

COLLEGIAN GETS PEEP INSIDE THE WALLULAH

Editor Gilkey and Manager Homan Have Produced Unique Volume.

REAL JOKES AND CALENDAR FEATURES

Interesting and Novel Record of Willamette Life to Be in Readers' Hands Friday.

Judging from an advance copy of the 1915 Wallulah which has been placed in The Collegian's hands, it certainly fulfills the glowing advance reports which have been circulated concerning it. It is an extremely inclusive, well-balanced and interesting volume, full of live and novel features.

The book is first-class in every respect and is sure to establish a standard for this kind of a college production at Willamette. The volume is bound in a rich, brown leather, and embossed with a clever Indian design. The Indian designs run through the book and makes a very unique division of the volume.

One feature that will make the Wallulah of unusual value to all friends of Willamette is the early history of the institution told more completely and correctly than ever before. There are also a number of cuts of the old campus and buildings.

The method of inserts for the photographs of the upperclassmen and the individual pictures of the other classes make the book very attractive and valuable to the student.

The jokes are new and pungent and the illustrated calendar a new feature. Other features too numerous to mention will be disclosed by the expectant purchaser when he opens the book Friday.

Editor Errol Gilkey has certainly done himself proud in the uniqueness of the features and the excellence of the material and arrangement. He has gathered together the record of Willamette life in a most original and unusual volume.

Credit is also due Manager Ralph Homan, whose work in financing the book and attending to details of publication has been most painstaking.

The Wallulahs will be on sale Friday and those who have secured tickets will be served first. Only a limited number of volumes have been printed above those previously ordered, so that those desiring one will do well to buy early.

This year's Wallulah is a book which no Willamette student can afford to be without. At present it can be used as a most useful advertising medium and in the future it will recall as nothing else could the old college days.

Y. M. MEETING UNDER TREES

Sam Russell Leads One of the Best Meetings of Year.

Instead of meeting in the Websterian halls Sunday afternoon for their weekly devotional meeting, the Y. M. C. A. gathered on the campus in the shade of the trees west of Waller Hall. The meeting partook of the spirit of its surroundings and was one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year. Sam Russell, in a most capable manner, led the discussion on the subject "Force," limiting its application to the subject of prayer, after which a general round-table talk was held. Many excellent and helpful thoughts and suggestions were brought out.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION PASSED

Student Body Fee Is Raised From $1.50 to $2.50 per Semester.

VOTE FOR RAISE ALMOST UNANIMOUS

Paul Homan and Hepp Elected to Two Student Positions on the Athletic Council.

The amendments which were brought up at last Thursday's Student Body meeting were passed by practically a unanimous vote, with very light discussion. With the consent of the Board of Trustees, the Student Body fee next year will be $2.50 per semester, and this will give each student a subscription to The Collegian.

From the first, sentiment seemed in favor of raising the student fee, but there was some uncertainty as to the advisability of including in this sum a subscription to the paper. It was only after a warm discussion of the two sides of the question that the vote could be taken. The final result, however, was strongly in favor of the amendment.

The raising of the fee is a very progressive step. It has been very evident for some time that the present fee was wholly inadequate to the demands coming from the increased activities of the Student Body. This makes a much more substantial financial backing for all lines of work, especially for athletics.

Although the subscription to The Collegian will somewhat cut down the revenue to the treasury, the benefit of having The Collegian read and supported by every student will go far to make it more than ever the mirror of the University in reflecting its life and spirit, a potent influence in all matters of general interest and as a sure method of announcement.

At this meeting, also, the two student members were elected to the athletic council. Out of a number of candidates, Paul Homan and Louis Hepp were elected. The faculty member and two alumni members of the council will be appointed at Commencement time.

HOLLINGWORTH, '13, TO TRAVEL FOR STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

Work Will Take Him Among Colleges of Middle West and the Pacific Coast.

Carl J. Hollingworth, who will be graduated from the College of Liberal Arts this year, has been appointed to the position of traveling secretary for the Student Volunteer movement. This is a national job, the holder traveling among the colleges of the United States and coming in contact with the thousands of university men of the country in order to present the claims of the Volunteer movement and further its growth.

Hollingworth is to attend the Y. M. C. A. secretaries' conference at Northfield, Mass., this summer to help to prepare him for his future work.

His headquarters will be at New York City and during the coming year he will probably be busy among the colleges of the Middle West first and later among the Pacific Coast institutions.

He will probably hold this position for a year or two, after which he plans to take further work more specifically fitting him for the mission field. The best wishes of the host of friends whom "Holly" has made at Willamette will go with him in this work.

RECEPTION TO SENIORS IN EATON HALL FRIDAY

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS WILL RECEIVE IN HONOR OF 1913.

Hours From 8 to 10—All Students of University Are Invited to Attend.

The annual Y. M.-Y. W. C. A. reception to the Seniors will be given in Eaton Hall Friday evening. Arrangements are in the hands of the joint Association committees and are going forward very satisfactorily. A receiving line consisting of the Senior class, presidents of the two Associations, and the faculty, will be on hand to welcome the guests who are to come any time they desire between eight and ten and leave in the same manner. The orchestra will play during the evening, the girls will serve refreshments in the rest room, and altogether a very enjoyable event is anticipated.

All the students of the University are invited to this last big social function of the year in honor of the class of 1913.

WEBSTERIANS TO JOLLY UP.

Last Meeting of Year Tonight Takes Form of Launch Ride.

In a final jollification, the Webs will meet tonight on the waters of the "Old Willamette." The sacred halls, the scene of so many forensic battles, will be deserted, and the doors which have so often been shaken by thundering oratory will be closed and barred, not to be opened until the autumn shall announce the return of the Webs. Tonight, gliding on the mirror surface of the historic river, the society men will hold their last meeting of the year. "Roasted wienies up stream" will be the cats and the place. The plans are such as to promise the society men one of those "times" for which the Webs have a reputation.

Miss Young to Teach at Gresham.

Miss Jessie Young has accepted a position as instructor of English and Latin in Gresham High for the coming year. Miss Young is especially well-qualified to teach these branches, as she has majored in them during her college course.

GIRLS' WILLAMETTE CLUB ELECTS FOR NEXT YEAR

MISS RUTH YOUNG IS AT HEAD OF WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION.

Every Woman of the University Eligible to Membership Who Will Subscribe to Principles.

At a meeting of the Girls' Willamette Club last Thursday morning, the officers for next year, who had been nominated at a previous meeting, were elected. The results of the election were: president, Ruth Young; vice-president, Electa Chapman; secretary-treasurer, Eunice Miller. Owing to the very nature of the club there was a notable absence of wire pulling, steam rollers, and other political machinery. There seems to be a misunderstanding among the Academy girls, to the effect that they are excluded from membership in this organization. This is not the case. Any girl in the school who is willing to subscribe to the principles set forth in the constitution is eligible to membership, and it is hoped that all Academy girls as well as College girls will avail themselves of this privilege as speedily as possible.

The president-elect states that her plans are not definitely outlined yet, but that there will be something in the Girls' Willamette Club next year that will make it worth while for every girl to be associated with the organization.

SOPHOMORES INVADE EOLA

Take Evening Off for One Glorious Big Time.

The Sophs did it again. With the necessary apparatus for a day's outing, the aggressive Sophomore crew invaded the hills of Eola with great gusto on the evening of Decoration Day. Strings of wienies, buckets of salad, stocks of sandwiches—all were but are no more, and Eola again rests in the quietness of the river hills.

Miss Edena Clarke, ex-'12, visited with Jessie Young and other friends at Willamette over the week-end. She has been teaching for the past year at Parkdale, in the upper Hood River valley.

COMMENCEMENT RECITAL WEDNESDAY, JUNE 11TH

MISS NETTIE SNYDER TO BE GRADUATED IN VOICE

Excellent Program of Vocal, Piano, Organ, and Violin Numbers to Be Rendered.

The Commencement and graduation exercises of the School of Music take place Wednesday evening, June 11, at the First M. E. Church, beginning promptly at 8:15. This will be the occasion for the graduation of Miss Nettie Snyder from the vocal department, under the direction of Myrtle Long-Mendenhall. Miss Snyder will appear in several beautiful and elaborate selections.

The dean of the school, Frederic S. Mendenhall, will present a few of the more advanced pupils in piano, numbers to be rendered by the Misses Kuntz, McMahon, Allison and Dotson. Mr. Young will render a violin solo, and Miss Bradley will appear in an organ number, these representing two departments newly organized this year. In addition to Miss Snyder, there will also be three or four other vocal numbers. A full program will appear in next week's Collegian.

DEBATE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Philodorian Thresh Over Problem of College Discipline.

A very interesting program was rendered at the Philodorian halls on last Wednesday evening.

The cornet solo by Shisler was of a high order, as was manifest by the enthusiasm with which it was received. A debate followed, "Resolved, that student activity in Willamette University should be controlled by the students." The affirmative was upheld by Ransom and Gleiser; the negative by Blatchford and Tobie. An unanimous decision for the affirmative was returned by the judges. A reading was well rendered by Schroeder, and a spirited discussion of inter-class athletics was participated in by Lund. The impromptu numbers by Corpe, Price and Betts showed ability of rapid perception, and the spirit and tone of the entire program was one of excellent quality.

CENTRALIZATION OF AUTHORITY
 The Collegian is of the conviction that the Student Body affairs are not under a sufficiently centralized authority. Under the present plan, the Executive Committee oversees the financial welfare of the organization and exercises whatever authority does not seem to lie elsewhere. The Athletic Council, composed of two alumni, one faculty member, the physical director, and two "W" men, appoints the managers of teams, its other actions being merely advisory. The Award Committees, composed of one faculty member, the president of the Student Body, the physical director, and captain and manager of each team, selects those who are eligible to official athletic awards, according to the conditions of the constitutions. To say that these various committees are unnecessary is not to say that they have done their work poorly. No exception is taken here to any of their actions. The fact remains, however, that the diversion of functions, which could be most acceptably administered by one body, among three is rather absurd. A better plan would seem to be to make the Executive Committee a more widely representative body, including students, faculty and alumni members, and bestow upon it the authority now vested in the various committees.
 This suggestion is, of course, too late to be taken up this spring, but will bear consideration and action another year.

JEWETT TO REPRESENT WEBS
 Oration for Inter-Society Contest Is on International Peace.
 At the regular meeting last Wednesday night, the Websterians had the tryout for the inter-society oratorical contest. Howard Jewett presented a very good oration on the subject of "International Peace." He has treated his subject thoroughly. His manner of presentation is forceful and holds the attention of his listeners from beginning to end. The Websterians feel that they have a fit representative who has a very good chance to win the cup. The following program was presented: song, Harold Jory; reading, Harry Savage; talk, "True Eloquence," Jacob Stocker; oration, "International Peace," Howard Jewett; impromptu debate, "Resolved, that it is better to have asked and have been refused than never to have asked at all." The affirmative was taken by Odgers and Oldenburg and the negative by Bolt and Sackett. The affirmative won by a unanimous decision. Fifteen minutes of parliamentary practice with Proebstel in the chair, was followed by a short business meeting.

TEUTONIANS 'GET IN THE SWIM'
 Like Almost Every Other Organization, Hold Picnic Last Week-End.
 The Teutonians culminated their work of the year on last Saturday afternoon when a goodly number sought the shaded nooks of Bush's pasture. The athletic ability of each member was tested in the ever-new games of "two old cat" and "catch." A large camp fire added attractiveness to the scene of the evening. As the embers of the fire died out, the company sang favorite evening songs and after the appreciated yodeling of Mr Stocker, dispersed.

PROGRAM FOR LEAGUE INSTITUTE ARRANGED

Enrollment of 200 Expected—F H Reeves, Registrar, Has Meeting in Hand.
 The advertising campaign for the Epworth League Institute to be held upon the campus the week following Commencement, June 23-29, is being vigorously pushed by the committees in charge. This is the first institute of the kind to be held in the Oregon conference, and the great success in other places of the institute is anticipated to be repeated in Salem.
 The week's program, while not published as yet, will contain a well-selected program to insure the participants getting the most benefit from the meeting.
 Dr. Homan said last evening: "The campus is turned over to the Institute for the week and they can have whatever they want." The ladies' hall will be opened for the week and one of the boarding clubs will have open house.
 The Institute will bring about 200 Leaguers to the city for the week. They will enroll in classes and follow a course of lectures and studies. Every phase of the League work will be canvassed. The social side of the week will not be neglected. Tennis, baseball, and picnics and other features will fill in the spare time of the visitors.

 The Institute courses are in competent hands. Wilbur Sheridan, general secretary of the Epworth League, President Homan, Miss Emma Robinson, Junior League secretary, will be here and conduct a series of lectures or classes.
 The railroads have given a fare and a third rates to the Institute. The plans are being completed rapidly for the reception of the guests. F. Hall Reeves is registrar and has been conducting the greater part of the campaign. Dr. Homan and Dr. Todd have been giving their support to the Institute in a material way.
 Others who will have charge of the departments are Prof. R. B. Walsh, music; G. H. Patterson, social service;

Miss Hepburn, mercy and help. Lectures will be given by C. T. Wilson, Christian Citizenship; Dr. E. H. Todd, Christian Stewardship; J. C. Spencer, on the Social and Literary.

Senior-Sophs to Play Junior-Frosch Team on Class Day.
 There will be an interclass baseball game between the Senior-Sophomore and the Junior-Freshman teams on the morning of Senior Class Day, June 17. The contest is the result of a challenge issued in chapel yesterday morning by Senior class president Hollingworth.
 Interclass contests have been agitated for some time and this is the fruits of the efforts made in that direction. The date set is the morning of Senior Class Day and the next day after the exams so that there will be nothing to interfere with all men being out and a good enthusiastic crowd of fans cheering the youthful Ty Cobbs.
 Chas. B. Harrison, '12, commonly known as "Brick," is now traveling salesman for Russell & Gilbert, wholesale confectioners, Portland.

NEEDED REPAIRS BEING MADE

Friend of University Makes Trip and Remedies Deficiencies.
 Through the good offices of a friend of the University, a number of needed improvement and repairs are being made about the campus, especially in the chapel and at Lausanne Hall. They come as the result of a little trip through the buildings one day last week, when he noted several little deficiencies and kindly offered to stand good for remedying them.

Criterion.

The meeting of the Criterion Literary Society was held last Wednesday evening in the chapel. The business of the society was transacted at the opening of the meeting. Following this a program was delivered impromptu. Topics of great interest were discussed by the different members. A program is being prepared by the society, which is to be given this evening before the Adelpians and Academy. All members should be present.

CONFERENCES ARE BOOSTED

Fellows and Girls Tell Joys of Columbia Beach and Gearhart-by-the-Sea.

Last Thursday night the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. held a rousing summer conference booster meeting. The scene of the affair was beneath the trees back of the gym, where Vandever had, with the help of those whom he could persuade, built a roaring bonfire.

Mr. Needham, new state college and boys' secretary, spoke in behalf of the college men's conference at Columbia Beach and, together with the speeches of men like Hollingworth, Todd and Homan, who have been there, aroused a great deal of interest among the students, both from the standpoint of recreation and spiritual welfare. The exact number is not known definitely at present, but President Vandever says that no less than twelve or fourteen men will represent Willamette at Columbia Beach this year.

The Misses Laura Heist, Gertrude Eakin and Ruth Young presented the different phases of the girls' conference at "Beautiful Gearhart-by-the-Sea," and made that place seem so attractive that there were indications of a depopulation of Columbia Beach and a general attack on Gearhart.

After President Vandever had made a short speech summing up the duty of every fellow who possibly can do it to be at the Y. M. C. A. conference, the girls produced marshmallows and popcorn and a general feed was indulged in. After everyone had had all the toasted marshmallows desired, the meeting adjourned with the singing of college songs.

Fifty or more persons were in attendance at the gathering.

SACKETT APPOINTED TREASURER

Succeeds Paget as Holder of Student Body Funds—Finances Cleared Up This Week.

At a meeting of the executive committee held last Wednesday Leland Sackett was chosen Student Body treasurer to take the place of Merwyn Paget, who resigned on account of his illness keeping him away from school. Sackett was treasurer-elect, so will merely assume his duties a little earlier than the other officers.

The report of The Collegian manager was read and accepted and the financial situation of the Student Body discussed. Owing to the University office books being in Portland at that time, it was not possible to arrive at a definite conclusion as to the status of the Student Body finances, but the indications are that the year will end with the treasury in a very favorable condition. The meeting of the executive committee this week will wind up the business end of Student Body affairs for the year.

Austin Flegel, '12, was a visitor on the campus this week. He has been in town for several days taking the state bar examinations. During the past year he has been attending the U. of O. Law School in Portland and in that time has covered the greater part of the three-year course. Flegel says that he has been working hard this year. There are a few on the campus who seem loath to believe this statement, but Flegel himself admitted that even his old profs wouldn't know him.

Miss Florence Dunlop, ex-'13, has been visiting friends at Lausanne for several days. Miss Dunlop, who took her first two years here, has just received her A. B. from Stanford.

Monday morning Rev. M. J. Swearingen, field agent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, lead the chapel service. He also spoke briefly of the Anti-Saloon League and its work.

Miss Lettie Gregson, '12, and Miss Alice Gregson, '14, have just returned from Boring, where they recently completed a very successful year teaching in the public schools.

"PEN" CLEANS VARSITY NINE

Reorganized University Team Bats Well but Loses Out in Last of Seven Innings.

On Saturday afternoon the remaining members of Willamette's baseball team accompanied the would-be diamond artists who have put in an appearance since the graduation of the Laws and Medies, to the pen to do battle with that institution. When the final out was made Willamette was found to be possessed of 6 tallies to opponents' 7.

The game was characterized by some of the best hitting Willamette has chalked up this season. So heavy was the pounding the Varsity boys were giving the offerings of "Chief," the Pen's Indian ball player, that he was replaced by McClure in the middle of the third inning.

With the new pitcher in the box, the Pen boys took on new pep and shutting out several hits proceeded to win the game in the last of the seventh with two men down.

"Red" Young was on the mound for the Varsity and pitched excellent ball. Of the new men, Shisler distinguished himself by getting a two-bagger and Bain made three assists by excellent throws from center to home, third and first, catching a man each time.

The lineup for the contest was as follows: Doane c, Young p, Homan 1b, Lund 2b, Gates 3b, Booth ss, Shisler lf, Bain cf, Newton rf.

1915 WALLULAH STAFF HAVE PLANS OUTLINED

Intend to Adopt Standard for Future Volumes—Material Already Being Collected.

The Wallulah staff for next year has been bestirring itself during these spring days. Although so far in advance of the time of real activity connected with the publishing of the annual, the general plans for the book have been decided upon. Of course the result and success of this year's annual is of great interest, and will influence the form and character of the book next year.

The staff is aiming to make this book the mirror of Willamette life in all its phases. Each year should see a better balancing of the different departments of activity, and it will be an aim to improve this feature. Editor Irvine is already gathering material which will be of interest for his volume.

The editions of the past have varied so widely in form and character that there is hardly a set standard for the annual. This year's annual seems to be well-chosen in form and appearance, as well as in arrangement. What is needed is to follow the general characteristics and conform to standards that may become recognized as distinguishing the Wallulah through the years. It is the intention of the 1915 staff to follow this year's standard in general, while displaying originality in the details. Changes will be made, and must be made, but they will take the form of a growth and a development, rather than an attempt at continually producing "something different."

CROWD HIES TO SILVER CREEK

Spend Two Days in Exploring Region of Scenic Falls.

The largest merry-making excursion of the year started out last Friday morning for Silver Creek falls. The party made a two-day jaunt of it, not returning until late Saturday evening. The trip was made in Stanton's big auto-truck. Those making the trip were: Messrs. Stearns, Ralph Homan, Mills, Paget, Haight, Ray Smith, Van Slyke, Wilford Hollingworth, Paul Young, Carl Hollingworth, Prof. Peck, Mrs. Peck, and the Misses Lottie Penn, Helen Wastell, Ada Marie, Aileen Ambrose, Rosamond Gilbert, Gertrude Reeves, Ermine Harding, Pearl Bradley, Mildred Bartholomew and Jessie Young.

O. A. C. Commencement exercises take place from June 8 to 10.

Harlie Blackwell started Monday for his home at Juneau, Alaska, where he will spend the summer. He expects to be back in the fall.

On last Thursday evening Willamette's team was defeated in a practice game with the Hauser Bros.' aggregation.
