

Moot Court Men to Leave For New York Contests

Willamette's two aspirants to the national moot court crown, Luther Jensen (left) and Walt Stauffacher, get some last minute advice from Dean Seward Reese of the College of Law on court room procedure.

Two Law School students will leave for New York tomorrow to engage a bevy of the nation's top law schools in the National Moot Court contest. This is the second such meet in history for a College of Law team.

LAST MONTH the team downed a University of Idaho representation and earned the right to represent the Northwest Region in the national contest in New York City sponsored by the New York Bar association.

The local team, consisting of Walt Stauffacher and Luther Jensen will meet a veteran University of Illinois delegation in the first competition. Teams are also in the meet from Columbia, Southern Methodist, Michigan, Georgetown, Boston university, Loyola, Texas, and Colorado.

The men will leave Portland station at 3 p. m. tomorrow and arrive in New York on Tuesday where they will have two days rest before meeting Illinois in first competition Thursday morning. Final argument will be concluded Friday night at 8 p. m.

THE FIRST arguments will be presented before judges of federal district and circuit courts, and the final argument will be before a justice of the United States Supreme Court. An issue at stake in the court involves the questions of whether Congress, in enacting the Taft-Hartley law, preempts the state courts from jurisdiction over labor relations wherever interstate commerce is affected, and whether an injunction granted against picketing would abrogate a union's right to free speech.

One-third of the court is judged on the legal briefs of the case already submitted and two-thirds on oral arguments. The men will return one week from tomorrow, stopping in Washington, D. C., for a ten-hour tour.

'Stoops to Conquer' Marked By Refined Comedy, Acting

Chance for Everyone to Act Advocated by Drama Director

By LOYAL HOWARD
Collegian Writer

The drama department isn't playing "She Stoops to Conquer" just because director Robert Putnam happened to have a role in it during his college days in Wisconsin.

"It's because it is one of the great plays of all time, having lived now for nearly 200 years. It is basically a funny and entertaining production," he commented.

PUTNAM, WHO is associate professor of speech and drama and director of the University theater, contributes in a large way to the cultural goals of Willamette.

He received his B.A. in dramatic arts at Cornell university, his M.A. in radio and speech at University of Wisconsin; and after nearly four years of service time with the Army Air Corps, he began studying at Stanford where he completed requirements for his Ph.D in theater and drama.

With a background of high school and college drama work, an apprenticeship at the Cleveland Playhouse and teaching at Knox college in Illinois, he was contracted by Willamette in the spring of 1953 for the position he now holds.

BESIDES directing drama and teaching classes, Putnam is responsible for Willamette's Campus Chatter and Studio 54 productions heard weekly over local radio stations.

He stated his philosophy by saying, "Drama is essential to any community. Although we must select characters for public performance from those who show interest and those who are most adapted to the roles, I feel that everyone should have the opportunity of acting on the stage at some time or another because it sharpens one's sense of self-expression."

Performances Set Tonight, Tomorrow at 8

By TRICIA GORDON
Collegian Writer

Playgoers attending tonight and tomorrow night's performances of "She Stoops to Conquer," may well look forward to an evening of polished comedy, deftly performed.

Performances will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at 8 p. m. on the Waller stage.

THE HUMOR arises from a highly improbable plot, which is instigated by Tony, brother to the heroine who "stoops to conquer." As a result of the ensuing complications, an ardent suitor almost loses the object of his affections, but due to the resourcefulness of the heroine all problems are eventually solved.

The deft performances belong to Tom Larson, as the alternately self-assured and completely befuddled suitor, to Clarine Woolery, as the sweet-but-calculating heroine, and to Liz Winship, who gives a highly entertaining version of the naive mother of the heroine.

MISS WINSHIP'S performance seemed, however, to be overly emphasized and lent too much importance to a relatively minor role. Honors also go to Don Bunse as Mr. Hardcastle, a very exasperated father.

Audiences will roar at the antics of Toney, played by Bill Hagmeyer, and a hilarious foursome of servants will add much to the evening's merriment. The entire cast seems quite adept at reciting Goldsmith's 18th century dialogue, an idiom presenting a challenge to 20th century actors—and audiences.

INTERESTING sets have been designed in the 18th century manner with the practical purpose of creating the illusion of a larger stage. The elegant costumes deserve mentioning, for not only do they lend an authentic atmosphere to the production but they also convey Goldsmith's satire on the affectations of French court dress practiced at the time of the writing of the play.

T'n T at Ten

The Willamette University orchestra and a capella choir will present a program of Christmas music for convocation, Tuesday.

Thursday chapel will be held in the First Methodist Church and will feature a Christmas musical worship program.

Vets to Get Monthly Pay Next Friday

Veterans whose "accounts" are in order will receive their December checks from the government next Friday, three days earlier than usual to insure their receipt before Christmas vacation begins.

Checks covering education and training allowances for P.L. 550 veterans are normally delivered on the 20th of each month. According to Miss Lillian Haytack, Willamette veterans secretary, the regional office of the Veterans Administration has announced that the checks will be dated Dec. 17.

In most instances they will be mailed on Thursday—"providing all necessary certifications are otherwise in order," Miss Haytack said.

YR College League Elects Paul Johnson

Paul Johnson, Willamette senior, was elected vice-chairman-at-large of the Oregon Young Republican College League at the College League's annual convention held last weekend at the Erb student union of the University of Oregon.

Mark O. Hatfield, state senator and dean of students at Willamette, addressed the group at a banquet Saturday evening. Hatfield spoke strongly in favor of the 18-year-old vote.

Bob Batchelder, chairman of the College League during the past year, presided over the Saturday convention. The Lane County Republicans presented special citations to Batchelder and the new elected chairman.

Dance Attire: Nighties But Nice

Put on your pajama tops after caroling Wednesday night but don't go to bed!

Bed-time tops of all sizes, shapes and descriptions will be in order for the annual senior class pajama dance set for 9 a. m. in the gym. The bottoms should be conventional dress—namely slacks or pedal-pushers—and foot wear will be socks without shoes.

Prizes will be given by bounteous '55 for the most uniquely dressed couple. One S. Claus will be on hand from the North Pole with treats for all.

Music will be provided by Nick O. Lodeon and his outstanding orchestra.

No late permissions will be granted, according to an announcement by Dean Ewalt.

Poster Contest Opened for CR Week; Hollywood Minister Chosen Speaker

"Faith to Live By," theme for Willamette's Christian Resource week, will be interpreted in black and white by campus artists who enter the poster contest for the special observance February 28 to March 5.

CONTEST chairman Maryn Stookey announced that posters qualifying for the $25 prize must be submitted to the Col-legion office by noon, Feb. 27. The theme must be included on the posters which must be painted—in black and white only—on 22 by 14 inch illustration board.

Judging will take place Feb. 28 and all posters will be on display in the library after the winner has been named. The winning poster will be used as the cover design on the programs for CR week chapel services and firesides.

Reverend Richard Halverson, minister of the First Presbyterian church in Hollywood, California, has been chosen as main speaker for Christian Resource Week, announced chairman Ray Owens.

Committee chairmen named to work with Owens are program, Tom Carr; publicity, Maryn Stookey; arrangements, Roy Maltby and Neil Causbie; and corresponding secretary, Colleen Chilcote.

A list of suggestions for fireside speakers were distributed in the various living organizations from which 12 speakers will be selected.

THE ANNUAL week sponsored by Interfaith Council is set aside to consider the resources of the Christian faith. Outside speakers, informal fireside discussions and special programs are slated. Until two years ago the observance had been called Religious Emphasis week, but the present theme recognizes religion as a year-round emphasis.

Baker Names Heads For Glee Committee

Nancy Groth was named secretary to the Freshman Glee committee by manager Mac Baker, who also announced committee chairmen this week.

Included are records chairmen Doug Rhodes, assisted by Pete Brown; souvenirs, Lewis Bright assisted by Jerry Brackins; stage, John Corson; tickets, Ralph Sipprell, assisted by Greta Russell; programs, Ken Smith, assisted by Bill Weaver.

Ushers, Alan Mac Killon, assisted by Charlotte Kleen; backdrop, Maureen Day; decorations, Elaine Gustafson assisted by Ann Meeker; chairs and floor, Steve Nason; entertainment, Jennine Graber assisted by Jack Knapp; lighting, Lowell Nichols; and publicity, Pete Wiley, assisted by George White and Chuck Martsers.

Juba Cashes in On Free Teleburgers

Five Willamette students were potential recipients of free Tele-burgers last week; but only one, George Juba, a law school student, cashed in.

The other four whose student body card numbers were run in the Tele-treat Drive-in's weekly ad were Sarah Venegas, John Rehfuß, Katherine Cromley, and Dale Powell.

The Tele-treat business is operated by Phil and Jerry McCallister.

No Time Granted For Vacation Travel; Dormitories to Close

No requests for early departure will be granted by the Dean of Students or the Dean of Women for Christmas vacation.

Dean Hatfield pointed out that there is more than a week between the close of school next Friday at 4 and Christmas day.

The last meal served in University dormitories will be lunch next Friday. Students are urged to vacate the buildings Friday evening, although they will be open until Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for those students who can not leave until Saturday morning.

Closing hours will be 11 o'clock for all women remaining on campus Friday night.

All University dorms will be closed throughout the vacation and will be reopened Sunday, January 2. The first meal will be Monday breakfast.

Busy New Law Professor Also Serves as Librarian

Dr. Frederick Martin, new Willamette Law School faculty member, has been around all year; but because he is a busy man, the Collegian has had a hard time catching up with him.

Dr. Martin came to Willamette this year from the St. Paul College of Law in Minnesota. He serves here as assistant professor of law and law librarian.

Graduating with a bachelor

Wits to Carol

Wits is sponsoring a Christmas carolling trip to state institutions Wednesday evening. Every independent student both in town and on campus are urged to participate.

The group will assemble outside University House at 6:30 and leave together. Students with cars are asked to bring them to help furnish transportation.

An informal gathering at the home of Louise Owens will follow carolling. Hot chocolate and dancing will be featured.

of science from North Dakota State College, Dr. Martin went on to gain his M. A. at the University of Minnesota and his doctor of jurisprudence at the University of North Dakota Law School.

Before teaching college law, Martin taught high school English in Minnesota for six years and college English at North Dakota State for two years. Dr. Martin served for six years in the U. S. Army, three of which were spent in the Pacific theatre. At present Martin holds the rank of major in the army reserves.

Dr. Martin is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Delta Phi, legal fraternity.

Since his becoming law librarian, significant additions have been made in the library, including Law Journals from Hastings, Illinois, Vanderbilt, Virginia, and Wyoming, plus many other important works. More additions are planned as the budget allows.

Dr. Martin added that he has been very favorably impressed with both the school and the faculty.

"The Holy Child," by Easthope-Martin is to be sung by Michelle Edwards, soprano, accompanied by Barbara Freitag.

Pete VanHorn, bass, will sing "But who may abide the day of His coming?" from "The Messiah" by Handel. His accompanist will be Nancy Rosenbaum.

Last on the program is Tricia Gordon playing the "Sonata in D major" by Haydn, on the piano.

Reporter Gets Undercover Assignment

Temporarily lost to the Collegian is freshman reporter Emlie Beaudreau who permanently lost her appendix on Monday. She had previously been on limited duty because of a recurrent wrist injury.

Emlie hastened a scheduled December visit to the hospital by the Monday emergency appendectomy. During the Christmas vacation she will have corrective surgery on the wrist in Northgate hospital in Seattle.

Miss Beaudreau fractured her wrist bone when a sophomore in high school, and a long series of sprains after that injured the growth center of one of the bones and resulted in a malformation of tendons and wrist bone.

It was not until recently that she gave up a full slate of activities. In fact she played the first orchestra concert with her arm in a splint.

She was taken to Salem General hospital Monday morning, and the appendectomy was performed that afternoon. Her parents were at the hospital from Edmonds, Wash. by 1 a.m., Tuesday.

Emilie was moved from the hospital to the infirmary Tuesday afternoon.

Students who witnessed an auto accident on Oct. 14 at 12:25 o'clock on State street and helped separate bumpers please contact C. C. Robinson. Bus. phone 2-2401 or home phone 4-7377. Statements wanted regarding insurance settlement.

Writer Disappointed in Quality Of Convocation Band Concert

By RON HERSHBERGER
Collegian Writer

Two student music events of the past week are worthy of mention. The University band concert in Tuesday convocation and last Friday's student recital are focused in this commentary.

The band concert presented in convocation last Tuesday was slightly disappointing. It was certainly not the same quality playing which was heard in the concert during Homecoming. Equally disappointing in Tuesday's performance was the obvious variety from good playing to poor playing.

THE BAND program included such audience favorites as "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue." The transitions from one idea to the next were not well done in this piece. Differences in pitch were particularly noticeable and disturbing in the saxophone section.

At times the band had a sumptuous tone; the brass section sounding particularly rich. The "Quo Vadis March" and the "Copa Cobana" were the best ensemble playing. The "Interlude" by Morrissey, with Page Bailey as clarinet soloist, was the best example of good musicianship.

Last Friday a rather unusual program was presented in student recital. Three members of Prof. Stanley Butler's music history class, Sonja Anderson, Page Bailey and Ted Jameson, had chosen as their term project a study of the sacred and secular choral music of the 16th century.

AT THE OUTSET they stated that the group did not intend to present a "concert"; it was merely an informal program to present seldom-heard music—a chance to study a particular period in choral music. In line with this, a short explanation of the different types of music and general program notes were given by the three in charge.

After thus preparing us for the worst, there was actually some rather good singing done. To be sure there were mistakes, but the important thing is that the music was heard.

As Mr. Butler said in his introduction of the group, "To read about music, but not to hear it, is not at all complete." Let us have more of these informal stories with the emphasis on learning.

Willamette Faces Chico; OCE, CPS Due Next

Willamette university's basketball squad, under the supervision of Coach John Lewis, take on a strong Chico State college five tonight and tomorrow at Chico, California. This will be the one and only pre-conference venture outside of Oregon for the Cats.

The Jasons, with a surprising show of strength in their first two games, will be after additional wins in their nine-game warm-up schedule. They crack into Northwest conference play with Linfield at home on January 7.

MENTOR LEWIS will probably stay with the same crew that started against Pacific Lutheran Tuesday night.

Starting at the pivot position will be Neil Causbie, the 6-7 spire who connected with 33 points against Seattle Pacific and St. Martins. Alongside Causbie, Lewis will assign Pete Reed and either Tom Gooding or Jack Bishop at the forward spots. All three forward candidates have shown plenty of court know-how thus far.

Coach Lewis will have captain Dick Hoy and Dave Gray at the guard spots with veteran Jerry McCallister, Terry Ziegler and Dale Gustafson in reserve.

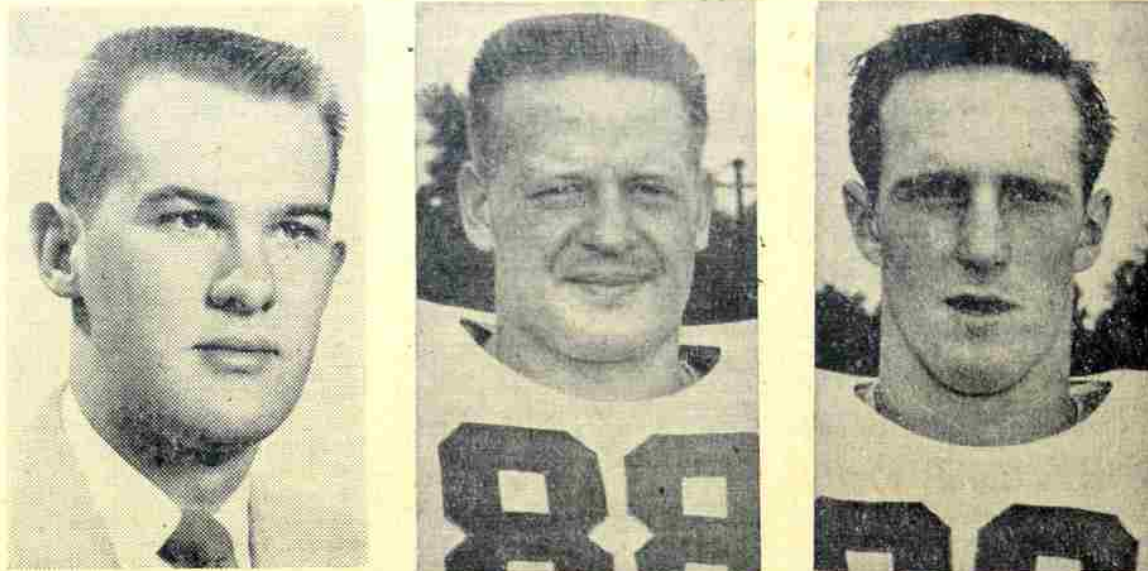

FOR THE CHICO Wildcats, Coach Gene Maxey will start an all-veteran crew, led by Chico's all-time scoring ace George Maderos.

Maxey will have at the forwards Bert Calvert and Bill Ceaglio, both six-foot seniors, with Ron Laffin and Don Ray, two sophomore prospects, in reserve. At the guard positions Maxey has monogram winners Ken Piercy, 6-2, and Norm Coons, 6-1.

NEXT TUESDAY the Bearcats will tangle with the Oregon College of Education Wolves from Monmouth in an 8 o'clock venture at the WU gym. The Bearcat and OCE crews met earlier in three practice games in which both squads shared equally in the points department and ball handling. The Wolves, led by Captain Larry Chamberlain, will bring a veteranless but determined crew to the Cats' lair.

Next Thursday night, December 16, and again on the following night, the Bearcats will host the College of Puget Sound.

Willamette's Three Football All-Stars

Bearkitten Hoop Team Opens Season, 16 Games Scheduled

The Willamette Bearkittens opened the 1954-55 season last Wednesday with an intra-squad game as the preliminary for the Willamette-Pacific Lutheran varsity game, the whites winning over the reds 52-49.

Coach Frei's two clubs were very evenly matched as he tried to balance the two groups for the preliminary. The white team was composed of Tom Head, Brad Lucas, Gordy Domogalla, Masashi Watanabe and Gary Wells. For the reds it was Dale Hartman, Vic Backland, Don Wilcox, Duane Moody, Dean Sorenson, Fred Chambers and Bill Meshki.

The squad has been drilling on man to man defense and emphasizing the fast break. On offense they use the single post with the guards driving around. This year the team has fair speed and height but still needs work in the defense and rebounding.

In the next two weeks the Bearkittens play three games. First is December 14 against the Tongue Point Naval Station. Then they have two games on the 16th and 17th against the OCE frosh and the strong A.A.U. quintet Marion Motors of Eugene.

Cats' Andy George Gets All-NW Nod

The second annual Little All-Northwest football squad came out Wednesday with Andy George nominated to a first string berth. End Dean Benson was selected to the second team while honorable mention went to Norm Dversdal, Dave Anderson, Ken Cooper and Bobby Zoelch.

Awards Given To Cat Players

The first annual football banquet of Willamette and Lewis and Clark football squads was held this past Wednesday evening at the Pioneer campus on Palatine Hill.

The WU coaching staff attending the dinner included Athletic Director John Lewis, football coach Ted Ogdahl, asst. football mentor Jerry Frei, Physical Education Director Les Sparks, and Jayvee head man Ray Chapuzio.

This was the first such banquet of its kind and will be followed by others at the end of each football campaign, to be hosted alternately by each school.

During the after dinner speeches the Willamette and Lewis and Clark players who contributed to the sport of football were singled out. Three Bearcat players, Ken Cooper, Dave Anderson and Dean Benson were called out by the coaching staff on making the Northwest All-Star squad.

Two trophy awards were made at the banquet. The most valuable player award for the past season was a tie between Norm Dversdal and Bobby Zoelch. Both will receive duplicate awards. The honorary captain award for the past season went to Ken Cooper.

Bearcats Open Season With Three Triumphs

Reed Leads Cats In 56-54 Victory Against Lute '5'

The torrid Willamette Bearcats kept in step with the undefeated Tuesday night as they squeaked by Pacific Lutheran 56-54.

The Jasons, under the supervision of John Lewis, jumped to an early 8-0 lead with forward Pete Reed contributing four of the eight points.

It was pretty much all Willamette the first half as the Lutherans had continual trouble with their shooting eyes. The PLC crew pulled to within two points at one time 6-8, but Reed and Captain Hoy combined to push the Bearcats to a 33-22 halftime advantage.

The second half was a different story. The Lutherans came on the court with determination, found the range and pushed the count to 32-40 with 7:20 left to play.

Nordquist and Jack Hoover teamed up to bring Pacific Lutheran to within one point of the Cats, 44-45. At this stage a basket by Reed and two quick markers by Jerry McCallister made the score 51-46. The Lutes began to press the Jasons and again markers by Nordquist and Jack Sinderson brought the count to 53-50.

With just minutes to play, Dave Gray stole the ball and raced the length of the court to score a two pointer and a gift shot to make the score 56-50. With 1:45 left, Nordquist again hit on a rebound to close the gap 54-56.

One-thirty was still left to play and Mentor Lewis sent in his sharpest ball controlling crew for a final stall. Both Hoy and Jack Bishop missed gift shots in the remaining seconds, but good ball control on the part of the Willamette crew was all that was needed to win.

Willamette collected 36 rebounds to PLC's 32. Reed and Hoy were credited with 19 and 14 respectively. The Pacific Lutherans led the gift shot department with 18 out of 20. The Bearcats collected 12 for 19. In the field goal column the WU crew hit for a 42 percentage while the northern team could only hit for 25 percent of their attempts.

Intramural basketball play got off to a big start Wednesday, December 1, with games in the "B" league. The Sigma Chi's met the Law School and the SAE played the WITS. The remaining league games, "A" and "C", were played Wednesday and Friday respectively.

In the first game in the "B" league the Sigs edged the Lawyers 19 to 7. The Sigs hit for 12 points in the first half and seven in the second. They were led by Dan Feller and Skip Alexander, each with five points. In the game between the SAE's and the WIT's, the SAE's succumbed 26 to 43. Mike Conway held high point honors for the WIT's.

The games played Friday in the "A" league saw the Law School win a forfeiture from the Sigma Chi's and a 31 to 27 triumph by the Beta's over the SAE's. The Beta scoring was led by Don Miller.

Saturday three games were played in the "C" league. The Beta's walloped the SAE's 48 to 6. The Lawyers won in a game with the Phi Delt's 26 to 23. In the third game the Sigma Chi team won their tilt with Baxter, 28-24.

Tomorrow's schedule finds the Law School playing the Sigs, SAE and Baxter matched, and Beta against the Phi Delt's. As of the time the Collegian went to press the results of the games played this week were not available.

Willamette Scores Win Over Falcons, Redmen

By WES McMULLEN
Collegian Sports Writer

The Willamette Bearcats opened their 1954-55 basketball campaign with power plus. They polished off a pair of foes from up Seattle way in ruthless fashion during the busy weekend. The Cats took on a tall but inexperienced Seattle Pacific quintet Friday night and downed them 103 to 64. Then they turned their siege guns toward the Rangers from St. Martins college, Saturday, dropping them 76 to 48.

FRIDAY night proved just a little more than the Seattle Pacific Falcons had bargained for. Willamette soon settled the question as to which was the better team. The Jasons never fell behind after the first three minutes. The more experienced John Lewis quint controlled both boards throughout most of the game, seldom giving the Falcons a clear shot.

The Bearcats showed plenty of drive and hustle, controlling the greater percentage of rebounds and hitting 39 shots from the floor. High point honors went to Causbie with 22, followed by Bishop with 19, Reed 18 and Gooding and Hoy each collected 11 for the Bearcats. Second high in the game was Loren Anderson of the "Falcs" with 21.

Willamette, who might have been a little tired after their tremendous scoring effort against Seattle Pacific, beat St. Martins in a raggedly played game. The Saturday night game saw the rangy Bearcats roll up 76 points to the Rangers 48. The big and experienced Bearcats controlled both backboards and showed uncanny shooting ability just as they had done the night before.

NIEL CAUSBIE, 6-7, a much improved ballplayer, proved the deciding factor as he grabbed 13 rebounds and tallied 11 points. Pete Reed, the junior shooting ace from Scappoose, potted seven field goals in behalf of the potent Willamette offense.

The Bearcat defense proved too much for the Ranger quint as they hit only 32 shots out of 103 attempts.

"Friendliest Stores in the Area"

The Social Scoop

By JULIE MELLOR, Editor

The column this week is dedicated to one of the society reporters, Emilie Beadreau, who each week writes the Amen Corner. Emilie was struck with an attack of that common complication — appendicitis, and is now recovering at the Willamette infirmary.

NEW OFFICERS of Phi Delta Phi, national law fraternity, are Don Wilson, magister; Gordon Wylie, exchequer; Keith Lawrence, historian, and Frank Riebe, clerk.

As is the custom with the last fireside of the year, all living organizations will be paired off to entertain the people in the state institutions, as well as carol to the deans of the school.

Baxter hall and Delta Gamma members will travel to the T.B. hospital, after which they will serenade Dean and Mrs. Gregg.

Mr. Petrie and Dean Hatfield are on the singing list of the Chi Omega and Sigma Chi groups, who will also travel to the mental hospital for caroling.

THE BETAS and Alpha Chi

Omegas will serenade Dean Seward Reese, Hillcrest, and Fairview home; while the SAE's and Lausanne and University house will visit the Blind school and the homes of Dr. Smith and Dean Geist.

Phi Delta Theta members join up with the Pi Phis to serenade Dean Ewalt. Other places where they will sing their Christmas carols will be the State hospital and the Salem General hospital.

Caroling will be through by 8:30 Wednesday evening, after which will follow the annual Senior "Pajama Dance" in the gym.

Initiated into Mu Phi Epsilon, national music honorary, were Joyce Ambler, Carolyn Burr, Tricia Gordon, Marilyn Hanthorn, Michelle Edwards and Carol Svinth.

THE SECOND Unesco sponsored fireside, which was the clothing drive, was deemed a success by president George Chambers.

Over 2700 pounds of clothing was gathered and will go to foreign students abroad under the administration of Church World service.

Coed for December

Judi Wood has been selected as coed for the month of December, by the vote of the Associated Women Students cabinet. Miss Wood was chosen for her leadership in campus activities during her college career.

President of Cap and Gown, Miss Wood is also secretary of FTA and secretary of Panhellenic. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi. The December coed is a psychology major, president of Psi Chi, national psychology honorary, and senior scholar in that department. Past activities also include membership in Beta Alpha Gamma, Theta Alpha Phi, Alpha Lambda Delta, and associate editor of the Unesco "Endeavor," and scholarship awards include a four-year Rotary full-tuition scholarship.

A gold cup will be awarded to Miss Wood on Tuesday convocation by AWS president Judy Finch.

The Amen Corner

Westminster Fellowship will meet at 6 o'clock Sunday at the home of Dr. Poling for supper and a discussion on prayer entitled, "The Devil's Letters."

There will be no Canterbury Club meeting this week. Newman Club will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for services at the St. Joseph's church.

United Students' Fellowship will meet at a new time which will be announced at the morning worship hour Sunday.

The Baptist College and Business-Age young people will sponsor a dinner for underprivileged children at the First Baptist church Tuesday at 6 o'clock. Following the dinner will be a Christmas party. Sunday night the group will meet at 6:15 for a program entitled "What's Your Line," under the direction of Betty Swanson.

Christmas Eve Story, Trips Into Past, Future Compose Themes for Weekend House Dances

COUPLES AT "Medieval Magic," Sigma Alpha Epsilon's formal fall house dance, will enter the chapter house by crossing a drawbridge. The dance is to be held tomorrow evening from 9 until 12 o'clock, according to Jerry Cruson, general chairman.

An ancient castle setting, planned by Neil Daugherty, will feature traditional arches, shields, and armour.

Refreshments are being planned by Larry Mooney, and Ron Swanson has designed the programs. The Blue Notes will provide music for the evening.

Honored guests, invited by Bill Lasswell, will include Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean Regina Ewalt, Dean Mark Hatfield, Dean and Mrs. Robert Gregg, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Beal, Salem's Mayor-elect White, Dr. and Mrs. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Martin and Mrs. Helen Ledingham.

Chaperons will be Major and Mrs. Gilbert Charters, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Runkel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hall, and Sgt. and Mrs. Walter Grattan.

"1984 AT WU" is the theme for Baxter hall's fall costume house dance, to be held tomorrow evening from 9 to 12 o'clock in the Baxter lounge.

Ideas for the dance are being taken from the book, "1984," required reading for the philosophy classes, stated Dave Cortell, general chairman.

Couples attending the dance walk through an alley and enter the main room, which will be decorated like a public square, complete with "Big Brother" signs and mottos from the book, Bob Taylor is planning the decorations.

Music, planned by Martin Burlingame, will be records played through high fidelity speakers.

Men attending the dance will wear dark blue jackets, red ties, gray slacks and rook lids, while their dates will be dressed in gray skirts, blue or green blouses, and red sashes, with a red ribbon tying back their hair.

Max Folsom is refreshments chairman, and programs are being designed by Frank Dobbins.

Honored guests for the evening will be Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean Regina

Ewalt, Dean Mark Hatfield and Dean and Mrs. Robert Gregg.

Chaperons will include Dr. and Mrs. Charles Derthick, Dr. and Mrs. Chester Luther and Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gatke.

It will be the night before Christmas tonight at the Alpha Chi Omega house from 9 to 12 o'clock, the formal dance being centered around the theme "The Night Before Christmas."

CHARLENE MINER, general chairman of the dance, has promised a dreamy atmosphere of pink and silver decorations under pink lights. Angel hair, Christmas trees, and angels complete the decoré.

Refreshments have been planned by Mary Jo Ewell and will consist of cookies and hot spiced cider. Perfect souvenirs have been devised by Gay Kent, program chairman. Barbara Fretag has promised music from records and dancing will be held in the living room and basement.

Honored guests are Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith, Dean Mark O. Hatfield, Dean Regina Ewalt, Dean and Mrs. Robert Gregg, Dean and Mrs. S. P. Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Don Gleckler, and Mrs. Elvah Stanley.

Invited as chaperones are Dr. and Mrs. Charles Derthick, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Breakey, and Dr. and Mrs. Noel Kaestner.

Lausanne to Entertain Guests At Christmas Open House

Men of Willamette university — the day you've been awaiting is drawing near. Sunday you are invited to visit Lausanne hall and admire the artistic door scenes, peer into the rooms and have refreshments in the lounge, at the annual Christmas tea.

THE LOUNGE is being decorated by the women of University House for the event. Nancy Groth, social chairman, is head of the function, which will be held from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Center of attraction will be the women's doors decorated in the Christmas fashion. Every door in the dorm will be decorated and the winners will be announced by Saturday afternoon. The two motifs to be carried out in the contest are religious and novelty designs.

Each room cannot spend over one dollar for ornamenting the door, and designs will be hung up with scotch tape. Twelve individual prizes will be awarded, with some to the various sections and floors, and one grand award.

GUIDES WILL BE on hand at the entrance of the dorm to escort all visitors on a tour of the hall. All the rooms in the dorm will be open for visitors to inspect at this time.

A receiving line composed of housemother, Mrs. Ella Watson; president, Marilyn Han-thorn; social chairman, Nancy Groth; and assistant housemother, Margie Leonard, will be formed to greet guests.

WHAT DID IT COST TO CREATE YOUR JOB?

If you're an average U.S. factory worker—$12,000.

If you're a rough carpenter, it took approximately $350 worth of tools to set you up in your trade.

Tools for a garage mechanic cost about $3,000; for a Washington wheat farmer $12,500; for a secretary $300.

But if you work for Union Oil, it took $77,000 worth of tools in the form of trucks, service stations, refineries, oil wells, etc., to create your job.* Obviously, some of our jobs require considerably less investment than $77,000 and some considerably more. But this is the average for Union's more than 9,000 employees.

That's big money. But it accomplishes big things.

It brings Union's customers better products at lower costs. It enables each employee to produce more and therefore earn more. It creates better jobs and a higher standard of living.

Even this figure does not include the "tools" Union rents for its employees, such as office space, tankers, telephone service, etc.*

Catalog to Be Published Every 2 Years Instead of Yearly Basis

The University catalog scheduled to be published in February, will come out this year with new format and will be published in the future only on alternate years.

THE NEW CATALOG will be for the school years 1955-56 and 1956-57. On the alternate years when no catalog is printed a bulletin will be issued giving course changes and faculty additions. The regular catalog will contain the calendar for two school years.

Registrar Harold Jory, editor of the catalogue, said that the entire first section giving the history and general description of the University will be rewritten in an attempt to make it more interesting and readable.

Statistical data such as faculty, board of trustees and staff lists, will be moved to the end of the book where other lists of graduates and scholarship winners are listed.

No new requirements or significant changes in regulations or policy are expected to be included in the new edition this year.

In the religion department are three new courses taught by Prof. Burton Bastuscheck. They are Worship and Hymnology, which will explore some of the church's liturgical treasures and consider how to choose hymns for worship services.

The Church in the Community will study the church's program with reference to the community. Christian Education in the Local Church will teach techniques to be used in non-professional Christian education.

The English department will realine some courses and add Advanced Composition designed to give the student further practice writings.

A seminary in theory will be added to the music curriculum. It is primarily intended for majors in theory and will give attention to the problems of teaching. It includes a study of the methods and materials of research with an investigation of problems of special interest to the student.

Bookstore Stocks Special Gifts To Tuck in Holiday Stockings

Why run around town when you can buy your Christmas gifts right here on campus?

THE BOOKSTORE is the place to shop for small inexpensive gifts for the special people on your list. The gift line has been improved and a wider selection than ever before is offered, according to Mrs. Delsia Larson, manager.

New this year are hand-made luncheon sets, suitable for mother or maybe someone's hope chest. Hand-made imported Italian figurines in delightful designs are also featured at very reasonable prices.

NEW MATCHED SETS of desk accessories have arrived in time for the holiday giving. The sets include memo book and paper, letter holder and matching desk pad. Colored panels with decorative scenes make them attractive.

Distinguished hand dipped glo-candles are on sale, as is a wide selection of Christmas cards. The bookstore will gladly engrave them with your name if you wish.

Always a good selection is one of Willamette's toy stuffed animals. This year Perky, Patti or Peppy would make a cute toy for your little brother or favorite sister.

NOT ALL THE BOOKS in the shop are text books; many would make good gifts. Pens and Pencils, scrap books and a myriad of other small items would make nice "tuck-in" gifts.

The bookstore is open to serve you. It is owned and operated by the University and has been operated by Mrs. Larson for 11 years. At present Mrs. Enid Rondeau is assistant manager. Three students are employed part time.

ROK President Cites Former ROTC Head

Lt. Col. Norman W. Campion, commander of the campus ROTC program from 1951 to 1953, has been awarded the ULCHI medal by direction of the President of Korea and commander of the chief of staff of the ROK Air Force, Far East air force officials said this week.

Campion was the first commander of an ROTC program at Willamette. He was replaced by the present commander, Lt. Col. Norman W. Todd.

The honor cites Colonel Campion for his exceptional and meritorious service as commander, detachment 4, 6164th Air Force advisory group, and as chief advisor to the Republic of Korea air technical school.

The citation reads in part, "he utilized his broad knowledge and experience previously gained to impart United States Air Force methods, procedures and practices into the training system of the air technical school."

The citation was signed by Sohn Won Iyl, minister of national defense. Col. Campion's wife and two children are residing in Salem.
