"ALMA MATER"

To Willamette Alma Mater,
In reverant heart-felt praise;
We pause to give devotion to,
These cherished college days,
We are steeped in your tradition
To reach life's highest plane;
You have opened doors to wisdom
We will never close again.
We pledge our faithful hearts to you,
Our own Willamette U.

Chorus

In the future years
As our minds meander
Through the bless'd pages of the past
In this life's melange of sins and sorrows
There's one bond that holds us fast.
It is you, it is you, Willamette,
The goals that you set are best;
Through your faith and your firm
traditions,
You've become the spirit of the west.

Oh Willamette, our Willamette,
The goals that you set are best;
Through knowledge and tradition,
And the friendships so endeared.
Oh Willamette, hail Willamette,
You head a family proud
With a love that's grown for the school
we've known,
With heads held high and goals in view
We hail Willamette U.

"THREADS OF TIME"

The golden threads of time
Close — bind us through the ages
To heritage sublime —
That goal which was our fathers' pride.
With honor and esteem,
We find in hist'ry's pages
Foundations of a dream;
Their vision still our guide.

Chorus

Our bright years of college will ever remain
A tie that years cannot sever;
Endowed with the knowledge and hope we attain,
We guard these mem'ries forever.

And though the years flow by
In firm and ceaseless measure,
Their spirit will not die;
We strive to make that dream come true.
The college days we know
Shall be the timeless treasure
We share with long ago—
We hail Willamette U.

Formation Design The Crimson Cross of Waller
Accompanists Dave Landis, Del Cummings

"A SONG FOR YOU, WILLAMETTE"

The crimson cross of Waller,
The mill stream flowing slow,
A laughing crowd, a sudden flower,
These are the things we know.
Our song of spring will end,
But always we will hold,
A song for you, Willamette,
Through twilight's dusky gold.

Chorus

The winds that whisper in your towers
Are ever trying to tell
The secret of your founders
And of those who loved you well;
Willamette's more than campus, and ivy colored wall,
Willamette is a spirit,
With truth and warmth for all.

Your green and mellowed campus,
Your shadowed walks and walls
Are part of life we'll cherish,
When sterner duty calls.
But friendship glowing richly
Will last when these are through.
Your teaching in the years to come
Will guide in all we do.

Repeat Chorus

"IN TRIBUTE"

One hundred years our school has stood
With western lands she grew,
Her heritage we love
It's raised our standards true.
Her spirit carries on
To set a goal supreme
For age and grandeur gave to her
A place of high esteem.

O'er the campus now we roam
To Willamette we belong
Our hearts united share
The bonds of friendship strong.
The laughter and the tears
Which come from day to day
Help build foundations for our lives
To guide us on our way.

Of Willamette now we sing
She stands as proud today
Her flame of knowledge lights
Our future with its ray.
An ever widening path
The torch has brought in view
Willamette for thy gift of light,
We bow our heads to you.
