MEN HAVE EQUAL CHANCE

Frosh Team Will be Picked After Varsity is Selected; Will Scrimmage with Varsity

The advent of basketball season finds nearly one fourth of the men of the student body practicing for the varsity basketball squad.

The squad of 60 must soon be cut to a number which will be more manageable. In order to give closer scrutiny to individuals, Coach Rathbun has divided this group into three units to report at separate times.

The prospects are not as encouraging as they might be. Although five lettermen are in school, only three are out for the team.

A varsity squad of at least 15 men will be kept out all season. From this squad will be chosen Willamette's representatives for the Northwest conference race.

The freshmen are turning out in great numbers. Several games are in sight for the yearlings. After Coach Rathbun has drawn the men he desires from the freshman class, assistant-coach Sparks will choose his rook squad.

It is Mr. Sparks' intention to keep as many first year men in suits as possible during the whole season.

In fact, the whole system of development lies in keeping every man in the University not only interested in basketball but playing basketball.

The juniors have accomplished little as yet, but indications are that they will be going strong by the end of the week.

Schedules are Arranged. It is planned to complete the inter-class series will draw 30 or 40 into the game, so the opportunity to play basketball will be refused none of the varsity men.

DR. DONEY SPEAKS ON LIBERTY FIND LARGER FREEDOM IS NOTE

A number of months ago one of the magazines invited its subscribers to indicate what word in the English language was most precious to them.

I have been thinking, however, about the word liberty; that conveys a different meaning. It is filled with a different significance.

DEMPSEY AND DONEY CREEP INTO COLLIER'S

This week Willamette students find Collier's magazine giving to the nation, President Doney's article, "I Do Not Envy Dempsey."

This same article was published in a recent Collegian after Dr. Doney had presented it as a chapel address.

When questioned as to the appearance of the article President Doney said, "Some one suggested that I send it to a magazine, so I sent it to Collier's."

The management wrote back asking for more and a Christmas article was submitted. This however, did not arrive in time to be used this year.

When the man who has guarded the destinies of Oregon football for six seasons gave up his chance for re-election, he did what was termed by the administration a "very gracious thing."

The Alpha Phi Alpha sorority will this year be "at home" for the first time. All three sororities are making elaborate and detailed plans in the matter of decorations and favors for the pleasure of those who call.

The occasion, which is annual, is anticipated with a great deal of pleasure, and the welcome which each sorority extends to its friends is very cordial.

The intensified women's interclass basketball practice this week is in anticipation of the interclass series scheduled to be played after the Christmas holidays.

Since the chapel announcement made last week by the Interclass Rivalry Chairman, Harold Hergel, that women's basketball would tally on a percentage basis with men's basketball in the interclass scores, the girls on the campus have been bestirring themselves.

The seniors have appointed Alice Sykes manager and have elected Albert Lozan and James Caughlin to coach the work. The hope on the line-up is not yet complete but the senior hopes are high.

Miss Alice Sykes filled a forward position on the varsity sextet was given special mention in the 1922 Wallulah. Speaking of the Newberry game—"The feature of this game was the phenomenal foul shooting of Alice Sykes, who converted 12 out of 15 throws."

John Tsai will speak on China to Live Wires. John Tsai, the little fellow with the perpetual smile is to speak before the Live Wires at the Leslie Methodist church Sunday, Dec. 16.

It is interesting to note that John Tsai has been in the United States since July 29, 1922, and his story seems almost directly from the foreign field.

Every Willamette university student and friend is invited to attend the Live Wires class at the Leslie Methodist church, Mr. A. C. Behrstedt is the teacher.

INTER-SORORITY FUNCTION IS BIG SATURDAY EVENT

Elaborate Plans Are Being Made to Entertain All Visitors to Annual Event

INITIATE NEW SORORITY

Everything Is Being Put in Order—Will Have Receiving Lines, Eats, in Everything

Coming in between the dates are, respectively for the fraternity open house and for the at-home of Lausanne, is the inter-sorosity welcome to friends, set for Saturday evening, Dec. 15.

The three sororities, Delta Phi, Beta Chi, and Alpha Phi Alpha will receive as follows: Delta Phi, at 332 N. Church street, from 7:30 to 8:30; Beta Chi, at 1490 State street, from 8:30 to 9:30; and Alpha Phi Alpha, at 1190 Oak street, from 9:00 to 10:45.

Gospel Teams Go to Gervais and Livesley

Willamette sponsored two gospel teams last Sunday in cooperation with the Marion County Y. M. C. A. extension service, one to Gervais, led by Albert Geyer, and another to Livesley, under the leadership of Loyd Waltz.

The Livesley team took charge of the morning service and gave a splendid musical program in the afternoon to a large audience. In the evening the usual Gospel Team service was used. The members of the team were: Loyd Waltz, Ruth Ross, Hollis Vick, Carolyn Wilson and Morain Stolzehouse.

The team which was sent to Gervais took charge of the Sunday school and aided in the morning church service, while the afternoon was spent in a "ret-arranged" gathering at one of the local homes.

The evening service was in the nature of a Christmas Eve service and was led by the deputation. A quartette composed of Alice Wells, Ruth Heinick, Lloyd Thompson and Hutch Bell came from Salem in the evening and contributed the musical numbers.

The meeting brought unusual results in that those who were not in the deputation made up of Albert Geyer, Ruth Wechter, Mary Welch, Dan Heath and William Michelson.

A deputation is being planned for Stayton for this next week-end.

SALEM IS HOST TO ASSOCIATION

State Representatives Meet to Make Rules for "Old Line" and Peace Contests

Many important matters were discussed at a meeting of the State Oratorical Association held last Saturday in Waller hall, Delegates from Oregon Agricultural College, Linfield College, Pacific University, University of Oregon, Oregon Normal School, and Eugene Bible School were present.

The action taken last year regarding the judging of orations was presented for discussion, and it was decided to continue the older system. This provides for a judgment of 50% on delivery, and 50% on composition.

The Old Time contest will be held at Linfield College, Friday, March 14. Twelve typewritten copies of each state contestant's oration must be in the hands of the Secretary of the Oratorical Association 30 days before the state contest.

The date of the Peace Oratorical contest has not been definitely settled, but will be in the early part of April.

It was decided to select a competent staff of judges from eastern colleges to consider style and composition of all orations submitted in both the Old Time and Peace contests.

Dues of the Inter-Collegiate Oratorical Association of Oregon were fixed at $12.50 a year.

Y. W. C. A. CALLS MEETING Study of New Devotional Topics Regulated, Practical Work Outlined.

On Thursday afternoon, Dec. 6, the various committees of the Y. W. C. A. met to consider new plans of work. Since all members of the organization belong to some committee, every girl has a work to do.

In spite of the stormy afternoon quite a number of girls attended the committee meetings. The planning of a series of meetings to start next Thursday was one of the achievements.

They are to follow the subject of "The Symphony of the College Girls' Life." As in music, when one note is lacking, there is a discord, so it is in the life of the girl in college—if one of the eight essential qualities is not there, her life is incomplete.

ANNUAL DO-NUT LEAGUE SERIES WILL BE PLAYED

Original Plans Are Postponed Due to Condition of Gym Floor—Lack of Seating Facilities

GAMES COME POST-XMAS

Material Available in All Classes Guarantees a Hotly Contested Hooping Tournament

With the cross country run over, and interclass debate now in progress, the next event on the boards is do-nut basketball. In former years this has been one of the most popular of intra-mural activities and this year bids fair to guide them all.

The dates have not been definitely decided upon but it is likely that the games will not be played until after the holidays. It had been planned to have the first two games played on next Monday, the semi-finals on Tuesday and the championship game on Wednesday, but with the floor not in the best of condition and with no bleachers as yet, indications point to the postponement of the games until after vacation.

Material Good in All Classes Last year the seniors had "duck soup" against the juniors and sophomores but they had to extend themselves to win from the frosh who placed second in the series. With the champion seniors of '23 graduating, '26 has all hands on deck to maintain its superiority of last year.

Robertson, Mootry, Hiday, Erickson, Haines, Bond, Lee, Pasnacht, Edmondson and Phillips all aspire to help the sophs take the championship this year.

RECITAL PRESENTED BY SPEAKING CLASS

The Willamette public speaking department gave its second public recital of the year on Tuesday evening of this week. The program was very well attended and will be remembered as one for which the department deserves a great deal of credit.

The following interpretations were given: How Uncle Rodgers Hangs a Picnic, Jerome K. Jerome, Mrs. Snow.

A Selected Reading, Elizabeth Silver in the Morning, Paul L. Dunbar, Marjorie Brown.

Went With a Handsome Man, Will Carlton, Marvin Stolzehouse, Angelina's Missionary Box, Frances Freeman.

Violet Judy, The West Wind, Massfield, Roadways, Massfield, The Angel and Shepherds, Lew Wallace.

Caroline Stober, Better in the Morning, Conon, Paul Sherwood, The Dust of the Road, Advanced Dramatic Club.

Rev. Ward Willis Long, Speaker for Devotional. Ward Willis Long will give the 10 minute talk at the Y. M. C. A. devotional meeting in the Websterian hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

He will talk on the "Religious Spirit at Princeton." Mr. Long received his master's degree in Philosophy at Princeton University and his Divinity Degree at Princeton Seminary.

Bernard Arnold, President of the Websterian Literary Society will preside.

FIRST DEBATE IS SCHEDULED FOR GIRLS' CONTEST

The first girls debate meeting of the year was held Tuesday, noon, December 11. About 15 girls were present, including Violet Cox, and Elaine Oberg, members of the Bar-W club.

The question for debate, as presented in the meeting is, "Resolved that the French forces should vacate the Ruhr immediately." The question will no doubt, afford a good opportunity for argument and the girls are doing their best to make it so.

The debating schedule has not been completely arranged as yet. However the first debate is now certain. It will consist of a rectangular contest with O. A. C. and University of Oregon on February 15.

If sufficient interest is taken in the subject, the manager will try to arrange a debate with C. P. S. and possibly with University of British Columbia.

To assure a successful year in women's forensics, Professor Roy C. Harding of the Social Science department and Dr. Powell of Kimball, have been secured to coach the team. Dr. Harding will aid in organization of material and Dr. Powell will coach in delivery. For this he will conduct regular classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Work will begin immediately to insure adequate preparation by the first encounter.

DEBATERS TO ENTER FINALS ON DEC. 19

JUNIORS VERSUS SOPHS Seniors and Rooks Defeated on Supreme Court Issue

The interclass debate championship, now lies between the juniors and the sophomores. These two classes will debate at chapel December 19 on the same question they have used heretofore, which is "Resolved that the United States Supreme Court should be denied the right to declare acts of congress unconstitutional except by unanimous decision."

Frosh Defeated. The first debate was held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock and the frosh team was defeated by a 2 to 1 decision. Ralph Edmondson and Warren Day composed the winning soph team and showed a comprehensive knowledge of the question. Mr. Edmondson's motion debate letter every year that he was in high school and in his senior year led the state champion of the last year in interclass debating.

The frosh team was made up of James H. Haddock and Lee Crawford, with any both able varsity material. The sophomen took the affirmative side of the question and the sophomores the negative.

Seniors Defeated. Tuesday afternoon the senior representatives were defeated by the junior team on the same question that was used in the previous debate. Rawson Chapin and Dan Taylor won the argument by a 2 to 1 decision over S. Padilla and P. Tumbulo, the senior team.

The judges for the first debate were Professors Laughlin McCormick and Franklin and the judges for the second debate were Professors Erickson and Laughlin and Dean Alden. Morie Honney acted as chairman at both of the debates.

Every college represented at the meeting asked for a chance to meet Willamette in football next year. The tentative schedule as now drawn up is as follows:

Sept. 27—Oregon at Salem, Oct. 4—Washington at Seattle, Oct. 18—Linfield at Salem, Oct. 25—Puget Sound at Salem, Nov. 1—College of Idaho at Salem, Nov. 8—Whitman at Walla Walla, Nov. 22—Pacific at Forest Grove or Portland.

While the basketball schedule is not as yet complete, it is certain that Willamette will meet each conference college.

Reports from the school indicate that she will be running a strong team this year with conference teams. Captain Tanner will be back to join the squad, thereby adding considerable to its strength. The initial call for basketball number was issued by Coach Adams for December 10.

Whitman is rumored of having a light shaggy team this year, with four veterans and a valuable addition in Leo Faust, highly recommended guard from Lincoln high school, Portland, who is making a fine showing in the work-outs.

O. A. C. is minus, giant Helge as mentioned before, but appears to have a mainstay in "State" Gill and Riting, Ed Coleman, Kellana, and Grider have graduated from the rook class. They will be strengthened by Luke Gill and Mose Lyman, as soon as the football team returns from Hawaii.

His Edmondson the University of Washington mentor, has lost his star guards Bryson and "Windy" Crawford, both of whom will be hard to replace but a host of material is on hand to select their successors from. Five lettermen: Captain Frayne, Henketh, Gardner, Peters and Gundlach are out for practice. Five football men who will report for practice later are Ragerty, Beck, Duffels, Fole and Brix.

COACH RETURNS WITH SCHEDULE OF NEW SEASON

Gonzaga College Voted into Conference at this Time—Puget Sound Petitions

Erickson Named on Committee to Examine New Members of Northwest Conference

Willamette University was represented at the annual meeting of the Northwest Intercollegiate Conference, held at the Multnomah hotel in Portland on Monday, by Coach Guy L. Erickson, Football and basketball schedules for the coming year were drawn up, and the annual business session of the conference was held.

Chief of the business taken up was the admittance of Gonzaga University of Spokane to the conference. This school has applied for membership for the past three years, but due to the fact that it had not strictly complied with conference regulations, these petitions were denied. However, last year Gonzaga was put on probation, and since the necessary requirements have now been met, the school was this year granted membership.

The College of Puget Sound also applied for membership, but, since athletic conditions at the school were not generally understood, this institution, too, was placed on probation for a year. Professor Erickson of Willamette was appointed head of a committee to investigate athletic conditions at the Tacoma school, and at other colleges seeking admission to the conference.

The conference rules regarding the transferring of athletes from one school to another were changed so that hereafter the athlete who transfers will be ineligible for participation in athletics during his first year at a new school. Furthermore, this year will count as a full year's participation in all sports, under the rule which limits a man to four years of competition in any sport.

The conference decided that hereafter all non-conference schools who play conference colleges will have to observe the official conference regulations.

The delegates went on record as favoring high scholarship above a winning team. They also adopted a standard form for each player's individual eligibility record. These must be filed with the conference secretary before a man participates in conference athletics.

Every college represented at the meeting asked for a chance to meet Willamette in football next year. The tentative schedule as now drawn up is as follows:

Sept. 27—Oregon at Salem, Oct. 4—Washington at Seattle, Oct. 18—Linfield at Salem, Oct. 25—Puget Sound at Salem, Nov. 1—College of Idaho at Salem, Nov. 8—Whitman at Walla Walla, Nov. 22—Pacific at Forest Grove or Portland.

God says He shall in later judgment than when He trusts you with His destiny. There must be something unexpressed in a man's heart this surprising confidence. True, God was told by the alternative of making a race of automatons or a race endowed with choice; and He made the latter. It was contended that such a creature was worth all the cost of labor. But God leaves us not alone; a highway of truth is blazed by revelation, secret voices counsel us to walk therein, an inner spirit offers help and aid, and a Saviour takes the threat of an avenging sword. Above, below, around, within us tender help is proffered; but in power may touch with lightest hand the secrets of the soul. There is the thousand men in matter. A thousand ministers from heaven wait his aid; a thousand demons from the pit attend his will.

—CARL GREGG DONEY

THE FAITHFUL FEW

"Enthusiasm sets the embers glowing. But only work keeps the fire going." Picture if you will the mixed crowd which includes the first volunteers for the squad. Here are the long and the short, the slender and the fat, the awkward and the graceful, the verdant rook and the sophisticated soph. Contrast this group with the faithful few who remain at the close of the season.

How enthused the first group is. To the seeing eye, hidden potentialities are visible. Each one has a quality which may be brought out, not by Enthusiasm but by Work. Who are the few that remain? The man who has been willing to obey instructions; to center his attention on what he is doing; to try, regardless of the impossibility; to be out night after night. Who are the many that drop out? The man who never listens to instructions; never tries, plays indifferently; "knows it all"; gives up; is not a sticker; knocks.

It is said that to hear a man talk will give you an index to his life. Listen to a candidate's words and see if you don't learn a good deal of his history.

If he is optimistic, he has made the squad; if he is pessimistic, he is not a member. If he is not a sticker, he thinks he has had no chance; if he assails the coach, he has recently had trouble with him; if he dislikes a sport, he has made a failure of it; if he abuses the training rules, he lacks will-power; if he doesn't feel the zest of the game, he is commonplace.

Keep in mind the words of the philosopher, "Remember the bull dog, my son; his whole worth lies in his ability to stick."

—Lestle Sparks.

WHAT'S IN A WORD?

Do words live for you? Have you searched the depths of just one word? Did you find the earth globed "in a drop of dew"? In just one word do you find all human history written? A word is a heritage of the ages.

Did you know that since human history began never has one friend been untrue to another? Here is the depth of just one word. You will find a bigger, deeper philosophy of life at the bottom of it.

Think of just a word: try dignity, eloquence or fraternalism. Men wander off in the empyreal heavens seeking the meaning of these, when they are written in the very nature of man's ordered life.

Dignity is the fruit of a simple and good life, such as Wagner teaches. Search the life of a good man and you find an inexpressible something—not found in common clay—a something which cannot be profaned or prostituted, a something that makes familiarity a fugitive before it, as darkness is to light. There is more dignity expressed in unreserve, believe me, than in all reserve mobilized. Why shouldn't a life be frank and open? Reserve may be a fine thing for policy's sake, or when there is nothing to be done, nothing to be said; but when there are things to be done—a world to be rebuilt, souls to be saved—it is time to speak plainly and cut to the radical. Then, give yourself unreservedly to accomplish your task. Leave nothing unsaid that should be said, no stone unturned that should be turned. You cannot find dignity by striving for it.

Eloquence is the grandeur to which a human soul can rise from the pit of its sufferings. Tennyson grows eloquent in his sorrow over Hallam's death. There is not a string on the lyre of his mortal being left untouched as he pours out his soul to the world in one immortal masterpiece, which carries its readers through all the passions of a barren senescent existence into a spiritual triumph. Tennyson lived it, but men called it eloquence.

Fraternalism—human fellowship, some regard as an object which must be defended as the Mohammedans defend their Kaaba, thereby revealing their petrities; Fraternalism—that reaction among high-minded individuals; that reciprocation of love between man and man in sorrow and in joy. It is the calling of soul to soul from the heights and the depths of life. It is a divine thing—which man can neither create nor destroy.

These are mere words, just names for soul qualities. You bequeath to each word its heritage.

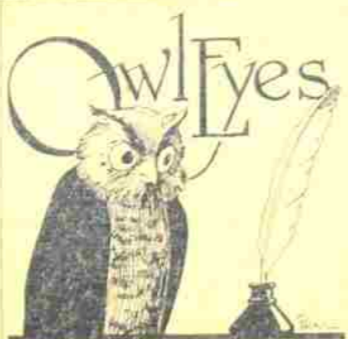

When you search the depths of a word you search your own soul.

You live each word according to the depth you have found there.

We fail to see the reason, as yet, for a person contending that he should perform acts for an organization which his private heart does not, cannot sanction. If you cannot realize yourself there, if you have to save your conscience to stay there, you can never grow there—get out.

Group action is a convenient way to shift responsibility all right, but here self-deception crosses the danger line. Yes, the majority may have to rule—it did in the days of Stephen and Paul, but the minority must fight.

Recall Hibben's famous statement, about responsibility, "It can be divided among many, but it is not thereby diminished in degree."

Phaculty Philosophy

Tabasco: "But, my son, you don't seem to appreciate the privilege of going to college."

"Why, Dad, you don't understand. I am crazy about college, but, in strict confidence, I could dispense with the studying if I had the rest of it."

(Cramping. Virtuous cramping in virtuous. Virtuous cramping is virtuous. Comes a time when a student must possess at a single instant a prescribed minimum quantity of knowledge. Well, if he has been gathering this knowledge carefully day by day, a complete review and a thorough stuffing of his mind just before the critical moment is beneficial and justifiable. If, on the other hand, the stuffing just before the critical moment is the only effort he has made, the process is misleading, harmful, and unjustifiable.)

If you are not scientific do not attempt to meet science with science.

Words. Realities. Did men have hope, and love, and bread, before their language had words for these precious things? I wonder.

It is sometimes charged that colleges do not train young men and young women to think. To think!!! Well, I wonder. To think, I takes courage to be one of the "thoughtful, wondering kind." Especially if you utter your thoughts aloud. One's own thought. Echoed thought. Just now the world is NEEDING a lot of thinking that is sane, practical, and—progressive. Would all the above mentioned critics WELCOME such thinking?

Deputation Team Goes to Stayton Friday Noon

Deputating service carried on by the Y. M. C. A. will get under way this week when a team composed of six boys and four girls will go to Stayton.

This is the first time that girls have been included in the teams. There has been a demand for workers among the high school girls in certain towns of Marion county and therefore the Y. M. C. A. is co-operating with the Y. M. in the hospital service.

The team will have Friday afternoon at two o'clock, in time to give a short program in the high school. On the team are: Lloyd Waltz, Glen Weddle, Clarence Phillips, Merwin Wilkerson, Herbert Jasper and three or four others who haven't been chosen yet.

Epsilon Delta Mu Receives Visitors

The Epsilon Delta Mu fraternity held their first "at home" on Saturday evening, on 1118 Oak street. A large number of guests were received in the stately reception hall and ushered through the house. During the calling hours Professor Roberts favored the guests with musical selections. Folders bearing the names of the members were presented as souvenirs. Refreshments of punch and wafers were served.

Delta Phi entertained at dinner on last Wednesday in honor of Miss Helen Hanna, Miss Minna L. Harding Coach and Mrs. Guy L. Rathbun and Professor James T. Matthews.

Miss Lucia Card spent the last week end at her home in Dallas.

Marie Corner was a dinner guest at the Delta Phi house on Sunday.

Dessie Cox, Gladys Morton, and Kathryn Rossman were dinner guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick last Sunday.

Sigma Tau is Host to Friends

Sigma Tau held formal open-house from 9:15 to 10:45 on Saturday. About 500 guests called during the evening. Those receiving were: Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Dean and Mrs. G. H. Alden, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rathbun, James Caughlin, George Oliver, Gordon Kelso, Byron Arnold, and Willis Vinson. A four piece orchestra of house members furnished music for the occasion. The guests were ushered through the house and into the dining room, lovely with lavender chrysanthemums. Fruit cocktail and wafers were served by the Misses Mabel Davies, Pauline Remington, Caroline Stober and Kathleen LaRaut. Folders in the replica of a Sigma Tau pin made attractive favors.

Miss Elsie Schreiber was entertained over the week end at the Alpha Phi Alpha house by her sister, Edna Schreiber.

Kappa Gamma Rho Welcomes Guests

In accord with the annual inter-fraternity open-house custom the Kappa Gamma Rho house opened its doors to friends on Saturday evening. Those who gave the fraternity greetings were: Dr. and Mrs. Carl G. Doney, Professor and Mrs. E. J. Sherman, Albert Logan, Oury Hisey, Perry Sloop, Donald Ryan and Robert Notson.

The visitors were conducted through the various rooms of the house, and into the attractive dining-room. Refreshments of punch and cake were served by the Misses Margaret McDaniel, Adella White, Elaine Oberg and Ruth Ross. Attractive folders laced with ribbon in the fraternity colors were presented as favors.

Phi Kappa Pi
Entertains

The event of open house came to a climax at Phi Kappa Pi fraternity when almost 400 people were received as guests on Saturday night from 8:30 until 10:30. Miss Iva Del Crozier issued the house favors, presenting one to each guest as they passed to the receiving line, headed by Charles Nunn, who introduced Pres. Sherwood, Professor Williston, Professor and Mrs. Elmo White, Michael Edwards, Charles Ellery, Harold Banta, and Connie Eschwig.

The guests proceeded through the living room into the parlor, and into the dining room where punch and wafers were served by the Misses Blanche Jones, Ethelyn Daniels, Alberta Koonz, Elois Heinick, and Ruth Hewitt.

Alpha Psi Delta Opens House

The Alpha Psi Delta chapter house at 340 Union street, was open to the students and friends of the university Saturday evening from 8:00 to 9:30.

The guests were greeted at the door by Richard Briggs, the vice president of the fraternity who presented them to Orlo Gillet, Mrs. Von Eschen, Professor Von Eschen, Harold Eakin, '18; Leonard Satchwell, Waldo Zeller, '23; and Fred Patton. Delicious fruit punch and wafers were served by the Misses Phyllis Palmer, Eva Ledbetter, Zella Mulkey, and Estelle Moyer.

After viewing the abode of the brothers the guests were wished a "good night" by Edward W. Wren who distributed the favors.

Laura Baregrat and Herbert Dunlap delighted everyone with their music.

Dinner guests of Myrtle Burnham at Lausanne Sunday were her mother, Mrs. A. Burnham, and her brother, Howard Burnham, of Vancouver, Wash.

John Tsai is to speak before the Leslie LIVE WIRES Sunday, December 16 and you are invited to be present. Christian conditions in China will be discussed.

Harold Regele is Commander-in-Chief of the tournament, announced an innovation by including girls basketball in the tournament. Each class will have a team and some interesting set-tos and encounters are likely to result. Regele is working hard on the arrangements and promises that this year's inter-class basketball will be a success.

John Tsai is to speak before the Leslie LIVE WIRES Sunday, December 16 and you are invited to be present. Christian conditions in China will be discussed.

As always, the frosh are the dark horse of the race. Sparks will handle the rooks and he has the makings of a fast team. Liljogren is sure to be one of the guards. He was on the second all-state team last year. Hartley, long and rangy, will play center. White, Petram, Jasper, Ed. Johnson, Frewing, Steincipher and others will fight it out for the other berths.

More rigid rules have been laid down this year for the tournament. As usual, no W men in basketball.

They couldn't destroy the work he did
"The Republic has no need for savants," sneered a tool of Robespierre as he sent Lavoisier, founder of modern chemistry, to the guillotine. A century later the French Government collected all the scientific studies of this great citizen of Paris and published them, that the record of his researches might be preserved for all time.
Lavoisier showed the errors of the theory of phlogiston—that hypothetical, material substance which was believed to be an element of all combustible compounds and to produce fire when liberated. He proved fire to be the union of other elements with a gas which he named oxygen.
Lavoisier's work goes on. In the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company the determination of the effects of atmospheric air on lamp filaments, on metals and on delicate instruments is possible because of the discoveries of Lavoisier and his contemporaries.

This is the mark of the General Electric Company, an organization of 100,000 men and women engaged in producing the tools by which electricity—man's great servant—is making the world a better place to live in.

Physical Examinations Conducted for Co-Eds

"Physical examinations for girls will begin today," Mrs. Rainburn announces, "and will continue as late as the middle of January, until all the girls have been examined." Owing to the failure of equipment to arrive on time, classes for girls in physical training will probably not be organized until the second semester.

Each girl is to be given a thorough examination and complete records may be on file in the offices of the department of physical education. The delay in the arrival of the equipment has greatly inconvenienced the work. As soon as the locker and shower rooms have been fully equipped, the new plant will be ready to take care of the regular gymnasium class work.

Under the leadership of Coach Rathbun, Pacific, Whitman and Willamette have agreed to hold an annual triangular track meet. This year's meet will be held in Salem and the date has tentatively been set for May 23. However, there is a possibility that the date may be set ahead, so that the meet can be a feature of the 1924 May Day program.

The schools represented at the meeting were the University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, Pacific University, Washington State College, University of Washington, Whitman College, Gonzaga University, University of Idaho, University of Montana, and Willamette U.

was adopted by the former. As he traced over the fields, he said, "This is indeed the life for a dog. This is liberty. This is freedom?" But by and by he felt the restrictions of the farmer and there, wise dog that he was, he came to the conclusion that there wasn't such a thing as complete freedom even for a dog. He went a step further in his philosophical observation and said, "But to be the dog of a farmer is to have more liberty than to be the dog of an organ grinder or of a blind man."

I think in this there is suggestion for us and we are following out the suggestion more or less conscientiously; we are seeking always to change masters. Make up our minds once and for all that we have to have a master. It may be the master of superstition or some other false conception of life, of purposeless ambitions, or evil desires or good desires. We are held by some leash; there is a horizon beyond which we cannot pass and the wise thing for us is to choose the proper master.

Our Lord came with a wonderful definition. He was defending himself before the learned people and accused them of being in bondage. They said, "You are altogether mistaken, we are not in bondage to any man. We are Abraham's seed and therefore enjoy perfect liberty." Jesus said, "Not so. Only those whom the Truth sets free are free indeed."

I wonder what that means? How can the truth give one liberty? Kant gives a Universal Categorical when he says that the best that a man can do is to so act that he would be perfectly willing that his act become universal. If we can lift that a bit higher and say that act that we are doing is based upon perfect truth, upon the utmost conformity to facts and conditions as they fundamentally are, then we have come to a conception of liberty that is altogether sane and abiding.

Therefore, if one understands the truth and so directs himself as that he moves in conformity to that always, then he has perfect liberty in so far as any man can have perfect liberty. He is restricted by his bodily requirements, by his social needs, by certain obligations to do particular things, but so far as it is possible for a man to be free, when he wills to do the will that is true he has that freedom which is greatest. You recall that Gladstone one time harassed by politics and limited in his endeavors by party conflicts said to a friend, "Oh, this is a dog's life that I am leading." And his friend

"Yes, granted, but it is the life of a Saint Bernard dog." In that instance, however, we are not to lose the little life in a little dog, but to get up from the largest freedom that belongs to the life of a St. Bernard and to that there is an idea of freedom, viz. the positive freedom. So backing the truth, dog that which is overwhelmingly veritable and useful and fundamental, we shall find our life. —WU—
