

TRUSTEE MEET WILL DISCUSS BUDGET PLANS

Group Will Consider Accommodating More Students

BAXTER WILL REPORT

Matters Before Board Mostly Routine; Dorm Question May Be Up

Although usually a routine session, several important matters are expected to be brought forward when the board of trustees meet in their annual year-end session at Lausanne hall Saturday morning, at 10 o'clock. Amedee M. Smith, president of the board, will preside at the meeting which is usually devoted to the rubber stamp procedure of approving faculty recommendations, discussion and adoption of the budget and filling vacancies on the board.

The expected increase in enrollment next year has brought up a problem of accommodations and the board is expected to discuss plans for taking care of an enlarged student body. While administration and board officials have not disclosed any of their plans it is probable that the question of a men's dormitory, under consideration for several years, will again crop up. The planned enlargement of the student body will make the problem of housing of men students more acute than ever before.

No major changes are contemplated in the present faculty set-up and the business of approving the recommendations of Dean F. M. Erickson that all present instructors continue will be merely routine.

Next year's budget, prepared by N. S. Savage, business secretary, will also be up for discussion and approval. It is expected to be much the same as last year's. For several years the university has been running on a cash basis and has closed the books at the completion of each school year with cash on hand.

Certain matters of university policy, including further discussion on the dance situation, are among some of the things which will be considered. Dr. Bruce Baxter, Dean F. M. Erickson and Dean Olive M. Dahl will each make their annual reports to the board.

New members will be elected to replace those who will be automatically retired this summer.

Ten new members are elected each year by the board, two by the alumni association and three by the Oregon conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

The retiring members are: C. P. Bishop, Roy Booth, Truman Collins, M. C. Findley, A. A. Lee, Bishop Titus Lowe, J. P. Rasmussen, A. A. Schram, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Col. Percy Willis, Harold Eakin, Earl A. Nott, S. W. Hall, F. M. Phelps and C. C. Rarick.

Less Than 6000 Minutes To Finals Writer Finds

"I'm getting up at 4:30 tomorrow to study entomology." After hearing such a remark, and looking to make sure that the one who made the statement was not criminally insane, to murder his sleep in such an outrageous manner, the fact that final exams are less than 6,000 minutes away became suddenly apparent.

Every semester, about 100 per cent of the students wake up to the fact that they are starting straight into the face of final quizzes, something worse than an overdose of castor oil. Then follows about four days of toll intermingled with terror, and then the victim rests from his labors for another four months—providing he survives.

The reason Willamette has but two semesters, in place of the usual quarterly system, is that the administration doesn't believe students could stand the strain of three such periods of concentra-

Judge Will Speak

Edward F. Ashurst of Klamath Falls, judge of the 13th district in Oregon, who will speak at the annual law school banquet at the Masonic Temple Saturday night.

WALLULAH MOGULS WILL DISTRIBUTE EDITION TUESDAY

The long awaited 1935 Wallulah was sent to the binders this week and will be ready for distribution Tuesday, Manager Earle Potter announced today. With new ideas in every department the book, edited by Esther Black, will be a startling innovation in Willamette year books.

Use of a dull black ink and dull coat enamel block paper make this year's edition of the Wallulah strikingly different from previous books. Unusual art work and photography is included in the 150 pages of the "family album." The inserts which mark off the sections of the book are the most striking features, modernistic photography of campus scenes being combined with a wide modernistic border in color. The inserts are printed with a dull ink on paper of a stucco finish.

The book probably contains more views of campus life than any former edition and includes a number of full page layout cuts which are printed to "bleed," that is with no white space between the edge of the paper and the pictures. "Before and after" pictures of the state capitol were among the latest cuts to be added to the book. One picture shows the capitol as it looked before the fire from the porch of Eaton hall; the other shows it while it was burning with flames shooting from the dome. The book will be bound in Mollay.

Distribution of Wallulahs will take place Tuesday at the Wallulah office in the basement of Waller hall. Student body tickets for both semesters must be presented.

EX-EDITOR TO GO TO HAWAIIAN ISLES

David Johnson plans to leave June 15, on the steamer "Lurline," for Honolulu, where he will spend the summer studying psychology and Oriental literature at the University of Hawaii.

LAWYERS WILL HOLD BANQUET FRIDAY NIGHT

Judge E. B. Ashurst To Be Main Speaker

CELEBRATE 51 YEARS

Chief Justice Campbell and Justice J. F. Ailshie Among Speakers

Judge Edward B. Ashurst, U. S. 123, of Klamath Falls, will be the main speaker at the annual banquet of the Willamette law school, which will be held Friday evening at 6:30 at the Masonic temple. The guests will include law school students, all law school alumni, trustees and invited friends of the school.

Other important speeches of the evening will be given by Chief Justice James U. Campbell of the Oregon bench, and Justice J. F. Ailshie of the Idaho supreme court. President Bruce R. Baxter will also speak of the merits of the law school.

Miss Grace Smith, assistant to the attorney-general's office, is in charge of the banquet. A musical program has been planned by Professor Marshall, Ralph Barber and Ralph McCullough are to assist Professor Marshall.

PUBLICITY AGENT RELATES PREVIEW OF SEABECK TRIP

By Jane Bellinger

A most exciting "preview of coming attractions" of Seabeck, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. intercollegiate conference to be held on Hood's Canal, Puget Sound, June 15-24, was shown to those students attending a Seabeck rally supper held at Cresto Cottage last Thursday evening. During the supper, two of the campus' liveliest "co-eds" gave a "forewarning" of life at Seabeck—at least life there as they pictured it.

Amelia Shrack spoke of two phases of Seabeck which have always impressed her as being important—"the food one eats, and the folks one meets."

Dr. Raymond Culver, of Linfield College, showed pictures which were taken at previous conferences. These showed students in various activities, busy in study, discussion, worship and play.

The ways to Seabeck are many and devious. Two popular ways are "buming" and straight "hitch hiking." One may also go by bus, train or private car. There are also airlines between Portland and Seattle. Several cars are going up from Salem—so all interested contact Lowell Eddy, Martha Jane Hottel or Jane Bellinger and some ways will be provided for you. These people also have registration cards which they are anxious to fill as soon as possible. It doesn't matter, really, how you go—so long as you arrive finally—at Seabeck!

Diogenes Here's 500 Honest Souls

Shades of Diogenes! The famous Cynic philosopher of Greece, who lived in a tub and went around looking for an honest man, was born about 360 years too soon. What is more, he was in the wrong place entirely. He ought to have been at Willamette in 1935. Here at Willamette the miracle of miracles has happened. Not a single student came before the Honor Code Committee this semester. That is a record of something or other and this is one time when a committee deserves to be congratulated for not doing any work.

WAYNE DOUGHTON DISCOVERS RARE OLD SEAL SKULL

Wayne Doughton, Willamette university student who spends his spare time digging up fossils as an amateur archeologist, has unknowingly picked up a rare seal skull near Yaquina that may be one of the most important fossil discoveries made in Oregon in recent years, it was learned yesterday.

Discovery of the value of the find was made when Dr. E. L. Packard, dean of science at Oregon State and a well known paleontologist was inspecting the collection of fossils and Indian relics that Doughton keeps in the basement of his home. Dr. Packard noted the rare skull, examined it and on further inspection announced that it was the second fossilized relic of the prehistoric seal ever to be found and estimated its age at 20,000,000 years. It was thought to be from miocene formations near Astoria.

The first specimen was found near Newport by Dr. John F. Gordon in 1906 and is now in the Condon museum at the University of Oregon. Dr. Condon classified the fossil as Desmatophoca oregonensis.

BIG YEAR PLANNED FOR SCIENCE CLUB

The election of officers for the coming year and the adoption of the new constitution were the chief items of business at the Willamette University Science club meeting held in Science Hall last Monday. The club which is just beginning to receive notice as a campus organization after several years' inactivity has drawn up a new and more complete constitution for the conduct of its affairs.

Officers for next year are: President, Frank Thomas; vice-president, William Voss; treasurer, Harry Mosher, and secretary, Richard Van Pelt.

Under the leadership of this new cabinet, the club plans to contact all incoming Freshmen who are planning on a science course and try and interest them in the organization. It also hopes to promote a limited social program in addition to its other activities, and it possible to arrange exchange meetings with clubs from other schools.

Study is Summer Lot of Teachers

While many of the faculty members will spend the summer "taking it easy" several have planned to study or travel.

Prof. Lestle Sparks will leave for the south soon after exams are over. His final destination is Palo Alto, California, where he will attend the summer session at Stanford university and continue work towards his master's degree.

Professor Rahe is also scheduled to enter summer school this year, somewhere in the east.

Miss Eness left early this week for Chicago, where she will enter the American Institute of Music. Miss MacHeron is leaving soon to join her there for the summer session.

Professor Matthews may attend the summer session at the University of Southern California. Miss Gale Curry and Miss Marian Morange are planning a trip to Europe as a means of spending their summer vacation.

SENIORS WILL WIND UP WITH BUSY WEEKEND

Program Lists Breakfast, Class Day Reception

LAST CHAPEL FRIDAY

President's Reception Will Be Held at Lausanne; Class Day Saturday

Senior weekend will start to draw the curtain across the stage of college life for seventy seniors Friday morning at 11:15, when senior chapel will be held.

The grand finale will be Monday when commencement is held. Plans for the week are:

Wednesday evening, June 5: President and Mrs. Baxter will entertain the senior class at their home at 196 Washington street.

The reception of President and Mrs. Baxter to the alumni, seniors, and their guests, trustees, faculty, students and all friends, will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Saturday will be given to the senior breakfast at 6:30 o'clock on the campus. At 10 o'clock the board of trustees will hold their annual meeting at Lausanne hall. The class day exercises will be held in the university chapel at 2:30 o'clock. The Alumni banquet is to be held in the gym at 6:30 o'clock. Following this they will hold a business meeting.

Baccalaureate services are to be held at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning at the First Methodist Episcopal church when Bishop Titus Lowe will give the sermon.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock Dr. J. C. Harrison will preach the sermon for the anniversary of the Christian association.

Monday, with commencement, will bring senior week to a close when the seniors, trustees and faculty members will assemble at the First Methodist Episcopal church at 9:30 a. m. to go to the Elsinore for the commencement exercises.

FORENSIC OUTLOOK GLOWING FOR NEXT YEAR, RAHE BELIEF

Repetition of this year's outstanding record in forensics was predicted today by Professor Herbert E. Rahe for next season. With a veteran debate squad, experienced orators, and an extensive forensic schedule, Willamette's outlook in these activities is unusually bright. The production of three major all-campus plays is contemplated, one of these being, "The Fool," by Channing Pollock.

This year the debate squad had an unusually good season, climaxed by the swing around the circuit of Garfield Barnett and William Mosher, who gained victories over the debate teams of most of the larger colleges in the west and mid-west. The squad won the Oregon state championship and also did well at the Pacific Forensic league tournament at Walla Walla. It made a clean sweep of the annual Linfield tournament.

GALEN DEAN HEADS BLUE KEY CHAPTER

The members of Blue Key held their last meeting of the year Monday evening at the Jennie Lind Cafe.

Galen Dean, was elected president and the other officers chosen for next year are: vice-president, Kenneth Manning; secretary, Dwight Aden; treasurer, George McLeod.

Plans for installation of the new members and arrangements for next year were discussed at the meeting. The new members are James Barnett, Randall Kester, George McLeod, Lawrence Morley, Dwight Aden, Ty Gillespie, Harry Mosher, Don Berch, Delmer Ransdell and John Ross.

Baxter's Inaugural And Granting of 70 Diplomas Combined

64 Liberal Arts, Six Law Degrees to Be Given; Baxter's Inaugural Address Will Also Be Commencement Speech

AFTER filling the office of president of Willamette university for seven months Dr. Bruce R. Baxter will be officially inaugurated Monday morning in conjunction with commencement ceremonies to be held for a class of 72 seniors at the Elsinore theatre.

With representatives of Northwest colleges and civic organizations in attendance, Dr. Baxter will deliver his inaugural address which will be at the same time the commencement address for the graduating class.

Dr. Edward H. Todd, president of the College of Puget

Sound, will speak as representative of the northwest colleges and universities and Amedee M. Smith, president of the board, will speak in behalf of the trustees of the university.

A colorful academic procession will leave the First Methodist church at 9:30 o'clock and commencement exercises will begin at 10 o'clock. Faculty members from numerous Pacific coast schools have been invited to assist in the ceremonies.

Diplomas to be granted include bachelor of arts, bachelor of science and bachelor of laws. From the college of liberal arts 64 students will receive diplomas while six LL.B. diplomas and two certificates will be granted by the college of law.

Dr. Baxter will confer the degrees following his address and will make announcements of prizes and honors. Among the prizes to be awarded are the Albert's prize, which will go to Keith Jones, the Col. Percy Willis prize, the Booth Athletic award, and several forensic prizes. Announcement of senior scholars for next year will also be made at the ceremonies.

Graduation ceremonies will be preceded by the events of senior week end, including the class breakfast, class day exercises, the president's reception and baccalaureate services at the First Methodist church. Bishop Titus Lowe will preach the baccalaureate sermon.

This year will be the first that commencement has been held in the Elsinore theatre. The change was made to provide better seating facilities for relatives and friends of the graduating students.

Those graduating, according to the information available at the registrar's office are as follows:

Liberal Arts
Josephine Anderson, Salem, History; Emma Baker, Portland, English; Garfield Barnett, Portland, Political Science; Max Baily, Goldendale, Wash., Biology; Ruth Billings, Ashland, Music; Wendell Brainerd, Warrenton, Idaho, Political Science; Arthur Brassfield, Browning, Missouri, History; Ross Brown, Salem, Biology; George Cammady, Portland, Political Science; Paul Carpenter, Salem, Chemistry; Vincent Carter, Portland, Economics; Ruth Chapman, Salem, Sociology; Edna Danforth, Ashland, English; Mildred Drager, Salem, Home Economics; Lowell Eddy, Independence, Biology; Howard Enner, Salem, German; Donald Erickson, Goldendale, Chemistry.

Ole Cap'n Mac Has First Mishap of Nautical Life

Campus sewing circles were rocked (Old Rockin' Chair's Got Ye) this week by the revelation of what might have been one of the most disastrous maritime accidents in the history of the Willamette Saturday Night Cruising Club, known familiarly as the Canoe, Crooner and Cruller Crushers.

The unhappy event, as recounted to the press by one of the more indiscreet of the survivors, occurred at a point where the Willamette slough joins its unholy waters with the steady tide of the beautiful Willamette (hereinafter referred to as Davy Jones' Locker). The time was approximately sometime between approximately six o'clock P. M. and approximately midnight P. M. S. T. It all came about, it is alleged by those who through the grace of a bounteous providence and the impossibility of sinking in liquid of the consistency of aged molasses survived, when the navigator (hereinafter referred to as

Today we write our first editorial, edit our first edition of the Collegian; to say "Hail, brother, and farewell," would seem a bit flippant, so we will sincerely say: "Hello undergrads, and good luck seniors."

To bid the student body "Hello" in the same breath with which we say "Farewell" to the seniors is no light task. With the seniors we would look back over the past year. The ringing of the Victory Bell with the championship football team, and the many other times when the victory bell could not have been rung, our winners in debate, oratory, and other speech projects, social affairs, springtime at Willamette, chapel speakers, Homecoming, Freshman Glee, May Day and now Commencement.

How rapidly time flies! Just yesterday the members of this graduating class were filling the seats left vacant by last year's seniors, and now they too have left us. Little do we know what they thought behind those eyes dimmed by a few tears as they march slowly out of chapel and leave behind them forever their undergraduate days. Who among us cannot conceive of what they were thinking?

By commencement morning they will have a new spirit of exaltation in their hearts as they march down the aisle in their long gowns and motor boards. Clutching a diploma they will face the world with new experiences, free and alone, ready to meet new adventures.

They have passed through the ranks of college life, what we say of their abilities can little help or hinder them. It is to those of us remaining that the challenge comes. Responsibilities are cast on less experienced shoulders; new opportunities lie open before us, and the next year has as much to offer as the one we are completing.

The Collegian staff looks to the future to do all that it can to present the life at Willamette to our students and friends of the university. We will endeavor to carry on in a way true to the ideals of Willamette.

Here's to our seniors of 1935—and a better school year in 1935—1936!

In a few more days Willamette University will have completed another year of its existence. In a few more days we shall all be on our way to various places in the Northwest or elsewhere.

But it is well to remember that while we are not actually at Willamette we are, still Willamette students. In every way a college student represents his college. Wherever he is, whatever he may be doing, somebody will be forming opinions of him, and through him of his school.

It is well for all of us to keep this fact in mind. Whatever reputation a Willamette student makes he makes not merely for himself; he either adds to or subtracts from the reputation of Willamette by the same amount of esteem.

BOOKS

By Margaret Doege

RECREATIONAL reading, for which college students usually find too little time, seems to be gaining in popularity at Willamette. The reading contest attracted a greater number of students this year, and the books on the annual list prepared by the committee have enjoyed a good circulation. Eight books on the 1934 list circulated ten or more times. The most popular of all has been I. D. Levine's "Stalin", a recent portrait of the great Russian. The other favorites are equally interesting pictures of the activities of its two subjects. "The Coming American Revolution" by Soule is a well-drawn picture of contemporary society. "Art As Experience" is the latest work of one of America's greatest philosophers, John Dewey, presenting his whole system of ideas crystallized in a theory of art. Completing the list are "The Jungle in Sunlight and Shadow" by F. W. Champion, "Men of Earth" by Russell Lord, "Contemporary American Literature and Religion" by H. E. Luccock, and "The Native's Return" by Louis Adamic. The latter book was the subject of the following short report, one of the excellent brief reviews submitted in this year's contest.

"The Native's Return"

By Louis Adamic

This is the story of an immigrant's return to his native land and to his family after nineteen years. During those years everything had changed, even the government—Yugoslavia instead of Austria. The mental adjustments which he had to make were difficult ones, for he saw his homeland through the alien eyes of an American. But the customs and traditions which he found there were quaintly beautiful, especially to his wife who had come with him. He toured the country, finding himself a celebrity, a boy who had made good in the new land across the sea. He studied the political situation and found it far from his liking. He had no sympathy for King Alexander and pictured him in a light far different than the sentimental epigrams written in the papers of the world after the king's recent assassination. The book well merits the attention it gained for its author.

—Marion Minthorn.

The committee on recreational reading have made about a dozen selections for next year's reading list. They include the best of recent books, some of which have already gained popularity here and elsewhere. There are good suggestions for summer reading here. Among the most promising are "Boy and Girl Tramps of America" by Thomas Minnehan; "Mary Peters", by Mary E. Chase; and "Good-Bye, Mr. Chips", by James Hilton. The last one is especially appealing.

Mr. Robinson Spencer, librarian, has been compiling statistics on the circulation of books the last two years. The completed figures for the year 1932-1933 show that the well-known "Twenty Thousand Years in Sing Sing" by Lawes has been by far the most popular book. Another book on the subject of prisons, "Behind the Door of Delusion" by Inmate Ward S., also had a high circulation. The popularity of Roosevelt's "Looking Forward" and Norman Thomas' "As I See It" shows an interest in present-day social and economic problems. By far the most popular in fiction was "Shadows on the Rock" by Willa Cather.

Other books which the students found most attractive included "God's Angry Man" by Ehrlich; "The Cherry Tree" by Arian Bell; "Thrills of a Naturalist's Quest" by Dittmars, and Edith Hamilton's "The Roman Way".

MARRIAGES

Miss Helen Johnson became the bride of Leroy Rulifson May 22 at a beautiful double ring ceremony performed by Rev. M. A. Marcy before 550 guests at Sunnyside Methodist church in Portland.

Preceding the ceremony the Sunnyside Methodist choir, directed by Waldemar Hollensted sang, and as a benediction Miss Fay Sparks sang "The Life Road". A reception followed in the church parlors during which the choir, of which both Mr. and Mrs. Rulifson are members, again sang: "Because" was sung by Mr. Hollensted, and "At Dawning" by Miss Sparks. The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Grover, church organist.

Mr. Rulifson is employed at Bonneville Dam, but the couple will make their home in Portland. Mrs. Rulifson is a graduate of Willamette with the class of '26.

June 18 has been chosen as the wedding date of Miss Wanda Elliott, '27, and Rawson Chapin, '25. The ceremony will be performed at the home of the bride. She will be attended by Miss Dessie Cox of Walla Walla, and Mrs. Lloyd Covert, sister of the bride-elect, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Elaine Chapin Mason of Salem will play the wedding marches and will sing "At Dawning". "Love Came Stealing Like the Dawn" will be sung by Mrs. Mason and Luther Chapin.

The couple will make their home in Perrydale.

Miss Elliott has been teaching at the Hubbard high school for the past two years, but has resigned.

Mildred Kester, ex-W. U., and Carl Marcy, '34, were married December 21 in New York City. Mrs. Marcy is private secretary for the Stone-Webster Corporation there, and Mr. Marcy is employed by the Socony Touring Bureau to escort Columbia University freshmen and sophomores on sight-seeing tours. He has also had charge of a study hall for boys at Horace Mann school. Next fall Mr. Marcy intends to begin a course in law at Columbia University.

Miss Genevieve Emmons of Salem became the bride of Thomas A. Armstrong May 23 at a quiet service in the O. W. Emmons' home on Court street. Dr. J. E. Milligan officiated, using the single ring ceremony. An informal reception followed the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to Seattle the couple will be at home after June 1 at 879 N. Liberty street, Salem.

Mrs. Armstrong attended Willamette University, where she was affiliated with Beta Chi sorority. Mr. Armstrong was educated in Michigan and Ohio. He served in the U. S. Army Medical corps in San Antonio, Texas, and is now manager of the Western Paper Converting company.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Jean Louise, was born May 20 in Eugene to Mr. and Mrs. Lyle N. Riggs (Florence Emmons, '30). Mr. Riggs has been a teacher at Lorane for the past two years but will be superintendent at Willamette the coming year.

PERSONALS

Rev. and Mrs. George L. Poor, (Margaret Poor), both of the class of '30, have returned to Salem. They plan to make their home in Oregon. Rev. Poor has completed his study in theology at Boston Theological Seminary. In addition to his school work, he served as pastor of Federated church at Norfolk, Mass.

Miss Ethel Hardin, '26, teacher of English in Silverton high school, Miss Helvie Silver, ex-W. U., grade teacher there, and Miss Anne Silver of Husted, New York, are planning to tour Europe this summer. Miss Hardie will especially visit England, land of her birth.

Eugene Silke, '30, is the coach of the Hubbard high school baseball team which has made a remarkable record during the time he has been superintendent of schools there. We quote from "Caustic Carries On" in the Oregon Statesman: "Gene Silke, who will go to Canby high school next year as principal, deserves an accolade, an orchid or at least congratulations for the baseball team he has turned out at Hubbard high school in his three years as superintendent and coach there. Here's the record: 1933, won 15, lost 6; 1934, won 18, lost 4; 1935, won 16, lost 1. This year has been the climax with the Hubbard team being close to unbeatable.

"And this school which boasts only 30 boys hasn't built up its record by meeting only the one-horse teams either. Among the teams are the Oregon State rooks, Lincoln high of Portland, Mt. Angel college, Linfield frosh, Oregon City, Salem, Chemawa and Monmouth, champions of Polk county." "Another remarkable fact about the Hubbard baseball team is that two of the pitching staff have chalked up no hit, no run games this year. . . no errors were made by the Hubbard team in either game."

The only game lost this year was to Camas, Wash., whose team is coached by Walter Erickson, '33. This shows that Willamette has turned out at least two excellent baseball coaches in addition to championship basketball and football coaches, all of which speaks well for athletics at W. U.

Dr. Helen Pearce, '15, was re-elected president of the Salem branch of the A. A. U. W. . . . Miss Ella Howard, ex-W. U., has been made manager of the Seattle branch of the Mary Pentland Advertising agency. . . . William J. Linfoot, Salem attorney, '30, was appointed as United States commissioner in this district, succeeding Lars R. Bergsvik, '27. Mr. Bergsvik recently moved to Portland and has established offices in the Corbett building. . . . Perry Spellbrink, '32, who teaches in the Aumsville grades, has been elected president of the parents and teachers there.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Purvine and daughter, Helen, are motoring back to Philadelphia, Pa., for the graduation of Ralph Purvine from Jefferson Medical college. Ralph is a graduate of Willamette with the class of '31. His mother, Dr. Mary Purvine (Mrs. S. E.), of the class of '03, will also attend the American Medical association and Women's Medical associations meetings in Atlantic City. They will be accompanied by Miss Frances Virginia Melton, who will study in New York this summer with Swaine, nationally known piano teacher.

Miss Margaret Purvine, '34, will join her family in the east after completing work for her master's degree at Mills college. The Purvines expect to return the last of July to Salem.

Corthell Chosen Lausanne Leader

Agnes Corthell was unanimously elected president of Lausanne Hall for the coming year at a special business meeting this week. She will succeed Madge Marean, who graduates this year after a successful term as president of the dormitory group.

Other officers chosen for next year are: Vice-president, Margery Thorne; second vice-president, Jane Bellinger; secretary-treasurer, Helen Marcy; song leader, Dorothy Dingle, and reporter, Una Lee.

Madge Marean, the retiring president, Frances Schilling and Helen Mott will graduate this year. All have been outstanding students and active in Hall affairs.

Beta Chi Alumnae Give Dance; Fraternities Will Picnic

Beta Chi Alumnae of Salem will sponsor a semi-formal dance at Castilian Hall next Friday evening from 8:20 to 11 o'clock. The event and many out of the city have been invited to attend. Patrons and guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Power, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, and Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott Buren.

Miss Florence Power and Miss Carol Braden are in charge of the affair and promise an elaborate decorative scheme. The lounge room is to be decorated with Scotch broom, iris and candles.

The hostess group is comprised of Salem alumnae including Miss Power, Miss Braden, Mrs. Frank Alfred, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Mrs. Ruskin Blatchford, Miss Helen Boardman, Miss Lila Cation, Mrs. George Buxton, Miss Faye Cornutt, Miss Dorothy Dalk, Mrs. Vernon Day, Mrs. Clarence Emmons, Miss Loretta Fisher, Miss Louise Fletcher, Miss June Gaines, Mrs. Wallace Griffith, Miss Leila Johnson, Miss Roby Laughlin, Mrs. Russell Mefford, Miss Lola Millard, Mrs. Raymond Miller, Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Mrs. Paul Morse, Mrs. Merrill Ohling, Miss Savilla Phelps, Mrs. Philmore Huth, Miss Eva Roberts, Mrs. Dan Schreiber, Mrs. Garlen Simpson, Miss Kathleen Skinner, Mrs. Edwin Thomas, Miss Rosalind Van Winkle and Mrs. Charles Kaufman.

Mothers Honored At Beta Chi Tea Last Week

Beta Chi sorority members were hostesses for a charmingly appointed tea honoring their mothers, Tuesday afternoon, May 21, at the chapter house.

A pink and white decorative scheme was used about the rooms. Pink and white snapdragons, lupin, and roses centered the serving table surrounded by pink tapers. Large baskets of mixed flowers were used about the rooms.

Miss Josephine Cornoyer greeted the guests at the door. Miss Hortense Taylor introduced to the line which included Miss Esther Gibbard, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Bruce Baxter, Dean Olive Dahl, and Mrs. Arthur Upston.

Miss Ruth Billings and Miss Nellie Perrine poured the first hour, and the second hour the Misses Anna Jo and Carol Fleming. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Charlotte Eyre, Melva Belle Savage, Pauline Winslow, Charlotte Schellner, Aurel Hockstet and Helen Olds, Ha Mills, Margaret Dooge, Rosamund Weston, Peggy Peterson, Helen Koudell, and Dorothy Keeton.

Alpha Phis Go Rustic, Play Nurse to Lambs

For once the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority house spent a comparatively quiet weekend until 2:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at which time the house members and pledges drove out to Hilda Crawford's home for a picnic. The afternoon was spent in eating delicious dirt covered strawberries fresh from the field, playing on the lawn, looking at the beautiful flowers and at last eating the picnic supper in the backyard, in front of the great stone fireplace. The supper consisted of personally roasted hot dogs, nickles, two kinds of cake and literally all of the ice cream with strawberries anyone could eat. As an added attraction some of the girls fed the lambs with bottles. (The lambs didn't eat all of the milk.)

The fun finally ended at 5:30 and everyone started for home with thoughts of a bath and studies.

Miss Fattie Sherburne, who graduated with the class of '34, is visiting at the Delta Phi house. She will remain for the commencement exercises. Miss Sherburne lives with her parents in Browning, Mont.

And again the time of year comes around again, when fraternity picnics are among the main topics of conversation. With the weather continuing as it has been in the past week, no one can help but spend an exciting and, doubtless, a "warm" Memorial Day.

The Alpha Psi's are starting the trek to Wanema Beach with approximately thirty-five couples. On the list as chaperones are Professor and Mrs. Jones.

About thirty members of Sigma Tau are planning to entertain their guests at Neskowin. Professors Glatke, Oliver and Schultze and their wives are also to be members of this gay party.

The Kappas have decided to take over Nelscott Beach for the day. With them will be Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Hedin. The size of the party is not yet definite.

With various interesting plans afoot, these annual picnics give promise of being huge social successes.

Internationals Hold Final Session

The Willamette International club will hold its final meeting of this year this evening at Willamette lodge. A special program is being planned as this will be a farewell meeting for several members who have been active in the group and have been some of its most loyal constituents.

This year's work of the group has done much to foster international good will upon the campus. Members have attended conferences and lectures, bringing much material of worth and interest back with them.

One of the club's greatest assets this year has been Sung-Kan Yao, exchange student from the University of Hawaii, who has been so influential in bringing about the exchange scholarship with that institution.

Hall Women, Independent Men Hold Dance On Bush Courts

Lausanne Hall girls and Independent men held a joint party at the Bush tennis court Saturday, May 25. The court was beautifully decorated with overhead lighting, and with the climbing roses which adorned the surrounding fence. The evening was spent in dancing, and in playing cards. Manville Pettys and his orchestra provided music. Punch was served in the summer house adjoining the court. Forty couples were present. Sport attire was the order of the occasion. Chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. Ellis, Miss Dahl, Mrs. Mills, Miss MacHiron, Miss Bush and her guest, Miss Brown.

Julia Johnson Is Honored

Mrs. Paul Johnson entertained with a picnic supper last week-end for her daughter, Julia, on the occasion of her birthday.

The guests were seated at tables about the spacious gardens. Miss Eleanor Trindle, and Miss Rosamund Weston assisted in the serving.

The guest list included the honored guest, Miss Julia Johnson, and the Misses Lucille Brainard, Ruth Vocum, Irma Oehler, Helen Purvine, Ha Mills, Melva Belle Savage, Rosamund Weston, Josephine Cornoyer, Lucy Klein, Jean McElhinney, Margaret Dooge, Nellie Perrine, Anna Jo and Carol Fleming, Edna Savage, Helen Burdick, Charlotte Eyre, Jeryme Upston, Helen Koudell, Eleanor Trindle and Frances Ellis.

Just in the way of winding up a year of gala social affairs, members and pledges of Sigma Tau are entertaining at an annual informal dinner Friday evening. The tables are to be placed on the lawn and a simple spring motive will be carried out in decorations and

Delta Phi Seniors Toasted at Dinner Party

Senior girls in the Delta Phi house were honored Wednesday evening with a dinner party. The commencement motive was carried out in the decorations and spring flowers centered the table.

Miss Winifred Gardner was toastmistress and the Misses Frances Stewart, Betty Abrams, Shirley Selgner, Lois Underwood, and Mrs. Fred Alban Weil gave toasts. Miss Lois Burton gave a piano solo.

Senior members who were honored were the Misses Ruth Chapman, Frances Stewart, Edna Danford, Gwen Hunt, and La Forest McDonald.

Baxters Present At APA Dinner

The Alpha Phi Alpha Sorority House was honored by the presence of Dr. and Mrs. Bruce R. Baxter at dinner Friday evening, May 17. There was a beautiful centerpiece of pink and blue sweetpeas; also the novel arrangement of pink and blue tapers.

Those present at the dinner besides the Baxters were Mrs. C. H. Breck, house-mother; the Misses Helen Knight, Martha Jane Hottel, Mildred Drager, Jo Anderson, Sydney Hannaford, Elva Sehon, Margaret Howerton, Lorraine Sheldon, Anoka Coates, Helen Peterson and Betty Galloway.

Miss Fisher Gives Garden Party

Miss Jane Fisher entertained at a delightful garden party last Sunday afternoon at her home. After an informal hour tea was served by the hostess with Miss Jane Bellinger assisting.

Guests were the Misses Dorothy Keeton, Jean Hollingworth, Dorothy Dingle, Charlotte Litchfield, Charlotte Kallender, Jane Bellinger, Margaret Nunn, Marguerite Clarke, Dorothy McGee, Pauline Winslow, Jeryme Upston and the hostess, Miss Fisher.

University Class Picnics at Falls

The University class of the First Methodist church journeyed to Silver Creek falls last Saturday. Private cars furnished the transportation for the 30 members and friends of the class who made the trip.

The picnickers spent their time hiking, fishing and swimming in the pool at the foot of the falls. After lunch they returned to Salem.

Mr. Robinson Spencer, teacher of the class, was in charge of the trip.

Members of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority were entertained at an informal picnic Sunday afternoon at the country home of Miss Hilda Crawford.

Games were played during the afternoon and an al fresco picnic was served in the early evening.

The Delta Phi Mother's Club will be hostesses Sunday, June 2, at a picnic dinner which will be held in the gardens of the sorority house. Guests will include the members of the house, their fathers and other relatives.

The Beta Chi seniors will be honored at a breakfast to be given by the sophomores of the house next Sunday morning.

The honored seniors will be the Misses Clara Wright, Anna Jo Fleming, Carol Fleming, Edith Sidwell, Nellie Perrine, Ruth Billings, Betty Hawkins, Nova Hedin, Isobel Morehouse, and Amelia Schrack.

Spring flowers will be used about the rooms and the table. Clever graduation place cards will mark the places for the guests.

Miss Helen Purvine, who left Tuesday for Philadelphia, was honored at a delightful dinner at the Beta Chi house Sunday when a group of her friends entertained. The traveler was presented with a gift by the group.

Those honoring Miss Purvine were the Misses Lucille Brainard, Irma Oehler, Helen Burdick, and Vivian Widmer.

Chresto will be open Saturday evening for its last open house of the year, for all university students.

Sunday evening from 5 to 6 the Willamette university school of music will present another Twilight Musical in Haller Hall.

Miss Clara Eness left at 10 o'clock Saturday to spend the summer in Chicago.

Miss Helen MacHiron will leave for Chicago to study soon after school is out.

Una Lee spent the week-end with her family at the beach.

'W' Club Plans Gala Picnic But Hazy About Date

The "W" club of Willamette University has tentatively planned their picnic and party to be at Hazel Green Park some day this weekend. According to Loren Grannis, president of the club, it will take place at one o'clock either next Friday, May 31, or Saturday, June 1.

The baseball team, back from a breath-taking, three-game series with Whitman College, will be the honored guests. The picnic is to be made into a gala affair by such diversions as swimming, ball playing and other sports. A dance may follow the picnic. Mr. Grannis states that the entire "W" club will make this party rival anything of its nature that has been given before.

Miss Eleanor Cortell, Willamette alumna, who has been teaching at Arago, Oregon, is visiting her sister, Agnes, at Lausanne.

Ellen Nasburg, ex-W. U., won a prize for a story on Oregon history in last Sunday's Oregonian.

Margaret Nunn will spend part of her vacation on an Alaskan tour.

The Misses Laurabelle Williams, Hulda Battorff and Margaret Bieder spent Thursday at the beach.

Marian Bowers visited at the home of Neil Irvine over the week end.

Maurice Dean plans to spend the summer guiding tourists through the Oregon Caves.

Steve Anderson visited at the Alpha Psi Delta house over the week-end.

Robert Jeffcott, ex-W. U., is visiting at the Sigma Tau house this week.

Miss Margaret Magee entertained a number of friends at her home for dinner Friday evening.

MISSION NINE EKES OUT WIN OVER BEARCAT

Whitman Takes Series
Northwest Crown;
Games Close

ERICKSON HURLS WIN

Tight Fielding and Pitching
Feature Contests; Two
Go Extra Innings

In as close a three game series as could have been played, the Whitman Missionaries nipped out the Willamette nine for the Northwest conference championship, winning the first and third contests while the Bearcats had to content themselves with a win in the second frame.

With each team featuring steady pitching and close fielding, the Whitmanites collected five well timed hits to win 4 to 3 over the Bearcats who pined out 8 safe bingles in the deciding round Saturday afternoon.

George Erickson, relief pitcher who squelched the Puget Sound contingent 7 to 1 a week earlier, pulled a well earned 1 to 0 overtime win out of the Whitman fire. He held the poundin Whitman platterman to five scattered hits that were of no avail as far as scorin was concerned. For 18 straight innings, ten in the game which he won, and 8 more in the last contest which he finished after the fourth frame, no Missionary completed the circuit to cross the plate.

The final game was replete with enough thrills for any half-dozen ordinary contests, double plays and home runs following each other in quick succession. Criscola, center fielder for the winners, and likely prospect for the big leagues, splatted out a circuit clout in the first inning, and a run in the fourth by O'Brien gave the Walla Walla team a 2 to 0 advantage which they held until the seventh.

When the big guns on the Willamette battery cut loose in that inning, Mills, Harriman and Erickson crossed the platter to give the Bearcats a slim margin. In the last of the ninth, the Missionaries staged a last minute rally, pushing Criscola around the diamond for the second time in the day.

Perfect fielding on the part of the Bearcats saved their hide in the tenth. The bases were loaded with no outs, when Beard caught a line drive for a fly out, and then caught the man off third base for a double play all by himself. The next man up filed out, retiring the Whitman nine without score. In the eleventh Bury, second baseman trotted around the bases when O'Brien smacked out a double to win the contest.

DOUGHNUT TENNIS PLAYOFF CONTINUES

The spring tennis tournament is well under way with many students and faculty members taking part. It is expected that the play will be completed by the end of the week.

In the men's doubles bracket those playing Professors Sparks and Oliver, are making progress for the faculty, but Griffiths and Beauchamp are expected to carry off the title. Sixteen duets will be raquets in the first round of play.

At this writing Beauchamp is barging easily along in the preliminaries of the men's singles tournament, and unless an upset occurs, he will probably emerge on top of the heap. The elimination series in this division bids to be more interesting as play progresses. Twenty players are in the competition.

In the mixed doubles, with twelve pairs entered, there is close competition.

With fourteen entries the women's singles tournament completes the array of "pill pingers".

ADEN SMACKS DOUBLE; SCORES RUN

Dwight Aden, left-handed center-fielder, who uncorked a triple, a double, and a single in the Whitman series. The double was in the last game in the seventh frame, scoring two runs that knotted the score at three all. There the score remained until the 11th when Bury, Missionary third sacker, connected for the first time in the series, and crossed the plate a little later on a bingle from O'Brien.

PLAY-OFF LOOMS IN INDOOR LEAGUE

Final Standing—Soft Ball

Kappas	6	3
Alpha Psi "B"	4	6
Sigma Tau	4	6
Internationals	2	2

Independents	1	5

The Physical Ed. staff measured the Alpha Psi "B" nine yesterday noon to the tune of 10-6 in their half of the first round of the play-off for the silverware. In the second game, the Alpha Psi "A" took an 8 to 3 win from the Kappas.

Despite numerous conflicts with other activities the annual spring soft-ball season has been a success. The eight teams entered have played 33 games since the opening of the season April 15. Interest has been unusually strong this spring, thus upholding the growing popularity of intramural activities. The games have been played during the noon hour.

A final series between the four teams having the highest percentages during the regular season will determine the final standings. A suitable trophy will be presented to the winner. Having won six games and lost but one, the Physical Education staff boasts the best record made during the regular season.

In a hotly contested struggle which was staged Monday noon the Alpha Psi "B" nine blasted out a victory over the Sigma Tau boys for the right to participate in the play-off series. The Alpha Psi "A" team and the Kappa nine clinched second and third places, respectively, for the other two berths in the final series.

With a 10-6 victory over the Alpha Psi "B" nine the P. E. Staff drew the first blood in the play-off series. In the second game Alpha Psi "A" pounded out an 8-3 win over the Kappas.

IN THE HUDDLE WITH POCAHONTAS

"The best three consecutive games I have ever seen in the twenty-five years that I have been watching college baseball. Unusual and spectacular plays that are usually spread over an entire season were crowded into the three battles, two of which went into overtime rounds." Such were the remarks of "Spec" Keene upon returning Sunday from the week-end's set to with the Whitman Missionaries for the crown of the Northwest college circuit.

While the two college teams were fighting it out for the title, there was a nurse's convention in session at Walla Walla. Since no advance reservations had been made, the Bearcats found it necessary to stay in the sample room of one hotel, and sleep on temporary cots. In another establishment, eight more players crowded into two rooms. A fine kettle of fish—or what should we say; they ought to have conventions in two other places.

Bill Essex, scout for the New York Yankees was in Walla Walla over the week-end, and not, we assure you, to attend the nurse's convention. After seeing the boys in action, he made the remark that Harriman, Aden, Mills and Beard from the Bearcat squad are likely prospects as future big leaguers. Mentioned along with them were Criscola, the big gun of the Whitman offense, and O'Brien, the Missionaries' south paw first sacker who was scooping up seemingly impossible catches from all parts of the atmosphere.

Just how much tougher the Whitman squad was than the city league outfits in this section, was illustrated Sunday afternoon when the Salem Senators, alias the Bearcats, tromped on the league-leading Albany squad. Kenny Manning, who scraped but one hit out of the whole championship series, pined out a homer and a triple in the one game Sunday.

Talbot Bennett, who again won the Northwest singles championship, will not represent Willamette in the Oregon state tournament this coming week-end. He left yesterday for Portland where he has a job work in at the dog races. Bennett may go to the dogs, or at least the dog races, but his tennis is far above any such rating. His cannon-ball service that he mixes in with a bouncing cut keeps his opponents in hot water, and his collection of back court shots that bode evil for any collegiate opposition he may encounter. Harrison Winston, second ranking player will take over the singles assignment this Friday when the colleges of Oregon come together to decide the state champion.

marine. With one mighty sweep of his arms he gave the order to submerge. The canoe (hereinafter known as U-boat 371) heard its master's voice and submerged.

Minutes elapsed and then Cap'n Mac was swimming stoutly in the salty brine searching for she who might by this time be merrily consorting with the sea-green mermaids. Then came a small voice from the overturned U-boat saying, "My, it got dark fast, Bill."

"We are lost," the Cap'n shouted and set forth in search of a lost paddle which would have cost $1.50 if not retrieved. From a dank and dreary death the fair maid was rescued by the coast guard after finding that the inside of a bottomside-up canoe is about as cheery a place as the inside of a morgue at midnight.

They all lived happily ever after and names may be had upon request but you're certainly a dummy if you can't guess.

4-YEAR MEN HONORED

Black Receives Third Year
Awards; Other All-Stars
Get Basketballs

"This is the best team Willamette has had in nine years" "Spec" Keene said yesterday when he presented athletic awards to 13 members of the baseball team as a part of the awards day program in chapel.

Baseball awards went to Dwight Aden, Don Burch, Bill Sutton, Don Mills, Pete McCann, Al Heumann, John Oravee, Dick Weisgerber, Ken Manning, Bill Beard, George Erickson, Ed Tweed and Vinnie Harriman.

As "Spec" made the presentation of basketball awards he mentioned the fact that this year's team could claim credit for at least one record this year, that of winning 14 games by the slim margin of one or two points.

Receiving basketball sweaters or certificates were Frantz, Brandon, Pettys, Griffith, Versteeg, Erickson and Manning. Harry Mosher and Manager Al Pletela were awarded sweaters.

Winston, Stone, Harvey, Bennett and Brainard received tennis awards. Track letters were given to Felker, Brown, Chapin, McDonald, Newhouse, Carpenter, Ney and McAdams.

The veterans who received the four-year awards were, Cannady, Frantz, Feathers, Pettys, Carpenter, Weisner, and Ney.

Girl All-Stars receiving Silver Basketballs were: Durette, Brainard, and Faber. Unrath and Yocum were given second year certificates, and Black, a third year certificate.

The silver loving cup, given annually to the senior girl who shows the most ability as a leader, went to Seiko Watanabe. As a token of appreciation of Miss Curry's ability as coach, she received a gift from Miss Watanabe.

Those having 1500 points or more for participation in girl's athletics were: Anderson, Black, Coates, McDonald, Watanabe, Gardiner, Stewart, and LaForest McDonald.

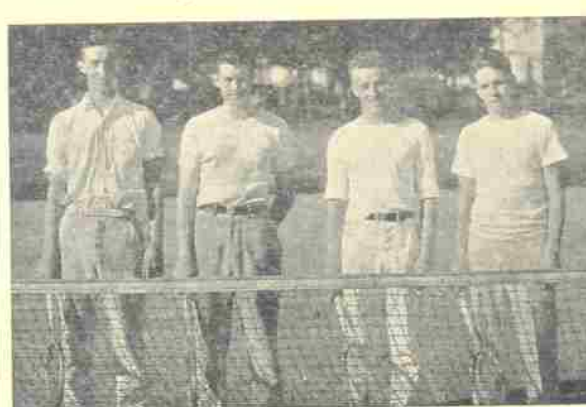

Those receiving a certificate and letter as the 700 point award were: Brainard, Faber, Hannaford, Potter, Underwood, Unrath, Warren, Tompkins, and Patheal.

Debate awards were given by Professor Rahe, to Pruitt, Tompkins, Aldus Smith, Smart, Thorne, Biddle, Howerton, McKinney, Savage, and Wagner.

Garfield Barnett and William Mosher will receive their pins for four years of debate at the graduation ceremonies.

Official Old English W's, for work on the editorial staff of the Wallulah, were given by Esther Black, editor, to Purvine, Winslow, Aden, Spec, and Upton. The same award was given for work on the managerial staff, by Man-

VALUABLE OBJECTS GIFT OF MISS GILL

The dairy of Chloe Clark Willson, first instructor at the Oregon Institute, legal papers signed by Abraham Lincoln and a cloak worn by Mrs. Willson during the missionary days in Oregon were among the historical objects presented to the university Sunday night at the First Methodist church by Miss Dillingham of the Portland Art Institute and Frances Gill of Portland.

Miss Gill, an authority on early Oregon history, made the main address of the evening and presented the articles to R. J. Hendricks, who received them in behalf of the university.

Chloe Clark Willson came to Oregon aboard the Lausanne, ship on which Jason Lee brought out the "great reinforcement" to his Oregon mission. Mrs. Willson was appointed the first teacher in the Oregon Institute which later became Willamette university but was then a manual labor school for Indians. Much valuable historical material is included in her diary.

Featured at the Hollywood for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday is that never-to-be-forgotten production, "David Copperfield." Freddie Bartholomew plays the part of little David, and W. C. Fields portrays the imprudent and comical Mr. Micawber. Don't forget "David Copperfield."

Ralph: "Fine car you've got there Bruce. What's the most you've got out of it?"
Bruce: "Nine times in a block."

Prof. Oliver: "Give me three collective nouns."
Vinnie: "Flypaper, wastebasket and vacuum cleaners."

RHEUMATISM?
The stinky farmer was scoring the hired man for carrying a lighted lantern to call on his best girl.

"The idea," he exclaimed, "When I was courtin' I never carried no lantern; I went in the dark."

"Yes," said the hired man sadly, "and look what you got."

After Finals:
"How far were you from the correct answer?"

BEARCAT NET ACE WINS IN TOURNEY

Defeats Beall of Linfield in Straight Sets; Keeps
Northwest Crown

Talbot Bennett, ranking Bearcat tennis player, romped through the Northwest singles tournament at Portland last Saturday to retain his title which he won last year. Bennett won easily from Beall of Linfield in the finals, taking command at the first, and never leaving any doubt as to the outcome.

He has victories over practically every collegiate player of any import in the northwestern states, having triumphed over Economus of Oregon, McBride of Portland, and LeRoux of Whitman. Since he is only a junior, he has one more year of competition, and unless he breaks a leg, should end up on the top of the heap again next year.

Wesleyans Elect For Coming Year

Olivia DeVries, junior, was elected president of the Willamette Wesleyans at elections held Monday. Other officers for next year are: Vice-president, James Pyke; secretary, Beatrice Gillette; treasurer, Harvey DeVries; social chairman, Katherine Scharf.

The Wesleyans have had a very successful year, holding numerous Christian services and aiding in campus activities. The frequent luncheon and discussion sessions of the organization have proved of great value to the members of the club.

Improvem't Data Goes to Trustees

The Grounds Committee will present a report of the repairs necessary to the buildings and grounds to the Board of Trustees at their meeting Saturday.

The repair work will be done during the summer and will include improvements at Lausanne Hall, a repair of the sills and woodwork in all of the buildings as well as the renovation of several class rooms.
