student interests and needs in the religious area.

C-R Week is tentatively scheduled for the second or third week of February.

Chest Gifts Over $1400

Campus Chest manager Dean Bishoprick confirmed this week that the total collection for the benefit drive will amount to well over $1400. While a few more donations are still expected, counting of the money is virtually complete. Varsity Varieties netted $1,018 and individual contributions amounted to $423.

Welcome Home

Every year the Student Body looks forward to welcoming back to the campus students of former days. The Homecoming issue is one the Collegian staff has looked forward to for a long time. But this year there is a difference. The genuine pleasure of welcoming back the alums has been disturbed by the news of the past days and behind the hearty greetings there is an air of absentmindedness.

The truth is that we are frightened, as are our guests, by the trend of world events. With the ever darkening headlines warning us of the nearness of war in the Middle East, we cannot help but turn from the activities of the Weekend occasionally to see how things are going. If we do not seem the carefree, enthusiastic youngsters that the grads have known, it is because of the news we have heard.

Under such conditions it is difficult to be always as attentive as we want to be and ordinarily would be. Nevertheless, we are glad to see you and we hope that our Homecoming celebration will be pleasing to you even if the times aren't as happy as we might wish.

History Prof Says Nation Needs Stevenson

By DR. R. IVAN LOVELL
Professor of History

Although I voted for Senator Morse when he was still a liberal Republican and always vote for Mark Hatfield, I have been a good Democrat, and a good American I hope, ever since that great idealist, Woodrow Wilson, put us into World War I and tried to put us into the League of Nations; and again since FDR with his courage, humanity and resourcefulness pulled us through the Great Depression. Maybe that makes me a New Dealer; but with due respect to Doug McKay, Mr. Hoover and Dr. Gatte, I'm in exalted company. Election Year Liberalism

The New York Times anyway recently told us how the Eisenhower administration "has brought the Republican Party a long way in a short time towards the acceptance of the New Deal Fair Deal philosophy; and you've got to admit remarkable progress that way has been made this (Election) year!

Unfortunately they failed (to quote the Times again) "to push ahead into any unexplored territory here"—just as, I would add, in foreign policy and rejected "any major new concept of social welfare." And whether Ike's "dynamic conservatism" whatever that is, has rubbed off on the influential people around him; on the Hobbys and Humphreys, the Adamses and Wilsons, the Dixons and Nixons—that I very much doubt. Compare the administration's stout resistance to recent (1956) improvements in the Social Security set up, and to the dollar-an-hour minimum wage. And don't forget the famous Republican tax cuts of 1954, when only nine percent of the tax relief went to 80 per cent of all American families. Everybody Prosperous?

Such shabby genteel families (including how many million preachers and teachers, professional and service workers, small farmers and little business men?) scarcely share in the so called Progress and Prosperity we are now hearing so much about. Many of them, and most of the 30,000,000 "forgotten" Americans, those in families (one family out of five n.b.) with less than $2000 a year, must wonder about Nixon's three television sets. And I doubt that the "bright prospects" Eisenhower promises the small farmers, along with the soil bank which Benson has now swallowed after opposing it so bravely in 1954 and 1955, are very much help now.

Repeatedly Stevenson and Kefauver have refuted, with cold facts and statistics, the phony Republican prating of "Peace-time Prosperity"—"peace" time with 84% of the budget still going for wars, past, present or future! And who is better qualified to tackle the real problems that won't stay under the rug in this highly critical time?

Stevenson Best Qualified

Is it the amiable but aging Eisenhower; after long sheltered years in the army, obeyed and saluted and surrounded since 1953 by the successful business men he openly prefers to "some failure that never did anything"; by the millionaires in his Cadillac cabinet; and by Madison Avenue advertisers who sell his popularity just as slickly and cynically as they sell lipstick or toothpaste, cigarettes or soap? Or is it "my boy" Nixon, with his nice smile, and his new clean white collar, and his still obvious lack of political principle and social conscience (just compare Dick's voting record with Estes's). Or Stevenson, with his outstanding intellectual and moral integrity, his courage, humanity and wisdom, and his four successful years as Governor of our fourth largest State.

Turn now to foreign policy: a favorite subject to which I'd have liked to devote all my space. For lack of it, no discussion of the globe-circling Mr. Dulles's winged words which the Republicans (anybody notice?) are not publicizing any more: Unleashing and Liberation, Winning the Cold War, Massive Retaliation, Agonizing Reappraisals! But the earnest student is referred to Life magazine of January 16 last for Mr. Dulles's views on preventive Brinkmanship and especially the off-shore Chinese islands. Compare this with Senator Morse's convocation speech. Ike's Korea Claim is Phony

What about Ike and his contribution (grossly exaggerated but by no means negligible) to the generally accepted cause of Peace?

Hear my favorite editor, Republican Charles Sprague in the Statesman October 19:

"The 'peace' in Korea did not come as a result of Eisenhower's flight to the Far East just before his inauguration. The organized warfare had died down and truce talks had been in progress, in which Communist demands for forced repatriation of prisoners had proved a stumbling block. The Seventh UN General Assembly (which met October 14) in 1952 adopted resolutions calling for a settlement giving prisoners freedom of choice. In April, 1953 the Reds agreed to resume negotiations . . . and in July the armistice was agreed to."

The armistice (it is still only that after three years) came after (and largely because of) the death of Joe Stalin, March 1953: an epoch marking event which no Republican orator or even editor to my knowledge ever refers. Their silence on it is almost deafening!

Stevenson Understands Problems

What about Stevenson's foreign policy? Again, he does not claim to know all the answers. He does ask the right questions, about the appalling dangers involved in repeatedly testing H bombs, and the waste involved in indefinite continuance of the draft. Here again the open-minded student is referred to what

Alumnus of '31 Urges Re-election of Eisenhower

By WARREN A. McMINIMEE '31
State Senator, Tillamook County

As our National election day approaches with the charges and counter-charges being hurled by the respective political parties it is proper we reflect a moment on the status of our nation four years ago as we were preparing to vote at that election. We were at war. American soldiers were being killed and maimed on the battle fields of Korea. President Eisenhower promised everything within his power to bring about an early peace, while his opponents were shouting that we dare not elect a professional soldier as our President if we are to have peace.

Prosperity, Without War

The Korean War ended within six months after the inauguration of President Eisenhower and no American soldier has been killed or wounded in combat since that date. We have attained peace, an outstanding achievement, but the fact that we have been enjoying peace and prosperity, without war, has baffled even the experts. Prosperity without war has been unheard of since 1928. With President Eisenhower we have enjoyed peace, unprecedented prosperity, all time high employment; wages and take home pay have soared to new heights and all this with fewer strikes and increased labor benefits. During this time the labor unions have enjoyed their greatest growth.

Through efficient management, government spending has been drastically cut and the federal budget balanced for the first time in many years. The trend to centralization of power at the national capital has stopped, and recognition of local government has been reestablished.

Confidence in the decency of elected and appointed governmental officials has been restored. The words "honesty and integrity" have been given their true meaning.

Domestic Advances

By creation of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare the welfare of the people has been enhanced. Social Security has been extended and the benefits increased permitting, among other things, greater part-time earning by the retired and protection of beneficial rights for the disabled. Erasing racial discrimination from the American scene has been going forward with greater stride in the last four years than at any other time since the days of President Lincoln.

The initiation of the great St. Lawrence seaway project to make cheaper shipping available and to provide power, a dream of former presidents, is a reality under President Eisenhower. He proposed to Congress and Congress has responded with a new National Highway program. It is difficult to comprehend the tremendous effect this program will have on business and the reduction of accidents which heretofore have been taking a greater toll than our wars.

World Leadership

President Eisenhower has pointed the way to a foreign policy that accepts our responsibilities of world leadership, and at the same time recognizes our responsibilities to our own people for a growing national economy. The objective is world peace. To obtain that, the policy has been to maintain our national strength only to guard against aggression. The responsibility for world leadership in the accomplishment of peace has been forced upon our nation because of our great resources. Helping the lesser developed nations who need economic help and crave social progress for their people and recognizing our responsibility to our own people creates a problem that calls for constant watching and changing to maintain the proper balance.

What was good international diplomacy last week may not fit the situation this week. World events of the past week bring this to mind. Poland and Hungary may require an entirely different approach this week than the plans called for last week. The Eisenhower foreign policy is clear and certain, but by necessity the method of executing the policy must be fluid to meet ever changing conditions. In the field of international politics there are those who constantly say we want to know the foreign policy program in advance. To do this is but to reveal to the Soviet bloc our strategy.

Experienced Leadership

President Eisenhower, with the first hand knowledge of the foreign mind learned on the field of battle and as the man sent by the former administration to preserve the peace in Europe, has the grasp and knowledge more than any living man to end the enslavement of once free nations.

Confidently we can go forward with President Dwight D. Eisenhower in the greatest of all projects—to bring peace and prosperity among all people of the earth—as we in the United States of America are privileged to enjoy under his great leadership.

We will re-elect him President.

Forensics Group Chooses Runkel

Dr. Howard W. Runkel, director of forensics, has been chosen a member of the 1956-57 Pacific Northwest selection committee for the national forensic tournament at West Point next spring. The selection was made by forensic coaches in the five Western states.

The selection committee will choose two college teams to compete in this event based on their achievements in intercollegiate competition through next March.

Since 1950 Willamette has on four occasions been one of the two college teams from the Northwest to travel to West Point for the competition.

WITS Organize, Elect Officers

With plans to revitalize the inactive Willamette Independent Town Students organization the members elected their new officers and decided to hold their weekly meetings and evening functions in Chresto Cottage.

Dan Newberry was elected president. Other officers are Karen Michalson, vice-president; Ronnelle Carlisle, secretary-treasurer; Henry Kay, men's student council representative, and Judy Harmon, women's student council representative.

The first meeting to be held in Chresto was last Monday when the group discussed future plans, including the sign for Homecoming. WITS will meet every Monday at 12:15 p.m. and all independent townies are invited to attend, according to Newberry.

Fellowships To Be Granted For Research

National Science Foundation has announced its plans to award approximately 800 graduate and 175 postdoctoral fellowships for scientific study during the 1957-58 academic year. These fellowships will be awarded to citizens of the United States, selected solely on the basis of ability.

All applicants for graduate (pre-doctoral) awards will be required to take an examination, administered by the Educational Testing Service, to be given on January 19, 1957 at designated centers throughout the United States and certain foreign countries.

The annual stipends for graduate Fellows are as follows: $1600 for the first year; $1800 for the intermediate year; and $2000 for the terminal year. The annual stipend for postdoctoral Fellows is $3800. Dependency allowances will be made to married Fellows. Tuition, laboratory fees and limited travel allowances will also be provided.

Further information and application materials may be secured from the Fellowship Office, National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council, 2101 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington 25, D. C. The deadline for the receipt of applications for postdoctoral fellowships is December 24, 1956; for graduate fellowships January 7, 1957.

Drama, Acting Classes to Give Series of Seven One-Act Plays

Seven one-act plays will be presented by the drama department in early December, according to an announcement made by Prof. Robert Putnam, drama director.

These plays are "Frances and Francis", by James P. Webber, which will be directed by Mac Baker; "Fortune is a Cowboy", by M. G. Elsey, to be directed by Ken Renshaw; "Rouge Atomique", by M. Richard Nash, directed by Maggie Magone.

"The Woman Who Understood Men", by John Kirkpatrick, will be directed by Lois Wickersham. Fred Chambers will direct "Turn Down an Empty Jug," by Joyce Randall.

Jean Snow will direct "Saturday Evening," and George Nelson will direct "The Blue Tie", by Beulah Charmley.

These plays are produced by members of the class in directing, while the acting class takes the roles of the characters.

Another series of one-act plays will be presented in late January. These serve as practical experience in directing for the students and will also serve as their final examination.

Deadline Nearing On Glee Petitions

Any freshman interested in being Freshman Glee Manager is urged to begin considering it now, according to Doug Houser, Student Body first vice-president.

For the benefit of all new students, Glee is an annual song contest between the classes, sponsored and organized by the freshmen. This year's theme is "Alma Mater."

The Glee manager is the co-ordinator of all the Glee committees. Anyone interested in applying for the position should obtain a petition from the Student Body office. Persons petitioning for the office must secure at least twenty-five freshmen's signatures and will be required to speak at convocation on November 25. All petitions are due Monday, November 23, at 12 noon.

Those desiring additional information should contact Bill Wheat, Mac Baker or Del Cummings, past Glee managers, consult the student body file for information on past Glee's, and see the annual Glee scrapbooks in the library.

Seniors are to report for sittings at any time, including Saturdays, between November 5 and November 17. It is preferable, but not necessary, that students make definite appointments, however, seniors will be given priority at the studio during the afternoons.

Caps and gowns will be provided.

Students unable to make the times scheduled are urged to report at another time. For instance, if a sorority woman works when her house pictures are scheduled she has her picture taken some time Tuesday or Wednesday at Lausanne, wearing the outfit of her own house.

Under this arrangement there will be one pose per student. Students will later be able to purchase reprints if desired.

Air Force Needs Law Graduates

"A number of direct commissions are presently available in the grades of first lieutenant and captain for lawyers . . . who would make good judge advocates," commended Maj. Gen. R. C. Harmon, US Air Force Judge Advocate in a recent letter to Seward Reese, Dean of the College of Law.

Harmon expressed the Air Force need for graduate lawyers willing to take active duty in JAG positions. Dean Reese was contacted with the hope that he will present to interested lawyers and law students the opportunities available through Air Force affiliation. Reese, a personal friend of Maj. Gen. Harmon, stated that he would be available at any time to confer with interested, qualified individuals.

Cat Elevens Battle to 12-12 Tie

By WES McMULLEN
Collegian Sports Writer

FOOTBALLS filled the air in the second half of last Saturday night's game and saw a 12-12 tie, in what could have been Willamette's third victory of the year.

Frigid air hanging over McCulloch stadium numbed fans and players alike but not the passing arm of Linfield's Ron Parrish. With little better than a minute left to play the Wildcat quarterback erased a six-point lead held by the home standing Jaxons.

The Bearcats walked off the icy field glad they hadn't lost but dismayed at the fact that the conference leadership is now out of their grasp. Linfield and Willamette are now deadlocked in second place.

WILLAMETTE infractions of the rule book and some heavy offensive thrusts gave Linfield the first touchdown of the game. Midway in the second period, Linfield's Sell Spray romped into the end zone after four plays from the Bearcat 35.

It was Willamette who showed Linfield how to play football in the second half as they nabbed two TD's before the Wildcats hit the scoreboard again. Young Dale Shumway and lean Rex Domaschofsky led WU offense in this portion of the ball game.

Five plays from the Willamette 33 set the ball up for a Shumway scoring foray on the Linfield 42.

The lithe Bearcat halfback exploded through a surprised Wildcat defense and went on for the touchdown without too much trouble.

THE LAST PERIOD was the big period for both teams and it was Willamette who opened the scoring in this chapter of the Saturday night encounter. Shumway again stepped into the spotlight as he and his teammates worked the ball to the WU 45, setting the stage for the passing duo of Holt-Domaschofsky.

Quarterback Benny Holt unfurled a long, looping pass to the grasping fingers of Domaschofsky on the Linfield 28. Two purple and white defenders turned around, shocked to see the gross error in pass defense they had made, and watched the big end lobe to the end zone with the ball.

WILLAMETTE breathed easy for a minute, but only for a minute, as the duo of Parrish-Huey duplicated the Bearcat feat on a shorter version. Parrish, standing on the Willamette 25, tossed one of his eight completions of the second half to end Bill Huey who nabbed it over the heads of Willamette defenders for the tying six points.

Charlie Koani continued to lead Willamette in the offense department as he garnered a net of 44 yards on ten plays to bring his season total to something over 200 yards. Windy Sequeira still holds down second place although he gained a net of only 10 yards in Saturday's game.

In the passing department, front running Keith Driver had a bad night as he hit only one pass out of seven for a net of minus nine yards. Holt came 64 yards up on Driver by virtue of a single completion for the evening.

Whits Top Pacific, LC Wins Again

THE MISSIONARIES of Whitman paid a visit to Forest Grove last Saturday night and handed the Pacific University eleven a 19-7 setback. The loss was the third straight in conference play for the Badgers. Tomorrow Pacific plays Portland State at Portland in a non-league affair, while Whitman's Missionaries attack the Lewis and Clark Pioneers on Palatine Hill.

Lewis and Clark played host to out-of-conference Whitworth last week and kept their unbeaten record clean as they won a decisive 19-0 victory. LC is the only unbeaten team in Oregon.

Meanwhile, the Coyotes of College of Idaho traveled to California, where they were edged by a strong Cal. Poly team 7-6. Tomorrow C of I meets Linfield in McMinnville.

FIVE CLUBS entered in the intramural football program ended their first season under flag ball rules, with the Sigma Chis coming out on top of the single league.

The Sigs and the Phis met in the big championship match last Saturday morning at West Salem Field. The Sigs went into the game sporting a three win and one loss record, while the Phi Deltas had won three and tied one. The men of Sigma Chi emerged victorious on the long end of a 12-6 count.

THE SIGS scored first in the "game of the day" as back Gary Winner took the pass from center and skipped to paydirt. The PAT failed and the Sigs held a slim six point margin.

The Phis, not to be denied in the scoring column, marched right back with a tying touchdown. Dave Poff faded back and heaved a long aerial to the waiting arms of Duane Baird, who noded the count at six all.

THE STAGE having been set, the Sigma Chi aggregation took to the air after displaying a good running game. The aerial attack brought the Sigs into scoring territory and enabled Frank Caruso to pitch a perfect strike to Bob Klindworth in the end zone for the final Td.

By blanking the Law School 12-0 the Betas gained a tie for second place. The Lawyers went through the season without scoring a point, but turned in some great defense as they held the Betas to only a pair of touchdowns.

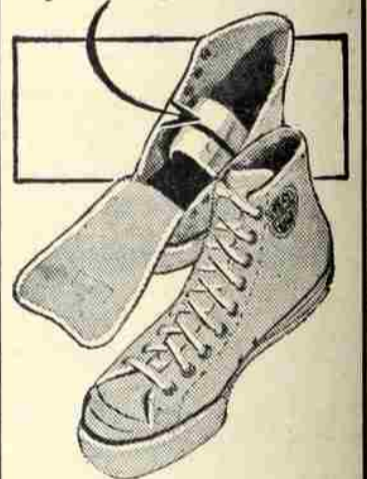

Dave Barrows, the Betas ace wingman, speared a Law School pass and romped 60 yards for the Td. The final Beta score came on quarterback Larry Thompson's heave to Tom Gail behind the double chalk lines.

SIGMA ALPHA Epsilon nabbed third place via a 20-0 trouncing of the fourth place Independents. Bill Pickett duplicated Barrow's feat of a game earlier by running back an intercepted pass 60 yards for the first score. Jim "The Ace" Scott hit George Nelson for the PAT and then threw another scoring pass to Fred Chambers for the second Td.

Scott hit for two more scoring passes, as he found the waiting arms of Chambers and Pickett for the TD and PAT.

WU Hosts Alums, CPS

TOMORROW afternoon at 2 in McCulloch stadium the Willamette Bearcats will present their 1956 version of football to visiting alumni, as well as to the invading College of Puget Sound Loggers, in what promises to be a real Homecoming classic.

The Bearcats of 1956 have displayed a new offense and platoon system of substitution which has provided both fans and grid opponents with some mighty rugged and exciting football. This is exemplified in the fine crowds that have turned out for home games this year. It will be with this same style of aggressive play and determined all-out-effort that the spirited Jasons hope to upset the potent and highly favored Loggers from Tacoma.

COLLEGE OF Puget Sound is one of the nation's few undefeated college teams. They have rolled up six consecutive wins this year, and this includes a 19-0 defeat of Whitworth. Willamette lost to Whitworth in its season's opener by the score of 21-0. Last weekend CPS journeyed to Canada where they trounced the University of British Columbia 53-6.

The tremendous offensive power shown by the Loggers in recent games is partially attributed to the exceptionally fine and hard running of 190-pound fullback Don Parsons, and a young freshman halfback by the name of Larry Kelley. A great help to the Washington team has been quarterback Bob Jarvis, who directs the T-formation club.

Another good reason for the success of CPS this year is their forward wall. The big and fast charging line is led by a potential Little All-American, who answers to the name of Mitch Mitchell. Mitchell has been a thorn in the side of opposing grid machines throughout the current campaign.

COACH OGDahl has designated Charley Koani to play opposite Mitchell when Willamette is on defense. In Ogdahl's own words, "Charley will give Mitchell a real test."

The one change in Ogdahl's platoon system will be that all four of the seniors will start the game together. This will mark the first time this year they have all been in on the opening whistle. The four seniors are Koani, Benny Holt, Windy Sequeira, and Dale Greenlee.

KEITH DRIVER, alternating quarterback will check in tomorrow in much better condition than he did last week, when he was hampered by an infection. Freshman sensation, Roy Barnes, may not start because of a badly bruised knee, which he suffered last week.

The intense rivalry between College of Puget Sound and Willamette University dates back to the days when CPS was in the Northwest conference. Although Willamette holds an edge in the win column over the years, the Bearcats do not need to be reminded of the potency of recent CPS teams. The Loggers have always given the Cardinal and Gold a real test and this year they possess as fine a team as they have ever fielded.

THE WOMEN'S Athletic department's volleyball program was in full swing last week as team leaders were selected and the first games got under way. Each women's living organization has entered a team in this year's competition.

The volleyball team leaders chosen last week are as follows: Alpha Chi Omega, Janet Roscoe; Chi Omega, Ivone Shdo; Delta Gamma, Dollie Cummings; Doney Hall, Mary Lou Starr; Lausanne Hall, Carol Tamura; Pi Beta Phi, Sandra Roark; University House, Deanna Sehorn.

THE FIRST GAME of the current campaign took place on October 24. The Chi Omegas met the Pi Phis, and came out on the short end of the score. In the other game of the day the Delta Gamma team edged the women of Doney Hall.

On October 25, Lausanne Hall was beaten by Alpha Chi Omega, and Delta Gamma bested University House as they nabbed their second win of the series.

CHI OMEGA evened their standing at one win and one loss as they sent Doney Hall down to their second defeat in the game of October 29. The Alpha Chis racked up their second straight triumph when they downed the Pi Phis in the other game of the day.

Koani Picked Player of Week

The coaches of the Northwest conference selected Charlie Koani as "player of the week" following the Lewis and Clark game, which was played in Portland. Koani, the big 200-pound fullback from Waima, Kauai of the T.H., is the first Bearcat to be given the honor for this season.

Koani was picked for his standout defense as well as his tremendous running. The offensive play which he turned in against LC overshadowed all other backs on the field.

Other Bearcats have been given honorable mention for the coveted spot of player of the week. Vic Backlund and Benny Holt were mentioned after the Pacific University game. Following the College of Idaho-Willamette battle, quarterback Keith Driver, end Roy Barnes, tackle Bill Wall and center Bill Long were all in the running for the position after turning in top-notch performances.

Decorations co-chairmen Carlisle Johnson and Jean Peasley will use the lowered ceiling and murals on the walls. Tom Holland is designing a large mural in keeping with the theme.

Sondra Roark, programs chairman, describes them as being "dark green, printed in silver, with silver tassels." Punch and cookies will be the refreshments planned by Marian Higley.

Homecoming manager Chuck McClure will present the queen, Jeannine Graber, with a gift at intermission which will be followed by announcement of the Ugly Man contest results with awards going to the winner and the sponsoring house.

"Physical Necessities" which includes clean up will be taken care of by Warren Walker.

Honored guests are Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Dean and Mrs. Seward P. Reese, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist, Dean Regina Ewalt, and Dean Elmer C. Rieck.

THE AMEN CORNER

Members of Canterbury Club will meet at Lausanne at 2 o'clock and then proceed to Portland where they will attend the dedication of All Saints parish at 3:30 p.m.

Those attending plan on eating dinner in Portland and then going to a very high service, Solemn Even Song.

Cars will be leaving for Salem right after the dedication for the benefit of those who will be unable to attend both services.

All Episcopal students are invited to attend 7 o'clock Communion every Thursday in the Little Chapel of Waller Hall.

The Social Scoop

By FLOSSY HODGE
Editor

Believe it or not, the new buildings aren't the only change Willamette has had in the past few decades. By glancing through the old Collegians, you can quickly discover that the Homecoming program has undergone some drastic changes.

If you were a student in 1929, the campus would have been draped with scarlet and gold bunting for the occasion. They even had parades that year says the Collegian: "Pajamaclad figures may tonight prance in the streets to their heart's content without fear of interference from the authorities."

1931 SAW THE Homecoming play advertised by leaflets from an airplane. 1938 was the opening of a new era, for the first dance in the history of Willamette was held at this time. There was even the suggestion "for those not dancing, there will be a reception in the new library at the same time." This opens a world of new ideas for me and my fellow wallflowers!

The white cross of Sigma Chi is being worn by five new members after initiation ceremonies last Sunday. Frank Caruso, Jim Mason, Jim Moore, Ed Carpenter, and Marshall Jeldreks are the new affiliates.

Happenings at teas and receptions can be out of the ordinary! Three Doney Hall coeds were being ushered through Baxter Hall when that dorm held its tea and open house this month. One male inhabitant was slightly frantic. Seems he had been locked out of his room in his underwear!

Dr. Cecil Monk, staunch Republican member of the faculty, received an unusual letter last week. When he opened an envelope from the Friends of Morse he found it empty. They must have known that there was no use even trying, but it's the thought that counts.

One of the nicest campus projects I've heard about can be credited to the Delta Gammas. Wednesday night they took a group of children from the Blind School trick-or-treating.

Mrs. Mary Langan, the Chi Omega housemother, and their cook, Mrs. Beebe, planned a special Halloween dinner for the members and pledges Monday night. Everyone attended in costumes (Shirley Ulinder was a black cat, and Priscilla Fax was a convincing pirate) and were served a chop suey dinner in a surrounding made resplendent with white sheets, yellow candles, and a huge jack-o-lantern.

Don't forget to contact Carole Pfaff or Kent Hotaling if you are planing to attend the Leadership Training Conference, Saturday, November 10. It should prove a valuable experience.

Miss Rohlfling Betrothal Told; Larry Willingham to Wed

A toy tiger named Bradley, wrapped as a gift and opened by president Marilyn Mee at Doney Hall Monday at dinnertime served to announce the engagement of Donna Rohlfling and A/IC Bradley G. Wood.

Miss Rohlfling is a senior religion major and past secretary of Doney

Hall. She serves as prayer cell coordinator for Wesley.

Wood is originally from Medford and is now stationed in Portland.

No date has been set for the wedding.

DONNA ROHLFLING

Announced in Beta Theta Pi chapter meeting Monday night was the wedding date of Charlotte Calvert and Larry Willingham.

Miss Calvert was formerly in nurse's training in San Diego and is now at home in Pendleton.

Willingham, president of the sophomore class, is a member of Beta Theta Pi and Sigma Alpha Chi, sophomore men's honorary. He serves as formation leader for his class in Freshmen Glee.

The couple will be married in Pendleton on Friday evening, November 23. They will make their home in Salem where Willingham will continue his studies.

Sigs Choose Six

Mickey Daun, Jan Hansen, Nettie Hansen, Charlotte Means, Marilyn Reynolds, and Darlene Rose were named the six semi-finalists for the Sigma Chi Sweetheart court on KSLM at 8:30 last night. Each of the girls were interviewed and their favorite record was played.

The three members of the court will be serenaded (one finalist a night) next Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday evenings.

Duties of the winner, according to Jeannine Graber, 1955 Sweetheart, include acting as hostess at social and rush functions, and attending Sigma Chi activities, such as their Christmas party for underprivileged children. The Sweetheart is also a frequent dinner guest.

Two members of Sigma Chi, Dudley Verner and Byron Stokes, wrote the familiar Sweetheart song in 1911. Willamette Sigs chose their first Sweetheart in 1947, and the first international contest was held in 1948.

Or why you never got so much for your money

"Whenever a customer complains to me about the price of gasoline, I call my wife.

"She's worked right with me and kept our books since we leased our first Union Oil station on this same corner in La Canada, 20 years ago.

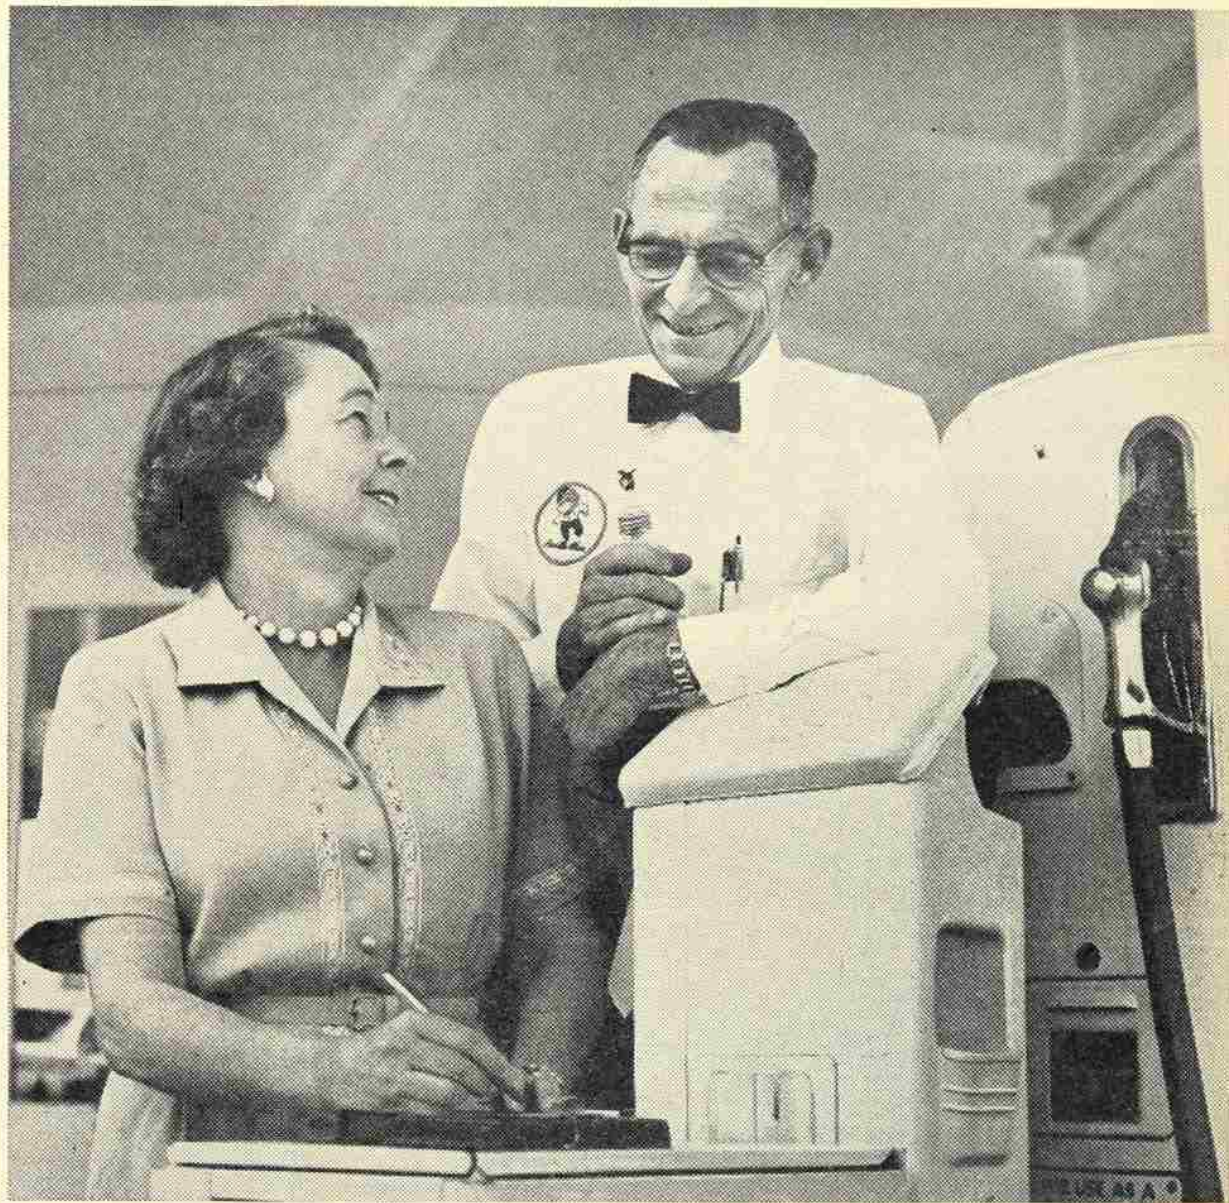

"And—as Myrtle says—gasoline hasn't gone up nearly as much as other things you buy.

You pay 205% more to build a house today than you did in 1936. 220% more for a low-price 2-door sedan. 125% more for a suit of clothes. 325% more for a pound of sirloin steak.

"Yet if you leave out the tax, Union's premium gasoline has gone up only 70% in that same time. Fact is, the tax has gone up more than the gasoline—100%! And two gallons of Union's new Royal 76 will do the work of three gallons of our old product.

"You get a lot of service for nothing, too. We wash your car's windshield. We check water, oil, battery and tires. We provide clean rest rooms and free maps for your convenience.

"Fact is, you never got so much for your money as you do today when you say, 'Fill her up!'"

In 1956 it costs Union Oil 250% more than it did in 1936 to build the kind of service station Charles and Myrtle Santman operate in La Canada, California.

Yet in spite of continually rising costs like this we have been able to keep prices down, while constantly expanding our service and improving our product.

We have accomplished this by plowing profits back into better facilities, by research, by eliminating waste and improving efficiency.

We have had to do this to meet the competition of the many other oil companies serving your needs.
