

FRESHMAN GLEE LOOMS UP AHEAD

Students Struggle With Ideas; Committees Labor;
Classes Organize

Ensuing signs and portents point that work is whirling along its furious orbit toward Freshman Glee. Students tunelessly sound discords on every available piano, while despairing poets rhapsodize on moon, June, soon, croon, tune, and loon in an attempt to surpass Ben Jonson.

Various crashes, hammerings, exclamations, and noises off-stage indicate that the platform committee is attempting to have the platform completed by Monday so that practices may begin.

The Freshman class is under the leadership of Paul Hauser as manager, Betty-Mae Hartung, chairman of the decoration committee; Esther Gibbard, chairman of program; Floyd Waltz, chairman of platform; Charles West, tickets.

The sophomore class has chosen Forrest Mills as formation manager, Clara Wright, music chairman, and Nova Hedin as "costume" chairman. The junior class elected Herbert Hardy, formation chairman and Midge Hewitt, song chairman. The seniors chose Bernice Rickman as director and Fred Paul, formation chairman.

Each class is so carefully preserving a close secrecy about its activities that it will permit almost nothing to be published for the benefit of a news-mad public.

CHAPEL PROGRAMS GIVE 57 VARIETIES

The chapel committees have been very successful in securing interesting programs for the student body. One of the most unusual programs was the one given by Professor Cameron Marshall on Valentine's Day.

Persons of renown who spoke from the chapel platform this week were Dean J. R. Jewell from the University of Oregon, and Secretary Harry Stone of the Portland Y. M. C. A.

Wednesday, February 22, the Beethoven Society will present one of its beautiful musicals, and the following Thursday a Y. M. C. A. program is in store.

Popeye Four and Moaning Dogs Give Valentine Serenade

Drizzling rain, howling dogs and wet feet failed to dampen the ardor of the well-known Popeye Four as they went their way on a Valentine serenade.

At Bob's plea for "lots of pithos" the four sailors sang right merrily and well, bringing forth candy and applause from feminine listeners.

There was another kind of applause also. "An Echo in the Valley" (ooh-hoo) must have awakened melancholy thoughts in canine hearts, because at one stop a perky little poodle barked saucily, while another time a whole dog-gone neighborhood howled a rather flat accompaniment.

Later reports, however, state that it wasn't a whole pack of dogs, but merely Shrimp turning his flair for imitating into ventriloquism.

HASELTON HEADS HALL FOR SECOND SEMESTER

Hannah Haselton was elected president of the Lausanne Hall association for the spring semester at the regular meeting, January 19. Veva Garrett was elected vice president, Katherine Horton, second vice president, and Rose Naef, secretary-treasurer.

MARSHALL SWAMPED
In spite of the depression, the Music school now has 13 more students taking courses in voice work than last semester. These courses include special music students, as well as quartet groups.

Activity Reduction Is Not Popular

Students Favor No Cuts;
Money Appropriated for
U. S. Steel Purchase

At the regular meeting of the executive committee held February 7, 1933, the matter of cutting the student body fee in half and reducing the activities accordingly was thoroughly discussed. The general feeling of the committee was against such a cut. The motion was made to lay the matter on the table.

Jim Burdette was appointed chairman of a committee composed of the men members of the executive committee to investigate means of securing more cinders for the track.

Paul Hauser made a motion to appropriate money from the general fund to purchase an iron rod for the catalogue file in the College office. The motion was carried and Paul Hauser was appointed to carry it out. Having no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Seniors Continue Practice Teaching

Semester Work Being Done
On Both Full and Part Time Unit Systems

Because teachers, pupils and school administration are satisfied, the 12 seniors doing full time practice teaching at the high school have proved successful, according to Mr. Tavenner, who is in charge of this phase of teaching.

Those doing full-time teaching, five hours a week this semester, are: Cynthia DeLano and Sylvia DuBoise, English; Lulu Allen, Public Speaking; Dale Monroe and Carolyn Braden, History; Lois Wilkes, Sociology; Dorothy Rose, Geometry; Alvin Love, French; Bernice Rickman, Latin; Phyllis Denison, Physiology; Alma Wattenberg, Foods; Deena Hart, Psychology.

Florence Marshall, Rosalind Van Winkle, Gilbert Hammond, Michael Fitzpatrick, Irwin Lang, Gladys Taylor and Frances Jackson are doing part-time teaching the first half of the semester, while Helen Boardman, Harold Rose, Mylie Lawyer and Fay Cornutt will teach the last half.

This is the second year of this type of teaching. Previously there were some experiments along this line but organized teaching was made only last year.

Caps and Gowns Now at Bookstore

'33 Gets Ready to Don Robes;
Odell Hart Writes Senior
Song

Mortar board and gown are rapidly becoming realities to the class of '33. Brenda Savage, committee chairman, announced Wednesday to the class that caps and gowns may be secured at the book store for $4, instead of the $5 deposit required in previous years. $3 will be refunded after Commencement.

The glee song was selected after tryouts. Marjorie O'Dell composed the music of the chosen song, and Deena Hart wrote the words.

At a previous meeting, Bob Houck made a report concerning the written tests which have been painfully uppermost in the minds of many seniors. The written examination will take at least three hours, and will encompass a more broad, practical application of the major field than the oral brings out. A tentative plan of this examination is to give five or seven broad questions, the student devoting his time to answering any two. This test will come before the oral, the date to be arranged with the major professor.

SHAKESPEAREANS MEET; REAL PLAY

Shakespeare club met last Wednesday night at Willamette Lodge to continue the reading of "The Comedy of Errors" under the direction of Janet Well.

Throughout the winter months the club members have met regularly at two week intervals for the reading and discussion of Shakespearean drama. So far the work has been devoted entirely to a consideration of the comedies, the last of which is the famous "Comedy of Errors."

Choir Holds Gunny; Audience Leaves During Concert

Imagine seeing your whole audience to a map walk out right in the midst of a concert! That is precisely what happened when the Philharmonic choir was in the process of displaying to Silvertonians what rooting for basketball games can do to develop lungs.

It really might have been very humiliating—standing in church, clad properly but uncomfortably in black and white vestments, and watching one's audience rise swiftly and make one grand rush for the door, but of course, there's a reason for all things.

In this case, it was a chimney fire. Members of the Silverton fire department quickly extinguished the blaze that was sending burning soot down past the windows of the church, the listeners returned to the church, and "a good laugh was had by all."

SURVEY OF FAMILY TRACES MENTAL ILLS

Ronald Hewitt, senior, is preparing a study of members of a feeble-minded family whose members are in institutions for the care of mentally deficient. Although the study has not been completed, he has learned that of the 76 family members 11 are in such institutions in this state while others are confined in Washington, Idaho and neighboring states. When the project is completed Hewitt will have listed the members who are feeble-minded, insane, addicted to the use of alcohol or drugs, the number in penitentiaries and correctional institutions, and other facts that will further work in sociology.

FORMER STUDENT GAINS RECOGNITION

Ted Parker, a former Willamette student who was forced to leave school on account of illness, has been given recognition in a text book for creative writing. A former teacher of his, Miss Alma Paschel, of Scott high school, Toledo, Ohio, is the author of the text. She quoted in full a short story of Ted's, and a poem, "Mountain Bivouac", which appeared two years ago in the Campus Litterae columns of the Collegian. A copy of the book was sent to Ted.

CLASSICAL CLUB HAS NEW SPRING OFFICERS

Election of new officers for the Classical club resulted in the choice of the following:

President, Bernice Rickman; vice president, Margaret Lange; secretary-treasurer, Laurence Burdette; program chairman, Harriet Sanders.

According to reports from the last meeting, held Tuesday evening, February 14, in the Y.W.C.A. room, there will be an added stress on more interesting and constructive programs during the coming semester.

DEBATERS WILL TRAVEL AND TALK

McCullough, Knotts and Rudin Will Visit Three Western States

Willamette's debating trio is to start within the next day or two on an extensive tour of the western states, Idaho, Utah, and Nevada.

The group which will include Ralph McCullough, Ross Knotts, and John Rudin, will leave Salem some time Wednesday morning. After debating with five colleges, the group will return to Salem.

The first debate of the series to be given, has been scheduled with the University of Nevada at Reno. From there the group will travel over into Utah and carry on a debate with the state university located in Salt Lake City.

Brigham Young college at Provo, Utah, will be the third debate and is scheduled to be held on ?? The fourth debate is to be held with the Northwestern Nazarene college at Nampa, Idaho. This debate is approximately a return engagement, for, earlier in the season, the team from Nampa debated Willamette on the latter's campus.

Nampa was so well pleased with her opponent's attitude that she invited Willamette's group to visit and debate on the Nampa campus.

The final debate of the tour is to be given at the College of Idaho at Caldwell.

Ralph McCullough and Ross Knotts will conduct the first two debates at Reno and Salt Lake City, in order that Mr. McCullough may return here and continue his extensive practice for the state extemporaneous contest.

Ross Knotts and John Rudin will give the remaining three debates. They will be gone about ten days. Mr. McCullough will return by the end of the week.

All three of the boys are members of the national honorary forensic fraternity, Tau Kappa Alpha, and Mr. Knotts and Mr. McCullough are members of the Willamette Forensic Council. Mr. McCullough is a senior this year, and the other young men are both members of the class of '34. They have all had a great deal of debating experience, all of them have debated each year since they have attended the university, and they have been on a debating team every year to represent Willamette.

John Rudin, the third member, won the state after-dinner speaking contest held last year, and accordingly, he is automatically disqualified from competing again this year. Instead Ralph McCullough will enter, this is the main reason Mr. McCullough can not make the complete trip with his colleagues.

Miss Kathleen Skinner, the general manager for the debate squad, has also been active in debate work, but due to insufficient funds, she will be unable to take the trip this year. The general expenditures of the trip have been figured out by her.

Doney Speaks At Fourth of Faculty Lectures Tuesday

The fourth in the series of seven faculty lectures will be given in Waller Hall next Wednesday evening, February 22, when Dr. Doney will speak on the life of George Washington. His talk will be preceded at 7:45 by half an hour of organ music furnished by Miss Lois Plummer, organist of the Christian church, and a former Willamette student. Members and pledges of Delta Phi will act as ushers.

In commenting on this program Prof. Jones, who has arranged the series, said: "We expect a larger audience than has as yet attended these lectures. Approximately a hundred and fifty people heard the last talk, and we hope for an audience of over 500 students and townspeople Wednesday night."

L. BURDETTE NEW HEAD OF WESLEYANS

New officers for the Willamette Wesleyans have been recently elected. The newly elected president is Laurence Burdette; vice president, John Rudin; secretary, Olivia de Vries; treasurer, Marian Bowers.

The Wesleyans have a definite purpose for their meetings. Their purpose is to bring together those students deeply interested in Christian living and those who plan to make Christian living their profession. Topics pertaining to Christian living are discussed.

As yet plans are not complete for this semester, but they are in the process of formulation.

WATTENBERG LEADS HOME EC. CLUB

Alma Wattenburg has been chosen as the president of the Home Economics club for next semester. Other newly elected officers are Hazel Irons, vice president; Gladys Taylor, secretary; and Elizabeth Clement, treasurer.

Tuesday, February 7, the club met at the home of Miss Lulu Walton for a pot-luck dinner and the continuation of a study on family relationships.

At this meeting four new members were voted in: Elizabeth Badley, Ruth Clement, Aletha Kelly, and Eleanor Yarnes.

Recently the Valley Meat Packing company was host to the Food Survey class, which witnessed the processes of the industry from the slaughtering of cattle to the selling of choice cuts of meat.

DR. DONEY TO SPEAK TO LOCAL A. A. W. U.

On February 18, Dr. Doney is to speak to the local Association of University Women. His subject will be "Problems of Education."

Next Tuesday he will address the board of trustees at their regular semi-annual meeting in Portland.

On Wednesday, February 8 he spoke to the District Men's Brotherhood at Dallas.

SCIENTISTS ELECT SEMESTER OFFICERS

Members of the science club held their regular meeting Monday, February 6. At this time phonograph records by famous scientists on chemistry, geology, physics, and other branches of science were played.

Officers of the club for this semester are: president, Leland Gould; vice president, John Adlard, and secretary-treasurer, Mary Scott.

BIOLOGY TRIP PLANNED

"Begin saving your nickles and dimes now for the annual biology coast trip to Newport on May 12 and 13." is the advice of Professor Monk to all biology, zoology, botany and ornithology students. Professor Monk announces that the cost of the excursion will be about $5.00 this year.

M'Cullough Choice For Extempo Tilt

Will Represent W. U. at Eugene March 21-24 Against Strong Rivals

Ralph McCullough was selected in the final contest to represent Willamette in the annual Pacific Coast Extemporaneous Speaking contest. The contest which includes the leading colleges and universities all along the Pacific coast, is to be held at Eugene from March 21-24. Among the leading contenders for the winning trophy will be representatives from the University of California, Stanford, U. C. L. A., Washington State, the University of Washington, and the two Oregon state schools at Corvallis and Eugene.

The contestants come prepared to speak on any subject. At the start each contestant draws three topics. He selects his choice from these three topics, and is allowed one hour preparation on it. At the end of the allotted time, he is expected to be able to speak on his topic in an organized way for fifteen minutes.

Emphasis is placed on the wide range of current subject matter which can be used for topics. In order to represent a school, a student must be well read in every possible field of current thought so as to speak intelligently on the topic given to him.

Pioneer Prexie's Picture Presented

Charcoal Likeness of Dr.
Rounds, President of W. U.
In 1860's Given

Yesterday the university came into the possession of a charcoal portrait of one of its former presidents, Dr. Nelson Rounds, who held this position from 1868 to 1870.

Born in Litchfield, New York in 1807, Nelson Rounds edited the first Northern Christian Advocate in Auburn, New York. Having been graduated from Hamilton college and having received his doctor's degree from Dickinson college, Rev. Rounds was a Methodist minister for several years before he became president of Willamette. On account of illness he had to give up his work here, and moved to Clark county, Washington where he founded the town of Pioneer.

In 1870 J. L. Parrish, after whom the Parrish junior high school is named, was president of the board of trustees. The student body including the academy boasted an enrollment of 270 students. There were 60 in the college proper, 14 in the medical department, and eight music pupils. The musicians might take lessons on the grand organ, the cabinet organ or the piano.

In the collegiate department the tuition was $15.00 a term plus $3.00 extra for drawing, French or German.

In those days the percentage of boys attending was overwhelming. There were no girls in the senior class. Strange as it may seem a larger percentage of girls was enrolled in the scientific course than in the classical course. (The college was divided into two courses or departments). There were only six faculty members in the college.

Such was Willamette in the days of Dr. Rounds. His great grandson, Ed Rounds, who gave the portrait to the school, is a member of the senior class. He will be the first Rounds to have been graduated from Willamette.

STATE PEACE CONTEST WON BY O. S. C. TEAM

Oregon State college carried off the honors in the state peace oratorical contest held last Friday. Their contestant was Richard Barnes. Thomas Page of Linfield won second place; P. U. third place; and Ray Lafky of W. U. won fourth place.

The judges were the coaches from the various schools who judged everyone but their own contestant. Second place was tied with 19 points. Our speaker received 20 points.

The president of Linfield, who presided at the contest, gave his opinion of the speakers as follows: "Well, we won't forget the Red Juggernaut and the Pied Piper of Mars" (which was the name of Mr. Lafky's oration.)

MUSICAL BEAR- CATS TO SEE CHICAGO

Prof. Marshall Working on Schemes to Take Choir
To World's Fair

"Are you really?" "Is it certain?" "Need a chaperone?" I wanna go to Chicago. Such remarks greeted members of the Philharmonic Choir after an article appeared in one of the local newspapers last Saturday concerning plans for a summer tour to the World's Fair.

Professor Marshall has been working untiringly upon his plan during the school year. His "field man," Tom Hall, is devoting a great deal of time toward perfecting the plans.

At the present time, Professor Marshall is corresponding with the Music committee of the Century of Progress Exposition regarding appearances of the choir in Chicago, and within a month the dates will be definite.

A vigorous campaign for funds has been planned, and the first steps toward carrying out have been taken.

Governor Meier has given his endorsement to the proceedings, and extensive publicity has been arranged.

The travel group will be composed of practically the same members who sang on the tour which Professor Marshall conducted last summer. Several new members, however, have been added, making a total of 14 men and 14 women.

The group will have an extensive repertoire by June due to the number of new songs which must be given at the bi-monthly KGW broadcast.

If the trip becomes a reality, Willamette university and Oregon as a whole will be ably represented at the World's Fair. From now until then the slogan of the songsters is "S. Y. I. C. I."

COFFEE HOUSE CLUB INITIATES PLEDGES

Coffee House Initiation was held Wednesday, February 14th, at Willamette Lodge. The pledges who were initiated are: Louise Anderson, Marion Beasley, Agnes Corthell, Agnes Gordon, Florence Durette, Olive Jones, Florence Zweifel, Madeline Schmidt, Wilma Pathel and Vera Garrett.

Plans for the chapel program to be given in the near future are now under way.

WHITMAN-W. U. GAMES ARE WELL ADVERTISED

Professor L. Oliver had charge of the advertising for the Whitman games. Several good speakers visited the service clubs in town delivering pep speeches. The speakers included Walt Erickson, Ralph McCullough, Andrew Peterson, and Ronald Hudkins. They talked to the Rotary club, the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis club, Lions club, the Ad club, and the Fraternity club.

The large crowd last Saturday night is evidence that they must have done a good job. Fred Zimmerman, sports editor for the Capital Journal, and Ralph Curtis of the Statesman gave W. U. excellent write-ups.

SINGERS PRACTICING GRADE INSTRUCTION

Elizabeth Clement and Marjorie O'Dell have already begun their teaching careers. Since the beginning of the school year they have been making a trip to Salem Heights every Tuesday and Thursday where they conduct classes in music. Elizabeth Clement's classes range from the first to the fourth grades, and Marjorie O'Dell's classes are made of pupils from the fifth to the eighth grades.

Besides their regular music classes, Miss Clement's and Miss O'Dell's pupils presented a play and an operetta during the Christmas holidays.

VITAL STATISTICS

Mr. and Mrs. George Simerville (Clara Jasper, '28) of Bend, Oregon, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Betty Anne, January 30. They have a son, Don, aged one and a half years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence "Pat" Emmons (Mildred Pugh, '31, are the parents of a son, David Scott, born January 22. Mr. Emmons is associated with his father, O. W. Emmons, in the practice of law in Salem.

A daughter arrived February 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Loennig (Ruby Ledbetter, '22) of Haines, Oregon. They have another daughter who is about two years of age.

Albert Whitlock, 79, died of heart trouble January 15 at his home in Lebanon. He was born near Silverton November 21, 1853. He attended Willamette university and was for many years a teacher in schools throughout the valley. He served as civil engineer and surveyor, and operated a greenhouse for seven years at Silverton. In 1881 he married Eliza Ann Thurman, who survives him. He is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. Winnifred N. Lowe, two brothers and two sisters, H. C. Whitlock of Corvallis, James Whitlock of Bend, Mrs. Frances Ames of Fullerton, Calif., and Mrs. Eva Zimmerman of Silverton.

The Pasadena Star-News issue of December 13 contained, along with a large picture, an account of the distinguished career of Henry W. Chynoweth, prominent Pasadena pioneer, lawyer and banker, who passed away December 12 following several years of ill health. He was born in Illinois, April 6, 1857, and at the age of 13 Mr. Chynoweth moved with his parents to Oregon where he grew to manhood and attended Willamette university. When the family returned east he entered the University of Michigan law school. In 1885 Mr. Chynoweth went to California in search of health. He was admitted to the bar in 1888 and practiced in Los Angeles and Anaheim. He served two consecutive terms in the California legislature. In 1905 he gave up a large law practice to organize the German-American Bank of Anaheim which was sold later. He then returned to Pasadena and organized the Bank of Commerce, which in 1911 became a national bank. In 1911 Mr. Chynoweth was married to Miss S. Edith Knapp, who survives him. He was a Scottish Rite Mason and was for many years active in the New Century club and the First Methodist church of Pasadena.

PERSONALS

Theodore B. Mitner, '27, pastor of the Patton M. E. church in Portland, writes that Amanda Mitner, '31, who sailed from Seattle last October for Burma, is at present learning the language (Burmese), preparatory to serving as a missionary. She has been appointed as Conference Evangelist. She finds the winter there as warm as our hottest summer.

Carl Cording, '31, graduate student at Oregon State college, was elected secretary of the Oregon State Mathematics club, which was formed recently.

Sinforoso Padilla, '24, is professor of psychology at the University of The Philippines, Manila, Philippine Islands. After graduation from Willamette, he received his M.A. degree from the University of Oregon in 1926. He was offered a fellowship at the University of Michigan and received his Ph.D. from that university. He spent a great deal of time on the European continent studying and traveling before returning to the Islands.

Josephine Albert, '31, was recently initiated into the Mu Phi Epsilon national honorary musical fraternity, University of Oregon chapter. Every Sunday Miss Albert broadcasts a program of sacred music over KEX.

Joy Hills, '28, is in Madison, Wisconsin, where she is studying for her master's degree in history at the University of Wisconsin. She is on leave of absence from Leslie Junior high school in Salem where she was head of the social science department.

BAND DRAWS INTEREST AT BASKETBALL TILTS

Adding much to the pep and spirit of the occasion, the University band of 25 pieces strong, made its initial appearance of the new semester at the Willamette-Whitman basketball games last week-end. The organization played snappy marches preceding and during halves of the contests and drew favorable comment from the large crowds.

Strengthened by the addition of several new players, the band will begin rehearsals for a series of concerts to be presented during the spring season. New musical selections have been obtained and an interesting program will be given in chapel in the near future.

INTERNATIONALS ELECT

International club, despite the fact that the house is closed, hold regular bi-monthly meetings and programs by which the members are kept in close contact.

New officers have been elected to serve the new semester. Gene Smith is first counselor, Betty Moffatt, second, Nic Yablokoff, third, and Frances Maeda, fourth counselor.

STUDENTS DON'T RETURN

The enrollment for the second semester is five hundred seven. This is a decrease of fifty-three students. Lack of financial means is probably for the most part responsible, although there is the usual minority of failures and incompletes.

"CAPS AND GOWNS" ONCE MORE

Soon the seniors will be marching in their caps and gowns at Freshman Glee; the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" will once more be heard as a new graduating class moves toward Commencement and senior orals. After Freshman Glee is over, it will be no time at all until May Day—then Commencement—and then—?

New to Willamette this semester is the Red Cross class in social service which is being offered to a small group of university women students. In this course, actual opportunity is given the case worker to do field work, interviewing families, investigating cases, making up menus, and everything else which goes in the real job.

Such a class not only brings valuable experience to the persons enrolled in the work, but does no little good to the "clients" concerned. Appreciation should be extended to Miss Annan, of the Eugene Red Cross, who generously has offered to motor to Salem every Thursday night to instruct the girls.

Very few colleges of the size of Willamette have the opportunity to include such a course in their curriculum, and no little credit is due Miss Boesen, supervisor of the Salem Red Cross, and Dr. Laughlin for arranging the course.

THE WHISPERING CAMPAIGN

This week's fable: r. Laughlin has recently compiled a list of great men in history. The list is headed by Caesar, Napoleon, and Pershing.

Elizabeth Bishop: (memorizing orally the divisions of the vertebrate): "Seven, twelve, five, five, five."

Dwight Adams: "What is this, a play through center or around the end?"

And speaking of serenades, since Dave Moser (unpaid adv.) has signified his disinclination to pen a song for the sophs, here's a hint to help out his fellow classmates:

Come leave your roller skates! My bicycle awaits.

Come Bessie, let us stray—

Wake from your dreaming,

List to my screaming

But what will Dean Dahl say?

"Pipe down, b'jabsers,

You'll wake the neighbors,

You can't sing with a cold in your head.

From the way you're yelling

I can't help telling

Your voice would wake the

Sororities Begin Mid Season Rushing Social Events Crowd Calendar

The members of the Beta Chi sorority entertained with a cleverly arranged Valentine tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of their rushees. Red tulips were used in conjunction with the Valentine motif and formed a pretty background for the affair. During the tea hour Miss Kathleen Skinner gave a reading accompanied on the piano by Miss Alice Wiens and Miss Clara Wright rendered several piano selections. Miss Dorothy Dalk was in general charge of the affair.

Wednesday evening the members of Beta Chi were hostesses at a delightfully appointed dinner given in honor of their rushees. A centerpiece of sweet peas and pastel colored candles lent an effective appearance to the dinner table. Mrs. Ethel Schrieber was in charge of the arrangements for the dinner.

A studio tea was featured at the Alpha Phi Alpha house Wednesday afternoon. Easels, partially-painted pictures, and the gay-colored smocks of the hostesses lent atmosphere to the affair.

The guests were greeted at the door by Margaret Morse. After a program including vocal solos by Ruth Schrieber, readings by Lulu Allen, and a xylophone solo by Barbara Barham, unique refreshments were served, which further carried out the studio idea.

In honor of the several charming new-comers to the Willamette campus, Delta Phi is entertaining throughout the week with numerous informal functions. Monday and Friday have been set aside for personal rushing. Tuesday evening members of Delta Phi were hostesses at a beautifully appointed informal dinner. Hearts in keeping with the Valentine theme were effectively used throughout the living and dining rooms. Bertha Babcock was in general charge of the affair with Brenda Savage, Claudia Buntin, and Beulah Cramer assisting her.

Stressing again the Valentine motif Delta Phi will entertain Thursday from four until six at an informal tea for which a program of musical numbers has been arranged. Jeanette Smith is in charge of the plans for the tea, and her assistants include Velma May, Pauline Livesay, and Sylvia Du Boise. Miss Faith Sherburne is in general charge of all rushing activities.

Mothers' Clubs Enjoy Parties

The Mother's club of Alpha Phi Alpha gave a fruit shower at the sorority house Tuesday afternoon.

The Beta Chi Mother's club held their regular meeting and social hour at the chapter house on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Frank Erickson, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. John Dalk, and Mrs. Roy Mills were hostesses at the affair. A clever Valentine motif was carried out in the decorations and luncheons. During the evening the members of the club were delightfully entertained with vocal selections by Miss Josephine Albert, and piano numbers by Miss Carolyn Parker.

The Mother's club of the Delta Phi sorority held its monthly meeting Monday, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Speck. Mrs. A. N. Chapman was joint hostess with Mrs. Speck.

Dainty refreshments were served after the business meeting.

Club members present were: Mrs. M. C. Findley, Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. L. R. Hagman, Mrs. Rose Babcock, Mrs. O. W. Emmons, Mrs. Gordon Black, Mrs. A. Oehler, Mrs. Lee M. Unruh, Mrs. J. F. Ulrich, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, Mrs. A. L. Dark, Mrs. H. S. Bosshard, Mrs. L. L. Laws, and Mrs. Speck.

Scavenger Party Huge Success

One of the most unique parties of the mid-year season was the scavenger party at which Misses Margaret Nunn and Hattie Ramp entertained Monday, February 6. Printed programs containing a list of some 27 unusual articles, was presented each guest with the instruction that they were to return with the articles in two hours time.

Guests bidden to this unusual affair were the Misses Frances Stewart, La Forrest McDonald, Elva Sehon, Ruth Chapman, Gladys Hanson, Gwendolyn Hunt, the Messrs. Lowell Eddy, Norman Speck, Bill Trindle, Gerald Sherman, Loren Grannis, Bill Ross, and Don Egr.

Miss Bea Hartung Hostess

Miss Bea Hartung was hostess Saturday evening for a fireside supper after the Willamette-Whitman basketball game.

Informal games were enjoyed before the supper hour.

Guests of Miss Hartung were: Miss Midge Hewitt, Miss Faith Sherburne, Miss Bertha Babcock, Miss Betty Mae Hartung, and Miss Bea Hartung.

Miss Woodworth, Percy Sweet, Warren McMinn, Ronald Hudkins, and Gus Moore.

Kappa Gamma Rho entertained several of the members of the International club at dinner Sunday, January 22, 1933. The guests were the Messrs. George Cannady, Yasis Corelin, Wallace Turner, Nicholas Yablokoff, Katsumi Nakadati, and Perry Smith.

Miss Van Winkle Beta Chi Hostess

The Beta Chi alumnae were entertained Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Rosalind Van Winkle. The Valentine motif was used for the evening. Miss Marjorie Christensen assisted Miss Van Winkle in serving a dainty luncheon after the business and social hour. Members present at the affair were: Mrs. Victor Rhodes, Mrs. Dorothy Thomas, Mrs. Jeanette Morehead, Mrs. Evangeline Millard, Mrs. Esther Day, Mrs. Dorothy Ryan, Miss Lella Johnson, Miss Eloise White, Miss Loretta Fisher, Miss Marjorie Christensen, Miss Florence Young, Miss Frances Hodge, Miss Lila Cation, and the hostess, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle.

Alpha Phi Alpha Entertains

The patriotic spirit of the season was cleverly carried out at the informal dinner given at the Alpha Phi Alpha house Thursday evening.

An interesting program was given, which included a xylophone solo by Barbara Barham, a reading by Lulu Allen, a clarinet solo by Blair Foley, and a vocal solo by Marjorie O'Dell.

The girls of the International club entertained the boys of the club at a party Friday night after the Whitman game in Chresto Cottage. George Cannady formed an efficient committee of one on entertainment. Among those present were the Misses Betty Moffatt, Frances Maeda, Selko Watanabe, and Virginia Sprague, and two guests, the Misses Harriet Saunders and Evelyn O'Dell. The Messrs. George Cannady, Nicholas Yablokoff, Vasia Korelin, Wallace Turner, Laurence Burdett and Eugene Smith.

Frances Stewart and Elva Sehon entertained a group of Willamette students at dinner Saturday evening, before the Whitman game. Among those present were Gwendolyn Hunt, Alice Speck, Ruth Chapman, Gladys Hanson, Daisy Varley, La Forrest McDonald, Earle Carlin, Wayne Dough-ton, Ree Young, Dick Sherwin, Art Smith, John Ross, Don Egr, and Jerry Sherman.

Miss Nova Hedin and Mr. Jack Simpson entertained at a delightful dinner party on Sunday, February 5. Guests present were the Misses Eleanor Henderson, Edith Sidwell, Elizabeth Smith, and Winona Wendt, and the Messrs. Fred Blatchford, Galen Dean, Gene Smith, and Leland Gillette.

The Misses Olive Jones, Virginia Sprague, and Nellie Perrine spent the post-exam holidays in Portland. During their visit they were entertained at dinner by Miss Frances Maeda of that city.

Miss Anna Jo Fleming was called to Portland last week-end to direct the music for the Presbyterian Young People's convention.

Sigma Tau Hosts At Cupid Dinner

Sigma Tau Fraternity entertained Sunday, February 12th, with a Sweetheart Dinner. The Valentine motif was carried out in the decoration of the room and the charmingly arranged table.

Those attending were Mrs. Alice Fisher, Fisher, patroness, Miss Dorothy Durkee, Miss Winona Wendt, Miss Doris Nye, Miss Lila Cation, Miss Dorothy Ghormley, Miss Agnes Gordon, Miss Marcia Brown, Miss Jeryme Upston, Miss Ruth Flick, Miss Gwendolyn Hunt, and the hosts, Arthur Fisher, Frank Haley, Leland Gillette, Francis Crouch, Phil Armstrong, Arthur Smith, Melvin Zahrl, Francis Flint, Bliss Leslie, Ralph Foster, and Earle Carlin.

Kappa Gamma Rho entertained at dinner Sunday noon, February 5. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryan, and the Misses Molly Gallagher, Alene Bickford, Mildred Mulkey, and Elizabeth Ogden. Mr. Don Ryan, an alumna of Kappa Gamma Rho, is a member of the house of representatives.

Guests at the Alpha Phi Alpha house for dinner Sunday were Al King, Harold Rose, and George Newman.

The Alpha Psi Delta fraternity announces the pledging of Mr. Donald Covey of Woodburn, and Mr. John Welsh of Portland.

Miss Helen Boardman and Miss Florence Marshall spent the post-exam holidays in Portland as the guests of friends.

Miss Alice Wiens was the guest of Miss Kathleen Skinner at Lebanon over the post-exam holidays.

May Roycraft, student in the Superior, Wis., state teachers' college, is earning her way through school by drawing crayon portraits although she never had a lesson in the art.

GILMORE TRACK HEAD FOR W. U.

With the first signs of good weather in Salem the young men's thoughts turn to—Spring Sports. One of the most enjoyable and thrilling of them all is Track, the sport of the ages.

From now on until the end of the year one can see some of the more ambitious of the Bearcats out hard at work practicing running, jumping, and throwing the weights.

This is rather early in the season to make predictions as to the outcome of future events, but it appears that W. U. will have one of the most successful years in track in the history of the school. One of the reasons for this conjecture is the fact that track is the only sport besides football in which a conference championship is awarded (basketball and baseball pursuing nothing more than mythical titles this year).

There are a great many new men turning out and several more are expected. It is only through a large turnout of new men that Willamette can hope to produce an efficient and winning team this year and in the years to come. Vernon Gilmore, physical education instructor on Salem high who is handling the Willamette track team this season, has made it known that he prefers to work with new and untried men. This should be an inducement to those men who wish to compete in intercollegiate contests and who have had little, or no high school experience. If one-fourth of the 250 men in the school would turn out for track Willamette could put forth one of the strongest college teams in the state.

Track has seen dark days at Willamette but is slowly coming back into its own. The factors in the past that have contributed to this "depression" were the lack of interest on the part of the student body and the failure of the track teams to make a creditable showing. In looking over this year's prospects it is easy to see that the second factor will be eliminated and that the only thing that can keep the team from showing championship form will be the lack of interest and support on the part of the student body as a whole.

In the material for this season we find but two of last year's lettermen missing. This year we not only find eight lettermen and many promising reserves from last year but also many new men.

Willamette will be, as usual, exceedingly strong in the distances with Captain Dumas, Lange, Mealy, Adlard and Cook of last year's team all returning. There are also several new men who give indication of giving the veterans a run for their money in these "extended sprints."

In the middle distances we find Kaiser, McCullough, Barnett, Ney and Armstrong still on deck and ready to literally "run their legs off for the school." Last year in the half-mile Willamette was on par with the best in the conference, while on the other hand the quarter-mile was one of the outstanding weaknesses. With the presence of Waltz, while at Salem high one of the best quarter milers in the state, this hole will at least partially be filled.

In the sprints we find three lettermen returning: James, Lloyd, and Cannady. Two promising newcomers will help to further round out this department.

Milton James is the only returning hurdler. Because of his size James is limited to the low hurdles. For the high hurdles there is only one prospect who has signified his intention to work on the "tall timbers."

In evaluating the material for the track events it may be classed as very promising. On the other hand the material for the field events is woefully lacking. In the discus, shot and broadjump with Fantz, Connors, Lloyd, McKerrrow, Olson, W. U. will be able to present a real threat to any opposing team. But in the javelin, high-jump, and pole vault Willamette promises to be very weak. Dean, the only veteran jumper will be handicapped by a weak knee. Reike, who jumped some last year is expected to help fill a big hole in the high-jump event. There is a wonderful opportunity for new men to break into these events.

SPORTORIALS

The two game series with the Whitman Missionaries from Walla Walla on Friday and Saturday nights were both great ball games, even tho' the Whitman cagers did go back with one chunked in their favor. The second game lent many thrills to the approximate 1200 fans that witnessed the contest. In the final few minutes of play it was a seesaw (not jig-saw) affair, however, Whitman held the edge in the forepart of the game, but never outplayed the local hoopers.

The passing of the Willamette men far surpassed that of Whitman in both games, but the tall Missionaries seemed most adept at hawking the "bad" ones, and connecting with long shots. A pass from one end of the court to the other, and a basket following, was not an unusual occurrence in either game.

Everyone wonders where Bill Lemmon, sharp-shooting forward from Tacoma, gets those weird but fascinating expressions when attempting to deceive his opponent. At one time Saturday night, some of the players on the bench thought that from the looks of Bill's face he was headed out over the crowd, but he neatly attained normal countenance and again began playing his usual brilliant game. Bill played an exceptionally good floor game both nights, and was the high scorer Friday night with 11 points.

"Spec" stated that the defense was not as good as it might have been, and could still be improved considerably. The boys are getting the zone defense down fairly well, but a few "set-ups" were allowed in both games, however, long shots on the part of Whitman predominated. The one that sent a thrill through the fans was the last one, shot by West, giant forward, when the score was 32-33 in Willamette's favor, which showed its tendency to flop out, by rolling around the hoop several times, but much to our disappointment, it did not.

Jack Connors was much abashed Friday night when Spec told him to take off his "warm-ups" with only ten seconds to go. Jack was really thrilled tho', but after sending him in, to make matters worse, Spec called Jack back again. "Was my face red?" asked Jack. Stay in there Jack till you get a break and then let out one of those long h-e-e-e-e-e-y and they'll know that you're on the court anyway.

Willamette and Whitman are now in a two way tie for first place in the conference, both having won six and lost one, and next stands College of Puget Sound, who have been beaten by Whitman twice by somewhat large scores. The boys left Thursday for a two game series with C. P. S. and stopped off at Tacoma for a game with Pacific Lutheran college on Thursday night, which was not a conference game. Unless the local boys bring home two games at the expense of C. P. S., the chances of a championship will be pretty slim. You've got to do it boys, and we're all behind you.

Many are still talking enthusiastically about the referee for the Whitman basketball game of last week end. His name is Emil F. Piluso and he hails from Portland, where for several years he served as physical instructor at the YMCA. He demonstrated conclusively to the fans last week just why he is considered just about the best referee in these parts. He was all over the floor; he saw everything; he explained everything he called by a suitable action illustrating just what happened—much to the enlightenment and enjoyment of the fans. Good work Emil! We wish there were more referees like you.

It's a pleasure to watch "Spec" Keene and Nig Borleske shake

BEARCATS WIN VALENTINE'S GAME

The varsity Bearcats, playing a ragged but exciting game, managed to present themselves with a Valentine in the shape of a victory over Linfield, by the close score of 36 to 33.

Willamette seemed to be fighting under the strain of poor luck in scoring. Shot after shot would roll around the rim of the basket, only to drop over on the wrong side. Linfield and Willamette alternated in the lead throughout the first half, ringing up a tied score three times. The score was 15 to 15 at the end of the first period.

In the second half, Willamette, after working above a tie score three more times, ran up a lead which they managed to hold fairly well. However, with 45 seconds left to play, Linfield advanced to within two points of another tie score, and a possible overtime period. The way things looked at the final gun, an overtime period would have won the game for the Linfield aggregation.

Northrup, Reike, and Kloostma made the best showings of the Bearcat lineup, with Griffith showing a marked improvement in checking and floor work. Neely and Eckman were the outstanding scorers for Linfield.

Emil Piluso, the referee who has found such favor with Northwest audiences, gave his usual spectacular demonstration of "keeping it, de eye on de ball."

The Linfield-Bearcat clash marked Willamette's last home game of the season. The Bearcats have yet to meet C. P. S. and Pacific.

hands after a game between their teams. They both are gracious in victory and defeat. If every coach displayed the same good sportsmanship that these two do, the morale of sports in general would rise. We know one coach in particular who might benefit by copying the actions of Spec and Nig. No, I didn't say his first name is Eldon.

Bearcats Need Three

the mythical championship will go to Walla Walla.

The Puget Sound Loggers may prove a tough obstacle for the Bearcats to hurdle. Roy Sandberg has a squad of veterans who are big and fast and may be able to stop the Bearcat's weaving offense. If the Loggers could down Willamette in both games it would assure them of second place, dropping the Bearcats to third position. Whoever wins you may be assured that both games will be battles from start to finish.

Should Willamette come through with two victories over C. P. S. they would still have to defeat Pacific Tuesday. Eldon Jenne, the mentor over at Forest Grove, has had a tough time of it this year, losing six games and winning but two. However, Pacific is a real threat and should the Bearcats defeat C. P. S. there would be nothing Jenne would like to do more than to put a stop to Willamette's championship aspirations.

In addition to these three conference games, Willamette plays a non-conference tilt with Pacific Lutheran college in Tacoma Saturday night and may possibly schedule a two game series with Southern Oregon Normal at Ashland before they hang up their basketball suits.

WOMEN'S SPORTS IN FULL SWING

February 15, at the city "Y." There are four teams competing, and relays, distance, Australian crawl, and side stroke competition will be held. Diving events will not be included but the Women's Athletic association hope to conduct regular events in the future. Kathryn Horton is in charge. The personnel of the teams are as follows: Betty Moffatt, captain, Florence DuRette, and Jane Robinson; Edythe Glaisyer, captain, Sydney Hannaford, and Bernice Rickman; Virginia Sprague, captain, Mildred Miller, and Rose Naef; Anoka Coates, captain, Alice Speck, and Kathryn Horton.

Women's sport activities are again in full swing after a short vacation since the close of their basketball season. Valley ball practice began February 9th with a large turnout. Practices are held every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at four o'clock. The tournament will probably be held before spring vacation and the teams selected within the next week. Mildred Miller is in charge of the practices and tournament.

In order to accommodate the demand for "tap" dancing classes a beginner's class has been organized this semester. It is held in the gymnasium every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at 1:15, under the supervision of Mildred Miller. Most of the girls enrolled in the class also take a regular gym class for their gym credit. Miss Curry is interested in the dancing phase of physical education and may start a natural dancing class later on in the spring.

For the first time in the history of the university the women are having a swimming meet. It will be held Wednesday afternoon

DO-NUT BASKETBALL ON SECOND ROUND

Intramural basketball competition opened its second round Monday when the Alpha Pits defeated the Kappas in the first game of this semester. The same regulations used in the first round will be enforced during the second. These are, in brief, official playing rules, regular eligibility requirements, and elimination of lettermen and varsity and freshmen players. Clay Egelston will call the games for the most part.

The Sigs were victorious in the first round. The second half will be a tight race, however. On March 10 the winners of the two series will engage in the final for the new trophy.

Racketeers Ready For Spring Sport

Willamette had a very successful tennis season last year and it looks as if she will have another one this year. The freshman class brought with it some experienced players who, when added to the lettermen who will be back for this season, ought to help make things pretty tough for the players from other schools in our conference. Tennis lettermen who will be on hand for the coming season are: Goode, Harmon, Goyne, Hagaman and Sanders. The lettermen will meet in the near future to elect a captain.

BEAUTY

I would worship
The sunlight, the moonlight, a star,
And the great sea . . .
A snow-peak, rose tipped from afar,
And a lone tree.

I would worship,
Tired hands, harsh, knotted,
And old,
I would worship
A child's auburn hair, touched with gold,
And a child's tears.
