A HARD WON VICTORY.

McMinnville Is Defeated in Close Contest--67-59.

Sixty-seven to fifty-nine was the score by which Willamette defeated McMinnville Saturday in as interesting a meet as was ever held in Salem. With the two scores advancing steadily side by side, it was not until Miller and Ford made that sensational finish in the last event of the day, the 440 yard run, that the contest was decided.

At first it looked rather gloomy for the supporters of the cardinal and gold, when at the end of the fourth event the score stood 25-11 in favor of the visitors. But just then something unexpected happened. It was in the high hurdles and Spires was the man who did the deed. Everybody knew that Spires was a good man, but even his most ardent admirers had not dared to dream of his beating McMinnville's crack man, Day, and when he hit the tape several feet ahead of that gentleman, the effect was electrical and such as can only be seen on a Willamette field. This seemed to give an inspiration to the men, for, from that time on we forged steadily to the front. The McMinnville men were not fellows who lose easily however, and they made a plucky fight for victory. Toward the close of the meet their score crawled up to within one point of ours, then they tied us, the next event found us one ahead and the last event gave us the meet by eight points.

Day was the star point winner for the visitors and made the highest individual score of the day, 20 points. Other good men were Gray, Cummins, Sievers and Dodson.

For the local men there was no particular star unless it was Love, who won first place in his two events, the discus throw and shot put. Love has made wonderful progress in the few weeks he has been training and gives promise of being able with another season under "Dad" Moulton of meeting any weight man in the northwest.

Other men who earned their "W" and the plaudits of the crowd were Dart, Miller, Ford, Hewitt, James, Whiteman and Judd. Miller, who was not in the best condition, disappointed his friends in the short dashes, but fully redeemed himself in the 440 yard run which was the event of the day. Judd, who should easily have won the mile was ill nearly the whole of last week and in consequence was in no condition to run.

"Dad" Moulton was highly pleased with the showing his men made. In speaking of the 440 yard run, he said it was the

the city.

Following is the score by events:

Pole vault—Cummins, McMinnville; Winslow, Willamette; Thompson, McMinnville; tie, 9 1/2 feet.

50-Yard dash—Gray, McMinnville; Dart, Willamette; Miller, Willamette; time, 6 sec.

Half mile run—Cummins, McMinnville; Ford, Willamette; Whiteman, Willamette; time, 2:10 4-5.

100-Yard dash—Day, McMinnville; Gray, McMinnville; Miller, Willamette; time, 11 sec.

120-Yard hurdles—Spires,

TRAINER MOULTON LEAVES.

Saturday evening a merry, jolly bunch of gay, happy students, with the fire of victory still burning brightly, assembled at the depot to bid farewell to Trainer Moulton.

Mr. Moulton certainly deserves great credit for the way in which he handled the raw material from which he had to pick our track team. We did not break any records but we did develop some good men and are well satisfied with the start we have made.

The failure of Columbia University and Albany College to meet us cut our schedule quite short and released Mr. Moulton sooner than was expected. In the short time that he has been with us Mr. Moulton has won the hearts of all the men by his pleasant gentlemanly manner at all times. Verily, he is a "grand old man," and it was with real feeling that the cheers were given in his honor just before the train started. Then he took off his cap and in a few neat sentences expressed his pleasure at having been with us, and his intention of returning next year. This was greeted with hearty cheers, the engine puffed and in a few seconds our fine old "Dad" Moulton was speeding on his way south, his ears doubtless ringing with lusty Willamette cheering, his hands filled with fragrant Oregon roses.

Before going he expressed himself as being well pleased with his stay among us. He said he had never handled a nicer bunch of fellows or as he expressed it, "a better fighting bunch". Every man did the best that was in him at every time and if any one failed to do what was expected of him it was because he was not in condition.

best "fight" he had ever seen in any meet. Two weeks ago McMinnville defeated Dallas by ten points, last week Dallas defeated Willamette by fourteen points. In view of these facts, Willamette's victory over McMinnville Saturday would be highly gratifying to any trainer, since it showed the wonderful improvement made in one week's time.

The only accident during the meet was a slight one and happened to Gray, of McMinnville. While running in the 220 yard hurdles he dislocated his arm at the shoulder and was compelled to drop out soon after starting.

The crowd was small but enthusiastic. Prof. McCall was the only member of the faculty present, since Prof. Hawley, the other enthusiastic supporter of student enterprises was not in

EDITORIAL.

We wish to say a word in regard to the coming of Henry Laurance Southwick, in order that students may realize what an opportunity is about to be presented us. Mr. Southwick is at the head of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston, and stands as a reader without a peer in this or any other country. It is only through the fact that he was a classmate of Prof. Savage, that he comes to Salem.

He is a man of strong personality and broad culture. His work possesses the attractiveness and force that win the public, together with the literary finish and artistic beauty which command the praise of scholars and thinkers. The "Cardinal King," which he will give in Salem, is an interpretation of Bulwer Lytton's romantic drama, "Richelieu" and is one of his best readings.

No student should fail to take advantage of this rare opportunity to hear such a talented man.

Off for Gearhart.

The Willamette delegation of the Northwest Student Conference of the Y. M. C. A. left for Gearhart Friday afternoon. The delegation was composed of the following men: Miller, Markel, Winans, Belknap, Goudge and Hewitt. The conference will last ten days, the last day being Sunday, June 5. A letter received from one of the men states that the conference is in full swing and that great things are expected.

The census embraces seventeen millison women. How would you like to be the census?

Pat was anxious to become an American citizen and was asked the following questions:

"Have you read the Declaration of Independence?"

Pat—"No."

"Have you read the constitution of the United States?"

"No, sir; I haven't read either."

"Well, have you read any thing; what have you read?"

Pat—"Red hair, sir."

On the evening of April 8th in the Assembly Hall, the Willamette Glee Club rendered one of the most entertaining programs of the season. Every number was excellent and every rendition was encored. The act from "Robin Hood" was particularly fine and received great applause. Mr. Zecher amused the audience greatly with his impersonations. Owing to counter attraction the audience was not as large as the program deserved—Ilakawin's Pendleton High School.

JUDD IS CAPTAIN.

Local Meet June 11.

At a call meeting of the track men, last week, W. C. Judd, was chosen to captain the team next year, and a committee consisting of Judd, Ford and Winslow, was appointed to arrange for a local meet.

Judd has been taking an active part in athletics ever since he has been in school, and the honor which has been bestowed upon him is richly merited. He has been a member of both the basket and foot ball team as well as a track man, and has been a good point winner for Willamette in every instance. The men have confidence in him and he will, without doubt, prove an efficient captain.

The committee chosen to arrange for the local meet, has completed its labors and the meet will take place June 11. The sides will be designated as the Cardinals and the Old Golds.

Those who will defend the Cardinal banner are, Dart, James, Matthews, Riddel, Catlin, Ford, Judd, Talbot, Hunt, Whipple, Wright and L. Whipple. The defenders of Old Gold are, Miller, Fisher, Whiteman, Shanks, Spires, Daddow, Winslow, Phillips, Unruh and Love.

The two teams are very evenly matched and the meet will undoubtedly be very exciting. Every student should consult the bulletin board and find out which side he is on, and be on hand to cheer his side on to victory.

ASSOCIATIONS.

Sunday afternoon the Y.M. & Y. W. C. A. held a joint meeting in the Society Hall. Rev. Dawson, father of Prof. Dawson, gave an address on "Master Workmen for the Master." The attendance was fair notwithstanding the good weather. Those present certainly felt the hour to be one well spent. The interesting personality of the speaker, his natural delivery, his occasional humor and the many helpful points which he brought out, made an impression which will aid in the work for the Master at Willamette.

Earl Riddell, who was one of our strongest association men last year, has just returned from University of California and is shaking hands with old friends once more. Mr. Riddell was honored by the U. C. Association with the position of chairman of the religious meetings committee which is a responsible office in such a large institution. We are delighted to have him with us again, though we will miss him greatly next fall, the more so if his brother Wallace accompanies him.

COLLEGIAN EXAMINATION.

All Papers In Friday, June 10.

All those who wish to take part in the Collegian Competitive examination must have their manuscripts in the hands of Prof. Dawson, on or before 12 o'clock p. m., Friday, June 10.

The following sections from article 8, of the constitution, will explain the rules.

Sec. 3. The editor-in-chief and two assistant editors shall be chosen by a competitive examination. Each contestant shall be required to write four (4) editorials, the aggregate of which shall not exceed 2000 words, and two news articles consisting of between 500 and 2000 words each.

Sec. 4. Said editorials and news articles to be examined and marked by a committee from the faculty. This committee shall consist of three members; the head of the English Department as chairman, and two other members appointed by the faculty.

Sec. 5. Each contestant shall have two envelopes in the hands of the faculty committee by the time designated by the faculty committee each year. The first shall contain a typewritten copy of said article and a fictitious name. The second shall contain a fictitious name and the real name of the contestant.

Sec. 6. The one receiving the highest marking shall be declared editor-in-chief. The two receiving the next highest marking shall be declared assistant editors.

PHILODORIAN.

"We had a good program tonight" was the expression of one of the Philodorian last Friday night and this judgment was correct in its estimate. Although neither of the two debaters on the negative were present, Winslow and Glover undertook the task of making things interesting for the affirmative and a very snappy and rhetorical discussion ensued. The following program was rendered:

Violin solo, Murry Shanks; Essay, E. J. Winans. Composition, Burgess Ford. Lecture, W. G. Trill. Magazine Article, Soward.

Debate, Resolved: That the Pension Policy of the Republican Party has been wise. Affirmative, Ray Marquam, D. H. Mosher. Negative, W. C. Winslow, R. C. Glover.
