GAME WAS OURS.

O. S. N. S. Defeated and Old Score Settled.

The basketball season at "Old Willamette" was opened propitiously, last Saturday night, by registering a victory for Willamette to the tune of 19-15.

The game was not fast, but nevertheless it was an interesting one, especially the last half, when the Oregon State Normal boys made a fine attempt to snatch victory from defeat, and almost succeeded.

As it was the first game of the season for either team, there was considerable lack of team work, and a good many fouls were made.

In the beginning of the game Murphy led off with a basket for the visitors, soon followed by a second, and made two points by throwing fouls. Smith of Monmouth also scored one goal.

In the meantime Judd, Pollard and Chapler had been busy, making 15 points in all, about evenly divided, which looked good by the side of the opponents 8 when the half ended.

In the second half Willamette did not play as well as usual. Hunt, who took Chapler's place, made one basket, but failed when given a chance to throw fouls. Pollard also made one basket.

There were but few times in the game when our team pulled themselves together and really played ball, but it was the first game, the crowd was small, and there was an absolute lack of any enthusiasm, so little spirit, on the part of the team, was to be expected.

Two improvements in the gym. made the game pleasant—a new blackboard on which a person can easily see the score, and the new lights. The fact that there were three new players in the home team is a good sign. Probably a second team can be formed almost as good as the first, for most of last year's famous first team are back.

The line-up follows:

O. S. N. S.	W. U.
Murphy.....F.....	Chapler
Stein.....F.....	Hunt
Zeigler.....C.....	Judd
Butler.....G.....	Pollard
Smith.....G.....	Matthews
Officials—Prof. Forbes, Monmouth; R. F. Morris, W. U.
Scorer—Grannis.
Time—20-15 minutes.

Cornell has received $10,000 for a new athletic field.

"PREPS" PLAY BALL.

Second Years Win; 8-7.

When the Second and Third year basketball teams met on Dec 19 in the gymnasium there was "something doing." From the time the ball was set in play by the referee until the time-keeper's whistle blew announcing the close of the second half, the game was so hotly contested that it was impossible to pick a winner.

When five husky boys wearing '09 trotted out and warmed up, soon to be followed by five stalwart boys wearing '08, the great multitude (?) of spectators knew they were to witness a good game of basketball.

The game was soon on, and no basket was made by either side for a time until Shanks removed the goose-egg and placed two to the credit of the Second Years, but the Third Years were not to be left out so "Slim" Unruh tossed one for them. Spires now felt called upon to do something, so he added four in quick succession, and Matthews added two to '08 just as the first half ended, making the score 6 to 4 in favor of '00.

When the second half began there was a look of determination on the face of every player to win for his team.

A foul was soon made by '09, and "Slim" Unruh immediately tossed the basket, giving '08 another point.

The fight for victory waged fiercely, and the suspense was kept up until Fisher tossed a basket, placing '09 three points ahead, but Matthews was there with another basket just before the timekeeper's whistle blew, closing the fiercely contested game with the score 8 to 7 in favor of '09.

The Second Year Team showed superior team work, but if the Third Year boys had had more time to practice the score might have been different.

Both teams wore neat suits of class colors. The line-up was as follows:

'09.	'08.
Fisher.....Center.....	Price
Shanks.....Forward.....	Matthews
Catlin.....Forward.....	Unruh
Spires.....Guard.....	Love
Price.....Guard.....	Randall

REP. HUME, OF CURRY,

Speaks Upon "The Duties of the Day."

Senator Booth Presides.

Senator Booth and Representative Hume were with us on Monday evening before the holidays. Rep. Hume delivered an able address on "The Duties of the Day."

These two distinguished friends of the University were in the city to attend the special session of the legislature. Monday afternoon flyers announced that Rep. Hume would address us in the evening. A goodly number of students and friends gathered to hear him. Senator Booth presided and in an introductory speech, replete with many good thoughts, presented the speaker of the evening.

Rep. Hume covered the subject of his address in a comprehensive, practical manner. His words were well appreciated, as was evidenced by the applause.

The Collegian, as the mouth-piece of the students, wishes to say that we appreciate very much the kindness of these men in giving us the opportunity of hearing them and learning from them.

THE ORATORY RECITAL.

Immediately following the address Dean Savage presented the students of the college in their first public recital this year, assisted by Misses Andrewartha and Nina Johnson and Mr. Ivan Martin.

Some of the numbers were rendered by Freshmen who had never appeared in public before. Each number, however, showed good training and more than average talent.

Following is the programme rendered:

Piano Solo, "Two Woodland Sketches,"..... McDowell
 (a) "To the Wild Rose."
 (b) "To the Meadow Brook."
 Bertha Andrewartha.

Reading, "The Trial of Abner Barrow,"..... Adapted
 James G. Heltzell.

Reading.....
 (a) "Our Christmas"..... Julia Walcott
 (b) "Her Old Blue Muslin Gown"..... Sherman
 Elizabeth Stowell.

Euphonium Solo, "Hearts and Flowers,"..... Tobani
 Ivan Martin.

Reading, "Poe's Raven in an Elevator,"..... G. B. Loomis
 Bertha Hewitt.

Reading, "The Blue and the Gray,"..... Jackson
 Wallace Trill.

Vocal Solo, "Down by the Old Mill,"..... Bert Morgan
 Nina Johnson.

Reading.....
 (a) "The Little Hatchet Story,"..... Anon
 (b) "Cuddle Down,"..... Anderson
 Gertrude Johnson.

Reading, "The Bicycle Race,"..... Champney
 Edgar Averill.

HALL NOTES.

Please hang your hat on the floor.

We are without a cook. All the girls have returned with the exception of Miss Ida Officer, who is ill in Portland.

Miss Eva Marlatt and Miss Bessie Stowell have registered at the Dorm. Bess has taken the first degree of initiation and Eva lives in daily expectancy.

The Dean and a party of the hall girls occupied a box at the concert of the Fisk jubilee singers.

One of the girls who has just begun to receive callers asked these questions concerning the treatment of the case:

What do I do when the door-bell rings? Do I take his hat? Do we set on the "settee" together or get our chairs side by side or facing each other? How long do you hold his hand? Do you tell him when to go or will he know? How do you say good-bye?

Entered at the postoffice at Salem as second class matter.

Vacation is over and once more we take up our books for another period of three months. For many if not for all the holidays were a time of pleasure and rejoicing, and we trust that all have come back with renewed energy and zeal. The new year which lies open before us, and as yet unexplored, is replete with golden opportunities for our advancement. Whether we will lay hold upon them and use them or whether we will carelessly let them slip from our grasp is a question which must be answered by each and every one of us individually. It is within our own power to say whether the year 1904 shall be a record in our lives of honest endeavor and sure reward or whether it shall be a record of wasted opportunities and blasted hopes.

Since our last issue the students of Willamette have been permitted to hear addresses from three prominent Oregon men. In another column will be found an account of the evening spent with Senator Booth and Representative Hume. Friday morning Senator Miller of Linu was a Chapel visitor and very kindly favored us with a short address. The senator is one of our most forceful speakers and his remarks were greatly appreciated by the students.

The securing of noted men to address the student body from time to time is a very commendable enterprise and one which receives the hearty approbation of the students. No one can furnish such an inspiration to a student as the man who has gone into the battle of life and has come out as victor.

OTHER COLLEGES.

Thirty thousand dollars has been donated Allegheny college, to be used to educate both men and women for the ministry.

First Freshman: "Aren't you coming to English A?" Second Ditto: "No; the instructor said that if we wrote daily themes regularly, English would come to us.—Harvard Lampoon.

Said a young cadet to his Juliet, "I'm like a ship at sea; Exams are near, and much I fear

That I shall busted be,"
"Oh, no," she said, "a shore I'll be;
Come, rest, our journey's o'er"
Then silence fell, and all was well,
For the ship had hugged the shore.

Happy New Year!

We are glad to announce that Miss Ida Officer is better.

N. D. Moser, a last year student, is teaching at Shamokawa, Wash.

We are now even with O. S. N. S. for having defeated us two years ago.

C. W. Brown and C. H. Starr, two Oregon students, were Chapel visitors Dec. 21.

Dr. Tufts, president of the State Anti-Saloon League, was a Chapel visitor Dec. 22.

A lady, evidently a stranger in Salem, recently mistook the University for the postoffice.

The Freshman caps have arrived and look very neat. Their enterprise is commendable and worthy of imitation.

Heard at the performance of the Fisk jubilee singers on Prof. Dawson's third appearance, "O! is that another one of them?"

Mr. Burgess Ford, a former U. of O. student, has registered. The class of '05 gladly welcomes him into its sacred circle.

A graduate of the College of Music on being asked if Patti was to sing in Salem, replied, "I don't know whether he is or not."

The grammar classes of the normal department recently presented Prof. Reynolds with a gold-mounted fountain pen as a token of their esteem.

A farmer who attended one of the football games, on being asked by a neighbor where he had been, said he had been up at the hog-wallowing on the Willamette field.

The following note of warning was recently handed in for publication: "Freshmen, warning—The constant wearing of warm caps is likely to cause the loss of the natural covering of the head."

Among the recent Chapel visitors were Miss Jesse Wann, Miss Johnson of John Day and Mrs. Blevin of Fort Stevens. Mrs. Blevin was formerly a Willamette student, being then known as Miss Prescott.

The University was formally opened Wednesday with a splendid address by Dr. W. C. Kantner of the First Congregational church. Dr. Kantner is a forceful speaker and a warm friend of the students, who are always glad to have him address them.

FORMER STUDENT MARRIED.

At the home of the bride's parents in Tangent, on the 5th of January, occurred the wedding of Miss May Spencer to Mr. Ray Mayhew. President Coleman performed the ceremony.

Miss Spencer was a member of the class of '06; was Dr. Coleman's private secretary for two years past and is well known and liked by the many who knew her and who wish her all success and happiness in her new life. The groom, Mr. Mayhew, is a business man of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in which city the couple will make their home.

The following University people attended the wedding:

Pres. Coleman, Miss Bertha Andrewartha, Mrs. Ellen Bagley, Miss Lila Swafford, Miss Erna Clarke, Mr. E. F. Averill, Mr. R. B. Wilkins, Prof. W. H. McCall.

STUDENTS WED.

"One Live as Two, Two Live as One."

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Stanton, on Cottage street, Mr. G. O. Oliver and Miss Eva Stanton were united in marriage by Bishop Barkley, of the United Brethren church. Both are students of the University, Mr. Oliver being a member of the Sophomore class and Mrs. Oliver a special student.

The ceremony took place shortly after 12 o'clock a. m., on Wednesday, Dec. 23, in a room tastefully decorated in the colors of the Sophomore class—green and white. Festoons of ivy were draped from corner to corner. One corner was banked with a mass of ivy for the altar, and had a bell of white suspended from a canopy of ivy. The bride and groom were preceded in their march to the altar by Miss Belle Darby, bridesmaid, and Mr. R. B. Wilkins, the best man. After the ceremony the newly married couple received the fervent congratulations of all present and the groom joyously announced to the assembled guests that he was the happiest man on earth.

The bride was dressed in a very pretty gown of cream colored laudown, trimmed in silk and applique, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The groom, to use the conventional phrase, was dressed in conventional black.

After viewing the wedding presents the guests proceeded to the dining room to partake, with the happy couple, of the first dinner of their wedded life. Here also the same scheme of decoration in green and white was followed out. Then from here they went again to the parlor and spent a very pleasant hour at the piano. Then all departed that they might have time to procure a supply of rice to take with them to the train. The crowd was at the station on time, but the train was not. However, finally it appeared and Mr. and Mrs. G. O. stepped from the carriage into a shower of rice, which followed them even into the car. The train very kindly waited and afforded a thoughtful Sophomore the opportunity of opening the window beside the much embarrassed couple, giving to the other members of the class, as well as to other people, the chance to stand and keep a continuous shower of rice going through the window into their faces. Finally the train started off with its "choo choo," and amidst the "Hic Hec" of the class of '06, leaving Mr. and Mrs. Oliver to the enjoyment of their blissful happiness.

PHILODORIAN.

Last Friday night was a memorable occasion among the Philodorians. It being the first meeting of the new term, and interest in literary endeavor having flagged for the past several weeks, it was thought best to make this evening a special rally event, and a choice and well rendered programme was given.

The speakers seemed to have been in just the proper atmosphere to develop their best and noblest thoughts, and many fitting orations were made over the corpse of the dead Past, and then lifting the veil which obscured the lustrous and brilliant Future, strong and earnest appeals were made emphasizing the fact that action was necessary and that that action must be in the living Present.

The following program was rendered:

Essay, "Philodorian Society," by Roy Marquam.

Lecture, "Philodorian Society," by R. C. Glover.

Recitation by Robert Shepard.

General discussion by society.

PHILODOSIAN.

The first meeting of the society after the holidays was well attended. There are now about twenty-seven members in the society and good work is being done. At the last meeting Miss Jessie Martin gave an excellent outline of the president's message to congress. Others were paper on "Relations Between United States and Nicaragua," by Elsa Wann.

Recitation, Bertha Hewitt.

Sketch on Popular Illustrations of the Day, Belle Crouse.

Associations.

Y. W. C. A.

Miss Clara Holmstrom led the Y. W. C. A. Sunday afternoon meeting. Her subject was "A College Girl's Ideal Woman."

The meeting was without a doubt one of the best held during this school year. Miss Holmstrom brought out in a clear and strong manner what it meant to be an ideal woman—"such a woman as left an atmosphere of sweetness and graciousness wherever she went." The attendance was as large as usual, and those who were not present cannot know what good they missed.

Y. M. C. A.

Last Sunday's meeting was in charge of the Bible Study Committee. Prof. McCall gave a brief address on Bible Study which was very helpful. Following this, men of the association told what Bible Study was meaning to them. It was a very interesting meeting and several men signified their willingness to join the new classes to be formed. We expect all association men to take on of the systematic courses which we offer, and we invite all other men of the school to do the same. The course offered for the second semester will be Sharman's Life of Christ.

The attendance last Sunday was very good, but we wish for an increase of 50 or 100 per cent.

Our meetings Sunday afternoon, at 3 p. m., should be the foremost religious meeting of the day for all University men. Indeed it is, we believe, a privilege to gather with our fellow-students and worship God, to listen to His messages and to hear the fellows say what they think and feel and strive after, in regard to religious life. This is the opportunity of a life time, a part of our college life, which will not come again. May we learn to realize our unique position in this regard and make it a point to attend these meetings regularly.

EFFORTS TO FORM LEAGUE FAIL.

Through the efforts of Manager Winslow of the Varsity basketball team, the managers of the teams from O. A. C., Dallas College and Willamette met in Albany, Dec. 18, for the purpose of taking the preliminary steps in the formation of a state inter-collegiate basketball league. The University of Oregon had been asked to send a man, but for some unexplainable reason she failed to do so. Those who were present went ahead, formed an organization, and drew up a constitution and by-laws, which were to be submitted to the student bodies of the respective colleges for ratification. U. of O., however, seemed determined to prevent the formation of a league and before O. A. C. had time to ratify the constitution and by-laws, C. A. Burden of the State University wrote to O. A. C. and threatened them with expulsion from the Northwest Athletic Association, if they should join this league. Perhaps Mr. Burden can present some excuse for such action, but at present none is discoverable to us.

There were many good things in the constitution and by-laws, which, had they been adopted, would have been the means of bringing the standard of basketball, among the Oregon colleges, to a much higher level. As it remains, basketball will be characterized by a series of squabbles over games, officials and championships.
