

WILLAMETTE WILL NOT ENTER CONFERENCE NOW

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE DECIDES MOVE IS INADVISABLE AT THIS TIME.

FINANCIAL SITUATION CAUSES ACTION

Committee Divided on Present Entrance but Unanimous That We Should Go in Next Year.

Yesterday afternoon, after serious consideration of the matter, the Executive Committee by a vote of five to four, expressed their disapproval of the proposition of Willamette's entering the Northwest Conference this year.

Every consideration affecting the move was taken up, looked at from every possible viewpoint, and thoroughly pressed out, with the result as stated, that a majority of the committee thought it unwise to take the move. The decision, while involving other considerations, was based directly upon the question of finances. The present condition of the Student Body treasury indicates that ends will just about meet for the present school year, and it was the judgment of the committee that it was not wise to take the financial risk involved in the step, until there was a surplus in the treasury, with which to guard against a possible deficiency for the first year or two. As it seems probable that next year should see the Student Body finances on a much sounder basis, the majority of the committee were in favor of postponing entrance into the Conference until that time. The committee was unanimous in the position that Willamette should by all means join next year.

The matter of the eligibility rules was practically waived from the discussion. While these would hurt in two or three instances, it was felt that that fact should not keep the school from making the proposed move, if other considerations permitted. The great advantages of entering the Conference were not overlooked. There was no one but desired the added prestige and higher standards which membership would give, but this could not outweigh the fact that a year's delay would place the school in a much better position for entrance.

President Homan was called into consultation with the committee, and, after reviewing both sides of the question as he saw it, stated that whatever action the committee took would be acceptable to him. He was, however, slightly inclined to favor waiting until next year.

If the committee had voted to favor the proposition, the matter would have been submitted to the students today for ratification or rejection. As it is, it will be dropped.

The decision of the committee will come as a great disappointment to a large number of students, alumni and townspeople, who had hoped that Willamette would "get in" this year. There is hardly a shadow of a doubt, however, that Willamette will take her place in the Conference, where she belongs, next year, and every movement will be made to that end.

WORK OF BAND IS APPRECIATED

The football season has passed and the sound of the Band that inspired the students at the rallies and made the complete success of the rooting section a sure thing, is not heard so often in practice. Their efforts were appreciated by the students and the willingness with which they supported the school events added a zest to the college life that would be noticeable by its absence.

Willamette had a band last year, but it was small and did not take as important a part as the band has this year. There is a membership of sixteen, Harry Irvine, '15, being the leader. They are planning an elaborate concert and other entertainment to be given sometime after the holidays. The proceeds will be used in fitting out the band with some very much needed equipment.

The boys we have to thank for their services for the past season are: Shistler, Chalcraft, Alford, Richter, Anderson, Van Slyke, Rylie, Gardiner, Beck, Doane, P. Irvine, Manning, Rhoades, Coal, Hieox, Golden, H. Irvine.

DR. WILKINSON TO ASSIST PRES. HOMAN IN MEETING

Special Religious Services Will Occur Week of Jan. 13-19.—Personal Religion Emphasized.

Dr. H. S. Wilkinson of Eugene will assist Dr. Homan in the special meetings that will be held for the student body during the week of January 13-19.

These meetings are held annually and while the classroom work is carried on, the religious side of student life is emphasized. The work of the Christian schools is here given an effectiveness not possible in other institutions.

It will be remembered that Dr. Wilkinson was a visitor the early part of the year. He met several of the students at that time and made many friends.

Dr. Wilkinson has been in the West since the fall of 1910, and is pastor of the Eugene Methodist Church. He is a great friend of the student and is well acquainted with the various questions of the wide-awake student. He will deliver a series of talks which touch upon the student's life.

ELEVEN MEN GIVEN FOOTBALL AWARD BY COMMITTEE

Four Sweaters and Seven Certificates Granted—All Recipients are From Former Squads.

The committee on awards, consisting of Dr. Sweetland, Capt. Raymond McRae, Manager Merwyn Paget, Prof. Von Eschen, and Miss Jessie Young President of the Student Body, met Monday evening and officially determined the recipients of the official football award for the season of 1912.

Eleven men from the first squad of nineteen will receive the awards. Sweater awards, to those who have not previously earned sweaters, were voted to Robin Day, Ralph Stearns, George Watson and Raymond Rowland. The following, all of whom have received sweaters for the work of former seasons, will receive the certificate award: Raymond McRae, Grover Francis, Ivan Bellinger, Harley Blackwell, Charles Erskine, Eric Bolt and Paul Homan.

Owing to the extremely high requirements, which provide that a player must play two-thirds of the playing time during the season, only nine men were regularly qualified, McRae and Bellinger being granted special dispensations.

Every one of the eleven men given "W's" is either a former "W" man or a man who has worked with the squad in previous years. Rowland and Day subbed for two years, Stearns for one, and Watson played regularly the last half of the 1911 season.

MATTHEWS GIVEN BIG OVATION

Students Show Their Appreciation of Senior Member of the Faculty.

Our senior faculty member, prominent lecturer, endowment promoter, indispensable Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. leader, popular instructor, originator of the "cat with the smile," and ever-present professor of mathematics—our esteemed Prof. Matthews, led an exceptional chapel service yesterday. He gave a strong word of encouragement to the discouraged student to persevere, presenting the statistics of the percentage of successful college men, and the opportunities in life for an educated person.

Then Dr. Homan added that a man who has risen rapidly to the chair of Mathematics in Stanford, Prof. Wm. A. Manning, W. U., '09, was discovered by Prof. Matthews, and Prof. Manning's fine tribute to Prof. Matthews is that "he is the best instructor of mathematics I have ever met in the United States."

At this statement, the old chapel rang with applause, and quieted down only to be set in spasms of mirth by the announcement of the well-chosen hymn, "How Beautiful, How Divinely Fair," by Dean Mendenhall.

The University Y. M. C. A. called off their Sunday afternoon meeting in order that the members might attend the lecture by Sam Small at the M. E. Church.

FINE RECITAL GIVEN BY SCHOOL OF MUSIC

WORK OF PUPILS COMPLIMENT TO WORK OF DEAN AND MRS. MENDENHALL.

GLEE CLUB MAKES FIRST APPEARANCE

Men's and Ladies' Clubs are Both Appreciated by Large Crowd.—Miss Shumway Favorite of Evening

The first recital of the year was given by the pupils of the School of Music last evening in the chapel before a large audience.

The feature of the evening was the first public appearance of both the Glee Club and the Ladies' Musical Club.

The Glee Club especially sprung a pleasant surprise by its excellent work and was enthusiastically encouraged. It had been supposed that the club was greatly weakened by the loss of several men, but their work last night compared very favorably with that of former clubs and bespeaks a successful year.

The Ladies' Club, which has been increased to twenty-eight voices, rendered two splendid numbers with encores, and are probably stronger than ever before.

The program as a whole was of exceptionally high class, all the numbers being well presented. While the greatest credit must be given to all those appearing, it is fair to say that the vocal solo of Miss Irma Shumway was the most appreciated number of the evening. Little Miss Lena Dotson especially took the audience by the finish with which she rendered her piano solo.

A pleasing innovation in the program was the violin solo by Miss Lucille McCulley. Much was added to the program by the violin obligatos, played by Miss Turner, and the excellent accompaniments by Misses Shumway and Allison.

The program was as follows:

- Vocal, "A Spanish Romance," Sawyer—Ladies' Musical Club.
- Vocal, "Flower Land of Sleep," Gilbert—Miss Lois Ashby.
- Vocal, "All for You," d'Hardelet—Miss Carrie Cooksey.
- Piano, "Valse Arabesque, Op. 82," Lack—Miss Lena Dotson.
- Violin, "Russian Cradle Song," Neruda—Miss Lucille McCulley.
- Vocal, "Slave Song," Del Riego—Miss Nellie McIntire.
- Piano, "Pomponnette, Op. 80," Durand—P. G. Baumgartner.
- Vocal, "Beauty's Eyes" (Violin Obligato), Tosti—Miss Franc Newman.
- Vocal, "Berceuse from 'Jocelyn,'" Godard—Miss Laura Wilson.
- Piano, "Pizzicati from 'Sylvia,'" Deibes—Miss Ava McMahon.
- Vocal, "Away, Away" (Vocal March) Brackett—The Glee Club.
- Vocal, "La Primavera," Torrey—Miss Nettie Snyder.
- Piano, "Notturmo, Op. 54, No. 4," Grieg—Miss Lucille Kuntz.
- Vocal, "Beloved" (Violin Obligato), Neidlinger—Miss Margaret Hodge.
- Vocal, "La Jingarella," Campana—Miss Frances Dimick.
- Piano, "Nocturne in A Flat, No. 3," Liszt—Miss Ruth Allison.
- Vocal, "Slumber Song (Violin Obligato), Mattel—Miss Ava McMahon.
- Vocal, "Il Bacio," Arditi—Miss Irma Shumway.
- Vocal, "Swallows to Southward," Ashford—The Ladies' Musical Club.
- Accompaniments: Piano, Miss Allison and Miss Shumway; violin, Miss Turner.

CONFERENCE DELEGATES MEET

The meeting of the Northwest College Conference delegates will be held in Seattle on December 20-21.

The meeting as originally planned was to have been held in Spokane, and for a short time it appeared probable that they would meet in Walla Walla. Plans had already been agreed to for an earlier date, but owing to the fact that many of the faculty members of the conference found it would be impossible to come to Spokane prior to the holidays, Secretary George Hug of the University of Oregon has called the meeting for Seattle for just before Christmas.

Many important questions will be up before the conference this year in addition to the work of framing the schedules for the difference branches of sport for this winter, next spring and next fall.

GYMNASIUM CLASSES FOR UNIVERSITY WOMEN BEGIN

Calisthenics, Baseball and Basketball to be Taken Up—Dressing Rooms Being Fitted Up.

As has long been desired by the fairer members of the student body, gymnasium classes for ladies have been formed and under the direction of Dr. Sweetland the co-eds have taken up the work.

Four different classes have been formed and a time allotted for each to meet, two classes meeting each day at 1:30 and 2:30 respectively.

The work to be taken up will be, first, the regular gym class exercises, such as wand drills, dumb bells, Indian club work and free hand exercises, tending to the development of correct carriage and stature.

Indoor baseball and basketball will also be taken up and inter-society, class and department games will be arranged in these two popular indoor sports.

The work will be compulsory upon all the women of the University. The plan has been to place those desiring a particular kind of work in the same classes so as to make the work as congenial as possible.

Dressing and locker rooms for the use of the women are being constructed on the second floor of the gymnasium annex.

PROF. AND MRS. PATTERSON OPEN HOME TO FRESHMEN

Christmas Games Occupy Pleasant Evening at Home of Popular Head of History Dept.

Dr. and Mrs. Patterson entertained the Freshmen Class last Friday evening with what was generally pronounced the most enjoyable party of the season. Fir boughs and tiny Christmas trees decorated their attractive home, and all of the games of the evening were suggestive of Christmas-tide.

As soon as the guests had gathered a shopping tour set them puzzling over jumbled names of things to be purchased. A contest in writing Christmas wishes followed, in which Charles Ohling carried off the prize with a humorous rhyme signed with the familiar "J. R., '18." Not all, it seems, competed, for one demure maiden informed the audience that she and the gentleman next to her had "only one wish between them."

In the latter part of the evening a toy Christmas tree was brought forth, and Dr. Patterson as Santa Claus distributed gifts daintily wrapped in the class colors. Small dolls, rolling pins, marbles and bells delighted the hearts of the Freshmen who proved not too old to be made happy with a toy.

Delicious refreshments in the class colors were served. Assisting Mrs. Patterson were five of the Sophomore girls, the Misses Hulda Beckley, Ruth Young, Gertrude Eakin, Florence Page and Stella Graham. During the evening, Miss Graham sang "An Irish Lullaby" and "Rose of My Heart"; Miss Eakin played "The Evening Star" and a pleasing encore.

VON ESCHEN ELECTED TO AWARD COMMITTEE

Student Body Meeting Also Addressed By Dr. Sweetland on Campus Improvement Work.

At the Student Body meeting last Friday, Dr. Sweetland spoke on the successes of the football season just closed. He said much of the success was traceable to the faithful and consistent work of the men of the squad. With his usual modesty, he denied that he was responsible for the success, and declared that the fine support and co-operation of the Student Body made the season possible.

He also asked that the students support all work of campus improvement. He called attention to the fact that there is less interest in this work and less willingness among the students to give free labor than has formerly been the case.

At this same meeting, Prof. Von Eschen was elected as faculty member of the Awards Committee. This committee, which consists of one faculty member, the Student Body president, the coach, captain, and manager of that branch of athletics, decides the awarding of the "W's" in that branch.

WALLULAH MANAGEMENT HAVE BOOK OUTLINED

MANY NOVEL FEATURES TO MAKE VOLUME PUBLISHED BY 1914 CLASS THE BEST EVER.

COMPLETE ALUMNAL DIRECTORY FEATURED

Organization of Staff Held Up Pending Affiliation of Classes—All are to be Represented.

Replete with new features, new views, new pictures, new stunts and even with new jokes (it is claimed), the Wallulah, the annual publication of the Junior class, is going to be better than ever before, is the statement of the management.

The actual work is well under way and the ample time taken for this insures its successful completion. The editor-in-chief and business manager were elected last spring by the affiliated Medie and Liberal Arts Juniors; and the Junior Laws, coming in this fall, as far as interviewed, are taking an interest in the work and have pledged their hearty support. Probably definite action by the class will not be taken until an affiliated organization has been completed.

Editor Gilkey, when interviewed as to the personnel of the staff, stated that this would not be given out until the matter of affiliation had been settled, in order that all departments might have full recognition upon the board of editors. However, several special assignments have been made and are being worked into shape.

Ralph Homan, the business manager has already chosen his assistant in the person of Harley Blackwell. In size, the volume is to follow the precedent established by the Wallulah of two years ago. It will be bound in limp leather with the name and emblem embossed on the front cover and the back reinforced with leather thongs.

As to the interior of the book, a novel plan has been arranged for the upper-class pictures. Special inserts will be bound into the volume upon which the individual photographs will be mounted. There will also be individual pictures of the under-classmen.

One of the special features will be a geographical alumni directory. This will entail a great deal of labor, but it is badly needed and will be of great interest and value. Work on this is well under way.

An elegant frontispiece has been secured, through the courtesy of Chief Justice Eakin, from the well-known photographer of Indian scenes, Leo Morehouse, of Pendleton. It is a picture of an Indian maid of the Unatilla tribe named "Wallulah." The name makes it especially appropriate for this publication.

Active advertising and subscription campaigns will be started soon. The management will close its subscription list before the book goes to press so those who do not buy beforehand will not buy at all.

CLASS GAMES ARE POSTPONED

Juniors and Freshmen Meet Tomorrow but Others will not be Played Until After Holidays.

Basketball is now holding the center of the stage and the gym is daily infested by those who aspire to win fame by tossing the big ball through the hoop.

First team practice has not yet been taken up. The squad turning out so far is made up of those who aspire to places on the class teams or wish to practice for the mere sport and exercise.

The Juniors and Freshmen have made arrangements to play the first inter-class game tomorrow afternoon at 4:30.

It was desired that the other classes and departments also have games this week, but at present there is no indication that they will be willing to do so.

The Sophomores, at a meeting held Monday noon, selected Carlos Raines to hold the reins of their team, and will put in an appearance soon, although they do not expect to be ready to play until after the holidays.

If Manager Pfaff succeeds in carrying out his present plans, it is possible that some of the Academy classes may play this week otherwise the rest of the inter-department and class games will be dropped until after the holidays.

BOOST!

During the next two weeks, two or three hundred Willamette students will be scattered into every section of the state and into adjoining states. The occasion offers unmeasured opportunity for advancing the interests of this University throughout the Northwest. For it is only by the active co-operation of her own students that Willamette can attract others to her historic halls. National bureaus and state boards of education may bear witness to her scholastic eminence, devoted leaders may spread her fame, and papers herald her honors, but without the aid of every student within her walls she can not wield the influence which should be hers.

It is the personal contact with college people that largely determines that an individual will go to college and which college he will attend. The subject of Willamette will be the most natural in the world to bring up among old friends. Bring it up! You can speak honestly of the merits of the school, for it is without superior in the state. Let people know it!

If the students of Willamette will solidly boost for Willamette during even so short a recess, the results will be tremendous.

A DISGRACE.

What is the matter with the orators? The turn-out to date is a disgrace to the University. It is a peculiar condition when twenty or twenty-five men are out for debate and five Freshmen for oratory. There needs to be a little equalization. The time is late now for an adjustment but not too late. A few upperclassmen should get busy on orations, that Willamette's position in this branch of work may be maintained.

AS TO LOCAL DEBATES.

While we are speaking of the matter of forensics, it is in place to suggest that all the debating energy of the University ought not to be spent on intercollegiate debate. That should serve as the special incentive, the high goal. As in athletics, intercollegiate contests should not, however, be pushed to the detriment of those unable to qualify for the "first teams." A genuine interest in debate should manifest itself in inter-class and inter-society contests. A series of debates between classes and between literary societies (women included, please note) would not only greatly increase the interest in this line of work, but would train up a large number of debaters fitted to represent Willamette in intercollegiate debate.

The best way to get at the matter is for the classes, Freshman and Sophomore at any rate, to elect debate managers and have them get together and work out the details. Committees could do the same for the literary societies.

These debates need not interfere with the intercollegiate try-outs which come near the end of February, as they could be pulled off either before or after that date. Active planning ought to begin immediately so as to insure the success of these local contests.

MISS PENNINGTON AUGURS DESTINY OF CLASS OF '13

Hollingsworth Proves to be the Original "Good Luck Kid."

'Twas Friday, the thirteenth, that found the Class of '13 assembled in the parlors at Lausanne Hall to learn their destiny. The unusually tasteful decorations afforded a most pleasing effect. The very atmosphere permeated with floating good wishes suggested the lucky theme of the evening. When all were ready and the rules of the game laid down, the eager guests, forgetful of manners and assumed dignity, proceeded to undo all orderly neatness in their wild and reckless scramble for hidden treasures. Who said horseshoes, dimes, pins, pennies, or thimbles? The "Game of '13," a new card trick originated by Miss Pennington, bids fair to become very popular as a game of chance.

The evening's consistent program of good omen reached a most palatable climax in ice cream and "good luck" cake while the Fates favored Carl Hollingsworth, who was rewarded for his incessant good humor, and persevering search with a beautiful gold tie pin.

Each member of the class feels a happy satisfaction in his destiny as he learned it Friday evening.

CHRISTMAS FOR THE KIDS TUESDAY NIGHT

Y. M. C. A. will Furnish Supper, Christmas Tree, and Games in Gym.—Help Needed.

"Eh, Jimsey, look at that big dish a' pertaters!"

"Aw, dry up, Mike. Jes' see that pile of cake over there!"

These and other sundry remarks will be in vogue next Tuesday evening—the night before Christmas—on which the big Y. M. C. A. feed for the kids will be given. It is the plan of those in charge to feed one hundred and fifty or more young urchins of our city who will not be able to get a real, true Christmas of their own. The plan of trying to give the young girls of Salem a chance to enjoy the same privilege is now under discussion, and beyond a doubt it will finally be so arranged as to include them in the good time. The help of the Willamette women will be needed to care for these waifs. If you really think that you can spare a few minutes of your "precious" time to help amuse these little youngsters, it will be a great aid to those in charge.

The committees are not definitely selected as yet. However, the men and women who remained after chapel last Monday will be expected to tender their services for the occasion, or the people in charge will be called upon to call upon you.

The children will range in age from about eight to thirteen years and if anyone has any suggestions about the entertainment for the evening, or about anything concerning the affair the leaders in the movement will be glad to receive them and will not consider you at all "forward."

PENNY, PLEASE!

At this time of the year when Christmas cheer and good will abound, it is very fitting that the Y. W. C. A. rest room should have new curtains. Every girl in the University may help in disseminating the season's spirit of giving by placing in the little iron box hanging on the left wall of the rest room as one enters, a few pennies, a nickel, or a dime. May there be no one who will not experience the joy described in the lines, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

PHILOSOPHANS PREPARE FOR CHRISTMAS AT MEETING

On account of the nearness of Christmas, the Philodorian girls combined needlecraft with literature last Friday; so that while the meeting progressed, busy needles were piled toward the completion of many a lovely gift.

Miss Keith Van Winkle read a very clever original poem; a solo was given by Miss Ermine Harding; and Miss Inez Goltra favored the company with an appropriate and interesting reading, "When the Hangman Lost His Nerve."

Second roll-call was responded to by Christmas suggestions, and many clever and helpful ideas were given.

An election of officers for the ensuing year was then held, which resulted in the following: Miss Mildred Bartholomew, president; Miss Ruth Young, vice-president; Miss Beryl Holt, secretary; Miss Hazel Smith, assistant secretary; Miss Lucille Kuntz, treasurer; Miss Margaret Graham, censor; Miss Annie Ryan, kitchen custodian; Miss Helen Wastel, reporter; Miss Gertrude Reeves, sergeant-at-arms.

MILES AND MEEK WIN FOR PLAINTIFF IN MOOT COURT

In one of the hardest fought moot court cases of the year last Monday evening at the county courthouse the plaintiff, Mr. Peter Crosby, was awarded the verdict by the jury for the sum of five hundred dollars.

The case was based upon a promissory note which was dishonored at maturity by the maker and the holder, through his attorneys, Miles and Meek, commenced action against the maker and indorsers.

The trial was very interesting from the start. Miles and Meek for the plaintiff had their case well planned while the same should be said of McInturf and Max Page, who represented the defendants.

Walter Keyes, instructor in Bills and Notes, acted as judge.

The result of a recent investigation conducted by Charles W. Kavl, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and Karl Martzloff, head of the Y. M. C. A. social service committee, shows that 53 per cent of all men in attendance at the University of Oregon are either wholly or in part self-supporting.

David Bispham, America's greatest concert baritone. Tomorrow evening at 8:15 Grand Opera House. Admission $1.50.

TEUTONIANS CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS IN FAIRYLAND

The Teutonians met last Saturday night in the Websterian-Adelante hall, the guests of the out-of-town members. The general atmosphere of the place scented of Christmas and Fairyland. The walls were hung with ivy, interspersed with holly, and suspended from the four illuminating chandeliers hung great masses of richly-berried mistletoe. A candle-lighted Christmas tree and a fairy grotto, covered with a heavy film of snow and set among fairy-sized fir trees completed the decorations.

After the program and after an hour spent in social conversation and the playing of German games and singing songs that breathed the Christmas spirit, most delightful because most bountiful refreshments were served. For the benediction Prof. Walsh sang the "Abschieds Lied."

Oakes, Back from Harvard, Visits "U" "Jimmie" Oakes, '12, who recently returned from Harvard University where he had been pursuing graduate work, was a visitor at the University from Thursday to Saturday last.

Oakes' return from Harvard was caused by a nervous breakdown several weeks ago. Following an active summer in the playground work, the change to close and intense application to study reacted on him and broke up his nerves. He is on the up-grade now and will soon be in good shape.

Prohi Secretary Coming.

Friday, Dec. 20, Leon A. Moomaw, national traveling secretary of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association, will be at Willamette.

Mr. Moomaw has had extensive experience in practical work among the colleges of Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas. He will speak at chapel.

The Adelante Literary society brought forth their new pins yesterday afternoon. They are an attractive little emblem. The head of Minerva, in gold forms the main part of the pin, with a small gold "A" in the hood surmounting the features of the goddess.

Eldred Returned to Daily.

CLIMAX THREE YEARS WORK HERE

The endowment campaign is reaching a climax. The expiration of the time set by James J. Hill in which the authorities of Willamette were to have $250,000 in negotiable securities will be up on the first day of the year. The sum already in first mortgages, bankable bonds, etc., could not be learned late Tuesday afternoon. But Willamette will have that $50,000 of the railroad magnate's if those who have made large subscriptions will place them in proper form so that they can be counted.

President Fletcher Homan and Vice-President E. H. Todd, who have been conducting the campaign, have, with some outside help, been bending every effort for the past month in getting the many subscriptions which have been made in the form of notes into such shape that Mr. Hill will recognize them and pay Willamette his pledge.

FRESHMEN LEAD Y. W. C. A.

The fact that the Y. W. C. A. girls were permitted to bring their needlework to the meeting Thursday detracted nothing from the interest and attention. The responsibility for the service had been placed upon the girls of the Freshman class, and Miss Aetna Emmel, as their representative, proved a most efficient leader. "Our Perspective" was the topic she chose, and after a brief and thoughtful discussion of the subject she called on various members to speak on such topics as "What I expect to Gain From the Y. W. C. A.," "From the Literary Societies," "From a Christian Faculty," "From the Upper-Class Girls," etc.

Miss Carrie Cooksey sang "Teach Me to Pray," and Inez and Helen Goltra played a mandolin and guitar duet.

MEDICS INSPECT PLANT OF SALEM WATER COMPANY

Last Wednesday, the Hygiene and Sanitation classes of the Medics investigated the Salem Water Company's plant. This investigation is part of their special study of municipal water systems, hence was very interesting as well as pleasant to the Medics.

Mr. Wallace, one of the owners, showed the greatest hospitality to his guests, and spared nothing to make the trip profitable in every way to the embryo M. D.'s.

MONEY LOST ON FOOT BALL

Large Guarantees and New Equipment Bought Leave Considerable Gap in Treasury.

The financial side of the football season did not progress as well as the other phases connected with the game. The heavy schedule, big guarantees, and the necessity for new outfits have not been conducive to piling up a nice little wad on the credit side of the manager's ledger.

The first part of the season netted a few small gains. The Alumni game left a balance of about $15.00, the Oregon game resulted in about a $50 gain, the Chemawa game another $50, and the Pacific game about $15.

Then came the financial decline. In the Vancouver Soldier battle, about $40 was lost. Nearly $100 was lost in the Whitworth game, whilst the meeting with Montana cost us in the neighborhood of $110 over receipts. Besides this, much money was spent for outfits, making the result of our season a loss financially of fully $300. There are on hand, however, enough outfits, new or practically new, to cut this amount at least in half.

DR. HOMAN ARRAIGNS CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Last Friday's chapel service was one of the most impressive and profitable of the year. Dr. Homan spoke on "Capital Punishment" and the tragedy which was about to take place at the penitentiary.

This was one of the times when Dr. Homan's strength of personality was felt by everyone present. With great force he spoke of the ways in which society is responsible for so many crimes, citing several instances in the present cases. Without a doubt the great majority of the student body heartily agrees with the president and is in accord with the humanitarian reform advocated by Governor West.

In this speech Dr. Homan predicted that at the next election Oregon would abolish this form of criminal punishment.

Miss Helen Wastell was called home Saturday morning on account of the illness of her brother. Word has been received that he is still in a precarious condition, so that Miss Wastell will not return before the holidays.

THREE ALUMNI PREPARE TO DESERT SINGLE STATE

Alta Altman, '12; Edgar Martin, '12, and Frank Grannis, '06, Capitate to Cupid.

Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Altman recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alta, to Mr. Edgar Martin of Portland. Both are members of the class of 1912, Miss Altman graduating from Liberal Arts, and Mr. Martin from Law. The date for the wedding has not been announced, but will be sometime in January.

Another alumnus who aspires to the benedictine role is Frank Grannis, '06, who will be married December 29th to Miss Anetta Wilson, a niece of Mrs. Fletcher Homan. Mr. Grannis is at present teaching in the high school at Marshfield. Miss Wilson, whose home is at Creston, Iowa, has until recently been nursing at the State Training School.

LEBANON HIGH DEFEATS SALEM DEBATERS TWICE

Salem High's first debate of the season occurred last Friday night, the negative team debating with Lebanon in the High School auditorium, while the affirmative went to Lebanon. The question was: "Resolved, that the state of Oregon should adopt a state compulsory insurance law similar to that of Washington, for the compensation of workmen injured in hazardous industries."

Excellent preparation and training were shown by each team and a large audience enjoyed the debate in the local High School assembly room.

The debate was decided 2 to 1 in favor of the Lebanon team, while the debate at Lebanon resulted in a complete victory for that team.

ADELANTES HAVE CHRISTMAS TREE

Friday afternoon, the Adelantes had their annual Christmas treat. The halls were decorated with holly and Oregon-grape, and in one corner was the Christmas tree, with its strings of popcorn, its tinsel, its goodies, and what not. The Adelante members came dressed to represent characters in well-known books and funny papers. Everybody took part in the program, which, as a result, gave pictures of a great many phases of life. Between times, fingers busily plied the needles and tongues moved fast. After the program the tree was robbed of its fruit and a very happy afternoon completed.

Miss Mildred Bartholomew left for home Tuesday, illness at home being the cause of her early departure.
