time, date and place will be learned as well as the rules regarding the song compositions.

SENIORS MUST TURN IN RECORDS FRIDAY

December sixth has been set as the final day on which seniors may hand in the records of their past life, according to Roy Harland, editor of the Wallulah. If this has not been accomplished by that date it will be taken for granted that there is no information to be had.

All pictures must be taken by Christmas if they are to appear in the Wallulah. If they are not taken by then there will be no other opportunity for individual pictures in this year's book, says the editor.

The contract for the cover of the Wallulah has not as yet been given out, but negotiations are now being carried on with a reliable firm.

PROFESSOR RAHE WORKS ON DEBATE SCHEDULE

The official questions for the Pacific Forensic League have not been decided; however, it is the opinion of Professor Rahe that some phase of the disarmament question will be used this year.

The schedules upon which they are now working will be completed within two or three weeks, and he urges all those who are interested to see him. It is likely that a few debates will be held on the campus.

Ruch, Guard

Whose fighting game at guard in the Whitman clash climaxed similar performances in his four years of football at Willamette.
Opponent backs meet real opposition when they attempt a play through his position. He's right there!

ECONOMICS GROUP'S COURSES TO EXPAND

Professor Jones Hopes To Include Accounting, Finance and Others

A notable expansion in the economies department is promised by Professor Jones. A plan to increase the number of courses during this semester has been abandoned, but a full two-semester course will be given next year in several classes.

It is planned to expand the economies major as soon as possible.
The purpose of the course will be to help students in becoming socialized business men. The new classes proposed are economics,
history, accounting, business law,
statistics, mathematics of finance,
investments, and others.

It is hoped that the addition will make Willamette's economic courses outstanding among small northwest colleges, and acceptable to modern business.

RUMOR OF GAME WITH OCCIDENTAL IS UNTRUE

Definite announcement that the rumored game with Occidental college of California for the championship of the Pacific coast
"minor" conferences will not be played was made public Friday, and Coach Keene will turn his attention to basketball.

The general understanding was that Willamette would play Occidental by virtue of its victory at Walla Walla Thanksgiving day.
Tentative arrangements for a game had been made between the California school and Whitman, but when the Bearcats won the conference title it was thought that they would naturally fall back to the right to play Occidental.

Fraternities Will Hold Open House

Fraternity open house will be the center of social interest this Saturday evening to all students and fellow-townsmen. Sigma Tau will open their house from 7:30 to 8:30; Kappa Gamma Rho from 8:00 to 9:00; and Alpha Psi Delto from 9:30 to 9:30. Everyone welcome.

Window Decorations Reveal Hope
Of Whitman to Roast Bearcats on Fires of Fury During Homecoming

A small boiler factory of noise, in the form of 100 loyal members of our student body, landed in Walla Walla Thanksgiving morning, and, by means of a serpentine, proceeded to inform the natives that they represented W-ll-a-m-e-t-t-e. From the depot, the serpentine wriggled its way through the business section of the city until it reached the Grand hotel where, after several minutes of organized racket in the lobby and dining rooms, they disbanded into small groups which went on quests of their own.

It is the custom of Walla Walla business houses, during Whit-man's homecoming, to decorate their display windows with some scene which to them complies with the occasion. While wandering or sightseeing about the town, the excursionists discovered several very clever scenes representing the return of old grads to their Almer Mater. One window in particular contained a miniature of the Whitman campus with dolls two inches high dressed according to the styles of the various graduating generations, marching toward their beloved college. Other scenes, however, in an attempt to be mocking, were pathetic. Whitman, like Willamette, selects a homecoming slogan which, this year, was "Roast The Bearcats." A skinned rabbit, roasting on the spit was one interpretation of the slogan. The window of one business firm contained a miniature football squad ornamented with the crosses, "Spec" blew his trumpet and, much to the dismay of the Whitman boosters, a reur-rection took place. Another window contained a pack of dogs, named after the various Whitman football players, which was chasing a cat, representing "Us," up a tree. Willamette climbed a tree all right, but she climbed it with the bacon firmly clasped in her jaws.

MEN LAW STUDENTS CONDUCT CLASSES

During Professor Hewitt's absence, juniors and seniors in Law have had opportunity to prove their teaching ability. William Linfoot has been teaching "Blackstone;" Clarence Emmons, Hestine Hollister and James Green,
"Real Property;" Ralph Campbell, "Conflict of Laws;" and Roy McConry, "Water Rights." Professors Lockenour and Jones are teaching "Modern Industrial Cases" this week while the Dean is away.

MANY FRESHMEN STILL ARE WITHOUT PICTURES

There are still 25 freshmen who have not had their pictures taken for the Wallulah. If they want to have their pictures in the year book, they must get them taken at the Kennell-Hills studio before the Christmas vacation. This means that there are only two weeks left.

WILLAMETTE N. W. GRIDIRON CHAMPION

Prospects for Next Year Good
—Only Three Regulars Lost
—Seven Games Played.

On Thanksgiving day Willamette University football team ended the most successful football season in the history of the school.
For the first time, since athletic relations were established with Whitman, she defeated her traditional rival, and won the Northwest Conference Championship.

Willamette played a total of seven games. Three were non-conference games, and four games were played with the Northwest Conference teams. She scored an average of sixteen points against twenty-five points of her opponents in the non-conference games,
winning one from Albany College, and losing to Oregon State and University of Oregon. In the conference Willamette made a wonderful record. She scored an average of forty-two points against three points of her opponents. In the games with Linfield, Pacific and College of Idaho she held her rivals scoreless. Whitman showed her superiority over other conference teams by crossing the Willamette goal for thirteen points, but she could not stop the Bearcat offensive.

The prospects for another championship team are bright, though the team will suffer the loss of several good men. The backfield will miss Cranor who was a valuable passer, and French, the little halfback, who made the Whitmanites dizzy when he began catching passes in Willamette's great aerial attack.
Ruch, a guard, will leave a vacancy in the line.

WILLAMETTE CUBS MAY JOIN KNIGHTS

The Cubs of Willamette University are endeavoring to affiliate with the national organization, known as the Knights. Oregon and Oregon State both have this organization on their campus, which at O. S. C. is known as the Beaver Knights.

In spite of the fact that this organization is limited to non-denominational schools which have a student body of at least 1200, prospects for Willamette are encouraging. Wilbur Hendrix, national first vice-president, who attends the university of Washington, is at present corresponding with "Chuck" Campbell, and has informed him that he will visit this campus in March on his way to the national convention held in Utah.

If Mr. Hendrix is favorably impressed upon visiting our campus, the school will have in him a personal representative at the national convention, and the Cubs will have a very good chance to become a chapter of the national organization of Knights.

Among other things, the Cubs will soon check up on "Bibles."
The President wishes it to be known that the Cubs are still "up and at 'em," so Freshmen beware. The President also announces that there will be a line party in the near future, and that the details will be taken up at the next meeting, December 5.

Cranor, Half

Also played his last game after four years under Spec Keene. His accurate arm heaved passes that kept Whitman in a daze most of the game, and his running had them worried considerably. It's men like Cranor that we hate to lose.

GRID TEAM FETED BY BUSINESS MEN

Chamber of Commerce Hosts
At a Banquet in Marion Hotel; 100 Present.

The football team and coaches were honored with a banquet at the Hotel Marion Tuesday evening. Over a hundred persons were present.

Will Phillips presided as toastmaster. A program full of enthusiasm and expressions of appreciation for the team, the coaches, and the institution was presented. The Misses Findley, Miller, and Middleton gave some song numbers as introductory entertainment. The individual members of the team and the coaches were introduced. A letter from Governor Patterson was read.

Those who responded to the toasts were Secretary Hal Hess for the state; Mayor T. A. Livesley for the city; B. E. Sisson for the chamber of commerce; Dr.
Carl Gregg Doney for the university; Professor Jones for the faculty; Sheldon F. Sackett for the alumni; Garlie Cranor and Paul Ackerman for the football squad;
Hollis Huntington as a representative of Salem high school, which has furnished many men to the team. Spec Keene was also called on. He urged a better support of the team from the business men of Salem.

LAW STUDENTS TO HOLD MOOT COURT

The first moot court of the year
is to meet this week on Friday, December 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the moot court rooms. The case is John Worth, plaintiff, versus William Sharpe and Oscar Shrewd, defendants. John Worth is bringing action to recover the sum of $500 on a promissory note with interest and attorney fees. The attorneys for the plaintiff are Jim Brawley, Carl Corey, and Yvonne Cornell, while the attorneys for the defendants are Kenneth Denman, Arthur Knox, and Edward Stadter.

The defendants are non-residents of this state and have property within this state. In order to obtain jurisdiction of the defendants that the plaintiff may obtain a judgment against them, it is necessary for the plaintiff to attach the property within this state owned by the defendants.

Further, in order to obtain jurisdiction, it was necessary for the plaintiff to obtain an order from the court for publication of summons. This was done by a motion to the court accompanied by an affidavit. The attorneys for the plaintiff must prepare this motion and the affidavit, the order for publication, and the summons as published, all of which requires a large degree of careful work and ability, as the statutes involved are very technical.

The defendants have entered a motion to quash the summons, so it will be their duty to show that the attorneys for the plaintiff have failed in some material matter to properly draw these various documents.

COLLEGIANS BRING $11.50

At the Whip Whitman banquet
the special edition of the Collegian was sold for five cents. The sale was a supplement of the tag sale.
When the sale closed Wednesday afternoon the circulation department had taken in $11.50.

CHRISTMA CAROL PROGRAM IS NEW

Two Glee Clubs Will Present
Concert December 19. Old Carols to Be Sung.

On December 19 a Christmas Carol Concert will be given at Waller Hall by the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, under the direction of Professor Gaw. The program will consist of the singing of the older carols.

Earlier in the evening various selections will be played by the University Orchestra. This entertainment is to be the only special Christmas program given on the campus, and will be open to the public.

Famous Relics in Museum Put Here
By Minister's Wife

Among the latest collection for the Willamette museum which was received last Friday from Mrs. A. N. Fisher of Portland, was a carved alabaster face rescued from Egyptian building ruins, a sword woven of Chinese money, and an ancient sheepskin scroll of the Book of Ruth written in Hebrew.

This collection consists of about 30 pieces collected from all over the world. The Rev. A. N. Fisher, the collector, died a few years ago after having made several trips around the world. Most of the pieces are from either China, Japan, Asia Minor, or the Hawa-ian Islands, where he had charge of the Japanese work under the Methodist Episcopal church for a number of years. Professor W.
W. Clark made a trip to Portland Friday to bring this collection to our museum.

R. R. HEWITT SPEAKS FOR LAW SCHOOL

To further the interests of Willamette's law school, Dean Hewitt is making a lecture tour of the state. This week he intends to speak in La Grande, Pendleton,
The Dalles, and Baker, Oregon.
Next week he will visit in southern Oregon, speaking on programs sponsored by the Elks, Lions, and Rotary clubs in various towns.
He left by train Monday and will return on Friday of this week.

The purposes of the Dean's trip are many. A few of them are:
to augment outside interest in the school, to draw prospective students, and to increase the law school library.

BLUE KEY TO BUILD
MILL STREAM SPAN

That the Blue Key fraternity will take charge of the reconstruction of the mill stream bridge was the decision of the group at its last meeting. A committee to submit plans for the project and to secure bids was appointed by the president.

A report of the committee appointed some time ago to foster relations between Willamette and Pacific universities was heard.
The organization also agreed to pay the expenses of the printing of the "Whip Whitman" bills which were printed for the Thanksgiving game, but which were not used.

ARCHERY CLASSES ARE SUCCESSFUL

Willamette's newest activity, archery, has met with such approval that two new classes have been added to the original schedule.

Classes are held both indoor and out as the weather permits.
So far there has been about fifty girls in the classes, each girl practicing two hours a week.

WHAT HAPPENED AT WHITMAN

The excursion to Walla Walla, the radio broadcast of the game, and our splendid victory over Whitman has done more toward letting Willamette's name be known over the whole northwest than anything that has happened for years. A debate squad could not have done what the football men did. A glee club, however gifted, could never have brought to their feet the crowds that came to the game eager and excited, and left it happy, tired, and hoarse. Never, except at a football game, has there been such a tumultuous spirit, wholesome at the same time, nor such a positive unity of students working together, nor such yells, which rumbled and shook the very stands. A newspaperman, bearing the Bearcats yell, exclaimed that the one hundred Willamette rooters made more noise than all the Whitman student body and alumni.

And the team, down on the field, fought as they had never fought before, to bring the Northwest Championship home to Willamette. And old man jinx covered up his face with his hands and fell dead with a great smack, just as the stands were rattling with the Whale Whitman yell. That is what happened at Whitman.

But more than that happened. It was not one game, but a whole season squeezed into the short hour and a half of that Thanksgiving afternoon. It was a victory typifying every other victory ever won by Willamette. It was a game typical of Willamette itself, a clean game, a hard game, the best argument in the world to favor college football. And it was a game that will be difficult to forget, and for many a day we shall remember momentarily, and pause for a minute to smile over it.

Doubtless we shall all heed "Spec's" advice, and return to the strain of our books; but the spirit of the game, once raised, is hard to down. We are proud of the team; we are proud of the coach; we are proud of our showing at Walla Walla. We have Whaled Whitman.

TRUE SCHOLARSHIP

The thread-bare scholar of Chaucer may not have vanished entirely, but the dearth of him in modern universities is obvious enough to cause a judicious doubt as to his existence. The pale, gaunt, and pitiable figure, who was so much in love with his work, is gone. His place is taken by the athlete, by the student leader, and by the half-hearted knowledge seeker of today. Where is the student who forgets his dinner, captivated by some new discovery in Homer? who carries his text and note-book with him to the skating party? and who, indeed, misses the party for some reason other than pure timidity? It will be odd if you find him in a university.

Even faculties no longer look with favor on the relentless scholar. They no longer approve of neglecting the body to over-work the mind. They see the value of the physical stamina built by football. In some instances the admiration of sport has counter-balanced and outweighed all other aims, placing scholarship in an inferior position. In other instances the desire for a good time has meant the downfall of scholarship. Both are unhealthy extremes.

The modern theory of education is four-fold development. This is a plausible theory, but it has one defect. If every student would engage in athletics, if every student would study hard, with some purpose in his studying, if every student would accord wholeheartedly to the social program of the campus, and if every student would interest himself in some religious pursuit, there would be no problem. But instead, the average student limits himself to one of these points, at the expense of falling short in the other three. The ideal student is he who can make a normal balance of every phase of college life, and who is at the same time honest and sincere in his work, and fascinated by it.

It is easy to add, then, that true scholarship is, more than mere garnering of facts, a development of fact and experience into daily practice. The college course is lost if it does not teach us to live honestly with other people.

WE ARE GRATEFUL

The freshman class is grateful for the generosity of the Collegian editors which led them to grant us for one week the privilege of issuing this paper. And what a privilege it has been! We have seen the inside picture of a newspaper. We have published an issue which we can feel is almost wholly our own. We have sweated over headlines, and come to fear the final deadline hour.

And we are inclined to believe there was a purpose in letting us taste of this work. It will be many a day before we can say, as we see the editor lean back in his easy chair, "What a comfortable job he has!" In time to come, when it may be our chance to be interviewed by some cub reporter, we shall be less reticent about ourselves, remembering what a time we had to get many of our upper-class "subjects" to talk. And if we are fortunate enough to secure regular positions with the Collegian staff, we shall recollect that merely being tired is not a sufficient excuse for going to bed.

The usual editors, who are now resting, pass us with smiles on their faces; for they know we are just learning that honors are worthless which come without effort.

At any rate, we had something to be thankful for this year.

We Whaled Whitman.

LOST Along the Way

By the Wayfarers

All aboard for the big game with Whitman!

Willamette's Mardi Gras on wheels started from Lausanne Hall at 10:30 Wednesday night. Horns honked, whistles whistled, rattles rattled, and confetti confettied until the train looked and sounded like a combined advertisement for Oscar Steinhilber's band and Rodgers Paper company.

Somebody said that three's a crowd, but whoever originated that never went on an excursion.

Lost: Two "would-be-excursionists." Misplaced between Lausanne Hall and Twelfth street. Reward.

Even Einstein, the prominent Spaniard, wouldn't be able to figure out how the excursionists escaped indignation or what have you? Our miscellaneous menu consisted of: bars, Wrigley's, peanuts, (no popcorn), cheese and ham sandwiches, soda pop (all flavors), Pasco doughnuts, apples and bananas, all-the-way suckers, et cetera, and many other things.

Speaking of feather beds! We had them. Came four o'clock, and all was not well. Some fresh air fanatic had turned on the electric fans and the temperature was below zero and sinking rapidly.

The Hungering Herd descended upon unsuspecting Pasco and demanded breakfast but hard doughnuts, poor service, and soupy coffee turned the Hungering Herd into a Thundering Herd.

Ronald Hewitt was the big man on this trip.

We didn't know Willamette had so many musicians until we listened to them from Salem to Walla Walla and from Walla Walla to Salem. Some sang tenor, some alto, some bass, some awful, and some sang—well, just sang.

We serpentine through the streets of Walla Walla with all colors flying, and gave old Walla Walla a taste of our Willamette spirit.

Both teams pranced onto the field with high spirits and plenty first half, however, our team had of confidence. By the end of the "Walloved" them until their name might have been "Wallored Walla."

It would have put a pugilist to shame to see the way Professors Jones and Leamer pounded each other every time Willamette carried the pigskin over the line for another touchdown.

The revival meeting conducted by Reverend French, was "touching" to say the least.

A conductor coming through the darkened car with a lantern thought he was insulted when someone asked him if he were Diogenes. Now I ask you?

Bill Mumford was kind enough to try to keep the slumbering boys in a local atmosphere by administering smelling salts so that they would not miss our burnt sulphur a la Paper Mill.

Altogether now—Three cheers for our chaparones!

SAM BOWE tenderly placing a blanket over a Scotch maiden... Professor JONES sleeping... "MIKE" FITZPATRICK defeating Coach SPARKS in a game of Rook... BILL MUMFORD, HIRAM FRENCH, and JIM NUTTER playing "ring around the rosey" on station platform... HUGH CURRIN selling hats... "MIDGE" MILLER singing songs... MARY ALLEN being made up... Tired but extremely happy excursionists steamed into ye olde home town about 3:30 Friday morning.

And so to bed—What! What! What!

Wives of football men turn out 100 per cent when it comes to accompanying their husbands on excursions. Those who went to Walla Walla were the Mesdames Willard Ruch, Walter Erickson, Ted Lang, Garrie Cranor, Eugene Ferguson, Jesse Deetz and Charles Gill.

Willamette Writers

GOSSIP ON THE CAMPUS

Gossip on the Willamette campus is worse than in a community of old maids where the Ladies Aid is the basis of society. The men, as well as the women, talk. We surely pity the poor girls who have been recent "dates," when the men get confidential over the dinner dishes. Usually the half told is the better half. They talk about the "pills" they drew on their last blind dates, exclaim to the whole fraternity over the girls' too childish manners, and wonder why they can't find a girl to suit them. The confessed fraternity man forgets that his nose is crooked, or his ears stand out too far. He never thinks about the lemon that the poor girl had to entertain. However, if the men would limit their gossip to their own organization, it would not spread very far; but they gossip to every other man on the campus. In fact a man often ruins a girl's reputation with the males of the campus in the course of a few days. The reformer who says all scandal should be edited doesn't know the present price of print paper.

But, sorry as I am to admit it, the women gossip too. Sororities and dishes are made use of in much the same way as fraternities and wishes. As the "Philadelphia Inquirer" states it, "Women take the place of newboys in Spain, and here, too, in certain social circles of the community." But women's gossip does not much hurt a man; it hurts the rest of the women. The gossipier does not seem to realize that the best way to keep one's friends is not to give them away. The gossipier delights in revealing a person's past, although she is often sincere in trying to forget it. The trouble with the skeleton in a closet is that it does not have enough sense to stay there. People do not control their tongues, and we are forced to the conclusion that, when students get to talking to, instead of about, each other, we shall be able to expect a better university.

College Cavemen at Denver Shave; Old Ford Ruffed Off

The University of Denver recently held a non-shave campaign, refusing to shave until their football team chalked up a victory. The "Shavivictory" club was disbanded last week when the Denver school defeated Utah State 13-0.

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash.—(PIP)—Last week Holmgren, football captain for the last two seasons and four year letterman, received an official invitation to be one of the West's representatives in the annual East-West game to be played at Kozar Stadium in San Francisco on Christmas day. Holmgren has made quite a name for himself up and down the coast, and was recently highly commended by George Varnell, eminent sports writer and referee.

Washington State College, Pullman, Wash.—There's more than one way to get rid of a collegiate Ford when the chill blasts of winter descend on the campus.

Frank Mortimer and Herbert Nelson, freshman students from Seattle, have figured out a way to get a new home for their $20 Lizie. Christmas is coming; money is needed, and aside from that an open car in winter is not so comfortable, the W. S. C. boys believe. Accordingly, they are selling sticks of gum to all who buy. Included with each stick is a number, and the lucky one will draw the prize—namely the Mortimer-Nelson 1918 Ford touring. Gum chewing is becoming a popular indoor sport since the announcement of the two car owners, and indication are that the stock will soon be exhausted and the winner determined.

The University of Montana has discontinued using a box for absence slips. Instead students having excuses must appear before an absence committee which meets once a week.

Fifty seven students are playing in the U. of O. orchestra this year. A concert will be given in the near future at the school of music auditorium.

SPIRIT EVER PRESENT IN SPIRIT OF NUMBERS

According to Donnel Sanders, the pep rallies before the Whitman massacre were rather lacking in numbers but not in spirit. On Thursday approximately 100 students turned out and on the following Tuesday only 50 put in an appearance. The team, however, appreciated the show of enthusiasm, and are vigorous in their support of Spec's suggestion that the daily pep rallies are a success in Willamette as in larger schools.

VOTE APPRECIATION TO BOLT, SPARKS

There was a meeting of the Executive Committee after chapel on Tuesday, December 3. The date for the next student body meeting was set for Friday, December 13, 1929. A committee was also appointed to decide whether the graduating football players should receive bill folds. Those would entitle them to enter any Willamette games.

A vote was taken to express appreciation to Miss Margaret Bolt, vice-president of the student body, and Leslie J. Sparks, graduate manager, for their splendid work in putting over the banquet and excursion.

WESLEYANS LISTEN TO PROF. HERMAN CLARK

"What is the true significance of Christmas?" was the question Professor W. W. Clark left with the Wesleyans Wednesday noon in informal speech. He brought out the paganistic customs and lack of true spirit in our present celebration of Christmas.

The Wesleyans will hold their regular meeting and lunch next Wednesday noon.

NEW BOOKS

The library has received many interesting books the past week. The "Service Monographs of the United States Government", published by the Brookings Institute, are very good authority on all branches of the government. C. P. Howland's "Survey of American Foreign Relations" is a very comprehensive book. There are also several old standard works which have not been in the library before, including Ricardo's "Political Economy", and Bastiat's "Economic Sophisms." List's "National System of Political Economy" is a new book in this week.

H. J. Massingham's "Downland Man" is an illustrated work in anthropology, and very worthwhile reading. Two new books in the field of science are Lotka's "Elements of Physical Biology," and Vernon Bailey's "Animal Life of the Caribad Cavern." The 1928 report of the Smithsonian Institute has just been received, and has the most up-to-date material on every field of science.

Doris Stevens' "Jailed for Freedom" is a book on woman suffrage, and was a gift from the National Women's Party. Haardt "The Black Journey", an account and Louis Audouin-Dubreuil wrote of crossing Central Africa. Two very good biographies are Russell's "Emerson—the Wisest Man", and Chidsey's "Marlborough."

YEARS AGO

FIVE YEARS AGO

In looking over the Collegians for the year 1924, we find that the freshman class put out their annual publication December 17, editor-in-chief being John Heetzel and Charles Nunn the business manager.

In an editorial written "To the freshmen" by one of the faculty, they were advised to always do their very best, to go out for athletics, debate, oratory, and newspaper work, and to put their whole soul into fulfilling the hopes of their fathers and mothers.

Preacher (climbing to oratorical heights): "Breathless and pantless he dashed into the city for refuge."

TEN YEARS AGO

November 5, 1919, the Collegian was put out by Editor Paul H. Doney and his staff of freshman members.

The pep of the Willamette students was running high during that time as everyone was looking forward to the big football game with Pacific university. The paper was full of the slogan "Pulverize Pacific."

Great oaks from little acorns grow.
Great roars from little statesmen flow.
Great tragedies occur you know
'Cause she said "Yes" instead of "No."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

In 1914 the freshman class published their annual edition of the Collegian with Harold Eakin as class editor and Alpheus Gillette as business manager.

Rev. Hixon of the senior class had a novel experience in the way of weddings Tuesday noon when he journeyed to the top of the dome of the state house and performed the ceremony for Daniel N. Foster and Violet Brown, of Dallas, Oregon.

The freshman won the annual tug-of-war from the sophomore class, giving them one of the best duckings they ever had.

Between dinner and dessert the first announcement of the Willamette-Whitman game was made, at which time the score was 13-7 in favor of Willamette. This report was received with joyous hand-clapping and cheering. After dessert the guests went to various homes to listen to the broadcast of the game.

Following the regular meeting of the W. A. A. Tuesday afternoon, December 3, in the Y. W. room a kitchen shower was given complimenting Mrs. Mildred Emmons (Mildred Pugh). The affair was a surprise feature and was completed with an informal social hour.

Chapel Wedding At Kimball

Miss Anna Marie Dunlavy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dunlavy of Brooks, Oregon, became the bride of D. George Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cole of Oroville, California, at a simple wedding service held Wednesday morning at eleven thirty in the Kimball Chapel.

Dr. T. H. Temple, Superintendent of Salem District, Oregon Conference, presided at the ceremony. He was assisted by John Martin Canse, President, and John Dale McCormick, Dean of Kimball.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Valda Mae Judd of Molalla. Little Cleo Romp was the ring bearer. Rev. Henry Ernst was best man. Ushers were Rev. Wilmer A. Briggs, Rev. Eugene C. Schieve, and Gordon Wiley.

Ferns, greenery and flowers decorated the chapel in an autumn effect.

Mrs. Malcolm Romp sang "At Dawning," and was accompanied at the piano by Miss Mildred Gehle. Rev. Henry C. Warner played Lohengrin's "Wedding March." At the close of the ceremony Mrs. T. H. Temple, accompanied by Mrs. S. D. Johnson, sang "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Cole is a special student in music at Willamette University. Mr. Cole attends Kimball School of Theology and has a pastorate in the Jefferson Methodist Episcopal church. Church and school activities prevent a wedding trip at the present, but an extended trip into California is being planned for the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Cole will make their home in Jefferson, and will drive to and from their classes.

Former Willamette Coeds Are Hostesses

The Misses Mary and Helen Kafoury, former Willamette students, were hostesses at a formal tea at the Kafoury home on North Summer street, Friday afternoon between the hours of three and five-thirty o'clock. Chrysanthemums combined with green foliage made very attractive decorations for the guest rooms and for the serving table where Miss Rovenia Byre and Miss Vivian Elker poured the first hour and Miss Julia Query and Miss Florence Emmons presided the next hour.

Those who assisted about the rooms were Miss Bertha Babcock, Mrs. Mildred Emmons, Miss Mary Louise Morley, and Miss Florence Emmons. Ian Melver Elected as Head of Sigma Tau; Campbell is New Secretary.

At a regular meeting of the Sigma Tau fraternity on November 21, William Mumford resigned as president of the fraternity because of his many other duties. Ian Melver, a senior law student was elected to fill this office for the remainder of the year.

At a special meeting December 2, Stanley Satchwell handed in his resignation as secretary and Charles Campbell was chosen to fill his place.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB HEARS MISS SCOTT

The Shakespeare Club met at the Willamette lodge Tuesday evening. The main feature of the meeting was the acting of the first and second acts of the play, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," in which about 15 of the members took part. A special feature was a vocal solo, selected from the play, by Miss Lillian Scott.

Refreshments were served later in the evening with Miss Irma Green and Mr. Joseph Silver as hosts. There were 26 members present at this meeting. The club is growing larger and larger in numbers and in enthusiasm.

BEARCATS PLAYED FINE GAME SAYS BORLESKE

Desiring new and different material concerning the football game between the Bearcats and the Missionaries, a freshman girl decided to obtain the private opinion of "Nig" Borleske. It was with much fear and trembling that she went to the telephone and asked to speak to Mr. Borleske. After she had made her business known to him, his curt manner of speech turned to one of friendliness and courtesy.

He said, "Although many people do not think that Whitman played her best, I feel sure that she played one of the best defensive games I have ever witnessed. As for Willamette—well, the Bearcats' game was indeed spectacular and marvelous. French, Lang and Erickson were wonderful. I have never before seen such accuracy and skill displayed by college football men."

ROOK AND SENIOR BILLS DO NOT MEET APPROVAL

At the Freshman class meeting on Wednesday, December 4th, a report was presented concerning Freshman numerals, but was rejected by the class. The committee on watch fobs also reported, and stated that they were ready to take orders from the students. An announcement was made by Ronald Hewitt that inter-class debate will be an event of the near future. A motion was made that the class honor a bill for $34 for excursion expenses, but the motion was lost. A similar motion made in the Senior class meeting was tabled.

FABER HEARS GAME BY RADIO; BASHOR THERE

Donald Faber, the Willamette man who had a leg broken during the Albany-Willamette game, is getting along very well, according to the latest reports from those who have visited him at the Salem General hospital.

His injured leg was not knitting properly and had to be reset, after which a new cast was put on it. He will not be up again for two or three weeks at the earliest.

Faber enjoyed the Whitman game by a radio which "Spec" Keene obtained for him, and he had a great deal of company.

Bashor, who received a broken collar bone during a practice game, attended the game at Walla Walla. Although his shoulder is still in splints, he is doing very well.

days. Miss Thorne has done considerable radio singing in Portland and is studying music, vocal and instrumental, at Pacific.

ORIENT LECTURES WILL END SUNDAY

Pilgrim Players Present Drama; Leagues to Begin Weekly Meetings Together.

The last of a series of six lectures on the Orient will be given by Professor Roy M. Lockenour on Sunday evening at 6:30 in the Mill street Methodist church. The subject of this last lecture will be "Japan," and Prof. Lockenour promises it will be one of the best. All students are cordially invited.

On Sunday, November 24th, the Pilgrim Players presented the religious drama "St. Claudia," at Leslie Methodist church. The play was well received and well attended, in spite of the fact that it had been given the night before at another local church.

Thursday, December 5th, Leslie League and Asbury League will hold a joint pot-luck supper at six o'clock. This will precede the first Thursday Night Discussion Group to be held this year. These discussions were enjoyed very much last winter and it is hoped that they will be even more beneficial this year. All students are urged to attend.

CANSE MEETS WITH KIMBALL TRUSTEES

President J. M. Canse was in Portland November 27 to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees of Kimball School of Theology. This was the regular fall meeting of the trustees and plans were outlined for a financial campaign in Salem early in December. February second was set as Kimball Budget Day in all the churches of the northwest.

WHITMAN TAG SALE VERY SUCCESSFUL

The Whale Whitman tag sale was exceedingly successful in its aim toward helping the financial situation of the excursion. Over $60 was taken in on this first tag sale experiment, proving the project a well-supported scheme. This method of raising money for a trip has not been customary at Willamette, but since this excursion it was necessary to turn to the students as a whole for financial aid. All the tags were sold on the campus, and had more help been needed it is evident that the venture would have had the earnest support of the townspeople.

WHIP WHITMAN DINNER BRINGS OUT MUCH PEP

Pep Songs and Yells, Speeches, and Musical Numbers Make Pep Banquet Success.

Over 325 enthusiastic students, townspeople, and members of the faculty met for a banquet in the dining room of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, November 26th, to celebrate the successes of the football season, and to express their support of the team for the game with Whitman college on Thursday.

During the banquet college songs were sung and immediately following, a program of short talks and musical numbers was presented. William Mumford, president of the student body, acted as toastmaster and introduced the speakers, who were William Phillips, Dean Roy Hewitt, Professor W. C. Jones, President Doney, Coach Keene, and graduate Manager Sparks.

President Doney, in introducing Coach Keene, spoke highly of his work during his years at Willamette, and expressed confidence in the team's ability to bring home the championship. Professor Jones, chief speaker of the evening, spoke enthusiastically of the development of spirit and pep among the students and commended their loyal support of the team.

The program of the evening included several musical numbers by the Delta Phi Trio, which consists of Edith Findley, Marjorie Miller, and Mary Allen. Announcement was also made that the Portland Alumni were sponsoring a broadcast of the game over KEX.

DALETH TETH GIMEL PLAN QUESTION BOX

Waffles Help Friendships of Town and Hall Women; Waffle Iron Prize.

The Daleth Teth Gimel held a meeting the 25th of November at Lausanne Hall. The roll was called and Roberta Vannice gave an interesting talk on etiquette. Plans were completed for a question box, where each girl has the privilege of submitting questions concerning etiquette. Elsie Allen will be in charge of this undertaking.

During this meeting it was decided that materials for making waffles shall be furnished by the organization; the Daleth Teth Gimel won a waffle-iron as a prize for selling the most May-Day breakfast tickets last year. The waffle materials may be used as often as the girls like if there are as many town-girls in the party as there are hall-girls. This will foster a closer relationship between the two groups of girls which compose the organization.

FRAT COUNCIL MET AT KAPPA HOUSE

The Inter-Fraternity Council met on Tuesday evening at the Kappa Gamma Rho Fraternity. Harold Tomlinson reported that 200 programs for the Fraternity Open House were being printed.

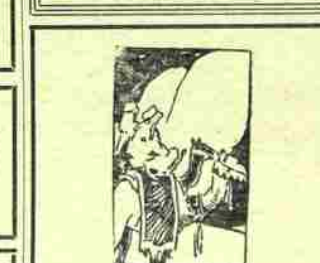

A motion was passed that programs be sent to the members of the faculty and members of the Board of Trustees in Salem and vicinity. A suggestion was made that the Press be informed about Open House and another suggestion was also made that a person from the council be appointed to keep in touch with the press concerning fraternity functions. Harold Tomlinson was appointed. Frank VanDyke was appointed to inform Dean Dahl that the fraternities have changed the date for the fraternity parties to Friday the thirteenth of December.

The next meeting will be held at the Sigma Tau Fraternity on January 1, 1930.

VARSITY HOOPMEN START PRACTICING

Missionaries and Loggers Will Offer Major Opposition in Coming Season

GUARDS BADLY NEEDED

One and Two-year Lettermen Expected to Make Nucleus
of Champion Team

Determined to go after another conference title in basketball the varsity hoop squad turned out for its first practice yesterday. Last year Willamette had a clear claim to the championship on a percentage basis, but Whitman complicated things by scheduling two games with Linfield and claiming a tie with the Bearcats. This year it is believed that no games will be allowed to be scheduled after the conference meeting has completed the season's list.

It looks as though Whitman will be Willamette's main opponent on the court again this year, although the College of Puget Sound offered some stiff competition last year and the Loggers may put in a strong bid for honors. So early in the season, however, it is difficult to get straight dope on the other conference schools, and almost anything may happen.

The graduation of Flesher and Ledbetter, guards, and Litchfield, forward, leaves a gap in the Bearcat lineup that will not be too easy to fill. All were dependable men, and Keene banked considerably on them, especially the guards, Cardinal, Scales, Adams, and Hawk are left from last year's championship team, but a good defensive guard is needed to fill Flesher's shoes. Gibson, the only other letterman, will probably be called on for that job as things look now.

With Cardinal an all-conference man for two years at center, Keene should find little to worry him in that position. Engbreten, who graduated from the rook squad last year will probably be Cardinal's understudy, and Steelhammer, who also played some last year, may get a chance in the pivot position.

At forward Spec has Dwight Adams and George Scales, a clever pair on the court, to form a major part of his offense. Both stood high in conference scoring last season, and when they work together opponents find difficulty in stopping them. Adams is a former Salem high man, while Scales was one of the reasons for Washington high's state championship team two years ago.

Hawk is the only guard left from last year who played regularly, and as he was more of a running guard, a strong defensive man will have to be developed before the games start. Whether or not Gibson can fill the position remains to be seen. In his starts last season he showed plenty of promise and at present he is the only logical man for the place.

In addition to the lettermen, Coach Keene will have several football men and recruits from the rook squad of last year. The freshmen may even develop a man or two that can qualify for varsity material, so a scarcity of men is not impending.

SOPH GRILS' SQUAD WINS HOOP HONORS

Three Day Tournament Shows
Spirit of Team; Rooks
Tie Seniors for Third.

The sophomore girls' basketball team was victorious in the annual interclass tournament which started Friday afternoon, November 22.

The championship game was between the sophomores and juniors. The sophomores, with Muriel White as captain, put out a well-organized team and throughout the tournament they exhibited superior team work. The junior team was not so well organized but had some outstanding players.

In all games the seniors and freshmen displayed fine sportsmanship, even though they were behind. The freshmen team had excellent material but needed coaching and practice. No game lacked excitement and the women are already planning for next year.

The scores were as follows: Friday, November 22: sophomores 25, freshmen 11; juniors 14, seniors 12; Monday, November 25: sophomores 16, seniors 6; juniors 25, freshmen 13; Tuesday, November 26: freshmen 9; seniors 9 (three overtime periods); sophomores 23, juniors 17.

Willamette's speedy women cagers would find it hard to play basketball in the costume of their mothers, pictured above.

Sportorials

Three cheers for Willamette pep, which Coach Keene says put the fight into his team, which put the skids under the Missionaries, which broke the old hoodoo, which gave W. U. its first conference title, and which makes us proud to say that we go to classes and chapel at one of the best, if not THE best school in the U. S. A. And incidentally we'd like to meet the editorial writer of the Oregonian who says that students in a Methodist institution can't be collegiate.

Maybe students who went on the excursion to Walla Walla didn't act collegiate, but we'll venture to opine that regular collegians wouldn't have acted any peculiarly about our bunch did. If someone would kindly give us a real definition of the word perhaps we'd get straightened out so we could forgive that writer.

While we're at it we might as well make a regular rooting section out of this column. We'll have to give three cheers for the quintet composed of Kaufman, McGilvra, et al, who sang over KEX during the half of the big game. Honestly we nearly busted a window and the chairs we sat on while they were singing "Queen of the West". "True to Your Spirit" and the others. Too bad the boys in the dressing room couldn't have had a loudspeaker with them—but they probably did.

Next on the program should be the picking of a Northwest conference team, but we have no inclinations to be a martyr to such a cause. We'd like to mention the whole Bearcat team of ours, but that child of our brain will forever remain a secret if we can keep it to ourselves.

We will say that Jones, French and Erickson were unanimous choices, however. Put them with Applegate, Holmgren, our own Carpenter, Ackerman and a few other conference stars and you'd have our team.

Toodle-oo.

Willamette received but failed to gain and was forced to punt. Three plays gained Whitman a first down, but on the next Reese was thrown for a seven yard loss by Cardinal. With a half yard to go Holmgren kicked out of bounds and Willamette took the ball again. Straight football gained a first down, and Erickson advanced the ball five yards to Whitman's 35. A pass, Engbreten to Cranor, accounted for the first touchdown about six minutes after the opening gun. Erickson converted.

Whitman received but punted after a pass failed. Cranor, Erickson, and Lang gained two more first downs, but Willamette was forced to kick when a pass was knocked down. The ball went out of bounds on the one yard line and Holmgren got off a beautiful 65 yard kick from behind his goal line, and it was Willamette's ball. On a lateral pass Cranor made eight yards, but a 15 yard penalty for holding forced the Bearcats to punt. Whitman failed to get a first down and Holmgren kicked. Erickson was thrown for a 10 yard loss on the next play and on third down Willamette kicked to its own 47. On Whitman's second play Reese skirted an end for a 23 yard gain, just as the first period ended. First down in three plays by Armstrong and Reese, and then a pass, Applegate to Council, scored the first Whitman tally. Holmgren scored the extra point making the score 7 to 7.

Erickson returned the kickoff 25 yards to Whitman's 45 yard line and French gained first down on two plays. A pass from Erickson to French was fumbled, Whitman recovering. They were forced to kick when they failed to gain, and Willamette took the ball on Whitman's 36. A pass, Cranor to Cardinal, made 9 yards, and Lang plunged through the line for a two yard gain and first down. With the ball on the 25 yard line French made a three yard gain, and on the next play received a pass from Cranor on the 10 yard line and crossed the line. Erickson kicked goal to make the score 14 for Willamette and 7 for Whitman.

Willamette kicked off to Cartwright who returned 13 yards to his own 43. A pass, Holmgren to Lindman, netted 20 yards and a first down, but Willamette held three times and an incomplete pass gave the Bearcats the ball on their own 20. Cranor plunged through for a one yard gain, Whitman was penalized five yards for offside, French failed to gain, and a pass from Cranor to Cardinal netted another first down and put the ball on Willamette's 36. from Cranor to Erickson advanced the ball to Whitman's 39 where Erickson fumbled. French recovered, however, and another pass, Cranor to French, for 36 yards put the ball on Whitman's 23 yard line. Lang hurried himself through the line for 10 yards and a pass from Cranor to French put the ball over for the third touchdown. Erickson kicked a perfect goal and the score was Willamette 21, Whitman 7.

Erickson kicked off to Applegate on his own 27, but he lost track of the ball and Jones recovered for Willamette. Gretsch gained a yard and French followed with a five yard plunge. DePoe passed to Erickson from the 21 yard line and Erickson crossed the line for another score. Conversion of the extra point put the count at Willamette 28, Whitman 7.

Willamette kicked off to Applegate who received on his own 10 and returned to the 29 yard line. Reese gained two yards, a pass was incomplete, and then a pass put the ball on Whitman's 45 yard line. Just as the gun sounded, a pass by the Reese-Applegate combination was completed.

Whitman kicked to Willamette on the 35 yard line. Erickson went through for four yards; Lang gained three; and French tore off a neat seven yard run for first down. Lang gained eight on the next play and Erickson made first down with a gain of five yards. With the ball on Whitman's 37 Cranor passed to Erickson to put the ball on the 39. An incomplete pass followed, then Erickson made first down with an 11 gain. Whitman was penalized half way to the goal for roughing and the ball was on the one yard line. Lang gained a half yard, French was held, but Erickson shoved it over. Try for point failed and Willamette had 34 to Whitman's 7.

Reese returned the kickoff from his own 23 to the 35 yard mark. Reese was stopped for no gain by Jones, and the Willamette got the ball again when French intercepted a pass on the 45 yard line where he was downed. Erickson was held for a gain of a yard. Willamette was offside and lost five yards. Cranor passed to Erickson for three yards, Lang gained three through the line, and French was forced to kick, the ball going out of bounds on Whitman's 30. Reese gained two yards, was held for no gain on the next play, and then he was smothered by the whole Bearcat line on an attempt to pass. Holmgren kicked to Erickson who returned from his 25 to the 44. French was held for no gain, and after an incomplete pass, Holmgren intercepted one and was downed on Willamette's 45. Picton failed to gain,

NAME THREE CHAIRMEN FOR SPORTS DIVISIONS

The W. A. A. meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, on Tuesday, December 3, 1929. The main business of the meeting was to appoint three chairmen to have charge of the association's pictures in the Wallulah. These sports were to be under the divisions of riding, swimming and archery, respectively.

The business meeting was followed by a comical program ending in a miscellaneous shower for Mildred Pugh Emmons.

Reese went through left tackle for nine yards, but Applegate fumbled a pass from Reese, Haldane recovering on his own 30.

Erickson gained two and Lang one, but Cranor was thrown for a loss of ten yards. French kicked to Applegate on the 23 mark. A 15 yard penalty on Willamette put the ball on the 38, where Reese was stopped twice for no gain. On the next play the whole line broke through again and threw Holmgren for a beautiful 15 yard loss. Holmgren kicked to Erickson on Willamette's 41. French gained two yards, a pass, Erickson to Cardinal, gained four, and Lang made it first down with a four yard plunge through center. Reese intercepted a pass on his own 28 and was downed in his tracks. Applegate went through for about four yards, but on the next play fumbled on an attempt to pass. French recovered on Whitman's 27. Cranor gained two and then Cranor passed to French who received on the 15 yard line and squirmed his way through to the 3. Lang gained two on two plays but on the next two he was held for no gain and Whitman got the ball on their own one yard line. Holmgren attempted two passes, the first of which was intercepted by French, but he dropped and it was ruled incomplete. Holmgren kicked to French on the 27 yard line. Gretsch was held for no gain, but on the next play got two yards. A long pass, Engbreten to Erickson, put the ball over the line for Willamette's last touchdown. Try for point was blocked. Score, Willamette 40, Whitman 7.

Willamette kicked off to Holmgren who was stopped on his own 25. Reese was held for no gain, and then was thrown for a loss of four yards by Schiffman. Holmgren kicked from his 21 to Erickson on Willamette's 35. Erickson went through for five yards, but holding put the ball back for a 15 yard penalty. Erickson gained 6. Whitman was penalized for offside but the penalty was refused. Engbreten gained two, and then kicked Applegate on his own 41. A short pass by Holmgren to Council, who ran from the 45 to Willamette's 15, got a first down. Whitman was penalized for holding, and DePoe intercepted a pass to put the ball back on Willamette's 34. Engbreten passed to Schiffman for a five yard gain, and then he was forced to kick. Applegate receiving on the 35. A pass from Reese to Holmgren netted Whitman its second touchdown and the score was Willamette 40, Whitman 13, when the try for point failed.

Holmgren kicked off to DePoe on his own five and the ball was returned to the 30. Engbreten gained five, Gretsch about four, and Engbreten gained two more for a first down. Gretsch gained three yards just as the whistle blew, with the ball on Willamette's 42 yard line. Final score, Willamette 40, Whitman 13.
