'Spirit of WU' to Be Revealed

Things were a little more spirited than anticipated at a "Spirit of WU" practice. ASWU secretary Diane Wickstrom, treasurer Dean Short, and second vice-president Dick White are shown subduing enthusiastic Veep Anita Booth and ASB president Wayne Carr as they demonstrate a violation of Willamette's famous blanket rule. Member-at-large Skip Alexander, shocked by the whole procedure, will also be on hand this evening when this and other fine traditions are explained.

Initiating an addition to Willamette traditions tonight will be the six student body officers, a brass band, rally girls in full regalia, queens in splendor and sparkle, and the blessings of the Panhellenic and Inter-Fraternity Council.

Crammed into the hour between 8 and 9 o'clock at the auditorium will be information, laughs, and

Campus Chest Drive in Gear

The 1957 Campus Chest, headed by manager Ted Cook, rolled into action this week as Willamette began its first week of activity Monday. With a goal set at $1250 for university contributions to foreign student aid, the YWCA, YMCA, UNESCO, and a scholarship fund for Negro students, the Chest committees will operate full time until after the actual drive scheduled for the week of October 7.

FORTY-FIVE PER cent of the money to be collected will go to the World University Service, the foreign student aid organization. Fifteen per cent becomes part of the Salem City United Fund drive and another 10 per cent of this fall's contributions will be a part of the National Scholarship Service Fund for Negroes. The remaining 30 per cent of the $1250 is to be divided equally among the YMCA, the YWCA, and the UNESCO.

Larry Sterling, assistant Campus Chest manager, has set special events for the campaign designed to better inform the student of the precise purpose and final object of the Willamette Campus Chest. In preparing this program Sterling has corresponded personally with recipients of past Campus Chest funds.

Variety Show Casting

Tryouts for "Varsity Varieties," the annual student talent show, have been set for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in Waller hall from 7 to 9 p.m. "Varieties" will be presented November 8 in conjunction with Homecoming weekend, and Bob Braddy, manager of the event, urged anyone with any type of act to try out. He said the show would be "as close to a Broadway level as possible, along the 'new faces' line."

the WU student body. "The Spirit of Willamette U," as seen from school, social, religious, and athletic viewpoints, will leave no doubt in the mind of the students that Willamette is spirit and pep, promise the organizing ASWU officers.

Wayne Carr, president of the student body, was seen this past week boning up on Billy Graham tactics and interviewing Dean Ewalt with intent to abolish Willamette's famous blanket rule, (see picture above), in preparation for tonight's extravaganza.

Carr has defined tonight's program as the grand finale of orientation week and the first of its kind in any Western school. "We know that our program will grow to be one of the big events of the year here," he added.

The entire student body is invited to the informative and inspirational meet. Speeches will be at a minimum since faculty members and deans report larangytis from over advising. Seriousness will be non-existent for the first part of the program.

The projected program will include selected band members performing under the direction of Maurice Brennan, Prof. James Douglas, a sextet, Tom Caylor and his guitar, skits including Bags and Sax, and George Hoyt giving a special monotone rendition of the "Blue Monday Blues."

400 New Students Register As Orientation Week Ends

The 400-odd new students who have been getting acquainted with the University and its traditions this past orientation week will officially become students of the University tomorrow when they register and pay their tuition fees.

THIS FRESHMAN class, one of the largest in recent years, should swell the total number of Willamette students to well over 1100, according to school officials. This is probably the highest total enrollment ever reached.

Freshman registration, tomorrow from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Library, will be run much the same as in past years. Signatures of professors must be secured before the registration booklet can be filled out. The bookstore will be open from 8 a.m. till 4:15 p.m. so that students may buy their textbooks when they have finished registration and paid their fees.

MONDAY WILL be registration for all returning students. Schedules of classes for the fall semester are available in the registrar's office.

The events of orientation week are nearly completed and will conclude this evening with the "spirit of Willamette" program at 8 p.m. and a sock hop for the entire student body at 9:30. Monday evening the President's reception will formally honor all new students.

RUSHING PLAYS a large part in orientation week and for the first time both men's and women's organizations will send final bids to membership on Friday night, finishing rush before registration. The women's organizations began rush on Monday, a day earlier than usual.

Further orientation will be given new students in the first Tuesday convocations of the year. They will be introduced to various campus organizations and activities.

Seven New Professors Join Willamette's Teaching Staff

Seven professors have joined the Willamette faculty for the first time this fall, three in the ROTC department and four in liberal arts, the president's office reported.

DR. WILLIAM MERRILL, who will teach courses in economic theory, came from the business administration school of Georgia State College. He is a graduate of Harvard and received his MA and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Illinois. A veteran of World War I, he has been associated with a securities corporation and the operations department of the Panama Canal, and is presently writing a textbook on money and banking.

DR. HOMER H. HAWES has been named associate professor of education and will concentrate mainly on methods of teaching and supervision of student teachers. He was head of the department of education at Park College, Parkville, Missouri and has had wide experience teaching in public schools and colleges in South Carolina, Michigan and Missouri.

He received his B.A. from Harding College, his M.A. in secondary education, his M.Ed. from the University of South Carolina and his Ph.D. in history and philosophy of education from Michigan State University.

DR. PAUL M. DUELL joined the faculty as an associate professor of chemistry, replacing Dr. Charles Nichol, who is now teaching at the University of Minnesota. Dr. Duell was formerly an instructor of chemistry at Kansas State college, where he received his B.A., M.A. and, in August, his Ph.D. He is a veteran of World War II, having served as an infantryman in the Army.

Charles A. Ruud, newly selected Director of Information, is also an addition to the faculty, since he has been chosen to teach a course in the History of Civilization.

New air science professors include Capt. Douglas Weart, who has been named as an assistant professor. Captain Weart graduated from West Point and took further training at Mather A.F.B. in Sacramento. After a tour of duty in the Far East during the Korean War, he was in Japan and then in Hawaii.

He remarked that he has never lived in any one place longer than four years and that this is the first time in his life that he has lived in a town that is not adjacent to either an army or an air force base, his father having been an officer in the army. He is married and has two children.

Capt. William Wright, also an assistant professor, has spent 10 years in the air force serving in such widely separated areas as the southwest Pacific and Greenland. Before coming to Willamette, Capt. Wright was an instructor in advanced navigation at Mather AFB. He is married and has two children, a boy 10 and a girl 8.

Sergeant Leslie Ostlund joined the air force immediately after high school and attended a technical school at the University of Oklahoma. He has served in Portland and at Ashiya A.F.B. in southern Japan. He was then sent to Great Falls, Montana and again to Portland. He is married and is the father of a 15-month-old girl.

Concert Series Tickets for Sale

Tickets for the 1957-58 Distinguished Artist concert series will be on sale in the library during registration tomorrow and Monday. Chuck Marsters, manager of the series, reported that only 350 student tickets would be available and that the cost per ticket will be $4.50.

The attractions on the series roster include Kavaich and Rabovsky, a Russian ballet team; Leonard Warren, the leading baritone of the Metropolitan opera; Seymour Lipkin, pianist; and Marian Anderson, world-famous contralto.

Reserved seat tickets are available at Stevens and Son Jewelers downtown, for $6 and $7.20.

Campus Blotters Ready

Free blotters printed by the Associated Students are available in the 'Cat Cavern and all the halls of residence according to the editor, Ross Stephen. It is the only blotter authorized by the University and is published as a bonus to the regular advertisers in Willamette publications.

Ex-Editor Takes Information Post

Charles A. Ruud, a 1955 Willamette graduate, has been named Director of Information for the University. He replaces Miss Peggy Cope, who had taken the job temporarily after the resignation of Miss Julie Mellor this summer.

Ruud received his master of arts degree in history from Harvard in June and in addition to his duties as director of information will offer a course in World Civilization during the school year. He is also doing work on his Ph.D.

During his career at Willamette Ruud was editor of the Collegian and during his junior year attended the American University in Washington, D. C., as part of the Washington Semester program. He was a member of Beta Theta Pi, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Sigma Alpha Chi. He graduated cum laude and was awarded the Mary L. Collins graduate scholarship.

Ruud is married to the former Margie Leonard, a 1954 Willamette graduate and also a former Collegian editor.

Gilbert and Sullivan Drama Tryouts Wed.

Tryouts for the short Gilbert and Sullivan musical "Trial by Jury" will be held in the Fine Arts auditorium Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. The show will be presented Friday, October 18, during Parents' Weekend. Robert Putnum, professor of drama, announced there would be solo parts for a soprano, two tenors, a baritone, and a bass. The chorus will have 20 members.

Scholarship Cups Go to DG's, Betas

Delta Gamma and Beta Theta Pi again earned top positions in scholarship for the spring semester, women's and men's organizations respectively. The Delta Gammas placed the highest of all living organizations on campus. Each of the two will receive one of the rotating scholarship cups.

Statistics on spring semester grades, as released by the Registrar's office, are as follows:

Women: Delta Gamma, 3.226; town women, 3.038; Pi Beta Phi, 2.996; Chi Omega 2.954; Alpha Chi Omega, 2.851; Doney Hall, 2.796; Lausanne Hall, 2.619.

Men: Beta Theta Pi, 3.059; Phi Delta Theta, 2.851; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 2.697; town men, 2.627; Baxter Hall, 2.590; Sigma Chi, 2.506; South Hall, 2.102.

The all-school average was 2.784; all sorority, 3.015; all-fraternity, 2.799; all-women, 2.909, and all-men, 2.702.

Campus Housing Woes Larger Than Ever

The ever-present problem of housing is bigger than ever this year, as over 400 new students entered the campus for orientation. Lausanne and Doney Halls are filled to capacity with University House accommodating 14 of the 190 women living on campus.

The 250 new men students are being housed in Baxter hall, including the basement, and the fraternities, until the number of returning students is determined. Eventually, according to Dean Elmer Rieck, 40 or 50 of them will be housed in off-campus housing and he is now contacting faculty members for approval of this housing.

Success Is Sincere . . .

With hand shaken hands and perhaps somewhat tired smiles the new Willamette students have completed what will probably be the most difficult week of their college careers. At this point everyone could be a little dubious and question the authenticity of the many times they have heard of Willamette's friendly atmosphere and admirable reputation. Like most places of learning each man finds his niche and can find success here. However, first he must have confidence in himself. Willamette has confidence. Willamette is sincere.

Each new student who has heard of the high standards of this University are now proud to call Willamette a part of themselves. The records of the accomplishments of the graduates of Willamette can leave no room for doubt that there is a spot for everyone here.

Activities and organizations can become just as much a grind as continual study. It is the well-rounded individual who is the sought after college graduate. Do not be too hasty in your choice of extra-curricular activity. Be like Willamette and be sincere about your interests whatever they may be.

As a part of a university founded upon principles so very high, you will be expected to live up to the true meaning of Willamette. We wish you happy landings in the successes we know every new student can find here.

They Just Fade Away

Last spring, the former editor of The Collegian vowed she would never again set foot in this horrible brown office as long as she lived. But true to form, the old soldier, Peggy Cope, came to the rescue Tuesday night and helped a very sleepy staff meet its deadline.

Whether or not it's true that printer's ink can possibly worm its way into a person's blood, the staff praises Peg for duty above and beyond the call.

Lasi Comes to Willamette

In exchange for those meatless meals last spring Willamette has hit the jackpot in Laszlo Dazsoofi, late of Budapest, Hungary. Laszlo, who is more often called Lasi (pronounced Lotzi) has been in the United States since January but in Salem only since last week. In spite of his short residence in this country Laszlo has mastered Americanisms to perfection. He is already an expert at charades and rhythm and an avid bicyclist.

LASZLO, WHO is interested in pre-med, left Hungary last fall after the Russian retaliation. As a student at the university in his capitol city he was arrested with 400 fellow students, and had his papers taken. Since it is impossible to live in the communist - dominated countries without papers Lotzi found it necessary to leave his home without even farewells to his family.

Actually Laszlo found himself under arrest twice but escaped to Austria on November 29. Making it sound comparatively simple the Hungarian student states that he simply went to the American embassy in Bremerhaven, Germany, and asked to be sent to the United States.

HE THEN RECEIVED the papers that served as his visa and began the long trip to the United States on last Christmas eve. After the arrival of the ship with Hungarian immigrants and a period of internment in New Jersey, Laszlo attended language classes and worked in New York.

It is rumored that Lasi plays a mean boogie-woogie piano. His interesting good looks will no doubt cause female comment for quite a while. Though he had no comment on what he thought of American women, he stated that he would find out after a time. Neither did Lasi care to state what he had found the most surprising thing in this country. As a new student in the liberal arts school he found orientation week a busy time.

WHEN ASKED about the attitude of the Hungarian toward America, the former Budapest student stated that his countrymen and family had been happy in their homeland and had had no desire to leave there for Western Europe until the subjection of last year occurred. The countries behind the Iron Curtain were quite well informed on the West, he said. Residents of Budapest hear frequent broadcasts of the B.B.C and Radio Free Europe.

The Willamette committee responsible for Lasi's coming to Salem started to work last year about the time he left his homeland. They worked through state and national agencies, including the World University Service, to bring Lasi here. He will be employed at Meier and Frank's during his hoped-for two year stay in Salem. He is living at the home of Mrs. A. H. Cleaver on North 19th street.

Drinkin' in Eaton

Thirsty returning students and freshmen will be overjoyed when they walk into the first floor hall in Eaton. Reposing where an old beatup water fountain used to sit is a brand new, refrigerated water cooler than can accommodate two people at once.

Rook Bargains Offered in Red

Make way for the mighty rook lid, oh ye freshmen. Though it is doubtful that the admissions office has advertised Willamette's most fashionable headgear to new students as one of the university's greatest advantages, the gold and red beanie will nevertheless be seen on each and every well-dressed new coed and every fashion-wise freshman male.

The exciting little numbers can be purchased through that exclusive society of kindly philanthropists, the Lettermen. According to Bill Long, president of the "W" men and haberdasher of excellent repute, the all-purpose lids will be on sale at the end of the registration line. A special bargain price of $1.00 for freshmen girls is being offered by the Lettermen during the first week. The regular price of $1.00 will be paid by male freshmen.

Needed to protect the frosh from execution but not from persecution the honest in business Lettermen's club lids will be required for campus wear beginning Tuesday. Lipstickings, water hosing, and other delightful games will be the orders for the day after Tuesday morning with the exception of weekends until the one and only greased pole climb of Homecoming. It is doubtful that even then will the hats disappear due to the strength of the Class of 1960 who last year had an absolutely smashing victory over their sophomore rivals to capture the lid at the top of the pole and win the right to go bareheaded for the rest of the semester.

Hat retailer Long promises that should the sophomores throw out all contenders for the treed beanie kangaroo court tactics will be in effect the entire semester.

Four Announce Engagements, Wedding Plans Rushees Attend Final Parties, Receive Formal Bids Tonight

SALLY DODGE

JEAN GALBRAITH

NANCY GROTH

DIANNE JONES

Newly engaged Willamette coeds returned bright eyed to campus this fall with wedding plans in mind. The following are only a few with more to come next week.

SALLY DODGE, a sophomore pledge of Chi Omega, announced her engagement to Robert Griffith of Portland, this week. Griffith is with the Portland Seed Company and Miss Dodge is majoring in biology. Wedding plans are tentative for next summer.

Orinda, California was the place Jeannie Galbraith announced her engagement to George Heinfohn. Miss Galbraith is a junior French major and a member of Delta Gamma. Heinfohn is working on his Masters degree in Zoology at Berkeley and is a member of Tau Kappa Eta. February is the tentative wedding date.

A BOX OF CANDY told Alpha Chi Omega sisters this summer of the engagement of Nancy Groth to Bob Saylor. Miss Groth is a senior music major from Delake, Oregon, president of her sorority, and a member of Cap and Gown. Saylor, from Fall Creek, Oregon, is in his second year at Willamette's Law School. No date has been set for the wedding.

Diane Jones of Vancouver, Washington told friends this summer of her engagement to Willamette junior, Jim Moore. A member of Pi Beta Phi, Miss Jones will graduate this year and is majoring in art. Moore plans to go into Civil Engineering, and is affiliated with Sigma Chi. The wedding is planned for next summer.

Rush Week for Willamette women concludes this evening when rushees accept final bids. The busy week began on Monday afternoon when all new women students were invited to visit sorority open houses.

TUESDAY BROUGHT to the Chi Omega house a Lion Hunt Through Campus led by Lynne Coleman, and pipe cleaner women nametags. The Alpha Chi Omega house presented a "Unicorn Skit" and the Alpha Chi trio with Nancy Weeks, Nancy Groth, and Gail Boden. Mary Beth Van Cleave starred as Eloise in "Pi Phi Plaza" at the Pi Beta Phi house, while "Monitor, Going Places and Doing Things" came to the Delta Gamma house and starred Marge Stout, Kay Ruberg and miscellaneous DC's.

Alpha Chi Omega presented Kathy Lund, Peggy Tunnell, Gail Boden, and Dixie Ruid in an "opera" on Wednesday, and served clown cookies with ice cream. La-Arne Mundinger, Carolyn Risley, and Sally Dodge sang parodies to accompany "A Trip on the Chi O Limited" at the Chi Omega house, where fruit punch was served. Cinnamon bears and punch were served at the Pi Beta Phi house with Diane Jones in "Toyland and the Pi Phi Doll," and "Small House of Aunt Hannah" at the Delta Gamma house featured Annette Carson and Jeannie Galbraith, and fortune cookies with tea.

"AN ARROW ESCAPE" was presented yesterday at the Pi Beta Phi house complete with Robin Hood and Little John and melon cooler punch. Kay Sanford read "A DC Fairy Tale" at the Delta Gamma house while the rushees sipped hot cocoa. A "Little Red Headed Devil" becomes an Alpha Chi angel at the Alpha Chi Omega house, where angel and devil pie was served and Suzy Platt turned fortune teller at the Chi Omega house with fortune cookies and Chinese tea to add atmosphere.

The Delta Gammas will present a fashion show for their guests this afternoon featuring Ann Fields as a gushy, Paris designer. Kay Ruberg and a vocal ensemble will be featured this evening at the traditional Cream Rose banquet. A speech and reading with a solo by Cappy Casper will be given at the Pi Beta Phi house and the traditional Chi O wishing well will be featured at the Chi Omega house. Dixie Ruid is chairman of the Alpha Chi Omega's traditional dream cake ceremony.

The Social Scoop

By MARY LOU KRAUSE

A "Happy Birthday," American style, was wished to Lasi, Willamette's new Hungarian student, at an informal party at the Delta Gamma house last Sunday afternoon. Lasi was given an ancient bicycle by Dick White, who composed an original poem for the presentation. The party ended with a wild game of charades.

Old and new students are welcome at the sock hop tonight in the gym from 9:30 to 10:30 following the assembly. Refreshments will be served!

Freshmen! Come and learn Willamette yells at the pre-game rally at the gym Saturday, 7 p. m., where a competition will be held between the spirited freshman class and the rest of the student body.

Remember! Convo is at 11 a. m. this year, and the first week is for freshmen only.

YWCA big and lit sisters will get acquainted at a coffee hour and tour of the YWCA Sunday, September 29, from 3 to 5 p. m.

Congratulations are due Nettie Hansen, a member of the sophomore class who was named queen of the 1957 fair at Clark county, Washington, this summer.

Talent is needed for Varsity Varieties! Tryouts will be held September 25, 26 and 27 in Waller Hall, from 7 to 9 p. m. Male singers and comic acts are especially scarce according to manager Bob Braddy.

"Christianity Comes to College" is the theme of Wesley Weekend, to be held at Silver Creek Falls this year, next weekend. Rev. Eugene Albertson from Hillsboro Methodist church will be the featured speaker.

Our lovely Collegian office gets a new coat of paint this week! Willamette's paper will now be written in an atmosphere of Willowick blue, fire engine red, and Yorktown white. The already completed student body office has been done in spice beige, parchment beige and sage green.

Thank you! Thank you! To all the fellows who carried baggage last Sunday from all the Freshman girls and the welcome committee.

Law Students To Register

Law school registration will take place in the law building at 8 a. m. tomorrow, according to Dean Seward Reese. Classes begin Monday morning after a general meeting at 8, but Reese expected late registration to continue throughout the first of the week.

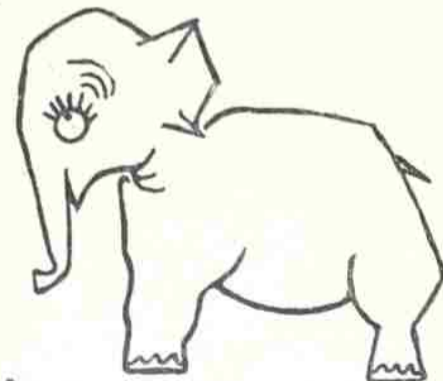

There will be no change in law faculty this year. Professors Edwin W. Butler, Charles A. Jens, Reginald Parker, John C. Paulus and assistant professor Charles R. Gromley will again head instruction and Thomas W. Churchill and Samuel R. Haley will serve as special lecturers.

Reese returned to Willamette in July after a semester's leave to accept a temporary position at U.C.L.A. where he taught Evidence and federal jurisdiction. This semester will begin Dean Reese's twelfth year at Willamette.

Professor Edwin W. Butler relieved him of correspondence and other routine while Professor John C. Paulus presided in law faculty meetings during Reese's absence.

Ogdahlmen Ready For Aggie Opener

TOMORROW evening at 8 o'clock in McCulloch stadium the 1957 edition of Ted Ogdahl's Battlin' Bearcats will lift the curtain on the Willamette grid season when they host the California Aggie Mustangs from Davis, Calif. The California school—which has an enrollment of about 2,400, more than double that of Willamette's—play in the Far Western Conference. Their opponents include the University of California Ramblers, Long Beach State, San Francisco State, Sacramento State, Chico State, and University of Nevada.

All pre-game information reveals that Coach Will Lotter's 1957 Mustang club is stronger than last year's squad which had a 7-2 record, and tied for the Far Western Conference title.

LAST YEAR the strong Aggie line held opponents to a total of three touchdowns. This was largely due to the outstanding line play of two men, guard John Kidd and tackle Tom Parker. Kidd was picked on the Little All-Coast team last year, and opponents claim he moves his 225 pounds with all the fineness of a halfback. Parker, who tips the scales at 220, gained honorable mention on the Little All-American.

COACH TED Ogdahl will once again employ his two platoon system which he used so effectively last year. His tentative starting lineup includes nine lettermen. They are ends Terry Kent and Bill Wall, tackles Gary Raid and Howard Stroebel, center Bill Long, quarterback Keith Driver, right half Earl Jambura, and fullback Vic Backlund.

Willamette's 1957 Battlin' Bearcats

Close Grid Race On Tap in NWC

THE BEGINNING of the 1957 gridiron season finds all coaches in the Northwest conference predicting an exceptionally tight race, with Linfield holding a slight edge to repeat as Northwest conference champions. However, all coaches seem to agree that the Willamette Bearcats have an excellent chance of snaring the title away from the Linfield Wildcats.

Coach Paul Durham's Wildcats come by their favored tag because of 27 returning lettermen, including five three-year monogram winners, who greeted Durham on opening day. Linfield had by far the largest turnout in the conference. Freshmen probably won't figure in Linfield's starting lineup this fall with so much experience on hand.

NEXT TO LINFIELD and Willamette, the Whitman Missionaries seem to be a favorite with the experts. Those who like Bob Thomson's Missionaries contend that they were the best club in the conference at the close of last season. Whitman lost seven of last season's starters but still have 15 lettermen on hand. The turnout at Walla Walla numbered 41, including 18 freshmen candidates. Whitman's big trouble is depth, especially on the line where they lost Ted Hansen, all conference guard for the last two seasons.

For the first time in three years the Lewis and Clark Pioneers are not favored for the crown. Coach Joe Huston's Pioneers were hit hard by graduation last spring when he lost seven four-year lettermen. Huston is counting on an outstanding crop of freshmen to come to his rescue, and until these freshmen have showed their stuff it is hard to determine the strength of the Pioneers.

COLLEGE OF IDAHO'S chance of copping the conference title depends upon whether Coach Eddie Traxel comes up with replacements for Little All-America Eddie Lodge and J. C. Keeney, both members of the all-conference teams for the second straight year last fall. C of I will boast a big line, with four freshmen ranging between 220 and 235 pounds apiece.

Coach Paul Stagg's Pacific university Badgers aren't expected to go far in the conference race this year. The Badgers have only nine experienced lettermen on hand for the tough season and there are 35 freshmen on the roster.

'Daily Doubles' Get Bearcats in Shape

COACH TED OGDahl greeted some 37 gridiron aspirants on the first day of practice last week. Ogdahl and his assistant, Jerry Long, were disappointed in the physical shape that most of the footballers showed up in for the initial workouts of the 1957 season. Both coaches, however, agreed that the mental attitude and morale were exceptional for early season practices. Among those who turned out early were 19 returning lettermen and 16 freshmen. Among the returning monogram winners are three starters from last year's team who received all-conference titles. They are center Bill Long, fullback Vic Backlund, and tackle Gary Raid.

The "two-a-day" practices were topped off with a full-game scrimmage against Portland State college last Saturday. The Bearcats, while looking a bit ragged in the first half, showed they had come a long way in just one week as they rolled to a 24-0 victory over the PSC Vikings.

BOTH OGDahl and Long were pleased with the freshmen checking in for the early season's "daily doubles." Included in the neophytes are ends Steve Berglund of South Salem and Jay Butler of Lincoln (Portland); guards Paul McGilvra of Forest Grove, Jim Robinson of South Salem, Tony Meeker of Amity, Jim Travis of Central high (Independence), Jerry Tankersley of Marshfield, and Marvin Cisneros of Oregon City who was a starter and standout for the Metros in this year's Shrine game at Portland; tackle Lee Thurber of Beaverton; halfbacks Jim Hess of Sheridan, Jim Moore of Menlo Park, Calif., Ron Harrison of Crater, and Stanley (King) Solomon of Honolulu, who was picked as most valuable player in both the Shrine and police benefit all-star games in Honolulu; fullback Larry Thompson of South Salem.

LETTERMEN returning are ends Rex Domaschofsky and Bill Wall of Dallas, Terry Kent of Grant (Portland), and Lee Weaver of North Salem; tackles Bob Griffin of South Salem, Gary Raid of Woodburn, and Howard Stroebel of Mt. Vernon, Wash.; guards Vern Coates of North Salem, and Dennis Mihm of Camas, Wash.; centers Bill Long of Myrtle Point and John Hinds of Dallas; quarterbacks Keith Driver of North Marion and Herb Juran of South Salem, who stayed out of action last year because of his transfer from U. of Oregon; halfbacks Jim Anderson of South Salem, Earl Jambura of Pendleton, Dale Shumway of Prineville, and Jack Berkey of North Marion; fullbacks Dennis Sarver of Estacada and Vic Backlund of Bandon, who has been shifted to fullback from end.
