

A CHRISTMAS SERVICE
OF
LESSONS & CAROLS

Willamette University
Christmas, 1994

"Lessons and Carols" is not old, as English traditions go. It was first instituted in the new West Country diocese of Truro in 1883, and soon spread to other cathedrals and finally, in 1918, to its most famous home, Cambridge University. There, in King's College Chapel, it remains a nearly essential part of the English celebration of Christmas. The BBC has carried the service on its world service for many years, and recently American Public Broadcasting stations have made it available on TV and FM radio in the U.S.

"Lessons and Carols" came to Willamette in 1985 and was held in the old Waller Auditorium with a volunteer choir. The service was held in the Cat Cavern for several years, until returning to Waller Hall in its present form in 1989. Now, in a kind of Willamette Christmas Eve, before exams and vacation separate us, we have the opportunity of hearing the story of redemption read by representative members of the Salem and campus communities and of hearing and singing the popular carols of Christmas.

Translations

La Virgen Lava Panales

The Virgin washes swaddling clothes,
and keeps them in rosary;
and the little birds sing,
and the water runs along laughing.

Shepherds, come,
shepherds, draw near,
to worship the Child
to worship the Child
which has just been born.

The Child-God is lost
and everyone is looking for him;
at the seashore
He was fishing for fish.

Hodie

Today Christ is born;
today the Saviour has appeared;
today the Angels sing,
the Archangels rejoice;
today the righteous rejoice, saying:
Glory to God in the highest. Alleluia!
