Exam Honor Code Up for Student Vote

The examination honor code, as revised and approved last week by the University policy committee, chaired by Dr. Chester Luther, was given complete approval Tuesday by a meeting of the faculty. The code now goes to the student body for final approval before going into effect.

George Hurt, ASWU president, has announced that the code will be explained in detail at a meeting of the student body during the chapel hour next Tuesday in the gymnasium.

Approval, too, has been given by Dean Robert Gregg, of the College of Liberal Arts, to allow a University debate team to explain the code to the larger classes in Eaton, Waller and Collins halls next Wednesday, Hurt said. Living organizations will be given instruction on the code by debate teams Tuesday night.

Following complete understanding of the code by the student body, the matter will be placed on a ballot to be voted on during a special election on Tuesday, October 26, along with the elections of members for the judiciary committee. The judiciary committee will have control of the honor code and will carry it out, taking action on its control and handling the discipline of violators.

75 Per Cent Vote

The faculty approval, together with a three-quarters affirmative vote of at least 600 members of the student body, will put the code into effect immediately following the election, the policy committee has recommended. The Law school, which already has an honor code in effect, has asked that the new code not displace its present plan.

Hurt has asked that students take full advantage of the explanations to be given during the next two weeks in order that they will fully understand the code when it is placed on the ballot for approval. Students, when voting, will be asked to sign the ballot under words to this effect: "I will fully support the above honor code during examinations taken at Willamette university."

Dewey Club Conducts Poll

With the November election less than a month away, members of the newly organized Dewey-Warren club on the campus are conducting a popularity poll.

Jim Ragland has been named temporary chairman and Lee Zohler as temporary secretary. The charter for the club has been applied for, but has not been received. There are about 25 members at present, and anyone interested is welcome.

ASWU Adopts Dollar Wallulah Plan at Election

The student body, when it went to the polls on Tuesday and Wednesday, decided that the extra charge for the copies of the Wallulah will be one dollar plus student body cards. The organizations will be charged $20 per page for group pictures.

The proposal defeated was to charge each student $2 plus his student body card, and the living organizations nothing. The proposal was defeated by a vote of 388 to 287.

At the election for class officers held this week, the list of officers for the senior class was completed, while in the other three classes, run-offs to wind up the elections will be held next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The election for the freshman president will be held over on that date because two names were misspelled on the ballot. The names of Mike Glen and Dave Card appearing on the bal-

Twenty-six students have registered since regular registration closed and classes started, reports Registrar H. B. Jory. This brings the total enrollment to 1270. Fourteen withdrawals have been recorded in the office of the registrar also.

Student Body Meeting Called For Tuesday Chapel Period

A student body meeting, which all students are asked to attend, will be held Tuesday in the gymnasium at 10 o'clock during the chapel hour, George Hurt, student body president, has announced.

The purpose of the meeting, which Hurt hopes will become a regular, periodic affair, will be to explain to the student body the progress and future progress to be taken by the student government. A pre-Homecoming rally will also be staged during the meeting when the rally squad leads the student body in yells and songs.

Main topics to be discussed at the meeting will be the coming school chest drive, November 7 to 13, the honor code system, Homecoming, and other events coming up in the near future.

"It has been found in the past," Hurt said, "that students know too little, if anything about what goes on in student government at the University, and it is our purpose to explain and answer questions on student affairs at the meetings coming up this year."

The meeting Tuesday will be the first of a series of perhaps three or four to be held during the year, Hurt said.

Homecoming Planning Entering Final Stages

By Earlyne Foley

All preparations for Willamette's annual Homecoming celebration entered the final stages this week. With "Battleax the Lumberjacks" as this year's theme, living organizations are already formulating ideas for carrying out this slogan in both the sign contest and noise parade. Rules concerning both events have been circulated among the competing organizations. Contrary to previous years, the Salem police authorities have intervened with the additional restriction that no sirens be used in the noise parade, announced Russ Tripp, Homecoming manager.

To spur on competition, separate trophies are to be given to the men and women's living organizations entered in the noise parade. The interfraternity council has donated the trophy which will be given to the women's living unit creating the most noise. Judges will be the four fraternity presidents.

Play Revives Tradition

Reviving an old campus tradition, but an event new on the Homecoming schedule, is an original play which is to be given Friday night in Waller hall after the bonfire. This will take the place of the open houses previously scheduled. Working on this are Marjorie Cooper, Vera Jack, Nonnie Faaborg and Jackie Chute. Representing the faculty on arrangements are H. B. Jory, Melvin Geist from the music school and Mrs. Margaret Ringnald of the English department.

As a part of the schedule for the returning alumni the education department will hold a meeting Saturday morning at 9:30 with those who completed their teacher training last year.

There will be a discussion of the problems they have encountered in their new profession and what can be done toward their improvement. Following this meeting they will meet with the other alumni for luncheon.

Tripp Names Committees

Committee heads announced this week by Tripp were Rod Beals, in charge of the freshman leaf rake, the event which officially opens the big week-end, and Sue Miller in charge of the refreshments. Bill Ready is in charge of the pre-game bonfire at Bush's pasture. Art Beddöe, sophomore, and Bob Seamster, freshman, will lead their respective teams in the annual push-ball tussle which will be held during half time during the game Saturday afternoon. Avis Roberts is responsible for the alumni registration. Bud Holmes is downtown publicity man.

Student Council and Others Pose at Meeting

The names of Mike Glen and Dave Card appearing on the ballot as Mike Linn and Dave Carr automatically disqualified that election. Bill Ready was elected freshman treasurer.

On the student body ballot, Maury Underwood was elected yell leader by a large majority. The other candidates will act as his assistants.

Baum Elected

Bob Baum came out on top in the senior presidential elections, and Will Henderson, whose name was added to the ballot by petition, was elected vice-president.

Unopposed senior candidates were Barbara Miller, secretary; Helen Larson, treasurer; Ray Loter, master-at-arms, and Richard Yocom, publicity manager.

The officers elected for the junior class include Roger Adams unopposed for president; Pat Howard, secretary; Inie Loter, treasurer, and Russ Tripp, representative.

On the ballot in the run-off election next week will be Joe Brazie and Larry Stocks, vying for vice-president.

Alan Goudy opposes Bill Ross for sophomore sergeant-at-arms and the rest of the offices for that class remain to be filled next week.

Included in the run-offs for president are Burnell Ambros and Elliott Motschenbacher; vice president, Diana Arpke and Keith Sperry; secretary, Shirley Ambler and Barbara Robinson, an treasurer, Helen Bonadurer and Herb Carlson.

Freshman Run-offs

In the freshman elections the list of candidates has been narrowed to the following: vice president, Jim Miller and Sherry Bliss; secretary, Doreen Lye and Margaret Sergeant; sergeant-at-arms, Jerry Crandall and Norman Dversdahl; representative Bill Bissel and Louis Predilette.

Al McMullen, second vice president of the ASWU wishes to thank those who helped him with the ballot-counting and also those who were in charge of the polls.

Choir Chooses Robins to Lead For 1948-49

Officers of the largest a cappella choir in Willamette's history were chosen this week. The announcement was made by Junior Bob Robins, president of the choir.

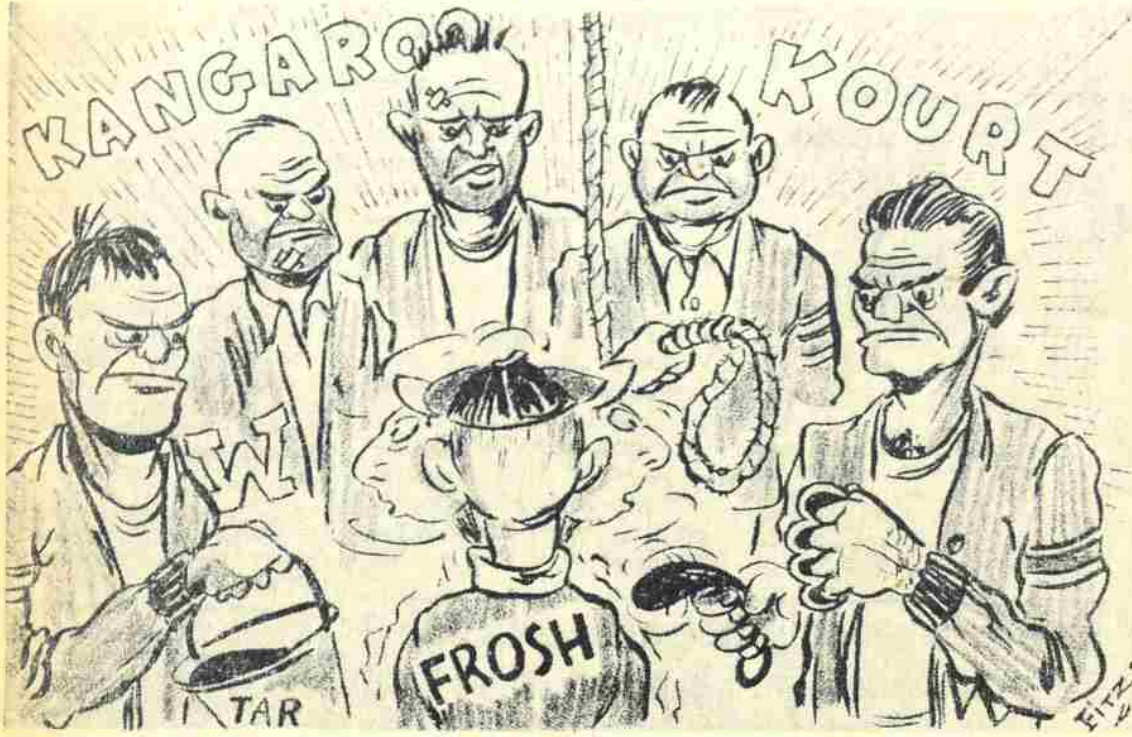

Senior Ray Fedje was named business manager for the coming term with Jesse Jones as assistant. These two will be responsible for the choir's tour during the term. Commencing his second year as business manager, Fedje was prominent in the handling of last year's southern Oregon tour, while Jones served as choir president his junior year.

Other officers named were Barbara Miller, vice-president; Shirley Ambler, secretary; Gordon Pratt, treasurer; John Kaemer, robe committee chairman; Earl Fedje, riser committee chairman; and Gloria Nandie and Helen Oakes, librarians.

Missing Books Here

Mrs. Delia Larson reports that a number of text books which were missing previously have been received by the bookstore. They are for classes in physical education, economic thought, beginning German education, physical science and English composition and Dr. Henry Kohler and Dr. E. Herbert S. Oliver.

How to Save Money And Still be a BTO

By Jim Miller

This work is designed to assist those in need of financial guidance. If you find yourself with 15 cents left out of the five you broke yesterday then the guides pointed out herein are meant for you.

Our first clash with monetary divirsitude came in the form of a welcome by open arms; many such arms were enough to overpower any one singular group of individuals and thus we were introduced to that babbling little brook which flows majestically through the campus—astoundingly close to one Lausanne hall.

On the SOUTHard Side

By Wally Southard

Why do women come to college? This is a question to which every male has his own answer, and in general the answers are one and the same: to take him out of circulation.

I talked to approximately 30 coeds, and my stock question was simply this: why did you come to college? Disregarding the very few who answered point-blank that they came to school to seek a mate, and working from a 100% basis, 75% of the coeds answered: to get an education; to keep from working; to spend father's money; it's the thing to do; and finally a variety of miscellaneous reasons which may be summed up under: to play left-end on the sorority touch football team.

Now the 75%, those with the many reasons, did admit—under the power of suggestion—that the desire to snare a male was a primary unconscious factor in their coming to college. But the other 25% would not be suggested to; however, even they admitted that they would not run from the "right one."

If the 30 coeds with whom I talked can be considered indicative of all college women, then it would seem that my findings indicate that a large percentage of women in college today are primarily interested in finding a husband; and the question of why women come to college has been satisfactorily answered.

But there's nothing so remarkable in this. The women have merely demonstrated one way or another that life is life, be it on a college campus or in the old home town. Only the coeds have the edge on their home town sisters. If they don't find their mate in college, they can always fall back on their education and teach school.

-Shock!-

Student morale dropped Tuesday when the Capitol coffee shop observed Columbus day by closing. Bleary-eyed students emerging from their eight and nine o'clocks received a severe case of shock upon finding themselves locked out of their carefully scheduled coffee hour.

Let the Townspeople Yell for WU

We have heard many objections lately in regard to the high prices of civilian tickets to Willamette home athletic events. Most recently, of course, have come complaints about the high cost to townspeople and WU supporters of football games.

The metropolitan area of Salem contains some 50,000 persons, many more of whom would attend games, say the complainers, if prices were made reasonable. At a recent game only 300 townspeople were in the Sweetland grandstand.

The Collegian would like to call to the attention of the athletic board and business office the fact that at least 2,000 townspeople would probably come to the games if prices were reasonable. An average family of three or four cannot attend games at the present rates for much under a five-dollar bill. Surely if we had the loyal, spirited support of 2,000 paid attendance at every game at 75 cents per head, the University coffers would be fuller than by 300 at $1.20 or $1.50 per head. And the school and city spirit toward university athletics would surely soar.

Certainly, we believe something should be done to increase the attendance of townspeople at WU home games and if not this year, surely by the time the new stadium and athletic field at Bush pasture opens (if ever). Even if we have to put up more bleachers and print some sizeable schedule cards for athletic events, let's support a drive for more Salem citizens at WU athletic events.

The University Workshop

Ranking high in the "doing something" group on the campus is the University workshop. In its second year of affiliation with radio station KOCO, the workshop has proven that hard-work and application can have its compensation in the form of a job well done.

The workshop, currently conducting a series of Monday night shows, has aptly shown its ability and versatility in the interest of its audience. Competent supervision and a wealth of talent have joined to form a welcome combination as compared to the usual activity whirl.

Hats off to the workshop and its members. We hope to see more of it and any other campus activity that spells accomplishment.

Homecoming's Coming

The coming week will be a busy one. Signs will go up, leaves will be raked at an early hour, and alumni will inspect their old alma mater.

We have noticed a most progressive and conscientious freshman class about the campus this semester. To the freshmen will fall the duty of making Willamette shine for the traditional Homecoming event. We hope the campus will be a shining example of their alertness during the past five weeks.

Russ Tripp and his committees have plans well in hand and the coming week should be a never-to-be-forgotten one.

Let's go all out for Homecoming next week and give the lumberjacks a battle-ax they'll never forget.

Don't be disappointed next month when WU makes the Saturday Evening Post. The photographer told us maybe one or maybe all the pictures would be used that were taken on the campus. Anyway, don't expect to find yourself on every page.

What this campus needs is a bigger and better one-day election.

Check Kisses Are Safest

LONDON—The Medical Press, according to a recent (AP) news dispatch, concluded that there is a lot to be said after all for the French way of kissing (on both cheeks, but not on the lips). "The adoption of the French style of kissing on both cheeks may diminish the prevalence of common colds, if not many other diseases," the publication said in an editorial.

The Medical Press said kissing seems to be popular in England "even omitting its use for amatory purposes." A survey, it stated, showed that six women out of ten always greet their feminine acquaintances with smackers.

"Surprisingly," the journal added, 54 per cent of the men admit to this form of courtesy "when meeting friends of the opposite sex."

OPEN LETTER TO MERLE

A. AKESON: Dear Sir: I appreciate very much your letter of last week directed toward this column, as criticism is always to be valued. However, I'm afraid that you have read into this piece both meaning and method that do not exist. It is our intent to present as much as possible of the happenings in a fast-moving world as accurately and as concisely as possible, in the limited space allotted for this type of news in a campus paper. Neither do we agree with you that the trite is to be preferred to the "unheard of". We are constantly grateful for corrections of our misinformation, but if you will check Webster we believe that you will find that "common" sometimes means "same" and hardly involves trying to sell anyone any viewpoint. Since the question has been raised, however, we would like to go on record as being only slightly to the right of center and hardly qualifying as a dangerous reactionary.

THE WORLD AT LARGE:

Hsi Koch, the infamous you-know-what of Buchenwald, has had her life sentence commuted to four years, which means that she'll be out in a few months. The German courts are waiting for her, tho. . . . The Greek nationals are opening new attacks on the rebels near the Albanian and Yugo borders. . . . Speaking of Greece, Wm. J. "Wild Bill" Donovan has gone to Athens about the Geo. Polk murder. . . . Report from Italy says that the Yugos may return all Italians held there. . . . The Thurmond-Wright ticket has lost its court battle to get on the ballot in N. Carolina. . . . The AP interprets a recent Marshall statement as meaning that the Reds do not yet have the A bomb. . . .

Henry Wallace is making a concerted effort to bring whatever secret deals may be brewing with Spain in the open. Says there's a drive afoot to recognize Franco's gov't and maybe slip them some ERP money. It's reported that Senators Gurney and Lucas and Jim Farley have had secret confabs with them. . . .

Statistics say that 95 million will be of age come election day. If the rate of vote is near that of the last two elections, there should be a vote in the neighborhood of 46 million. It's claimed that 90 percent of the eligible Italians turned out in their last big election. Hmhmhm.

Collegian Short Story Contest Attracting Student Writers

Much interest has been shown and several entries already submitted for the Collegian-sponsored short-short contest which began last month, Eric Bergman, editor, said this week.

A drive is now on to make October a 50-entry month for the contest, Bergman said. A total of $20 in prize money will be given to the three students submitting the best three short-short stories not exceeding 500 words in length. The shortness of the stories alone is a challenge to the versatility and technique of interested writers. Several good entries show that it can be done, however.

Dramatists Busy On 'The Mollusc'

The drama department, under the direction of Prof. Edward T. Gibson, is hard at work opening the dramatic season with a light comedy, "The Mollusc", which is to be presented October 29 and 30 in the Salem high school auditorium.

The story centers around Mrs. Baxter, Kathleen Scott, a pretty woman of about thirty-five, vague in movement and manner of speaking, who is a decided human mollusc. Mr. Baxter, John Brown, a kind, slightly reticent man of forty, is given, by Mrs. Baxter's molluscry, into the constant companionship of the Baxter children's governess, Miss Roberts, Shirley Dean. With the arrival of Mrs. Baxter's brother, Tom Kemp, events start to shape themselves into a program of comedy.

Members of the University Workshop will be called on to help with the staging; Margaret Guice and Harriet Ness are managing publicity, and members of the national dramatic honorary, Theta Alpha Phi, are assisting with programs. Bob Bennett will be on the switchboard, and Sheila Ryan is prompter for the play. Backstage and set workers are needed.

The Collegian wants many more stories this month and at least 100 entries before the close of the contest on Friday noon, December 10. The best three stories will be published in succeeding issues and prize money will be awarded just in time for Christmas.

Judges for the contest, announced by the Collegian office this week, will include Norman Stone, Collegian feature editor; Eric Bergman, Collegian editor; Eileen Scott, Collegian news editor; Ethan Grant, Salem short story writer, and Thomas Gillies, assistant librarian and English instructor at the University.

For more complete details of the rules of the contest, entrants are asked to call at the Collegian office for the first issue of the Collegian or consult the rules on the Collegian bulletin board.

The first prize entry will also be submitted to a national publication for consideration.

Veterans' Tips

Veterans are again asked to check the bulletin board in Eaton hall or the one in the Law school to see if their forms for government assistance are complete and correct.

Books Requested

Men on the GI bill who drop out of school are asked by Mrs. Delsia Larson to call at the bookstore to close their accounts. All books must be returned as soon as possible, she emphasized.

New Psychology Professor Likes Friendly Students Here

By Dolores Banz

"So you want to see that character who is supposed to be in his room, but is never there, well, just a minute and I'll be with you."

This statement shows the humor and light heartedness of Charles Derthick, new professor of psychology. Arriving from Kansas university this fall, where he taught the last two years, he finds the faculty and students of Willamette very friendly. He also feels that at Willamette a person can become better acquainted with the stu-

Willamette Refuses Donations Of Two Telescopes---No Room

By Bob Christensen

Willamette university finds itself in the unusual position of not accepting a donation.

According to Prof. Herman Clark of the science department, a fine, ten-inch telescope with all the attachments, has been offered to the University by a Californian.

Another equally fine telescope has been offered by a local resident.

The campus, however, due to the many trees and buildings, would not be a good place to install the scope. The old recreational field, at first considered, was rejected because it will eventually be built up and will then present the same difficulties.

Bush's Pasture, while an excellent place to situate the observatory, is unusable because of a clause in the deed which restricts it to recreational purposes only.

The city, which owns the rest of Bush's Pasture, is not willing to cede the University any property that might at any time in the future interfere with the city's holding.

According to Clark, the only thing standing in the way of the acquisition of an observatory for Willamette is the lack of land. The University is financially able and willing to erect the necessary buildings. A small plot of land as large as an ordinary back-yard is all that it would take to provide the University with one of the finest aspects of science, concluded Clark.

Fusser's Guide Copy in Hands Of Printers

Members of the Fusser's Guide staff, having completed their typing, compiling and editing jobs, are now waiting for the printers to return the finished product for distribution.

"It will be out some time in the near future" was all that editor Harry Ryan would volunteer. "The printers will not guarantee when they will be ready," he added.

Containing from 40 to 45 pages, the 1948-49 Fusser's Guide, "U of Willamette," will not feature a social calendar as it did last year, because the increased enrollment has taken up the extra space which was formerly allotted to the calendar.

Staff members include Margaret Atwood, assistant editor; Jim Fitzsimons, who helped with the cover which was taken from the Stanford "Chaprel"; Marvel Deguire, advertisements, and Nancy Whitmore, Sarah Warner, Chuck Martin and Pat Holtz, typing and compiling.

SHECKLE SNATCH

An examination for filling engineer positions at the P-1 grade ($2,974 a year) in Washington, D.C. and vicinity has been announced by the US Civil Service commission.

No written test is required of competitors in the examination. To qualify, they must (a) have completed four years of college study in professional engineering leading to a bachelor's degree, or (b) have had four years of progressive experience in technical engineering, or (c) have had any time-equivalent combination of such education and experience. Applications will be accepted from students who expect to complete their college courses within six months of the date of filing applications. Age limits, waived for persons entitled to veteran's preference, are from 18 to 35 years.

Interested persons may obtain information and application forms at most first and second class post offices, from Civil Service regional offices, or from the US Civil Service commission, Washington 25, D.C. Applications should be sent to the Commission's Washington office.

dents than in a larger school such as Kansas university, which is about nine times the size of Willamette.

Besides his psychology classes, Derthick teaches a seminar with Dr. George Seek for advanced students in this field. Being a family man with a wife and a small boy and girl, also keeps him well occupied. He spent a little over three years in various branches of the armed forces as a psychologist for the mental neuroses cases. At present he is completing his Ph.D., having already finished two years of it.

CPS Makes Poll On Cost of Living At Coast Colleges

A poll on the cost of living on college campuses of the Pacific coast is being conducted by Miles Putnam, editor of The Trail, official weekly publication of the College of Puget Sound. The poll covers certain basic items likely to appear on the menu of a college cafeteria.

Putnam is also investigating the differences between the a la carte system of charging and the system of semester meal tickets, which is the plan used predominately at Willamette.

Auditory, Visual Equipment Here

An auditory and visual aid equipment room, Waller 204, has been established for the convenience of departments wishing to use it. The equipment consists so far of a brush tape recorder, a 16 mm. projector, an old record player, two microphones, and a new wire recorder.

Second Conference Win Sought By Gridders at UBC Tomorrow

Third Straight Win Also Sought By Title Defenders

A 37 man Bearcat grid machine, including Coach Jerry Lillie and managers, leave the campus this morning at seven for Vancouver, B.C. to engage the University of British Columbia in the second conference go tomorrow afternoon at 2 p.m. A 'Cat victory will run their win streak to three straight.

The 'Cat rock-em-sock-em machine, flushed with a hard-earned 27-13 win over College of Idaho will be minus the services of Senior Captain Gene Allison, starting left end, who turned up with a broken ankle Saturday following the Coyote fracas.

Bruce Top Contender for End

Bill Bruce and Don Aasen are candidates for Allison's position with Bruce the probable starter in the northern contest tomorrow. Allison's injury will keep him out for at least two weeks and probably a good deal longer.

Other injuries still prevalent on the Jason eleven are a chest bruise to Quarterback Bob Douglas and a dislocated shoulder to Herb Johnsrud. Both are not expected to play for another week.

Lamb Bulwarks Bird Defense

Leading the Thunderbird defense against the favored Bearcats is Alex Lamb, a 220 pound tackle and three year letterman who has played against the 'Cats the last two seasons and lost 26-13 and 33-0.

Besides having only 13 returning lettermen, the Thunderbirds, who have lost their first loop go against Pacific 33-0, have a new mentor, Don Wilson, who formerly coached successfully at Molalla high school.

Work the past week was general with a brushing up on all plays and special drill on blocking and tackling for game tomorrow.

Men scheduled to suit up for the game tomorrow are:

- Ends—Aasen, Bruce, White, Nice, Wenger.
- Tackles—Blacic, DeBord, Harryman, Kukahiko, Massey, Nerison.
- Guards—Beddoe, Bowe, Cox, Warner, Hall, Hoar.
- Center—Patterson, Ambrose.
- Quarterbacks—Burleigh, Noa, Nee.
- Halfbacks—Ewaliko, Lorenz, Minn, Osuna, Sperry, Slanchik.
- Fullbacks—Clabaugh, Ranis, Warren.

Clabaugh Over For Six in 27-13 Thriller

Running over for the third touchdown in last Friday's Bearcat win over the Coyotes is Keith Clabaugh on a 21 yard off tackle jaunt. Coming over to insure the score is Roy Harrington (60). The score came early in the final quarter when the Cats finally assured themselves of victory over a stubborn Coyote outfit.

Cats Stage Last Half Comeback To Win First Loop Fracas, 27-13

By Dale Reynolds

Coach Jerry Lillie's Bearcats jumped out of the frying pan and into a fiery second half that roared past a tough and tumble College of Idaho eleven and blazed into a 27 to 13 Bearcat win here Friday night to put the Jasons in a tie for first place in the conference with the winning of their opening Northwest clash.

The Lilliemens drew their first bead on the Coyotes in the first, but the determined Idahoans scored twice in the second period to lead 13-7 at the halftime. In the second half the rip roaring Bearcats scored three tallies and turned down the Coyotes crunching ground attack on every attempt the visitors made to ramble into the counting territory.

Minn Starts to Drive

In the opening period Al Minn intercepted quarterback Jerry Judy's pass on the 30 and returned it to the 17 yard stripe to set up the first 'Cat score. Six plays later Bearcat John Burleigh went over on a quarterback sneak from the one. Left footer Minn booted his first of three conversions to push the Jasons in front 7-0 at the end of the first period.

The Coyotes bounced back in the second canto to throw a chill into the defending champs. On the seventh play after the quarter began the Coyotes, aided by a five yard penalty for too many men on the field, scored as Tom Winbigger, all-conference half last season, carted the pill into the end zone from the four.

Slanchik Kick Corners Coyotes

Minutes later a 54 yard punt by John Slanchik put the Coyotes on their own six. Then the undismayed Coyote club drove 94 ards in 21 plays to score. The drive was staged on the ground and the visitors punched 23 times for six first downs before Winbigger packed the mail between the cardinal and gold posts to put Willamette behind 13-7 at the

The Methodists came back in the second half to even the count as Bill Ewaliko broke away for 46 yards behind excellent blocking and the final block by Center Chuck Patterson to score. Minn again converted to boost Willamette ahead 14-13, where it stood as the third quarter ended.

Clabaugh, Burleigh Score

The smooth sparring Willamette club started its domination of the final period after Burleigh's 14 yard pass to Ewaliko set the pigskin on the 21. From the 21 Keith Clabaugh ran the ball over for the third Jason score.

With eight minutes remaining in the game Burleigh climaxed a 78 yard march as he went ten yards for the final counter. Minn converted his third extra point of the evening to rack up the final 27-13 margin.

Bearkitts Try Pacific College For 2nd Win After 13-6 Loss

The local Jayvees will journey to Newberg tomorrow to collide with the Pacific college varsity in a 2 o'clock affair. The local Jayvees were dealt their first loss of the season, a 13-6 edging by the Linfield Jayvees, on Olinger field last Friday.

Pacific college, a small school of only a couple hundred enrollment, plays football independently. They were downed by Oregon College of Education 33 to 6 last weekend while the Bearkittens were taking their 13-6 trimming at the hands of the Linfield junior varsity.

The first Linfield score came in the second period on an aerial from Blackie Fleming to Bob Hughes for the counter. The pass play was set up when the visiting team recovered a Jason fumble on the Willamette five yard line. Henry Talus converted for the one pointer.

In the final fourth the D'Eaglemen went to the air. But the airways seemed to profit the wrong club as Roy Hoy, Linfield, intercepted a pass and ran 45 yards into the end zone.

However on the next-to-last play the Bearkittens connected a 50 yard pass from Jeff McRae to Bob Taylor for the only Methodist score.

Following is the total scoring compiled by the Jayvees in the first two games played. Halfback Bob Shangle's conversions were all run over in the Tillamook tussle.

walked all over the Frosh Fish to come out on top by a 31-13 score. The league-leaders piled up an early half-time lead and then coasted to their third straight win. Bruce Barker led the Senior scoring with 10 counters.

came from behind to keep alive their undefeated status by downing a stubborn Junior team, 29-22, in Wednesday night's finale. The Juniors held a 19-15 lead going into the final stanza but couldn't stop a late Senior hot streak that outscored them 14

BB's Win First Tilt
The nightcap saw the newly-organized freshman Beetle Bums grab a win in their first skirmish as they edged the Frosh Aces, 32-26. It was a hard fought game throughout, with the Beetle Bums pulling away only in the final quarter. Crandall of the Aces led the scoring with nine points, followed closely by Al Bellinger of the winners with eight.

Continued domination by a potent senior five highlighted the second week of play in the inter-class basketball tournament as the upper classmen ran their record to four wins and no losses. In Monday's opener the Seniors points to three. Jim Johnson of the Seniors hooped nine points to lead all scoring.

A tight defensive game featured the opener with the Frosh Mustangs finally edging the Beetle Bums, 14-12. Neither team could break through for a score during the first quarter, with the half seeing the winners leading only seven to three.

NEXT WEEK'S SCHEDULE
Monday—7:00 Sophs vs. Aces; 8:00, Seniors vs. Mustangs.
Tuesday—7:00, Juniors vs. Beetle Bums; 8:00, Sophs vs. Mustangs.
Wednesday—7:00, Seniors vs. Beetle Bums; 8:00, Fish vs. Aces.

Poor passing and too much shooting in the late stages of the game cost the Juniors a victory in the first game Tuesday night as they bowed to the Mustangs, 26-24. The Juniors held a one-point advantage at the third whistle, 18 to 17, while the half time score was ten apiece. Only the second half efforts of Al Fedje, who collected 10 points, kept the Juniors in the game. High man for the Mustangs was Bissell with nine.

Loder Leads Fish
In the second game the sharp-shooting Sophomores over-powered the Freshman Fish, 31-19. The Sophs started slowly, but were on the long end of a 13 to 12 halftime score. The third quarter found the Sophs leading, 23-14. Ted Loder was high man for the Fish with 12 points.

New Women's PE Instructor Named

A new face has been added to the Willamette faculty in the person of Alice Essley, recently appointed assistant physical education instructor for women. Miss Essley replaces Marjory Heid who resigned last week due to the illness of her mother in Portland. Miss Essley is a graduate of the University of Iowa. She comes here from Los Angeles where she has been engaged in social service.

Gal Archers Ready Selves For Tourney

"Ouch my sore muscles," and "please string my bow" are no longer the cries of the women in archery classes. According to the latest report from Gale Currey her Lady Marion's are improving their archeress abilities with a keen eye for the bullseye.

Women's athletics association points are rolling in from girls eager to practice and bring their score up to enter the archery tournament which will be held later in the season. Points are also coming in for bowling, cycling, tennis and basketball.

This week will end practices for the hoopsters entering the women's interhouse tourney. The Hot Shots and Lucky Six teams from Lausanne hall held a last practice scrimmage Monday.

Two teams from Fredrickson hall and each sorority house has one hour left before the first play-off between Chi Omega and Freddie on Monday, October 18, at 4 o'clock.

Fractures Ankle

Out with a fractured ankle for at least two weeks is Left End Gene Allison, captain of this year's Bearcat squad. The injury, received in the Coyote game last week, is a big blow to the Cats as well as Allison who is playing his final year.

Cross-Country Signup Due

All men who wish to compete in fall cross-country meets should check in with Coach Jerry Lillie in his office as soon as possible. Workouts will start immediately for the Hill Military meet, a four-mile course, to be held Thanksgiving week. Willamette placed first last year among the north-west teams. Another meet may be scheduled for the week previous to the Hill race.

John Burleigh finally shook off those rushing losses, received in the first game of the season against Portland, last Friday when he gained a sum of 39 yards from scrimmage in six tries against College of Idaho. It was a big night all around for the Placerville, Calif., quarterback who also scored two TDs to put him in the scoring lead with Bill Ewakiko with three touchdowns apiece.

JOHN BURLEIGH

John, as a ball carrier, is always in danger of losing ground, especially when passing. At Portland four weeks ago he was caught twice for thirteen yard losses rather than risk an intercepted pass when unable to find his receiver. Now he is on the plus side of the ball-toting statistics with an unimpressive but significant 1.79 yards per try average. Funny part of John's running ability is that he isn't paid to run, so to speak, but to toss passes and slip handoffs in Jerry Lillie's "T" formation. At any rate the Californian has handled all three departments admirably and is a credit to Lillie's coaching ability.

Back on the Willamette campus this fall is none other than Cece "Chief" Connors ex-Bearcat pigskinner for Walt Erickson's double wingers in 1946.

Most Jason fans around then remember the stocky fullback as the guy who punched over a touchdown in the final period against a surprisingly strong Whitman gang to win 6-0 and take the conference title undefeated that year. The game, played at Walla Walla, was one of those muddy affairs so often seen on Sweetland field last year.

'Cats Undefeated Since 1928 in Homecoming Clashes

Guess it's a little early to be speculating on the Homecoming game with Puget Sound's Loggers next Saturday but the game at least merits mention what with Willamette holding an undefeated record in such fracas since 1928.

With such a record established it puts Willamette under a somewhat different light from the conditions they usually play under. Usually Willamette plays ball against "hopped up" elevens in the conference as most of the loop teams are always primed for "that Bearcat bunch."

This time, however, the locals will have a psychological reason for winning, that of the 20 year perfect record. It'll be a toughie, though, with Logger President Thompson, an ex-Willamette history prof by the way, again vowing that his Logger's will win.

Gridders Assessed 240 Yards in Penalties

It's a good thing Bearcat backfield men have glue on their fingers as far as fumbling goes, especially with tremendous yards lost on penalties by the 'Cats. In four games thus far the Lilliemens have been assessed 240 yards for misdemeanors on the field as compared to their opponents 110. That averages 60 yards a tilt which really cuts into the total yards gained column.

On the other hand they have fumbled only four times in the four games compared to their opponents 10 which partially makes up for bad behavior.

Thirty Women Compete As Sigma-Chi Sweethearts

Thirty Willamette women were potential Sweethearts of Sigma Chi Wednesday evening as they were entertained by approximately seventy members and pledges of the fraternity. Carolyn Slocum, last year's Sweetheart, and her court, Edie Fairham and Pat Ryan, told the group of their experiences as winners of the Sig contest.

5 Pledge Classes Elect 1st Officers At Fraternities

Pledge classes of three fraternities and two sororities elected officers at their respective meetings this week.

Leading the Alpha Chi Omega pledge class this fall after last Wednesday's elections is Marceline Hutchinson, with Priscilla Botkin acting as treasurer. The secretarial post of the group has been taken over by Jackie Johnson.

Joan Balderee was elected president of the Pi Beta Phi pledge class while Jean Estey will serve as vice-president. Secretary of the group is Jeanette Gilbertson, treasurer is Carolann Snarr and Sue Mellor is social chairman. Activity and scholarship chairmen are Alice Espeseth and Colleen Schode. Historian is Jo Ann Estey, while Pat Jones is censor.

Phi Delt pledges picked Jim Gay to head the group of thirty-one men. Harry Summers is to assist him as secretary and Dick Hartley will hold the post of vice-president.

Bill Payton was chosen to head the Beta Theta Pi class. The fifteen members of the class also elected Don Carpenter vice-president; secretary-treasurer, Jack Larson; sergeant-at-arms, Bob Seamster.

The eighteen men of the Phi Alpha class elected Don Pritchard as their president.

Preliminary run-offs of the group limited the number to sixteen. Those women remaining in the contest are Nancy Adams, Priscilla Botkin, Bo Brooks, Clarabelle Easton, Jeanette Gilbertson, Shirley Hansen, Jackie Johnson, Marjorie Lettiken, Druanne McMakin, Betty Mullin, Nancy Phillips, Margaret Sargent, Kay Stark, Beth Tedford, Colleen Whiteman and Virginia Wilson.

A dinner in the Sigma Chi wing will be held Monday evening further to limit the group to eight contestants. The three finalists will be selected the following week announced Bill Olsen, president. These finalists will preside over the second annual formal Sweetheart Ball to be held November 6.

Semi-Formal Dance Set

Climaxing the festivities of Homecoming next week-end will be the semi-formal dance in the gym Saturday evening from 8:30 to 11:30. Dave Longton's orchestra will play for the event, announced Gordon Cline, general chairman.

Decorations will center around an autumn theme according to Lloyd Hanson, chairman. Chaperones have been contacted by Pat Howard, while refreshments will be planned by the Lettermen's club. Tom Yates is clean-up chairman and Alpha Phi Omega will check wraps. Publicity is being handled by Al Miller.

Trophies for the noise parade and the sign contest will be awarded during the intermission by Russ Tripp, Homecoming chairman. Corsages are not required for the dance.

Replacing the open house dances usually held by the women's living organizations following the noise parade, is the original play to be presented in Waller hall.

Social Events Cancelled For "All-Church" Night

With Homecoming only a week away, the school activities have quieted down and attention is being focused on all church night tonight. Students will be given a change from the weekly football games, dances and firesides to attend a mixer at the First Presbyterian church for students of all denominations.

The program for the evening will feature group singing of fun songs, playing various types of group guessing and relay games, the showing of short movie cartoons, and the presentation of a comedy skit, "Pokey-buntus" by the Wesley players.

The mixer is being sponsored by the Inter-Faith Council, which is composed of the representatives of all Salem church college groups.

The program is under the direction of Eloise Purdy of the Wesley fellowship group, with Ray Fedje leading songs, Betty Thompson, acting as accompanist, and Doris Gragg and Arlene Zastera directing the skit.

Diana Arpke of the Episcopal church is in charge of publicity. Refreshments are being handled by Marion Sparks of the Westminister fellowship group.

Fashion Editor Contest Opened By Mademoiselle

Mademoiselle, "the magazine for smart young women," has opened its annual contest for "college board" members and its 1949 college guest editors.

College women who are selected to be college guest editors will be brought to New York to help write and edit the annual August college issue of Mademoiselle.

In order to be selected as a college guest editor, undergraduates must be members of "Mademoiselle's national college board" during 1948-49. Rules for joining the college board: 1. contestants must submit a report of two typewritten, double-spaced pages on any phase of campus life: a new academic course, a fashion, a fad, or anything else which might interest other college students. 2. Contestants must submit a snapshot, plus complete data on college and home address, class, year, college major and minor, other interests and activities and paid or volunteer jobs held. 3. All material must be mailed to the College Board Editor, Mademoiselle, 122 East 42 Street, New York 17, New York, postmarked no later than midnight, November 1, 1948

MEDs Plan First Meeting of Term

The first meeting of the fall semester of Mu Epsilon Delta, Willamette pre-medical fraternity, will be held in room 124 in Collins hall at 7 p.m. next Wednesday, October 20.

Officers for Mu Epsilon Delta for the semester are Bill Faminow, president; Bill Bonnington, vice-president; Bonnie Daugherty, secretary-treasurer and Dave Bristow, social chairman.

All interested pre-medical and pre-dental students are invited to attend the meeting.

Greeks Start Exchanges

Phi Alpha will entertain Pi Beta Phi with an exchange dinner and fireside Wednesday evening, according to Gordon Pratt, social chairman. Twelve men will eat at the Pi Phi house while twelve women will have dinner at the Phi Alpha wing of Baxter.

Following the dinner, members and pledges of the sorority and fraternity will gather at the Phi Alpha house for a fireside. Entertainment will be provided by members of the fraternity pledge class, following which refreshments will be served.

Members of Sigma Chi will be guests at the Delta Gamma house Wednesday evening for an exchange dinner and fireside. General chairman for the event is Nonnie Faaborg with Martha Brooks, guest book; Nancy Whitman, set-up, and Patti Jo Hammond, clean-up, assisting. Plans for the evening include dancing, a program and informal singing around a fire in the backyard if weather permits.

While members of the two groups dance at the Dee Gee house, the Sig pledges will entertain the sorority pledges at their wing in Baxter. Assisting chairmen Sherm Bliss and Babe Maudlin are Phil Blankenship and Don Yunker, entertainment, and Dave Beckett, refreshments.

The first exchange dinner among the sororities was given by Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Gamma.

Pat Morgan, Chi Omega pledge, announced her engagement to Bob Freres last week at her sorority house.

Eight Freshmen Pledge National Alpha Lambda

Eight women were pledged to Alpha Lambda Delta, national scholastic fraternity for freshmen women, last Monday night in services held in the Little Chapel in Waller hall.

Those being pledged are Elsie Douglas, Martha DuRette, Margaret Guice, Rosanna McMeekin, Janice Middleton, Joan Trout, Esther Weinstein and LaVonne Wood.

To attain membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, a woman must have an accumulative grade point average of 3.33 for two semesters or a 3.5 average for one semester.

Officers for the group are Jackie Chute, president; Joan Klindworth, vice-president; Florence Goodridge, secretary; Sally Smith, treasurer, and Alice Turtledove, historian. Honorary members are Miss Marion Morange and Dean Regina Ewalt.

Initiation for the new pledges is planned for the near future.

Debate Trips Scheduled By Speakers

Forensics students are starting the term with a new coach and manager. Prof. James W. Kirkwood, head of the speech department, has recommended Jack Gunn to the student council for forensics manager. If the recommendation is approved, Gunn will handle finances and plan trips.

Kirkwood also outlined the year's speech tournaments and debates. The first debate in which a WU team will participate will be held in Seattle November 22, 23 and 24, and is being sponsored by the Western Association of Speech Teachers.

The subject for this debate is "Resolved: that the US should abandon free economy in favor of a system of economic controls." Three men's teams and one women's team will be sent, but members are not yet selected, Kirkwood said.

For the remainder of the year the subject, "Resolved; that the federal government should equalize educational opportunities in tax-supported schools by means of annual grants," will be debated.

All new members of the debate squad who have had no practice will concentrate on this subject, and others will engage in a series of practice debates to win berths on the squad.

Planned trips include tournaments at the College of Puget Sound and Linfield some time in February, the Pacific Forensic league at Whitman and the regional meet of Phi Kappa Delta, held at Los Angeles early in April.

If WU is again chosen to represent the northwest, two members will make the coveted West Point trip. Otherwise the team will participate in the National Debate tourney at Fredricksburg, Virginia.

Jack-O-Lantern Reveals Troth

A jack-o-lantern with small figures of a witch and scarecrow inside revealed the engagement of Mary Phelps to Robert N. Phillips, Jr. Saturday evening at the Alpha Chi Omega chapter house of which Mary is a member. A poem invited the A Chi O's to look into the jack-o-lantern where pictures of the couple were pasted onto the figures.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Phelps of Portland, Mary was a junior on campus last year, majoring in English literature. She served as rush captain of her house last spring.

Phillips, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Phillips of Salem, is a senior business administration major at University of Oregon. He is affiliated with Pi Kappa Phi.

No date has been set for the wedding.

BAGs Tap Three New Members

Beta Alpha Gamma, sophomore women's honorary, interrupted dinners Tuesday evening in three of the chapter houses to tap their new members, Diana Arpke, Joan Klindworth and Margie Powell.

The three sophomore women were then entertained at the Spa. Tapping of these new members fills the organization's membership quota.

Pausing at the guest book following the Sigma Chi semi-formal dance Saturday night are Dave Anderson, Dorothy Hobson, Bill Brown and Diana Arpke. The members of the fraternity were invited to join the pledges after the annual Pledge Banquet.

Java Party Enjoyed at Law Teatime

By Kenneth H. York
Law School Society Editor

The last faculty meeting of the College of Law was combined with a tea, although only coffee and cookies were served. Despite the fact that the society editors of this part of the state were notified, none showed up. It was hoped that pictures of the event might appear on the society pages of the Sunday papers.

The details of the tea were that the brew was made and prepared by Dean Seward P. Reese from long and possibly successful experience in the field. The honor of pouring was accepted by Professors Roy M. Lockenour and Quintin Johnstone ("As impulsio strukio" as Cicero said might not have). The pourers were attired in business suits. The boxes of cookies on the Dean's desk were explicitly and gracefully torn open by Prof. Kenneth H. York who was attired in part in a red and blue bow tie. Prof. William H. Winslow, Jr., was outstanding in his persistent consumption while Prof. Ray L. Smith remarked "I could write my name with that so-called coffee." Winslow and Smith were also attired in street clothes.

Some school business was also transacted.

Law Fraternity Entertain Frosh

Freshmen law students will be honored at a buffet supper and dance sponsored by Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity, next Friday evening at the Mayflower Ballroom, members of the fraternity announced this week.

Although final plans for the evening have not as yet been completed, entertainment, dancing and refreshments are promised for the event.

IRC Outlines Year's Program

In order to outline the year's program, the International Relations Club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday evening in the speech offices of Waller. Prof. Chester Kaiser, adviser, and Geraldine M. Meroney, history professor, were guests at the meeting.

Plans for the year include representation at the Northwestern IRC Conference at University of Oregon, December 3 and 4. The conference, sponsored by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, will center about discussions and panels on the present position of the United States in world affairs.

An outside speaker will be featured at the next meeting of the group, October 27 in Chresto Cottage. Bob Rhoads, president, extends a special invitation to all students who are interested

The Amen Corner

Reverend G. Wesley Turner of the Leslie Methodist church will speak to the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship in the Little Chapel at their meeting next Thursday. A singspiration was the theme of the meeting held by Inter-Varsity this week in Chresto Cottage. Monday evening Bible study will be led by Carl Blaines.

"You Can Find God at College" will be the topic of Reverend Daniel D. Walker, minister of the First Methodist church of Corvallis, when he speaks to Wesley Fellowship this Sunday evening at their regular 6:30 meeting. This is the second in a series of talks on "Making College Count." Professor Herman Clark spoke last Sunday evening on "If I Had My College to Do Over."

Supper at 5:30 will precede the worship program. Westminster Fellowship will meet to hear three students speak on three prominent men of the day, Henry Wallace, President Harry S. Truman and Governor Thomas Dewey, in keeping with the political season. The meeting will be held in the Manse of the First Presbyterian church at 6 p.m.

The Episcopal Group will hold a business meeting in Chresto Cottage at 6:30 Sunday. They will elect officers and make final plans for a trip to Corvallis on October 31. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Betas Entertain Majority Leader

Rep. Halleck, GOP Leader, Visits Campus

Charles Halleck (republican, Indiana), a Beta Theta Pi alumnus of the University of Indiana, paid a brief visit to the Gamma Sigma chapter Monday evening. Halleck, who is majority leader in the house of representatives and was mentioned frequently as a possible presidential nominee before the republican convention, was en route to a speaking engagement in Albany. His Albany speech was to have been his third appearance that day. He had spoken in Portland the previous Saturday.

Halleck was accompanied by Representative Harris Ellsworth of Oregon, National Committeeman Ralph Cake of Portland and James Rodman, republican state chairman.

When interviewed by the Collegian, however, Halleck did speak on the recent Vinson affair. The house leader told the Collegian and the assembled Betas that "the recent proposal to send Vinson to Russia would undoubtedly have led to disaster." He added that whether the action "shows desperation" on the part of the administration, he could not say.

Ellsworth, on the other hand, spoke quite freely about the political scene when interviewed. He expressed the opinion that the Vinson "blunder" is drawing such unfavorable public reaction that even had the coming presidential race "looked close," this would "swing the election to Dewey." Ellsworth stated that he believes that this move on the part of Truman "indicates his lack of ability" and that it may well be the turning point of the whole election.

Cops to Arrest For Overtime On 12th Street

By Al Ladendorff

If any of the car-driving residents of Baxter hall and vicinity have harbored hopes of evading tickets for over-parking in the immediate vicinity of the hall, they had better quit hoping.

Parking tickets will be issued by Salem patrolmen to any violators found in the designated areas on State street near 12th and from State street south to Trade on 12th where a 2 hour limit is in effect. Salem city manager J. L. Franzen in a report read to the Salem city council at their last meeting informed the council that among other areas patrolled, that area near the Willamette campus was frequented at regular intervals.

The report also made known the fact that the local police are onto the old twist of moving a marked car a foot or so to hide the tire mark. In spite of such precautions arrests are still being made although in general there have not been too many violators booked.

Although the resolution that was passed by the city council in July of this year limiting the parking is said to have resulted from the complaints of merchants in the area, Franzen concluded that the above reasons were equally important. Fear of a major accident at or near the intersection of 12th street and State was a major reason for immediate action.

It was further pointed out that many people left their cars on the street all night, thus making proper cleaning of the streets almost an impossibility. It is hoped that the limitation of parking might alleviate the situation all around.

WU Yearbook Pic Schedule Gains Speed

Picture schedules for the yearbook have been stepped up to two students every fifteen minutes, reports Wahleh Editor Geri Bowles. Sigma Chi winds up its portraits today, and the remainder of the revised schedule includes:

Phi Delta Theta, Monday and Tuesday morning; Phi Alpha, Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday; Beta Theta Pi, Thursday and Friday morning.

The Jeston-Miller studio is located in the Miller department store and is open from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Anyone who missed his appointment, or will be unable to get there at the designated time, is asked to contact the Wahleh office.
