THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We welcome you to Willamette University and are thoroughly pleased because you have come. We have laudable pride in Willamette and are persuaded that it is able to render you a distinctly high form of service. What the result will be depends on yourself. You are the unfixed quantity in the equation and it is for you, largely, to determine the product.

You are entering into a joyous experience, the most wonderful and profitable that human wisdom has devised. I hope you will keep the vision, that you will be enthusiastic not phlegmatic, eager and not aloof, sanely constructive and not vacantly critical.

We welcome you to the best riches in the world, the learning and love, the sacrifice and service, gathered and stored here for you by eighty years of generous toil. Take it with intelligence, eagerness, joy and discrimination. And realize that every teacher is your friendly colaborer in the high enterprise of discovering truth and appropriating it for great living.

Sincerely yours,

CARL G. DONEY.

TRADITIONS

Hello! Smile and hello are expected from every campus pedestrian, regardless of sex, age or rate of speed.

Hardware. Girls leave off pins of their social organizations for the first two weeks of the fall term. Rookies, this is to protect you from taking a false shortcut to social success by looking for a new acquaintance's pins before you look for her personality.

Have You Met? Very informally tea is served to the survivors of the Frosh English Exams in the Y. W. Room at 4:00 p. m.

Historic Temple. At Chapel time the side entrances of Waller Hall are for sophomores and upper-classmen only.

"—for Old Willamette." The popular thing is to learn the songs and yells.

Senior Bench. Everybody else sits on the Junior Bench.

"111." No one smokes on the campus.

"Y." Each student is a member of a Christian Association.

Big Jam. Everybody makes it a point to be there at the Y. M.-Y. W. Reception.

Hasn't Scratched Yet. A scratch-list date is a necessary evil to be endured gracefully.

Splash! The old mill stream is the primer of campus education.

Whack! Freshmen are prompt and cheerful in tasks assigned to them in student body doings.

Hob Nails. It is not considered the thing to walk in the best circles on the gym floor in leather shoes.

Lost and Found department is in the registrar's office, not chapel platform.

Honor Bound. The feeling is that one should mind one's own business during examinations.

P. O. Student mail addressed to Willamette is placed in the alphabetical mail boxes back of the stairs on the first floor of Eaton Hall.

that is what they are made for. Penalty 2 spats.

4. The campus must be cleaned as often as the Sophomore Vigilance Committee shall deem necessary. Penalty is a ducking in the mill stream for every male officer.

5. Each Freshman of the male species shall work on the Athletic Field whenever necessary, no person working more than one hour per week. Penalty 5 spats.

Yours for the best school,

SOPH VIGILANCE COMMITTEE,
KEITH RHODES, Chairman.

INTERCLASS RIVALRY RULES

Article III.

Sec. 1. The class having the largest number of points at the close of the year shall be declared inter-class rivalry champion, and shall receive a suitable reward.

Sec. 2. The following number of credits shall be required for eligibility to represent each class: Seniors, at least 88; Juniors, at least 56; Sophomores, at least 24.

Sec. 4. Students registered for less than twelve hours shall not be eligible to represent a class in a contest.

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

---

President: Stanley Emmel.
Vice President: Adelia White.
Secretary: Lucia Card.
Treasurer: Richard Briggs.
Yell King: Fred Arpke.
Song Queen: Ruth Hewitt.

The student body fee, paid at registration, entitles you to a copy of each issue of the Collegian, admission to all games played on the campus, and a ballot at the regular and special elections held by the association.

Regular student body meetings are held every fourth Friday at the Chapel hour. You can't afford to miss a meeting if you want to keep up with what is going on.

Student government at Willamette is not a futile toy, but a force which enacts and administers legislation vital to the school. Among its departments there is a place for everyone to do something by which to benefit the organization and gain recognition for himself.

In the fall, four members at large from the student body are elected by the members of the association to the Executive Committee, which functions thruout the year. Other members of this committee are the officers of the student body, the editor of the Collegian and a member of the faculty. The Executive Committee has much responsibility for the activity of the student body, and all the business that it does must be published.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

JENELLE VANDEVORT

GREETINGS

We are mighty glad you are here and we old students are eagerly waiting to have you as friends. Our campus has always had the friendly air of a big family. We welcome you to the family. It is our hope that you will like us as well as we are prepared to like you.

There is a place in our Association for every one of you. You have a great deal to give to us, and we have a fellowship we want to share with you. We hope that this year may bring to us the happy knowledge of true friendship.

The Purpose of the Association

1. To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.

2. To lead them into membership and service in the Christian church.

MERLE BONNEY

GREETINGS

The purpose of the Y. M. C. A. of Willamette University is to lead young men into spiritual life, and into Christian activities. The "Y" aims to be of service to the men on the campus, and especially to you who are Freshmen. The "Y" men have been making plans since last

WOMEN'S LITERARY SOCIETIES

---

Closely interwoven with the history and progress of Willamette University are the women's literary societies, in which several college generations of girls have found literary and social expression. Every liberal arts college has a place for such organizations.

RULES

Each society shall hold its reception and each new woman shall have an opportunity to attend each society at least once and not more than twice before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

No woman shall be invited to join a society, either by verbal or written invitation, before the second Saturday before Thanksgiving.

Each shall answer in writing.

Any girl taking ten hours work in music, law or arts, or in regular standing in the UUniversity is eligible for membership in any society.

Any non-society girl, no matter how much or how little work she is carrying is entitled to attend the various open meetings and "At Homes."

Every new and non-society girl turns in her preference of societies in order; a committee formulates lists of choices for each society and furnishes the societies with their lists. Each society bids from the lists as received in order.

Each society has one "At Home," and one week-end rush date.

In order to secure secrecy in the actual bidding, the preferential lists are prepared from the choices by the faculty member of the Inter-Society Council alone, and these lists are sealed and not opened until after the meeting in which they are to be voted upon has been formally opened.

All the invitations to the various "At Homes" are printed on one card, with their respective dates, and sent to each non-society girl at the beginning of the season.

The answers to the invitations to join a society shall be in the mail by Monday night, following the Saturday they are issued.

No girl can change her choices after she hands them in.

The Beemie in his thoughtless stalk
Crowds some ladies off the walk.

MEN'S LITERARY SOCIETIES

---

The purpose of these societies is to train the members in preparing and presenting papers, speaking extemporaneously, debating, ruling by parliamentary law, and handling assemblies. Social activities have a part in the life of each.

Philodorian, 1883

Websterian, 1906

President .....George Moorhead

Chrestophilian, 1916

President .....Merle Bonney

Lincolnian, 1919

President .....Ross Anderson

The membership of these societies is chosen according to the following rules:

Men's Inter-Society Rules

Article III. Rules for Rushing.

Sec. 1. Beginning with the second Wednesday after the completion of registration, each society shall hold four and only four open meetings to which one-fourth of all non-society men shall be invited. No one may be invited a second time to the same society.

Sec. 2. During the season no society or members of a society shall participate in a social function in which a prospect is present if there are not present men from another society. This shall not apply to programs mentioned in section 1 of this article. No direct or indirect bidding shall be carried on except as hereinafter specified. Unsportsmanlike conduct by any individual or society in the carrying out of these regulations shall make the society amenable to the Inter-Society Committee.

Sec. 3. During the Friday afternoon following the fourth meeting each society shall mail sealed invitations to the non-society men whom they wish to pledge. Acceptance must be mailed by Monday noon. From the mailing of the invitations until acceptances are due there shall be no communication whatever concerning societies between society and non-society men.

Sec. 4 There shall be no rules covering the acquiring of members for the remainder of the school year except that new men shall be encouraged to visit all societies before pledging.

ATHLETIC

---

"W" Club

This is made up of students who have received official recognition: letter, certificate, or blanket, for participation in school athletics. The organization takes a keen interest in all athletic business.

Athletic Council

Athletics are controlled by the Athletic Council, composed of faculty and alumni members, ex-officio members, and members at large from the student body. This council is one of the most important bodies on the campus.

Cubs

Organized two years ago for the purpose of maintaining campus friendliness, and of greeting and entertaining visitors, the Cubs have proved especially helpful to the athletic department at Willamette, and have won for themselves a permanent place on the campus.

Women's Athletic Club

Women's athletics have taken on a new interest at W. U. since the increased facilities have been provided.

State Tournament

The state high school basketball tournament held in the spring has become a regular institution at Willamette.

A Beemie one fair day essayed
To take unto a game a maid;
They greeted him with scornful shout,
And knocked him down and dragged him out.

FORENSIC

The Bar "W" Club

Nine possessors of the coveted bar "W," the official award for participation in intercollegiate speaking contests, form this organization at present.

The Forensic Council

The Forensic Council is composed of three wearers of the bar "W" and the coaches of debate. The student members are elected by the student body, and the chairman of the council is in direct charge of all debate and oratorical activities including the finances of the department.

Debate

Especially during recent years, Willamette has made an outstanding record of victories in debate.

Debate for women has been claiming more and more favor from the coeds. Five out of twelve members of the Bar "W" Club last year were women.

Oratory

The Keyes Prize, and University Prizes (see Catalogue), stimulate activity in oratory, as well as do the State Oratorical Contest and the Peace Oratorical Contest, which are yearly held.

The inter-class oratorical contest is one that arouses real interest among the students.

College life abounds in chances to learn to speak in public, and the student does well who takes advantage of them.

MUSICAL

The Women's Glee Club

The vacancies in the membership of this organization are filled by an open try-out. The girls work conscientiously during the year and the resulting concerts are universally pleasing. Besides several jaunts to near-by places last year, the club performed in Chehalis, Bremerton, Seattle, Kirkland, Raymond, Doty and Klaber.

The Men's Glee Club

This organization is well and favorably known almost as far as is Willamette itself. The membership is determined by open try-out, and the Dean of the School of Music is director. Each year it makes a tour, carrying musical programs to large and small towns alike. Besides affording great pleasure to the club and good financial returns, the trip represents Willamette as an advertising feature.

University Band

An official band of seventeen pieces flourished on the campus last year. The constitution provides for awards for activity in that field. Music at athletic contests is well worth the time and trouble it takes to make it possible.

Freshman Glee

Freshman Glee means that each year four new songs of a type to be agreed upon before-hand are added to Willamette. Of these, usually one, or at most two, survives the test of actual use, so the old school is rich in favorite songs which have real merit. The Glee is an inter-class contest.

Roguish Umps

These girls produce much-loved music of the tum-ti-tum-tum variety on ukes, guitars and like instruments.

MISCELLANEOUS

Women's Willamette Club

Has for its purpose to promote a better athletic and social life for the co-ed of Willamette. It sponsors the "Co-ed Carnival," a spring stunt show, which only women can attend.

Cosmopolitan Club

An organization of foreign students whose aim is to "interpret life," and foster mutual understanding between their native countries and America.

Washingtonian Society

Organizes those persons whose homes are in Washington in order to boost for Willamette in that state. On the twenty-second of February it puts on a famous banquet which is an all-college affair.

Discussion Club

Better known as the Bolsheviks, these men meet at noon weekly to inquire into "Why the sea is boiling hot and whether pigs have wings."

Lausanne Hall Club

The membership of this club is composed of girls who live at "merrie old Lausanne."

Alpha Kappa Nu

Twenty per cent of any graduating class are eligible for election in this Senior honor society. Elections are made by the faculty on the basis of scholarship and character in May preceding graduation.

Writers' Club

This is made up of a bunch of naive incipient Shakespeares.

Theta Alpha Phi

National Dramatic Fraternity has Oregon Alpha Chapter at Willamette, with the purpose of promoting interest in dramatics on the campus.

Blackstone Club

Men of the School of Law formed this organization "to aid the growth and development of the College of Law of Willamette University.

Honor Code Committee

Student honor at Willamette has grown into an organized code, which this committee officially represents. In one or more Chapel services during the year the committee refreshes the ideals of honor in the minds of the students.

RELIGIOUS

The Willamette Wesleyans

The Willamette Wesleyans are a sizeable and thriving group who meet once a week at luncheon to discuss religious and economic topics of the day. The subject is prepared in advance by a leader, and pasted on the "church" bulletin board in Eaton Hall. Discussions range from "Rural Church Recreations" to "The Logger." The public is invited.

PUBLICATIONS

---

The Willamette Collegian

Editor: Juanita Henry

Manager: Charles Nunn.

The Collegian is a weekly which comes out on Wednesday. Its scope takes in something of the magazine idea, necessarily, and it is well departmentalized. Twenty per cent of the members of the staff are eligible for an old English gold "C," which is a reward of meritorious work, and awarded at the end of the year. Get acquainted with Salem merchants thru the advertisements in the Collegian, and make it a point to trade with them.

Wallulah

Editor: Lowell Beckendorf

Manager: Irl Halliday

The Wallulah is the college year book, which is put out by the Junior class. The name comes from an Indian princess who was of the tribe of the Willamettes. Plan to buy one every year you are in school and you will have a perfect record of your college days.

The Handbook

For thirty-one years the handbook has assembled in vest pocket form bits of information valuable to the new student. The publication is sponsored by the Christian Associations and during registration a copy is handed to each student.

SONGS*Sing a Song for Old Willamette

We'll sing a song for old Willamette,
For our dear old school so grand,
Where all the boys are "Bearcats,"
Who fight and have the sand.
We'll cheer them on forever,
As they fight the victory through,
And they like old "Willamette,"
Will e'er be strong and true.

A Spirit Ever New

From the years that fade behind us
Comes a spirit ever new,
Comes to grip us and to bind us
To the soul of W. U.
Winning cannot mar her spirit
With the tarnish of conceit,
And the foes we meet all fear it,
For it never knows defeat.

Oh, our hearts beat high for singing,
When we hear that magic name;
And we set the echoes ringing
With Willamette's ancient fame

CHORUS

Sing the glories of Willamette,
All ye loyal ones and true;
Keep alive the grand old spirit,
Ever changing, ever new;
Trim your souls and hearts for fighting,
And we'll see Willamette through.

On Willamette

On Willamette, ever onward,
To the highest goal in view,
From the bell tower rings the story
Of thy conquests, W. U.
In our mighty Alma Mater
Let our faith be ever bold,
That victory may be the prize
Of the cardinal and the gold

Our Pledge

(Senior Song, 1924)

Oh Willamette, fairest name,
School we love forever more.
We shall strive to keep thy fame
Tho we win or lose the score;
Singing ever thru the fight,
"I love Willamette U."
Aiming, striving with our might
Toward a worthy purpose true

CHORUS

Oh, dear Willamette U.
The school we love so well,
We pledge our love to you
And e'er your praises tell.
Oh, may we always be
Most worthy sons of thine;
We pledge our loyalty,
Willamette, school of mine.

College friends will go their way
And our world will hurry on,
Our strife last but a day,
And our cause be lost or won.
But thru all our lives we'll sing,
"I love Willamette U."
And to the end we'll bring
Our trust kept faithful, true.

Cannibal King

A cannibal king, with a big nose ring,
Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
And every night when the moon shone bright
Across the canal he'd wade
To hug and kiss that dusky miss
Out under the big bay tree,
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:

(Yell)

Hip, heck, tra boom
Gin bisum yah zoom!
Hulla baloo, baloo, balee!
Old Willamette Varsity!

Fight 'Em, Bearcats

Fight 'em Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette through the years;
Fight with mighty strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.

Fight 'em, Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold,
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted Gold.

Go, Willamette

Fight the fight that knows no fear,
Oh, Willamette, heart of cheer.
Then we'll shout the name we love
To the bending skies above.
Go, Willamette, go, Willamette, go, W. U.
Go and win the victory.
Show them all both great and small,
What Willamette fight can do.

On gym or debating floor.
Ever to thee we'll be loyal,

Oh, Willamette, Willamette we love thee,
Our school we'll forever uphold.

We Love You, Old Willamette

(Freshman, 1924)

The school that has our honor
And love and praises bold,
Is you, dear old Willamette,
Our Alma Mater old.
We honor your professors
So earnest and so true,
We love your dear old campus,
We'll always fight for you.

CHORUS

We love you, old Willamette,
So good and pure and true,
We'll honor your traditions,
And ever see you through.
There's something in your spirit
That leads us up and on,
Our school, our dearest college,
We'll sing your praises long.

May we ne'er disgrace thee
In action, word or thought,
As on life's flaming bellows
Our worldly fates are wrought.
But be true sons and daughters
And hold thy standards high
And fire thy living spirit
'Till it shall never die.

Rome Wasn't Built in a Day! So, Likewise--

The old Varsity Book Store has been patiently and steadily growing with one definite objective for Willamette students, namely, a student Co-Op. When we first operated the book store, it was in a little room on the first floor of Waller Hall and served a student body of less than half last year's enrollment. Thru war, fire, flood and famine the small student store has grown. In January, 1923, the demand for a larger and more varied stock made it necessary for us to find other quarters, so we moved across the street from Lausanne Hall.

This summer we have enlarged both our building and stock to meet every requirement of a student Co-Op. We believe that the students making possible our success should share in the year's profits. By joining the Co-Op, not only your text-books and supplies will cost less than ever before, but also the additional items incident to student expenditure which our stock now includes, will be sold the student on this co-operative plan.

Before purchasing your fall supplies come in and let us explain in full how you can share in our profits.

"Ask us, we have it."

"I Love Willamette U."

I love Willamette U.
I love her campus, too,
I love her Profs so good and true,
I love her spirit real true blue.
I love the old millstream,
I love to sit and dream,
I see it all in shadows cool,
I love our dear old school.

Dream On

(Junior, 1923)

I

The stars are softly gleaming,
In the shadows of the night,
The moon like glowing silver
Covers all with mellow light.
The world is resting peaceful
From the hurry of the day,
So now beneath your window
Do I sing to you and say—

(Boys sing) CHORUS

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
Till the golden heart of you
Thrills with night-time's beauty,
And your fairest dreams come true.

(Girls sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
May the youthful heart of you
Thrill with life and love and glory,
And your fairest dreams come true.

II

The mill stream ripples onward
Through the mottled shade of trees,
The moon is wafted gently
By the golden evening breeze,
And making light the shadows
Dance the moonlight fairy beams
And they mingle with our music
And they harmonize your dreams.

WANTED

Last year a new student wanted to know where the best place to buy his clothing and furnishings was. An older student made this suggestion:

"DOWN TO BISHOP'S"

They specialize in college men's clothing and will give you a square deal when it comes to price. They carry

HART SCHAFFNER

and all of the best in the way of Shoes and Furnishings.

Bishop Clothing & Woolen Mills Store, Inc:

Magic Spirit

Then we'll strive, we'll stand, we'll stay
by old Willamette
With her legends and traditions old and true.
Something seems to draw us onward
ever to the victor's goal;
'Tis the magic of thy spirit, W. U.

Bend the Knee

Bend the knee, yes, bend the knee
To the Cardinal and the Gold;
Before the Bearcats' fighting power
Mars himself must even cower,
Rise, ye sons of Jason Lee,
We will win the victory,
So bend, bend the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

Victory, yes, victory to the Cardinal and the Gold;
Then fearful foes will bite the dust,
For win we will, for win we must.
Onward, then, to mastery,
This our conquering song shall be:
So bend, bend, the knee to Willamette
Varsity.

Our Dear Old Willamette

For our dear old Willamette U.,
The varsity loved so well,
The college leading all others,
As our contests nobly tell.
We shall live and die for W. U.,
And do it with a will;
So, here's to the best in all the West,
The greatest college still.

Old Historic Temple

There's an old Historic Temple
Rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken-hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers.

Down the years its portals open,
Gather wise ones to its fold;
Breathes the spirit of the Westland,
Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Spirit of the Golden Westland,
Breathing through our fathers' tears,
Tell the story of the Temple,
Bid us hope adown the years.

Sing, oh sing of old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true;
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old school, our W. U.

Willamette Fight, 1921

We are here to fight for Willamette,
And the Bearcats with courage so bold,
While our hearts are exalted with praises
Let us hail to the Cardinal and Gold.
Fight, fight, fight!

Rally for our dear old Willamette,

Raise the score to fame,
Bring forth to us the victory;

We're here to win the game.

With the grit and the pep of Bearcats,

Our fervor shall carry the day,

And the fight of our warriors shall send them

In triumph away from the fray.

Fight, fight, fight!

At them, Bearcats, victory's awaiting

For fighters that ne'er say die;

Stand firm your ground for W. U.

And shout the victor's cry.
