

PROFESSOR PECK ANSWERS CALL OF THE WILD

Returns in Memory to Central America and Makes Instructive Talk.

OLD RACES EXPLAINED

Interesting Facts Concerning Negroes Are Presented at Meeting Addressed by Professor—Many Salient Bibliological Thoughts Expressed—Discoveries Were Made.

Prof. M. E. Peck, the capable head of the biology department of Willamette University, is an instructive and interesting speaker. He is, indeed, a very thorough scientist but knows well how to express himself.

In Central America. He spent about three years in Central America studying botany, biology and ornithology. He also learned a great deal of the lives and customs of the people of that country.

Makes Discoveries. During his stay in that interesting country the professor made a number of valuable discoveries. About 30 or 40, heretofore unknown plants were found, analyzed and described. The descriptions were published in the American Academy of Science. Several new birds were discovered and described in the proceedings of the Biological Society of Washington. These discoveries are of rare value to the scientific world and have succeeded in putting the professor on a high plane of public estimation. He is certainly appreciated at Willamette.

Speaks to Many. At an entertainment, given in the Presbyterian church, of Salem, last Friday evening, Prof. Peck, gave an interesting and instructive lecture on the folklore and the superstitions of the native Creoles and Caribs of Central America.

Describes Races. He said that the Creoles are descendants of the negro slaves. The Caribs are negroes, but their ancestors were not slaves, but came direct from Africa. The Caribs have preserved their original African religion. It is a close secret and no white man knows their religion. It has been but a few years since the human sacrifices have ceased to be a common religious practice with them.

The professor read one of their most interesting and original folklore stories. Speaks From Experience. Prof. Peck was able to give a very vivid picture of the facts as he had actually seen them. He is indeed a very capable scientist and as well an interesting speaker. It is worth while to listen to the professor speak for he talks on only those subjects with which he is entirely familiar.

The colleges under state supervision in Oregon are being visited by Governor West's private secretary, Miss Fern Hobbs, in order to ascertain the degree of interest with which Oregon women regard these institutions. Eugene and Corvallis were visited last week.

WANT BOOTH FOR U. S. SENATOR

The Hon. R. A. Booth, of Eugene, was waited upon last Saturday by a committee of 200 prominent citizens of the state, and was urged to run for United States senator, to succeed Senator Chamberlain, whose term of office will expire early in 1915. Other friends wish Mr. Booth to become a candidate for governor of the state of Oregon. Much pressure is being brought to bear upon Mr. Booth by both factions. He will probably decide within a few days as to what he will do.

Mr. Booth is president of the

FIVE HUNDRED TO BE HELPED

Fund of $50,000 May Be Set Aside to Pay State Employees.

Five hundred men are to be given employment by the state for the next two months, if the deficiency fund of $50,000 is allowed by the state emergency board.

Public Relief. The question of creating such a fund to aid Oregon's unemployed has long been a subject of discussion. Governor West now believes that there is sufficient road work to keep half a thousand laborers busy, the pay being $2 per day. After the mass meeting of the unemployed, held in Portland, Senator McCulloch gave a report of proceedings to the governor, who took immediate action.

Men Sincere. The senator expressed the belief that the majority of the unemployed in the state are sincere in their desire to obtain employment. Great interest was shown at the meeting and the men expressed themselves as ready to undertake most any type of honorable work.

Action Commendable. If by creating this fund, state roads can be remodeled at an equal or lower expense than otherwise there seems to be no reason why the move should not be taken from a financial standpoint. The viewpoint of the road commissioners will have to be considered, however, and together with the protests of the official road constructing contractors there may be some friction.

HUNDREDS TO FLOCK EAST TO KANSAS CITY

College and Faculty Delegates from All Points to Attend.

TRIP TO BE EXTENDED

Southern and Eastern Points to Be Visited by Willamette Representatives While on Tour—Return Together.

From December 31 to January 4, Kansas City will be the mecca of hundreds of college and faculty delegates to the great quadrennial convention of the National Student Volunteer Band. The last convention was held at Nashville, Tenn., and was the greatest gathering of college students ever held in America.

Meeting Large. The coming meeting bids well to eclipse all preceding ones. Delegates will be present from nearly 800 colleges and universities. The speakers scheduled are men and women of international reputation, being the world leaders in their line of work.

Aim High. The aim and purpose of the conference is to arouse a greater interest in all lines of missionary endeavor, and sent the delegates back to their schools imbued with a greater enthusiasm.

TENNYSON CLASS GIVES PROGRAM

Miss Krenning Brings Pre-Holiday Study to Climax.

Tuesday morning, December 16, the Tennyson class gave a Tennyson program in chapel.

The numbers on the program were some of the poets' most beautiful compositions and were a real delight to the students.

Quartet Sings. The first celebration given by the Glee club quartet was well received. The old, beloved song so dear to the hearts of all, "Sweet and Low," filled the chapel with its gladdening thoughts and cheered the hearts of many present.

Miss Krenning Reads. The reading, "Ring Out the Old," given by Miss Krenning, was full of needed thoughts, and the manner in which it was presented made a deep impression on the listeners. Following this number the quartet again entertained the students.

Savage Presents. Harry Savage in behalf of the Tennyson class, presented a beautiful portrait of Tennyson to the University. It will probably be hung in the chapel from now on.

Prof. Walsh sang the ever appreciated sacred piece, "Crossing the Bar," written by the great poet who was honored by the program.

Class Active. The Tennyson class has been very

HOLIDAY TOUR TAKES IN ALL VALLEY CITIES

Advance Man Gives Promising Data on Trip that Is Very Extensive.

MEMBERS ARE SELECTED

All But a Few Clubmen Have Been Chosen and the Last Members Are to Be Selected This Week if Possible.

The University Glee club is being organized for the season's work. Thursday a meeting was held at which plans for the coming season were made.

Take Tour. The tour this year will take in all the leading cities of the valley and will occur during the Easter vacation. On this trip only the most salient productions of the club will be presented so that all possible advertising may be given Old Willamette in a manner that is highly productive.

Practice will begin after the Christmas holidays and from then on the Glee club will be put to hard work. Not all of the 16 club members have been selected by the dean, but according to the present plan the full quota will be known in the near future.

Club Selective. Only men who show exceptional vocal ability and considerable originality are considered as eligible to be organization, so that all who receive a berth count themselves as luck individuals. Because of the great reputation that the musical director has acquired as a leader in the realm of fine arts, it is recognized as a distinct achievement if a University student can get his training from the dean.

Work Broad. The work done by the club is of an educative as well as entertaining nature. The songs presented at the concerts are all high class and need many hours of preparation before they can be sung at the public recitals. Besides the regular musical numbers there are special skits and sketches arranged by the dean especially for the club. The stuntman who heads the bills at all towns is generally the best all around man in the organization and takes a leading part in all roles.

Last Appearance. The last appearance of the club this season will be at the Grand Opera House in Salem. This is recognized as one of the leading musical events of the year and all Old Willamette students look forward to the event with anticipation. This concert will be held some time in May, according to present arrangements.

STUDENTS ARE CHURCH GOERS

Ninety-six Per Cent of Enrolled People Are Religiously Inclined.

Ninety-six per cent of Willamette students are religiously inclined. Eighty per cent are members of churches, and sixteen per cent are regular attendants, although they are not affiliated with any special denomination.

Methodists Dominate. Of this eighty per cent, 166 of the students are Methodists and twenty-three more favor that denomination. Being a Methodist institution this is naturally expected, but upon investigation it was found that all the churches combined lacked 67 members of having an equal number with the Methodists.

Presbyterian Next. After the Methodists, the Presbyterians are the strong body. Thirty University students are affiliated with that church and five prefer the same although they are not members.

From these figures it is seen that the contrast between the leading denominations is quite marked, there being less than one-fifth as many Presbyterians as Methodists.

Protestants Strong. Of the remaining churches the Christian, Evangelical, Episcopal, and Baptist are the leaders, the five having in all twenty-eight registered

Full Delegation. Willamette is to send a full delegation in the persons of Prof. James Matthews, Miss Ruth Young, Miss Inez Goltra and Eric P. Bolt.

Extended Trip. Prof. Matthews expects to visit with friends and relatives in Michigan before attending the convention. Miss Young has planned several stop-offs in the Dakotas and Nebraska. Miss Goltra will extend her trip to Pennsylvania, after visiting in St. Paul, Minneapolis, Chicago, Columbus and Pittsburgs, and thence to Kansas City.

Mr. Bolt will leave by the southern route, stopping at Frisco, Los Angeles, San Antonio, El Paso, New Orleans, Topeka, at which place he will be the guest of Harry G. McCain, and then to Kansas City. The party will return together and expect to visit Lincoln, Nebraska, Denver and Salt Lake City.

Girls to Honor Old W. U. Founder. The Girls' Willamette club, in consideration of the work of the noble founder of Willamette University, has decided to place an American flag over the grave of that man, Jason Lee, in the Lee Mission cemetery.

Yearly services are conducted on a day known as Jason Lee Memorial day, and tribute is paid to this great pioneer.

Girls Enthusiastic. Many things have been planned for the coming semester and all Willamette founders will probably be recognized in some fitting manner.

STATESMAN EDITOR HERE.

MR. LOCKHART, city editor of the Statesman, will address the Staff at 3:30 today in Dr. Patterson's room. Others desiring to attend are invited.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

WE WISH you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We hope that the prevailing spirit of good cheer will find its way into your heart and gladden your life. We hope that your sorrows will be forgotten on that Glorious Day, and that the memory of He, who died for the world, will serve to act as an inspiration, spurring you on to do better things. When the loud red socks and yellow neckties from aunt and uncle arrive do not thrust them under the sink. Be brave—don the gifts and show your friends that the spirit of the hour is more important than pride. Swallow your petty notions of conventionality and be human. Spread the seeds of good cheer and happiness among your acquaintances. Somewhere there is a saddened heart waiting for the gentle touch of a kind hand. Do not be self-centered; go about with your heart open to impressions and see that no one is lonesome on that ne'er forgotten day. When on your way to your home, see that the true Willamette Spirit is not dormant. Scatter words of good cheer as you go. Who knows what may happen before many months have passed. Now is the time to help your friends. Fulfill the requirements of the day. Again we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

BELITTLING the moral leaders of our cities and hurling sarcastic statements against our institution, the Weekly Visitor, a local newspaper, presented a "weakly" editorial to the people of Salem last Friday. We claim that the writer of the article presented biased statements, was unfair in the presentation of the subject and deserving of nothing but severest criticism.

We contend that no broad-minded person, thoroughly conversant with the moral issues of the day, would have written the article. We take our stand against anyone who uses the public press to hurl sarcastic, unsubstantiated, exaggerated statements against our institution or what it stands for.

We realize that the article in question was probably written by a strong advocate of the saloon, and that the author of the story is quite peeved because the source of supply is cut off. It is always noticeable also that the poor loser is a poor booster.

However, we sympathize with the poor deluded scribe who wrote the story. In fact we wish some kind benevolently inclined person would explain to the author of the article that all things do not exist as expressed in the editorial. Let such people know that the world could exist without their sickly, trivial editorials, all of which deluge their writer with ridicule.

COLONEL GOETHEL stands before the country as a most noted efficient American. Straightway we hear the rumor that he has been tendered the position of Police Commissioner of New York and that he has been requested to act as City Manager of Dayton, Ohio. We see that the problems of city administration need the energy of the best men. All of this shows clearly that the old city machines are gradually going. Administrative skill is supplanting political availability. The public is realizing that brains are needed to run the municipalities. They want the best men, men who have specialized. Now you croakers that knock the colleges let us hear what you have to say about the detriments and foolhardiness of acquiring a higher and more thorough education.

THE INDEPENDENT scoffs at the Kaiser's ability to carry out his edict, "The tango must go." Throughout the Fatherland this demand has gone like wild fire. But says the Independent, "The world will dance. It always has. It always will. The new dances are better than the old. The old waltz is supplanted by the Argentinian tango. It is the one sport that brings the sexes together on equality of execution. It makes them equal partners with just that shade of difference in responsibility that keeps the male primus inter pares. On with the dance." Probably the editor has a new Victrola he wishes to dispose of.

SEVEN women and one man, a Japanese, were granted scholarship awards at Stanford this year, and are now members of the Phi Beta Kappa Society. Ought we not exclude the Japs from getting an education as well as acquiring land, and prohibit the young ladies from attending college? Are they not infringing on the rights of the American man? If it had not been for the seven women seven strong robust males would have reaped the reward. It is scandalous. We must protect the poor weak male.

THE DAILY ILLINI of the University of Illinois, and the University Argonaut of Idaho, used a large part of their editorial columns of late trying to decide whether the men of the said schools should or should not doff their hats to the male members of the faculty. One says "Do it," the other says that such an action is undesired. We say be gentlemen.

IT IS ABSOLUTELY necessary that all organization reports be in the hands of the Organization reporters by Monday morning before chapel. Otherwise they will not be printed.—Editor.

The following poem was written by a Civil War veteran, a comrade of our librarian, Dr. James Lisle.

CHRISTMAS HYMN.
Edward B. Heaton.

Awake, awake! and hail the morn,
 The morn sublimely blest,
 On which the Savior, Christ, was born—
 For man's eternal rest.
 With one united voice

Let Heaven and Earth rejoice.
 The well-beloved Son
 His march of conquest hath begun.

Exulting seraphs set the strain,
 Angels the chorus join!
 Regions beyond the rolling main
 Lift high the hymn divine.
 Ye far benighted isles,
 Behold, your Saviour smiles,
 And, lo, the shadows flee,
 He comes, he comes to make you free.

Ye heralds of Salvation, sound
 The message of the skies;
 Swift, let the joyful news abound
 Where man in darkness lies.
 Ye glad and prosperous gales
 Impel Redemption's sails;
 Gray Ocean, bear them o'er
 In safety to their destined shore.

Heir of the world, what need had he
 With sinful man to dwell?
 'Twas love that led him to the tree
 And love our hearts should swell.
 O who can fitly frame
 Due honor to his name?
 Ye multitude of tongues
 With Jesus fill your choicest songs.

THE RIALTO

A Christmas Wish.

I wish for you that this may be one of the happiest Christmas seasons in your life. May you be joyful in the knowledge of obedience to a guiding conscience within you.

I would not wish you a merry Christmas, for it is possible to me merry and frivolous; merry and thoughtless; nay, even merry and foolish. But I would wish you to be happy in the thought of what this day really means; of its sacred institutions; and of the many sweet memories connected with former Christmas days. And as your mind turns to the thoughts of happy childhood celebrations, may you think of the One for whose memory we have especially set apart this day, and to whom we should lift grateful hearts for the beautiful associations connected with this blessed institution.

INTERCOLLEGIATE

The annual conference track meet will be held at Pullman this year.

Northwestern has received a gift of $25,000 from a member of the board of trustees.

The students of Reed College have adopted a charter for their college paper, the "Quest."

Pullman wrestlers are at work and expect to excel in the scientific use of strength and weight.

The U. of O. library, containing 45,192 books, is the largest among the colleges of the Northwest.

The O. A. C. Barometer staff has been reorganized. A new system, which seeks for efficiency, will be used.

The Girls' clubs of the U. of W. will unite in giving clothes and entertainment to the needy of Seattle at Christmas time.

By defeating both W. S. C. and O. A. C. in debate Friday night, the University of Idaho won the championship of the new tri-state league.

A movement has been started by the National Association of State Universities to establish a federal institution of learning, to be located at Washington, D. C.

For the first time in the history of the Northwest, a conference wrestling tournament has been scheduled between the colleges, to be held in Portland late in March.

An Enjoyable Condition.

How much more enjoyable it is to have made a profitable investment than merely to know you might have made it. The young men and women who have been trained in the Capital Business College are enjoying the profits of their training. The ones who merely keep thinking about the profits from it—they won't have them. Next week will be a good time to enter.

Coffee Club officers are now known. After the local knockers get their just deserts, the new leaders will be well prepared to carry on their work.

Governor West is endeavoring to create a $50,000 deficiency fund to aid Oregon's unemployed. It is a very commendable undertaking if properly balanced.

The superintendent of schools in Salem signified his willingness to take over the parkings near the high school. This is one step in the growth of the public park system. Keep it up.

The editorial writer of the Weekly Visitor says that the Coffee Club agitation was a joke. The Labor Union, representing one thousand Salemites recently voted down a motion to lay the matter of considering the question on the table. What about that, you prophet?

President Wilson has resigned Carabaos, a society of the Philippine veterans, because of songs sung by the members. He objects to the hostility against the Philippines, as expressed in the ditties. However, it is up to Wilson to change his views on several subjects before he again regains his past popularity in the eyes of the American people. Where did he attend Thanksgiving morn services?

BASKET BALL SPIRIT INVADES UNIVERSITY

Basket ball enthusiasm is boiling and will soon turn to steam. The squad now totals twenty-five and is still increasing. Competition between class teams and secondary teams is urged, as this is a means of developing raw material. Already one secondary team has been organized which has challenged any other male team in the University.

A Challenge.

The Lilliputians, the midget team of the Sophomore class, extends a challenge to any other secondary basket ball team in the University.

Three girls at the University of Washington were awarded sweaters and their letters for participation in girls' athletics throughout three years.

Dr. Homan was in Portland several days during the past week in the interests of Willamette.

SOCIETY NOTES

Dr. Homan gave the principal talk last Tuesday evening before the Six o'Clock club at the Methodist church. He spoke concerning the recent national meeting of the Anti-Saloon League, held at Columbus, Ohio, and the National Convention of Methodist Men, held at Indianapolis. Dr. Homan attended both these gatherings and spoke enthusiastically of them both.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woods, who have been visiting in the city for several days, left Salem last Tuesday afternoon for Kalispell, Montana, where Mr. Woods has accepted a position as Y. M. C. A. secretary. Both of these young people graduated from W. U. in 1911.

Earl Norton, a former student of Willamette, is looking up business interests in Salem. Since leaving school he has become the proud possessor of a wife and daughter.

The Websterian-Adelante halls were the scene of a merry affair Friday evening when the Sophomores gathered for a social evening. The halls were prettily decorated for the occasion. The evening was delightfully spent dancing the Virginia reel and playing many other old-fashioned games which have suddenly returned to favor.

Refreshments, consisting of ice-cream cones and animal cookies were served. The success of the evening was due largely to Miss Ruth Hodge, chairman of the social committee of the class.

Those present were: Miss Winifred Davis, Miss Genevieve Avison, Miss Ruth Hodge, Miss Ola Clark, Miss Ruth Tasker, Miss Edith Lornstein, Miss Eleanor Ruby, Miss Inez Goltra, Miss Ada Ross, Miss Laura Ross, Miss Lucille Kuntz, Miss Ruth Boyer, Miss Helen Wastell, Miss Ermine Harding, Miss Margaret Poisal, George Odgers, James Corpe, Maxwell Ball, Hans Schroeder, Joseph Gerhart, Charles Hall, John Gary, Reede Baru, Glenn Hogue, Wallace Dunlap, Brazier Small, Harold B. Hager, Harry Rice, Foster Luce, Sam Russell, Rudolph Little, Oscar Lund, Charles Ohling, Clarence Van Slyke.

The secretaries of the various classes and organizations should pass in to the manager or editor of the "Willamette" the names of every member of their organization. These lists must be in before Friday of this week.

Organization Elects.

At the meeting of the local college oratorical society, held last Friday after chapel, the following officers were elected: Mildred Bartholomew, president; Walter Gleiser, vice-president; Beryl Holt, secretary-treasurer. Paul Homan was chosen as Willamette's delegate to arrange for the intercollegiate oratorical contest, which is to be held March 13, in Albany.

The Willamette orator will have seventh place on the program this year. According to the constitution of the State Oratorical association, the local contest must be held the week preceding or immediately following the last Friday in January. It is expected that two students from each college class will be sent as delegates.

CAMPUS NOTES

Miss Ruth Young '15, spent the week end at her home in Portland.

A meeting of the Portland-Willamette club was held in Professor Matthews' room, Friday at 12:15. President Paget presided. The following officers were elected: Maxwell Ball, president; Eleanor Ruby, vice-president; Avis Ogden, secretary-treasurer-sergeant-at-arms-reporter. The club will hold a skating party in the Oaks rink in Portland on the afternoon of December 30. All Willamette students who are in Portland on that date are cordially invited to attend.

The members of the Klose Klub are congratulating themselves on the fact that Dr. Henke has been secured to teach their weekly Bible class. The topic of discussion is the "Socialized Christ" and under the doctor's master guidance the class is indeed worth while.

John Gary was very agreeably surprised by a visit from his mother on Saturday.

Miss Florence Cooke, accompanying her parents of Ellensburg, Wash., starts today for an extended trip through California. She will return to school in January.

Last Monday evening a delightful reception, given by the faculty and old students of Kimball College of Theology, in honor of all new students, was held and was enjoyed by a large number of persons.

The Misses Rena and May Mickey journeyed to Turner last week, where they spent the week end with their parents. Their father, Rev. J. J. Mickey, is pastor of the M. E. church there.

At the meeting of the city council last Monday night, Councilman-elect Von Eschen of the second ward, was chosen to fill out the unexpired term of Councilman W. T. Rigdon, who left recently to spend the winter in California. Professor Von Eschen is head of the department of natural sciences in W. U.

Harry Critchlow, of Portland, has been visiting for several days at the McDaniel home in this city. He was a Freshman at our university two years ago, and is now in business in Portland. He is here organizing a Royal Arcanum lodge.

Our athletic field is now in good shape for the winter. It has been recrowned, and with the proper kind of attention, the field will be in good shape for next year's football season. W. U. has one of the best athletic fields in the Northwest.

Want Booth for U. S.

Booth-Kelly Lumber company, of Eugene. He became widely known throughout the state during the time that he served as a member of the state senate from Lane county, Oregon.

Whatever Mr. Booth may decide to do will be of interest to Willamette students. Mr. Booth is very much interested in Willamette University. He has given a great deal of his money and time for Old Willamette.

CHEMAWA WORKERS CONCLUDE SERVICES

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Extension Committee, under whose supervision weekly Bible classes have been conducted at the Chemawa Training School, concluded the 1913 season Tuesday evening with a very delightful Christmas service.

Special features of this program were selections from the Chemawa Orchestra, vocal solo by Mr. Harold Jory, reading by Miss Davis, and a Christmas talk by Miss Chappell.

This work which, during past years, has been so successfully carried on, will be continued this coming year under present instruction. Inez Goltra, Gladys Chandler, Lella Lent, Ione Lewis and Miss Chappell are the Y. W. women who gladly devote every Tuesday evening to this field, while the Y. M. C. A. is ably represented by Gearheart Larsen, Sam Russell, Harry Rice, Fred McMillan, and Eric Bolt.
