The Willamette University Department of Music offers the music major intensive professional training in several music areas coupled with a balanced core of liberal arts courses. For the non-major, the department offers performance opportunities through private instruction, performing ensembles of all types and a wide selection of general music courses, many of which are designed to meet the fine arts requirements of Willamette's general education program. The music department annually serves 300-400 students. Willamette offers four different bachelor's degrees in music: music with emphasis in music education, performance, composition and bachelor of arts in music. Willamette's Masters of Arts in Teaching completes the student's preparation for a career in music education. For more information about the Department of Music please call or email: (503) 370-6255 or wumusic@willamette.edu.

Joie Gratton, Soprano

The years pass, yes, life does not
The world explodes beautifully around us
If my mortal hear stops beating
At this instant someone else jumps to life (is born)
The years pass, yes, the fire does not
The fire will return in the children of the sun
If the fire of the heart is extinguished by a senile blow
The great blaze comes in one-hundred thousand
There is someone in need of a song of love
There is someone in need of a song of friendship
There is someone who needs to go back up to the sun
In order to sing of the greater freedom
There is someone in need of a song of peace
There is someone in need of a song of a gun
There is someone in need of more evidence
In order to have the reason to live
The years pass by, yes, beauty is Inviting you to go and take it
If the dream grew old it was sad to see
The beauty will never again be the same.

The Chamber Choir would like to thank Joie Gratton for the translation

Joshua Fit the Battle of Jericho . . . . . Trad. Spiritual
