

Bearcats Claw Pilots 26-0

Keenemen Get Sweet Revenge At Portland

Pass Interceptions, Long Runs Pile up Willamette Score

PORTLAND, Oct. 2—(Special to Collegian)—Willamette University's Bearcats flashed to a well earned 26-0 victory, and sweet revenge over the University of Portland Pilots on the new turf of Multnomah field in Portland tonight.

The game was but three minutes old when Al Walden scampered through his own left tackle, reversed his field sharply and travelled 50 yards before he was finally downed on the Pilot's two. He then packed the pork-hide over on the second try for the initial score. Jim Fitzgerald kicked the extra point making the score seven to nothing.

Portland then started a drive, making two consecutive first downs, and it looked as though they were bound for pay dirt. But then Gene Stewart, shifty Bearcat half, raced in from nowhere to snag a Portland pass and gallop 70 yards to score standing up. Bill Reder added the extra point. This all happened in the first six minutes of the game.

Those two plays were about all of any consequence in the first three periods, but they were enough, as they iced away the victory for Spec Keene's men.

Shortly after the fourth quarter began, Buddy Reynolds, the Bearcats' diminutive little scooter, grabbed another Portland aerial and was away to the races. He was finally pulled down on the Pilot's 13, but on the second play thereafter, he passed to Bill Reder, Willamette end, in the end zone, and the 'Cats had scored again. Fitzgerald's attempted conversion was blocked.

Once more the Pilot's seemed to find themselves and started to roll, but it was just no use, for Jim Burgess, Willamette quarter snatched another Portland heave and scampered 65 yards behind beautiful down-field blocking to score standing up. Fitzgerald's attempted conversion was no good.

Willamette threatened again in the final period, going from their own 25 to the Portland 3 on a sustained drive. But there the gun denied the revenge-hungry 'Cats of another score.

Willamette gained 245 yards from scrimmage to Portland's 125. However, the Pilots chalked up 10 first downs to WU's nine.

Coming Events . . .

TODAY: 3-5 p. m. President's reception for students; library. 7-9 p. m. President's reception for alumni, friends; library. Vespers cabinet weekend retreat, Road's End.

Tomorrow: Jason Lee young people's part, Vespers as guests; Jason Lee church, 7:30 p. m.

Interfraternity pledge dance, Kappa house, 8:30-11:30 p. m.

SUNDAY: Dr. Knopf introductory service at First Methodist church, 11 a. m.

Dr. Knopf service at First Presbyterian church, 7:30 p. m.

MONDAY: YW transfer dinner, Chresto, 6 p. m.

WEDNESDAY: Delta Phi tea, 4-5 p. m.

Alpha Phi Alpha tea, 4:30-5:30 p. m.

Beta Chi tea, 5-6 p. m.

THURSDAY: Cookie Jar, First Methodist church, 3-5 p. m.

FRIDAY, Oct. 10: WU vs. Linfield at McMinnville.

Willamette Collegian

1842—Pioneer University of the West—1942

VOL. LIII

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1941

No. 3

Reception For Knopf Today

—Cut Courtesy Statesman

Pointing at the date, 1841, on the Oregon Institute marker in front of the gym, is Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf, new WU president. Looking on are two other newcomers—freshman coeds Marian Francis, Olympia, Wash., and Miriam Ferrin, Cottage Grove. Oregon Institute later became Willamette University.

Picture Deadline Set for Next Week

Have you had your picture taken? Saturday, October 11, is the deadline. Don't be left out. Go down to Kennell-Elis studio on the fourth floor of the Oregon building at the corner of State and High at once.

Matthews to Edit Guide

Students who have changed their addresses since the beginning of school should correct their directory cards immediately, urged Ruth Matthews, newly appointed editor of the 1941-42 Fusser's Guide, this week in her first official move.

Miss Matthews, Collegian staff member, yesterday accepted the appointment made by Ralph Schlesinger, publications manager.

Students' names in the new guide will be arranged in two alphabets, one listing men and the other women. With each student's name will be listed his home town, his class and his Salem address and telephone number.

The social calendar for the first semester will be printed in a separate section of the book. Any changes necessary should be reported to the registrar Monday.

Two Classes Name Representatives

Representatives to the ASWU council were elected this week by three classes in their initial meetings of the year.

Douglas Olds, holding over from last semester, represents the class of '42. Bob Perry was the sophomore selection. Rook representative is Richard Wicks. The juniors have not as yet elected their representative.

New representatives began their official duties at the first council meeting of the year this week.

'Roo Court Backed by Exec. Council

"Initiate the Frosh and make it stick! Or don't initiate at all." That was the decision of the ASWU executive council when the question came up Tuesday night at the group's first meeting.

Over the protests of Richard Wicks, freshman representative, the committee agreed to back the W Club in its program of teaching Frosh the approved code of behavior—in the customary manner.

During the meeting, which took place at the residence of Leslie J. Sparks, general manager, Richard Stacer was named to the post of Homecoming Manager and the group agreed to favor November 7 and 8 as the dates for Homecoming Weekend.

Considerable discussion took place as Marge Waters, first vice president, told of her plans for the social season. Miss Waters is planning several innovations in the way of student body social activities.

The committee voted in favor of student excursions to the Portland U-Willamette and WU-Linfield football games.

Budgets for the various departments will be discussed at the next meeting, October 13.

Bar Credits Law School

Willamette University Law school has just received its fully approved status by the American Bar Association, Dean George McLeod announced this week.

The school was inspected last May by Lawrence W. DeMuth of the University of Colorado law department.

Thirty students are registered in law this year, and the faculty includes: Dean McLeod, C. Inman Smith, Roy M. Lockenour, Ray L. Smith and Tom Pickett.

Students, Townspeople to Be Received Formally in Library

Students will have their first opportunity to meet Willamette's new president personally this afternoon at the formal reception, which climaxes his first week on the campus.

Reception for students will take place in the library between 3 and 5. Alumni and friends of Willamette will have the opportunity to meet Dr. and Mrs. Knopf from 8 to 10 this evening.

Stacer Heads Homecoming Activities

Nov. 7 Likely Date With CPS Game; Play Selection Soon

Richard Stacer, junior from Salem, last night accepted the managership and began at once working on plans for the Homecoming Weekend.

Friday night, Nov. 7, the Bearcats will battle the CPS Loggers in the Cats' third NW conference game, and although the date for Homecoming has not yet been definitely decided, it seems likely that weekend will be chosen.

For the Homecoming Play, the following night, Mrs. Margaret Ringmald has announced the tentative selection of "Yellow Jacket," a popular pseudo-Chinese novelty play now current in a New England little theater production starring Harpo Marx.

Tryouts were held Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, but the cast has not yet been announced.

Advance billing and ticket sales will get under way soon with Ralph Schlesinger in charge as business manager.

Conclave Due On Campus

Plans for the second Northwest Methodist Student conference, set for October 17, 18 and 19 on the Willamette campus, were furthered this week at a meeting of the local committee.

Bill Hobbs, Albany sophomore, is in general charge of the conference, for which over 100 students from 20 colleges in Oregon, Washington and Idaho are expected. The publicity chairman is Winston Taylor, who was elected at the first conference in Tacoma a year ago.

Committee chairmen are Harriett Monroe, campus arrangements; Carol Clark, meals; Ruth Cramer and Grace Covert, housing, and Corliss Clark, finance.

Student Handbook Well Received

Willamette men and women began receiving their copies of the Student Handbook early this week from the office of the general manager. General opinion seems to point toward favorable reception of the new innovations in the book. Mary Jo Griser, editor states. The work was done by the Capital City bindery.

Governor Charles Sprague, members of the board of trustees and prominent townspeople will be on hand to greet the new president and Mrs. Knopf. Faculty members, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Roy Keene, are assisting in receiving and introducing guests.

Library Colorful Setting

Willamette's three-year-old library has been lavishly decorated with autumn flowers and rearranged to make a most appropriate and colorful setting for one of the major social events of the season.

Dr. Knopf appeared officially for the first time on the campus when he spoke in chapel Tuesday, setting the key for the year's chapel services. His speech was well-received by the student body, as was his Thursday chapel speech. The speeches were broadcast to a large Willamette valley radio audience.

Included in the president's full first-week schedule was a meeting on Tuesday with the Centennial Committee and Alumni Committee. The new president commented on the excellent recommendation of Willamette that alumni over the country give to the school. He said it was a further indication of the fine, friendly spirit found on the campus. Exemplifying the school spirit was the alumni banquet given for the Knopfs on the eve of their departure from Los Angeles, attended by several hundred townspeople and organization representatives.

Hopes for Boy's Dorm

President Knopf commented yesterday on the fine physical plant at Willamette. He expressed his hope that a boy's dormitory might some day be built. "That is something we can dream of and work toward," he also expressed his hopes that maintenance shops for the campus might be established.

Concluding the week, Dr. Knopf will speak in two local church services Sunday. He will be the speaker at the morning service at the First Methodist church, and in the evening will be at the First Presbyterian Church.

Secrets of Chresto Revealed to Frosh

Freshmen—and others. Have you discovered Chresto? It's the little white cottage east of the library. Its uses are many and varied.

For getting out of the rain if the library is closed, for studying, for Chinese checkers, ping pong, piano practice and—oh—well, other extra-curricular activities.

See you at Chresto—

Collegian Editorials and Features

Willamette Collegian

"In age there is wisdom"

Official Publication ASWU

Editorial and Business Offices
Basement Waller Hall Phone 3088

Entered at the Postoffice at Salem, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second class matter. Published weekly except during examination and vacation periods. Subscription rate: $1.00 per year.

HALE TABOR
Editor

PAUL SHELDON
Managing Editor

DIX MOSER, News Editor
GRACE COVERT, Society Editor
MIRIAM JENSEN, Feature Editor
PAT WHITE, Circulation Manager

Business Staff
RALPH SCHLESINGER, Publications Manager
RUTH MATTHEWS, Assistant

Friendship

One of the first feelings stirred in the hearts of Willamette men and women by President Knopf's first talk to the student body was that of Friendship.

"Friendship, the greatest thing in the world." That's how Dr. Knopf expressed it. And we can't help but feel that his coming will mean the gaining of a great new friend for each WU student, each member of the faculty and each person off the campus who is interested in the continued growth of the school.

Friendship, however, should not be centered exclusively upon the campus. It should have a wider meaning for each of us. The world is large—so should be our love for our fellow men.

To make friends, one must be friendly. Practically no one feels anything but animosity toward Hitler and his kind because of the hates they have promoted. Here in America, the prejudices and enmities exhibited by many toward those who may happen to be of a different color, or who may not be quite as talented, or who may not be quite so physically able, are the same types of hate—but to a lesser degree—as those being fostered in Europe today. Therefore, it would seem that to have friends, one should avoid prejudices which are unfair and enmities which are based on half-truths.

Of course, it would be impossible to be a close friend to everyone but an amicable feeling will not be hard to gain if we stop and think of the good points of each person, each family or each race.

Let us first develop a sense of appreciation and understanding for each other. The resultant hard and fast friendships will come later.

"Vitalized" Chapel

Dr. Knopf presents a plan for a "Vitalized Chapel" which is sure to receive a cordial welcome from Willamette men and women interested in improvement of campus activities.

Dr. Knopf said Tuesday morning to a Collegian reporter that he "hoped to make the traditional chapel as vital as possible in terms of present day needs and attitudes. Chapel is not a high school assembly; it is church; but not in a stuffy, musty sense.

"In a mad world one must have a place and time for a moment's breath—even a whale comes up for air. Chapel should be a time of thought, meditation, sharing of ideas, enjoyment of fellowship. It is the one place where everyone, faculty member and student, meets everyone else on a common basis."

Dr. Knopf feels that "it would be a misrepresentation to say that the administration is back of all religious activity on the campus—it is in it." He went on to explain that on some campuses the administration approves of and gives its blessings to the religious activity of the school but does not participate, while here at Willamette not only the students but the administration enters into those activities.

A sample of campus opinion on Dr. Knopf's idea points toward an enthusiastic reception. His approachability, geniality and alertness seem to guarantee success for any plan he may advance.

Pride in the appearance of our campus should be felt by each and every Willamette student. Undoubtedly, we all feel a certain consciousness of the beauty of our buildings and grounds, of the modern efficiency of our newest buildings, of the traditions which surround Waller, Eaton, the "Chem Shack," and the others. Our campus is especially beautiful this year—probably because of the rainy summer—but the observation has been made several times this past week that perhaps we are not doing our part to keep it beautiful. For instance, the visitor crossing the campus can't help but notice the bicycles scattered around in front of each building. The school has placed a few racks at strategic places, more or less out of sight, where we should park our wheels. It's easy to park in the most convenient spot—we do it, too—but let's think of the beauty of the school.

Soldiers Need Friends

By MIRIAM JENSEN

With the excitement of registration and the prospects of a new school year we had almost forgotten that across the ocean there is war, and changes here at home are a result. Yesterday, the soldier was a stranger on the edge of society; today he is a relative or friend who is sadly missed; and soon we will see him as a lonely lad away from home who would welcome our regard and friendship. To date we've been missing that cue.

This summer saw much transportation of troops. One evening my two brothers and I drove slowly past a temporary camp. We noted the trucks and "jeeps" and the khaki-clad men. M.P.'s were blocking every road. A trio of soldiers standing by themselves called as we passed and we stopped.

"This is the two hundred and sixteenth regiment," one said "from Minn-ay-so-tah."

"We're the best bunch in the outfit, and we're all Democrats."

"Till this thing is over."

Spotting Bill, who was edging his way closer, the first soldier grinned broadly. He had nice teeth and eyes, and a clean-looking face.

"Well, look at that hair," he exclaimed, and turned a flashlight on Bill's tousled red head. He aimed the light at each of us in turn till he was satisfied at the relationship.

He and his buddies had been inducted in January. They were the only anti-aircraft regiment in the group. Headed for Vancouver to protect a trainload of soldiers from mock air attack, they had been driving since 4 in the morning. Having taken the eastern route from California, they could say little for the scenery they'd passed.

"But that part with all the waterfalls—we're starting that at 12:00 tonight. That's the kind of luck we have."

"Maybe we could turn our searchlights on 'em," offered one of the others. "Say, it's too bad you weren't up here earlier. They had 'em on, showing people how they work. It's wonderful." Several times he returned to the marvels of the searchlight, of the guns they had, and the target range in the Mojave desert. "A hundred and thirty in the shade with no shade."

"We start moving about 4 every morning. This time it's 12."

"When do you sleep?" I asked.

"We don't. That's why we yelled to you. Our nerves are all shot. Anything for relief. Some people up there gave us some water to wash with—just water for our hands and faces is what we get on the move. That's how it will be for the next three weeks. Nice clean, up-standing soldiers, hah!"

"See those M.P.'s? We've been confined for three nights now. I was on M.P. in Carson City." He mimicked a prayerful expression. "Please, please, boys, won't you go home? This outfit would as soon slug you as not. We're the worst bunch in the army—the worst and the best. Get 'em out in the field and they'll knock the sleeves right off those planes, just by shooting the ropes. That's how good we are."

"But you don't get anywhere in the army by being good. You've gotta be nice to somebody that counts. And we don't do that."

As he talked Bill had moved forward till he again attracted the fellows' attention.

"I know somebody that looks like you. It's my little sister. She's just your size." He grinned again at the kid with an expression of one who likes children. "Five sisters and no brothers. Do I look it?"

He paused. "Well, I suppose you folks want to move on. Thank you—for letting us talk."

"We enjoyed your company," I smiled.

"Well thanks," he said dryly, "everything helps."

"Yes, everything helps," I replied.

Slowly they walked back to the side of the road and sat down.

S W E E P I N G S

Huntley is back with time on his hands—two time, while Swenson is bowled over by the Max, Cleo, Vern, Sigg quartette.

Hap the jitter inebriates the Sigs while the Kappas have assumed the former's old reputation. Kicking the label around, eh, Mabel?

The famous Allen family donates Nancy Austin and Martin does the cartin'.

Association of ideas—Acheson and Stephey.

Boneyard Laughlin gives us the feminine touch and Mary is nothing prehistoric.

Hamilton looked the Freshman Republican crop down and up and has forewarned—the old party for Democrat Waters.

Sandy Joe Mills' suitors are in the dog house . . . Poochie holds first place—that lets Smiley Herold out! Signed, Unfinished Business.

Little Waif-ers

Eaton Sees Wild Stampede

Early last Friday afternoon we were walking down the hall of Eaton when the door of 27 suddenly opened and we narrowly escaped being trampled in the rush. Thinking it might be a fire, we also broke into a trot and found ourself running beside Bob Dean.

"Is something burning?" we asked, much concerned.

"No," he panted as a sudden burst of speed took him sliding down the steps. "We just learned there are only 11 copies of Secondary Ed. at the bookstore, and 13 of us want them."

Add Things We Didn't Know Till Now—that Dr. Thompson was one-time tennis champion of Drew University.

About Face

Coe Roberts once confided to Prof. Jones of the economics department that he was considering Oregon as a place to complete his major. Prof. Jones dismissed the thought with "You're crazy." Last week they met on the Oregon campus. The professor had transferred.

Female of Species More Deadly Than Male

The Oregon College of Education has approximately 300 women and 25 men. Our first thought is "What do those men think they're doing, attending a girls' school like that?"

Course to Be Missed

We're sorry to see that Prof. Rhodes is not offering his course in "Choosing and Planning a Career" this fall. However, Mr. Casper C. Callopie, member of our (personal) advisory committee, thinks there should be quite a future in the installation of air conditioning of European history rooms.

INTRODUCING . . .

By DOROTHY BURTON

This year there are many new faces on the campus, and among them is one whom all of you will come to know. That is the face of Ken Kurita, a freshman from Hawaii.

If you should get to talking with Ken, you will probably learn many interesting facts. Here are a few he told us, and we pass them on to you.

Ken has had an experience which is quite unique: attending the two oldest schools this side of the Rockies. It is well known that Willamette University is the oldest institution of higher learning this side of the Rocky Mountains, but it is not the oldest school. That one is Lahainaluna High School in Hawaii, founded in 1831 by missionaries, which Ken Kurita attended before coming here.

When asked why he chose WU as the place to complete his education Ken answered that his pastor, Rev. Sherwood, came to school here, and liked it so much, he influenced Ken to come. Ken also mentioned that Rev. Sherwood played football during his college days.

It was a five-day trip from Hawaii. Three of these days were spent on the luxury liner, Lurline, crossing the wide expanse of water which separates Hawaii from the U.S. After spending a night in San Francisco, Ken continued his journey, and arrived in Salem on September 5th.

Another Hawaiian is due to arrive on the campus in a few days—this time, fellows, a girl.

BACK in the STACKS

Tuesday the Recreational Reading Contest met to establish the rules for the Recreational Reading Contest. Mary Barker was elected chairman of the committee. Other members are Helen Chirgwin, Gene Huntley, and Bob Voigt.

Mr. Spencer will give three prizes for winning book reviews. The first of $10, second $7, and Freshman prize of $7. The list of books will be published very shortly and such good books as the Soong Sisters by Emily Hahn, Churchill's Blood, Sweat, and Tears, and Living Treasure by Sanderson will be found there.

Those who heard Dr. E. Stanley Jones last year will want to read his latest book, Is the Kingdom of God Realism which is also on the list.

The contest will close February 25, 1942, and the prizes will be presented soon afterwards.

THEY WENT ON TOGETHER —Robert Nathan

"They went on together because there was nothing else to do." Nathan's latest book is a very impressionable account of people—people who, driven by the spearhead of circumstance, are struggling for a chance to live. This is a very simple story of ordinary people in the path of invasion. Though not based on fact, it is real because war is real and because Sylvie and Paul and Maria Rose are real and can be found anywhere among the crowds of fleeing refugees.

Nathan's book has been purchased recently for the library and is found on the list for the Recreational Reading Contest.

—Reviewed by Mary Barker.

Willamette Has Definite Place-Knopf

New Prexy Greet WU With Speech

Chapel Scene of First Campus Appearance; Many Hear Address

Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf made his initial appearance as president of Willamette university Tuesday morning at a large chapel assembly. Students and visitors rose and applauded when Dean Luther introduced the president to the Willamette student body. Among visitors were Governor Sprague, members of the board of trustees and numerous townspeople. The service was broadcast to a large radio audience.

Dr. Knopf declared that there is a definite place in the world today for schools like Willamette University. "A new system will not make the 'brave new world' we hear so much about. We are dealing with individuals. Only 'brave new people' will make a 'brave new world.'"

He pointed out that students must think in terms of great principles discovered through the centuries. "We sometimes suspect that we live in a world of variables, but we must realize that there are certain immutables in the world. Truth is universal."

"The reason we have Willamette is that some things can be done better here than anywhere else. There is a certain plus you can add, a frindliness not found elsewhere. You are given a chance to develop to your full capacity. At Willamette we have a process of personal development and adjustment."

He expressed his hope that democracy would continue to prevail on the campus. "When you complain to those who can do nothing about wrongs, you have gossip. When you go to those who will help to correct the wrongs, you have democracy, and we want democracy on the campus."

"We anticipate a great year. There are to be no barriers between administration and students."

"Remember," he concluded, "that you are the only church some people will ever attend, the only Bible some people will ever read, the only Willamette some will ever know, the only Christ some people will ever see."

All Teachers Secure Jobs

One hundred per cent of the education majors of last year's graduating class have teaching positions this fall. Following is the list of graduates and their positions:

Paul Bennett, Lewis & Clark Jr. high school, Astoria; Don Ewing, Grants Pass high; Winston Bunnell, Irrigon high; Mary Head, Redmond high; Lois Herman, Carlton high; Marjorie Herr, Hood River Jr. High; Ruby Mulvihill, Jewell high; Helen Neiger, Lexington high; Frances Pickard, Ontario high; Jessie Mae Ruhndorf, Jacksonville high; Muriel Smithson, in Idaho; Thomas Terjeson, Camas, Washington; Loraine Vick, Turner high; Justin Weakley, Grants Pass high; Everett Wilcox, O.S.B., Salem; Margaret Wright, Hepner high.

Of the Willamette alums who are teaching, some have changed their locations as follows:

Robert Nelson, Oswego grade school; Muriel White, West Linn; Gertrude Roenicke, Pendleton; George Abbott, Dallas; Barbara Crookham, McMinnville; Seymour Feathers, Umatilla; Verdelle Ragsdale, Camas, Washington; Paul Cammack, principal at Gates; Dorothy Hutchason, Grants Pass; Claire Wells Palmer, Gold Hill.

Lawrence Edwards, Silverton; Margaret Morris, Bend; Delight Heath, Sutherlin; Barbara Jones, Paisley; Edna Luther, Athens; Neil Irvine Keefer, Nehalem; Mrs. Travenner, Shedd; Edna Savage Olson, Washington high, Portland; June Johnson Skopil, Dayton; David Leek, Arago; Sally Reed, Colton, and Gerald Burnett, Silverton.

Senior Has Unique Summer; Appears in Eastern Theatres

By Madge Thompson

Returning to Willamette after playing six weeks of stock in New England theaters, drama major Helen Newland can perhaps boast of the most unique of summer experiences. While other students were probably earning fall tuition or enjoying a leisurely summer vacation, Miss Newland, as a member of the colony known as the Plymouth Drama Festival, was gaining valuable theatrical experience by playing such towns as historic Duxburg, Cotuit, Oysterville and Harwick, and also appearing in numerous radio shows.

She was not only cast in a play every week, but was given the character role in such plays as "Sorority House," "All Roads Lead to Hollywood," "Cradle Snatchers," and "Pride and Prejudice." She played the lead in "Fresh Fields."

Of the 80 students in the colony, Miss Newland was the only one from Oregon, and one of the 40 on scholarships. The colony consisted of two touring units, one remaining at the main theater, while the other traveled.

Some of the most striking features of her summer colony experiences were the yachting par-

Dr. R. I. Lovell

Ad Manager Boosts School

Among ardent Willamette boosters are not only alumni but people who have had opportunity to observe and meet students over a period of years. One of these boosters is Stanley E. Keith who shares with alums the enthusiasm for the century-old school that serves to characterize it.

Stan Keith, as he is known to his friends described his associations with Willamette as "very, very pleasant." He went on to describe the cooperation and friendliness of the students as he has known them in his official capacity as advertising manager at Miller's and over the period of 21 years he has been with Millers.

"Each year I anticipate the opening of another school year and the pleasure I receive from meeting new students," commented this enthusiastic Willamette booster.

ties that attended the plays, the isolation of being without radios and newspapers, and the autograph hunters. Helen said, "We tried to appear nonchalant when asked for our autographs, but it was difficult."

Miss Newland met many important personages who were visiting this colony: Mr. George Santelli, World Master of Fencing; Max Gordon, renowned Broadway producer; Joe Holden, Broadway talent scout; and Mrs. Fishbein, M-G-M photographer, and playbroker who introduced Hart and Kaufman.

Helen has an extension of her scholarship to attend the colony next summer, and says she will be delighted to return.

Dr. R. I. Lovell Repeats for Lecture Series

Portland Forum Bills Authorities On Current Affairs

The only speaker scheduled to speak twice on this year's Civic Center Forum series, Dr. Ivan Lovell, head of the WU history department, will lecture at the Jewish Community Center in Portland on both Nov. 9 and 16.

Breaking a strict policy of having no repeaters on its lecture programs, the Forum invited Dr. Lovell to return to its series this year, making him the only speaker carried over from last year.

Subject of Dr. Lovell's address will be "Defending America—Why and How."

The series will also include such speakers as Sinclair Lewis, Jay Allen and Stuart Chase.

Busy Time for News Bureau

Facing the task of handling much of the publicity from Willamette as it enters its centennial year, the University News Bureau is preparing for a season of extensive activity, according to Marion Sanders, editor.

Miss Sanders, last year's Collegian editor, and her staff, Betty Thelander, Bob Blanding and Stan Nystrom, are already busy sending news of general interest to northwest papers and giving news releases to campus correspondents from the Salem and Portland dailies. The group plans to send exclusive stories to students' home town papers.

The bureau is sharing the student body office in the basement of Waller hall with President Ralph May. Office hours are from 8:30 to 9:30 a. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday; 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. on Tuesday and Thursday and from 2 to 5 p. m. each afternoon.

WU Grad Works On Atom-Smasher at UC

Clyde Wiegand, '40, graduate of Willamette, is now working with O. E. Lawrence, world figure in physics, on Lawrence's giant cyclotron, better known as the atom-smasher. Wiegand is a graduate student at University of California.

Dr. Thompson Completes Series

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson this week concluded a series of six lectures at the Portland School of Religion. Speaking on "Bible Manners and Customs," Dr. Thompson completed his fourth summer of lecturing at the school.

Dean of the school was Miss Pearl Sherlock, director of religious education in the Oregon Methodist conference.

Frosh Coed Struck by Car

Ruth Gluckman, Willamette freshman, was seriously injured Wednesday morning when she was struck by an automobile as she was leaving the campus.

The accident occurred at the corner of State and 12th streets during a rain storm which is believed to have impaired the vision of Delbert Gosser of 833 Marion Street, driver of the car.

Miss Gluckman was treated by the first aid car, and then was taken to the Salem Deaconess Hospital, where she is suffering from a fractured pelvis, a fractured ankle, and numerous abrasions. Her condition, according to hospital attaches, was said to be as good as could be expected.

Miss Gluckman has only been a resident of this country for eight months, coming here, with her family, from Danzig, Germany, and England. Her family now resides at 845 Chemeketa street.

According to Dr. Ralph Purvine, school doctor, Miss Gluckman will be allowed no visitors for a few days. Later however, she will appreciate visits from her classmates.

YW GIVES DINNER HONORING WOMEN TRANSFER STUDENTS

Women transfer students will be welcomed to the campus next Monday with a dinner in their honor. Sponsored by the campus YW, the dinner is scheduled for 6 p. m. in Christo Cottage.

Glennerva Harnsberger is in charge of the plans and arrangements.

Double-Checked Prescription Filling

—is your guarantee of quality service as well as quality merchandise . . . Your prescriptions will get better attention at our store.

SHEAFFER Drug Store

Jim's

Shoe Service

(SHYNE SHOPPE)

147 N. High St. Ph. 7000

Better Shoe Repairing
Shining and Dyeing

W. U. Students

Look over our large selection of

- School Supplies
- Stationery
- Cosmetics
- Personal Needs

We Maintain "Fair Trade" Prices

CAPITAL VARIETY STORE

1262 State - 1/2 Block East from Campus

CALL BOARD

Liberty Theater

Fri. and Sat., Oct. 3 and 4—
Fargo Kid—Tim Holt.

Seven Sinners—Marlene Dietrich and John Wayne.
News and Comedy.

Sun., Mon., Tues., Oct. 5, 6 & 7—
The Bank Dick—W. C. Fields.
Conway, Chas. Brook, Judy Campbell. Comedy.

Wed. and Thurs., Oct. 8 and 9—
Red Head—Tim McCoy.
Marked Men—John Barrymore, Virginia Bruce.
News and Novelty.

HARTMAN BROS.

JEWELERS

Gifts You Love to Give and Get
Corner State and Liberty Sts.

Jolene Shoes

STYLED IN HOLLYWOOD

Brogues for the Young Men

STYLE ARCH SHOE CO.

357 STATE STREET

Willamette University

Liberal Arts • Laws • Music
SALEM, ORE. — FOUNDED FEB. 1, 1842

- Highest Accredited
- Pre-professional Curricular
- Exceptional Location
- Reasonable Expenses
- Christian—Non-Sectarian

"AN OUTSTANDING AMERICAN INSTITUTION"
Bulletin on Request

Society Notes

GRACE COVERT
SOCIETY EDITOR

Sororities Will Entertain At Teas on Wednesday

Alpha Phi Alpha, Delta Phi and Beta Chi sororities are giving all freshmen women and new coeds an opportunity to become acquainted with sorority life next Wednesday when each house entertains with a formal tea in their respective chapter houses.

Delta Phi sorority, 1610 Court street, will entertain from 4 to 5 o'clock. Here Jean Kohagen will greet guests at the door and Eloise Findley will have charge of the guest book.

Betty Keller will introduce to the receiving line in which Esther Gunnesdal, Mrs. Frank James, Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Mrs. J.W.C. Harper and Mrs. L. S. Covert will stand.

Mrs. Herbert Rahe and Mrs. Daniel Schulze will pour at a table with an ecru lace cloth upon which will be placed an arrangement of bronze gladiolas in a copper bowl. Other rooms will be decorated with gladiolas of fall colors.

Bernice Marcy is in charge of refreshments, Marian Hermanek heads the entertainment committee and Mrs. Robert Rieder and Maxine Holt are in charge of the decorations.

Alpha Phi Alpha at Home

Alpha Phi Alpha, 965 Court street is entertaining from 4:30 to 5:30.

Introducing to the line will be Dorothy Tate; in the receiving line will be Gayle Dennison, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Dean Olive M. Dahl and Mrs. Fred Thompson. In the dining room, Mrs. Earl Snell and Mrs. George Rossman will preside at the urns.

Candle-Lighted

The candle lighted rooms will be decorated with fall flowers of varied hues.

Dolly Cullens is in charge of the decorations and Olivia Olsen heads the refreshment committee.

Beta Chi at Five

Beta Chi sorority, 1445 State street, will be hostesses from 5 to 6 o'clock.

Mary Jane Huston will receive guests at the door. Dorothy Moore will introduce to the line in which will be Barbara Hollingworth, Mrs. Charles McCarr-ger, Mrs. C. A. Sprague and Mrs. Chester Luther.

Mrs. E. C. Richards and Mrs. Paul Wallace will pour during the tea hour.

The rooms will be adorned with autumn flowers and green foliage.

Barbara Minor is in charge of decorations and Cleo Nilsson is in charge of serving.

Fraternities Announce Pledges

Culminating a week of informal dances and stag parties, pledge lists were announced last Friday by the three fraternities.

Heading the list is Sigma Tau with 21 new pledges: Lawrence Wills, Ted Jones, Rogue River; Gordon Kunke, Turner; Jerry Anderson, Clarence Walden, Vancouver; Bob Ratcliffe, Vern Summers, Portland; James Glaspe, Keith Reischle, Jack Glaspe, Juneau, Alaska; Robert V. Smith, Cashmere; Bill Whitmore, Camas; Max Coleman, St. Paul; Bob Findley, Rickreall; Earle Hampton, Idanha; Richard Adams, Silverton; Bill Habernicht, Bud Richey, Dick Casteel, Edward Johnson and Lyle White, Salem.

Kappa Gamma Rho announces as new pledges, Bob Lee, Baker; Marvin Hansen, Seaside; Wally Johnson, Oregon City; Herb Simpson, Alaska; Don Ackley, Bend; Dale Gallihur, Dick Stremmler, Sid Southwick, Jim Morrell, Al O'Donnell, Marvin Bazzell, Portland; Brady Gallagher and Ralph Bauer, Salem.

Alpha Psi Delta has pledged Bill Jones, Frank Evans, Daryl Drorbaugh, Bill Merriott, Fred Bradshaw, Bob Gardner, Salem; Paige Ebert, Portland; Percy Baker, Adams; Glenn Nordquist, Dave Kelly, LaGrande; Bob Weaver, Ashland, and Bob Walker, Warrenton.

Mrs. Roy S. Keene who has been heading the committees which have planned the Faculty-Trustee reception honoring Dr. and Mrs. Knopf. The affair which is an event of today will be in the University library between the hours of 3 and 5 for students. Townspeople will greet the couple this evening from 8 until 10.—Cut courtesy Statesman

Delta Phi's Are Guests Of Sigs

In order that Freshmen week, with all its glory, traditions and high-lights, would not stop, the Sigma Tau fraternity entertained Saturday night with an informal house dance with the members of the Delta Phi sorority.

Under the guidance of the Delta Phi house mother, who spent the evening reading the 21-year-old guest book of Sigma Tau, the party got under way with dancing in the first two living rooms and several games of bridge in the fireplace room.

Around 11 o'clock, the house chimes were sounded indicating that refreshments were being served in the dining room. At this time, the guests adjourned downstairs to the table where they were served peaches and whipped cream, cookies and coffee. Later, everyone grouped around the piano where the new Sig theme song, "Chatanooka Choo Choo" was sung. The party ended at 11:45 leaving time for the girls to be escorted home.

It's Miller's For Accessories...!

MAKE MUCH OF LITTLE WARDROBES! We have the accessories that offer variety for the simplest costumes. A tailored handbag... luxuriously jeweled necklace... a pert scarf or swanky gloves... you'll never want for ideas, and our prices fit any budget.

HIS BECOMES
"hers"

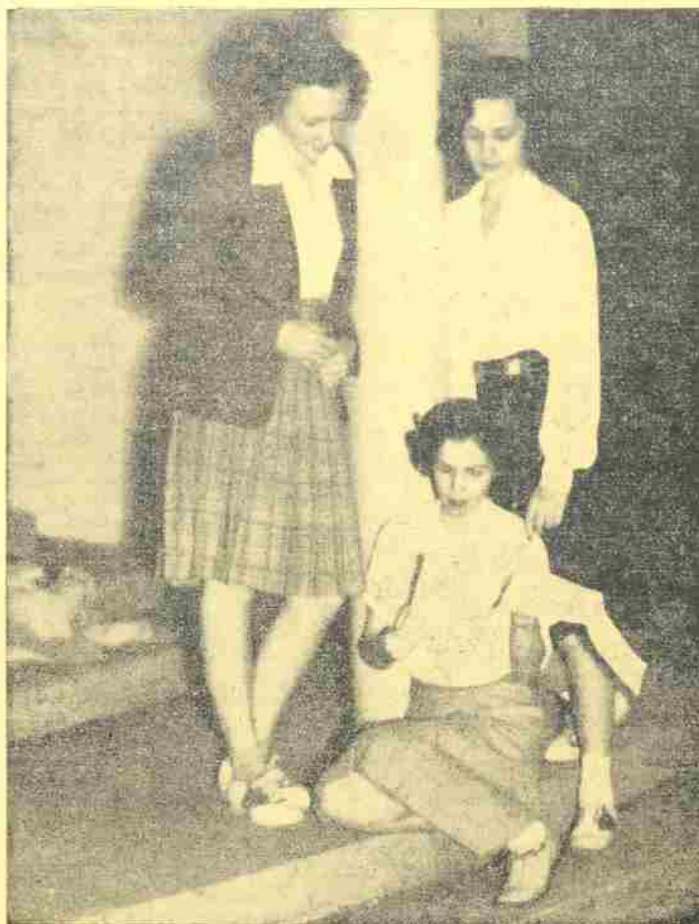

HAND-MATES
by HANSEN

For the little bit of boy in every good little girl — these original mannish, tailored gloves for women. Fine cotton or sporty leathers. You'll want a pair of both!

Miller's

Caught by the camera on registration day were Elaine Murray and Mary studies the class schedules as Sally McClelland and Joyce Harper look on. Laughlin as they entered Waller hall. On the library steps, Aileen Hutchinson —Cut courtesy Statesman

Party Is Tomorrow Night

Games and folk dancing will be the main event of the evening Saturday when Mr. Spencer's Sunday School class at the Jason Lee Methodist church entertains with a party at the church. All Willamette students are urged to attend for an evening of fun. The party is scheduled to start at 7:30 in the fireplace room.

Luann Green, Doris Doughton and Carol Clark are in charge of plans for the affair.

Just LOOKIN'

By RUTHANNE THOMPSON

Registration, receptions and "get togethers." Yep! It's all over now and things are more or less back into the old routine—classes and studying!

Speakin' of classes—here's a course in good classwear. Classroom credits in the Three S's—sweaters, skirts and suits. (BETTY COOPER'S red and black plaid skirt is "tops".)

The football season is off to a swell start with a Victory for W.U. Contrary to "Spec's" belief, all the thrills of the football season won't be on the field this year. No-streel just take a look at the striking colors, the bold plaid designs. As dashing as the speedy quarterbacks themselves, will be the striped patterns and two tone color combinations. (MADGE THOMPSON'S red and green plaid jerkin not to be forgotten.)

Ya' know, this 4 male to 1 female ratio is no joke. Not that we're much worried but it's a pre-dawn bugle to be prepared for doin' our own defense work with 100% more efficiency than the ordinary peace routines call for. Just what'll the well-dressed coed wear! Well, first of all, here's a "must have." Plenty of those mannish tailored shirts to give you that luxurious, crisp look. BETTY JEANNET has one with her initials embroidered in red on the collar. DOROTHY ESTES adorns hers with a brown (wooden) scottle dog.

Nowadays, hair pieces are bought with as much concern as a new hat or lipstick. LUCILLE MCINTYRE wears an attractive barettie to set off her pretty locks. And here's a flash! JAN JOHNSON shoes her feet with something new in the wooden type. A boy and girl painted on each shoe. Attractive, original and colorful! Costume jewelry and how we love it—from SHIRLEY MCKAY's silver padlock bracelet to MARY GRACE COX'S silver necklace of balls, nothing short of smart. We'll give RUTH FINNEY A-plus on those seamless stockings.

NANCY AUSTIN is off to a 7:45 (at 8:00) in a new beige knit jerkin. The LILBURN TWINS sipping a coke at Stubby's in blue corduroy dresses, and CLEO NISSEN in chapel in a pair of those new multi-striped sox.

There's no getting around it! Willamette coeds are all armed with fall's latest finery, so let's just give three cheers for try-oomph and sign off for now.

T. W. Creech
DRUGS

1226 State Street
Salem Dial 0527 Oregon

Buffet Supper Precedes Game

Preceding the football game last Friday evening, Rowena Upjohn entertained at a charmingly arranged buffet supper at the home of her parents.

The hostess who was a junior at Willamette last year, has been visiting in Salem the last two weeks. She is now taking nurses training at the Multnomah county hospital in Portland.

The serving table was graced with a lace cloth and centered with a huge bouquet of cardinal and yellow roses. Small tables about the rooms were also decorated with cardinal and yellow rosebuds, carrying out the school colors.

Covers were placed for Esther Mae Devore, Betty Keller, Chloe Anderson, Gwen Griffith, Elvy Fredrickson, Martha Rose Roddy, Margaret Upjohn, Grace Covert, Nadine Oreutt, Iras McCurdy, Hazel Bunnell, Joan DuRette, Jane MacLachlan, Betty Sackett, Maxine Holt, Dorothea Greenwood and the hostess, Rowena Upjohn.

Cap and Gown Has Luncheon

Members of Cap and Gown met at the Quelle for luncheon and business meeting last Wednesday at 10. Chloe Anderson, president of the group presided. Plans were discussed for the year's work.

70

Years as banking headquarters for students of Willamette.

RESOURCES OVER
200 MILLIONS

Ladd & Bush
Salem Branch

of the
United States
National Bank

of Portland
MEMBER FDIC

The SPA

382 State St.

Downtown Home of Willamette Students

and

The Famous

"Juicy Jumbo"

(Patented)

HAMBURGERS

Billings Armstrong

announce a special
Ballroom Class

To Be Offered to the
Students of W.U.

8 Lessons $5

Registration Monday, October 6

When your heart says
"Remember," nothing
takes the place of flowers
from

Breithaupt's

447 Court St

Phone 9195

SPORT LIGHTS

By GIL LIESER

Inefficiency "Blitzkriegs" Portland Excursion

Student body spirit, athletically speaking, was dealt a body blow this week when plans for the traditional Willamette-Portland U. game excursion were kept in the air until the 11th hour by difficulties arising within administration circles.

Since entering Willamette we have been under the impression that our faculty members and student body officers traditionally had this institution's school spirit at heart, and were anxious to see that our athletic representatives were accorded the student support they so much deserve. That a program fostered by the rally committee for the largest excursion in the annals of Bearcat-Pilot football rivalry should be knocked into a cocked-hat by delays within the administration seems to us to be in direct antithesis of our earlier impression.

In all fairness to those responsible for okaying the excursion, they should have been notified in advance of last Monday that plans were under way . . . BUT, this granted, why it required four days to reach a definite decision remains as much a mystery to us as to the many loyal students who anxiously waited that length of time to learn whether they could make the trip and support our Bearcat team.

Athletic Heads Not at Fault

Accusations that the blame should be placed with the heads of the athletic department for scheduling the game for a week day night are false and unjust. The date for the game was necessitated by the impossibility of re-conditioning the turf of Multnomah stadium in the intervening time between a game, if played this evening, and tomorrow afternoon's important clash between Oregon State and Washington. Hence a Thursday night game was the only alternative.

The fact that a few faithful supporters, endowed with the patience of Job, still made the trip after four days of suspense, using transportation made possible at such a late date by the efforts of Les Sparks is a tribute to the high moral of school spirit which pervades the campus this fall.

The cooperation exhibited by Dr. Knopf in taking time from the many tasks connected with his new office to intervene and save the excursion is an encouraging indication that the present student support for athletic events which has been long sought will not be undermined by further complications in the future.

The situation which occurred this week presents a challenge to our rally committee, and to the administrative heads involved to bend every effort towards closer coordination in all such matters to insure against a recurrence of this week's events which cannot but prove detrimental to the new order of school spirit we are all contributing to foster.

Fans Quick to Defend Our Bearcats

A matter has come to our attention this week which we believe deserves airing at this time, as an excellent example of the support and loyalty the Willamette Bearcats and more particularly the individual team members are accorded by off campus followers.

Uncomplimentary criticism has been leveled this week at the sportscasters who handled last Friday night's play-by-play at Sweetland field by sundry persons who received the game via the airlines. Their accusations, which we do not believe are unjust, were to the effect that the men at the mike were placing their own interpretations on the game in progress and at times questioning the judgment of the signal-callers.

The announcers at fault know, as do all the members of the sports covering clan, that their job is to transmit to their audience an accurate account of the proceedings on the field, untinted by personal comment as to the judgment, be it wise or poor, of the individual participants. This has long been a code in athletics, and one which all sincere broadcasters and writers endeavor to follow and uphold.

Hence, we are certain that any remarks guilty of being open to misconstruction, were made unintentionally and without purpose to condemn the actions of any individual in the game. However, this does not in any way excuse such errors; they are needless and should not be repeated.

We are sure that the interest in Willamette athletics and their representatives shown by persons outside our school circles, in calling this matter to the attention of authoritative parties, provides a definite example of the fine support our athletic program is receiving this year from off-campus fans, and will serve to impress the announcers in error with their responsibilities to the team members and to the loyal public.

Bearcats Strong in Reserves

Conjecturing as to any football team's chances for a successful season at this early date is a fatal mistake, but we can't help but marvel at Willamette's power both in the line and backfield as displayed against the College of Idaho; granted of course that the Coyotes looked like nothing more than an average Northwest conference club in their Salem appearance at least.

One item which particularly caught our attention was the apparently little difference, if any, between the Bearcat team

Bearcats Trample Coyotes 52-0

Stewart Leads Score Parade

Backs Amass 547 Yards, 17 Firsts; Coyotes None

Leaving little doubt as to the swath they again plan to cut in the Northwest conference, Willamette's mighty Bearcats rolled over the College of Idaho in a 52 to 0 blitzkrieg last Friday evening on Sweetland field.

The Keenemen were complete masters of the lopsided game from the fourth play of the game, when Gene Stewart danced to a 50-yard touchdown around left end, until the final gun brought a reprieve for the badly battered Coyotes.

Willamette's juggernaut pounded and passed to six touchdowns with monotonous regularity in the second and third stanzas, and added an eighth score in the final period despite numerous penalties. Bill Reder, who had a great evening of pass-snagging, and burly James Fitzgerald, promising freshman guard, each contributed two conversions.

Gene Stewart raced to two touchdowns, while the others were distributed between Ted Ogdahl, Chuck Furno, Ken Jacobsen, Buddy Reynolds, Bill Reder and Earl Hampton.

The College of Idaho team, besides failing to make a first down from scrimmage and being thrown for nearly twice the yardage they gained, only had the ball in their possession beyond the midfield stripe. This was late in the fourth period, when they recovered the lone Bearcat fumble of the game on the latter's 42, only to lose it again after retreating in the usual manner for three plays.

Behind a fast and hard-charging line, Willamette's three quartets of backs found no trouble in rolling up 407 yards from scrimmage against one yard lost, while Stewart and Reynolds were adding 138 yards with their aerial antics.

Goodman	REL	Rogers
Deiner	RTL	Franks
Moore	RGL	Starns
White	C	Marcussen
Fraiola	LGR	Hay
Morley	LTR	Schmidt
Reder	LER	Moore
Jacobsen	Q	Christian
Ogdahl	LHR	Sherman
Stewart	RHL	Camman
Walden	F	Hayman

Substitutes: Willamette—Conner, Burgess, Hampton, Reynolds, Peterson, Furno, Wardell, backs; Barrett, Cookingham, Barbour, Kelley, Walden, Kurtz, Constable, Randall, Barstad, Rogers, Olsen, Bennett, Fitzgerald, Idaho—Phillips, Tamura, Milligan, Holmes, Gibson, Aguir, backs; Duncan, Tucker, Davis, Christian, Skinner, Callahan.

Officials: Doug Lowell, W.S.C., referee; Wes Schulmerich, O.S.C., umpire; Al Lightner, Compton J.C., field judge; Ralph Coleman, head linesman.

Bearcat Teams Show Impressive Grid Record

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S Bearcats won the Pacific Northwest conference football championship in 1934, 1935, 1936, 1937, 1940, and tied for the title in 1938.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S Bearcats have won 13 and tied ones in their last 14 homecoming games.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S Bearcats hold the Northwest conference record for consecutive league victories, a total of 27 straight wins recorded through the years 1933 to 1938 inclusive.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S Bearcats placed one man a year upon the little all-American honorary eleven for six consecutive years following its inception in 1934. Though they did not place a representative on the first eleven last year, two Bearcats received little all-American recognition. They were Al Walden, Willamette's ace running threat and long distance punter, and Anthony Jo Fraiola, a sensational freshman guard who received all-star honors on the all-opponent teams of every club Willamette faced.

1934	Grannis	guard
1935	Oravec	halfback
1936	Welsgerber	fullback
1937	Becken	end
1938	Abbott	end
1939	Holland	guard

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S Bearcats scored 132

points to 6 for their opponents last year as they rolled to their sixth Northwest conference championship in seven years.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY'S Bearcats have won 34 and tied 2 in their last 40 home games.

RAMAGES

LEARN TO DANCE!

Alfred Lauraine, Dance Master

155 S. Liberty

Telephone 5955

SPECIAL CLASSES FOR WILLAMETTE STUDENTS
BEGINNING - ADVANCED

Waltz - Fox Trot - Rumba - Collegiate - Boogie

EATS

DRINKS

--at--

STUBBY'S

Opposite Lausanne MILLS 227 South Winter

Get Your Dog From "Stubby" At Concession Stand and Coffee

DRY CLEANING

- SAFE
- SANITARY
- ODORLESS

WIEDER'S
Salem Laundry Company

263 South High Street

Phone 9125

Complete

PRINTING

Service

Statesman

PUBLISHING COMPANY

Publishers

Oregon Statesman

215 South Commercial St.

Bearcat SPORTS

GIL LIESER, Editor

Robertson Is 'Mural Director

Jimmy Robertson, veteran four-year baseball and basketball letterman was appointed intra-mural director by Les Sparks yesterday.

Immediately formulating plans for a better-than-ever Mural program Robertson asked that representatives of all organizations and independent groups planning to enter teams in intra-mural competition meet with him in the gymnasium at the chapel period next Monday. One and possibly two passball leagues will swing into action at an early date. A speedball circuit will also be organized if there is enough demand for one.

Any representatives unable to attend the Monday meeting should notify Robertson beforehand or leave word in the graduate manager's office to facilitate early formation of the leagues.

Owens Back On Cat Squad

Neil Owens, sophomore letterman fullback, who had been counted on to carry the load with Al Walden until he received a draft notice recently, is back in Bearcat football togs this week. Owens, who dropped off the club last week when he was ordered to report October 16th, will remain with the Bearcat squad until again called.

Grid Scorecasts

By the Editor

Battling Average

Correct 10
Incorrect 2
Percentage .836

Another weekend, another crack at west coast gridiron duels.

As we write this before hopping the bus for tonight's traditional battle between Willamette University and the Portland Pilots we feel quite certain of at least one thing; the jinx that "Square-jaw" Matty Mathews has held over the heads of our Bearcats since taking over the reigns at PU four years ago is due to be split wide open this evening. But the matter that puzzles us is what the final score will be. Last week we played conservative and with shaking hand delt out a two touchdown margin to the Beenemen over College of Idaho. The readers know the rest.

The Pilots are certainly improving each day over their miserable showing of two weeks ago against the Hulamen but so are our Bearcats progressing. In a venturesome spirit we'll name this one, 27 to 13 in favor of the Cardinal and Gold clan, feeling that when two man-in-motion systems tangle, a flock of touchdowns are bound to result.

Out of Seattle, with blood in their eyes, come Jimmy Phelan's rough and ready Huskies, set to give the equally rugged Oregon State Beavers a bad afternoon Saturday. From here it looks like Washington to begin a Pacific Coast conference housecleaning with a two touchdown victory.

Elsewhere along the grid front it looks like—

California over W.S.C.

Oregon over Idaho.

Stanford over U.C.L.A.

Ohio State over U.S.C.

Gonzago over College of Idaho.

Santa Clara over Loyola.

Nevada over U.S.F.

Whittier over Cal. Aggies.

Santa Barbara over Redlands.

Colorado State over Wyoming.

Ogdahl, Furno Top 'W' Backs

Ted Ogdahl and Chuck Furno, the man-in-motion left halfbacks in Spec Keene's No. 1 and No. 2 Bearcat elevens are away out in front of their brother backs in average yards gained from scrimmage.

However, each has carried the ball but five times in amassing their spectacular averages. Ogdahl has lugged the pigskin 87 yards with no yards lost for a respectable 17.4 figure, while Furno tops the Bearcat pack with 97 yards gained against none lost for 19.4 yards per carry.

Al Walden, has waltzed 122 yards in 18 attempts for a 6.77 figure, just a few percentage points under his last year's average which carried him to nation-wide fame as the third highest ball carrying average in the country.

Gene Stewart who romped to two touchdowns against the College of Idaho has a 9.1 average for 91 yards gained in 10 trips with the cow-hide.

Gene Stewart, triple-threat letterman halfback, is proving one of the chief cogs in the Bearcat grid machine in its drive towards a tenth Northwest conference title.

'Mural Musings

By B. M. Habernicht

Even though an Intramural sports manager has just been announced for this year, big plans are coming out of Les Sparks' office to make this a red letter year in the intramural program of Willamette.

It was learned that pass football and speedball will probably begin this coming week and that any persons or organizations wishing to take part in these activities should put in their applications immediately at Mr. Sparks' office in the gym.

Intramural tennis and golf may be added to the ever growing list of sports included in the program.

Freshmen and Sophomores may participate in intramural sports during noon hour in substitution for their required two hours of physical education. Anyone may take part in this program, provided they are not a letterman in the sport.

Well, this is "it" until next week on Friday when we will be here again. "HABBY."

Did You Say Sweaters?

Men of Willamette! Here's a promise:

Now at The Man's Shop you can view the most handsome collection of he-man sweaters you've ever seen at one time in one place.

Silky soft 100% cashmeres—fine shetlands—rugged English wool shakers—rib knits—genuine cable stitch slippers, etc.

Drop in—try them on. And remember, you may purchase the sweaters of your choice at from . . .

$3.50 to $10.00

The Man's Shop

Moxley & Huntington

The Store of Style, Quality and Value

416 STATE

Sporting Goods

Cliff Parker

372 State St.

Rex Shine Parlor

385 State St. Salem, Ore.
All Colors and Kinds of Shoes
Dyed and Cleaned
Hats Cleaned and Blocked

COON'S "Top Hat"

Featuring Hamburgers and Everything That Is Good to Eat

1275 State Street
SALEM, OREGON

MR. AND MRS. BILL COON
Proprietors

Alumni News

Marriages

Miss Eleanor Johnson, '39, and Tyrone Gillespie, '39, were united in marriage August 30 by Dean Daniel Schuize. Mrs. Gillespie is a member of Delta Phi. Mr. Gillespie was graduated from the law school and is a member of Kappa Gamma Rho. He is connected with the Federal Bureau of Investigation and has been transferred from Washington, D. C. to Detroit.

Miss Rosamond Jane Weston, ex-WU, is now Mrs. Joseph A. Burroughs. At Willamette she was a member of Beta Chi sorority. She also attended Oregon State college. She and her husband are employed at the California-Oregon Power company and have been at home in Grants Pass since June.

The marriage of Miss Love Bogardus, '39, to Dr. Garson L. Kahn took place June 8 at Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland. Mrs. Kahn is a member of Delta Phi sorority.

Westminster Presbyterian church was also the setting on June 18 for the wedding of Miss Betty Lou Anderson and Dr. Gardner S. Stout. Mrs. Stout was affiliated with Beta Chi at Willamette. He also attended Willamette and is a graduate of Alpha Sigma Phi and Nu Sigma Nu. Dr. Gardner is serving his

Health Service Announces Hours

Students requiring medical aid are urged to visit the campus health clinic located in the gym. Dr. Purvine is available Monday through Friday on the campus from 1:30 to 2 p. m., and at the Salem Clinic from 2 to 2:30 p. m. Those who wish to see Dr. Purvine at any time other than the hour specified will arrange an appointment through Helen Leslie, RN who is at the campus clinic every weekday from 12:45 to 2 p. m. Miss Leslie is on call at any time and can be contacted at Lausanne Hall.

Membership Drive Slated by YMCA

This year's YMCA is starting the school year with a big membership drive to be staged next week, Monday through Friday, by present active members. A committee consisting of men from the three upper classes and headed by Dick French, is being chosen to conduct the campaign. The drive is to be carried out through personal contact with old members and prospective new members.

"All freshmen who are interested in working with the YMCA in its program of fellowship and Christian service are being urged" French said. Of interest to all prospective members should be the new reduced membership fee of $1.00 for the whole year, the committee announced.

Vespers Cabinet Plans Retreat

The Vespers cabinet will hold a retreat this weekend at Road's End to map out plans for the first semester. The twelve members will leave this afternoon and return Saturday evening. They will be accompanied by Dr. J. C. Harrison of the First Methodist church, and Miss Ruth Cramer, director of religious education at First church.

On Sunday evening at 6:30 the cabinet will present its findings and recommendations in connection with a worship service.

Members of Vespers will attend party at Jason Lee church Saturday night, replacing their regular church night party.

internship at Mare Island, California.

Miss Vivian Elnora Noth and Leonard A. Younce were united in marriage on June 24. They are living in New York where he is playing football with the New York Giants. After the first of the year the couple will reside in Corvallis where they will continue their studies at Oregon State college. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega. Mrs. Younce was affiliated with Delta Phi at Willamette.

Miss Lila Murray and James Hannaman were married in Leslie Methodist church on July 2. Mrs. Hannaman was affiliated with Delta Phi at Willamette. Mr. Hannaman attended University of Oregon where he was a member of Phi Kappa Psi. He is connected with Viesko and Hannaman.

Salem Ice Arena Reopens Tonight

The Salem Ice Arena, 610 North Capitol street, will reopen Friday evening, October 3rd at 8:00 o'clock, under the management of Frank Roberts. The arena has been completely remodelled in knotty pine. There are club-room facilities and other accommodations for the public, including heat-rooms and a new snack bar.

One night a week is to be reserved at a later date for beginners and Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 7:45 are to be reserved for ladies only. Skate instructors will be on hand to help beginners and to teach new dance steps, according to Mr. Roberts.

Speech Group Plans Trip

Willamette forensics will be getting under way immediately, and plans are already being drawn up for the Salt Lake City forensics meet which will be held around Thanksgiving time this year, according to Prof. Herbert Rahe, head of the speech department.

A forensics manager has not yet been selected, nor has this year's budget been drawn up. How many students will represent Willamette in the meet is still a question of the future, but temporary plans provide for two carloads.

In the last two years, Willamette girls have tried for second place honors. Possibilities of bettering that record this year are good, Dr. Rahe said this week.

Concert Tickets Sale Next Week

Salem Community Concert association tickets will be available next week to out-of-town freshmen and new students. All tickets are for the season and none will be sold for individual concerts. Tickets to be sold Monday and Tuesday in Eaton Hall from 11:15 to 1:20 and will not be available after that time. The price is $2.75.

Tickets include admission to the four community concerts, headlined this year by the Ballet Russe, one of the topflight ballet troupes of the season.

First concert of the year is that of Bartlett and Robertson, duo pianists, on October 18. Lansing Hatfield, well-known vocalist, appears on November 18. The Ballet Russe is slated for January 21. Helen Jepsen, famous soprano, closes the series on February 27.

Willamette students have been active in promotion activities and a large percentage of the student body attends the annual series.

31 Students Win Places on Honor Roll

More Men Than Women Listed; Straight A's Made by 13 Students

The honor roll for the semester ending last June released by the registrar's office yesterday revealed 31 students earned the grade of A in 12 or more hours. Of these, two were law students, eight were freshmen, and nine were seniors, while the junior class won top honors by placing 11 students on the roll. Only one sophomore was honored. Two-thirds of the honors went to men; 21 of the total.

Of the 13 students to receive all A's, there were six juniors, three seniors, three freshmen and one law student. The honors were almost equally shared by men and women; seven women and six men received all A's. The list includes:

Helen Chirgwin, Elizabeth Hamilton, Janet Johnson, Dorothy Pearl Moore, Dolores Netz, Jean Schell, Eleanor Todd, Ed Church, Dean Ellis, Dix Moser, Robert Pentney, Robert Purbrick, Harold Schooley.

The remainder of the roll is made up of those students who received 12 or more hours of A. Of the 18 only three are women, and the classes claim: seniors six, juniors five, freshmen five, sophomores one and law school one.

Ruth Cramer, Audrey Fehler, Jeanette Hulst, Winfield Achor, James K. Anderson, Arthur Case, Craig Coyner, Al Ferrin.

Robert Hinman, Kent Markee, Keith Markee, Verne McCallum, Warne Nunn, Glenn Olds, Robert Stephey, Tom Terjeson, Kenneth Torgeson, Joe Van Winkle.

Sportlights

(Continued from page 6)

which started the contest and team number two which entered the struggle as the second quarter opened.

The latter eleven, which we call number two merely as a distinguishing handle; with Cookingham and Barbour at ends; Constable and Barsiad, tackles; Olsen and Fitzgerald, guards; Al Barrett, center; Wardell or Burgess at quarter; Reynolds and Furno, halfbacks; and Earl Hampton in the fullback slot, appeared equally as potent as the number one club.

This abundance of reserve strength is a particularly favorable situation in smaller schools where the chief difference that puts them at a disadvantage against larger schools is not the lack of a high calibre first team but the shortage of capable reserves.

A squad two and three deep in capable players such as Willamette possesses this year will prove more valuable as the season progresses and the Bearcats begin to feel the weight of their grueling 12 game schedule.

Almost amusing to watch, were Idaho's futile attempts to penetrate the Methodist's big red line. Why the light Coyote team didn't take to the air more often when they found they were butting into literally a stone-wall on the ground, will always remain a mystery to us.

But of this we are certain, the Bearcats had better give close attention to their air defense, for future opponents will almost surely profit by the failure of their early season foes to make headway on rushing plays.

He got it at Jaysons

the suit without a flaw!

JAYSONS
LIBERTY AT COURT

LOOK
YOUR BEST
IN
SHURON GLASSES

MORRIS
Optical Company
444 State St.
Salem, Oregon

First Methodist Church

Extends a cordial invitation
To the Willamette University Faculty and Students
To hear

Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf

Next Sunday Morning, October 5th, at 10:50
In his initial sermon as President of the University

GRAND OPENING OCTOBER 3RD ICE SKATING

- FUN
- THRILLS
- EXCITEMENT

Salem's Redecorated
Ice Palace

SALEM ICE ARENA

610 North Capitol Street
PHONE 5115

PRIVATE PARTIES ARRANGED