

A CHRISTMAS SERVICE
OF
LESSONS & CAROLS

Willamette University
Christmas, 1996

"Lessons and Carols" is not old, as English traditions go. It was first instituted in the new West Country diocese of Truro in 1883, and soon spread to other cathedrals and finally, in 1918, to its most famous home, Cambridge University. There, in King's College Chapel, it remains a nearly essential part of the English celebration of Christmas. The BBC has carried the service on its world service for many years, and recently American Public Broadcasting stations have made it available on TV and FM radio in the U.S.

"Lessons and Carols" came to Willamette in 1985 and was held in the old Waller Auditorium with a volunteer choir. The service was held in the Cat Cavern for several years, until returning to Cone Chapel in Waller Hall in its present form in 1989. Now, in a kind of Willamette Christmas Eve, before exams and vacation separate us, we have the opportunity of hearing the story of redemption read by representative members of the Salem and campus communities and of hearing and singing the popular carols of Christmas.

Collection plates are on the altar for your offering, which will be donated to the Marion Polk Food Share.

POSTLUDE

Translations:

“Tantum Ergo”

Let us therefore, bowing low,
Venerate so great a Sacrament;
And let the old Law
Give way to the new rite;
Let faith afford assistance
To the deficiency of the senses.

To the Begetter and the Begotten
Let there be praise and jubilation,
Salvation and honor,
And power and blessing;
And to the One proceeding from both
Let there be equal praise.

“Gloria”

Glory to God in the highest.
And on earth peace
to all those of good will.
We praise Thee. We bless Thee.
We worship Thee. We glorify Thee.
We give thanks to Thee according to Thy great glory.
Lord God, Heavenly King,
God the Father almighty.
