Translations

Nepusk Vejeli:

Don't blow, wind, through Nemunelis, I will go to father.
The blowing wind makes waves and destroys the banks.
It crushes the bridge and father will die. I will become an orphan.

I Went to the Market:

He: I went to the market, my little breadbasket under my arm;
The first girl I met was the daughter of a lawyer.

I love you,
but you don't listen very much.

She: Sir, what 'av you got in that pretty little breadbasket there?

He: I've got some apples; won't you buy some?

She: Oh, give me two dozens and the good man will pay for them.

He: I gave her two dozens, but the good man did not pay.
Such is the business with the daughter of a lawyer.
