THE REAL MAY DAY SPIRIT.

From the first whiff of the waffles to the last twilight vespers song this is going to be a great Junior week-end. Oh, yes, we know that other colleges are going to celebrate the same time we are but do you suppose for a moment that their May Queen is half so beautiful as Queen Frances? Do you believe that any manager is as original as "Duck", that there could be a Junior play in the same class with "Sherwood", or that any annual will compare with the great Wallulah, '17? Do you expect to have the time of your life at the May morning breakfast, the tug-o-war, the track meet, the tennis tournament, the baseball game, and the Junior Prom? Did you know that the Y. W. and Y. M. vespers were going to be the best you've ever attended at Willamette? And knowing all this did you say that you hadn't invited at least one high school friend to come and get acquainted with Willamette?

Well, there is still time to write, and there is still time to make this May day the time when the class of 1920 can add a lot of new members. W. U. '17.

So shall the annual May Day breakfast be served on the campus, May 1st, from 6:30 to 9 a. m. The committee who are making every effort to have this feature of the May Festival a success are: Ada Ross, Blanche Baker, Vera Wilham, Esther Taylor, Birdene McKinney, Mae Thompson, Fern Wells, Beryl Holt, Helen Wastell, Mary Eyre, Helen Goltra. Mabel Garrett is to be given special credit as the chairman of the committee.

You Will Like These Waffles.
The breakfast will be served under the trees about Lausanne hall. It is expected that Gertrude Eakin will make the waffles, as she has done so with such exceptional success for former May breakfasts. Beryl Holt and Aetha Emmel will make the biscuits for the occasion. The various eating clubs will take a vacation the morning of May first in order to allow their members to partake of the "eats" on the campus.

Lecture on 'Les Miserables' and Free Concert by Indian Quintet to be of Interest

Of special interest to Willamette students will be the free lecture on "Les Miserables" at the First Congregational church Wednesday evening, May 3, by R. H. Kennedy, director of recreation and religious activity at the Chemawa Indian Training school. Combined with Mr. Kennedy's lecture will be a grand concert by the Indian stringed quintet, which is a musical organization of recognized standard worth. Mr. Kennedy is an exceedingly interesting and clever speaker and will undoubtedly be well listened to. A silver offering will be taken.

REUNION TO BE

Lina Heist, Lila Heist, Naomi Rinner, Gertrude Eakin, Grace Thompson, Mary Cone, Kate Barton, Hattie Beckley Hollinger, Mrs. Winfield Emmel, Mrs. Fred H. Thompson and Mrs. Floyd Utter.

"Jimmy" Would be Exclusive.
James Crawford, of Portland, has ordered "the highest plate at the banquet, as far as possible from Harrison and Shields." Others who have accepted are: Smith, Shields, Allan, Reeves, McIntyre, Schramm, Jory, Emmel, Minton and Pfaff.

SOIL TREATISE IS OF INTEREST

Prof. Von Eschen Discusses Oregon Varieties.

Divides Oregon Soils Into Three General Divisions--Considers Willamette Valley Soils to be Without Peer in Northwest.

"Oregon Soils" was the subject of Prof. Florian Von Eschen's interesting lecture in Waller chapel Monday evening as the ninth offering on the faculty's public lecture course.

The professor's treatise on the subject was thorough and exhaustive which showed the result of his years of experience in testing and examining the respective soils of the West-foot state. He divided Oregon soils into three principal classes: The silty loams, sandy loams, and marsh soils. The silty loams are found in the river valleys, the sandy loams on the alluvial bluffs along the river basins as the Columbia bluffs, while the marsh soils abound in the lake regions of southern Oregon. In addition may be mentioned adobe, granite, pumice and alkali soils.

Valley Soils Unsurpassed.
"Suffice it to say," said the professor in concluding, "that in all my travels throughout this state, having visited all but four counties, I have not found the equal of the Willamette valley, and by scientific cultivation and the conservation of its soils, it is bound to be the garden spot of the northwest for centuries to come."

SARAH TAKES A JOURNEY

Ghastly Spinner Chaperoned by J. R. Visits Science Hall.

Sarah, the ghastly spinner, was precipitated from society in a most striking manner one afternoon soon after her divinity appeared in the dean's recitation hall. Baine, the phosphorescent Bain, gathered her in his arms and carried her out into the open air. When he appeared on the campus bearing his burden of love as proudly as a puppy with his first bone, the campus idlers immediately gathered in his wake and formed a procession. Amid the rhythmic tread of cavalry (Ford's charley horse), the sonorous strains from the German band (Ohling's private property) and fitting demonstrations from the audience, the divine Sarah was duly escorted for demonstrative purposes to the Science Hall.

SHAKESPEARE HONORED

English Club Schedules Interesting Program for Tonight.

A Shakespearean program will be given tonight in Eaton Hall under the auspices of the English Club. The list of numbers includes a paper on "Shakespearean Traditions and Curiosities," by Miss Gladys Carson. Lyrics from the plays of Shakespeare will be sung by Evelyn Cathey, Grace Sherwood, and Roger Lyon, accompanied on piano and mandolin by Helen Goltra and Fern Wells. Special Victrola selections consisting of readings and songs have been chosen for the occasion. As a pleasing variety, an interesting collection of Shakespeareana will be exhibited. The program is open to all who are interested. It will begin promptly at 8 o'clock tonight.

CO-ED SHOWS OLD FIGHT

Miss Winters Scales Tower to Proclaim Forensic Victory.

Enthusiasm at Lausanne Hall ran high after the debate with Pacific University Friday evening and when Mr. Smith reported the second victory, the girls thought it was due time to ring the old historic bell. The idea came easy enough, but when they gazed up in the tower, and with no ladder in sight, the real problem presented itself. After resorting to the chorus work, "We Need a Man," and none appearing, one of the athletic members, Miss Ruth Winters, scaled the heights and made the old bell resound to the complete satisfaction of the crowd below.

SUCCESS MARKS

Charles Randall, president; Raymond Attebery, vice-president; Louis Stewart, secretary, and Wesley Hammond, treasurer.
Great credit for the success of the banquet is due the committee in charge, consisting of Lloyd Haight, chairman, and the Misses Ada Ross, Laura Ross, Fern Wells, Emma Minton, Vesta Mulligan, Mildred Johnson and Gladys Nichols.

MISS COX TO APPEAR IN GLEE CONCERT MAY 12 HAS BEEN WELL RECEIVED IN MANY RECITALS

Miss Esther Cox, who will appear in several solo numbers at the Glee Club concert in Salem, May 12, is at present one of Dr. Chase's advanced students in the instrumental department.

Miss Cox was well introduced into the musical sphere before coming to Willamette in 1913. For two years she studied in the Whitman college conservatory of music under Prof. Robert Scofield and Sarah T. Van Wouwer, during which time she appeared in many honorary recitals and at several afternoon teas.

Her genius as a composer and director was shown in the operetta "Vacation Days" which she presented in Cecil, Oregon, in 1915, the music for which was her own composition. She has appeared with the Willamette quartet in eleven concert this winter with great success and has proved to be a most gifted and talented accompanist for the different musical affairs in which she has assisted in during the past season.

MISS ESTHER PAULINE COX.

Joint Vespers to be Held

As a fitting close to the May Day festivities the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will hold a joint vesper service at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, May 7. The meeting as planned will be short, consisting mainly of songs and special music and will be held on the campus, if the weather is favorable. The vespers quartet will sing--the rest of the program is tentative as yet.

The service is being arranged for by Miss Lyra Miles and Raymond Attebery, chairman of the devotional work in the associations.

CONCERT TO BE

"Song," leads the girls to "Twilight Dreams," whereupon the male quartet is inspired to sing, "Sunset." It would never do to forget the "war times," and the martial note is struck in Schumann's inspired "Two Grenadiers," and our own John Philip Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

KIRK TURNS PISCATOR

Willamette's Librarian Heeds Call of Finny Tribe.

When one of dignity and experience adopts a popular amusement, he is usually able to teach the younger votaries thereof a number of valuable things. Therefore, when a certain Varsity student surprised Prof. Kirk somewhere upon the banks of the mill race headed toward "Gov'rment Slough," very adequately supplied with bait and a fishing outfit, he noticed in his equipment one ultra-modern feature. While the Collegian does not wish to be too positive in this statement, it is reported that the professor had adapted the custom so common with owners of automobiles; that of conspicuously displaying the tag, "License Applied For," on his fish-pole.

Dances Scheduled for Spotlight.

Attractive dances and promenades will characterize the culminating features of the May program, the Junior Prom. Although few plans for this affair have been revealed, it is definitely known that the dances of the seasons, which are under way for the crowning will be repeated at the "prom" with the addition of a spotlight. Ideas of former years will be revived and the balmy May evening promises a spirit of mirth and dances by the goblin sprites.

NO WONDER HE SMILES!

Dr. Doney Now Bosses Gasoline "Chug" Wagon.

President Doney has bought a new five-passenger Buick touring car. He hasn't used it yet as it has been in the garage ever since the purchase on account of the rain, but he knows it's there. When asked if he would drive it, he asserted in his genial way, "Oh, we all hope to learn how to make the thing go. In West Virginia, it seems, the roads are rocky and hilly, making motoring unpleasant. But here the streets and roads are good and we get the fever. We hope to use it for the pleasure of our friends as well as ourselves."

Dartmouth College is considering co-education.

By Laura Ross

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Seaman were over Sunday guests of President and Mrs. Carl G. Doney.

The faculty ladies were guests of the Philodians at their program last Friday afternoon. Miss Lela McCaddam's solo, "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," was much appreciated by the listeners. "The Bridge of the Gods," was dramatized and such characters as the great war chief Malmah and the maiden Snookah made the audience feel that they were truly in the land of Indian lore. Miss Louise Benson's solo was a fitting close for the interesting program. Strawberry ice cream and macaroons brought every one back to the days of the twentieth century.

The parlors of the First Methodist church were the scene of a live Y. M. banquet Saturday evening. At 6 o'clock about fifty men, visitors and local members, were seated at the tables tastefully decorated with spring flowers. Mr. Howard Jewett as toastmaster insured an evening of fun and yet a proper amount of serious consideration of the problems of the association. Mr. Walter Gleiser was first called upon to give the welcome to the visitors and responded with "Why I Am Here and Why You Are Here." Mr. Joe Bell, vice-president of the Oregon University Association, spoke in response with the subject, "Pleasures of Visiting." "What I Hope to See at Seabeck," by Mr. Reed of Pacific University created much enthusiasm for the summer conference. A toast which caused much amusement was given by Mr. Grandahl, president of the Reed College Y. M.; "Where I Got My Name," was his subject. Mr. Gale Seaman then spoke on "The Opportunities of the Y. M." and the program concluded with the installation of officers.

Mrs. F. E. Wells, of Falls City, visited her daughters at "Tarryville" Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Lemuel Esteb was called to his home in Echo, Oregon, Monday morning because of the death of his father. He will probably return to school next week.

The members of the Adelante Society listened to a most interesting talk by Prof. J. T. Matthews Friday afternoon. The subject which he chose was, "When Willamette was Young," and although, as he said, his memory of Willamette did not date back to the year one, he did tell some very interesting history of the school and its founders. Miss Vera Witham played a piano solo which displayed both her artistic and technical ability. Miss Laura Heist and Miss Lottie Penn, former members of the society, who were visitors Friday, were asked to make brief talks. After a short parliamentary practice the society adjourned for a short business meeting.

After the Easter prayer meeting which was held at 8:30 Sunday morning, about 30 young women went to the Doney residence and sang Easter carols for half an hour. The crowd then divided into three parts so that they might sing at as many places as possible during the morning. The Salem Hospital, Old People's Home and the Willamette Sanitarium were visited, besides the home of many of the faculty members. Later they sang for many of the "shut-ins" in different parts of the city.

When Willamette students must leave the school there is a feeling of keen regret and the only ray of hope which brightens the future is the thought that they may meet again. Imagine the joy which four Willamette students experienced a few weeks ago when they met in Los Angeles and enjoyed a true W. U. reunion. Mr. R. W. Little and Mr. Oscar Lund were for two years members of the illustrious class of '16 and aided in several campaigns during those turbulent times. Mr. Warren Booth, ex-'17, was one of the most popular students of the university during his freshman and sophomore years and it is to him that Willamette owes much of her fame in athletics. Mr. Leslie Chappell was graduated from the academy last year and was a member of the University band. When these four met, there was represented much of the spirit that has contributed to a greater Willamette.

Miss Ruth Stewart entertained at lunch Sunday evening, Mr. Louis Stewart and Mr. Harold Reed, who is president of the Y. M. C. A. at Pacific University.

Mr. Merril Ohling and Mr. Andrew Castle were entertained as dinner guests at "Roselawn," Sunday.

After the debate Friday evening a very informal diversion was planned for the pleasure of the Pacific debaters, Mr. Taylor and Mr. Jones. A reception was planned in their honor by the Web-Adelante societies, but because of the lateness of the hour a more or less formal affair was arranged. The Spa was the usual popular resort and several impromptu toasts provided a most enjoyable entertainment. Mr. Paul R. Smith called upon the honor guests and several of the university students, including Supt. G. W. Hugs, of McMinnville, Prof. Clark, Mr. Jones and Mr. Taylor of Pacific; Prof. MacMurray, Mr. Spiess and Miss Ada Ross.

Prof. Florian Von Eschen addressed the Parent-Teachers' Association of the Brush College district Friday evening.

Mr. Irvin Mann and Mr. Lester Sparks spent the week-end in Albany visiting friends.

The Websters came near forgetting to go home Wednesday night. This seeming hesitation came about in this fashion, for just as a pithy business meeting was being brought to a close, the door opened admitting more than a score of pleasantly inclined Adelantes, come to surprise their big brothers. The large-hearted Webbs hurriedly made room for the newcomers, after which the regular program that had unaccountably been delayed, was given. Adolph Spiess, one of Willamette's peerless debaters, elucidated at length the rather hard subject of "Anthracite." John Garry, as one would expect, spoke learnedly on the workings of the Gary school system. Sparks, who claims to have had personal experience in that direction, elaborated the rather curious phrase, "Coos Bay or Bust." The humorous side of the program was ably handled by Gard and Bowers, the former unfolding the trunk mystery, "Who put the Jew in Jewett," the latter in a delicately conceived conclusion established Captain James in a state of marriage bliss. The program being concluded the Webbs and Adelantes regaled themselves in a "Methodist Hoedown," which being translated means Virginia Reel and Tuckers.

When Willamette students must

"Tuckered" was the word, at least that was what numbers said as they found seats at the close of the "aesthetic revolutions." After an hour or more of these pleasures, rigid refreshments were served which acted as a gentle reminder to all that good friends must part.

Mr. Karl Chapter was a Portland visitor Friday. He was attending to the Wallulah business and adding the final touches toward making the book an entire success.

The old-time custom of "feeds" pervaded Lausanne during the past week and the rooms of several of the girls were the scenes of merry gatherings. Among the most pleasant was a surprise for Miss Gladys Nichols, Tuesday evening, the occasion celebrating her birthday. The arrival of two large boxes addressed to Miss Nichols inspired ten of the girls with the idea of reviving the old custom. Added to this store of good things the contributions of the guests made the menu quite complete. Those present were: The Misses Ruth Stewart, Fannie McKennon, Glenn Teeters, Edith Byrd, Margaret Malloy, Litha Packenham, Margaret Fuller, and Gladys Nichols.

The announcement of the engagement of Mr. Ira L. Ketchum has created much interest in university circles. Mr. Ketchum will be married early in June to Miss Margaret Elizabeth Hunter of Spokane. Both young people were graduated in the 1913 class from the North Central high school of Spokane and are well known in that city. Miss Hunter was later graduated from Pauline Dun-

Stan Belden's school of elocution. Mr. Ketchum is now pastor of the Liberty Park Methodist church of Spokane. Mr. Ketchum, with his bride, will probably attend Willamette next fall.

Mrs. J. S. Green and daughter, Irma, of Annsville visited Miss Ruth Green last week.

Miss Ada Ross and Miss Edna Billings will leave for Tacoma Thursday morning accompanied by Miss Todd. They will represent Willamette Friday evening in the women's debate with the University of Puget Sound at Tacoma. This is the first women's debate that Willamette has taken part in for several years and keen interest has been aroused.

Six Lausanne girls were made happy Friday evening after the debate when they were invited to the room of Miss Esther Cox to enjoy a delicious lunch.

Miss Roslyn Albright entertained a few girls Saturday evening at an informal feed in her rooms.

Miss Laura Heist and Miss Lottie Penn who are teaching in the Lebanon high school, were campus visitors Friday.

The usual warm welcome was extended to Mr. R. L. Pfaff when he was seen on the campus last week.

The members of the Pacific University student body were hosts to the Willamette debating team, Mr. Harry Savage and Mr. Walter Gleiser and to the members of their own college team, Mr. James Rasmussen and Mr. Glen Jack, at Herrick Hall, Friday evening after the Pacific-Willamette debate at Forest Grove. The crowd was divided into nine groups, each one being asked to represent some book. "The Choir Invisible" was judged to be the most unique representation and a prize of Easter eggs was given to the group. A delightful program of music and readings proved altogether delightful. Dainty refreshments carrying out the idea of Easter were served and at a late hour the guests departed. The Willamette students were delighted with their cordial welcome and look forward to other such delightful occasions.

Sanitary Beauty Parlors, Manicuring, 228 Hubbard Bldg. Phone 1921.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting of last Thursday afternoon was a most inspiring one. Easter music contributed much to the spirit of the splendid talk by Mrs. Charles A. Park, president of the city Y. W. association. A quartet, "Christ is Risen," was beautifully sung by Miss Gertrude Cunningham, Miss Lola Cooley, Miss Esther Etnel and Miss Eva

"The Teacher of Composition as Literary Craftsman" is the subject of an article, written by Professor Robert L. Stauffer, which appears in the April number of the English Journal. This well-known, excellent literary magazine is the official organ of the National Council of Teachers of English and is published in Chicago.

During a few hours on Friday of last week, Mr. John W. True visited with his daughter, Miss Gladys True.

Miss Nellie Gleiser invited as guests for dinner Friday night, Miss Blanche Baker, Miss Mabel Garrett and Miss Mildred Garrett.

Oliver Matthews, '14, who has been teaching school in Wasco county, has returned to Salem for his summer vacation.

Visiting Miss Gladys Nichols last week was Miss Mabel Dammon of Monmouth.

Miss Mae Thompson was a dinner guest Sunday at Lausanne Hall.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd of the Art History department spent last week with the Lausanne girls during the absence of Miss Todd, who was in Spokane to attend a convention for the dean of women of all Northwest Colleges.

Miss Areta Jones visited at her home in Gervais last week-end, returning to Salem Sunday evening.

Miss Ola Clark, a student at O. A. C., visited with her parents Saturday and Sunday.

The friends of Miss Gladys Carson are sorry to hear that she has sprained her ankle and will be obliged to use crutches for some time. Her handicap will be keenly felt especially by the cast of the Junior play, which she has been assisting so efficiently.

How many prospective students have you asked for Junior week-end?

SPRING DESIGN CHOSEN

Queen Frances I to Be Crowned in White Satin.

Plans for the May Queen's procession are almost mature, including many new features which will be kept from the public until the crowning day. Miss Gittins is sparing nothing to make her plans most successful. She will be gowned in a white chiffon over satin in one of the new fashions embodying spring, with a graceful train in a yard length. The completing feature of her attire will be the pompous white velvet robe, distinguished with an apricot lining. The robe will be made with a two-yard train. The queen's maids, Miss Page and Miss Ross will add the needed fulgury to the occasion in their fairy dresses of white.

Additional touches in the plans will speak for themselves as well as other details that have not as yet been made definite.

Although the student body has been divided into various groups and a personal canvass is being made by the Junior women, only 125 have already signed up for copies of the 1917 Wallulah. "Unless students sign up by the end of the week, I can't take a chance on very many more copies and somebody is going to be left without a copy in the final sale," declared Manager Chapter of that publication last evening. The book certainly deserves a large sale, for it is undoubtedly the most representative Wallulah which has ever been published. Of special interest will be 20 pages of kodak views which have never been seen by mem-

Refrigerator Time Is Here

Cut Your Ice Bill In Two By Using a NOT A SEME REFRIGERATOR

Has a stone lining, which can be kept free of germs that poison food, which in turn poison people. Not a cheap porcelain enamel, but one piece of white, unbreakable stoneware that will not crack, chip or absorb moisture—as easily cleaned as a china bowl. Every corner rounded—not a single crack, joint or any other lodging place for dirt. See our window display and ask us how to save at least 25 per cent on your ice bill.

Prices $25 to $50.00. Other Refrigerators $12 and up.

Insurance Problems now are Simplified

The introduction of New York Life Insurance, scientific and business-like Policies insures dividend-earning assets for every branch of social and business life.

They are true New York Life Policies, all the way through. They are written with the backing of a world-wide service organization; as truly and essentially New York Life as the institution of their origin--the institution which has proven its ability to withstand a world war and to meet nearly every human exigency so far as insurance is concerned.

"Ask the million who insure in New York Life."

BEARCATS SHOW THE OLD FIGHT

University of Washington
Nine Obligated to Fight to Thrilling Finish.

COMEBACK IS ASSURED

Final Score 7-2 Favors Northerners.
Rexford and Carey Pitch Great
Ball—Errors Work Against W. U.
Ninth Inning Rally Avails Naught.

(BY RAYMOND ATTEBERY.)

In a game that was full of snap and ginger from "play ball" to the final cheers by the opposing teams, Willamette drove the U. of W. nine for nine innings at the interesting pace of 7 to 2, and in the final half of the ninth put up a rally that brought the bleacherites to the diamond border and caused the gentler ones in the grandstand to rise to their toes. The game stood 6 to 1 up to this point, when "Tekoa" crossed the plate for another tally, making his second score for the contest. The game was better and more evenly contested than the score would indicate. Local fans were well pleased and somewhat surprised with W. U.'s comeback after the terrible trouncing received from O. A. C. a week ago Saturday.

Tasto Gets Two Bingles.

The Washington aggregation was fast in all points of the game—fleet of foot on the bases, afloat at scooping the pill, and pretty nifty with the stick. The Bearcats used the stick to good advantage, but piled up six errors to their discredit. Rexford was also wild, walking seven men. "Dutch" Tasto, "Tekoa" Grosvenor, and D. Adams drew conspicuous berths for Willamette. Tasto is credited with two bingles, Grosvenor with a single and a double out of four times up. Adams put up a great game behind the bat, allowing only one ball to pass him during the fray. Rexford and Adams formed the local battery. Carey and Leader represented the Seattle institution. The Washington lads touched "Rex" for seven hits, while Mathews' lads found Carey for six safeties. Rexford also whiffed six batsmen and Carey six.

The sixth inning spoiled Willamette's hopes when the "Tontons" showed three men across off as many hits. Beem scored the first tally in this period by singling, stealing second, and pulling up at Number 4 on Thompson's single. Smith received a pass to first and scored on Young's homer.

FACULTY GAME IS UP IN ETHER

Manager Gary Worries Over
Senior Battery.

Rumor That Game Is to Be Cancelled
Is in Circulation—Gary to Take No
Chances So Work Team Hard—
Gleiser May Star in Box.

Manager Gary of the seniors has been working hard in an endeavor to get his team in fighting trim for the faculty-senior comedy of errors which is to be staged the first week in May. The senior infield is working smoothly, but the battery is the big cause of worry. Gary is doing the receiving in big brush style, but the pitchers are off color. Shisler's ankle is bothering him considerably and Yarnes has not been training very consistently. If both these men fail to round into form, Gleiser will be called upon to do the heaving.

Highbrow Battery Suggested.
The faculty battery will probably be Mathews and Ford with Alden and Clarke as understudies. The rest of the team is problematical. It was rumored at midnight that the game would be called off, because of a lack of promising material from which to select a faculty nine. It seems probable that the game will be postponed until next year.

ette's hopes when the "Tontons" showed three men across off as many hits. Beem scored the first tally in this period by singling, stealing second, and pulling up at Number 4 on Thompson's single. Smith received a pass to first and scored on Young's homer.

Ninth Inning Sees Rally.

The Bearcats' rally in the ninth sent everybody away happy, with the sentiment that "our boys can play ball, eh." Tasto started this inning with a strike-out. Grosvenor, who followed him, singled, and tied up at the third sack on Brown's single. Grosvenor forced a steal from number 3, allowing Brown to hang up at third. The fans were wild and Brother Carey of the Sound country was partially disturbed mentally. He waited five minutes for the mad exultation of the crowd to subside. And it did when Brown was caught in an attempt to steal home and Adams was thrown out at first for the final out of the game.

The score by innings:

Walter Lee Celebrates Easter.
Easter was enjoyed by every one at Lausanne and especially by "Walter Lee," known to every one on the campus by his pointed remarks and numerous questions. The girls had made nests at different places around the hall and took Walter Lee out to find the eggs which the Easter rabbits had laid. The excitement and pleasure which he got out of this repaid the girls for their trouble and he was made a royal guest at dinner.

MANY BRILLIANT RACES PLANNED

Interclass Track Meet to be Hotly Contested.

Sweetland Field in Excellent Condition for Fray—Manager Irvine Fears "Dark Horses"—Ribbons to Be Awarded Winners.

INTERCLASS-MEET RULES.

1. Meet to consist of 13 regular events and one-half mile relay, four men to the team.
2. Three men may be entered in any event from each class but only two may run.
3. Places to count, 5, 3, 2, 1.
4. A man may compete in only four events and the relay.
5. Each class may enter any number of men.

—R. L. Mathews.

Like all continued stories, the interclass track meet climax of last week was ended at the climax of interest; the class entries and events were to follow, but were held over for today's issue. The arena is cleared and everything points to a big meet Friday afternoon on Sweetland field. Since every class is confident of first place, competition undoubtedly will be some brilliant, as the respective contestants struggle to be the "survival of the fittest." Manager Irvine of the freshmen says: "My team is badly crippled and does not seem to be in fighting trim. The only thing we are anxious about are those 'dark horses' of the sophs and they will turn white when trotted out on the field." The other leaders continue to look confident and keep quiet.

General Manager Steeves has worked hard to make the meet a success. Ribbons have been purchased for the three first places in each event and the man who wins one of them may well be proud of it.

The entries:
100-yard Dash—Jewett, Shisler, Cary, Steeves, Small, Ford, Sparks, Grosvenor.
220-yard Dash—Bain, Shisler, Cary, Steeves, Lyons, Sparks, Sandifer, Waugh, Richardson.

Hurdles—Shisler, Gary, Adams, Steeves, Proctor, Irvine, McAllister, Grosvenor.

440-yard Run—Jewett, Ridgeway, Steeves, Chapler, Bowers, P. Miller, Jackson, Stewart, Spitzbart, Waugh.
880-yard Run—Jewett, Ridgeway, Chapler, Matthews, Spiess, Jackson, Stewart, Castile, Spitzbart, Lonsberry.

1 Mile—Yarnes, Jasper, Cook, Chapler, Miller, Lee, Jackson, Stewart, Castile, Lonsberry, Waugh.
Weights—Gleiser, Bain, Adams, Bartlett, Reetz, Fletcher, Spiess, Tobie, Archibald, Brown, Bailey, Richardson, McAllister.
Jumps—Smith, Bain, Shisler, Adams, Gralapp, Steeves, McQuene, Eakin, Tobie, Irvine, Jackson, Brown, Richardson, Waugh.

Relay.
Senior—Shisler, Jewett, Gary, Bain.
Junior—Gralapp, Steeves, Chapler, Bartlett.
Soph—Ford, Small, Rogers, Miller.
Fresh—Sparks, Brown, Irvine, Jackson.
Acad.—Grosvenor, Richardson, Spitzbart, Waugh.

Among the interesting visitors last week was Jacob Stocker, '15, who has just been elected principal of the Sweet Home high school for next year.
