

FRESHMAN GLEE - 1963

NOVELTY

Hectic weeks of planning, of march and of singing were climaxed on March 9, 1963 when the sophomore class combined a simple approach with a lively spirit to win the 55th Annual Freshman Glee. Both smiles and tears appeared as they released their tensions and hoisted their song leader, Sharon Brown, and their formation leader, Joe Higgins. Congrats Sophs.

A Revival?

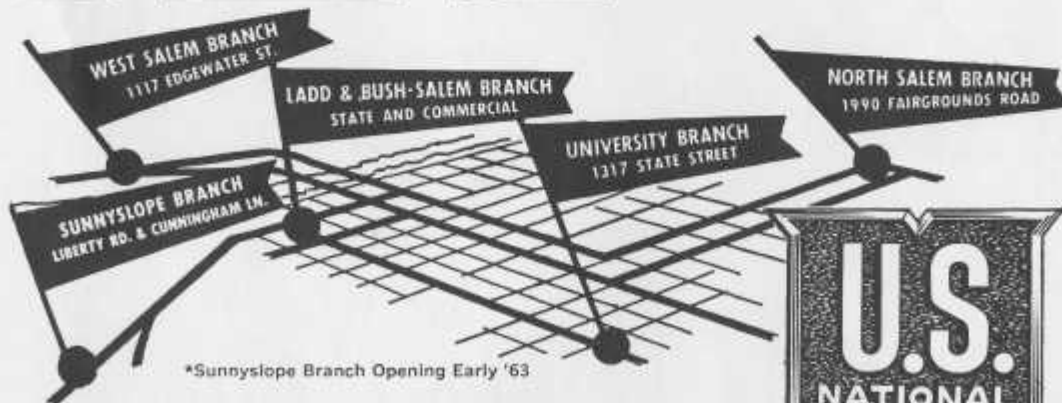

Dedication

To Dr. Robert Moulton Gatke, for his loyalty to Willamette as both student and professor: His years as friend and counselor to two generations of students: His integrity, which does honor to his university and offers an example to us all, we respectfully dedicate this 55th Freshman Glee.

Becomingness is a Factor in selecting a diamond - for a lovely ring should look lovely on the finger and suit your personality. The round, brilliant-cut looks well on almost any hand. The capable hand, however, calls for an emerald cut - while slender, tapering fingers need the grace of a marquise-cut. Choose yours for what it will do for you.
