

Collegiate Leader Meet Begins Today

Approximately 60 delegates to the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders conference sponsored by Willamette arrived here this morning from 11 college and universities.

REPRESENTED AT the conference to be held today and tomorrow are Pacific University, Oregon College of Education, Oregon State College, University of Oregon, Portland University, Southern Oregon College of Education, Lewis and Clark, Eastern Oregon College of Education, Portland State College, Linfield, Marylhurst, and Willamette.

The average number of delegates from each will be about five. Willamette will have 20 official delegates, selected by Student Council.

THE CONFERENCE begins at 10 a.m. with registration in Doney Hall, which will continue until noon. Luncheon will then be served in Doney followed by the opening session from 1:30 to 2:00 when Mark Hatfield will make a few preliminary remarks.

From 2 to 4, discussion groups will meet in the Fine Arts building, after which Alpha Lambda Delta will sponsor a coffee hour in the Fine Arts art gallery. Delegates will then have dinner at the living organizations in which they are staying. At 7 they will attend the Willamette-College of Idaho game.

SATURDAY WILL begin with breakfast at 8 in the living organizations which will be followed from 9 to 11 with discussion groups in the Fine Arts building. A general session will be held from 11 to 12, at which Bob Goggins, University of Portland student body president, will explain the purpose and functions of National Students Association.

A bull session will follow luncheon at Doney. At a business meeting in the Little Theater from 2 to 4:30 new officers for the OFCL will be elected. The conference will close with a banquet in the Oregon Room of Meier and Frank's at which Governor Holmes will be the speaker.

DISCUSSION areas and leaders are the honor system, Steve Nason; finance, Bud Mull; evaluation of student activities, Dale Greenlee; the future of OFCL, Neil Causbie; commuter problems, Bob Withers; and publications and publicity, George Hoyt. These leaders are not necessarily experts in these respective fields, stressed Don Peterson, OFCL secretary-treasurer.

Registration fee for the conference is $6.00 for all visiting delegates, which will include room and board, luncheon and the banquet. Official delegates are financed by the Student Body.

IN CHARGE OF registration will be Beta Alpha Gamma, the Willamette sophomore women's honorary, while Cap and Gown, the senior women's honorary is providing secretaries for the convention. George Hoyt and Larry Chandos are assisting Peterson as general manager, Jim Hubbard is in charge of signs on campus, Tom Honl, housing, Willard Bunney and Norm Dyer, banquet, and Skip Alexander, meals and coffee hours.

Present OFCL officers are Darrell Brittan, University of Oregon student body president, president; Bob Adkins, Lewis and Clark student body president, vice-president; and Peterson, Willamette member-at-large, secretary-treasurer.

Miettunen, MacKillop Winners In CR Week Poster Contest

Muriel Miettunen was awarded first place honors for the second time in two years this week with her poster entry in the Christian Resource Week contest. While praising

Miss Miettunen's work, the judges and CR Week committee expressed disappointment at the small number of entries, only two posters being submitted.

Miss Miettunen, a junior art major, is layout editor for the Wallulah and is a regular contributor of cartoons to the Collegian. The second place poster was submitted by Alan MacKillop, junior English major.

In order to give students a little more time to complete essays on the theme "Why Christianity?", the deadline for submission of entries was extended, making it impossible for the Collegian to learn the results of this contest. At press time it was reported by Dr. O. W. Frost that six essays had been received, and more were expected.

Rank Raised For Five Profs

Five members of the Willamette faculty were promoted in academic rank following a meeting of the Board of Trustees in Portland.

The Board voted to advance Dr. Theodore Shay from visiting professor to assistant professor of political science for the 1957-58 period. Shay was on a one-year visiting teacher basis when he joined the faculty in September.

Donald R. Breakey, instructor of biology since 1954, was advanced to assistant professor in that department. Richard Montgomery, presently instructor of physical science and geology, was promoted to assistant professor, and Robert Putnam was named associate professor of speech and drama.

Final promotion came to Dr. Noel F. Kaestner, assistant professor of psychology, who was named associate professor in his department.

Runkel to Speak To Both Houses

Dr. Howard Runkel, professor of speech and advisor to forensics, will be guest speaker at the joint session of the Oregon State Legislature at the annual Lincoln Day session Tuesday at 10 a.m.

Topic for the speech professor's address is "Making Lincoln Live." That same day Dr. Runkel will speak before the annual YWCA leadership training association meeting in Salem.

Talking on "New Goals for New Times," Dr. Runkel will address the noon luncheon of board and electoral members of the Salem YWCA.

Elections Postponed

Elections of class officers have been postponed one week in order to give Rally commission members a chance to prepare a slate of candidates for Rally Squad positions, Doug Houser, second vice president, announced.

He explained that the commission would have to cut down the number of candidates to 11 or 12 of the original petitioners. These candidates will then try out before the student body, and be elected the same time as class officers.

Class elections are now scheduled to begin Friday, February 22 and are to run through Wednesday, February 27.

$1000 Given To Willamette By Carnation

The Carnation Foundation this week presented an unrestricted grant to Willamette University carrying a stipend of $1000.

In a letter to President G. Herbert Smith, the president of the foundation stated, "Our decision to continue our aid to you has been based as before upon the splendid contribution of educational and general welfare of your area and those attending your institution."

This is the third year the Carnation Foundation has bestowed unrestricted grants upon the University.

The check was presented by H. E. Gallagher, local representative of the foundation and general manager of the Carnation Milk company in Portland.

Council Picks 20 to Attend Leader Meet

Twenty delegates from Willamette to the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders conference to be held here today and tomorrow were elected by Student Council Wednesday.

Those elected were Neil Causbie, Don Peterson, Flossy Hodge, Bud Mull, Wayne Carr, Doug Houser, Bob Withers, Steve Nason, Dale Greenlee, Lewis Beatty, Suzy Platt, Tom Honl, Sandra Roark, George Hoyt, Paul Edwards, Skip Alexander, Royal Keith, Lucy Myers, and John Bergstrom.

Don Peterson, coordinator of the conference, urged anyone at all interested in the banquet to attend, especially since the governor is speaking. Those who wish to go should call either Peterson or Larry Chandos at the Sigma Chi house before tomorrow noon to make reservations.

Atkinson Co. To Interview

J. A. Ferren, employment manager for the Guy F. Atkinson Construction company, will be on campus Thursday and Friday, Feb. 19 and 20, to speak to business majors interested in heavy construction.

HALF HOUR interviews are to be scheduled through the Dean of Students' office for seniors interested in this work. The Atkinson firm, concentrated in the West, is noted for its work in road construction, and dams. Among its present projects is the construction of the dam at The Dalles.

Senior men will also have a chance to be included in Bethlehem Pacific Coast Steel Corporation's Loop Course, a training program for men interested in permanent positions with Bethlehem Steel in the fields of industrial research, commercial research, and purchasing.

EDWARD G. ENGLISH, executive assistant in Bethlehem Pacific Steel Corporation, will conduct interviews at 10 a.m. Applications are available in Dean Rieck's office.

For work in the industrial sales field, men with engineering backgrounds are preferred. Masters degrees in the commercial research field are preferred, and a business administration degree will be necessary for work in the purchasing department.

James Garrett, a Willamette graduate, trained in the Loop Course, is now working on the Portland sales staff.

Final CR Week Schedule Set; Rev. Phillips to Arrive Sunday

Final scheduling of the CR Week program has been completed and with the arrival of Rev. Randall C. Phillips Sunday evening, the student body will be ready to face the question which the week's theme poses, "Why Christianity?"

REV. PHILLIPS, chief resource leader for the week and pastor of the First Methodist Church in Burbank, California, will be the chapel speaker for the week, February 12, 13, and 14. He will also have luncheon meetings with the CR Week Committee and the Religious Life Council on Monday, with the Wes-enable members of different living organizations to meet together and more fully probe the question, "Why Christianity." Vesper services will also be held in the living organizations each evening to attempt a summary of each day's topic.

A. J. CRONIN's famous story "Keys of the Kingdom" will be presented in the film version starring Gregory Peck and Thomas Mitchell Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Fine Arts auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

Willamette's new chaplain, Dr. Harley Zeigler, will conduct the

Where Did It Go?

What has happened to the school spirit at Willamette? We are not talking right now of the spirit that is called for at ball games. We want to know what has happened to the spirit that makes people want to do things, to be in things, and to work on activities.

Two striking instances of the lack of interest and enthusiasm prevalent on campus are the failure of students to show the slightest signs of interest in the position of assistant Distinguished Artist Concert series manager and in being delegates to the Oregon Federation of Collegiate Leaders conference.

This has been the story all through the year. Deadlines have been extended and as a result two or three people petition for a job that five or six at least should have been interested in. Why is this so? Is it the fault of the Student Body officers? Have they been failing to try to arouse interest? We think not, but somewhere someone is shirking his responsibilities. Could it just possibly be the "average" student—we who are willing to sit back and "let George do it"?

FAIRVIEW GIRL MAKES 3.4! DOES THE WILLAMETTE EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM NEED REVAMPING? Most of the campus was amazed as Martie Hoffman, coed from the Fairview Home, received a g.p.a. of 3.4 for the fall semester. Miss Hoffman demurely stated that her work in the psychology department 'just comes naturally.'

GLAMOUR magazine has sent out a request for women's editors of the college papers to choose a way to select the best-dressed girl on their campus. In August GLAMOUR plans to devote the entire issue to college fashions and will feature the ten "Best Dressed College Girls in America." These young women will be selected by the magazine officials from the candidates submitted by colleges all over the country and the ten winners will be photographed for the August issue.

So, I'll probably be asking the campus for their choice for 'the best-dressed girl' soon, so be picking your candidate.

Filling the rest of the students with envy were Bill Strand, Jim Mercer, Tom Honl, and Bill Seawell, who spent most of the between-semester break in Sun Valley. Their suntans should serve as an inspiration to the rest of us—who usually spend most of our vacation typing over-due term papers

Campus Told Romantic News: Gordon, Rees, Snow Engaged

At a party for close friends last Friday evening, the refreshments were fortune cookies which enclosed the news of the engagement of Anna Bell Rees and Hal Rosene.

Miss Rees is a sophomore elementary education major from Fairview, Oregon. She is a member of Canterbury Club and lives in Lausanne Hall.

Rosene attended Willamette until the end of last term and is now enrolled at San Jose State. He is a sophomore philosophy major whose home is in Los Altos, California. No date has been set for the wedding.

Announced to friends at Doney Hall recently was the engagement of Jean Snow and "Tal" Geller.

Miss Snow, a senior philosophy major, is former president of Doney Hall and active in Wesley. Her home is in Milton-Freewater.

Geller is a junior economics major from Tipton, Iowa. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant P. Gordon of San Mateo, California, this week announced the engagement of their daughter Tricia to Donald L. Mash of San Francisco.

Miss Gordon is a senior piano major and a member of Mu Phi Epsilon. An Alpha Lambda Delta, she is the recipient of the Mrs. Walter Denton prize.

Mash, whose home is in New York City, is finishing his courses in engineering at City College of San Francisco.

The couple plan an August wedding, after which they will make their home in San Francisco.

'Special Events' Funds Increased

One of the things which came out of the revision of the student body fund allotments recently, was a new fund of 1% of the total to be used by the Student Council for "Special Events." This fund of about $250 per year is to be used for unpredictable expenses such as sending delegates to a conference, securing special speakers, or whatever need may appear in the future involving something of benefit to the student body.

These "unpredictables" in the past have been a problem since they usually are activities of concern or interest to the entire student body, yet, were not provided for in the finances of any department.

Another fund which automatically increased through the $2.50 raise in student dues, is the Student Union fund. The amount to go into this fund yearly will now be $2000; an increase of $400 per year. The purpose of this fund is to furnish the proposed future Student Union building which will be built by the University to house student body offices such as The Student Body office, and the various publications.

The proposed building will also have lounges and other features designed to make the life of a student more convenient and pleasant. If you are wondering about the Student Union, it hasn't been formed yet, but it will be when the building has been provided, if not sooner. The amount which has accumulated since the Student Union fund was started several years ago, is around $4300; the reason it is not more is that until a year and a half ago money was taken from this fund for other uses. At that time however, a policy was established which prohibits its use for any other purpose.

Group Offers Summer Trips Abroad for as Low as $135

A choice of 22 different summer vacation trips in North and Central America, Europe, and Japan, ranging in length from four weeks to three months, is being offered by the American Youth Hostels.

ONE OF THE greatest attractions about these trips is their low cost, which ranges from $135 to $1325. For details students should write to American Youth Hostels, Inc., 14 West 8th St., New York 11, N.Y.

AYH has had 23 years of experience as a non-profit organization planning hostel trips here and abroad. The program is particularly attractive to those who enjoy traveling light, as most of the trips are via bicycle, with longer distances being covered by train or station wagon with moderate hiking.

MOST GROUPS are composed of ten members with an experienced leader. Duties of group are rotated among the members, giving all "an opportunity to learn and contribute," according to information released by AYH.

In addition to six bicycle trips in the Americas, AYH is sponsoring another "first" in hosting, a four-week camping and station wagon trip through Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Virginia, and Maryland.

A TYPICAL all-summer trip to Europe is an eleven-weeks bicycle jaunt covering Central Europe for the all-inclusive price of $785.

Those who want to combine the advantage of group traveling and the freedom of individual travel can choose one of the "Four-Week Specials." These leave a few weeks after completion of the planned itinerary for independent travel.

Also, for the second year, AYH is offering 4 different Volkswagen camping trips in Europe. This gives an opportunity to see many aspects of European life by combining camping with nights in hostels and small hotels.

IN CONNECTION with these European trips, a publication of the Council on Student Travel, 179 Broadway, New York 7, N.Y., titled "Europe: Sources of Information" would be useful.

Priced at 25 cents, the 24-page booklet is compiled as a service to students traveling on limited budgets. In keeping with that fact, most of the publications listed are free.

THE BOOKLET lists more than 50 current self-help books, pamphlets, directories, and other guides. Jobs in Europe, study and summer projects abroad, travel hints, and handbooks are also listed for the cost-conscious traveler.

For quick reference, the booklet also lists names and addresses of European government tourist offices and railway offices in the United States, and student travel bureaus in Europe.

Bright to Compete In State Contest

Lewis Bright, a junior majoring in speech and drama, will represent Willamette in the annual State Experimental Speaking contest at Oregon State College Thursday.

Contestants are to prepare a talk suitable for television on the topic of a famous orator of their own choice. Bright will speak on the oratory of Robert Ingersoll, famed lecturer and eulogist of the late 1800's and early 1900's in the United States.

Interviewers Coming Soon

Seniors interested in positions in industry and school work should contact Mrs. Mary Thompson in the Registrar's office immediately, as three representatives from various firms and from the Stockton, California school system will be conducting interviews next week.

On Wednesday T. J. Hart of the Electro Metallurgical Company, a division of Union Carbide and Carbon Corporation, will be here at 9 a.m. He will interview seniors, preferably economics, business administration, and engineering majors, and the company requests that all those who apply for interviews read the Electromet Company information binder and the "Three Minute Story." Both these pamphlets are available in the Registrar's office.

Thursday at 9 a.m. Bill McCall of the California Packing Company will interview seniors, again those majoring in economics and business administration.

Friday will find Mr. Boggess, of the Stockton school system, at the Registrar's office interviewing teachers, both elementary and high school. The interviews will begin at 9 a.m. and last until noon.

Appointments for all interviews should be made through Mrs. Thompson in the Registrar's office.

AWS Petitions Due

Petitions for offices in AWS are being accepted in the Student Body office before noon Wednesday, February 13. The candidates will give a short speech in the February 19 convocation.

Half-Time Shows To Begin Tonight

A foul shooting contest has been scheduled as half-time entertainment for tonight's basketball game, Manager Al Seibert announced. A group of youngsters from the YMCA will be participating in this contest, he said.

Tomorrow night will see the Buckaretttes, a girl's drill team from St. Paul's high school, performing during the half-time lull. The girls, The ROTC drill team will show its skill Monday night in the last game of the series.

44 Students to Leave Monday For Band Tour to California

For the first time in six years, Willamette University's band, directed by Maurice Brennan, will make its annual spring concert tour through Southern Oregon and northern California. The tour, which last year was made through Eastern Oregon only, is set for February 11-15.

TRAVELING by chartered Greyhound bus and car and staying in private homes, the nearly 50 selected musicians will leave Salem at 7:35 a.m. Monday and will return late Friday.

The band has been working in its repertoire since the close of the football season. To gain experience, the band has made several one-night performances, the most recent being at Forest Grove and Woodburn last Wednesday.

LARRY KIMBLE and Brennan have taken charge of scheduling the performances which will include stops at Corvallis, Mapleton, Florence, Reedsport, Glide, Roseburg, Eagle Point, Central Point, Medford, Ashland, Mt. Shasta and Klamath Falls. Most of the concerts will be performed in high school auditoriums.

The repertoire includes 13 miscellaneous numbers - including Benguine for Band, Chorale and Fugue in G minor, Relax, Clarinet Cake and Three Candy Cornets, six marches—such as Marcho Polo and American Legion Forever, and two solos—Londonderry Air on the cornet and Rhapsody in Blue on the piano.

MUSICIANS SELECTED for this year's tour are Eugene Corey, Robert Ellis, Jim Fiske, Larry Kelley, Larry Kimble, Dale Jayne, Darrel Wright, Shirley Cazell, Carolyn Miller, Don Miller, Jim Baird, Ruth Applegate and Peggy Doerfler.

Lynn Schrock, Gary Monical, Art Drake, Frank Hale, Ron Kingsley, Chuck Gilchrist, Lloyd Yunker, Larry Halstead, Emilie Nandie, Kenneth Hedeon, Jim Holloway, Roger Huntman, Gerald Johnson, William Shannon, Gordon James and Judith Anderson.

Wendell McLin, Charles Masters, Jim Meyers, Bob Schaefer, Jim Warner, John Vale, Ann Barber, Anne Laswell, Arleen Niemi, Barbara Freitag, Eleanor Knoll, Gail Boden, Elizabeth Laird, Sandra McCabe and Bill Fairbanks.

Talks Praise 'Great Men'

Founders and Benefactors Day ceremonies yesterday honored two more of Willamette's "great men," Abel Ellsworth Eaton, benefactor, and William H. Willson, founder. In addition 23 students became eligible to receive bachelor and master's degrees.

SPEAKING ON William Willson, George Nelson used a quotation from Walter Savage Landor to describe him. "Those who are quite satisfied sit still and do nothing. Those who are not quite satisfied are the sole benefactors of the world." Willson never rejected his responsibilities, Nelson pointed out.

Donna Leonard told of benefactor Eaton, describing his early life in New Hampshire and his teaching days in the West. She pointed out how his strong belief in Christian education led him to interest not only in Willamette, but in public schools as well. Eaton died in 1917, but his contribution lives after him in the red brick building that bears his name.

THOSE ELIGIBLE to receive degrees of bachelor of arts were Gordon Chang, Richard Geer, Franklin Lamb, Won Ho Lee, Gordon Ruff, Nancy Holcomb Caruthers, Alvin Davis, William Kirkman, Donna Leonard, Carol Litchfield, Ruth Nalley, and Marjorie Wood. Myrth Loring Monk received a bachelor of music degree and Treno Belsito a bachelor of laws degree.

Master of education degrees were awarded to George Gottfried, Maxine Heringer, Donald Keiper, Margaret Pierce, George Williams, Lowell Yeager, Donald Humphries, and Irving Miller. Jean Turnbull received a master of music education degree.

Cats Edged 49-47; Bounce Back 72-49

COACH JOHNNY Lewis' Bearcats moved into the thick of the Northwest conference basketball race, after trouncing the Lewis and Clark Pioneers last Tuesday night, 72-49. The victory gave the Willamette cagers a 3-3 record and put them in third place in the Northwest conference standings.

Last Saturday night Willamette traveled to Portland where the Pioneers squeaked out a 49-47 win over the Bearcats. The game was a real nip-and-tuck affair with the Lewismen experiencing a very cold first half. In the second half the Bearcats caught fire and tied the score at 36-36 with about seven minutes gone in the second period.

WILLAMETTE gained the lead at 46-44 when Don Hoy flipped in two charity tosses with three minutes left to play. The Pioneers' big center, Loren Michelsen, duplicated Hoy's free throws and the score was knotted at 46-46. The Bearcats went ahead on freshman Jim Thompson's gift toss, but Lewis and Clark's Duane Brady hit a jump shot and one free throw to cinch the game for the Pioneers.

WILLAMETTE regained its poise Tuesday night, as it led all the way and was seldom in danger in rolling to a 72-49 win over Lewis and Clark. The Pioneers were constantly harried by the ball-hawking defense of the Bearcats. This contributed to the sloppy ball handling of the Lewis and Clark cagers.

The Bearcats were out front at half time, 32-19. After 10 minutes of the second half, the Lewismen were leading 47-31. They continued to score as Jim Thompson, reserve Bearcat forward, poured in 13 points in the last eight minutes.

DON HOY was high scorer for the Bearcats and the game with 18 points. Vic Backlund had 13, followed by Neil Causbie's 10. Duane Brady hit the hemp for 16 points to lead the Pioneers. Leading the Bearcat's exceptionally fine defense were Mas Watanabe and Hoy.

Shooting percentages tell part of the story. Willamette hit 28 field goals in 75 attempts for a .375 mark. Lewis and Clark scored 18 for 66 and a .273 average. Willamette grabbed 58 rebounds to the Pioneer's 38.

Volleyball Opens

Intramural volleyball swung into action this week with games being played Wednesday and Thursday nights and one on tap for tomorrow morning. The league will play its games on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, except when Tuesday night basketball interrupts the schedule.

Cagers Set for C of I

THE WILLAMETTE Bearcats tangle with the invading College of Idaho Coyotes this evening in the first of a two-game series. The Coyotes are defending Northwest conference champions, and are expected to give the Bearcats a real battle.

The Bearcat cagers will be in top shape for the two-night stand, and are determined to stay in the race for the conference leadership.

JVs Win Two, Stay Unbeaten

COACH JERRY LONG'S Bearkittens continued their winning ways in Northwest conference play, as they picked up two more wins against the Lewis and Clark JVs. Last Saturday the Bearkittens trounced the Pioneer JVs 87-57. Larry Lynn scored 26 points for Willamette.

The Willamette JVs made it two straight last Tuesday night, as they rolled up a 77-42 victory. Once again, Larry Lynn was the top point producer with 18, followed by Lee Weaver with 16.

Tonight the Bearkittens take on Surroz Motors in the preliminary game.

It's a puzzlement:

When you're old enough to go to college, you're old enough to go out with girls. When you're old enough to go out with girls, who needs college? Oh well, there's always Coke.
