Haircut Harmony
Tomorrow at 8
At North Salem

Year's Concert Series Deficit Estimated at $700

Harmony, Not Haircuts, By Quartets Tomorrow

More than the two bits that used to buy a shave and a haircut will be needed to see eight barber shop quartets in action tomorrow night at the North Salem High School auditorium, but members of the audience won't be clipped.

HARMONY, not haircuts, has been planned by the Salem Rotary Club and Cascade chapter of the SPEBSQSA, with profits to provide four scholarships for University students.

Tickets are $2.40, $1.80 and $1.20, with all seats reserved, and may be obtained from Dean Gregg, Harold Jory or Richard Petrie on the campus. Stevens and Son Jewelers and all banks are also handling tickets.

The Forcep Four from the Oregon Medical School, winners of the 1954 festival, will challenge seven other quartets, including the Rose City Four from Portland; the Oswego Four, Cordrangers and Four Gonians, also from Portland; the Cord Cats of Salem; Miller Tones from Springfield; and the Seafarers from Everett, Wash.

PANTOMIMIST Robert Perkins of Coos Bay will provide additional entertainment.

Dr. Smith reminded students in convocation Tuesday of the event, and urged student and faculty attendance.

May Vote Continues

Marie DeHarpport, Sally Jo Grimm Schaefer, and Kay Kramer Cooper were elected finalists on the May Court in student body elections this week.

Final balloting to choose the 1955 May Queen is being held today and Monday.

From the three girls one will be chosen queen and the other two will serve as her princesses for weekend activities May 6, 7 and 8.

May Weekend Chairman Chet Daniels named his committees this week and outlined his plans for the campus event honoring high school seniors slated May 6-8.

Members of the general committee are: Page Bailey, Bob Taylor, Tom Schrock and Dale Patton. Dance chairman is Frank Dobbins; parade, Don Klindworth, and entertainment, Bob Kauffman.

Secretary Injured In Two-Car Collision

Mrs. Lillian Haytack, Willamette veteran's secretary, who was injured in an automobile accident Saturday, will be moved to Salem from St. Helens hospital at Chehalis soon.

Extent of her injuries is not yet known, according to Registrar Harold Jory.

Mrs. Haytack was injured in a head-on collision with another car south of Chehalis. She received severe face, head, ankle and possible chest injuries. A woman in the other car was killed.

West Point Beckons Debate Duo Monday

Willamette debaters Fenton Hughes and H. Paul Johnson leave Portland by plane Monday night bound for the National Invitational Tournament at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, New York.

The two senior men, one of 16 teams from eight districts in the United States invited to take part in the Tournament, are the fourth Willamette team to represent the Pacific Northwest in the last five years.

Willamette's selection was announced in March at the Linfield Tournament as unanimous choice of district coaches. University of Idaho was awarded the second bid, but because they could not attend, a runoff contest between the University of Oregon and Pacific University qualified Pacific for the West Point Tournament.

Willamette and Pacific are representing District II, which includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

Dr. Howard W. Runkel, director of forensics, will accompany Hughes and Johnson to what he termed the "premier national event" of collegiate debate.

While guests of the Academy, debaters and their coaches will attend the traditional military reception, banquet, and dress parade review.

The instrumental ensemble accompanying the choir will include Larry Monk, Lois Monk, Marilyn Hanthorn, Eugene Corey, Phyllis Muhs, Jean Thomas, Ted Jameson and Rosemary Weaver.

A special summer workshop in voice, sponsored by the National Association of Teachers of Singing will be offered August 1 through 5.

The staff will include Bernard U. Taylor, Julliard School of Music; Sonia Shanova, well known opera singer now teaching in Chicago; Lloyd Sunderman of the University of Toledo, an authority in the field of choral music; and prominent teachers in the Pacific Northwest.

In addition to these workshops, 22 faculty members will instruct some 39 courses. Workshops in audio-visual aids and speech arts will also be offered.

Instruction will be offered in biology, chemistry, economics, education, English, history, physical education, political science, speech and drama and music.

Two Year Loss Listed at $1400

The students' concert series wound up in the red for the season's efforts Wednesday night to the tune of about $700. Concert Manager Bill Briggs said the figure was only an estimate.

WHEN THE report was given to The Collegian by Briggs, series staffers had been unable to tally up all operating expenses for the last concert nor sum up the total gate for the Iva Kitchell appearance which closed out the year.

Incomplete estimates indicate that students have become responsible for about a $1400 loss over the last two seasons. Briggs estimated the operation deficit this year would be about the same as a year ago.

New Concert Manager Bill Nelson, elected some time ago by Student Council, predicted that the students would "very definitely" have artists to view next year.

HE SAID it may be difficult to arrange for artists on an "individual" basis as directed by Council, but he thought it might be possible to schedule a series on a percentage basis in the new Fine Arts building.

This year's loss will have to be made up with Student Body savings, said Chuck Seagraves, student body treasurer.

60 Deans of Women To Gather on Campus

With 60 deans gathering on the campus, a meeting of the Oregon Association of Deans of Women and Girls begins tomorrow morning.

Registration for the Saturday conference will be from 9 to 10 a.m. in the Lausanne parlors with Cap and Gown as the hostesses.

At 10:15 the Oregon deans will hear Dr. Lester A. Kirkendall speak on "Interrelationship—a Focus for Counseling."

Salem Mayor Commends Frosh For Spirit in Offering Civic Aid

Speakers to Compete In Montana Tourney

Rosemary Bower, Donald Laws and Karl Freerksen will represent the University at the annual Tau Kappa Alpha Forensic Tournament April 21-23 at Montana State University, Missoula. Bower and Laws will enter debate and extemporaneous speaking while Freerksen will participate in oratory and interpretative reading.

The Willamette speakers will be competing with students from 25 colleges and universities from nine western states.

is the class of 1958, which recently voted to offer its services to Salem for some community project. The mayor and city council enthusiastically received the idea and a definite date will be selected soon. J. L. Franzen, city manager, and C. A. Barclay, city purchasing agent, are working with the class.

To be completed before Memorial Day, the project is the cleaning up of the old Pioneer cemetery, in which many early Oregon notables are buried. The city will provide all equipment; the students are to provide the manpower. Diane Wickstrom and her Ideas committee are organizing the project now.

"We do have a civic responsibility to do something for our city," stated Wayne Carr, class president. He called the project "the biggest thing that happened around here in a long time," and added that townspeople would know where to go when they wanted something done.

Infirmary to Make Available New Salk Polio Preventative

The newly perfected Salk polio vaccine, found to be over 90 per cent effective in preventing paralytic polio, will be available to Willamette University students within a few weeks, according to word from Dr. Ralph Purvine, University physician.

Students must be previously signed up at the infirmary for these vaccinations which will be given on a first come first served basis if the supply is short. A very nominal fee will be charged for the shots and they will be handled on a cash basis only.

To be effective in preventing polio two shots of the vaccine, spaced two to four weeks apart will be given. This spacing best pulls the trigger of the body's gun mechanism, flooding billions of protective antibodies into the bloodstream. It is these antibodies which build up a protective wall against paralytic polio that will produce immunization from the disease for at least four or five months.

Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., University of Michigan epidemiologist, headed the long months of research in determining the actual effectiveness of the vaccine developed by Dr. Jonas Salk, brilliant Pittsburgh scientist.

The vaccine, made of safely killed polio virus, reportedly is incredibly safe and amazingly free from the kind of reactions which always effect some people no matter what the drug is.

Statistics have been made available after months of experimentation with the drug giving definite evidence of its protection against the long dreaded crippling, polio.

Government Jobs

The government seeks to entice a share of college graduates into the federal service each year. But as the Civil Service Commission confesses, federal service has not had the glittering appeal of high wages private industry is able to hold out.

Another popular objection of eager graduates who are looking for a fast-moving career is that an employee of the government becomes "pigeon-holed" and advancement is slow in coming.

Dr. John W. Macy, executive director, U. S. Civil Service Commission, gave answers to these and other objections to federal service in a recent address. On the matter of salaries, he says the picture is improving. His implication is that the low-salary ceiling in government is more easily attainable than top pay of $11,000 in private industry; he pointed out that in 1951 only ten percent of all American families had incomes in this range—"and this included all the millionaires and multimillionaires in the country."

The fact that advancement might "take too long" is justifiable in terms of maintaining a "sound and democratic merit system," he said.

Still, we fear the college graduate is more interested solely in a stable, paying position than in "work of vital importance to the national welfare and security." Government jobs become politically sensitive too easily these days.

It's much easier to avoid the risk. And besides, the almighty dollar becomes as important as the almighty grade point.

Exhausted, But Still Singing, Choir Returns to Oregon Rain

The a cappella choir returned from an 11-day tour of Idaho and Eastern Oregon late Monday night still singing despite the fact that the group had sung 16 concerts during the tour.

The group, which returned to Salem immediately following their evening concert in Eugene, was greeted by a few interested students and a torrential rainstorm, in direct contrast to the sunny and cloudless skies the choir enjoyed in Idaho. Despite this fact, an audible sigh of relief was heard as the group entered the green Willamette valley.

Sickness was the big problem for the group this year, as the usual flat tire and bus trouble failed to occur along the 1500-mile route. After the concert in Burley, Idaho, a local doctor there set up facilities in the basement of the First Methodist Church to mass-examine those suffering from sore throats and various minor ailments. No blame for the sickness was placed on the choir's almost constant diet of meat loaf and string beans.

Don Gleckler, director, who had suffered the embarrassment of "Happy Birthdays" from the choir in every town along the way got the real thing in Burley. Jean Thomas, whose father is minister at the Methodist Church there, baked a cake and the choir presented Gleckler with 18 rolls for his player piano. His birthday is really in November. Gifts were also given to the bus drivers and Mrs. F. G. Wissenback, chaperone.

Senior Fittings

Seniors who were not fitted with caps and gowns for Freshman Glee must be fitted in the bookstore at once in preparation for graduation exercises.

WUPs to Meet

Members of Willamette University Players will meet in the Little Theater of Waller Hall Tuesday evening at 6:45.

Purpose of the meeting to be two-fold, according to Jan Weber, president of WUPs. Final arrangements and coordinating plans will be made for the semi-formal banquet-awards ceremony scheduled for next month. The second purpose to be selection of backstage crews for the May weekend production of "Lo and Behold!" by the University drama department, scheduled May 3, 4 and 5.

April 29 Deadline For Doney Contest

The Doney oratorical contest will be held in the gym during convocation Tuesday, May 17. Speeches will be judged on thought, delivery, and composition, and must last no longer than 10 minutes. All students interested should contact Dr. Howard Runkel, speech coach, before April 29.

Open to all University students, the contest is held in memory of Paul Doney, 1920, son of Dr. and Mrs. Carl G. Doney. Dr. Doney was president of Willamette from 1915 to 1934.

The winner will receive two-thirds, the runner-up one-third, of the income from a $1000 endowment set up by the Doney.

Impish Iva Kitchell Presents Delightful Satire, Buffoonery

By RON HERSHBERGER
Collegian Writer

Iva Kitchell, dance satirist, presented the most amusing and delightful program of the season Wednesday night.

THE PROGRAM was intended for one thing only—to entertain. To this end Miss Kitchell did everything from satires on the classical forms of ballet to sheer buffoonery. She provided as many laughs as possible for a one-woman show.

She is a dance satirist—and a very good one—but the whole program was certainly not made up of dancing. The Ladies in Pink and Blue, the movie scene, etc., were pantomimes done by a true artist. Her movements were precise and easily comprehended. Yet she had an unstudied air which retained the apparent ease and informality of the program.

MISS KITCHELL was as appealing while completing her various hairdos and costume changes as she was in her dancing. Her facial expressions, particularly her mischievous eyes and mobile mouth, had the audience holding their sides.

Two of the dances, the Non-Objective (Modern School) and the Scarf-Garland Dances, were nothing less than the ridiculous personified.

In the satire on the modern dance, she looked as bleak and stark as possible. Her dancing emphasized all the grotesqueness and agonizing melodrama of the Modern School. Her emphasis of ungainly extensions could not have been more pointed.

Miss Kitchell is a superb performer. With all her clowning, it was obvious that she is also a fine serious dancer. Her winning personality and impish ways earn a place with the best of entertainers.

T'n'T at Ten

No convocation will be held Tuesday.

The University choir, under the direction of Donald M. Glecker, will give a special performance during Thursday chapel.

Freshman Glee may not have been televised, but the Sigma Chi 12-man chorus has turned "professional" for a debut on TV on June 26, courtesy of Ed Sullivan.

The Sigma Chi Centennial will be held in June in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Willamette's chapter was chosen to have their 12-man chorus entertain at the festivities.

THIS CHORUS will be used as the nucleus for a 70-man singing group that will appear with the Ed Sullivan show, and possibly on Steve Allen's program. The former TV program is going to introduce the finalists and the winner of the national Sweetheart of Sigma Chi contest, and will have the larger group sing for his audiences. "The Creation" will be sung by only the Willamette chapter, though.

The night of the Sweetheart Ball, the chorus will be heard singing their popular "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi," accompanied by Ralph Flanagan and his band.

THIRTY-ONE freshman men and women were initiated into Phi Eta Sigma and Alpha Lambda Delta respectively, last night before a banquet held at Lausanne hall.

Initiation for the men's and women's organizations was held individually, and then the two groups met for a banquet.

at which time Dr. Vojtech Andic was guest speaker.

Advisors for the two scholarship groups are Dr. Helen Pearce and Dean Mark Hatfield. Officers were elected and will be announced in the next issue of the Collegian.

Members of Beta Alpha Gamma, sophomore women's honorary, will entertain freshmen women at their annual party at Lausanne hall Wednesday evening at 7:30.

IT'S CERTAINLY easy to tell who went to California for spring vacation. Those tans are more enviable than the few that were sported during the skiing season. Maybe it's because of the warm weather connected with the manner in which the tans were obtained! Those who stayed in Oregon are going to have to resort to sun lamps soon!

Mary Jane Thomas and John McClarry were married at the First Presbyterian church in Salem over the holidays.

The bride is a sophomore majoring in political science, and Boline is an employee of Reimann Sheet Metal company.

Engagement, Wedding Plans Told With Toys, Candy, Poems

A toy kitten "let out of the bag," announced the engagement of Arda Lien and Roger Berryhill to members of Delta Gamma shortly before vacation. A poem revealing the betrothal was pinned to a ribbon around the kitten's neck.

Miss Lien is a sophomore majoring in biology. She is past president of Alpha Lambda Delta, assistant editor of the Fusser's Guide, and will serve as president of Panhellenic for the coming year.

Berryhill is from Salem and at present is serving with the U. S. Navy.

The traditional box of candy with an enclosed poem announced to the members of Delta Gamma the forthcoming marriage of Mary Ann Fischer to Dave Anderson.

Miss Fischer, a freshman, is majoring in journalism and is a feature reporter for the Collegian. She was project chairman for the Distinguished Artist Series as well as for May Weekend.

Anderson is a junior education major, and is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta.

Bearcats Await Coming Games; Lose Openers

After a week of rainouts, the Willamette University Bearcat baseball team hopes for better weather as they take on the Oregon College of Education Wolves this afternoon at Monmouth. They face the Portland University Pilots tomorrow afternoon in at 2:30 p.m. clash at McCulloch field.

THIS NEXT Tuesday, the Bearcats open their 1955 Northwest conference play against the Pacific Badgers, when they tangle with the Badgers in a double header at McCulloch field.

Because of weather conditions and lack of adequate practice, the Bearcats have taken the back seat so to speak. They fell victim to the powerful Oregon Ducks last week in two games, 11-0 and 13-3. Earlier the Willamette's lost a 3-2 contest to the OSC Beavers that lasted 15 innings.

For the OCE crew, Coach Bob Livingston will be fielding almost an entirely youthful and inexperienced yet determined, squad, when the Jassons clash with the Monmouth team. Possible pitching assignment for the Wolves may go to Freshman Kelly Hoy from Neahkaknie, who hurled an impressive win over the 1954's NWC champs, the Linfield Wildcats.

THE PORTLAND PILOTS have another strong crew this year with top pitchers like Lenny Brooks, a left hander, Bill Witilia, who lost a 3-0 four hitter to the hard hitting Oregon Ducks, and Joe Erceg and Kragerud as top reserves.

For the Bearcats, Coach John Lewis has nominated Andy George to do the mound chores against the Monmouth squad with Gino Pieretti getting the nod for the Portland contest. The other half of the battery will see veteran Dale Patton and freshman Vic Backlund dividing the catching duties.

For the Jason infield, veteran Al Brown will be stationed at first base along with letter winners Bill Nelson at second base, Terry Ziegelman at shortstop and Harvey Nefendorf at third base.

In the outfield, Lewis has assigned monogram winners Gary Shugarts and Jerry McCallister, along with Ed Lipscomb, to patrol the outfield area.

The intramural volleyball action got under way again this past Tuesday evening, as the Betas dominated play with two wins in A league competition.

THE FIRST game saw the Law School stopping the Sigma Chi's by a 15-5 and 15-13 score. In the second contest, the Betas won by forfeit from the Baxter Hall aggregation.

In the 7:45 p.m. games, the first contest was won by the Phi Delt's by a forfeit from the Baxter Hall team. The second game was all Betas, as they put the stopper on the Sigma Alpha Epsilon squad, 15-3 and 15-2.

WEDNESDAY'S action saw the SAE's vs. the Sigs, Wits vs. the Baxter Hall team at 7 p.m. The Phi Delt's vs. Law School and the Fire House Five vs. the Baxter aggregation were scheduled for 7:45 p.m.

Tomorrow's volleyball action will pit the Phi Delt's against the SAE's and Baxter Hall vs. the Lawyers at 8 a.m., with the Betas going against Baxter and the Phi Delt's battling the Law School at 8:45 a.m.

Betas Drop Lawyers For Bowling Honors

The second half of the bowling league came to a close just before the spring vacation as the Baxter Hall squad beat the Betas by a 3-1 count in their make-up game. The second half title went to the Law School.

In the playoff game between the first half winners, the Betas, the Law School men were beaten by 67 pins including a handicap or a score of 3-2. Bud Lafky was high for the Law School with 482, as was Bill Bjorkman of the Betas with 459. This marked the first time in the eight-year history of Willamette University bowling competition that the Betas have won. The trophy was presented by the ex-champion, Sigma Chi's.

Oregon State Whips Bearcat Golfers 16-2

The Willamette golfers in their initial outing of the current '55 season, lost to the Oregon State Beavers at Corvallis Country Club last Tuesday afternoon. The swingers, playing on a rain-soaked turf, were trounced 16-2.

Fifth Annual Willamette Relays See Marks Fall; Benson Wins

By WES McMULLEN
Collegian Sports Writer

Some 5000 fans gathered at McCulloch stadium Saturday, April 2, to watch more than 2000 athletes go through their paces at the Willamette relays. New records were the rule rather than the exception in the mammoth afternoon affair.

RESULTS OF the Willamette-Oregon College of Education track meet that was held this past Wednesday were not available at Collegian press time and will be carried in next week's paper.

At the Relays, the big attraction, Fortune Gordien, world's record holder in the discus event, heaved the platter 180 feet 11 inches to top the Olympic mark by one foot.

JUST AS exciting as the long heave of Gordien's was the showing of Salem area athletes in the meet. Willamette's hurdle ace, Dean Benson, cleared the 120-yard lows in the swift time of 14.6, eclipsing the old mark by more than five-tenths of a second. He was running against such stiff competition as Ken Mischall of the Mather air force base, Dave Klicker and Dean Singer of Washington.

Willamette also grabbed a spot in the college 440-yard relay. They came in third behind Lewis and Clark and Whitworth. L-C set a new record in this event, traveling the course in :44.2.
