Languentibus in purgatorio (To those languishing in Purgatory)

To those languishing in purgatory, who are cleansed by excessive fire,
and are tortured by heavy punishment, may your compassion aid. O Maria!

You are the accessible font who washed away their sins.
All you aid and none you spurn.
Extend thy hand to the dead,
who languish under penalty unending; O Maria!

To you do the dead sigh piously, desiring to be freed from penalties, and to be present in your view, to be delighted by eternal joys: O Maria!

Hasten, mother to the groaning, manifest your womb of pity, implore that Jesus deign to heal them through his wounds, O Maria!

You are the true hope, to you the crowd of the calling and of our companions cry out, on behalf of our brothers that you placate your Son, that he may give to them the heavenly reward. O Maria!

See that the tears which you regard as good,
which we pour at the feet of the Judge, soon may extinguish the force of the punishing flames so that they may be joined to the angelic choir. O Maria!

And when there be rigorous shaking, in the judgement of God to be dreaded, supplicate your judging Son,
that our lot be with the saints, O Maria!

Anonymous

Jesu, Dulcis Memoria

Jesus, how sweet the very thought,
Giving true joy to the heart,
But sweeter than honey and all else
In His presence.

Nothing more melodious is sung,
Nothing more delightful is heard,
Nothing sweeter is ever thought,
Than Jesus, the Son of God.

May Jesus be our glory,
He who will be our reward:
May our glory be in you,
Throughout all eternity.

Las Amarillas

The yellow calandras fly from the cactus
No longer will the cardinals sing happily
To the song na na
To the song no no

Because the trees on the hillside have not come back to life
For that the calandras will either sing or crush their nests
You are small and beautiful and I love you just the way you are.
You are like a little rose from the coast of Guerrero.

Everybody has their own farewell, but there's none like this one.
Four times five is twenty, three times seven is twenty-one.
