LINDSEY-TULLY IN DEBATE AT ARMORY

IS NON-DECISION AFFAIR

Judge Explains His Version of Companionate Marriage. Minister for Duty

The product of the court and of the church met last night in the armory, the former represented by Judge Ben Lindsey of national and international reputation for his outstanding discussion of companionate marriage—the latter by Dr. Norman K. Tully pastor of the Presbyterian church who was Salem's champion against the judge's proposals, and for three hours the two men debated in front of a fair sized audience the much discussed subject.

Lindsey drew largely from his own experience using facts from his own observation, as well as citing a number of alleged authorities to support his contention that companionate marriage should be approved and birth control legalized.

Dean Hewitt acting as chairman introduced the speakers declaring that "the measure of a democracy is measured by the degree to which the majority will allow the minority to express its opinion". And further, that, "the purpose of the debate was not to explode a theory but to stir all to think intelligently upon the subject."

Dr. Tully resorted to the Judge's own publications for his plan exposing six weaknesses. Going further he suggested improvements which could be made over present marriage conditions.

Lindsey stated that modern marriage is companionate marriage. He would have "a house of human welfare" in which the troubles causing the alarming increases in divorce could be talked over and remedied if possible. The Judge wasted no time in stating that divorce is on the increase and that he was against divorce.

In companionate marriage he claimed that he was not advocating a new plan but simply legalized control of some of the practices practiced under modern marriage in order to make them decent. Lindsey continued, "I would take the bootleg element of the knowledge which makes for birth control as it is practiced today. I would make scientific and regulated the information on this subject so that it might become a democratic matter done scientifically to meet economic, social, and personal needs."

Dr. Tully stated his six weaknesses in the judge's marriage plan bringing in that family responsibility is ignored, that the unjust burden is placed upon women, that a harmful situation is created by allowing the married couple to live apart, that true marriage is brought about and founded upon a mistake—the accident of the wife bearing a child.

Happy marriage according to Dr. Tully depends alike on comradeship, economic partnership, children and sex.

DEAN ADAMS OF MILLS INVESTIGATES CAMPUS

Is Non-committal As to Her Findings Relative to Membership of University Women

Dr. Katherine Rodgers Adams, dean of education at Mills college, was on Willamette campus Friday, Saturday, and Sunday investigating the standards of the university. Dean Adams came in the interests of the American Association of University Women and will report her findings to a committee of that organization which will meet in New Orleans April fifth to tenth. At that time Willamette will be considered with 105 other colleges and universities for national membership in the A. A. U. W.

Miss Adams was noncommittal as to her findings and gave no intimation as to what her report will be.

While in Salem numerous social affairs were held for the visiting dean. She left Sunday afternoon for Portland where she addressed the Portland branch of the A. A. U. W. Tuesday she returned to Oakland.

This inspection tour is of importance to local university circles. Two years ago the Salem organization of university women applied to district headquarters for a Willamette chapter, and it is thought that a definite decision is to be rendered by the national association in April following Dean Adams's report.

MISS MCGILL HANDS IN RESIGNATION

Miss Winifred McGill has resigned her position as instructor in English, said resignation to take effect immediately after the close of the present semester. Her resignation is in favor of Miss Helen Pearce who is returning this fall.

Miss McGill was first appointed as a year's substitute for Miss Pearce, and has remained on the faculty as the latter's leave of absence was extended. Miss McGill stated that she might accept a position with the University of California beginning with the fall semester if her health permitted. Meanwhile she plans to take a rest following close of school in June.

Miss Pearce has been taking graduate work in the East and at University of California toward a Ph.D. degree. She completes her work in August and returns to the campus in September.

LETTERMEN TO PUBLISH TOURNAMENT PROGRAM

The "W" club through a special committee is publishing the program for the basketball tournament this year, and is increasing the size of the booklet to 14 pages.

The inside of the cover will be given over to advertising, and advertising will be divided up throughout. According to the committee in charge composed of Kenneth Litchfield and Ivan White the program will be sold for the price of ten cents. They will further contain the championship, and consolation series spread, a history of the tournament, the names and numbers of the visiting teams, the pictures of the teams, photographs of the state athletic board and other pertinent information.

The music of the winning song was composed by Marjorie Miller and the words were written by Rae Windust.

With the spotlights turned upon the stage, the Seniors in their caps and gowns were the first to appear marching to the traditional Senior march. The Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman women (Continued on page five)

Mr. Geddes is attempting to secure Miss Mina Hager, Mezzo-Contraalto as a special feature of the performance. Miss Hager appeared in the Hollywood Bowl summer concerts last year and is a singer of note.

Further information concerning the presentation will be announced next week.

YW OFFICER POLL OPENS WEDNESDAY

Nominations Must Be in Secretary's Hands of Order By Tuesday Night

Wednesday, March 13, is the date set for the election of Y. W. C. A. officers for the coming year. As election of officers is by ballot, polls will be open from 7:45 until 4 o'clock on the first floor of Eaton Hall. Nominations, which take the form of written statements signed by the nominees and fifteen Y. W. C. A. members, must be submitted to the secretary.

ELSIE TUCKER
Retiring Y. W. President

Betty Lewis, twenty-four hours prior to the election. A nominating committee, which takes the initiative in making nominations, will have charge of all petitions and it is the privilege of any girl on the campus to draw up such a petition.

Four Cabinet Members Elected

But four of the twelve cabinet members are elected. These are president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. The last two may be from any class, but the president must be a Senior, and it is preferable that the vice-president also be a Senior. It is required that the president has had at least one year's experience on the cabinet.

The rest of the cabinet is appointed after the election of the new officers, and consists of committee chairmen for socials, World Fellowship, religious interest, social service, finance, rooms, and the Seabeck conference.

The entire work of the organization is carried on by the committee, and projects of prominence conducted by them have been the Girl Reserve work done in Salem Junior High schools, social functions including all Willamette girls, and World Fellowship work.

The annual election of the Y. W. C. A. is of great importance and should command the interest of every girl on the campus.

HOOP TOURNAMENT OPENS WEDNESDAY

GYM BEING CONDITIONED

All Reserve Tickets Gone; None Are Excused From Class Attendance

The original number of seats set aside for the reserve bloc to the tenth Oregon State high school Basketball Tournament are entirely sold out according to Graduate Manager, Leslie Sparks, Wednesday. The drawing of the teams will take place in the Gym Wednesday afternoon with the playing of the first game that night, and the tournament will end with the sounding of the final gun Saturday night.

From Monday to Wednesday a small army of workers will be engaged in cleaning and waxing the floors of the building, washing the backboards, polishing the lights, and in general preparation for the event. The referees have been secured for the games.

Schools Plan Delegations

Many of the schools are planning on bringing large delegations to view the games and to back their teams. Medford has wired for fifty reserve seats while other sections have expressed the same intention. Season tickets are on sale at $3.50 and student tickets at $2.50. Tickets for single game admission are to be had at $1.00 per. All are on sale at the gymnasium.

The Blue Key fraternity and the "W" club are acting as the hospitality committee to look after the visiting high school teams. The Cubs and the "W" club are going to take care of the crowd, the announcing, and other miscellaneous jobs.

Dean Erickson stated that no one will be excused from class to attend the games, except those who have to work at the gym.

Trophies at Coach's Office

The trophies have not as yet been placed on display, but may be seen at the coach's office. The first prize is an actual size basketball on which crouches a player with a smaller ball in his hands; in height it stands about three feet.

From the exceedingly close races most of the teams are having in an endeavor to win the right to represent their district, it is evident that competition in this tournament will be particularly keen, and that most of the games will be closely contested. At the time this paper went to press, only Medford and Tillamook have clinched the division title. Medford, who lost last year's championship game to Washington High of Portland, after two red hot overtime periods had been played, will present practically as strong a team as their last year's combination was. Melvin, their flashy all-state forward will be playing his last year for Medford, and should be even better this year. Tillamook will also have a powerful team with their star forward, James, still on the firing line. James' long shots were one of the sensations of the last tournament. Although Salem High has still to defeat the Chumawa seniors in a district tournament to be held at the Willamette gym today and tomorrow before they can claim the district title, they should win unless the Indians can stage a big upset.

There Was No Birthday Cake

The seniors have taken the mill stream, the baby carriages have been wheeled around town, fountains located in the business section of the city have served as shaving bowls for several of the men, sweaters, ties and what not have been worn backwards—all as a result of the celebration of the twenty-first birthday of Freshman Glee. Little is known of the actual birth of the Glee. It is said that the class of 1912 first conceived the idea of the contest, and proceeded to win the first three to be held. Professor Matthews has been handing down the decisions since the original inauguration.

The Juniors won and the Sophs took second place. All are satisfied. In reality it is not the decision of the judges which counts, but the fun and joy which all experience. The "long hours" spent awaiting the appearance of Professor Matthews to announce "and in the third place first place goes to—" which are given over to the singing of songs born in a similar manner are worth the price of the previous weeks of preparatory work. At no time does the student feel himself as much a part of university life as when entering into presentation of the Glee.

Yes, heretofore Freshman Glee has been relegated to the infant class, but Saturday night it became of age. It attained its majority this year and previous celebrations commemorating the occasion were decidedly outdone. Only one thing was left out of the birthday party, and that was the cake with candles.

The Oregon Legislature has adjourned without considering a very pressing matter. Due to the increase of electrical lighting of chicken houses the hens are forced to work from twelve to fourteen hours per day. The solons in all of their weighty considerations forgot the hen legislation which would have safeguarded the lives of those chickens involved.

SORORITY INITIATIONS DOMINATE CAMPUS LIFE

Pledges of Alpha Phi Alpha and Beta Chi are being informally initiated and at the end of this week a number of girls will be wearing the official sorority pin.

Alpha Phi Alphas may be recognized by the lavender and yellow ruffs they are wearing. An interesting feature of their initiation is the fact that they spend each evening at the house for supervised study and other things.

Informal initiation at Beta Chi is off the campus entirely except that the girls are not allowed to talk to the boys.

Formal initiation will take place at the Beta Chi house Thursday and at Alpha Phi Alpha Friday afternoon.

BURLESQUE STAGED ON COLLEGE GLEE

A burlesque performance of the annual Freshman glee was staged by the four classes at Willamette university at the chapel hour Tuesday. Juniors and sophomores, who won first and second places in the contest, sang their songs with gusto, but whereas they had been punctilious in their careful marching Saturday night, they carried out their formations with an ease unhampered by exactness. Freshmen scrambled to the platform and made no pretense of having a formation. Their parody of their original song received widespread commendation from members of the student body. The seniors marched into the chapel to the strains of "Hallelujah," the piece that had been their triumphal march a year ago. This time, though, instead of wearing the garb of victory, the men had bathing suits hanging from their necks and towels on their arms.

Following the singing, students hastily made their way to the banks of the millstream back of the campus to await the senior men's swimming party. Mill stream bets on the glee were also paid at this time.

That ancient and revered expression of supreme disgust, "Horsecollar!" must have been originated by an Alpha Phi Alpha wearing one of those pretty little initiation collars.

A New Hand at the Helm

Monday morning a man by the name of Lynch described to the people of the nation from his airplane flying above the city of Washington the scene of events being enacted on the ground below. His description was brought above the whirl of his propeller to a station situated in the capitol city and re-broadcasted throughout the states.

Contrast this with the inauguration of Washington in April, 1789, at which time it took weeks and months to relay the news to the outlying districts. Disregarding all personal characteristics and those factions behind Mr. Hoover is it any wonder that newspapers and periodicals of the country are chronicling a new age for the government.

President Hoover is decidedly a representative of the new order. His inauguration marks a breaking away from the old ideas with the innovation of the Western culture and new mode of business. Coolidge was a true New Englander, conservative in his character and in his actions as chief executive of the United States. Hoover is classified as the clear visioned, practical man of the West.

Nothing extraordinary was expected of Coolidge, but everything is being expected of President Hoover in the execution of the government. A decided contrast for the new president and a difficult one.

The Seniors are to be congratulated on the high average of those taking the mill stream as result of loss of Freshman Glee. Heretofore classes suffering this penalty have found many of their members seeking cozy dry corners, but not so this year's austere. All but one capable of taking the plunge took it.

"He's the kind of a man that men don't trust too far."
"Yes, or women trust too near."

Along the Way

(By The Wayfarers)

It is rumored that Beechler-Nuts are quite plentiful in the neighborhood of the Delta Phi house.

That awkward age; when he's too old to cry and too young to cuss.

The Delta Phi's report that a sudden shower from a neighboring domicile brought forth abundant proof that the male rookies have long ago passed this awkward age.

Bill Rueh's ventriloquizing in the library, however, does animate the weary hours for us a lot—with cats and canaries.

Hurray for McCully! There's at least one working man around here, anyway. "Ivan White and William Mumford will be shot at sunrise unless they return our light cord so that we may work after sundown," says our registrar.

Ikey and Bill, we know Mac will get the flunk slips out, even if you do keep his light cord.

Dean Erickson's brief "Stay till the end of the speech" shows his belief in "Practice what you preach." That is, make your announcements short.

It's a good thing the seniors lost. Glenn Leadbetter will be able to pay his mustache bet a whole lot better than Don Faber.

Frank Lombard has taken to chariot racing—in a baby buggy.

"It's a terrible death to be talked to death. It's a terrible death to die." The editor told us this. And no doubt he was thinking, just then, of those persons who come into the office and talk blue streaks at him while he is trying to turn out his leading editorial.

Certain of our campus friends would be heartily in favor of the sororities' keeping their initiations to themselves. "It's the bunk," they say, "to enforce a discipline on the men, too." The Wayfarers have noticed that it seems to make studying impossible for those "steadies", of which there are many. The much needed daily inspiration is sorely missed. For better scholarship and happier men, may we suggest that the sororities confine their initiation activities to their own sex.

Secret Wedding Made Known

The marriage on January 7 of Dorothy Godfrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Godfrey, to Curtis C. Payton of San Francisco is a complete surprise to their many friends. Mrs. Payton is well known in Salem, having graduated from Salem High and being at present a student in Willamette. Mr. Payton graduated from Stanford in 1928 and is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. Until recently he has been connected with the Marion County Health Demonstration. At present he is employed on a construction project near Santa Barbara. The wedding, which has been kept secret, took place on the eve of Mr. Payton's departure south. Mrs. Payton is leaving shortly to spend spring vacation in Santa Barbara.

PRELIMINARY MEET TODAY, SATURDAY

Eight Teams Entered in District Tournament. Student
Admission 25 Cents

As a preliminary to the state tournament, the counties of Marion, Polk, Clackamas, and Multnomah have entered their outstanding teams in a two-day elimination tourney to be held in the Willamette gym today and Friday, March 7 and 8. The winner of the tournament will represent District No. 6 in the state tournament the following week.

Teams from Salem, Chemawa, Silverton, Oregon City, Dallas, Corbett, Stayton, and Woodford have been selected as tourney participants.

Some dissatisfaction of the method of choosing the entries has arisen and there may be readjustments. Parrish Junior High, among others, has voiced a protest.

Some misunderstanding as to officials has arisen but it will be arranged by game time.

The admission charge will be:

amination committee sign the card with a majority required to pass a student.

Students .25, reserved .75 and general admission $1.00.

Favorites are Salem, Chemawa, and Dallas with the local school outstanding.

This is the first year that the tournament has been held. Salem had expected to represent the district without the formality of a tournament, since her adherents claimed that her impressive record made her the logical choice.

Protest from other parts of the district forced officials to hold a tourney and in more formal manner choose the districts representative.

JUNIORS WIN GLEE BY 43 POINT LEAD

were dressed in white, and wore corsages featuring the class colors. The men wore dark suits.

Glee Most Successful

According to Dean Erickson the twenty-first annual Freshman Glee was the most successful glee ever held at Willamette University. The glee was sponsored by the Freshman class under the management of Wesley Roeder.

The students led by the Seniors sang Willamette songs while waiting for the judges' decision.

Due to an error in the scoring, the Freshmen were announced as placing second, but after a final checking up, it was found that the Sophomores were ahead of the Frosh by 5 points, although the Freshmen came first in words and music.

The judges on music were: Professor T. Roberts, Mrs. W. R. Bush, and Mr. Thayer. The committee on words: Miss Rosalie Keber, Miss Carol Dibble, and Mrs. W. F. Powers. The committee on rendition was composed of Miss Ruth Bedford, the Rev. H. C. Stover and Mr. Leon Jennison. The committee on adaptability consisted of Mr. Ben Rickell, Mrs. Martin Ferry, and Miss Ada Ross.

The scores were as follows: Music; Juniors, 282 points; Fresh-

A CHALLENGE TO LOYALTY

There's a cardinal bar from a western sky.

And a golden beam from the sun;

The cardinal for the men of old

Whose valiant courage won.

To these memories we are loyal:

They were wrought with a purpose true;

On these we build our standards

And our faith in Willamette U.

There's a challenge flung from this western sky

And this golden beam of light;

There's a flaming hope of victory

That will guide us ever right.

And from these colors blended,

The cardinal and golden hue,

We gain the strength of our loyalty.

And our love for Willamette U!

close race, but the "dope" favors Wallows, last year's winners. McLoughlin High, by virtue of their wins over Baker, Pendleton, and Helix, is easily the class of the second district. Their heady playing three years ago nearly upset the champion Salem team, and they usually play a scrappy, speedy game. The Dalles, with last year's district championship team intact, is slated to win again. All of The Dalles players are small men, but this "pony" team should play some wonderful ball if they can accustom themselves to the large floor. Neither North Bend, Myrtle Point, nor Marshfield can agree on the team that will represent that section, but it may rest assured that whatever team comes to Salem, can give a mighty good account of themselves. The scrappy Astoria team, which held Salem High to a one-point win last year, is certain of landing a tournament berth, as is Washington High of Portland, the present title-holders. Although Ed Lewis is ineligible in the city league, he is perfectly eligible under the state association rules, and, since his playing was the outstanding feature of the last tournament, and should give Washington High the most powerful scoring combinations in the tournament.

MOTION PICTURES IMPROVE NARRATIVE

"The Canary Murder Case" will open a four day run at the Elsinore theatre. S. S. Van Dine, mysterious nom de plume author of the screen story declares that for once the motion pictures have not only failed to butcher one of his stories, but also that they have improved it.

Van Dine, who arrived from New York in time to help the director iron out a few technicalities in the closing sequences, saw the picture in rough form and was enthusiastic over the treatment given his story.

"I came three thousand miles to see 'The Canary Murder Case' on the screen," Van Dine said. "I don't know just what I expected to see—I had heard many wonderful tales from other authors. After seeing my story in pictures I can only offer my sincere thanks to general, and to Malcolm St. Clair, Albert Shelby Le Vio, and Florence Ryerson in particular, not forgetting the splendid cast."

Professor Fails to Halt Terrible Proceedings Within Cataract Roar

The day was dark and tempestuous. The wind blew, the hail flew, and the snow snew. In the distance could be heard the roaring of the cataract. What is that grotesque shape approaching? It is—no, it can't be—but it is! A line of college students clad in bathing suits, sporting in the chill March winds!

What foolishnesses are these? Lo, now they serpentine to the dank and slimy stream! Hold everything! Horror of horrors! In they go! Will not the authorities cause this to cease?

But see that tall dark form clad in slicker. Rumor whispers he is a professor that manages a laboratory in a basement of a building. Note the calm expression on his brow. No intervention is forthcoming as he watches. His companion placidly notes the sheer beauty of the varied colored bathingsuits. And he is a professor too!

A tradition they say. And firm are thy traditions laid! Noble seniors to bite the stream so valiantly! But if this were only all! But now this worthy class sleeps in bathtubs, on chapel steps, on mantles, eats from the floor, and spend their spare time wheeling baby carriages.

And the Freshmen are almost as bad off. It was this way—the whole class in the ship Lausanne—and the oars leaked!

SIX VETERANS OUT FOR MEN'S TENNIS

Minto is Captain of Squad Northwest Conference Meet Only; Scheduled

Willamette's 1929 tennis team will be captained by the veteran John D. Minto who has been one of the mainstays of the Willamette team for the last three seasons and who with White won the 1926 Northwest Conference doubles title. Ivan White who has been the number 1 man of the Willamette squad for the past three seasons, and who was the Northwest conference champion in '26 has been practicing daily in the hope that he might this year make things mighty tough for Worth Oswald of Whitman the present conference champion. To round out the squad there is Litchfield, Hagaman, and Howarth. Litchfield is a three stripe man in tennis while Hagaman and Howarth are both two year lettermen. Then there is McGilvra who saw action in at least one match last year but did not win his letter to compete for a berth as well as Roeder a freshman who is supposed to have had considerable experience.

Tryouts to Be Held

A tryout will be held before the first match and everyone will be given a chance to show their ability. After that those who lose out will be given a chance to work up in the rating by taking on the lowest ranking player and then those higher.

The only meet that is definite in the Northwest Conference meet which will be held at Willamette this year in the latter part of May. Two games will probably be scheduled each with Reed College, O. S. C., Pacific and Linfield and one meet with C. P. S. to be played at Tacoma.

The new courts cost more than was expected and at present there is no money with which to purchase backstops. If the money that was paid to the phils for their hall and equipment which is now being used for a court room is turned over to the athletic department there will be sufficient money to buy the proposed backstop, otherwise the Asylum courts will have to be used entirely for the Northwest conference meet.

CABINETS OF CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS TO MEET

Cabinets of all the Young Women's Christian Associations in Oregon colleges will meet for a cabinet training council on the 12th, 13th, and 14th of April at Rocky Creek camp, near Portland. Miss Dorothy McLeod of Pomeroy, Washington, will be present, and, as she is the executive chairman of the National Student Council, this will be a distinct advantage to the council.

PRESIDENT OF KIMBALL ATTENDS TACOMA MEET

President Canse of Kimball was in Tacoma in the interests of the school over the week-end. Sunday morning Dr. Canse spoke in the Bethany Methodist church and in the evening at the First church in that city. Monday morning he was at the College of Puget Sound later speaking to a gathering of Methodists there.

PUPILS TO APPEAR IN PIANO RECITAL

MacDowell's Compositions to Be Played as Preliminary to Artist's Recital

A piano recital of Edward MacDowell's compositions will be given Monday evening, March 11, at 8:15 o'clock in Waller Hall. This will be the first of a number of recitals which will be given by the music students of Miss Frances Virginia Melton this spring.

The program of the evening consists of the following numbers:

"Burlesque" Helena Price
"Bluette" Wendell Robinson
"Hungarian" Mabel Hill
"Cradle Song" Evelyn Lindberg
"Shadow Dance" Lois Fellows
"Deserted Farm" and "Will o' the Wisp" Margaret Schreiber
"Rigaudon" Arthur Schwartz
"Witches' Dance" Elizabeth Boylan
"Autumn" Adina Bergen
"Marionette" (Prologue-Sou-brette - Lover - Clown-Witch-Villain-Sweetheart-Epilogue) Edith Findley

"Nautilus" Helen McPherson
"Scotch Poem" Doris Corbin
"Moonlight" Lucile Cummings
"Elfin Dance" and "Polonaise" Rosalind Van Winkle

This student recital is to be given for the purpose of introducing the works of MacDowell to the Willamette students, and will be a preliminary to the artists' recital of selections by MacDowell to be given in Waller Hall on the opening night of National Music Week. This second concert will be given under the auspices of the MacDowell Society, for the MacDowell Colony Benefit.

Miss Melton will be in charge of the concert and will speak about MacDowell and play some of his compositions.

Both the townspeople and the students are invited to attend the recital.

COMPLETE FORWARD MOVEMENT DRIVE

The Endowment drive ended with a total of $198,643. This total does not include the fifteen cent offer of Mr. Collins of Portland or any other gifts but those given for the purpose of reaching the amount stated by the Rockefeller Foundation to be necessary for the receipt of their gift to the University. While the drive closed its intensive work, it will be continued as long as there is a deficit of the sum first set as a goal, $300,000.

Mr. Duncan who has been in charge of the campaign, finds that of all the schools for which he has helped with drives Willamette is the best thought of. Mr. Duncan has had a great experience in the work of drives and this statement concerning the attitude of the public towards the University is well founded. During the entire campaign there were only eleven written complaints of the school received.

GEDDES MANAGES PLAY
HARTUNG IS SECRETARY

Paul Geddes was chosen manager of the Junior class play at a meeting Wednesday. Along with the selection of the manager the class also appointed a committee to choose the play which will be put on in connection with the May Day festivities.

Miss Beatrice Hartung was elected as secretary to fill the vacancy of Miss Rae Windust who is not attending school this semester.

SUMMER CATALOG GOES TO PRESS THIS WEEK

The catalog of the summer session of 1929 is to be printed within the next few days. Dr. Paul Doney will instruct in the English department.

The proof for the catalog the 1929 Summer School is now in the hands of Dean Erickson and will be available to the public within a short time. The bulletin contains the courses that are to be offered and other helpful information for the prospective student.

Dr. Paul Doney, the son of President Carl Gregg Doney, is a graduate of Willamette and the class of 1920. Dr. Paul Doney is at the present instructing in the English department of Dickinson College at Carlisle, Pa. He has finished both his masters and doctors degrees from Harvard in 1928. He will be remembered by a great many as a prominent member of his class.

WOMEN TO DEBATE CPS MARCH 9 HERE

The women's debate team of Willamette University will meet the debate team from the College of Puget Sound in the chapel, Saturday evening, March 9, in what is considered the most difficult debate of the season.

The Willamette debaters will uphold the negative argument of the question: "Resolved, that the plea of temporary insanity in the defense of crime should be prohibited by law."

Edith Starrett and Margaret Pro will compose the Willamette team.

ACTIONS OF YOUTH HARD TO FORETELL

"You can never tell by looking at a youth just what he is going to do," was the theme of Professor Bossing's talk at the Young Men's dinner held in the Y. Tuesday evening.

He expressed his admiration for the venturesome spirit of youth while at the same time stressed an early choice of life work. While men have always had the problem of selecting their life work this selection is today complicated by the modern industrial life and other phases of modern civilization.

Today we live fast in a fast age. Specialization is an outstanding feature of modern culture. All arrows point outward these specialized process of industry thus handicapping the young man in his choice of vocation.

It is expensive and a waste of time to put off choosing one's life work according to the professor from Oregon. Before entering any type of work the individual should ask himself the following questions: Do I like this type of work? What are its advantages? What preparation is required? Is there chance for advancement?

In closing Mr. Bossing stressed a consideration of your own individual temperament, analyzing the entire situation. Reading of intelligent tests would aid this latter.
