WELCOME

It has been remarked that the traveler who would see Europe must take Europe with him. This is only a striking way of saying that a good deal depends on the sort of person one is. Just now as we enter a new college year this thought is quite appropriate, for if a student does not "see Europe" it is more than probable that Europe should not be blamed.

Another aphorism reminds us that a good beginning is prophetic of a happy ending, but it is equally important to keep the goodness of the good beginning at a high pitch throughout the enterprise. Most of us commence college well but about fifty-four per cent of freshmen play out somewhere along the road before completing the four years. Continuance in well doing is undoubtedly the best insurance policy for one who would be a scholar.

We bid you the most cordial welcome to "Europe," to the best that you are and to the persistence of that best throughout the college course. Along this highway are unspeakable delights, and the splendid thing is that the highway never ends. We greet you as fellow travelers, spirits with whom we are to companion in the highest quest. We pledge to your service what we have and are.

Sincerely yours,
CARL G. DONEY

WELCOME!

As president of the Associated Students, it is my privilege to extend to you a most cordial welcome to this university. We are proud that you have chosen to become members of the Great Willamette Family and I know that in the years to come you will refer with pride to Willamette as your Alma Mater.

The majority of you who are entering have graduated from high school recently. By coming to the university you are leaving behind many associations and are taking up a new life on this campus with its enlarged responsibilities and privileges.

As evidenced by your entering university you have centered upon a definite plan and purpose of life, and that is to develop the powers within you to their highest attainment and to prepare for useful and successful careers in the days to come. To more effectively carry this out I would urge that you enter into the life of Willamette to its fullest extent. Regulate your time so that you will be able to take advantage of all phases of university education. Become acquainted with the manners and customs of your institution, and especially the traditions which will play such an important part in your lives during the four years to come.

And this above all, remember that you are university men and women and in all you will act as such, and thereby bring honor to your Alma Mater.

WARREN A. McMINIMEE,
President A.S.W.U.

GREETINGS

Hello, Class of 1934. In the friendly, happy, spirit of Willamette, which we hope will soon become your own, the Blue Key fraternity greets you. We trust that you will find the next four years to be the most satisfying of your life thus far. In them we hope that you will go far in the attainment of your life ideal for well-rounded development.

The Blue Key fraternity purposes to serve in all the various phases of campus life. As our Alma Mater has served the Pacific Northwest by preparing the highest types of young manhood and womanhood for useful lives in their respective communities, so we strive to help our school in its numerous activities throughout the college year. The Blue Key men are always happy to assist new students at W. U. If they cannot answer your inquiries, they will direct you to someone who can.

Cordially yours,

FRANK J. VAN DYKE,
President of Blue Key.

WELCOME, '34

Willamette welcomes you to her campus, and the Cubs are here to emphasize that welcome. We want you to acquaint yourself with her traditions, with her activities, and with her students.

A correct start in college life will help you to enjoy your education and your social activities, in the next three years. Get off on the right foot; the Cubs are behind you and will aid you in any way possible. That's our purpose.

The Cubs are primarily a "service" organization. We want to help you. But we want your cooperation. Learn and live up to Willamette's traditions, and do it cheerfully; strive to keep the school's name foremost in everything, scholarship, athletics, traditions. Then be proud of it.

You come from the pinnacle of standing in high school life to be lowest place in college circles. It's a new experience, and a strange one for a short time, it is true. But we all experience the ups and downs of life, and the Cubs are confident '34 will take this one with a grin.

Good luck!

JOHN NELSON,

President of the Cubs.

Until Homecoming Freshmen are requested to:

Carry the Handbook.

Boys to wear a cardinal and gold cap of the kind which may be purchased at the University Book Store.

The Cubs have made these requests.

WELCOME

Dear Freshman Girls:—

As you come to the campus of dear Willamette to make it your home for four years, the Y. W. C. A. wishes to extend to you a most friendly welcome, and a sincere wish that all your college days may be happy ones.

We also extend to you the privilege and opportunity of joining us in Christian fellowship, and in giving of yourselves—your faith, your hope, your joy and cheerfulness, that together we may serve our generation.

“To be alive in such an age!
To live to it! To give to it!
Fling limitations to the wind
And link thyself with humankind.”

Cordially,

BETTY LEWIS,
Y. W. C. A. President.

STUDENT PURPOSE

We unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

We determine to make this life possible for all people.

In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him.

GREETINGS

To the men of '34, and other new men, the Willamette Young Men's Christian Association extends genuine greetings and a welcome which we trust you will find has a personal meaning. Frankly, we need you; and we sincerely believe you need the benefits the Y. M. C. A. offers.

The campus "Y" seeks to be of service to all men on the campus, particularly in developing and perpetuating the religious element which is in every normal life.

Jesus' ideals are a leavening force in the world. They have made possible our university. They have also inspired the organization of 700 "Ys" on American college camps as well as a fellowship around the world. The goal of Association men is to understand and endeavor to practice His way of life.

In our socials, discussions, meetings, groups in Chresto, and at Seabeck Conference we believe you will find much of value. A group of men on the campus urges you to join with them in the Y. M. C. A., for the enrichment of your own and other lives.

HAYES BEALL, President.

OLD HISTORIC TEMPLE

There's an old Historic temple
Rising grandly through the years,
Where the oaken-hearted fathers
Drew their strength for strong careers.
Down the years its portals open,
Gathers wise ones to its fold;
Breathes the spirit of the Westland.
Card'nal emblem 'bossed with gold.

Spirit of the Golden Westland.
Breathing through our fathers' tears;
Tells the story of the Temple.
Bids us hope adown the years.
Sing, oh sing, of old Willamette,
Sing while hearts are young and true;
Sea to sea the chorus swelling,
Dear old school, our W. U.

LET'S GO WILLAMETTE

Let's go! Willamette U.

Onward to win the score

Show our spirit true

Fighting for evermore

And may the victory bell

Our praises tell

And ring them out tonight

Rah for the fame of Willamette's name

Show 'em the Bearcat Fight.

QUEEN OF THE WEST

The East may love old Harvard,

The North love old Cornell;

But the school of fame, whose noble name,

Forever shall excel

Stands proudly in the Westland

Where friends are staunch and true;

We love our dear old college,

So here's to W. U!

Chorus—

Willamette, to thee we will be true,

Willamette, we'll ever fight for you,

We pledge our loyalty.

Our homage pay to thee.

Pride of all the West, you are the best,

Willamette, our hearts we pledge anew,

Willamette, our fealty to you,

Faithful we will be

With staunch fidelity.

Willamette, queen of all!

Fling high our glorious colors

The Cardinal and the Gold,

Exalt the dream which stands supreme

Wrought by the men of old.

With eager hearts and voices

And veneration true;

Sing forth our acclamations

Bold sons of W. U.

ON WILLAMETTE

On Willamette. ever onward,
To the highest goal in view,
From the bell tower rings the story
Of thy conquests, W. U.
In our mighty Alma Mater
Let our faith be ever bold,
That victory may be the prize,
Of the Cardinal and the Gold.

MAGIC SPIRIT

Then we'll strive, we'll stand, we'll stay by old Willamette
With her legends and traditions old and true
Something seems to draw us onward ever
to the victor's goal;

'Tis the magic of thy spirit, W. U.

FIGHT 'EM BEARCATS

Fight 'em, Bearcats, fight forever,
Guard Willamette through the years;
Fight with mighty strong endeavor,
Shield the spirit of our seers.
Fight 'em Bearcats, sturdy warriors,
Fight with matchless courage bold,
For the glory of our Cardinal,
Cardinal and undaunted Gold.

FIGHT, SONS OF OLD WILLAMETTE

Fight, sons of Old Willamette,
Fight 'til the battle's done;
With a valor ever bold
For the Card'nal and the Gold
Fight 'til the vict'ry's won!
Many hearts are standing by you
With a spirit ever true;
Fight with courage never dying
Fight! Willamette U.

TRUE TO YOUR SPIRIT

True to your spirit!
On brave warroirs to the end
Fight till the foe shall fear us
Till the enemy's haughty head shall bend,
On for Willamette,
Fight the battle as of old,
Victory the prize shall be
Of the cardinal embossed with gold.

CANNIBAL KING

A cannibal king with a big nose ring
Got stuck on a Zulu maid,
And every night when the moon shown bright
Across the canal he'd wade
To hug and kiss this dusky miss
Out under the big bay tree,
And when they met they sang a duet
That sounded like this to me:

Oh, Jason Lee, socretty boo-ya
Oh, Poppa Waller, chenickety umba
Umba—Umba—Um—

BEND THE KNEE

Bend the knee, yes, bend the knee
To the Cardinal and the Gold;
Before the Bearcats' fighting power
Mars himself must even cower.
Rise, ye sons of Jason Lee,
We will win the victory.
So bend bend the knee to Willamette
 Varsity.

Victory; yes, victory to the Cardinal and the Gold;
Then fearful foes will bite the dust,
For win we will, for win we must.
Onward, then to mastery,
This our conquering song shall be:
So bend bend the knee to Willamette
 Varsity.

OUR PLEDGE

Oh, Willamette fairest name,
School we love forever more,
We shall strive to keep thy fame,
Though we win or lose the score.
Singing ever through the fight,
"I love Willamette U,"
Aiming, striving with our might.
T'ward a worthy purpose true.

Chorus—

Oh dear Willamette U.,
The school we love so well,
We pledge our love to you
And e'er your praises tell.
Oh may we always be
Most worthy sons of thine,
We pledge our loyalty
Willamette, school of mine.

College friends will go their way
And our world will hurry on
Our strife lost but a day
And our cause be lost or won
But through all our lives we'll sing
"I love Willamette U."
And to the end we'll bring
Our trust kept faithful true.

I LOVE WILLAMETTE U

I love Willamette U.
I love her campus too;
I love her Profs so good and true,
I love her spirit real true blue.
I love the old mill stream,
I love to sit and dream;
I see it all in shadows cool,
I love our dear old school.

DREAM ON

The stars are softly gleaming,
In the shadows of the night,
The moon like glowing silver
Covers all with mellow light.
The world is resting peaceful
From the hurry of the day.
So now beneath your window
Do I sing to you and say—

Chorus—(Boys sing)

Dream on gently, pretty maiden,
Till the golden heart of you
Thrills with night-time's beauty,
And your fairest dream come true.

(Girls sing)

Dream on, lad of old Willamette,
Till the youthful heart of you
Thrills with life and love and glory,
And your fairest dreams come true.

The mill stream ripples onward
Through the mottled shade of trees,
The moon is wafted gently
By the golden evening breeze.
And making light the shadows
Dance the moonlight fairy beams
And they mingle with our music
And they harmonize your dreams.

WA HOO

Wa hoo wa hoo
Rip zip ba zoo,
I yell, I yell for W. U.
Wa hoo wa hoo wa hoo
Well! well, well,
Well, well, well, well,
Well, well, well, well,
Wa hoo, etc.

SERENADE SONG

When all the campus is sleeping,
Bathed in a silv'ry glow,
Lulled to rest by the mill stream,
Murmuring soft and low,
Our voices will lift 'neath your window,
Soft as the palest moonlight
Not to disturb your fair slumbers;
But wish as we bid you good night.

Chorus—

While you are sleeping, sleeping,
Under the milky way,
Wrapt in the shadow of night-time.
Far from the cares of the day;
May you be dreaming, dreaming,
Dreams of a love ever true
Love that a lad of Willamette
Holds in his heart for you.

Hark! as the voices of nature
Break thru the quiet night,
The singing sigh of the tree tops
Whispering low and light,
The distant chirp of the cricket,
Night breezes age-old song
Oh, may you hear in your dreamland
The wish of this choral throng.

GO, WILLAMETTE

Fight the fight that knows no fear.
Oh, Willamette, heart of cheer.
Then we'll shout the name we love,
To the bending skies above.
Go Willamette, go Willamette, go W. U.
Go win the victory
Show them all both great and small,
What Willamette fight can do.

WILLAMETTE SPRING SONG

Oh, springtime at Willamette,
There's naught could sweeter be!
Like mists by sunlight melted,
The clouds of trouble flee.
And all of life seems gladness
At just a sparrow's trill,
Or glimpse of maple blossoms,
Our hearts with rapture thrill.

Oh, sweet is day's stern labor,
We conquer without fear;
And sweet the hours of evening
When college friends are near.
So gathered here at twilight
Amid the shadows long,
Soft notes of youth and springtime
Are mingled in our song.

CHALLENGE TO LOYALTY

There's a cardinal bar from a western sky,
And a golden beam from the sun,
The cardinal for the men of old
Whose valiant courage won,
To these memories we are loyal,
They were wrought with a purpose true,
On these we build our standards
And our faith in Willamette U!

There's a challenge flung from this western sky,
And this golden beam of light,
There's a flaming hope of victory
That will guide us ever right,
And from these colors blended,
The cardinal and golden hue,
We gain the strength of our loyalty,
And our love for Willamette U!

WILLAMETTE NIGHT SONG

Over the moon's bright circle
Clouds like a curtain creep
The night with sombre darkness
Covers the world asleep.
Then the moon by the clouds unveiled,
Casts of flood of silvered light
And my longing heart turns to singing
This fantasy of the night.

Chorus:

Dream on, Oh fairest one
Wrapt in gentle slumber
Sleep on, while yet the moon so softly beams;
Dream on in sweet repose
Lulled by songs of love
And may their spirit weave into your dreams
Sleep on while still the night
Robed in velvet splendor
Has charmed Willamette with its magic spell
My heart bids you sweet farewell
For the paling stars foretell
Night shall fade in morning light.
Fairest one, goodnight—goodnight.

The years shall pass by us swiftly
Dimming youth's brightest rays
But the mem'ries of life's gay springtime
Will lighten the darkest days;
The spell of our dear Willamette
Binds our hearts with a golden chain
And the song we sang together
Shall echo for us again.

GO TO CHURCH

History records man as a being who worships. The desire to worship is universal. Among every people of whom we have record, signs of worship have been discovered. Let us develop and direct this instinct of worship.

Today, while attending college, most of us are away from home; yet the deep wish in the heart of every father and mother is that we remain true to the teachings of our youth. By home training and tradition we have some knowledge of the purposes and claims of religion. We believe that in the Bible man finds a standard whereby to guide his life. Religion in its broadest sense is life lived in all its relationships. Religion is the ballast which steadies man's life. Religion is friendship with God.

Willamette wishes to co-operate with the churches of Salem. We have included this church directory in the handbook with the special hope that the church going habit learned at home may not be lost at college.
