JAZZ NIGHT IN SMITH

Friday, October 9, 1998

7:00 p.m.

Smith Auditorium

The Willamette University Department of Music offers the music major rigorous musical training coupled with a balanced core of liberal arts courses. For the non-major, the department offers performance opportunities through private instruction, performing ensembles of all types and a wide selection of general music courses. The Music Department annually serves 300-400 Willamette University student. Music degrees available include the Bachelor of Music degree with emphasis in music education, performance, music therapy, or composition; the Bachelor of Arts in Music; and the equivalency certification in music therapy. Willamette's Master of Arts in Teaching completes the student's preparation for a career in music education. In March 1999, we eagerly anticipate the completion of a new music center which will provide an added performance hall to seat 450, faculty studios, a rehearsal space, percussion studio and practice rooms.

Willamette University's Music Department offers over $100,000 in scholarships annually. Dates for the 1998-99 Music Scholarship auditions for students entering the fall of 1999 are November 14, 1998 and February 15 and 27, 1999. Contact the Willamette University Music Department for more information and to receive an audition application.
