All Classes Plan Surf Excursions

Chapel Notice

The annual awards assembly will be the program for chapel next Tuesday in the gymnasium at 11 a.m. Regular 11 o'clock classes will be held at 10 a.m.

The senior assembly will be held Thursday for seniors only in Waller hall. (No caps and gowns.)

Pre-registration Due For Those Returning

Pre-registration for returning students will begin Monday, Harold Jory, registrar, announced this week. The system for registering will be the same as used for the past two years, Jory says.

The system used is designed to cut down on unnecessary confusion during registration week next fall (Sept. 14-19), and to give the student a working plan in advance for his courses next year. Supplies for pre-registration may be obtained Monday morning at a table outside the registrar's office in Eaton hall, Jory said.

All students, not graduates, who are not returning, but planning to continue education elsewhere, are also asked to pick up a special card Monday for completion to help the registrar with his records in advance of next semester.

The following are instructions concerning pre-registration as issued by the registrar's office.

1—With the fall semester a new numbering system of courses becomes effective as follows:

100-199 Courses open to Freshmen and above; 200-299 Courses open to Sophomores and above; *300-399 Courses open to Juniors and above; 400-499 Courses open to Seniors and above; 500-599 Courses open to Graduates and to Seniors with the consent of the department.

2—All students who still have Lower Division requirements to complete are expected to enroll in these courses wherever possible for the fall semester. Hereafter full Junior standing is contingent upon the completion of all Lower Division requirements as well as upon the total hours earned.

3—The card you receive for advance registration on May 23rd represents a "Trial Study Card" and should be completed as fully and accurately as possible. It is contemplated that registration forms will be revised (not greatly simplified, I fear) in time for use in the fall semester. You will receive your "Trial Study Card"

Seniors 'Weekend' at Taft; Other Coastal Points Chosen

By Paul Dally

Beach picnics for all four classes are scheduled for this weekend. First to leave for the beaches will be the senior class tonight as they travel to Taft where they will stay in the Taft Heights hotel for the annual weekend outing. It is traditional for the juniors to serve a meal to the seniors on Sunday afternoon. Bob Niemeyer and Paul Benage are on the committee in charge of securing the hotel, the women of the home economics department and Miss Lorena Jack are working on the menus, Gene Schmidt is in charge of finance and Will Henderson is directing the entertainment for the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hinde, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Alan R. Patton will be chaperones for the event.

Juniors to Neskowin

The juniors will go to Neskowin Beach, Sunday. They will go down to Taft later in the day in order to serve dinner to the seniors. Bob Robbins is in charge of the committee for food; Al Miller, transportation; Roger Adams, chaperones; and Will Hilgert, entertainment.

Nelscott for Sophs

To pay off the Glee bet that the freshman class lost, a beach party will be given in honor of the sophomores on Saturday at Nelscott. Transportation will be provided in hay trucks for those who do not have cars. Connie Bailey is responsible for transportation, John Norvell for refreshments and food, Ellen Christiansen for sponsors, and Don Prichett for entertainment. The two classes will leave for the beach at 8 a.m. from the front of the Music hall. Don Benson mentioned that everyone riding on the trucks should bring blankets to put on the hay.

Potter Will Head Salem WU Alums

Salem's chapter of the alumni of Willamette university elected new officers when they met Monday night at Baxter hall.

Erwin Potter Salem, will take over presidential duties of the newly formed group, while Jeryme English was named vice-president. Flora Leonard will serve as secretary.

Plans were formulated for the annual alumni banquet which will be held Saturday, June 11. The Alumnus for May is now being printed.

Tripp New Student Prexy; Dimond, Howard, Adams In

By Norman Stone

Run-off elections which were held Tuesday and Wednesday placed Russell Tripp in the office of student body president for next fall.

Other candidates who won positions are: first vice-president, Roger Adams; second vice-president, Art Dimond and secretary, Pat Howard. Chuck Patterson, runner-up for the office of president, will become student representative-at-large.

Edie Fairham Gives Senior Sing Monday

Mezzo-soprano Edith Fairham will be presented in recital Monday at 8:15 in Waller hall in the first of the 1949 senior recital programs. The Salemite will be accompanied by Patty Jo Hammond during the program.

Edith has been a prominent member of the a cappella choir here at Willamette and was also soloist during the last presentation by the Salem Oratorio society of "The Messiah" last Christmas.

The '49 May queen is a senior scholar in Music Literature and attends Willamette on a full tuition National Methodist scholarship. She is a member of the Mu Phi Epsilon as well as being affiliated with the Pi Beta Phi.

Her program will include 'O Lord,' 'Whose Mercies Numberless,' 'Wie bist du,' 'Meine Konigin,' and 'To Thee, Each Night and Day,' by Brahms; 'Prepare Thyself, Zion,' 'Beau Soir' and 'Mandoline' by Debussy; 'Winterreise' by Schubert; 'Widmung' by Schuman; 'Seguedille' by Bizet; 'The Piper' by Herd; 'Twilight People' by Williams; 'O Thou Billowy Harvest-field' by Rachmaninoff, and 'Kentucky Mountain Folk-songs' by Niles.

Annuals Late Says Bowles; Mailing Books

Wallulaha will not come out until late in June or the first of July as a result of the current lithographers' strike, according to Geri Bowles, yearbook editor.

She asks that students who have paid $1 to reserve a yearbook leave their names and summer mailing addresses in the Wallulaha office or the student body office. The names must be typewritten. Those who fail to turn in their names, Miss Bowles said, will not receive their yearbooks until fall.

Faculty members who want yearbooks may also contact Miss Bowles as extra books have been ordered for all professors at $3.50 each, half price.

Students who have been at Willamette only one semester may purchase Wallulaha for $3 plus the $1 fee paid earlier in the year. Others interested may also reserve their yearbooks at $7 each through Miss Bowles.

The office of senior class representative on the student council will be filled by Dick Hartley, Jack Gunn and Rod Beals gained the representative offices for the junior and sophomore classes.

From Albany

Tripp, a member of Beta Theta Pi, is from Albany, Ore. He is a political science major and is currently devoting some of his time as business manager for the new campus humor publication. He is also, at present, secretary of the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders and will be chairman of the annual conference of that organization to be held on the Willamette campus next fall.

Patterson Californian

Patterson is a member of Phi Delta Theta and is majoring in business administration. He is from Burlingame, Calif. Patterson was selected as first team center on the Northwest all-conference football team and has been prominent in class affairs.

Hurt to UW

George Hurt, retiring president, has received a fellowship at the University of Washington and plans to spend two years there working for an advanced degree in business administration.

Carolan, Graduate Sings to Godfrey

Michael Carolan, WU graduate of 1947, and prominent in music circles in Salem at that time, tied for first place honors Monday night in a network radio appearance with the Arthur Godfrey Talent show.

Carolan sang "Macushla" and was heard locally over KOIN. The applause meter showed that he tied for first place honors with a clarinetist.

The tenor was introduced as Michael O'Carolan, the name he is now using professionally, "from Grants Pass, near Portland, Oregon." He is now eligible for a personal appearance tour in New York, besides other honors.

Student Recital Features Majors

There will be a student recital this afternoon in Waller hall at three o'clock with nine music major artists scheduled to appear. They are vocalists Bob Gwinn, Don Noonchester, Betty Jean Mullin and Rose Marie Wilhoit, and a violin-viola-piano ensemble composed of Frank Holman, Martha Benard and Lois Gottwald.

Time On Our Hands

How nice it is now to work for the county, but how horrible is the life of the local mail carrier, delivery boy, railroad or airline worker!

The man who works for Marion county now gets up at the usual time, (or is it?) comes down to his job only to find that he is an hour late, since the rest of Salem has been working for a whole lovely, sleepless hour. Already he finds waiting for him a line of people who want to pay their taxes, want to get married, want to file a deed to some property or want to ride up to the fourth floor on the elevator that runs on Starlight Saving time and takes twice that long to get there.

And the poor mail carrier!—especially the rural and special delivery and dispatch clerks—by what time do they get the mail delivered? By the time the rural carrier leaves the office on daylight saving time the rural dweller, still on standard time, hasn't even brushed his teeth yet and by the time the carrier gets back to the post office in the afternoon on standard time the post office is closed on daylight saving. The special delivery carrier has his worries, too, trying to explain why a letter mailed from Portland on daylight saving time does not reach the rural area till the next day on standard time.

Worry, worry, and the governor leaves for Washington, D.C., on Eastern Daylight Saving time, which is three hours later than Pacific Daylight Saving time, except on the Marion courthouse lawn which is bounded by Pacific Standard time, except for those trespassers who cross it with their Bulovas set at any darned time they please and love it.

Which all brings us to this—the only time in the state which is correct is that on the sundial in front of Eaton hall.

Saturday Hours Well Spent, Without Them We'd Be Lost!

By Bill McDougall

Varied entertainment was forecast this week for Saturday chapel on July 27 which will be held in order to accommodate an overflow of enthusiastic students from Tuesday chapel.

Highlighting the exciting list of talent to perform before the always attentive and keenly-interested students will be Professor Higbee F. Litterfluid, late of the University of Four Corners, who will lecture on "Sexual Behavior in the Crustacean Sand Flea."

Long awaited by eager WU folk is the promised performance of "Die Pluto Mouze" in C sharp minor by Glumpkin. Miss Marjorie Blite will play the famous oboe obligato from this composition on the flute, which chapel chairman Fred C. Dobbs concluded was "difficult, indeed!"

Awards for excellence in building maintenance will be presented at that time to campus janitors, since those were "about all the awards there are left," dejectedly stated Dobbs. One plumed ostrich feather and an old dish rag from Baxter hall's kitchen will go to the lucky janitor.

A man who met Louella Parsons last summer will give an amusing report of life in Hollywood. He will also show colored slides on the Gingko tree of Minnesota.

Possibilities for work in the Nicaraguan bureau of ichthyology will be explained in detail by a secret service agent of that bureau, which will be followed by the singing of the Nicaraguan national anthem, by all in attendance.

On the SOUTHard Side

By WALLY SOUTHARD

There are some advertisers who will go to any extreme to sell a product. Take, for instance, the ad depicting a beautiful young woman shrinking away from a handsome young man. Superimposed upon the collar of the young man are a few white flakes.

The idea, of course, is to show what can happen to you if you happen to have dandruff. The advertiser makes a relatively common hair condition a menace to society in general.

Now the consequence of such advertising is probably nothing to alarm the dandruff toting male; but just for fun, I should like to point out what could happen if anybody happened to take one of these ads seriously.

Suppose that Mary meets John. It's love at first sight. Then, as they stroll hand in hand in the moonlight, stop by the old brick wishing well, and proceed into an embrace, suddenly Mary pushes John back and cries horrified, "Infectious dandruff!"

Yes, Mary is right. There on John's collar, glowing softly in the moonlight, are the tell-tale flakes. Mary runs sobbingly away. John despairs. He pulls a sub-machine gun from his pocket and shoots the old oaken bucket full of holes. Later he joins the marines.

Or it could be that John and Mary have been married for five years. John is a splendid husband, and Mary is the perfect wife—that is, until she starts reading the advertisements in the magazines. One night John comes home after a hard day at the office, and Mary greets him at the door. But there, on his coat collar, is the awful truth. Mary cries and wrings her hands. Since she has had nothing to nail on him since they were married, she now makes up for lost time. John is nagged and miserabilized (readers note: new word) until he is but a shadow. Finally Mary divorces John, and John moves to the Belgian Congo, where not even Fred C. Dobbs can reach him.

I hope the foregoing suppositions have impressed upon the reader the importance of taking such advertising with a grain of salt—or sugar; it depends upon the taste, of course.

Speaking from experience, I have had dandruff ever since Hoover was deposed from the White House, and the only ill effect I have suffered from it is the necessity of having to wash my hair regularly; and who knows—that may not be considered detrimental to my health in some circles.

After the Bandwagon, Comes the Great Day

Unless it's Time for Spring Cleaning, Keep 'em Out of The Parlor!

By C. E. Wallace

Fellows what go out for varsity sports is men. They got to take showers with violet scented soap and shave in the morning and at night too on account of their hair grows so fast. They drinks a lot of milk and once in a while when they ain't in training they likes a malted. Most generally they ain't the kind of blokes to let into your parlor, unless it's just before spring cleaning time.

Some folks say they don't use tobacco but that ain't true. Out of training there's lots of them what smokes and not only that there's lots of them what chews. They are definitely the kind of guys what good girls should look out for on account of because they are what we intelligencia calls, "disgustingly virile." That means when they kiss a gal, she's likely to start vibrating like she's just got herself plugged into a electric socket. And good gals don't vibrate ordinarily.

For a while these sweaty, hairy, virile guys was lousing up the campus and making us scholars look like a bunch of dopes. But that ain't going to be no more after 1950. On account of because the Prez and us scholars has got together and writ a new ticket. After 1950 everyone is going to have to be scholars and learn how to read another foreign language besides English and Algebra. Not only that, they is going to have to learn to write compositions. Already the Ringaldas is saying their prayers every night getting ready for 1950.

But they hadn't ought to bother though, on account of because they ain't going to be any of these undesireables around after 1950 to give no nice, hard-working, conscientious, good, virtuous, church-going, charitable, generous, A-minded professors no trouble. These varsity blokes can go to Harvard or Princeton or Yale or any of them places what ain't got scholars like we got. Willamette can do without them and still have itself a football team.

I could tell you what things will be like when sweat and muscles is replaced by scholarship but I ain't got no mind to offend nobody. With girls on the team though, Willamette is going to be famous. And we'll have a female coach. But that's all right too. Having someone for coach what the players could be familiar with would be good for morale. And everyone knows it's easier to get familiar with women. They is more friendly somehow. Anyway, mostly the team would be made up of women.

'Course if the Lady Coach was to need them, Ed Fitzsimons and his little brother would play. They played in the Navy and they ain't so bad in a pinch. But this is only hearsay with me. I'm a Army boy myself. And we never played Navy when I was in.

You know the more I think about it the more I likes these new requirements. They is going to democratize the college. They won't be no more Lettermen on account of because varsity players gets too chesty when they gets letters and it ain't nice for girls to get too conceited.

At the Varsity Ball instead of a Queen there most likely will be a King. And in a way that's fittin' too. They is lots of us scholars what would like to be King of the Ball. Just call me Prince, girls, and whistle! For I is in the King's court! Wheee!

And with players having a classical background and most of them being girls because he-men prefers things a bit less sophisticated, football ain't going to be so vulgar no more. You and I both knows some of the things what go on at games ain't exactly fittin'. I've heard people holler, "Come on! Get the lead out! We wants a touchdown!"

Well with girl players, people ain't going to be so outspoken. Because most everyone knows you ain't supposed to talk like that about girls. And that's that, for sure!

But it won't be needed neither. A fellow will be able to holler, "Don't be lethargic girls! Donney noose une touche down." And with their classical background, they'd know what you mean. Girls is subtle that way. It comes natural to them. You jest gives them a hint and that's enough.

Matter of fact I likes girls what is sportsy better than men what is sportsy. That is I likes sportsy girls. I guess sportsy men likes sportsy girls too for that matter. But after 1950 there ain't going to be no sportsy men to compete with us scholars in liking the sportsy girls of Willamette.

SAFETY SELLS FOR FOLDING STUFF!

Dear Editor:

It pleases me very much to inform you that your publication's editorial treatment of the subject of holiday safe driving has been awarded third prize of $100 in the non-daily classification by judges of the 1948 college newspaper contest on safe driving.

Congratulations to you and your staff for the excellent way in which you handled the job of selling safety to your readers and for your splendid co-operation in this campaign to reduce the holiday accident toll.

As sponsors of this contest, we are grateful for the fine support received from college publications throughout the nation. The ingenious manner in which these publications presented the safety story and their resourcefulness in obtaining original material gave a fresh approach to the entire campaign. I am looking forward to an even greater number of participants in this year's contest and an equally impressive entry from your college publication.

For your information, I am enclosing a list of cash prize and honorable mention award winners.

Sincerely,

Willamette Artists in the News Recently

Hall Will Receive Grant From Arts, Letters Institute

Carl Hall, Willamette university art instructor and Salem artist, will be awarded a $1,000 prize as one of the 15 artists, composers and writers awarded annual non-member grants by the National Institute of Arts and Letters.

The awards are given to encourage young artists of demonstrated ability and to recognize more renowned artists in a practical way. Hall is one of four painters on the institute's award list.

A native of Washington, D.C., Hall has been in Salem since the war. Hall studied at Meininger Art school in Detroit. He served as combat artist with the 383rd infantry in the Pacific.

Annual Biology Field Trip Takes 5 Busloads to Coast

By Norman Stone

The annual biology field trip ran true to formula last Saturday when five bus loads of students successfully made the trek to Otter Rock and other points of interest on the coast.

The convoy got under way at about 5:15 after a slight hold up brought about by a couple of tardy co-eds.

As is the case with most such trips the more eager members of the group sang songs on the way over. The less eager members attempted to pick up an hour's sleep that they had lost.

Taft First Stop

Taft was the first stop of the trip. At Taft the students spent their time smoking, running down a cup of coffee and speculating on the weather which at that time of the morninig didn't look too good.

Otter Rock was a scene of many persons running and stumbling down the cliffs to a bunch of tide pools. There the biologists examined, collected and classified the various forms of life that happened to be at hand. One octopus was found.

Students Marooned
Several students and two professors managed to become marooned on a rock that was swiftly being covered by the incoming tide. The result was several wet feet and one wet girl who got dropped by a gallant but not so athletic male.

Next stop was Spencer creek.

At Spencer creek there are fossils to be found and classified. Some of the students pursued this endeavor but others found it more interesting to climb up a small cliff and roll small and large stones down on to their fellow students below.

North to Depoe Bay

From Spencer creek the buses moved north to Depoe Bay. Most of the group was primarily interested in coffee but a few went to the aquarium.

Jokers Show Prize Efforts In First Edition of 'Puritan'

By Bill MacDougall

The third major campus publication, the "Puritan," a brand new humor magazine edited by Don Carpenter, hit an astounding sales record as students and faculty snapped it up at twenty-five cents a copy.

"Not since spring registration have I seen so many open pocketbooks," commented one spectator watching the transactions at the booth in front of Eaton hall, which had sold at least 150 copies in the first 15 minutes, according to Carpenter.

"Funniest Thing"

Comments, which ranged from "Funniest thing I've seen since Blue Monday" to unintelligible murmurs were mostly favorable. Greatest praise for the Puritan by many readers lay in the treatment of advertisements and gag shots, coupled with photos ridiculing various student and faculty organizations.

Although the magazine was not financially backed by the administration or the publications board, Carpenter emphasized that the affair was student written, student edited, and student financed by means of sales and advertising. He also stated that although the publication is bound to mean some competition in advertising for Wallulah and the Collegian, the sales will support it adequately.

"Bigger and Better"

If response proves as enthusiastic for it as he hopes, Carpenter said that the Puritan will grow "bigger and better" as its financial condition improves. Though he realized that some of the sales were due to curiosity, he felt that the publication will be able to be printed three times annually.

The greatest problem which faced the staff was the rush in producing the magazine, which laid a great responsibility on Ben Younglove, art editor, who took all the original pictures for it. Since the ink on the two color cover was slow in drying, members of the Puritan staff were forced to get up at 3 a.m. Wednesday morning to assemble the covers and staple the pages.

Wife of ex-Dean Passes Monday

Mrs. Harriet S. Erickson, wife of Frank M. Erickson, former dean of Willamette university, died Monday in Santa Barbara, Calif., where she had made her home for a number of years.

Dean and Mrs. Erickson attended the commencement exercises at Willamette last June when former President and Mrs. Carl G. Doney were here. Erickson was a member of the WU faculty from 1920 to 1940.

Bearcats Split In Dual Meets; Face Conference Go Saturday

By Lowell Maudlin

Willamette's Bearcats will make their third trip to Portland Saturday when they trek to Lewis and Clark's Palantine hill track for the Northwest conference track championship.

The Cats will face five other schools—Lewis and Clark, the favorites, Whitman, College of Idaho, Linfield and Pacific. The Jasons are tabbed for third spot in the big meet of the year, while L. & C and Whitman are expected to battle it out for first place.

Cats Have 3-3 Dual Record

In dual meets throughout the year, the Cats have lost to Lewis and Clark, Portland, and Whitman, and have topped Pacific, Linfield and the non-conference OCE squad. They have failed to encounter the College of Idaho team.

Last Tuesday the Bearcats won their third dual meet of the year, downing the Oregon College of Education 37-43.

Ten Firsts Copped

The Cats took home ten firsts, including the relay, as they romped home to an easy win. Ted Mertz of the Willamette team again led the Bearcat scoring with 14 points. He scored his total in exactly the same manner as he has in the past three meets, by tying for first in the high jump and winning the high and low hurdles.

OCE's Decker was high for the meet with 19 counters.

Weese Wins Half

Lowell Weese of the Cats turned in what was probably the best mark of the day, considering the conditions, when he turned in a 2:07 half mile.

The day was an extremely poor track day, the track being soft from rain which started about 2 and lasted until the meet was nearly through.

Willamette's only other double winner of the day was distance man Wes Stauffer who won the two-mile and ran in a dead heat with Dale Reynolds of the Jasons in the mile run.

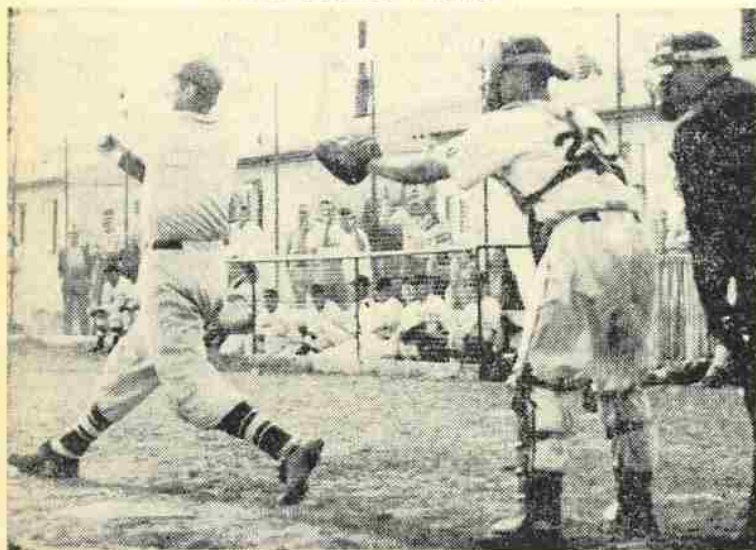

Last Saturday the Cats suffered their second dual meet loss of the season as the undefeated Whitman Missionaries won handily by a 83½ to 47½ score.

Each team made off with seven firsts, but the Whitmans scored heavily in seconds and thirds and won the relay to compile their winning total.

The OCE meet summary:

Mile—Stauffer (W) and Reynolds (W), tie; Beals (W), Time: 5:02.5.
 440—Bates (W), Prediletto (W), Martin (O), Time: 53.8.
 100—Bothwell (O), Shangle (W), Bonner (O), Time: 10.5.
 High Hurdles—Mertz (W), Reddin (O), Time: 17.3.
 880—Weese (W), Pingston (O), Murdock (W), Time: 2:07.
 220—Bothwell (O), Shangle (W) and Bates (W), tie; Time: 23.3.
 Low Hurdles—Mertz (W), Shangle (W), Reddin (O), Time: 29.0.
 2 miles—Stauffer (W), Beak (W), Grimm (W), Time: 11:14.5.
 High jump—Mertz (W) and Decker (O), tie; Maudlin (W), Height 5 feet 8 inches.
 Pole vault—Decker (O), Noa (W), Reddin (O), Height: 10 feet 6 inches.
 Broad jump—Maudlin (W), Macrae (W), Pingston (O), Distance 19 feet ½ inch.
 Shot put—Decker (O), Johnsrud (W), Warren (W), Distance 38 feet 9 inches.
 Javelin—Hall (W), Mullen (O), Johnsrud (W), Distance 170 feet 1 inch.
 Discus—Decker (O), Gottfried (W), Johnsrud (W), Distance 123 feet 8 inches.
 Mile relay—Won by Willamette (Bates, Prediletto, Murdock, Weese), Time 3:43.0.

Horsehide Closer

A mighty swing—and a ground out. So ends the Willamette baseball season as right fielder John Markoskie grounds out to end the championship game between Willamette and Pacific, which Pacific won 11-6. This was the final game for the Jasons, while Pacific will go on to play College of Idaho for the Conference title.

Golfers Sneak By Portland; League Tourney Here Today

After bringing their record to 4-3 by defeating Portland 9½-8½, the Jason tee-ers go into the Northwest conference tourney today.

The Bearcats, who have won their last four meets in a row, will enter the Northwest Conference Golf tournament which is to be held at the Salem Country club starting at 8:30 this morning.

Thus far, teams from Lewis and Clark, Linfield and Pacific have entered and Whitman and the College of Idaho are also expected to send teams, but no official word has been received as yet.

The Bearcat divoters pulled one out of the hat Tuesday as they edged past the heavily favored Portland Pilots by a 9½-8½ count at the Salem Country club. It was sweet revenge for the locals as the Pilots had previously blanked them by a humiliating 18-0 score this season.

Jim Johnson, Art Dow and Paul Benage paced the Willamette scorers with 2½ points each, while Bob Johnson shot a par 72 to top the locals. However, Steve Millich who is considered one of the finer amateur golfers took medalist honors with a steady 71.

Portland-Willamette scoring: E. Johnson ½, J. Johnson 2½, Aleska ½, Dow 2½, Benage 2½, and Nerison 1.

Bearcats Whipped By PU To Lose Tournament Berth

Too much "will to win" paradoxically, probably cost the Willamette baseball team a chance at the conference championship as they dropped a division playoff game to Pacific university Wednesday 11-6. On Tuesday the Cats had gained the right to play Pacific by downing Linfield in a make-up game 9 to 7.

On Monday of this week the Bearcats lost to Portland university 3 to 2 in ten innings. Frank Gatchell was the losing pitcher. Last Friday the Jasons lost a return game with Vanport 6-1.

6-1 Lead Not Enough

Willamette held a 6 to 1 lead at the end of three innings in the Pacific Badger game. Bob Douglas homered on the ground through short stop as the first man up in the game for the first run. Lenz singled in the second and Harrington drove him in with a triple. Harrington scored when pitcher Lou Scrivens singled.

Hits by George Matile, John Markoskie and Roy Harrington in the third accounted for three more runs.

Pitching Collapses

Then the pitching strength collapsed as the Badgers hit Scrivens, John Slanchik, and Larry Stocks for 10 runs in the next four innings. Slanchik was the loser.

Coming from behind in the seventh inning of the Linfield game to tie the score at 6 to 6, the Jasons scored three runs in the first half of the ninth inning to win a thrilling ball game.

Lenz Hits

It was freshman third baseman Gordon Lenz who provided the winning punch, hitting for the circuit with two mates on. Howard Olson went all the way, scattering ten hits.

Larry Stocks took the loss in the Vanport game, as the Cat hitters were hitting only five times for their one run.

Two men got four of those five hits, first baseman Bruce Barker got two for four, as did Gordon Lenz.

Cat Racketmen Gain Runerup Tourney Spot

Willamette's Bearcat net artists almost accomplished a feat that hasn't been done since 1943 in last Saturday's Northwest conference tennis meet held on the local courts. The Cat doubles combination of Dave Bristow and Bill Bonnington fought their way to the finals, but succumbed there to the College of Idaho team. Whitman took the singles title.

After drawing a first round bye, Bonnington and Bristow took on Louis Wahl and Willard Gish of Lewis and Clark, whipping them 6-2, 8-6. In the finals they ran up against Bob Jensen and Lowell Sayre of the College of Idaho, who were playing in the tournament finals for the third straight year.

Dropping the first set, 6-1, mainly because of a severe case of jitters, the Bearcat representatives showed much more confidence and finesse in the second but finally lost, 6-4. The winners had point match, and the championship within one point, 12 times before they could finally put over the clincher.

In singles competition Willamette representative Cece Connors came through with a convincing first round victory over the College of Idaho man, 7-5, 6-2. Connors had the misfortune of running up against tourney favorite Jim Penrose of Whitman in the second round and went down to defeat, 6-3, 6-1.

Penrose went on to meet and defeat Jim Shaw of Pacific in the finals, 6-4, 5-7, 6-4, in the day's longest and most strenuous contest. Incidentally, Shaw also was playing in the finals for the third straight year.

Frosh Gain Split In Two Net Meets

The Willamette frosh tennis team lost its first tennis match to a potent aggregation from Vanport college 9 to 0 on the local courts Wednesday afternoon. It is the first time the Bearkittens have been pressed and the Vanport crew had just a little too much for the Frosh.

The Bearkittens took a clean sweep from Oregon College of Education 9-0 last Thursday afternoon on the Cat courts. The game was the Bearkittens all the way although five of the matches required a third set to decide the winner.

Summary of the OCE match (Willamette men listed first):

WAA Softballers Down Linfield 8-7

Willamette's women athletes came through with a 8-7 win over Linfield's fem team in a softball game last Thursday.

The Jason women jumped into an early 6-0 lead and weren't threatened until the fourth and the fifth when the Linfield women closed the gap but failed to tie the score. The Willamette women went on to win 8-7.

Ruth Hagelstein pitched the route for the Jasonettes and Barbara Olson held down the other end of the battery.

Tuesday's game with Linfield was cancelled because of inclement weather, but will be rescheduled in the near future.

Frosh 9 Wins Pair, Drops 1

The Freshman baseball team captured two wins in three starts during the past week, defeating a strong Sherwood team by a 17-2 score, winning over Salem 13-5, and then losing to the same Salem squad by a close 9-8 score.

The Sherwood game saw the Freshmen counter 11 runs in the first inning on four hits and six errors by the usually steady home team. Mike Glenn went the route on the mound for the winners and gave up but three hits and one earned run.

In the first Salem game the Vikings took an early 5-1 lead in the first three innings, but the Frosh came back with two runs in the fourth, five in the fifth, and five more in the seventh to capture the victory.

Sherm Bliss hurled the first five innings for the winning Frosh team, with Glenn pitching the last two. Frank Osborne and Dick Norton shared the mound duties for Coach Harold Hauk's charges.

The final game with Salem was a nip and tuck battle with the Bearkittens virtually booting the game away, allowing seven unearned runs to cross the plate. After letting the Frosh gain an early 1-0 margin, Salem scored five runs in a big fourth inning and counted four more in the fifth to take the game. A determined Bearkit rally fell short as the Salem club turned in a double play.

Jim Rock went all the way for Salem, while Mike Glenn pitched the first six innings for Willamette, with Sherm Bliss on the mound for the final stanza.

SAE's Gain Bowling Trophy By One-pin Win Over Baxter

This time it is the privilege of intramural bowlers to say "and it's all over now." The gallant conquerors from the SAE wing eked out a one-pin win over the Baxter "B" team in final playoffs held at the Capital alleys.

This match proved to be one of the most exciting and tense matches of the entire season. As a reward for their victory, which was played before some 15 to 20 loyal rooters, SAE received a gold trophy on a black plastic base.

In the first game Baxter took a 46-pin lead under the leadership of Bob Pedersen who scored a 177 game. This lead was quickly obliterated and changed to lean towards the SAE side of the ledger. Ben Valdez with 190 and Don Barkley kegling 177 were the big guns in this uprising.

In the third and deciding game, Hal Jole 161, Paul Smith 155, and John Janetski 167 all aided in helping the cause for Baxter; however, this win was not enough to overcome the lead previously piled up by the winners.

The final tally read: 2462 for SAE and 2461 for Baxter. High individual series honors went to Ben Valdez with a 164-190-177—531 series.

This final playoff marks the end of the second annual intramural bowling league.

Betas Kill SAE 40-0; Cop Title

By Jeff Mac Rae

By virtue of whomping and stomping SAE 40-0 last Wednesday noon Beta Theta Pi gained the intramural touchball crown. SAE ran a slow second, for they were hardly competition for the unbeatable battlers of Beta.

The real star of the game, if one were to be singled out, would be "Slinging Bobby Baum" of the Beta pigskinners, who, completely monopolized the ball, throwing passes at everyone but the feminine bystanders. Just to make it a little more difficult Bob was falling while in the midst of passing so he changed hands and heaved a southpaw pitch, which, not to be different, was also completed.

Thus another Willamette intramural activity goes by the boards, with the men of Beta proving that they have more ability than just copping the best GPA of the fraternities.

Four Teams Gain Softball Playoffs

A playoff between the four top intramural softball teams is scheduled to start Tuesday according to intramural director Les Sparks.

The Betas and the Sheiks, the two top teams in the "A" loop, have already cinched berths in the playoffs, with two games yesterday determining the other spot. The Law school and the SAE's, co-holders of third place in the "A" league, were scheduled to play for one tourney spot, while the Sigs and SAE's, co-champions in the "B" loop were scheduled to play for the fourth position.

The SAE's gained a tie for the "B" league title by defeating the Phi Deltas, with the Phi Deltas winning from the previously undefeated Sigs in a later game.

ASWU Picnic Scheduled Next Week Near Albany

Warren Eckles, general chairman for the ASWU picnic, announced that plans are developing nicely for the annual all-school outing, next Saturday, May 28.

The location committee headed by Sally Smith, after careful deliberation, chose the site of Island Acres, just south of Albany.

Other committee members include Earlyne Foley, food; Bill Ross, band; Stan Aschenbrenner, entertainment; Alice Turtledove, transportation; Aldene Adams, chaperones; Herb Carlson, clean-up and Dave Beckett, publicity.

Ludene Hargrave, assistant announced that all committees working under her have been striving hard to make this year's picnic memorable. The sophomore class is in charge of the day of ease, sunburns, and tummy aches, with Colleen Whiteman serving as overall coordinator for the affair.

Transportation for those unable to get private rides will be provided by chartered busses. Two busses will leave from the campus at noon Saturday, another bus will leave at four, as tentatively scheduled.

Additional details will be made public during the week on the bulletin boards in the campus buildings, and at the various living organizations.

Nuptial Date Told at AXO

A calico bag tied with pink ribbon was delivered to the Alpha Chi Omega house. On the outside a card said "the cat's out of the bag." Inside the bag was a small white stuffed kitten with the names 'Barbara' and 'Stan' which revealed the wedding date of August 28 of Barbara Halvorson and Stanley Girod. The wedding will be a candlelight ceremony held at the First Methodist church, Rev. Brooks Moore officiating.

The maid of honor will be Barbara Schulz of Forest Grove, and bridesmaids will be Janice Middleton and Alice Girod, both of Salem.

Miss Halvorson is a home economics and education major. Both are sophomores. The couple plan to finish their college education in Portland.

Joan Thomas Tells Troth

A toy car carried the news of the engagement of Joan Thomas and John Macy to the women at the Chi Omega house at the dinner hour Tuesday night. Six little red cars traveled down a green satin ribbon away from a small plastic church on the buffet table to make room for the car moving up to the church. The cars traveling away from the church carried cards bearing the names of Chi Omegas and their fiancés who are going to be married this summer, while the car moving toward the church carried an envelope disclosing the names "Joan and John." The doors of the church swung open to reveal the wedding and engagement rings. A box of chocolates and napkins printed in gold with the names of the couple were passed.

Miss Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Thomas of Port Orford, Oregon, is a graduating senior majoring in art. This past year she has acted as senior scholar for Mrs. Norman Huffman.

Macy, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Macy of Salem, is a graduate student working for his master's degree in physical education. A Willamette athlete lettering in track, he was a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity, and was ASWU president for the year 1943. He worked last year as a coach in the Hawaiian Islands, and tentatively plans to return next year.

The wedding date has not been set.

May Queen Needs Law School Vote

By Ron Symons

Past history reveals that if a co-ed wishes to become May Queen, it is a condition precedent that she have a brother, fiance, or husband in the law school. At least during the last three years this has been the case.

This year's Queen Edith is engaged to Pete Gunnar, who is a student at the law school. Last year Queen Joyce Patton was married to law student Al Patton. One of her princesses, Virgie Wicks, was married to Clarence Wicks, who is at present part-time faculty member in the Law school. The preceding years queen, Margaret Allen, had a brother attending law school.

"Generally speaking," exclaims Frank McKinney, law senior, "the law school sits quietly on the campus and doesn't interfere with local politics, but comes the spring and their fancy turns to thoughts of May Queens."

Lawrence Is Baxter Head

Gary Lawrence won the position of president of Baxter Hall, Tuesday night after two run-off elections. Jim Spangler will take over the duties of vice president for next year.

Secretary will be Charles Gutzler, and newly elected treasurer is Glen Halliday. Serving as chaplain will be John Wilkins. Herman Peters was elected sergeant-at-arms. Members of the executive committee will be elected next year.

DGs Entertain Salem Girls

A picnic in the backyard of the Delta Gamma house this afternoon from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., will honor the senior girls of Salem high school.

Margaret Atwood, the general chairman, is working with her committees to provide an entertaining evening. Shirley Ambler and Colleen Whiteman are working on entertainment. The menu, which consists of potato salad, hot dogs and buns, soda pop and ice cream cones is being taken care of by Polly Pollock. Pat Parsons is fixing the guestbook and Joan Holbeck is heading the set-up committee. The chairman of the clean-up committee is Beverly Plummer.

If these trends as a whole could be evaluated as representative of the entire campus, it would show that students favor smoking on the grounds (instead of on the sidewalk in front) and in the Cat Cavern by a margin of about two to one. But as to permitting it inside the non-residential halls, they turned a nearly unanimous "thumbs down" damper on such a matter.

The poll also indicated that there may be nearly twice as many non-smokers on the campus as there are smokers.

3 High School Seniors Win Rotary Grants

Joyce Edgell and Paul Jewell, Salem high school seniors, and Ernest Duvall, Silverton high senior, were presented to the Salem Rotarians Wednesday noon by R. L. Elfstrom as winners of this year's "Salem Rotary club-Willamette university scholarship." Elfstrom is chairman of the scholarship committee of that group.

The young people are recipients of a scholarship awarded each year by the Rotarians to outstanding high school seniors of Polk and Marion counties. Providing $360 each year for tuition, the award is for one year but is renewable for four at the discretion of the committee. When it is in full operation 12 students will benefit.

Attending WU on the scholarship at present are Tom Bartlett, Mike Glenn, Bill Merriam and James Gay.

Brown Plans Publications Revivification

Jack Brown, newly appointed publications manager, believes that through monthly publication board meetings closer coordination can be attained. He plans to include advertising managers of the various publications in the meetings in order to acquaint them with the problems that arise.

In order to increase the efficiency of the circulation of the Collegian, Brown plans to have students from the journalism department do the wrapping and mailing of the papers.

More Planning

More minute planning and budget-watching will be necessary because of the probable reduction of funds to publish the Wallulah and Collegian. The volume of the Wallulah may be reduced and the Collegian will have to cut down on the number of cuts used, Brown says.

Brown has nominated Al Volk, present ad solicitor for the Collegian, for the position of Collegian advertising manager. Assisting in soliciting ads will be Diane McLaughlin. According to Brown, a student is needed to take care of Friday morning
